The Hon. Alfred Duranleau, Minister of Marine in the Bennett Cabinet, calls upon us all to develop "that public spirit which will bring every Canadian to a realization of his duty to take an interest in public affairs, and to contribute his share, no matter how small, of the national development and progress."

* * * *

Every Canadian citizen should take an interest in public affairs; unfortunately every Canadian doesn't. The same thing applies in all countries. Only a relatively few persons really study politics. Some others are interested to the extent of being enthusiastic followers of one party or the other. Some of them know why; others do not. And then we have a not inconsiderable percentage which never troubles its head about the matter at all. It may complain because it thinks taxes are too high or because it doesn't like the color of the new motor car markers or something of that kind, but its interest in public affairs goes no deeper. In this latter class we find many persons who do not even bother to vote.

Despite this rather gloomy situation, we are inclined to believe that more intelligent interest is being taken in political matters than was the case even a few years ago. Perhaps the most encouraging feature of all lies in the fact that people are thinking less about parties and more about principles and achievements; in other words, more about the real progress of the nation, the province or the municipality, as the case may be. There was a time in Canada—and not so long ago at that—when even municipal elections were, very generally, run on straight party lines. It was ridiculous, certainly, but none the less true. When the end of the year came, each party started to line up its slate for the various vacant offices and then a mighty battle followed. The winning side, of course, was usually the one which had the best organization or the best arguments for appealing to the small group of more-or-less neutrals which usually held the balance of power. Happily, straight partyism has gone largely out of fashion in municipal affairs. It is a good thing that this is so. There was never any sound reason for its existence in the first place. It was absurd, because the very principles that make for partyism in federal affairs cannot possibly exist in municipalities. To stick to party lines in the civic field might mean that any municipality might easily lose the services—as mayor or alderman—of some unusually qualified man, merely because he happened to be on the weaker party ticket.

In a broader way, too party lines have broken down. This is particularly true, of course, in the provincial field. It is very hard for party leaders to divide the people into the old-fashioned two camps. Ontario has seen this very clearly in recent years. Mr. Ferguson's Government was elected in 1923, 1926 and 1929; for instance, with thousands of Liberals—nominal Liberals, at least—voting for it. To many of these Liberals it never occurred that they were working against their party. They were voting for Mr. Ferguson or one of his candidates not because these candidates happened to be Conservatives, but because they appealed in a policy or a personal way. In the 1923 election, obviously, many were voting for the purpose of putting the Drury administration out of business. To vote Conservative seemed to them the surest way to achieve this end, and they cast their ballots accordingly. In 1926 and 1929 it was a matter of expressing their confidence in a very creditable administration.

Even in the federal field, where there is an essential difference between the two traditional parties, where a conflict of principles and actual thinking comes about, there is far less partyism than was the case a few years ago. People warm up at election time, of course, and it is never difficult to find intense partisans wherever you go, but the percentage of neutrals, the percentage of independent thinkers who may vote one way this time and the other way the next, grows larger and larger. It is an excellent thing for the country that this is so. It means that the party leaders must be more careful, must do more specifying and less generalizing, must have a more attractive policy than would be the case were it merely a matter of cracking the party whip. It means, too, that governments must be more evidently "on the job;" that they must pay greater attention to business; that they must think less of party advancement and more of national interests.

* * * *

The most obvious way for every good Canadian to promote the progress of his great country, is to take a keen and intelligent interest in public affairs. Public opinion can accomplish almost anything, but public opinion only becomes effective when the great masses of the people show that they are interested. That is the public spirit for which Mr. Duranleau called, in his address this week. That is the spirit that every Canadian should encourage. Let us make it our ideal to have Canada the best-informed and the most politically-minded nation on earth.—Border Cities Star.

BURNING BEAUTY

By TEMPLE BAILEY

(To Be Continued)

Rickey turned quickly and the muffin dropped from the fork into the fire.

"She won't?"

"No."

"Oh, why not, Jinny?"

"I've told you."

"Well, if you don't go, I shall," Rickey said, blazing, and in the silence which followed he dug the scorched muffin out of the coals and flung it in the firebox.

Then he stuck another muffin on the fork and issued his ultimatum: "You can stick around this place forever if you wish. But I shan't. I'm stale on my story and I need a change."

And that was the end of it as far as Anthony was concerned, but after he had gone, Virginia and her brother had it out together.

"I'm not afraid of Tony's plutocrats You might think of me a little. Things are going wrong with the story. I'm half wild about it . . ."

She went up to him and laid a hand on his shoulder, "Really, Rickey?"

"Yes. What I've written is all right. But I've come to a dead stop. I must get away from it for a time if I can. And this seems to be the perfect opportunity. And then you balk . . ." He drew away from her, "there's no real reason why you can't go."

"Yes. There is. Oh, Rickey, can't you see?"

"I can see you are acting like a—fool."

Her hand went to her heart, "Rickey are you—mad, to say such things to me?"

"No, I'm not mad. I know what you mean. Tony's in love with you—Well, what difference does that make? You needn't promise him anything. We can go and have a good time—and perhaps if you know him better—" His arm went around her, "Be a good sport, Jinny, and come."

It was hard when he was in that mood to resist him, and at last Virgina gave in. Having capitulated, she found herself anticipating the event. She was young and loved a good time, "And you must have some clothes," Rickey assured her. "It will pay in the end. We can dip a bit into our principal. When the story get over I can pay it back."

She knew she was not wise to let him do it. She knew too that she had yielded her strength to his weakness.

Since the thing was done, however, she resolved to make the best of it, and the next morning she went shopping. At first she tried the less expensive places thenentering, half-fearfully, a smart salon, she saw on one of the lovely models a gold lace gown. It was extravagantly expensive but she tried it on, and when she saw herself in the mirror she hardly dared look again it was so wonderful.

But she would not buy it.

"May I lay it aside?" the saleswoman asked her.

Virginia shook her head. "I can't afford it."

Yet all the way home she had a vision of herself in that gown dancing with Tony at the Bleeckers' ball, and of Tony's mother looking on!

It was snowing when she got out of the bus, a sluggish November snowfall, and it was very cold. Virginia walked rapidly down one of the side streets to her favorite market shop. She had purchases to make, and planned her list as she went along.

Out of her absorption she became aware suddenly of a small dog trotting on ahead of her. He was shaggy and Scotch and with the lines of a thoroughbread, but he was dirty and dragged and he went on his way with an anxious air, running up to this person and that, then falling back in dreary disappointment. Virginia's heart was touched by his desolation, and as she entered the shop she found herself hoping that somewhere in the hurrying crowd the little lost dog would discover his master.

When she came out, however, the little dog was still there. He sat in front of a stand where frankfurters sizzled on an iron plate and where brown rolls were hot as hot in a glass compartment. A red-faced man was in charge of the stand. He was protected from the cold by a window which let down in front of him and shut him in comfortably with his wares. When a customer stopped in front of the window, the red-faced man raised it, stuck a fork in a sizzling sausage, slapped it between a roll, added a dash of mustard, handed it out, took the customer's money, closed the window, folded his hands across his white apron and again waited.

Whenever the window went up, delicious fragrances came forth on the frosty air. The little dog sniffed the fragrances but did not find them filling. As one customer after another was served, the hungry animal watched hot sausages and hot rolls disappear before his eager eyes and his short tail beat an agonized entreaty.

Virginia lingering on the step could stand it no longer. She crossed the street swiftly, bought two rolls and two sausages, and fed them to the starving dog. A crowd gathered about them. They thought it a strange and touching sight to see the pretty lady with the pink cheeks and the green hat, on her knees in the snow. Not one of them would hav done it, but they liked to see her do it. They enjoyed vicariously the effect of philanthropy.

When at last Virginia rose ot her feet and went on, the little dog followed her, keeping his distance, but not letting her out of his sight. When finally they reached the old house in Washington Square, he climbed the steps on his short legs and stood in the hall while Virginia considered him. "Oh dear little dog," she demanded, "what am I going to do with you?"

He wagged a slow and wistful tail. As she opened the door of her apartment and shut it behind her, the tail was suddenly still. Like a peri outside the gates, the little dog stood and waited.

People kept coming into the hall from the street and going up and up the stairs. It was dark outside, and the hall was dimly lighted by the torch upheld by the Bronze Knight who ornamented the newel post. The Bronze Knight was a reminder of other days in the old house. On his shield was blazoned what had been, perhaps, the motto of the fine family of which three generations had lived under this roof—verite sans peur—truth without fear.

The light from the Bronze Knight's torch shone on Virginia's hair as she opened the door and came out with her brother and Mary Lee Logan. "We've got to keep him," Virginia was saying, "I couldn't sleep to-night if we left him out in the snow."

Through the open door the little dog saw the room with its honey-colored lights, its grate with the glowing coals, its bright coin of a kitten. The short tail fluttered—then, with a sigh, the tired little beast dropped at Virginia's feet and laid his head on her shoe.

It was Rickey who carried him off to a warm bath and a bowl of bread and milk, and as he left them, Mary Lee announced, "I'm inviting myself to dinner. Will you ihave enough for me? If not,I'll go out. I've tickets for a play, and I am going to take Rickey. You won't mind staying alone, will you?"

Virginia knew that the question was perfunctory. Mary Lee wanted Rickey and no one else. So she acquiesced cheerfully.

Dinner was served on a little table set in front of the fire. And while they ate they talked of the ball at Derekdale. Virginia told the history of her shopping, of the lovely gown. "But the price was beyond anything, Mary Lee."

"Oh, my dear, why not? You'll put it all over the rest of the women, and carry Tony Bleecker off under their noses."

Virginia flushed, "Don't say things like that?"

"I'll say them because they are true. And my dear child when you marry Tony Bleecker you can have all the gold lace gowns in the world."

"But I'm not going to marry Tony."

A light flamed in Rickey's eyes. "Listen to her, Mary Lee. Any girl but Jinny would be off her head to have a man like that in love with her. But Jinny's as cool as you please about it. Turns him off as if she had a dozen lovers."

"Perhaps there's somebody else." Mary Lee's shrewd eyes were on Virginia's hot cheeks.

Rickey laughed, "There isn't anyone else." He rose from the table. "I'll go and make myself pretty for to-night, Mary Lee." he smiled at her, and she smiled back. But she was not smiling when she again spoke to Virginia. "So you're really going?"

"Yes, Rickey wanted it so much. But it isn't wise."

"Oh, why be wise—" Mary Lee questioned,"there are years enough ahead to be solemn and staid. "She paused, then said slowly, "I shall miss you . . ." and Rickey."

"We shan't stay long," Virginia consoled her.

Virginia was startled and showed it. "Marty Van Duyne?"

"Yes."

"But he has seen her but once."

"Once is enough for a poet like your brother. He says she is the only woman he knows who is true to her type. It's her clothes, of course. He's always criticising mine."

"Oh, that's Rickey's way. If I were you I'd wear what I liked and snap my fingers at Rickey."

"But you see," Mary Lee said, slowly, "I can't snap my fingers at Rickey because I love him."

Virginia had no words for that. And Mary Lee went on after a moment, stormily. "Girls like you don't admit they are in love with men who aren't in love with them. But I am proud that I care for Rickey, and I'm willing to tell the world. And I know I'm the kind of woman he ought to marry. I understand him, which is more than Marty Van Duyne would ever do. You've always made it too easy for him, Virginia. Rickey needs praise but he needs prodding. You're too self-sacrificing. I love him, but I would'nt let him tyrannize over me." She broke off, "What rot I'm talking. Please forget it."

She rose, crossed the room to the window and peered out. "It's snowing. We'll have to take a taxi. She came back and telephoned, then again moved about restlessly.

Suddenly she stopped. "Oh, I hate the thought of Christmas."

"Why don't you go home?"

"Because I want to be here when Rickey comes back," she stopped in front of Virginia and smiled at her. "You see how brazen I am?"

Virginia smiled back at her, "I don't believe you mean half of what you say."

"I do. Oh, well, to-night I'll eat, drink and be merry—"

She changed the subject as Rickey arrived. "Have you named the pup?" she asked, as the small dog greeted his master.

"No."

"Then I'll christen him." She insisted on making a ceremony of it, and sprinkled his head with water. She called him "Weenie-Wurst" in memory of the sausage stand. It was all very gay and rollicking, and Rickey and Mary Lee went away in a gale of laughter.

Left alone,Virginia was conscious of a deep sense of loneliness. She put everything in order and then with the dog and cat for company she sat by the fire with her book. She was depressed and anxious. She had come to New York with such high hopes and now already Rickey was restless, worried about his book, running away from hard work. For that was it—he was tired of intensive labor. He had talked of freedom in Annapolis, and now again he talked of it. Yet no artist found freedom until he achieved what he sought.

If only she knew what he had written. She might help and suggest. But Rickey had shut her out. He would do alone what he had to do, and owe nothing to anyone for his success. That had been his attitude and she had acquiesced.

Yet—if it should not be success? She dared not think what failure would mean to her brother. He would be overwhelmed, beaten, bitter. She had seen him in such moods in lesser matters than this big task to which he had set himself.

He must not fail! Some strange propulsion drove her suddenly from the fireside to Rickey's room. His manuscript lay piled neatly on a little table. There was the title—Burning Beauty—staring up at her.

A Thought

KNOWING AND DOING

Doing the best we know how to do it well in its way; but it may be our duty to do better than we yet know now. We have a duty to know what is right, and to do that. This truth is often forgotten by those who content themselves with striving to do as well as they know how. It was the loving Jesus who said that the servant who knew not his master's will and did it not, was beaten, although with fewer stripes than the servant who knew it and did it not. It is not a sufficient excuse even before a human court, to claim that we were ignorant of the law. We ought to have known it. Our duty of knowing it as real as our duty of doing.

What To-day Means To You

"CAPRICORN"

If January 16th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

For those engaged in commercial or literary work, the planetary aspects of January 16th are encouraging.—In trade, things will take a decided turn for the better. In artistic effort, there will be sensed inspiration and imagination. Eventide promises to awaken emotion.

A child born on this January 16th will be, although having a decided will of its own, gentle and considerate. Persistency will characterise it in after-life. Not the persistency that bores, but that which, almost unperceived, gets there all the time.

Your youth, if you were born on a January 16th, did not reveal any of the traits that your adulthood have displayed. You were indolent, inconsiderate of others, and your bumptiousness was the despair of all those who were interested in you. Relatives and friends considered you impossible. No sooner, however, had you reached the age of discretion than you underwent a complete metamorphis. You "found yourself." Plodding perseverance replaced laziness; unselfishness and sympathy were substituted for lack of thought for others, and a laudable humility has eradicated all members of vanity and conceit.

Life has many rewards in store for you. It also has its sorrows. You will take your rewards unexultingly, and your sorrows unflinchingly. Success will not turn your head and disappointment will not kill your spirit.

You are shrewd, and an excellent judge of character, and, in addition, possess a good knowledge of value. Externals are disregarded by you, and a diamond in the rough is as quickly and accurately appraised by you as one well cut and polished. You are thoroughly practical, and, be you man or woman, never allow emotion to ride rough-shod over cool, sane judgment. Your home life will be serene and harmonious, and you will never lose your youthful spirit and outlook.

SOVIET SEEKING BETTER TERMS

EXCLUDES SWITZERLAND.

MOSCOW, U.S.S.R., Jan. 16.—The Soviet Union has initiated a move to gain conditions in the forthcoming International Disarmament Conference more favorable to the Union that was the case during the preparatory disarmament commission sessions just concluded at Geneva.

Identical oral statements have been made by the Russian diplomatic representatives to the Foreign Ministers of Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Norway, Persia, Poland, France and Japan asking that the conference be held in a city of some country which mantains relations with the U.S.S.R., this request excluding Switzerland which has no such relations.

The statement also requests naming of a president favorable to the Soviets and equality of status of the various conferring nations, and alleges that the Soviet representatives were discriminated against by the chairman of the preparatory commission (Jonkheer Loudon of Holland).

HARVEY TOWNSHIP ELECTION

Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—In a recent edition of your paper you printed an article regarding the Municipal Election in Harvey Township. In this article you stated a ballot at the Lakehurst Poll marked for one reeve and five councillors had been rejected for both reeve and councillors.

I wish hereby to correct that statement. At this poll two ballots that were marked for three candidates for reeve and one candidate for council were rejected for the reeves but counted for the councillors. These were the only spoiled ballots at this poll.

J. G. ELLIOTT,
Deputy Returning Officer.

This letter explains the vote at Lakehurst, but there were also some ballots in the Nogie's Creek count which were mentioned in reports from Harvey township as having been rejected. The Examiner's story was necessarily based on the only available news from the township, and no further news has been received from that district. Nor has any notice of a recount being fyled with Judge Huycke. Apparently the election of Harry Parker is not being questioned.

SPECIAL MEAL TICKET

To the Editor of The Evening Examiner.

Dear Sir,—With reference to the continuation of the scheme already inaugurated whereby needy citizens are furnished free meals at the Elite Restaurant and Tea Rooms until April next, may we point out, through the columns of your valuable paper, that in view of the increasing number of free meals supplied we have been obliged to have a special meal ticket printed.

These tickets, costing 35 cents each (or 3 for a dollar) can be purchased of His Worship the Mayor, or from the McDermid Drug Store, as well as from the Bond Drug Store.

We have hitherto supplied meals upon the strength of phone calls or written messages from various friends, but the matter has now assumed such proportions that we find great difficulty in keeping track of the various donors.

If our kind friends and the various benevolent societies would make use of these tickets they would greatly assist us in our task. As can be readily understood we make no profit, on the contrary in supplying full course meals at this price, but it gives our patrons as assurance that those they wish to assist will receive a hot meal, while there is alays the doubt that should they make a cash donation the money might be used for entirely other purposes.

Thanking you for the assistance you are giving to the scheme in publishing this letter and assuring you that all the employees of this establishment are more than willing to assist those who are in need.

We are,

Yours very truly,
THE MANAGEMENT OF THE ELITE RESTAURANT AND TEA ROOMS.

STRONGER TONE ON WALL STREET

Silver Slips 5-8 of Cent to 28c an Ounce Under Pressure.

COPPER PRICES HIGHER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (C.P.)—The stock market paused for breath today, after its abrupt decline of the previous session, and recovered a little in spots, as bears grew nervous and drew in their short lines.

Such stocks as U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, American Water Works, Public Service of N.J., Westinghouse, Dupont and Air Reduction sold up a point or so, but advances were not well maintained. Allied Chemical rose nearly 4 points, then lost much of its gain. Bethlehem Steel was under pressure, and slipped close to its 1903 low, as brokerage gossip had it that its fourth quarter net left little if anything for the stock. Some of the merchandising shares were under pressure, notably Sears. The Armour stocks eased.

Silver was again under pressure, slipping back ⅝ of a cent to 28½ cents an ounce, duplicating the historical low established a week ago.

On the other hand, export copper prices for March and April shipment were increased .05 and .10 of one cent a pound respectively.

OIL PRODUCERS SCORE MELLON

Blamed For Industry's Plight.

Tom E Cranfill, of Dallas, said the Cabinet member was the guiding spirit of the Gulf Oil Co. Extensive imports by the company were largely responsible for the plight of the industry, he contended.

"Pull off the false whiskers of the Gulf Company and you will find the face of Uncle Andy Mellon," he said.

He charged the Gulf Company with an effort to drive Texas independent producers out of business by establishing a distributing system of their own.

He said part of the industry's troubles were its own fault because "we sat by while the big companies slowly got control of the oil world."

His statement followed the report of W. M. Fulton, of Great Falls, Mont. chairman of that state's delegation, saying the oil industry should have all of the protection possible and that great shortage of oil was dangerous to the small operators.

Famous Players Sue Montreal For $42,225

MONTREAL, Que., January 16 (C. P.). — The Montreal Trust Company acting for the Famous Players Canadian Corporation, has entered suit against the city for $42,225 or an order for the city to vacate property owned by the Famous Players Company. The suit involves a lot in the heart of the city which the company has held for more than a year, presumably as a theatrical site. Recently the city widened a lane through the block, making a thoroughfare encroaching upon the lot. The case is being tried in the Superior Court.

LIQUOR STOCKS PROVIDE ACTION

BUYING SPREADS.

TORONTO, January 16. (CP)—Liquor stocks provided the bulk of individual trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. While the general market was dull and inclined to be heavy in tone, Walkers and Distillers Corpr. Seagram headed upeard, the former selling at a half point above last night's close at 8¼ and the latter more than a point higher at 12.

Buying was general and was accompanied by reports that leading interests were meeting in Montreal and that hopes were entertained that an agreement would be reached regarding marketing of Canadian spirits along the Atlantic coast.

Canadian Pacific was another outstanding actor. The first hour and a half the stock reacted, selling at a new 1931 low of 38¾, towards noon it firmed above 39 where it was down only a small fraction. Transactions were numerous, though nearly all for small lots.

Nickel held practically unchanged at 15; Brazilian, Ford of Canada, Bell Telephone, Service Stations were for the most part at the same figure as last night, though at times they sold lower. Oils were down a small fraction in quiet trading.

MINING ACTION REMAINS QUIET

Slightly Easier Tendency Noticed Among More Active Issues on Standard.

NICKEL IS FIRMER.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 16 (CP)—Price action and trading were both quiet on the mining market in the forenoon to-day, with a slightly easier tendency noticeable among the more active issues.

Lake Shore dropped a quarter from last night's close to $24.50, Hollinger and McIntyre were off 10 apiece to $7.85 and $22.00, respectively, and Teck Hughes eased 5 to $6.60. Howey, Magassa and Sylvanite showed smal gains in the lower-priced issues.

International Nickel and Hudson Bay firmed 15 each to $15 and $4.50 respectively, but Noranda was 10 off at $14.65 at midday. Lindsleys were dull, Sudbury Basin, off 4 to 60, showing the only change.

Commonwealth was soft in the oils, price declining another 5 to 35, and Acme Gas dropped a couple to around 20. Ajax was a cent lower at $1.47 and balance of the group unchanged.

LEADERS ALSO GET FIVE LASHES EACH

Some of the wine was consumed in a box car behind Rehill's coal yard. Late in the afternoon several more drinks were taken in Central School yard. Then the three walked out the Chemong road. Told that they were going out to rob Johnston, Todd argued with Smith and said he would not be a party to it, was the statement contained in Dundas' confession to police. Smith called him "yellow."

At the gate all three partook of another drink. Todd was very drunk by this time, according to the statements of both Smith and Dundas. Tood stood at the gate "to keep jiggers," Smith had sworn to police in his confession. Later Todd was arrested by police in the north-end as a drunk, but the other two ran away.

When Todd recovered from his drunkenness, he gave police a statement that aided them in clearing up the crime, Mr. McElderry said.

In the case of Gordon Smith, the taxi-driver, who drove the two to Port Hope the night of the crime, Dundas maintained in his confession that Gordon knew that they had held up Johnston and robbed him. Smith stated that his brother did not know about the crime, but that he was told merely that "the police are after us."

Late the same night police interviewed Gordon Smith and were given false information. Smith told them that he had driven his brother and Dundas about the city and dropped them at the corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets.

A. L. Elliott acted for the Smith brothers; J. O'Brien for Dundas and J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., for Todd.

Strong character evidence was given by neighbors of Todd and others who had known the man for many years. He had no previous convictions, and was said to be married and of an honest and upright character.

"You have done a disgraceful thing in every shape and form," Magistrate Langley told Dundas. The magistrate recalled Dundas' many previous convictions and warnings to go straight.

GO TO HAVELOCK TO-NIGHT.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

The wheat market was a dull, narrow affair yesterday with very little of feature going on. Prices were little changed during the first half of the day, holding very steady at unchanged or a fraction lower, but during the last hour there was a little local pressure in sympathy with weakness in Chicago and our prices dipped ¾ cent below last nights close, while Chicago July broke 1½ cents while their nearby months were off ¾. On the decline there was modefate buying of our May by continental houses and some buying against the daily bids, which lifted the market fractionally higher, but the market acted rather heavy despite the fact that offerings were not heavy, and the upturns were difficult to hold export sales night were extremely small not more than 100,000 bushels and seaboard reported a very limited business and that the foreign demand had quieted down although there was a fair inquiry at somewhat below current levels. Chicago corn broke fully two cents. Liverpool closed 3-8 to 5-8 lower and Buenos Aires was 1½ lower at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The weather is very favorable in the Argentine for threshing and wheat movement is increasing, with shipments this week estimated at two million bushels. Black Sea shipments this week are only 464,000 bushels, of which Russia cleared 400,000. Unfavorable reports were coming from Nebraska and Illinois where it is said the winter wheat is being damaged from freezing temperatures and the lack of snow covering. The local cash market was quiet with spreads all unchanged. There was only odd cars trading. Would not press the market on any further dips.

Coarse Grains—These markets were all easier in sympathy with the decline in wheat and corn. Outside of a few cars of oats sold to eastern Canada at the close Wednesday, was very little doing and all coarse grains are generally quiet and demand is very limited.

Flax also weak closing 2½ to 2 3-8 lower. Some scattered liquidation and demand poor.

Liverpool cables due 7-8 lower based on Winnipeg.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 16.—(Specia to Examiner.)—Things were rather quiet around the mining market to-day with some prices showing a slightly easier turn but the majority holding in a firm manner. Followers of the local board are considerably elated over the performance in New York yesterday where Canadian gold shares gave a good account of themselves in the face of general weakness. Dome saw unusually good demand, it is reported.

A progress report, covering proposed operations and reviewing financing arrangements, has been forwarded to shareholders of Gem Lake mines. The company plans further work on levels already established and will deepen the shaft to 750 feet, with levels at 625 and 750 feet. It is the intention to install a mill next winter, the size ot be determined by developments in the interval. Commercial ore is said to have been developed on all four upper levels with average running over $20 to the ton. It is considered significant that the 500 or bottom horizon has been the best in the mine so far. Gossip around Noranda is that the new ore on the 13th level 1500 feet has been traced by diamond drilling to 2,000 feet and has not bottomed yet. It is reported to run 10 per cent copper and to have gold values. The new machinery is expected to be in operation by the middle of February. This equipment will shape the copper pigs for the Montreal refinery which it is understood, will start up late in March.

Amulet Operating.

It also is understood around Rouyn that Amulet will resume underground operations within the next week, though no official word has come out in this regard. Newbec is at present drifting underground with about 12 men working. Cobalt Contact is reported to have taken an option of a group of claims in the Granada district understood to have promising surfaces showings.

It is unofficially reported that Pandora has secured a grouple of seven claims adjacent to the Argyle-Brook bankds property in Matachewan district. The claims are said to be situated in Argyle township about 700 feet north of the boundary of the Ashley-Garvey group.

Shareholders are anticipating some interesting developments at to-morrow's annual meeting of Mint-Ore Mines Limited. The company, which holds a property in the Red Lake district near Jackson Manion, has been quiet of late.

HUDSON BAY COMPANY'S PROBE COMMITTEE REPORT IS HEARD AT ANNUAL LONDON MEETING

Three New Directors Will Fill Vacancies on Present Board.

RECOMMENDATIONS HEARD.

Propose Separate Canadian Company to Control Stores' Business in Dominion.

(By Thomas T. Champion, C. P. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The resignation of Charles Vincent Sale from the Governorship of the Hudson's Bay Company was accepted at a crowded meeting of stockholders today, when the report of the special committee which investigated the company's affairs was under consideration.

The meeting adopted a resolution to replace sale and two other unspecified directors by three new directors. They are to be selected by a committee and if the committee fails to agree on the choice, Sir Robert Horne former Chancellor of the Exchequer one of the largest shareholders, will make the selection.

The meeting was noisy at times. The recommendations of the special committee, which included the formation of a seperate Canadian company to control the stores' business in the Dominion, as district from the fur-dealing and other activities of the company, were left to the discretion of the newly-constituted board.

An amendment to the resolution which sought resignation of the entire Board of Directors was declared out of order

Sir Robert Horne strongly recommended the course which was eventually adopted. He had travelled a good deal in Canada and had been uniformly told there that the company would never be able to do i best for the stores until they had a Canadian Board, he said.

Some criticism having been directed towards sale, he addressed the meeting. From the beginning he had had a clear conscience, he said. He had made a great deal of money for the company, he added, and he thought it was beneath his dignity to answer certain insinuations that had been made.

Sir Frederick Richmond, who acted as chairman, urged the stockholders to disabuse themselves of any idea that the company was financially unsound. The present price of the shares had no relation to their real value, he said.

The losses on the operation of the company's stores were negligible, Sir Frederick stressed. The real losses had occurred in the fur trading activities of the company through the drastic drop in recent years of the price of furs. Canada would be one of the first countries in the world to recover from the depression, he added.

Other stockholders expressed the opinion that it was time to drop their differences and acknowledged their faith in the company's future under good management.

The company last month passed the preferred and common dividends, an official statement saying heavy losses were expected on the year's operations because the depression in Canada had proved more severe than anticipated. The committee's recommendation for formation of a Canadian Company to control the stores in Canada, in which the Canadian public should be invited to invest, did not meet with the approval of Governor Sale, who described it as a fundamental change "not in the company's best interests at present." He would not be associated with such a policy and therefore handed in his resignation.

He was invited to lunch with the President and Mrs. Hoover.

In 1926, Congress voted special gold medals for Ellsworth, Roald Amundsen and Umberto Nobile. Both participated with Ellsworth in the trans-Polar flight of 1926.

Nobile has never been to the United States to receive the medal and Amundsen was lost in the Polar wastes during a search for part of Nobile's party, lost when the Italian's dirigible cracked on another Polar flight.

KIWANIS CLEARS $2,700 AT FAIR

Weekly Luncheon Takes the Form of General Business Meeting.

REPORTS ARE HEARD.

Diversion at the Kiwanis luncheon at the Empress Hotel at noon to-day consisted of a business meeting, at which several items of business were cleared up.

Following the weekly "booster," Charles Cook read a report of the District Trustees' meeting in Toronto a few days ago., Carl Brown introduced for discussion the question as to when the Kiwanis Junior and Juvenile baseball teams should be entertained by the Kiwanians. It was decided that, owing to the fact that the players were either school children or employees, a luncheon should be given in their honor at 6.30 p.m. some Friday of this month.

The question of the musical entertainment at which local choirs were entered provoked some discussion as to whether it should be held in the fall of 1931 or the spring of 1932. The main difficulty in choosing the earlier date seemed to be the lack of time in preparation. However, the trend of the discussion intimated that the fall would be a more satisfactory time, owing to the practice for Easter music in the spring. It was finally decided to hold the entertainment in the fall, with the exact date and the leader to be decided upon by the Executive.

The "Produced-in-Canada" Exhibition as a lucrative method of running the Kiwanis camp in Jackson Park led to many opinions. In former years the Exhibition was not a paying affair, but last year the Kiwanis were able to make $2,700 profit.

At this point J. W. Fraser, manager of the local Bank of Nova Scotia, was introduced as once again becoming a member of the Kiwanis. In a few remarks, Mr. Fraser stated that he had left before on account of illness and too much work.

Mr. Garrette of the Hart House Quartette, famous all over the American continent, proposed a plan whereby he could bring his confreres to Peterborough for a concert on February 4th. Mr. Garrette stated that, apart from $60 spent for publicity and $250 for expenses, the Kiwanis would receive the proceeds of the musicale.

Harry Boyle read a report from the President and Vice-President who attended the Officers' Training School in Toronto on January 13, regarding executive formation, attendance, the necessity of a 5 per cent. increase in membership this year, and the efficiency contest.

JOHNSTON, CLARK BOTH REMANDED

The Stimson Company with four subsidiary companies, were placed in the hands of liquidators on Wednesday last.

The charge against the men alleged that "they conspired together with one another and with other persons unknown, by deceit and falsehood or other fraudulent means to defraud the public." The men, following their arrest, were taken to the City Hall Police Department where they will be held pending arraignment later in the day. Attorney-General Price had announced yesterday that his department would be guided in matter of launching legal action against the officials of the Stimson firm, by an expected report from the liquidator, G. T. Clarkson who was already going through the bond company's books.

Price Holds Conference

Late yesterday afternoon, Mr. Price held a conference with Arthur W. Rogers for the Security Frauds Prevention Branch of the Attorney-General's Department and last evening the warrants were issued.

Section 444 of the Criminal Code under which the charges were laid reads: Conspiracy to Defraud—Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to seven years' imprisonment who conspires with any other person by deceit or falsehood or other fraudulent means to defraud the public or any person ascertained or unascertained, or to affect the public market price of stocks, shares, merchandise or anything else publicly sold, whether such deceit or falsehood or other fraudulent means would or would not amount to a false pretense as herein before defined."

The G. A. Stimson Co., Limited, one of the oldest bond houses in Canada, was moved into liquidation on Wednesday on application for an order made to the court and following this action the four Stimson subsidiary companies voluntarily assigned.

In recent years the chief interests of the Stimson companies have been in the marketing of their own real estate development bonds and securities through 14 offices scattered throughout the Dominion. Two of their biggest developments are the Commerce and Transportation Building, Toronto and the Marine Building, Vancouver, each of which is valued at between two and three million dollars. The entire assets of the companies are placed at between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 while the liabilities are not yet definitely known but Mr. Johnston, president of the Stimson firm says they are "slightly under the amount of the assets." The Stimson 7 per cent. debenture bonds were marketed all over Canada, but chiefly in Ontario.

President is War Veteran.

Col. Frederick Graham Johnston, President of the Stimson concern during the last ten years, is 40 years of age and is a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. After leaving Upper Canada College he worked for a while as a bank clerk and later went into the bond business, joining the Stimson Company in 1920. He sehved overseas during the war and was returned with medals.

The Vice-President, Laurence E. Clark, was born in Buffalo 48 years ago. He was educated in Buffalo and at the Military School in Lausanne, Switzerland. He became a bank clerk in Buffalo in 1907. Subsequently he was Vice President of the Brotherhood of National Banks of Cleveland, Ohio, and in 1923-25 was Chairman of the Board of Federated Bank & Trust Co., of Buirmingham, Ala. From this post he came to the Stimson Company. Mr. Clark was with the Canadian forces in the Great War. He is married to a daughter of a former Member of Parliament and Governor of the Yukon.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

Queen Alexandra Home and School Association met on Monday evening with the president, Mrs. H. Tremaine in the chair who spoke of the loss the Society has sustained in the death of Mrs. A. Mowat who was Honorary President of the Association since its formation and of invaluable help in every way.

Two delightful piano solos were given by little June Pigeon and Kenneth Burnham played two mouth organ solos.

He pointed out the need for the best class of teacher in the north—one who could face pioneer living conditions an be a community builder. He stressed the need for leadership and explained why the Home and School movement had failed in the North.

Mr. Copp had a large number of pictures taken by himself in that country which added interest to his talk.

The attendance picture for the school was won by Mr. Dearborn's room.

COBOURG HOSPITAL BRANDED FIRE TRAP

Province Demands Protection for Inmates Through Fred. McArthur, M.P.P.

COBOURG, Jan. 17—The town of Cobourg is being called upon by the Ontario government to provide better fire protection at the Ontario hospital.

"If fire occurred, hundreds would be burned at the stake," Fred J. McArthur, M.P.P., representative of the government, says in the appeal for better protection. "The present conditions are a reflection on both the government and the community."

Plea for greater co-operation of parents with the teaching staff of Cobourg Collegiate Institute in seeing that the students take adequate time in reviewing past work in addition to the ordinary school study, was made by R. D. H. Davidson, principal of the school, in connection with the announcement of the December examination results.

"A daily systematic review of the school work means success for the pupil in the June examinations," Mr. Davidson declared.

An average of 425 patients are affected by the fire facilities at Ontario Hospital for the Insane, of whom 350 are in locked wards and would have to be rescued individually and probably with force in case of fire. About 50 of the total number are bed patients and the remainder are usually convalescent and free to follow their own devices.

Many other summonses have been issued to motorists who continue to drive with dirty markers while others have received "tickets" for obstructing their license plates.

A most effective method of treating coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis is to let a Pepo tablet dissolve in the mouth. Soothing, healing fumes are released, which are breathed down the air passages, loosening the phlegm in the throat, stopping the racking cough and clearing the bronchial tubes.

A Wonder Worker That Soaks Right In and Gets Way Down to Where The Trouble Starts

People in Canada must like Joint-Ease—they buy so much of it. They use it because it helps to quickly ease their aches and pains. They know it instantly brings comfort to inflamed, pain tortured joints —they have learned that for stubborn rheumatism there is nothing so speedily helpful.

Old folks use it to bring youthfulness to joints that creak and ache and get troublesome.

It's good for many other ailments also: Neuritis for instance, and Sciatica, Lumbago and lame, aching back—Rub it in good. Made in Canada and sold everywhere for 60 cents a generous tube.

Inaugural Meeting Huntingdon Council

By-laws Approved Appointing Members of Council to Various Offices for 1931.

IVANHOE, Jan. 16 (Examiner Correspondence)—The first meeting of the Huntingdon Township Council was held on Monday when the Reeve, William A. Morton, and councillors, W. Ashe, E. Saries, A. Huntingdon and Charles Moreland all took the declaration of office.

By-laws were passed appointing the members of the Council to the offices for the year 1931 and include: A. Herity, inspector; Mathew English and Harold Ashley, auditors; J. English, sanitary inspector; and Albert Reid and Thomas Elliott, assessors.

A bill was received from Rawdon Council amounting to $59.50 for sheep killed in the said township by Huntingdon dogs. The clerk was instructed to bill the owner of the sheep with their portion of the amount for the sheep killed, and a by-law was passed authorizing the chaining of all dogs in the municipality from sunset until sunrise.

Richard Fleming interviewed the council about the boundary road between Huntingdon and Thurlow and the council agreed to put 200 yards of gravel on the same at $1 a yard pay for gravel and spreading.

S. Kilpatrick was hired as caretaker of the hall at a salary of $30 per year, and the clerk was instructed to send for six copies of the Municipal World.

The following accounts were ordered paid: Dr. Welsh, M.O.H., $277; Harry Mulli, $6.95; J. S. McKewan, $6.75; North Hastings Review, $20.20; Charles Grillis, $14; W. Alcombrack, $7; B.O.H. meeting, $36.60.

The council adjourned to meet on February 2, at 10 o'clock.

DR. GENEST LOSES OTTAWA OFFICE

D. T. Robichaud Succeeds as Chairman of Separate School Board.

BELANGER OUSTED.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 16. — Dr. Samuel M. Genest, chairman of the Ottawa Separate School Board for 18 years, and Aurelien Belanger, former M.L.A. for Russel, and now Director General of bilingual schools in the city, were literally swept out of office last night at the board's first meeting for 1931.

Nine English-speaking trustees and five French trustees united to carry D. T. Robichaud, translator in the Dominion Public Works Department, into the chairmanship in succession to Dr. Genest, by a 14 to 7 vote. The board accepted Mr. Belanger's resignation after lengthy discussion of a motion seeking abolishment of his position, a $3,000 per year post.

Dr. Genest told the board Mr. Belanger's services were indispensable. The French schools, he said, had teachers "better fitted to be cooks," and Mr. Belanger was engaged in training them. Questioned as to the number of unqualified teachers at present employed, Mr. Belanger declared "more than 50 or 60."

Dr. Genest came into nation-wide prominence some years ago when, along with Senator N. A. Belcourt, he led the fight against Regulation 17 passed by the Ontario Government restricting the time French could be taught in bilingual schools. The regulation was rescinded by Premier Ferguson three years ago.

REEVE SANDERSON STRESSES NEED OF STRICT ECONOMY AT MEETING

APPROVE ACCOUNTS

HAVELOCK, Jan. 16 (Examiner Correspondence). — The inaugural meeting of the village Council was held in the Council Chamber on Monday morning when all the members of last year's council who were returned this year by acclamation, were present and subscribed to their oath of office. The meeting then adjourned until seven-thirty p.m.

T. P. Lancaster, M.L.A. for East Peterborough, was present and was called upon to address the meeting. Mr. Lancaster declined the honor with thanks, saying he thought Reeve Sanderson would have something to say at this first meeting after re-election.

The Reeve addressed the meeting, thanking the ratepayers present for the confidence shown by his re-election. He would strive this year as last, always do what seemed to him best for all. He had always found other members of Council pleasant and agreeable to work with, and hoped the same conditions would obtain this year, with harmony and co-operation predominating.

Councillor Spencer endorsed the speech of the Reeve. He stated that the relations between members of the Council had always been most cordial, and he hoped they would continue to be so. Councillor Howe stated that meetings in the past had been singularly free of friction, and jangling, and hoped this would continue for the present year. Councillor Gordon also spoke of the good fellowship that had prevailed in the meetings, and hoped for a continuance of the same. He expressed the wish that more of the ratepayers would attend the meetings, and assured them that they were sure of a welcome, and due consideration of any matter they would care to discuss with the council. He said it was hard to deal with civic matters at a casual street meeting, and hoped more of the ratepayers would be present at future meetings and discuss their suggestions with the council as a whole. The Reeve stressed the need for economy for the present until the slight deficit now existing is disposed of.

Councillor Seeney stated that what he would have said had already been said and that he felt just as the other members did.

Mr. Lancaster was once again called upon and this time responded briefly. He stated that he believed the highway would run through the village and that further unemployment relief might be looked for in connection with work on the roads.

E. Leeson was present and when called upon stated that he had no objection to the highway going through the village as he believed there would be a certain amount of business done with the tourists going through.

Positions Filled

A cheque from the Government for relief of the unemployment in connection with the work done recently was received and placed on deposit. A letter from the Department of Agriculture re appointment of weed inspector was dealt with. Two applicants for the position were present Fred McAdam and Charles Dewey. After due deliberation the appointment went to Mr. McAdam, at the rate of 30 cents per hour when employed.

The position of caretaker for which there were only one applicant at the meeting will be advertised in the local paper.

A ratepayer had complained of the depredations of his neighbor's goats in his garden and in this connection a Pound Keeper for the village was chosen. Frank Parcels was appointed to this office.

Mr. Holcombe was re-appointed assessment officer for the current year at a salary of $125 per year.

Harrison Wing was re-appointed to the Board of Health at the usual rate per meeting.

Rae Williams and E. Leeson were appointed as auditors for the year at a salary of $20.

Dave Forde and John Moore were re-appointed on the Park Board.

The by-law confirming these appointments was put through its several readings, signed and sealed.

The matter of snow plowing for the village came up. There was a good deal of discussion in this connection. It was thought that three dollars per trip was too much, considering the hour is the usual time. Only one horse and one man for each snow plough is required. It was decided to pay fifty cents per hour. Mr. Vansickle was appointed to do the East End, Mr. Wannamaker the West End. In case of a heavy snowfall shovellers can be procured for thirty cents per hour when necessary. It was further stipulated that the plowing must be done early in the morning in order to have the streets free for the school children.

Garbage Collection

The matter of a civic dump north of the village again came up for discussion. It was thought the suggested that only one person be allowed to haul garbage from the village, and then there would be no doubt as to who the offender was if garbage was dumped in an illegal place. The matter of regular garbage collection came under this heading also. It was thought that a regular collection could be made regularly at a cost to each householder of about 40 cents per month. The Reeve thought there might be some objection to this. The sytem now obtaining in Lakefield was spoken of, and it was suggested that there is a by-law there governing garbage disposal. Councillors Seeney and Spencer were delegated to communicate with the clerk at Lakefield and ascertain their method of garbage disposal.

Six copies of the Municipal World will be ordered for use of members of the council. Seventy-five dog tags will also be ordered.

It was decided on motion to allow the Women's Institute free access to the hall and Council Chamber when not conflicting with any other use of the Hall or Council Chamber, they to have their own key, and build their own fires when necessary. This was embodied in a by-law. For these meetings the caretaker will not be required. Tuesdays and Saturdays were the days spoken of for W.I. use of the Council Room. Some accounts were ordered paid. Meeting then adjourned until February 2nd, or the call of the reeve.

The following accounts were ordered paid: Charles Dewey, caretaking etc., $12.50; Bickle Chemical Co. for fire-engine supplies, $79.56; Wm. Seabrooks, work on streets, $2; Provincial treas. amusement tax, $12.30; London Guarantee and Accident Ins. Co., $5; Mrs. Hogan grant re Foley estate, $5; County of Peterborough car of indigents, $21.25; Edward Fennell, clerk registration of births, $13.25; David Vansickle, snow plowing to date, $15.25; Havelock Standard Printing, $51.55.

RU-MA acts on the blood, stomach, kidneys and liver, and drives the dangerous rheumatic poisons from the system through the natural channels of elimination—it eases pain the first day.

You must use an internal medicine to free the joints and muscles of crippling stiffness, soreness and torturing pain. That's why RU-MA succeeds while external remedies and pain deadening drugs give only temporary relief.

McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store says no matter what kind of rheumatism you have, or how long you have suffered, try RU-MA—it must completely end all rheumatic agony or you get your money back.

Fight Grows to Such Proportions Coast Guard Called to Assist.

FOUR UNDER ARREST.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan 16.— With one man aboard dead and another, his alleged slayer, in irons, the coastwise freighter S. S. Nantucket, returned to port to-day.

The trouble started over possession of a coat hanger three hours after the freighter cleared this port for Boston, Mass. A second wireless message sent shortly after the first read: "Never mind, Coast Guard, man dead, returning to port."

Behind the old-fashioned steam engine there is a string of ten flat cars being loaded with snow to clear the way for a passenger train stuck in the snow bank. HOWSON MOTORS ARE APPOINTED WILLYS DEALERS

Pre-showing of 1931 Willys-Overland Cars is Given Members of Press.

NEW SIX ON MARKET.

More Than One Hundred Mechanical and Constructional Improvements Made.

(Examiner Staff Reporter)

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—Several press representatives from Canada's leading daily and weekly newspapers and trade and agricultural journals, met here yesterday as guests of the Willys-Overland Sales Company Limited, and were privileged to a preview of a completely new line of 1931 motor cars. More than one hundred mechanical and constructional improvements, incorporating finer quality and the best values ever offered in Willys-Overland's 24 years history, were fully and conclusively demonstrated to the newspapermen, who were allowed to ride and drive, in the various models, to subject them to the fullest inspection and to see the Willys automobiles in various stages of manufacture at the large Toronto manufacturing plant. This 1931 line of Willys-Overland cars brings a big flashing new six within the price range of a four; a larger six on a 113-inch wheelbase; an 80-horsepower eight on a 121-inch chassis and a quality Willys-Knight six. The beauty roominess, quality, low price and performance excel any previous Willys-Overland Product.

Peterborough Agency

Of particular interest to Peterborough automobile owners and prospective purchasers, was the announcement that the Willys-Overland sales and service agency, has been entrusted to Messrs W. S. Howson and T. H. Shield, of the Howson Motors, who open their campaign for 1931, in common with Willys dealers throughout the Dominion tomorrow.

After being welcomed at the Company's showrooms and sales offices, by C. R. Jackson, of the Publicity Department and by Florian Leduc sales manager, who both very capably outlined the firm's plans and policy for the current year, the members of the press, were taken on a tour of the city before partaking of dinner at the Royal York Hotel, as the guests of the vice-president T. A. Russell.

Mr. Russell who after graduation from Toronto University in the late '90's, started out on his brilliant career as a newspaperman, had much in common with his guests and conversed freely and informally with each in turn. He is a veteran of the automobile industry, and along with T H. Preston drafted the first Motor Vehicle Act of Canada.

In a short address, Mr. Russell said, "our plans, factory policies, product and prices, submitted to our dealer organization in the past few weeks, met with the warmest enthusiasm, and we look forward to the year 1931 with well-founded confidence."

From a financial standpoint Willys-Overland Company, is in a strong position and viewed from every other angle it has never in the past ten years been in such splendid condition to take advantage of its opportunities.

"Our ability to present the 1931 Willys line at the lowest prices that have ever prevailed over corresponding models has been brought about through a complete overhauling and revision of our administrative and manufacturing policies, resulting in an effective permanent saving in overhead, accomplished without impairing efficiency or jeopardizing our competitive position."

Outstanding Features

In the development of the 1931 Willys line, every unit of Willys-Overland's manufacturing facilities and engineering skill was called into action. This has resulted in the production of cars of outstanding value in each price class, combined with masterful design work, longer, wider and roomier bodies, exceptional riding comfort and a smooth speed and power performance which sets a high standard in motor car development.

Most of the past year has been devoted to the development of this line and is seen as an aggressive bid by the manufacturer for maximum volume during the coming twelve months.

Exceptional Roominess

In appearance, this new line from the lowest priced Willys Six Roadster to the Willys Eight and the Willys-Knight Six is distinguished by smart lines from the graceful, trim radiator to the carefully rounded rear quarters.

Equally as important as the smartness of the new cars is the provision that has been made for the comfort, convenience and safety of driver and passengers, which excels any past Willys-Overland product. The maximum roominess of the interiors has been accomplished by increasing the tread of all models to 58¼ inches and providing longer wheelbases. The greater tread has permitted wider seats so that three adults in overcoats may sit comfortably in the rear seat of any of the 1931 models.

In addition to the longer wheelbases and wider tread, other distinctive improvements of the new Willys line included: Safety, non-shatterable glass in all models all around, fully enclosed, cable-controlled four-wheel brakes; fuel pump replaces vaccuum tank; Float-O oil device for more highly efficient lubrication under all conditions; deeper cushions with individually wrapped springs; greater leg room and head room; adjustable seat backs in sedan models; inside radiator filler cap; double drop frame; larger fuel tank; platform-type accelerator; quieter second gear; steel running boards; improved, all-steel rear axle; flame arrestor; windows insulated against rain or snow; quieter second gear performance; improved ease in gear shifting; garnished mouldings; larger, steel-center steering wheel; gas gauge on dash; larger flush-type cowl ventilator; new cylinder head on Willys Six; one-bar bumper; improved, double acting hydraulic shock eliminators; new type instrument panel; modern roof construction and visor; new treatment of hood louvres.

I nsmooth and powerful performance the 1931 line answers every speed and power demand The Willys Six has a flashing top speed of 72 miles an hour and its second speed of 48 miles an hour makes it a desirable car for city traffic. The Willys eight top speed ranges better than 75 miles an hour and performs at 50 in second gear, while the Willys-Knight will hold from 78 to 80 miles an hour.

Safety Glass Available

Long noted for being among the first to introduce advanced features, Willys-Overland again takes a progressive step by making safety non-shatterable glass available in all models, all around, at a very slight extra cost, except in the Willys 8-80D, and Willys-Knight 66D which has safety glass as standard equipment. This measure of safety is regarded as highly important, Willys-Overland being the first manufacturer to provide this all-around safety feature in low priced cars The importance of this feature as a safety measure is apparent when one considers that insurance records show that flying glass is the cause of more than 65 per cent of all injuries in automobile accidents.

So satisfactory has been the performance of the Willys Six, Willys Eight and Willys-Knight engines during the past year, that they have been retained in the new cars with some refinements which give an even better performance than previously. This eliminates experiments and assures buyers of obtaining cars of proved efficiency.

That Body of Yours

METHODS OF DESTROYING BAD TONSILS.

Your family doctor will tell you that if your youngster's tonsils are large but are not interfering with breathing, the throat is never sore, that it is not considered necessary to remove the tonsils.

Where the tonsils are so large that they interfere with breathing, or the youngster frequently has a sore throat the tonsils should be removed to escape the possibility of rheumatism and heart disease.

Parents naturally dislike the idea of an operation, and look about for some other form of treatment that will destroy the tonsils without using a knife.

From time to time what is called the electro-coagulation of the tonsils comes into favor. The child goes to the electro-therapeutist, as he is called, and gets a treatment once a week for a number of weeks. There can be no denying that there have been some good results by this treatment and the fact that there is no danger is worth remembering.

However, there can be no denying either that there have been a great many failures by this method as the scar tissues from this burning process often scars over and covers over areas of infection and the condition is worse than before, the electro-coagulation process was started.

Further when the surgeon finally has to remove the tonsils to make a real job of it, he has a most difficult time getting the tonsils away cleanly, owing to the scar tissue.

Drs. Shoenfeld and Baumbach, Berlin, treated 150 children, aged 3 to 13 years for enlarged tonsils, by means of the X-ray.

Of 106 of these cases that were kept under observation in 41 the tonsils returned to their normal size, in 19 they became much smaller than they had been, and in 40 they remained unchanged

Examination two yor three years after showed that in all patients where the tonsils had decreased in size, mouth breathing during sleep had been cured and in the great majority the chronic sore throat had disappeared.

In none of these cases was the treatment followed by any injury to the mouth and throat.

I am passing along the above information to those parents who dislike the thought of the removal of tonsils by operation.

It is worth much to the child's health and happiness, to be kept free from a sore throat.

SUCKERS CAUGHT IN BLACK RIVER

Fishermen North of Cooper Flats Cut Holes in Ice and Scoop Up Bags Full.

WATER VERY LOW.

QUEENSBORO, Jan. 16.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—Thousands of suckers are being taken from the Black river at the Government dam a few miles north of Cooper Flats. The water in the river is so low that many of the fish have already died. Fishermen report that the fish are lying in the deeper places of the river bed to a depth of from one to two feet. All that is necessary is to break a hole in the ice, which is rather thin, and then go back a few feet and jump up and down for a few moments and hundreds of the fish will be forced out upon the ice, where they can be easily gathered. One party of four people brought to Queensboro fourteen bags which they gathered in a short while. Fishermen say they believe the low water will injure the spring catch of fish and perhaps for more than one season.

Stimson here yesterday. The pleasant rooms at the Manse of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church were attractive and bright yesterday afternoon with the lovely flowers and ferns that the members of the Ladies' Aid Society used in profusion for their tea and sale of home-made cooking. There was warm lighted fires in the grates, tall lighted floor lamps, and every where, there were spring flowers, orange marigolds, white narcissus and bright yellow daffodils, as highlights in the handsome drawing room, the cosy den and the pretty dining room, where the table was very effectively arranged. Covered with a cloth of linen and Cluny lace, it had a large silver basket as centerpiece, filled with lovely bronze-pink Talisman roses and fine, lacy green fern that also formed a circle of delicate fronds on the cloth. Two crystal vases with black crystal standards also held roses and there were tall bronze-pink tapers in low candlesticks of swastika-shaped brass. During the afternoon, a very enjoyable music program was given, and a steady stream of guests came in to be received by Mrs. W. Allan and the president of the society, Mrs. F. H. Rowan. Mrs. J. Marsh was general convenor of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. D. Jordan. Mrs. John Anderson acted as treasurer, assisted by Mrs. W. Lyburn. Tea was poured by Mrs. James Dutton and Mrs. M. Popular Songs Are Reduced In Price

Musical history is being made this week. Feist songs are being reduced in price to 25c per copy. The result should be a great impetus to playing and singing in the home and eventually to the reinstatement of the piano as a prime factor of home entertainment.

For years Feist songs have been printed in Canada on Canadian paper by Canadian workmen. In the past the Feist house has published such outstanding hits as "Peggy O'Neil," "Three O'clock in the Morning," "Feather Your Nest," "Ramona," etc.

There will be an assortment of up-to-date songs placed on sale on Saturday at this new price that should compel renewed interest in the piano. The publishers feel that people hear a great many songs over the radio, and if they are reasonably priced they will want to purchase them in greater quantities.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

I hope the subject which I have chosen for today will start some discussion among the readers. I have tried so often to get subjects which would seem to interest most of you, but somehow it doesn't start any discussion.

• • • • • • •

I would like nothing better than to see my desk just covered with letters—letters that would stir up the interest which seems to have altogether died down.

• • • • • • •

It is true that I do receive a few letters—letters from those who stand by me—but then there are a great number who have not written at all in a long time.

• • • • • • •

So this is an invitation to write a letter right now, before you forget!

• • • • • • •

And now to start my discussion. In what light do you consider work? I have found that there is nothing more strengthening, mentally, than work.

• • • • • • •

In times of stress, in the midst of excitement, whether joyous or sorrowful, at times when the mind is bewildered in periods of bereavement, the routine of work brings the mind into equilibrium.

• • • • • • •

Often it seems almost impossible to get to work when there is bewilderment and the thoughts are flurried. The desire is to stop working and let the heart wander through the maze.

• • • • • • •

Just as a person can be utterly lost in the winding paths of a material maze, so can the thoughts become entangled in the devious avenues of the brain.

• • • • • • •

In the mental maze, work is the guide that will lead the bewildered persons into clear pathways of thought?

• • • • • • •

Since this is a proven fact it will be seen that work results not only in accomplishment of mundane tasks, and studpendous scientific discoveries, inventions, but it reacts to the benefit of the mind and spirits of the worker.

• • • • • • •

Work, and over-work, though are two widely different matters. The one is wholesome privilege, something no normal person can exist without and not deteriorate both physically and mentally.

• • • • • • •

The second is a strain that the system cannot stand constantly without a break-down. The physique has the elasticity of a rubber band. It can be put under much physical and mental strain in times of necessity and it will give without injurious resistance up to its limit of capacity.

• • • • • • •

If before the limit is reached the person will relax, she will "snap back" to normal conditions without appreciable harm. It is when the person disregards the dictates of the physique that it becomes a danger.

• • • • • • •

It is not work that is disastrous to a person—work is healthy, stimulating and normal.

• • • • • • •

No one should try to escape work. Danger lurks in neglect of this essential to wholesome existence.

AGNES DESIRES WOMEN IN HOUSE

Tells Toronto Club There is No Thrill Being Only Woman Member.

TIME FOR ACTION.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 11.—"More women in the House of Commons", was the rallying cry of Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., when she addressed the Toronto Business and Professional Women's Club last night.

There was no thrill in being the only woman member but there was a real thrill in being a member, she said. "If you are seeking a thrill, come to the Commons," she advised.

"How long are women going to do half work for men swallowing political platforms and not digesting them? How long are they going to pool votes for men only to go to the Commons? Was that all that resulted from Mrs. Pankhurst's effort? If women were exclusively interested in private life and not in a place in the world then they were not worthy of the franchise.

"What is wrong? It is not that women are without training but that men are most reluctant to give up their privilege of centuries. What I do not understand is why women are so tame," declared Miss MacPhail.

Women must decide one thing or the other—were they going to get nothing done or would they put in a strong women's lobby at Ottawa.

She spoke in complimentary terms of the local and national councils of women. But were women to be merely satisfied with passing resolutions; if they were to make a point of getting the resolutions from the constituency to the members for that district, something might be accomplished by them, Miss MacPhail said.

NOVOCAIN MAKES DENTIST'S CHAIR FREE FROM PAIN

Dr. S. Philip Greaves Addresses the Dentists of City and District.

NEW ERA REACHED.

"The Technique of Local Anesthesia for Painless Operative Dentistry" was the subject of a lecture, illustrated by four reels of motion pictures, given by Dr. S. Philp Greaves of Toronto and New York City, before the dentists of Peterborough in the Empress Hotel last evening. The lecture was under the auspices of the Department of Professional Contact of the Cook and Waite Laboratories of New York.

Dr. Greaves laid particular emphasis on the fact that modern methods of local anesthesia make it possible to have all dental work done absolutely without the slightest pain. The dentist is thus able to do his work under more favorable conditions, while the patient enjoys comfort and freedom from pain. If local anesthesia is used throughout, said the lecturer, the dread of the dental chair becomes a thing of the past.

The newly formulated compound used for local anesthesia is known as novocain. This novocain has an affinity through its biochemical action for the human cell, which is protoplasmic in structure. Besides this it is readily detoxicated in the liver every 20 to 25 minutes to the extent of 200 cubic centimetres (only 70cc. at the most are required in anesthesia.)

The novocain is injected to the depth of only 20 mim. or ¾ inch to the fossa, the cavity in the flesh, to where the nerve supply comes from the central system. The injections then seep down to the nerve cords due to anesthesia. The gravity needle is withdrawn 5 mm. to secure a more effective anesthesia. The novocain fluid permeates to the sheath of the nerves, and passes through to the neurons, or nerve fibres. A numbness may then be noted in the lips and gums, but a more perfect result is to be obtained, said Dr. Greaves, from giving the fluid time to permeate to the inner nearons which supply the pulp of the tooth.

The use of this requires practice, but practice makes perfect, and it is absolutely necessary in judgments used for individual cases. The extra time required means proportionally that time and results are gained. The lengths of time needed are to be adjudged by the circulation of the patient, the ideal solution of the anesthesia, and accuracy.

Novocain injection in composition is 98 per cent base (saline and coumpound which must be sterile and isotonic) and 2 per cent novocain. This solution will remain effective for from 10 to 12 minutes. To prolong the anesthesia epinephrin, or adrenalin, is used. This substance is the greatest heart stimulant known, and is detoxicated in the tissues to the kidneys.

Varying amounts of epinephrin are employed to vary the duration of the anesthesia. Cook AA solution contains 1/2001 grain epinephrin per cc. or one part in 20,000. This compound lasts for from 2 to 3 hours, but its disadvantages outweigh its advantages. Cook AB solution is compounded with 1/1500 grain E. per cc. or 1: 25,000, and lasts for from one to two hours. Cook A solution has 1/3000 grain E. per cc. or 1: 50,000. This compound is effective for ½ to ¾ hour; it is the ideal anesthesia, and is just as intensive as the others. The solution without the epinephrin is good for diabetics, sufferers from spinal meningitis, etc. and for young children.

Pain has always been looked upon as synonymous with dentistry. However, we have reached a new era in the profession, declared Dr. Greaves. With the removal of pain, more business will flow in—only 8 per cent of the people on the American continent go for regular dental treatment. Pain is the enemy of the dentistry profession, both from the point of cutting down business and, more important, because of its effect on mankind and on the health of the dentist. The one great field before dentistry is the relief of pain; and a patient painlessly treated, concluded the speaker, is a walking advertisement of a service to man.

Campbellford Suffers Second Straight Defeat

H. C. Juniors Win Out 5 to 1

Campbellford Sextet Plays Brilliant Game Thorughout First Two Periods.

BOTH GOALIES GOOD.

Dallin, McCullough, Lambert and Hendy Star Players of the Game.

Peterborough Hockey Club Juniors battled their way to a decisive win over the Campbellford Juniors at the Brock street arena last night when they took the big end of a 5-1 victory to register their second consecutive victory which puts them one point behind the Havelock Combines, who are holding down second place.

A glassy surface of perfect ice was productive of clever puck-carrying and fast playing, and the play ranged in quick succession from end to end, the locals having an edge in speed and teamwork, although their work around the nets left much to be desired. Epps and Dallin missed numerous chances to score when close-in, most of the time missing the net completely. Heptonall, the Milltown net guardian, blocked shots from all angles like a veteran.

The Campbellford team showed no effects of the game with St. John's the night before and for the first two periods, despite the fact that they were outscored 3 to 1, had more than their share of the play. They broke fast three abreast but usually lifted long shots from well out which were easily handled by Foley in the Peterborough citadel.

Sixteen minutes of strenuous playing had faded into history before the first tally was registered this coming from the stick of Dallin, the local wing man, who went in fast and netted his own rebound. Campbellford evened the count half a minute later when Stocker and Wilkes broke together, skirted the local defence and planted the puck in the Peterborough net, Stocker making the shot. The Milltown forwards played havoc with the attacks of the Peterborough squad in centre ice, Bush, Lambert and Hendy being the most effective for the visitors.

Dallin Gets Second.

The Petes showed better formation in the second stanza but lacked finish in their combination while Woods and McCullough on the defence for the locals were outstanding in lone rushes, the latter uncorking a sizzling shot that was dead on the nets, however Heptonall had little difficulty in picking off these drives.

Dallin secured the second marker for the Blueshirts taking a pass from Epps from outside the defence and beating Heptonall with a low shot. Most of the locals' attacks were skated into the corners by the opposing defence who covered up well around their own net.

Killinbeck at centre for the locals was a thorn in the side of the Milltown forwards who were constantly stalled at centre ice by his poke check, while Tuck and Archambault also played nice hockey. The latter player, a new recruit has plenty of weight and ability and with more experience should be a real asset to the team.

Three-Man Attacks.

The winners set a torrid pace in the final frame, and harassed the Campbellford goalie with three-man attacks on most occasions working close in. A penalty to Bush while Wilkes was still in the penalty box left the visitors two men shy but they were able to weather the attacks of the Petes. The Petes missed several chances to score in this frame, Tuck on one occasion missing the net completely when he had only the goalie to beat while Jones missed a perfect pass from Woods. Woods scored after five minutes of play on a lone rush when he outskated the entire team, eluded Wilkes, the only defence man in position, and drew Heptonall out of the net. Lambert came back strong for the visitors but Foley took his shot on the pads. McCullough added another counter for the Petes shortly after on one of his characteristic individual plays which gave the goalie no chance, making the score 4-1 for the locals.

Play Effective Attack.

Lambert, Bush and Wilkes were the most effective for the visitors the first-named going almost the whole game at centre. He was sure of his check and packed a shot with a sting to it.

Archambault sunk the final counter for the Blueshirts with six minutes to go on a pass from Tuck, and although the Petes battled desperately during the dying minutes of the game in an effort to secure one more goal, they were held by the visitors.

Both goalminders turned in sterling performances, Heptonall having the most shots to handle while Foley in the net for Peterborough was as sensational as usual.

The teams:

Campbellford— Goal, Heptonall; defence, Wilkes and Bush; centre, Lambert; wings, Hendy and Stocker; alternates, Runions, Holmes and Cubit.

Peterborough Hockey Club—Goal, Foley; Defence, Woods and McCullough; centre, Epps; wings, Dallin and Jones; alternates, Tuck, Thirnbeck and Archambault.

Referee—Walter Jackson.

LARRY GAINS IN TRAINING WITH OTHER BRITISH RING ARTISTS

Canada's best heavyweight who has been beating the pick of Europe for the last two years is shown in the top panel training along with Reggie Meens, the English heavy who was beaten in two rounds by Carnera and Tom Berry. Gains, of course, is the dusky athlete in the centre, while Berry is at the left and Meens at the right. The handsome lad with the cap is another of Larry's British playmates.

TECUMSEHS IN THIRD POSITION

Londoners Defeat Windsor Bulldogs 1-0 to Chalk Up Fourth Straight Win.

NEARING TOP RUNG.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 16. (CP)—Chalking up their fourth straight victory over last night Tecumsehs are proving the mid-season sensation of the International Hockey League. Parked in second last place two weeks ago, the Londoners, by virtue of their hard-earned triumph over Windsor Bulldogs, 1 to 0, now find themselves deadlocked for third place with Cleveland Indians, and only two points behind the second place Windsorites.

A long lift by Speedy Groh, hard working utility player, with less than four minutes to go in the final frame slipped by the eagle-eyed Clint Benedict for the lone tally of a torrid contest.

More than 3,000 fans crowded into the London arena for the renewal of rivalry between two ancient foes and they were not disappointed. Right from the start the teams opened wide the throttle. Checking was strenuous but clean and only in the dying moments did ill-feeling break out. Lloyd Duguid, Windsor forward picked on the husky "Toots" Holway, Tecumseh defence man, for a sparring match just as the final bell rang, but the combatants were separated before much damage was done.

Only one game is scheduled tonight and in that, the Bulldogs entertain the league leading Buffalo Bisons. The Border City team is the only one in the league that has met the Bisons with any degree of success this season, but last nights' hard clash with the Tecumsehs may leave them too weary to show their best.

STIRLING, Jan. 16.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Hoards and Menie battled to a scoreless tie in the first game of a doubleheader played here. A district league has been formed comprising six teams with games to be played in the Stirling arena and the schedule is being met with much enthusiasm by the hockey fans. Line up:

The second game was between Bethel and River Valley, the former winning by a 2-0 count. Beatty of Stirling was referee for both games. Line up:

Bethel—Goal, H. McGee; centre, C. McGee; wings, P. Gibson, J. MacInroy; defence, F. McGee, F. Richaddson; sub, Jim Hulin.

River Valley—Goal, K. Morrow; centre, H. Morrow; wings, J. Bary J. McGowan; defence, D. Donohue, H. Heasman; sub, H. Scott.

BELLEVILLE CUBS DEFEAT CADETS 10-4

Bay of Quinte Juniors Win First Scheduled Game on Home Ice.

BELLEVILLE, January 16. — Belleville Cubs won their first scheduled junior game at home last night when they defeated R.M.C. of Kingston by 10 to 4. The Cubs played back to the form they displayed earlier in the season. The locals had plenty of speed and were breaking fast. The local team turned in a fine combination effort, with the sallies of Ethier and Sherry being prominent. The goals were scored on combination, J. Morgan, St. Denis and Runions being the marksmen, while Kelly was the scorer for the college team. Belleville scored four goals in the first frame and two in the second, and four in the third, while R.M.C. counted twice in the second and twice in the third.

R.M.C. — Goal, Bigelow; defence, Mather and Kennedy; centre, Kelly; wings, Elie and Gagnon; subs., Piers, Griffin, and Kirk.

Belleville — Goal, Morton; defence, Ethier and Sherry;; centre, McDonald; wings, Runions and J. Morgan; subs., H. Morgan, St. Denis and McGuire.

Referee—Bobby Armstrong, Toronto.

Dempsey May Referee Baer-Heeney Contest

NEW YORK, January 16. — Max Baer, big, good-looking puncher from Califofnia, will make his second start in the East at Madison Square Garden tonight against Tom Heeney, the New Zealand warhorse, who is slowly reaching the end of the trail. Baer lost his first engagement here to Ernie Schaaf, the Boston blonde, but was impressive and colorful enough in action to merit another hearing. Odds are overwhelmingly in favor of the youngster.

Jack Dempsey, now active as a referee, probably will enliven the main ten-round bout with his presence.

LEAFS DRAW WITH RANGERS 1-1 WHILE HABITANTS BEAT MAROONS TO STRENGTHEN TOP PLACE HOLD

HAWKS BLANK BRUINS 2-0.

Amerks Defeat Senators 2-1 For Chance to Reach Playoff Berth.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 16.—(By the Canadian Press.)—Les Canadiens of Montreal increased their hold on the top rung of the Canadian group standing last night by defeating their intra-city rivals, Maroons, 4 to 1, in the feature contest carded in the National Hockey League. While the Maroons were absorbing their second defeat in three starts against the Flying Frenchmen, Toronto Maple Leafs were battling Rangers to a one-all tie at New York. Splitting the points enabled the Queen City representatives to climb into a tie with Maroons for second place, two games behind the Habitants.

Eddie Gerard's amazing Amerks remained within striking distance of a play-off berth when they defeated the luckless Senators at Ottawa, 2 to 1. Just when the Ottawans were beginning to show a return to form after a disastrous slump injuries cropped up and against the Americans they played minus the services of their regular defencemen.

Chicago Blackhawks proceeded to convincingly prove they are masters of Boston Bruins in the only all-American tilt programmed. Outskating the group leaders throughout the Hawks finished in the van 2 to 0, and cut the Bruins lead to three points, and also increased their lead over the Rangers by two full games.

Rout at Montreal

The Forum at Montreal was jammed by fans eager to witness what was expected to prove a titanic struggle. It developed into a rout, however, as the erratic Maroons were no match for the flashing Red Shirts.

Pete Lepine and Larochelle gave the Habitants a two goal lead near the half-way mark of the second period. The opening frame was devoid of feature, as the teams merely felt each other out. Lepine skated right through the startled Munromen to net the first encounter, while Larochelle scored following a three-man play with Morenz and Joliat.

The Canadiens' starry centre, Howie Morenz, added another point to his total early in the third frame before Lionel Conacher, sturdy Maroon defenceman notched his team's lone marker on a pass-out from Wilcox.

Less than two minutes later Lepine got his second unassisted tally of the game to complete the squelching of the Maroon sweatered warriors.

Maple Leafs came close to squeezing out a victory over the Rangers. Andy Blair, elongated centre, converted Ace Bailey's pass into a pretty goal less than three minutes after the start. This slim lead the Torontonians held until nearly seven minutes had elapsed in the third period. At this stage Bill Cook, brilliant Ranger winger, who was reported suffering from a slight fracture of the wrist, snared Frankie Boucher's pass-out to beat Lorne Chabot for the equalizer.

From then on, the teams travelled at a fast clip in a fruitless effort to register the winning tally. Wide open hockey, breath-taking scrimmages and clever stops by the rival net-minders marked the remainder of the game.

Stellar Goalminding

Spectacular goaltending by the diminutive Roy Worters, coupled with strong defensive tactics, enabled the Americans to down the Senators, who were without Alex Smith and Harold Starr.

"Pat" Patterson opened the scoring in the second period on Billy Burch's pass, but nine minutes later the Senators evened matters when Art Gagne netted following a passing bout with Danny Cox and Art Smith. The A's soon broke the deadlock, however, when Normie Himes swept in on Billy Beveridge to easily score the winning goal following a three-man rush.

The Bruin-Blackhawk struggle kept nearly 16,000 fans in a constant uproar. Stung to bitterness by two defeats at the hands of the Chicagoans, the burly Boston players fought strenuously but fruitlessly to wrest victory from their rivals. Despite the ruggedness of the clash it was clean throughout with only a few penalties meted out.

Dutkowski, captain of the Hawks, fittingly scored the first counter of the game, late in the second session on a pass from Tommy Cook, but it remained for little Hal March, the team's real speed artist, to clinch the valuable two points with a sparkling unassisted tally near the half-way mark of the last frame.

Australia's wheat crop this season has just been officially estimated at 200,000,000 bushels.

Intercollegiate Union To Discuss Pass Rule

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 16—(By the Canadian Press).—The question of adopting the forward pass will be considered by the rules commission of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union when that body meets at McGill University, Montreal, on Jan. 19th. The Inter-provincial Rugby Union has already decided to use this offensive weapon next season, and Eastern Canadian teams have employed it for years.

According to the Toronto Globe, the University of Western Ontario and McGill University are strongly in favor of the forward pass and the question is whether the University of Toronto and Queens University will be influenced by the Inter-provincial Union's example.

STARS DEFEAT CANUCKS 1-0 IN FAST SOUTH END LOOP TILT

Young Slips Winning Counter Past Collins Just Before Final Gong.

CHOATES WINNERS 5-1.

Two more shut-outs featured the three junior South End City League games played last night at the Sacred Heart rink. The number of scoreless games run off in this league speaks well for the goal-minding, as the shooting is hard and frequent. And last night was not exceptional, for the players taking advantage of the best ice of the week, played a lightning brand of hockey for all three games.

The Stars and Canucks started it off, and what a game it was! Fast, rough and scoreless until the last three minutes of the final period, it was the outstanding battle of the evening. Both teams started strong, with a feud developing early between Wately and Lazure which soon became contagious with the other players. Heavy body-checking kept the boys away out and the shooting was poor. Wately went off for a major penalty for roughing just before the period ended. In the second, Maudsley snaked his way through on several pretty rushes, but couldn't find the net. The session found the team both going at top speed and keeping the goalies on their toes. Collins had to come out several times to stop the Stars' combinations. The last frame found the defense men bodying hard, and a steady procession to the "cooler." Just before the final gong, Young whistled one in too fast for Collins and the game was in the bag. The teams:

The second game, in marked contrast to the opener, found a cleaner brand of hockey displayed. Choates' Hardware, last year's champs, skated off at the end with the heavy side of a 5-1 count. The first stanza found the play being rushed from one goal to another, but no scoring. Watman, the Pirates' leading sharp-shooter, was hurt early and had to leave the game. Just before the bell, Dinesen lined one into the corner for the first counter. In the second, with both teams alternating their forward lines frequently, play speeded up. Choates, through their superior weight and aggressiveness, ran in two more markers, both on individual rushes by McGillen and Hickson. In the third go, the Corsairs, with Watman back, kept raining the rubber at Anthony and finally tallied from the stick of "Moose" Bailey. Choates, however, never slackened down, and Dinesen and McIlwain each counted one in quick succession toward the close with one of the losers doing time.

Referee—W. Rogers.

Canucks Blank Electrics

The final affair of the evening saw the rejuvenated Canucks return to the fray and let Electrics down with a 5-0 shut-out. Both teams were fast and clean, and provided plenty of action. The first period was scoreless, the boys playing poor combination, and shooting from too far out. In the second, Canucks began playing the blue line, and with O'Toole's weaving sorties resulting in two of the best, they looked the better team. But the losers never quit trying, Earle and Payne being particularly troublesome. In the last session, Canucks eased in three more, Post getting one and Lesurf a pair. They were just sizzling up the ice throughout, with no thought of protecting their lead and actually seemed disappointed when the final bell rang.

The teams:

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Of as much interest to Canadian playgoers as the witty dialogue and plot construction are the various characters to be seen in the forthcoming production, "Marigold", the Scottish comedy, the London success appearing with the original company at the Grand Tuesday and Wednesday, January 20-21. This engagement is due solely to the efforts of the producer, Simon Ord, who has personally taken upon himself the bookings of the return trip to the Atlantic coast.

Of course the fascinating personality of Mrs. Pringle, the "meenister's" wife is the outstanding figure to Canadians. Jean Clyde, famed player of many Scotch roles, portrays the shrewd, kindly woman whose comments on folks and happenings vary from the sympathetic to the incisive, startling the audience into delighted chuckles. Here is surely a lesson in pointed repartee delivered in such moderate, reasonable, tones that they come with the force and surprise of a lightning stroke. Marigold herself, as played by Sophie Stewart is one of the most charming, romantic figures of the modern stage. In poke bonnet and flowered skirt with prim manners that at times burst into exuberance, she sparkles with real joy and youth.

Then there is the satisfied purse-proud laird, who has made an offer for the hand of Marigold to grace his table as housewife; the douce, divinity student who is a veritabel Paul Pry; Major Sellar, father of the girl, a dour, martinet; Madam Marly, the unknown mother, now a French actress, but one time wife of a Scotchman, known to the guid folk as a flighty wife; the young officer from Edinburgh Castle, the ideal of love's young dream and all his gay military companions, all forming a group to make a sentimental and amusing episode of Victorian times for the delectation o. the lover of the drama.

Advance booking for the engagement of "Marigold" may now be made through the mail. The box office will be open for reservations on Saturday, January 17th.

FAST ICE FOR JUNIOR BATTLE HERE TO-NIGHT

Both Lakefield and St. John's Expect Good Going to Favor Them.

A REAL ARGUMENT.

Lakefiled Will Have a Bunch of Fans to Cheer Them to Victory.

There is a lightning fast sheet of ice ready for the Lakefield-St. John's Junior O.H.A. battle at Brock Street Rink to-night, and both teams are tickled over the conditions. The last time the teams met the ice was heavy and St. John's had a tough time of it beating the Lakefield youngsters 2 to 1. The Northerners claim that on fast going they can reverse the verdict. At all events, both teams like the footing good, and as they will get what they want to-night, they should travel at top speed and give the fans a real exhibition of fast junior hockey.

Lakefield, with players like Wingett, Northey, Wanamaker and Elmslie on the line-up, will provide plenty of opposition, and to stay up at the top the Saints will have to step on the gas all the way.

A goodly bunch of Lakefield fans will be down to see their favorites in action.

GOLDEN RETAINS LEAD OVER FIELD

Dudley Second By One Stroke in Agua Caliente Tournament.

THREE IN TIE FOR THIRD.

AGUA, Caliente, Mexico, Jan. 16.—John Golden continued to set the pace in the $35,000 Agua Caliente open golf tournament yesterday by adding a score of 73 to his 70 of yesterday for a two-day total of 143. He was a stroke in front of Ed. Dudley at the halfway mark, the Wilmington, Del., pro equalling the Connecticut man's 73 to-day for a 36-hole count of 144.

Tie For Third Place.

Tied for third place with scores of 146, were MacDonald Smith and Mortie Dutra, the Carnostie star, shooting a 74 to-day and the Spanish sharpshooter 75. Each might have been lower. The Scot missed two puny putts—a freakish performance for him—and the Long Beach pro suffered a disastrous break at the second hole where his ball moved as he dislodged a twig, making it necessary for the player to note a penalty stroke on his card.

The close of the second day's play found three well-known players and two of lesser reputation grouped at 147, in fine position to leap into the forefront of the battle if the leaders falter in the later rounds.

SOCCER NOTES.

A special meeting of the Peterborough and District Football Association will be held on Monday evening, in the Chamber of Commerce Rooms, at eight o'clock prompt. Business to be transacted is important. Arrangements for the delegates to Ontario Football Association and the instructions to be carried out as the wish of the local board. Club representatives and full executive, please attend.

The constitution and by-law committee has failed to hold a meeting to carry out the instructions given it, owing to the members being in an unsatisfactory state of health. At any rate, the committee has made arrangements to have the rules all formulated for the next meeting.

At the end of the 1930 season, the Canadian General soccer team had their photgraphs taken along with the cups that they won. Their representatives at the last meeting were R. Carmichael and R. Clyde.

On Tuesday evening, January 20, 1931, the Brinton Athletic soccer team will hold a banquet in the Paragon Hall, at 6.30 prompt. Invitations have been sent to the players associated with the team during the past season and they are expected to be present in full force.

LOSERS SWAMPED UNDER IN CHURCH LEAGUE BILL

ST. PAUL'S LOSE OUT 6-3.

Rugby scores marked four so-called hockey games in the Church League last night at All Saints' rink. The weird exhibitions were enough to cause the few hardy fans who stayed, to resolve to lead better lives in future. The last two affairs could have been worse, but the first couple undoubtedly were!

Knox Midgets started right off to snow George Street under, and when they were finished, the losers were buried under a 12—0 blanket. That the winners did not get more goals must be attributed to their armweariness. George Street never had a chance, and as the score mounted, hopeless inertia took possession of the entire team. The teams:

In the second Midget go, Mark Street defeated St. Paul's 7—1 in a slow and one-sided game. Although the ice was fast, neither team showed much speed. St. Paul's looked sloppy all through, and the winners scored most of their goals on individual efforts. Hunter, in the net for Mark Street, made some nice saves in the early part of the game.

St. Paul's: Goal, Morrow; right defence, Pulkinghorn; left defense, Clifford; centre, Clark; right wing, A. Clark; left wing, Leith; alternates, Anderson, Corrie and Kirkwood.

ST. PAUL'S LOST OUT 6—3

Knox Juveniles outplayed St. Paul's in a fair game, which saw the best combination trys of the evening. Both goalies had their work cut out to hold the fort against the two and three-man rushes. The winners earned their victory by the boring-in tactics they employed all the way.

St. Paul's: Goal, C. Morrow; right defence, Marsh; left defense, Rowan; centre, Clark; right wing, G. Morrow; left wing, McKay; alternates, Kirkwood and Sharpe.

The final game was a comparatively good one with St. James' Juniors taking a 5—3 decision over All Saints. The boys played fast and clean, and there was little to choose between them for the first two periods. The aggressiveness of the winners swung the balance in the late stages of the game, but the losers kept trying till the end.

St. James'.—Goal, Sloane; right defence, Price; left defense, Richardson; centre, Spence; right wing, English; left wing, Jamieson; alternates, MacDonald, Meredith and Grosse.

DETROIT WING RETAINS LEAD IN N. H. L. LIST

Goodfellow Leading in Points Although Cook Has Scored Most Goals.

PENALTY RANKING SAME.

Chicago Hawks Blank Opposition For Ninth Time This Season.

TORONTO, Jan. 16 (C.P.)—Only 12 goals were scored in National Hockey League games last night, and these were distributed between eight teams. Canadiens won from their inter-city rivals, 4—1; Maple Leafs and Rangers ended at 1—1; Americans defeated Ottawa 2—1, and Chicago blanked Boston 2—0.

This is the result, so far as the standings are concerned; Canadiens are still leading the Canadian section with 29 points. Toronto and Maroons are tied for second place with 25; Americans are next with 22, and Ottawa is still in last place with 12. In the American group, Boston's lead was whittled down to just three points above Chicago, who have a total of 30. Rangers are next with 26; Detroit fourth with 21, and Philadelphia still far behind with only five points, scored with two wins and a draw.

Although Detroit was not in action last night, Ebbie Goodfellow, their star centre man, still held his lead in the individual scoring columns. Ebbie, who has been hailed as the "find of the current season, has scored 16 goals and 10 assists for a total of 26 points. Howie Morenz, of Canadiens, leader of the Canadian section, added two points, a goal and an assist, to his total of 23, and is now just one behind Goodfellow for the leadership of the entire league.

But although Goodfellow leads his group in total points, Bill Cook, of Rangers, has scored more goals. Last night Bill, playing with an injured wrist, scored one goal. In all, he has beaten the goal-tender 19 times so far. Frankie Boucher, of the same team, has most assists, having helped 15 times. In the Canadian loop, Joe Primeau, of Toronto, has assisted 11 times and is leading this group.

Chicago's fourth straight shutout places them in an enviable position as regards opposition-blanking. It was their ninth similar achievement of the season, although the Toronto squad holds the record for consecutive shut-outs with five. In addition, the Leafs have blanked their opposition twice in other encounters.

There was no change in the penalty ranking. Harvey Rockburn, Detroit, has spent 80 minutes with the timers, and is by far the worst offender in the league. In the Canadian section, Alex Smith, Ottawa, has been "chased" for a total of 59 minutes.

One of the best middleweights England possesses and a game fighter, Len Harvey, holder of the British middleweight championship, lost his first fight on this side of the Atlantic to Vince Dundee. The appointing of a new treasurer also came before the meeting, the late holder of the office, H. W. Lapp, having been removed to Ottawa. On a vote of the members, Glen Thompson, the new manager of the Campbellford branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was elected to fill this position.

A BEDTIME STORY

By Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S GOOD LUCK.

"Wait a minute! Hold on there, my dear! What are you going to do?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily's wife.

"Why," answered the rabbit gentleman as he stood in the front doorway of his hollow stump bungalow with a shovel in his paws, "why, I am going to dig a tunnel through the deep snow that banks up against the door. I'll make a tunnel hole so I can get out to look for an adventure and so our bunny boys and girls can go to school. You know I am going to dig a tunnel."

"I know you said you were," his wife answered. "But where are you going to put the snow that you take out to make the tunnel?"

"Oh, bless my pink nose! I never thought of that!" gasped Mr. Longears

"I must have some place to put the snow, to be sure!"

There had been a big storm in Woodland near the Orange Ice Mountains where Uncle Wiggily lived. The snow was so deep it covered the windows making the inside of the bungalow look like night when it really was day. And the snow was over the top of the front door, so that when Uncle Wiggily opened it, all he saw was a white, cold wall of snowflakes.

Luckily the snow shovel had slept in the kitchen all night so with that in his paws the rabbit gentleman was going to dig a tunnel through the thick, deep wall of snow when his wife asked him where he was going to put what he dug out.

You know if you start to dig a tunnel, or long hole, through a bank of snow you toss each shovel ful back of you or off to one side or perhaps even on top of the snowbank. But if you are inside a house and there is a big drift, higher than the house, in front of the door, and you start to dig, where are you going to throw the snow you dig out?

That is what Uncle Wiggily's wife asked him, and the rabbit gentleman di not, for the moment, know how to answer her. Then he had what he thought was a jolly good idea.

"Why," he said, smiling and twinkling his pink nose, "I will dig shovels of snow from this white drift in front of the door and put the snow back of me. Won't that be all right? That's how I always dig a snow tunnel. Here goes!"

"Stop!" cried Mr. Longears. "Do you think I am going to let you pile a lot of snow back of you in the hall and in the bungalow! The idea! Tossing a lot of snow behind you into my clean bungalow No!"

"The snow will melt and the place will be running with water!" squeaked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper. "That must never be!"

"Well, what can I do?" asked Uncle Wiggily, changing the shovel from one paw to the other and looking helplessly at the white wall of snow. Some that had fallen into the hall when he opened the door had already melted on the floor.

"Let me dig the tunnel!" begged Buster, a boy rabbit.

"No, Unkie Wig said I could dig!" spoke Baby Bunty, the orphan.

"Yes. Let the children dig!" agreed Uncle Wiggily, turning to his wife. "I'll give the boys this big shovel, the girls can use some of Nurse Jane's big tablespoons. They will be like little shovels. Start in, my dears, and—"

"No! No!" cried Mrs. Longears in big letters. "Why, Wiggy," she went on, "the children, digging a tunnel, would have no more place than you would have, to put the snow they take out. I can't have them toss it back here in the hall."

"No, that's true—you can't," agreed Uncle Wiggily, sadly. "Well, then I guess we can't dig a snow tunnel to-day, my dears."

"Maybe we could at the back door," suggested Jingle.

The children rushed to open the back door, but that, also, was blocked by a big bank of snow. And Nurse Jane said she wasn't going to have her clean kitchen all dirtied up with the melted flakes.

"Well, then," said Uncle Wiggily, "all we can do is to wait a few days for the warm sun to melt the snow down enough so I can crawl out over the top and start digging the tunnel from outside."

"Yes, we'll wait for the sun," said Mrs. Longears. "We have enough to eat in the bungalow to last for a week. We'll just wait." So they made the best of it, and though the children were rather fretful at times, Uncle Wiggily told them stories that made them happy. And in a way, the deep snow brought Uncle Wiggily good luck.

The Fox, the Wolf and the Bob Cat managed to dig out of their dens and they came looking for Uncle Wiggily. But his bungalow was covered so deep in the snow that the Bad Chaps couldn't see so much as the chimney sticking out. So they thought the rabbit had gone away and they went back to their dens. And then the sun began to melt the snow so Mr. Longears could get out to dig a tunnel.

THE "BEAUTY" THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN!

The poisons from constipation often cause pimples, sallow skin, dull eyes—headaches and even serious disease.

But every girl can banish the evils of constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. Its bulk sweeps the system clean.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are a wonderful health prescription. Try it with milk. Add fruits or honey. Delicious when combined with canned peaches. ALL-BRAN is non-fattening.

OFFICIALS ELECTED.

A large number of representative women were in attendance at the annual rally of the Local Council of Women, held on Thursday afternoon in the green room of the Y.W.C.A.

The story of a most successful year was told in the many splendid reports presented by the officers of the council, the convenors of committees and representatives from affiliated organizations, showing that while each member might be merely a cog in a vast wheel, still each has her own particular and important part to play.

The president, Mrs. C. H. Edwards, presided, and the meeting was opened by all standing for a few minutes in silent prayer, in memory of Mrs. A. Mowat, a beloved member of the Council.

The usual devotional service followed and the meeting was open for the reports and the election of officers for the coming year.

The treasurer's report gave the standing of the Council in a financial way, and the corresponding secretary gave a comprehensive resume of the year's activities from another viewpoint.

Mrs. Law also expressed great appreciation of the life and influence of the late Mrs. Mowat, whose loss the whole Council mourns.

The following convenors of the various committees brought their own departments before their hearers in concise and pithy word pictures:—

Arts and Letters, Mrs. Blackwell; Child Welfare, Miss Wood; Cinema and Printed Matter, Mrs. Seaton; Citizenship, Mrs. Dunford; Economics, Mrs. Helson; Education, Mrs. Morris, Housing and Town Planning, Mrs. W. R. S. Blackwell; Laws Concerning Women and Children, Mrs. Harvey; League of Nations, Miss Murphy; Mental Hygiene, Miss Anderson; Moral Standards, Mrs. Edwards; Migration, Miss Brownscombe; Public Health, Mrs. Sutton; Trades and Professions, Mrs. Mills; Soldiers' and Sailors' Pensions, Mrs. Morris.

The affiliated organizations responding to the roll call were the following:

All Saints' Auxiliary; Ashburnham Patriotic League; Catholic Women's League; Central Home and School Association; King Edward Home and School Association, King George, Queeen Alexandra, Queen Mary, Prince of Wales; 57th Chapter I. O. D. E.; Otonabee Chapter, I.O.D.E.; Mission Circle, Murray Street Baptist Church; Mission Circle, Trinity United Church; Nicholls Hospital Alumnae; Woman's Association, St. James' United Church; Woman's Association, Murray Street Baptist Church; Woman's Association, St. Luke's Church; Canadian Legion; Woman's Art Association; George Street United W.M.S.; St. Andrew's United W.M.S.; St. James' United W.M.S.; Baby Clinic.

Mrs. W. R. Morris, who presided during the election of officers, in a brief address, also paid tribute to the late Mrs. Mowat, recalling many pleasant memories of a long and happy association with her.

Officers Elected

The results of the election returned the following efficient executive and convenors of committees:—

President: Mrs. C. H. Edwards; Vice-Presidents: 1st, Mrs. Dearborn; 2nd, Miss Lancaster; 3rd, Mrs. Mills; 4th, Mrs. Henry; 5th, Mrs. Helson; 6th, Mrs. Deyell; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Wightman; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. B. Law; Treasurer, Mrs. E. Wand.

The convenors of last year were returned with but two or three changes:

Arts and Letters, Mrs. W. Blackwell; Child Welfare, Miss Wood; Cinema and Printed Matter, Mrs. Seaton; Citizenship, Mrs. H. E. Dunford; Household Economics, Mrs. George Helson; Education, Mrs. W. R. Morris; Housing and Town Planning, Mrs. W. R. S. Blackwell; Laws, Women and Children, Mrs. Dr. Harvey; League of Nations, Miss Murphy; Mental Hygiene, Miss Anderson; Moral Standards, Mrs. Edwards; Migration, Miss Brownscombe; Public Health, Mrs. Sutton; Trades and Professions, Mrs. Mills; Soldiers' and Sailors' Pensions, Mrs. Morris; Relief Committee, Mesdames Dunford, Davidson, Law and Young.

Princess Victoria Louise, Princess Helene, Princess Giovanni, Infanta Beatrice, Princess Juliana, Princess Yolanda, Prince of Wales

"Dame Rumor," silent for so long anent the matrimonial affairs of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, is about due to limber up her artillery in preparation for another barrage of conjecture; for Prince David is going on another trip. The Prince is not, as one would expect, annoyed at the attention of "Dame Rumor." On the contrary, every scrap of gossip she has promulgated concerning him and "his brides-to-be" has been saved and filed for inclusion in the most interesting volume in the royal library. H.R.H. calls it his "Book of Brides." Above in an excellent photograph of the popular Prince of Wales surrounded by portraits of some of the more important "brides-to-be." So we will leave "Dame Rumor" to the task of oiling her tongue muscles for her next campaign in which she will doubtless provide another entry in the "Book of Brides."

South Africa-England In Third Test Match

DURBAN, South Africa, Jan. 16.—(Canadian Press Cable).—South Africa and England opened up their third test cricket match here today. South Africa has won one and drawn another of the five games comprising the test match program of England's present tour.

The remarkable luck of H. G. Deane, South African captain, in calling the toss correctly held good to-day.

Results of the match shoot of the Peterborough Rangers' Civilian Rifle Association. The match was held in the miniature rifle range at the Armouries and if the club keeps progressing at its present rate, the range will have to be enlarged. Competition was very keen, featured by two possible scores. Both marksmen received a handicap at the last match, consequently were not in the running for a prize. The prizes went to the next highest scores: Lt. D. T. Crawford won first and Alex McIlvena second. A considerable improvement was noted over last week.

THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure has no truer application than in the case of fire.

Carefulness costs nothing, yet thousands of dollars are saved every day, for instance, by the matches that are not thrown away while burning.

Every child should be taught to recognize and appreciate the dangers that lie in all exposed flames.

Of the ten thousand annual deaths by fire in the United States, one-third are children under ten years of age.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN No. 47 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

No sooner had the Beasts of Tarzan vanished than Rokoff rose from his hiding place and raced through the jungle as fast as his legs could carry him. His one thought was to put as much distance as possible between himself and that frightful pack. So it happened that as Jane came to the river's bank, down which she hoped to float to the ocean and eventual rescue Rokoff was but a short distance behind.

Upon the bank the girl found a great dugout tied to a tree. After an hour's work she was pushing it free from the retarding mud when she saw a man running toward her. A little cry of terror rose to her lips. It was Rokoff. Another moment and the boat would be free. She worked furiously. With a sudden lurch the dugout swung quickly into the current, just as Rokoff reached to grab its bow.

His fingers did not miss their goal by six inches. The girl almost collapsed from the nervous strain of the past few minutes. But thank fortune, at last she was safe. Even as she breathed a silent prayer of thanksgiving she saw an expression of triumph lighten the face of the cursing Russian. He dropped suddenly to the ground, grasping firmly to something which wriggled through the mud toward the water.

Jane crouched, wide eyed and horror stricken, in the bottom of the boat, as she realized that at the last moment success had been turned to failure and that she was indeed again in the Russian's power. For the thing that the man had seen and grasped was the end of the trailing rope with which the dugout had been moored to the tree. But his smile of leering triumph was destined to be short lived.

HEPBURN WILL NOT DESERT ELGIN IN QUEST FOR SEAT IN LEGISLATURE

REVIEWS ECONOMIC SLATE.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Jan. 16. (CP) A declaration that he would not leave Elgin County in his quest for a seat in the Provincial Legislature marked the address delivered here last night by Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., Elgin West, at a banquet tendered him here and attended by both Liberals and Conservatives of the Elgin constituencies as well as numerous visitors.

"I do not think there is any likelihood of my leaving Elgin county," said Mr. Hepburn. "When I do go to the Legislature as a representative of the people or as Prime Minister, I hope to go with a mandate from the people of one of the two Elgins, and notwithstanding one of our members has already offered me his seat, I have no desire to retire as representative of Elgin County."

Comments on Criticism

Commenting on criticism levelled at his position the Provincial Liberal Leader referred to Premier S. F. Tolmie who, he said, had stayed at Ottawa two years before returning to his Province on the eve of an election.

After receiving tribute from several prominent Conservatives present, including George Spotton, M.P., Huron north, Mr. Hepburn spoke of Canadian economic and constitutional developments. The Dominion, he proceeded, had advanced from the status of a junior member to a full-fledged partner in a British Commonwealth of Nations. He did not share the view national autonomy meant the disintegrating of the Empire, the speaker said, adding the Great War of 1914 had demonstrated to the contrary.

Continuing Mr. Hepburn said he believed if the solidarity of the Empire was ever threatened it would be from economic causes and not by reason of any constitutional developments in the way of greater freedom under the British flag.

Following a brief review of Canadian economic conditions the speaker referred to the Russian five-year plan which he believed was of interest to Canadians because like the Dominions the Soviet was primarily an agricultural country and by the five-year plan she hoped to place herself among the leading exporting countries of the world which meant still further competition for Canadian wheat and other products.

SCHNEIDER CUP ACTION BY GOV'T BRINGS PROTEST

Lord Howe in Letter to Times Claims Decision is Absolutely Disastrous.

ECONOMY GROUNDS GIVEN.

Noted Speed Fan Claims Former Results Been Great Aid to Aircraft Building.

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 17 (C. P. Cable).—Agitation against the Government's decision to abandon support of the race for the Schneider Cup this year, on the grounds of economy, was continued to-day with a strong letter to the Times from Lord Howe, former Aide-de-Camp to His Majesty and a noted "speed fan" on land, sea and air. The Government's decision, he said was absolutely disastrous.

British aircraft and engine development has benefited greatly from the lessons learned in winning and defending the famous trophy for seaplane speed, Lord Howe asserted. He remarked the government could provide $450,000 for the subsidization of grand opera, but could not afford the smaller sum necessary to defend the Schneider Cup.

MAYOR DENNE IS RE-ELECTED HEAD OF FAIR BOARD

13TH CONSECUTIVE YEAR.

New Committee Will Be Formed to Manage Junior Farmers' Section.

His protests that he had served long enough not being accepted, Mayor Denne will again lead the activities of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition, but the Vice-President will assume the chairmanship of the Board and relieve the President of much of the details. His request to withdraw to some less responsible position on the board were swept aside by the directors; and unanimously he was elected yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of exhibtion's directorate to his thirteenth consecutive term in the president's chair.

In urging him to again accept the chief office, the directors freely expressed the opinion that his services as chief could not properly be dispensed with at this time. He was the only man, it was said, who could get the exhibition some of the new grants and buildings needed.

He was pledged the solid support and effort of every director. In his brief remarks at the commencement of the meeting, Mayor Denne declared his faith in the city and county, and optimistically looked forward to a better exhibition this fall.

Tom Brown was unanimously elected vice-president and will act as chairman of all director's meetings. The duties of the vice-president were thus broadened to relieve some of the detail work from the president's shoulders. Mr. Brown was nominated by Tom McIndoo, who withdrew his own name for the office.

Vivian Millburn was raised to the second vice-president's chair. For the rest, the old executive was unanimously returned to office.

The executive consists of:
President—Roland Denne.
First Vice-Pres.—Tom Brown.
Second Vice-Pres.—Vivian Millburn.
Treasurer—Fred Holmes.
Secretary—F. J. A. Hall.
Supervisor—J. Gillespie.
General Manager—Wm. Knox.

It was decided that the annual banquet would be held and that the County and City Councils along with the chiefs of neighboring fairs will be invited.

Field Crop Competition.

The committee to manage the Field Crop competition was elected as follows: Charles Moore, Alex Huston, Torrence Lillico, R. C. Hanbridge and J. B. Nelson. A new committee will be formed to manage the Junior Farmers' section with W.

WHITE RUSSIAN ARMY IN FRANCE RAPPED TO GOV'T

Radical Deputy Claims Force of 100,000 Men Being Maintained.

Ready To March On Moscow.

Would Meet Wheat Crisis By Organization to Buy and Sell Agricultural Products.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—Vigorous protest against French toleration within the country's borders of a White Russian military organization of 100,000 men is contained in a memorandum prepared by the radical Deputy Margaine and officially printed to-day by the Chamber of Deputies.

"The 'Army,' Margaine says, "is preparing for the first opportunity to march on Moscow under the leadership of General Eugene Miller, former Governor-General at Archangel, to overthrow the Soviet regime.

"It is needless to ask," the deputy writes in his bill, "what would happen if an Italian refugee announced that he commanded an army of 100,000 with its own military school at Paris, preparing the force to march on Rome against Fascist, Italy."

The protest against Miller's activities is contained in a measure which asks the government to request all European governments without exception to form an organization for the purchase and sale of agricultural products as a means of combatting the present crisis in wheat. The measure at a time when an international commission at Geneva is considering invitation of Russian and Turkey to join deliberations concerning the Briand plan for a federation of European States.

Nova Scotia Town Establishes Record Hard to Equal Anywhere on Continent

LOUISBURG, N. S., Jan. 17.—That this town is one of the most peaceful and law-abiding on the continent may be seen from the following facts:

During the year 1930 there was not a single arrest for drunkenness, theft, assault or any similar charge.

It was not necessary to call one session of the police court during the year.

Although automobile traffic showed a marked increase over other years, no accident resulting in death or injury to any person occured.

During the past three years no arrests have been made for drunkeness.

No citizen of Louisburg within the last ten years has served a sentence in the county jail or appeared in either the County or Supreme Courts of a criminal charge.

When the Nova Scotia Temperance Act was in force, Louisburg had no Government vendor and no attempt was ever made to appoint one.

Under the present Government Control Act, no liquor store has been opened in Louisburg. When the plebiscite on the liquor question was taken, the town voted two to one against Government control.

KING EDWARD SCHOOL TIES LOOP RIVALS

Battles to 2-all With King George in School League Opener.

ALEXANDRA LOSE OUT 12-1.

Queen Mary Blanks Central 4 to 0 in the Second Game.

A tie, a shut-out, and a walk-over featured the three opening games in the Public School League this morning at All Saints 'Rink. The hockey was both good and bad, and the sticky ice kept the speed down.

The first game saw the old rivals, King George and King Edward battle to a 2-all tie. The teams were evenly matched, and played a clean brand of hockey. Most of the goals were scored in the first period, which was the fastest session of the game.

The teams:

CENTRAL BLANKED 4-0.

In the second game, Queen Mary blanked Central 4-0 with the players finding the going hard. The winners held the race better, finishing stronger. They combined to better advantage and scored all their goals

Dog Stands Guard As Baby Mistress Sleeps Near Death

LIGONIER, Pa., Jan. 17. (CP)—The biggest shovel they're using in the excavation for the new high school stood idle almost an hour yesterday while workmen tried to chase away a shepherd dog who refused to budge.

They coaxed him. He bared his teeth. They "shooed" him; he growled. They made gestures at him and he barked. But he wouldn't move.

Then Mrs. Francis Bererson came along looking for Jane, aged one and a half years. And the dog wagged his tail and barked gleefully. His vigil was done. And there underneath the shovel they found Jane, sound asleep, her head on a rock.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM IS LAID OUT TO GIVE ANOTHER SIX WEEKS WORK $80,000 SOON BE ENTIRELY SPENT

665 MEN REGISTERED.

Island Park in Otonabee River South of James Stevenson Park Discussed.

In an attempt to prolong unemployment relief work in Peterborough an extra six weeks, the City Council will send a deputation to Toronto early next week to wait upon the Provincial Secretary and request that $30,000 be added to the $80,000 already granted under the Federal and Provincial unemployment relief scheme.

The decision to interview the Ontario Government immediately with this request was decided at a meeting last night of the Board of Works, when City Engineer Parsons reported that at the present rate of expenditure for unemployment relief work all but $5,000 of the $80,000 will have been spent by the end of this month. If the city secure an additional grant the work can be continued until the end of March, when it is confidently hoped that the critical period now existing will have been passed.

The City Engineer filed a report in detail of the work completed to date, and outlined the streets on which storm drains will be laid if the additional grant is secured.

Island Park

A plan to make an island park of the islands and low ground south of James Stevenson Park was introduced by Alderman Holland. It was agreed that the City Engineer should investigate the proposal immediately and report back giving cost and other data.

In outlining the plan for the island park, Alderman Holland stated that the city is finding a filling ground for its ashes. His proposal was to use the ashes in filling the low ground of James Stevenson Park, and raise the islands making one large island. To speed the work he suggested that a temporary pile bridge be constructed from the present dumping ground on the west shore across to the main island and this be used to carry the ashes across to the islands. Later, he declared a bridge could be built to the island from Maria Street.

By this proposal, Alderman Holland stated, five acres of land could be reclaimed for the city, a beautiful park be constructed, and the value of property on Engleburn Avenue considerably increased.

The scheme was favorably com-

FRANK SCHNEIDER PASSES IN CITY

Prominent Jeweler Died At Noon To-day After a Very Short Iiness.

TAKEN ILL THURSDAY.

Frank S. Schneider, partner in the firm of Schneider Brothers, prominent jewelers of this city, passed away suddenly in hospital this noon.

His death has come as a great shock to his relatives and to his wide circle of friends, both in the social and business spheres. The youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider, the deceased gentleman was born in this city, and in partnership with his brother, George F. Schneider, had been actively engaged in the business for the past forty years, and up to Thursday evening when he was taken ill. The business established here by his father, was originally conducted in the old Muncaster store, but a few doors north of the present location.

The late Mr. Schneider had not been in very good health for some little time past, nevertheless the sudden turn for the worst was little expected by those who know him intimately.

Apart from the jewelery business, in which he took a keen and active interest, the late Mr. Schneider was interested in the Regent Theatre here, as one of the administrators of the Schneider Estate.

He was a member of George Street United Church, and was also an old member of Peterborough Lodge A.F. and A.M.

He leaves his wife, and brother George, to whom the sympathy of the community will be extended in their bereavement.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of Comstock Brothers are not yet completed, and further announcement will follow.

In one day reecntly $2,000 in cash was collected for charity on the streets of Newry, Ireland.

A. CUTTEN CHICAGO WHEAT GIANT BUYS SEAT ON WINNIPEG EXCHANGE

Report Strengthens Rumors Leaders Are Moving Grain Trading to Canada.

PRICE PAID IS $12,600.

CHICAGO, Ills., Jan. 17 (C.P.).—Announcement that Arthur W. Cutten had purchased a seat on the Winnipeg Exchange to-day strengthened current reports that the giants of the grain trade were transferring their trading to Canada because of inactivity here.

Applications of Chicago and Minneapolis brokers for Winnipeg Exchange seats have forced the price upward. Cutten paid $12,600. Chicago Exchange seats may be bought for approximately $9,000.

Forced Out Of Pit.

Traders have contended the buying of wheat by Government sponsored agencies have forced many of them out of the "pit." Just a week ago wheat buyers and sellers moved from the largest pit on the floor to the second-largest, while corn traders took over the number one pit. This transfer was made because for the first year in the 83 the exchange has been in operation. Corn was in greater demand than wheat.

Cutten is generally believed not to have been active in grains for three or four years. At one time he was the most spectacular and the largest of wheat speculators. He turned his attention to the stock market and attained almost as much distinction there.

Recently he has been dealing in grain "bids and offers", an operation that resembles Lloyd's famous insurance acceptances.

Mysterious Figure

Mr. Cutten always has been a mysterious figure in the grain trade, lar-

Rescue Is Thwarted Of Plane On Ice Floe

QUEBEC, Que., Jan. 17.—(C.P.)—Attempts to reach an unidentified airplane floating in the St. Lawrence below Pointe Lebel were again thwarted early to-day by drifting ice. A report reached here this morning that the plane was moving down the river with the ice and had passed out of sight of the inhabitants of Pointe Lebel.

A continued check-up failed to reveal any plane missing. There had been recurrent reports recently that strange machines had been flying across between the Gaspe Coast and the United States border and it was presumed the distressed plane had some connection with these.

PROUD OLD LADY LIVES TO SEE FIVE GENERATIONS IN FAMILY

Mrs. Robert McCauley of Burleigh Township Establishes Proud Record.

EIGHT CHILDREN LIVING.

A great-great-grandmother, that's Mrs. Robert McCauley, happy resident of her log cabin in Burleigh Township. With so many grandchildren that she really could not count them when The Examiner talked with her to-day, but placed the number roughly at thirty.

There are many ambitions in life, but Mrs. McCauley has realized perhaps, as few other women have, the real desire of every mother. Twelve children she had, six boys and six girls, and eight are still living. Then there are the thirty or more grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Born In Toronto.

Mrs. McCauley was born in Toronto 83 years ago last August. She was married 65 years ago last November, and has lived most of her life in the comfortable log cabin, encircled with flowers, that she and her children still call home. Twenty years ago her husband died. Mrs. McCauley lives alone, except when some of her children and their children and children's children, come visiting her in Burleigh. She grows flowers and lives in peace and contentment. When the snow begins to blow she has made it a custom during the last few years to come to Peterborough and spend the winter with her children. At present she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Foster, 358 Simcoe Street.

Lord Irwin said he was happy to think that he would presently be handing over his dutise to Viscount Willingdon, "who is well known in India and singularly well qualified to guide her destinies at this particular juncture." 250,000 Lancashire Weavers Locked Out

PRESENT CRISIS IS MUCH WORSE THAN COAL TIE-UP

Action Will Result in Another 250,000 Spinners and Finishers Being Laid Off.

COTTON MILLS CLOSE.

Labor Ministry Officials Attempt to Patch Up Differences in Vain.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Lancashire cotton mills were closed today against 250,000 weavers, whose representatives have refused flatly to accept a "more looms per weaver" system inaugurated by the mill owners.

The lockout brought Great Britain face to face with an even more serious labor crisis than represented by the South Wales coal strike officially ends allowing 150,000 miners there to go back to work.

In addition to the weavers 250,000 spinners and members of the various finishing trades will also be laid off shortly, since without the weavers there will be no work for them to do, bringing the numbers affected by the Lancashire lockout to about half a million.

No Solution

In an effort to avert the crisis officials of the Labor Ministry conferred for ten hours yesterday with representatives of the weavers and mill owners, separately and in joint meeting, but it was all for naught.

The owners insisted in their demand that the weavers tend eight looms each instead of four and the weavers were adamant in their decision not to accept the new system. The conference finally broke up and notices were posted that the lockout would begin this morning.

In their efforts to bring acquiescence of the weavers to the new system the mill owners offered them as much as £2 or about $10 a week additional wages, but the weavers contended that it would merely increase the number of unemployed at a time when it was imperative every man possible have a job.

STIMSON AFFAIRS KNOWN BY PRICE

MAKES NEGLECT CHARGE.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17 (C.P.).—Claiming he had cause for belief that the Ontario Attorney-General's department knew of the "real state of affairs in the Stimson organization 11 months ago," Elmore Philpott, Liberal candidate in the Hamilton West Provincial by-election to be held on Feb. 11, declared here last night that the reasons for his belief will be divulged from the platform later during the campaign.

"I feel only a few of the revelations to be made will precipitate a Royal Commission or other judicial procedure to probe conditions in the Department," he said, after stating he had received scores of complaints from many parts of the Province "through which specific instances had been obtained which fully warrant a charge of negligence and neglect."

Two Ballots Were All of Those Cast That Were Considered Doubtful.

Scrutiny of the ballots cast in the recent contest for the Reeveship of Belmont and Methuen, which was held here yesterday under the supervision of His Honor Judge E. C. S. Huycke, and which was completed at a late hour on the same afternoon, resulted in confirmation of the original announcement of Returning Officer Grant Dafoe of Belmont. His Honor accordingly announced J. F. Breckenridge as Reeve with a majority of one vote over his opponent ex-reeve, W. E. Griffith, who polled a total of 286 votes, and directed Mr. Griffith to pay the costs.

The recount was ordered on the petition of Mr. Griffith the defeated candidate, who in view of the closeness of the contest had just cause to believe a recount might give him the victory.

Following the close of the scrutiny, but two ballots remained on His Honor's bench, as the subjects of further consideration. They were from Polling Sub-division 2 under Deputy Returning Officer W. J. People's at the Town Hall, Belmont. Both were marked in favour of Mr. Griffith. One of the ballots was not initialled by the D. R. O. while the other was correctly marked, except for a blurred pencil mark near the foot of the sheet.

After lengthy consideration His Honor stated, "There is no question in my mind that these two ballots under consideration must both be counted for Mr. Griffith. Unfortunately that leaves the count precisely as before. I have counted up regardless of these two ballots, and find that Mr. Griffiths has a total of 284 votes and Mr. Breckenridge 287 votes; then take these two ballots reserved for argument and that gives Mr. Griffith a total poll of 286 and Mr. Breckenridge a total poll of 287."

Commenting on the state of the documents, connected with the municipal election in Belmont and Methuen, His Honor stated he had found all the ballots remarkably well marked, but that he had found signs of a great deal of carelessness on the part of certain of the deputy returning officers.

The Proceedings

Shortly after ten o'clock a.m. the Returning Officer arrived at the Court House, where he deposited eight ballot boxes—one from each of the polling sub-divisions of Belmont and Methuen. They were locked and sealed. The contestants Mr. Breckenridge and Mr. Griffith were present, and were both legally represented. On the arrival of His Honor, the recount was promptly launched, it being held in the Judge's Chambers.

Mr. Breckenridge entrenched himself with his solicitor F. D. Kerr, K.C. at the table immediately opposite Mr. Griffith and his solicitor W. F. Huycke. Incidentally both lawyers officiated in the Provincial recount in this county, when the present member T. P. Lancaster, had six more votes added to his election total of 23, as a result of the proceedings instituted by his opponent then, W. A. Anderson, the Liberal-Prohibition candidate and former member for the County. In that case Mr. Huycke was Mr. Lancaster's counsel, Mr. Kerr acted in the interests of Mr. Anderson.

Mr. Dafoe, the returning officer occupied a seat, near the dais on which the judge occupied his position. Swinging into action, the Returning Officer opened up the ballot box from No. 1 polling subdivision. D.R. O., W R. Burgess, Old Havelock. The procedure adopted in making a careful check on the ballots in this box, as in all the others was for the Returning Officer to scrutinize the ballots and call out the name of the man in whose favour each vote was cast. The ballots were then handed for inspection to Mr. Kerr and to Mr. Huycke, after which they were passed on to the Judge, who had the final word as to the validity or otherwise of each ballot. In some instances ballots were marked with votes for councillors only, while at Polling subdivision No. 4 D. R. O., Frank Pollock, Rush Point, three votes were marked by the polling clerk, on behalf of ratepayers who were unable to vote on account of 'physical incapacity'. Proper declarations were made out in respect to these voters, and they were declared to be in order. One ballot from this sub-division was the cause of a great deal of consideration however. Marked in favour of Mr. Griffith it was initialled on the back "F.P.", there was some other endorsement on this ballot, which had been scratched out with the word 'cancelled' written near by.

At the conclusion of the recount, Mr. Griffiths, declared himself as being well pleased and satisfied, after having seen the ballot recounted and everything correct.

VICEREGAL PARTY LEAVES CANADA

PRAISE FOR CANADA.

SAINT JOHN, Jan. 17 (C.P.).—"You have given us character. We are grateful to you for all you have done for us while we were in your glorious Canada," said Lord and Lady Willingdon, bidding adieu to newspapermen clustered about the departing Governor-General of Canada and Viscountess Willingdon on board the steamer Montclare, a few moments before sailing last night from Canada.

Lord Willingdon individually shook hands with the newspaper representatives, and smiled a cheery good-bye as they hurried from the liner with the signal of "all ashore."

As the liner left her berth promptly at 9 p.m., and turned in the harbor, a salute of nineteen guns boomed across the harbor, bidding an official God-speed to the Viceregal party.

Coincident with the dying echoes of the gun's salute rose the screech of sirens from vessels berthed in the harbor, accompanied by whistles and horns on waterfront buildings, as the liner passed down the harbor and into the open sea.

When the special train conveying the Viceregal party arrived in Saint John, a guard of honor of Boy Scouts, representing various troops of the city, welcomed them. Viscount and Viscountess Willingdon were greeted by Hon. J. B. Baxter, Premier of the Province, who was present in his official capacity.

LINER PINNED TO DOCK.

LONDON, Jan. 17. (CP)—A violent storm which ranged over Great Britain during the night abated to-day.

The gale ripped open the roof of the Claydonontune chemical factory spilling 100 tons of sulphuric acid. Employees hurriedly neutralised the acid, preventing serious consquences as it spread through the neighborhood.

Three persons were killed by falling chimneys and signs.

The Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of York was pinned to her dock at Liverpool by the force of the wind and had to delay her sailing. Tugs tried vainly to get her into midstream.

STAR'S SECRETS TOLD AT TRIAL

Secretary Claims Clara Bow Played Poker Six Nights a Week.

BOUGHT MUCH LIQUOR.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 17.—The tempestuous trial of Daisy de Boe former secretary of Clara Bow, on grand theft charges has entered a two day recess after forcing the actress, temporarily at least, into the ranks of the unemployed.

The trial, packed full of the names and secrets of film people, closed its first week before a packed house yesterday as Miss de Boe began "telling on Clara" The blonde secretary is charged with illegally taking $16,000 from the red-headed actress.

In 40 minutes on the stand as the first defense witness, Miss de Boe drew a hasty sketch of her former employer buying expensive presents for men, ordering large consignments of liquor, playing poker six nights a week and having her hair bleached and hennaed.

Studio officials, who announced Miss Bow had been replaced by Sylvia Sidney, a recent recruit from the New York stage, in "City Streets" to have been her next starring vehicle, said the substitution was made by the orders of Clara's physician. They said the change was not made because Miss Bow had violated their edict, which Miss de Boe said had been in the form of a threat to drop Clara from pictures if she got "one more slam in the papers".

MUSINGS AT A MANSE WINDOW

THE Minister of Martyrs' at Blinkbonnie was invited to meet that splendid body of men in the church responsible for collecting and disbursing the money needed for the ministry of the church at home and abroad. The general state of depression throughout the world was—as might be expected—being felt by the church; and a conference had been called to consider ways and means of coping with the situation so as to maintain all branches of the work at a high state of efficiency.

The chairman of the board said: "We don't want to add any more to the load you are already carrying! Your efforts in looking after the sick and shut-ins are greatly appreciated by the entire congregation. We feel that you must have time for prayer and study of the Word of God if you are to do your best work in the pulpit. After all, there is where your greatest value to us lies. Your preaching sometimes makes us ashamed of ourselves—and, being human, we are inclined to be 'sore' at you! You see we are being quite frank with you! Of course, when we take time to think the matter through, we eventually come to see that we are at fault in blaming this on you. We know that it is the Word of God searching our hearts and revealing us to ourselves.

The Chairman Continues.

"You have inspired us to aim higher and shoot straighter. We know our Bibles a little better than when you first came to us—and we have you to thank for that. You have stood with us in our times of sorrow, and have been a great comfort to us as we passed through some sore affliction. For all this, and more, we return thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift!

"Our chief object in asking you to meet with us at this time is to get the benefit of your advice. Some of us feel that you are really the key-man in this matter; and we believe that with your sympathetic co-operation we can better do the work committed to our care. Here we are, willing to be led in this time of financial crisis—will you lead us?"

The Minister Speaks.

It was evident that the minister was pleased with this expression of appreciation and confidence, although he seemed to have some difficulty in controlling his feelings as he returned thanks for the attitude of the board as expressed by the chairman.

"Gentlemen," he said, "you have no idea how much your words mean to me! I can assure you that my preaching is as much to my own conscience as it is to yours. The Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, is a two-edged sword—it cuts both ways! All I seek is our growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

"There is much more in my heart which I would like to say—and may say at another time—but for the present I propose to face, with you, the question of finance.

The Real Quest.

"I know that some of you are not enamoured with The Every Member Canvass! But it is my conviction that if we got the right angle to this question we might be willing to try it again. If you will get rid of the idea that the object of an every member canvass is just an effort to get money you will have taken the first step toward success.

"The real quest is for spiritual life. Life and money have a closer relation to each other than many people imagine—especially in church.

"It is generally true that a church in good spiritual condition is in good financial condition. Of course, when I say this it is not to be interpreted that I necessarily mean that such a church will be out of debt! But I do mean that a large proportion of the membership will be sharing the obligations of church support at home and in the foreign field.

"You must surely know that the people who attend the services of the church more or less regularly are those who support the Lord's work at home and abroad more or less regularly. And I have noticed that the people who give to and attend the services of worship are those we have to count upon to do most of the work of our own congregation.

"Doubtless there are exceptions, but if you will examine them you will discover that they emphasize the rule.

"The Every Member Canvass should seek primarily the individual himself and herself. If we get life we shall get worship, work and money.

Why Canvass At All?

"It has been proved that there is an immense advantage, both psychological and spiritual, in approaching every member of the church with the same effort at the same time. Such an effort creates a common expectation in the minds of members, and where thoroughly done the response approximates one hundred per cent.

"The expectation that every member should and will respond is based upon the Word of God and the obligation assumed in uniting with the church.

"A right response from every member is necessary to the welfare both of the individual and the church. Properly conducted in a prayerful Christ-like way, the results usually surpass all expectations.

How To Go About It.

"I am convinced that we lay a good foundation when we present the plan—such as we may decide upon—fully to the church. If you are willing I should be glad to deal with it at a morning service.

"This would have at least two advantages:

"In the first place, it would be more likely then than at any other time to get the largest possible hearing. And if it is to succeed every possible member should be made familiar with it before it is actually launched.

"In the second place, it would lift it to a high plan and show that it was as much a part of the church's life and labor as the observance of the Lord's Supper or listening to a sermon on the resurrection.

Must Not Be Hurried.

"The date of canvass should be fixed a month or six weeks ahead so that there be ample time for adequate preparation.

"I would have a committee of approximately ten per cent. of the church membership to carry out the canvass. And would then have this committee thoroughly prepared for its work.

"The idea that anybody will make a good canvasser, and that any old time will do for the canvass is both foolish and fatal. Such an attitude will meet with the failure it deserves.

"We should then have a list of church members ready with addresses and all necessary information made up on separate cards. These cards should be distributed among members of the canvassing committee with great care after much prayer, not according to location, but with a view to the wisest spiritual ministry.

"The actual canvass is best made on Sunday afternoon, between the hours of two and six.

"Time is an essential element in all this work. There must be plenty of time to plan and prepare thoroughly—and as short a time as possible in which to do the actual work of canvassing.

"If the reason for this is not at once apparent I am sure you will have no difficulty in seeing it after you have once made the canvass in the way prescribed.

Have a Budget.

"Unless we adopt what might be called 'The Honour Plan' (Please observe that I have put 'U' in HONOR!), a plan I would like to see in operation as being the most spiritual and consequently the most likely to succeed—I believe there should be a church-expense and also a beneficence budget thoughtfully and prayerfully prepared and accepted by vote of the church.

"This budget should cover not only all the known needs, but provide for unexpected things by adding a contingent fun of, from fifteen to thirty per cent. of the entire budget. This being done, I would have no other special appeal during the year without the consent of the congregation at a properly called congregational meeting.

Don't Mail Pledge Cards.

"The date of the canvass being fixed, and the budget having been adopted by the congregation at a representative congregational meeting, a letter, brief and to the point, should be sent to every member, giving the plans, enclosing a copy of the budget, and indicating that the church expects a response from every member.

"But I am convinced we make a mistake if, with this letter, we send a pledge card. That should be taken by the canvassers and brought away duly signed.

"Let the canvassers go out two by two in a spirit of prayer and expectancy. Let them carry with them the conviction that money is not to be gotten or even sought at the expense of spiritual life.

Tabulating Results.

"It would be a good thing if some optimistic report based on facts and not on fancies could be given at the evening service. Then at the close of the service the canvassers should get together to report those missed or not subscribing and have them reassigned.

"Definite follow-up plans should be carried out during the week so that a complete report can be made on the following Sunday.

"Usually those who canvassed a given person are charged with the responsibility of following that person up. It is not enough to get a pledge. The real spiritual results flow into the life of the individual and the church only when the giving, like prayer, is regular and systematic."

How To Succeed.

The minister of Martyrs' Church said: "Now, brethren, I am wondering whether or not I have carried you with me! Perhaps some of you are saying, 'Will it succeed?' and to you my answer is the most positive sort of an affirmative. Let us agree on a plan adapted to local conditions and then carry it out completely.

"I know that so-called every member canvasses have failed! But I am convinced that if they be carefully examined it will be found that the cause of failure will be found, not in the plan itself, but in a failure to adhere to its essential conditions.

"A grab for money will really be a failure, even if it gets the money; for it will often leave behind it a disturbed spirit.

"We need to make people feel we want them most of all, but at the same time that church membership and Christianity have definite obligations.

"Giving is a function of the soul. It is a delicate and important task to start that functioning in the life of a soul. Giving is like combing your hair, the oftener you do it the less it hurts!"

What the official board of the Martyrs' Church did with the minister's suggestions may be told another day. For the present lack of space prevents us from saying more.

Yours for larger spiritual results,

Allan Fairbairn.

There is no courage but in innocence, no constancy but in an honest cause.

YOU PAY!

THE world never gives you a thing without your giving up something of Christ for it. I believe you have to buy every bit of worldliness you get, and to pay very dear for it, too.

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.

Teaching should lead to decision and decision to action and character and life.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS.

The monthly report of the Industrial Accident Prevention Associations in regard to accidents and compensation shows that in December of last year there was a decrease in the number of accidents, in the fatalities and in the total awards for compensation and medical aid.

The same condition applies, in the main, to the whole of last year as compared with 1929.

The total accidents reported to the board were 69,267 in 1930, as against 87,103 in the previous year, but the number of fatal accidents last year was greater, 520 as against 510, than in 1929.

The total awards, both for compensation and medical aid and for medical aid alone, were both lower last year than for the previous twelve months, the 1930 total for the former being $7,423,018.82, while for the year before the amount was $8,012,157.76.

Credit for a certain amount of this decrease may rightly be assigned to a greater interest in safety methods in Ontario industry generally, while the fact that fewer people were employed during 1930 also played a part in bringing down the total.

PETERBOROUGH'S INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION.

The election of Mayor Roland Denne for his thirteenth term as president of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition Board is another proof of the confidence of the directors in the executive ability, driving power and enthusiasm of the man who, since 1916, has been at the head of the board's affairs.

His colleagues would not hear of Mr. Denne's retirement from the position in favor of some other director—in fact, the meeting practically conscripted Peterborough's mayor for the thirteenth time and enthusiastically named him to carry the Exhibition through to new levels of success this year.

The zeal shown by the members generally in regard to the future of the Exhibition indicates that while there may be economic distress it has not spread to Peterborough's big fair, the directors of which are looking forward to the 1931 Exhibition with every feeling of confidence that the success of last year will be repeated.

The Peterborough Industrial scored one of its biggest triumphs with the 1930 show, and the success registered on that occasion gives every member of the board fresh heart and courage with which to tackle their preparations for this year's event.

Present conditions are not worrying the directors who with Mayor Denne again at the helm, expect this year's Exhibition to be worthy of being numbered among the best in the organization's history.

CANADIAN SITUATION BETTER.

Amid the general lamentation over wheat conditions in this country, the Border Cities Star comes to bat with the optimistic statement that the Canadian wheat situation is rapidly becoming much more healthy than that in the United States.

That thought is arresting and reassuring.

As a matter of fact, Canada is getting rid of a lot of wheat, and while it is true that the money received for what has been sold has not been great, it is equally true, as the Star puts it, that at least the wheat has gone.

The figures as to five months' exportations of Canadian wheat up to the first of this year show that 126,668,577 bushels were shipped out of Canada, as compared with 76,693,616 in the corresponding period of 1929.

An increase of fifty million bushels in exportations signifies that the carry-over to the next crop year is being reduced to somewhat near normal proportions, which is an asset to be set in the scales against the fact that the revenue from this year's greater exportations fall short by $2,500,000 of the yield from the 1929 wheat exported.

The United States Stabilization Board, on the other hand, has 130,000,000 bushels of wheat, and hasn't the faintest idea what to do with it.

Worse than that, the board will have to keep on buying to support the market, for it can't sell at home without wrecking the domestic price, or abroad without being guilty of dumping.

"ONE-EYED" DRIVERS.

A vigorous campaign is being waged in Toronto against motorists who persist in driving with defective lights, one day's drive netting some four hundred car owners who were in the category commonly described as "one-eyed" drivers—in other words, only one headlight of their machine was burning.

In police court a number of offenders has been assessed three dollars each as a reminder that the law calls for two headlights, and that this provision was put in the statute books to be obeyed, not merely to fill up a page or as somebody's idea of a joke.

Without any desire to get local car owners into trouble, The Examiner feels it necessary to point out that any time the local authorities find themselves without anything in particular to do there are numerous one-eyed automobiles moving round Peterborough's streets every night.

One citizen with a weakness for mathematics counted fifteen passing a given point on George street in ten minutes the other night, and another reports seeing three in one block at the same time.

This evidence would seem to indicate that a good many motorists feel quite safe in driving round local streets these nights without all the lights that the law calls, and it is probable, in spite of the fact that a car with one light is a traffic menace, that they will continue to do so until they are somewhat sharply reminded that there is a regulation covering this point, and that in the long run it proves cheaper to obey it.

CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES.

A rather insistent propaganda is being carried on by representatives of the Civil Service of the Federal Government, which has as its objective an all-round increase in Civil Service salaries. There is no doubt that at the forthcoming session of Parliament an attempt will be made to bring about a general increase in salaries, particularly among technical employees.

It is generally felt that technical workers employed by the Dominion Government are inadequately paid, and the report of the Beatty Commission made this clear. It is not so certain that there is a general underpayment of civil servants in other branches of the service. It is a subject on which no general statement can be relied upon as accurate. Even more than in private businesses, where there are enough inequalities, there are in the Civil Service many who are being paid more than they are worth and many who are being paid less.

Two or three years ago it might well have been argued that the general level of Civil Service salaries was too low, but, in the meantime, the cost of living has come down to such a considerable extent that the purchasing power of salaries and wages has increased considerably. The margin between income and the bare cost of living has widened and no doubt has taken up most of whatever slack there was in governmental rates of pay.

At the moment the essential need in governmental services is economy, and the Bennett Government will be faced with the prospect of reducing governmental expenditures during the coming year in every possible way. The ministers can hardly be expected to view with approval any demand for increased salaries for civil servants. In fact, the easiest manner of disposing of resolutions from Civil Service associations will be to put them before Parliament, which will have no compunction about throwing them out, and once they are thrown out they will have small chance of consideration for a number of years yet.

Under the circumstances, it would seem to be a wise precedure for the Civil Service associations to refrain from embarrassing the Government by asking for all-round increases in every branch of the service. Restraint now will give them a better opportunity of having the whole question studied thoroughly and fairly when governmental revenues again begin to rise and when a better balance has been achieved in price relationships generally.

On the other hand, individual members of the Civil Service should look for increased remuneration through promotion to more important positions.

Business men generally would be behind increases in salary for the more important executive positions in the Civil Service if they felt that the men occupying these positions would be able to effect the economies in their departments which might be expected in connection with similar work being carried on in the industrial world.

Appointments to these higher positions must, of course be on merit, and as far as possible should come by promotion within their ranks. This would give all members of the Civil Service something to look forward to.—Financial Post.

FAULTY PACKING OF APPLES.

The Ottawa Journal declares that the reference by Mr. William H. Ingram, the Times-Journal's correspondent in Paris, to the careless shipping of export apples by Canadians is a challenge to all who are interested in the advancement of Canadian markets abroad. Mr. Ingram, in his weekly letter published last week in the Times-Journal, pointed out that for years past Canada has been trying to secure a French market for Canadian apples. It was not an easy task, for France grows apples of her own, and the United States has long been supplying whatever of need was left. This year, however, the French crop having been small, the Canadian Trade Commissioner in Paris induced French importers to try the Canadian product. Several shipments of Ontario and Nova Scotia barrel apples and thousands of boxes of British Columbia apples were sent to France.

This was all to the good, but, unfortunately, to quote Mr. Ingram:

> "The last shipment from Canada was far from being a credit to the shippers, comparison with American apples of a similar variety showing the Canadian of much inferior quality. Apples which were sold as extra fancies were bruised, of irregular coloring, and the grading also not as good.
> "The principal cause of the poor condition was due to the fact that the boxes were not lined with corrugated paper as was the case with the American. The lids and the sides of the boxes had bruised them."

This, if true—and Mr. Ingram is far from being a sensationalist—should call, says the Ottawa Journal, for a severe Government reprimand to the apple exporters responsible. Above all, it should call for suitable action by the apple exporters themselves. Nor is it a case where apple shippers can say that this is their business, and the business of nobody else. It is, unfortunately, the business of all of us. The Journal adds:

> Canadian apple growers are eternally complaining to the Government that they are without adequate assistance. They have been complaining so long and so loudly that they have been given protection almost as high as Haman's Gallows. Yet in this case, after a Government trade commissioner had helped to get them a profitable market abroad, some of them would throw the market away by shipping inferior products.
> It is not a new complaint, this. Everybody knows that one of the vital things in holding an export market is to be scrupulously careful in seeing to it that goods shipped reach their destination in good condition. Yet for years we have had complaints of Canadian carelessness in this respect. Warning after warning on the part of those who had Canada's export trade at heart appeared to be unavailing.

Pointing out that in his tariff legislation at the special session of Parliament Premier Bennett made maintenance of increased duties conditional upon domestic prices not being heightened, the Journal asserts with justifiable positiveness that "we may have to come to the point where assistance to Canadian exporters will be made dependent upon the exporters themselves doing something to hold the markets secured for them. —St Thomas Times-Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Crimes of violence are not to be tolerated in this district as the sentences handed out by Magistrate Langley yesterday unmistakably signify.

The settlement of the South Wales coal fields trouble is the brightest bit of news Britain has sent out in a long time.

With so many banquets for Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Hepburn, Ontario caterers should find business rather better than might have been expected.

The British Radio Manufacturers' Association admit that newspaper advertising is the most productive form of sales promotion. That should make it unanimous.

News of Our Own Village

Your scribe is willing to bet our old fellow-citizen, Judge Dan O'Connell, who has been counting the ballots in the mayoralty recount in Toronto, west of here, this week, wished he was back in his old office next to the post office in this fair village.

The village fire-fighters, watch has been playing Sandy Claws for the last 3-4 weeks, had to snap back into firemen Thurs. a.m., when a hot shot in the shooting gallery, west of Hobbs' general store, caused a conflagration.

Our worthy Mayor, Rolly Denne, advised the councillors at the inaugural meeting at the town hall to take their coats off and some of the boys come near doing it right after the meeting, your scribe learns.

Barney Quinn, Havelock's big butter and egg man, filled a date here Tues. p.m. with the Havelock hockey team. It looks like as if Barney ought to be given an allowance for weight and age.

This here village is to get a road show at the Grand Opry House next week, a bunch of players from London, Eng., east of here, dropping in to give us "Marigold", which oughta be a treat, say we.

Walt Stocker and his bicycle will again occupy a prominent place in the village parks next summer, Walt having been re-elected president of the village parks committee.

Ed Peck, our Federal member, is going to need a new filing cabinet if the neighbors don't stop sending in kicks about the new radio scheme. Anyway Ed knows what the folks down this way think about the same.

The curlers of these parts held a bonspiel in the Charlotte St. rink Thurs. and in spite of the fire further up the street, Angus McIntosh turned out his usual good ice for the same. Some of the curling was good, too.

A coupla of C.G.E. fellers has took to playing golf on the ice, which ought be a good game if the lads keep outa the water hazard.

WHY A RECOUNT?

Editor of The Examiner,
Dear Sir:

Wherever the information came from regarding the spoiled ballots at Nogie's Creek, Harvey Township is erroneous.

There were but three spoiled ballots at Nogie's Creek according to the statement of R. J. Cairnduff who has been Returning Officer for many years.

The three were spoiled ballots for Reeve, one was marked for two Reeves, Parker and Irwin, the other two were defaced by writing.

Yours sincerely,
H. B. PARKER

COUNTY COUNCIL AND TAXES

To the Editor of The Examiner,
Dear Sir:

As the County Council will meet in the course of a few days, I would like to say a few words in the way of a suggestion.

Our taxes are increasing every year until they are at present a good rent and prices for farm products are going down lower all the time. As the Township Council is only a collector for the County Council and it in turn hands the biggest part of it to the government, I would suggest at the coming session that it pass a resolution and ask every county council in the province to assist them. Let Peterborough County Council be the starter to appoint so many from each council, say the Reeves and as many as they wish, and set a date when parliament meets and go there in a body; take off their overcoats and hats and inform them that they are there to do business and are going to stay until they get a satisfactory arrangement, as to why they insist on taxing the municipalities to death. Tell them plain that they will have to cut it out or they will cut them out and refuse to pay. No use going and waiting on them in the old fashioned way. I have been on deputations and when we met the Ministers of the different departments, we sat with our overcoats on and our hats in our hands, almost afraid to say anything. We were asked what was the trouble and after our spokesman had stated his case the Minister after taking down a few notes would tell us that they would take it into their serious consideration. That would be the last we would hear of it.

Pass a strong resolution condemning the way we are being taxed! Wait on them and let them know you mean it! Let them let up on their road building until times get better. The different County Councils have the whip handle if they will only use it.

Yours truly,
R. N. SCOTT
Ex-Reeve, Smith

BURNING BEAUTY

By TEMPLE BAILEY

As she reached out her hand to touch it she felt like Fatima in Bluebeard's chamber. She had no right to look, but she did look, lifting the title page, and reading the first lines.

For a long time she stood there—reading, then all at once, she gathered up the sheets and carried them with her to the front room. For an hour she pored over the pages, trying to find some hint of what she had expected of Rickey's genius and finding—nothing.

Of, this couldn't be Rickey's beautiful story. The plot was there, the idea as she had outlined it that day by the river. But the treatment was commonplace, the style utterly without distinction. Not a word glowed or splarkled. She was a too good a critic to be deceived. Rickey's manuscript was worthless. No editor would look at it.

The white sheets fluttered to the floor and lay piled about her. The fire died down. The little dog and the pussy cat were fast asleep. Outside the snow fell heavily. The night was very still.

Oh, what was she going to do about it? For something must be done. Rickey must not go on. Yet how could she keep him from it? He would not listen to her. He would rage and storm, and tell her she didn't believe in him. He must be helped from the outside. By whom? Mary Lee? Better not bring her into it.

Michael McMillan—!

His name came to her as it if had been shouted. It seemed to crash against the echoes of the great room. He, more than any other, could advise, suggest. She glanced at the clock. It was not late as New Yorkers knew it. Would she dare ask him to come—to-night? Rickey was away—there would be time before he returned. There might not soon be another opportunity when she could have Michael to herself.

She went to the telephone, holding herself steady. When Michael's own voice answered, she put her question quietly. Could he come? It was very important.

He would come—gladly. In a half hour he would be there.

She changed her simple frock for one of deep blue, which had a touch of gold at throat and wrists so that it gave her the look of a Fra Angelico angel. She put fresh wood on the fire, drew the two deep chairs closer to the hearth.

When Michael came he brought flowers—a leaf from Tony's book! But they were not roses. He had filled a bowl of ivory pottery with violets. He had found the bowl in Italy. "Ever since I met you I have wanted you to have it," he told Virginia.

She had been breathless when he entered, but his manner put her at her ease. "It was good of you to call me up. I was bored to extinction, with nothing in the world I wanted to do."

The old room seemed filled with sunshine and fragrance. "I hardly dared call you. You are such a busy man."

"I am never too busy when you need me," he, too, was aware of sunshine, fragrance.

At first they talked about the place where he had found the jar—a villa above Naples. "I was motoring through on the day the house was sold, and everything in it. I bought the house, for a song . . . and kept the servants. This vase is the only thing I brought back. But I like to think that over there all those lovely things are—waiting."

"Waiting for what?"

"I'm not sure. Perhaps I shall never go back. Yet there the house stands, ready if I need it. It gives me a sense of permanence which an apartment can never give."

He described it all, the tangle of flowers on the terraces, the view of the Bay, the vineyards with the warm, winey odor of grapes. The house itself—the long low rooms, its pergold, its pool, its fountain—its marble figures. "One can't transplant such things," he finished, "some people do, but we Americans should stick to our background and belongings."

He stopped there. "I've talked enough. You had something to ask me?"

She told him, "It's about Rickey. I have just read his book. He doesn't know I have read it, and I wouldn't dare tell him. But Mr. McMillan, he mustn't go on with it—"

"Why not?"

"It's—commonplace—confused. And he has such high hopes for it. I dread disappointment for him. Yet I know that as it is no editor will take it."

He tried to cheer her, "Perhaps it isn't as bad as you think."

She shook her head, "I am sure I am not mistaken. Someone will have to help him to see what he is doing—and I thought it might be—you—"

"I'll do anything I can. But how?"

"Could you call him up—say that you were in need of a serial, and ask to read a bit of his to see if you could use it. Then he wouldn't plod through to the end on the wrong path. It isn't that he can't write, it's only that he's making a false start."

Michael was not so sure of it. Often these young critics failed when it came to creative work. Rickey could talk glibly enough of the way a thing should be done, but it did not follow that he could do it. However, he would do his best, for Virginia's sake if for no other reason. She was so wistfully dependent on him, so in need of advice and co-operation. He would be her friend. Why look beyond friendship?

The next morning when the telephone rang, Rickey answered and turned from it, radiant. "It's McMillan. He's asked if he can come over. He needs a serial and he wants to look at mine."

"You will let him?"

"Why not? I told him yo'd give us tea this afternoon, and then we could talk about it—"

She planned eagerly, "You shall have him all to yourself. I'll go up after tea and sit with little Roger. He isn't well, and his mother has work to carry home."

So exultant and eager was Rickey that he sent her off that very morning to buy the gold lace gown. She protested, but he insisted. "For the moment we are kings and queens, Jinny. The world is before us."

As she rode uptown, Virginia had a sense of panic. What if Rickey refused to listen to advice? What if he blamed Michael, blazed out at him, as he had when others found fault with him. But surely, he wouldn't It would mean so much to him to have Michael's opinion, his advice. She tried to console herself with that.

When the lovely gown arrived late that afternoon, Tony Bleecker was there, and insisted that the box should be opened.

"Try it on," he said, as she held it up in all its gorgeousness and glitter.

"Not now. You'll see me in it later."

But when Rickey added his entreaties, she went into his little room to change, calling back over her shoulder: "You'd better have all the lamps lighted. Evening things look awful in the daytime."

When at last she appeared, the two men stared at her. She was like some delicate figure in gold and ivory. Anthony on his feet proclaimed, "A princess passes!"

"Money plus your sister's loveliness."

Rickey flashed a glance at the older man. And presently he said, "You two won't mind if I leave you. I've got to earn money to pay for all this—affluence. And I haven't written a word since yesterday."

When the boy was gone, Anthony spoke with assurance, "Some day I am going to buy your gowns for you."

"You're not, of course."

"Oh, yes, I am. I'm going to buy everything. You're going to marry me, Virginia. You can't escape."

She had a feeling that a net was being drawn about her. But she braved it out. "I'm not going to marry anybody."

He laughed, "I'll let you say it—but I'll prove you wrong."

He was standing beside her, and now he put his finger under her chin and forced her to look up at him. "Don't you love me a little bit?"

"No," her clear glance was unwavering.

"I don't believe it, you are blushing, Virginia."

"I know. But it isn't what you think. It's only—that this is my first proposal."

He laughed. "I commend your honesty Only a beautiful woman would dare make that admission."

"Why not make it if it is true?"

"All the better then—for me."

She drew away from him. "Let's not talk about it."

"Why not?"

"Because I belong to myself and not to you."

Yet even as she said it, she knew that she did not belong to herself. For now there was—Michael.

Late that night she said to her brother, "Rickey, Anthony asked me this afternoon to marry him. If I go to Derekdale he'll keep on asking me."

He said in an incredulous voice, "You refused him?"

"Yes."

Dead silence, out of which Rickey cried at last, "Jinny, can't you see what you're throwing away? He's a gentleman and a stunning fellow. All the girls are mad about him."

"I can't marry him because other women want him."

"Then marry him for what he can give you—give us. Think what it would mean to all of us—to Dad and Mums—to my future—"

She was very white. "Don't, Rickey. You can't know what you are saying. I'll go to Derekdale, if you feel that way about it. But it mustn't bind me to anything. You understand that, Rickey I won't be bound."

A Thought

ECONOMY OF LIFE

The true economy of human life adjusts expenditure to a moral scale of values. De Quincey pictures a woman sailing over the water, awakening out of sleep to find her necklace untied and one end hanging over the stream, while pearl after pearl drops from the string beyond her reach; when she clutches at one just falling, another drops beyond her recovery. Our days drop one after another by our carelessness, like pearls from a string, as we sail the sea of life, until we learn that the waste of time is a more serious loss than the extravagances against which there is such loud exclaim. The expenditure of a few shillings on taste is a small matter in comparison with the wasting of months and years by thousands who have every advantage society can offer, and exacts every privilege it affords as a right.

What To-day Means To You

"CAPRICORN"

If January 17th is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m., from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 11 p.m. to midnight. The danger periods are from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. and from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Astrological influences from early morn to sunset on January 17th will be of a disturbing nature. Your turbulence of mind, however, will be cooled by contemplative winds during the late hours of the day, and you will probably go to sleep in peace. A shock may make you "take a tumble" to conditions to which you have been blind hitherto.

The child born on this January 17th will reveal a promising character. It will be dependable, a conscientious worker and student, and a thoughtful little companion. It will have an eye for business, and will be almost stingy with its money. It will have little enthusiasm for sports or athletics.

If you are a January 17th person, you have a very independent nature As a child, you were wilful and contrary and as an adult you have lost little of your stubbornness. You have the strength of character, moral and mental courage, to walk with devils and angels. In nearly all circumstances, you seem supremely sure of yourself — you have triumphed over nervousness and fear. You love the lime-light, you like to be noticed and appreciated. You quickly become the listener, and some one else has the floor.

You have an aristocrat spirit, but not a royal one. You try to stand aloof from the rank and file; you do not try to mix with the throbbing masses about you. You are not a friend to humanity in general, you are too selfish and unsympathetic. You give very little to the world, unless you can see sure returns. Grief or some great loss may make you become a more lovable and more human being — for your heart is not made of ice, and your pride is only a false one. You have plenty of brain power, distinct talents, considerable energy and lofty ambitions. If you do not succeed, it will be because you are a poor student of psychology, and do not know how to treat and handle your fellow associates.

If January 18th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from noon to 2 p.m. and from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. The critical period is from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Astrological indications of January 18th point to a day of comparative calm, in which, if little be accomplished, there will be no serious errors to regret. The evening, however promises to be full of excitement, and an event may happen which will seriously affect the course of your life.

A child born on this January 18th will either swim on the crest of the waves or sink. It will never float. Mediocrity will never distinguish it. Much more so than in the average case, will this child depend for success on its early environment and surroundings.

As a youngster, if you were born on January 18th, you gave great promise. Your disposition was winsome. You applied yourself with assiduity to your studies. You were never a slouch at sports. You were popular and your infantile ideals were high. Past performances predicted for you success and triumph, yet you have not fulfilled either other people's expectations or your own. Ever since you have been, so to speak, "on your own," you have misused your freedom and independence, and to-day, although there is still a glimmering of former ideals and early ambitions, you have lost your will power, and you drift.

You possess an attractive personality. You, however, use it to get things done for you, instead of doing them yourself. Your intelligence is undimmed, but you do not use it. You moon your time away, instead of being "up and doing." You lack initiative and purposefulness. You have allowed yourself to become mentally flabby, and are not disposed to take the necessary "daily dozen" to get yourself back into normal condition.

You could have accomplished so much, yet have achieved so little. With it all, however, you have not lost your charm, nor have you said a final "good-bye" to all your ideals. In your home life, your conduct is characterized by gentleness and tolerant sympathy. In spite of everything, you retain the love — if not the respect — of those who know you best.

GAINS FEATURE IN BASE METAL

Higher-priced Golds Turn Somewhat Irregular on Standard To-day.

NORDON OIL STRONGER.

TORONTO, Ont., January 17 (C. P.). — While higher-priced golds turned somewhat irregular on the mining market to-day gains predominated in the base metal and oil sections, giving the list a firm appearance at the close.

Lake Shore for the first time in the current movement, sold above $26 and closed up at $35 for the period. Vipond and Wright-Hargreaves also advanced a cent apiece. Mining Corp. continued easy, however, the price dropping 6 to $1.78. McIntyre lost a quarter to $21.75. Hollinger 5 to $7.96, and Granada 3 to $1.67.

Lower-priced stocks were quiet but steady, Eldorado showing the only change with a gain of 2½ to 33½.

Noranda and International Nickel both closed a few cents higher Lindsley's recovered buoyancy. Falconbridge selling up 5 at $1.45. Ventures 4 at 50, and Sherritt-Gordon a point at 90. Amulet regained a couple to 32.

Nordon was stronger in the oil group and registered a gain of 3 at 35. Acme Gas was up a cent or so to 23½ and East Crest a couple to 52. Ajax Oil and Clericy were steady.

WOULD LOWER RATES ON GRAIN

WIDE DIFFERENCES.

SASKATOON, Sask., Jan. 17 (C.P.). —The Dominion Government has been requested to inquire into domestic freight rates on coarse grains with a view to lowering them, Hon. W. G. Buckle, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, announced here last night. Mr. Buckle made the announcement when addressing the closing meeting of delegates to the Saskatchewan Agricultural Societies' Convention, which has been in session here three days.

Mr. Buckle stated that present freight rates amounted to bonusing the Danish bacon industry. He pointed out that freight rates on barley for shipment from Regina to Saint John's N.B., were 42 cents per 100 pounds, while barley for domestic purposes, to the same point, was carried at the rate of 72 cents per 100 pounds. This, the Minister maintained, gave a material advantage to the man feeding Western grain in Eastern Canada.

Representations have also been made, he stated, regarding express rates on eggs, which were twice as high as the rates obtained on cream.

FINANCIAL LEADERS EXPRESS OPTIMISTIC IN CANADA'S FUTURE

Canadian Exchanges Show Little Speculation and Tend to Mark Time.

MORE INVESTMENTS.

By A. D. Halloran.
(Special to Examiner, Copyright, 1931.)

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—Inactivity and a slightly lower price trend about summarises recent developments on the Canadian stock exchanges. The list has lost the momentum that carried the indexes well behyond the extreme low of December last and at present is marking time, but apparently well established around current levels. There has been nothing since the turn of the year to change the position of the security markets. Speculative interest has been given little encouragement and day to day transactions are of an investment character. This type of market, naturally, does not lend itself to increasing activity nor widely fluctuating prices. Yet few can find fault with it as it has for its foundation the purchase of securities by people who will pay cash, peace the certificates in strong boxes, and who are satisfied with the income return on the capital invested and willing to wait the normal march of progress in the Dominion to provide ground for capital appreciation. It is quite different from the highly speculative dangerous market of the past and provides nothing of the spectacular to excite the public and encourage excesses that was at the bottom of the crash in the fall months of 1929.

Overshadowing the security markets have been the annual general meetings of some of the largest financial institutions in the Dominion. Not in many years have the addresses of the bankers and other financial executives been read with as much interest as on this occasion. The public has been given well informed opinions on the causes and effects of the depression by outstanding men whose business it is to follow closely the trend of events the world over. That these addresses were carefully prepared is evident from the wide list of topics discussed and the fact that practically all were in agreement as to underlying causes and the position of Canada. International war debts, maldistribution of gold were discussed along with helpful suggestions, it was pointed out that the business recession was not local to any one country but world wide in scope and a return to better conditions will depend upon a correction of international conditions and not readjustments in any one country.

Most ointeresting are the portions of the addresses that apply to the future and to Canada in particular. Sir John Aird, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; told the stockholders of his institution that it is impossible to escape the conclusion that we cannot take a flying leap from depression to prosperity. "But we have passed through more than a year of depression, so are that much nearer its end. Recovery is certain. The time required to bring it about will be determined largely by our resourcefulness and ingenuity," said Sir John. It is necessary that we work harder, reduce production costs so as to establish an intimate relationship between producers' and consumers' prices, and particularly as effecting the farmer, and generally display the same courage that in the past helped us to overcome depression. We are told by Sir John to throw off our fears and turn our minds resolutely to clearing the way to prosperity in a country that is one of the most fertile in opportunity for progress.

General Manager S. H. Logan, at the Bank of Commerce meeting, said there is a general impression that we must at, at, or near, the bottom of this depression, but when the turn comes, it is apt to come without advance notice. Progress on the upturn may be comparatively slow, "but recognition of unpleasant developments should not blind us to certain facts that stand out prominently in a close examination of Canadian business one of which is that Canada has not lost ground all along her economic front."

At the annual meeting of the Royal Bank of Canada, Sir Robert S. Holt, president, expressed the opinion that the present interruption in the normal trade relationships of the world is not going to persist. He sees corrective forces at work which will re-establish the flow of international credit and restore the volume of world trade. Business and industry have maintained a surprisingly satisfactory volume of activity in Canada as compared with other countries. The stability of our great industries and strength of our financial institutions during the past year constitute a record which we may veiw with pride. It is this stability which is the basis for Sir Herbert's optimism concerning the future. That resumption of expansion and development in Canada cannot be long delayed is evident to Sir Herbert in the number of favorable factors in the Canadian situation.

Urges Full Confidence.

Beaudry Leman, general manager of the Banque Canadienne-Nationale joins with other bankers in urging business men to have full confidence in the future of our country. "Prosperity cannot be brought back in a day any more than a state of health can be made to succeed without transition a condition of disease. Convalescence must be gradual, and it seems beyond doubt that the work of recuperation has already, slowly but surely, set in," stated Mr. Leash, at the annual meeting of this institution. "Canada has the resiliency of youth. It possesses great resources. It reserves of energy and initiative are unimpaired These assets will again rise to full appreciation as soon as world conditions become again satisfactory."

At the annual meeting of the Canada Life Assurance Company, Leighton McCarthy, K.C., president, made the statement that conditions in Canada seem relatively favorable against the background of world-wide depression. "During the latter part of the year increased activity was reported in many important branches, such as flour milling, boots and shoes, electric equipment and the textile industry. This improvement came too late to result in any substantial gains for the year being reported, but it is hoped that the activity will continue and result in a better showing for the coming year," he stated.

J. F. Weston, managing director of the Imperial Life Assurance Company sees in the stability of our banking institutions and their ability to continue credits to every legitimate enterprise a striking illustration of the soundness and practicability of the Canadian banking system. Pointing out the excellent position occupied by our great loan and trust and insurance companies, Mr. Weston more reason to accent the views of those who hold that this crisis is nearly over, if we are not already on the way to improvement, than the view of those who see it protracted indefinitely.

GIRL ABDUCTED MAN IS CHARGED

Joseph Robilard, 23, Appeared in Police Court on Abduction Charge.

FLIGHT ALLEGED.

Joseph E. Robilard, who gave his age as 23, and stated he lived in the city, was charged this morning with assaulting Joseph O'Neil and abducting Mary O'Neil. He pleaded not guilty to the assault and failed to plead or elect to the abduction charge.

Police say that Robilard last Saturday night forcefully carried away the O'Neil girl to a cottage on a ranch in Burleigh township. The girl's mother and brother reached the cottage early Sunday morning and demanded that Robilard allow them to take the girl home, police state. A fight followed in which Robilard reached a gun from the wall and in a fist fight knocked out young O'Neil, police say. Later, he allowed the mother and son to take the girl home.

Provincial Constable D. Sylvester investigated the case and arrested Robilard in Burleigh yesterday. Robilard was remanded on $2,000 bail to Wednesday, when the cases against him will be tried.

LIST DECLINES IN LATE TRADING

New York Exchange Closes Around Week's Lowest Level in Short Session To-day.

750,000 SHARE TRANSFER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (C.P.).—The stock market skidded in the last half hour of trading to-day, and closed around the week's lowest levels.

The slow rally of the previous session continued during the first hour, but trading slackened so close to a standstill that professional traders, itching for action, dropped heavy selling orders in the late trading, and the list closed with a weak tone, 1 to 4 points lower. Transfers for the two-hour session were only about 750,000 shares.

Chemicals were again under pressure. Allied broke 4 points, and Dupont and Air Reduction more than 2. Westinghouse Electric and Vanadium lost 2, and issues closing a point or more down included U.S. Steel, American Can., Eastman, Goodyear, American Telephone, American and Foreign Power, General Electric and American Smelting. National Biscuit was a firm feature, closing up a point.

He has a tiny office in a bank building at the intersection of Jackson Boulevard and La Salle Street. From it he may look down into the huge trading room of the Board of Trade. Across the street from it is the Federal Reserve Bank. Cutten has desk space in two grain brokerage houses but his name is not among the officers. He virtually is inaccessible by telephone.

ST. ANDREW'S DEBT IS REDUCED $1,000

Every Department of Church Showed Good Year at Annual Meeting.

The past year was a very active one in every department of the Church's work, as shown in the reports given at the annual meeting of St. Andrew's United Church on Thursday evening. As a result of the activity the church was able to reduce its indebtedness by $1000.

The meeting was preceded by a supper given by the ladies of the congregational in the Sunday school. Following the meal Adrian McDonald delivered an interesting and amusing address on "Meals—Ancient and Modern."

Dr. C. V. McLean, the pastor, opened the meeting at 8.00 p.m., and continued to act in the capacity of chairman. Reports of an encouraging nature were received from the various organizations connected with the church. Activity was particularly noted in the Women's Association, the Willing Workers' Missionary Band, the W.M.S., the Elizabeth Bell Auxiliary and in the C.G.I.T.

The financial report for the year, presented by the managers, showed receipts amounting to $9,266.18, and after paying all expenses for the year, the congregation will be able to pay off $1,000 of its debt. This debt consists of a mortgage placed some years ago for the building of the Sunday school, and of deficits from previous years which, however, have been materially reduced during the past few years.

The church also raised $4,127.19 for the schemes of the church, or more commonly known as the Missionary Fund. In addition to this, money raised and used by the Sunday school amounted to over $3,300.

The following appointments for the year 1931 were made: Trustee Board of the church, T. H. Gillespie to fill the place left by the death of R. M. Waddell. Board of Managers — Alex Waddell, V. S. Foster, George Tremaine, T. H. Gillespie and Earl Petrie. J. Reied was chosen to represent St. Andrew's on the Charity Board. W. Langford was appointed representative on the Nicholls Hospital Board. The Hall Trust —G. Evans and W. Richardson. James Hamilton was chosen for the Protestant Home Board. The auditors appointed were T. Donaldson and M. Breckenridge.

Dr. McLean in closing thanked the congregation and various organizations for their support and active work during the past year.

SEVERAL SHOCKS FELT IN TORONTO

Officials Believe Disturbance in Same Zone as Recent Mexican Disaster.

2,000 MILES AWAY.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17. (CP)—During the last 24 hours the earth has undergone a series of disturbances. Toronto meteorological officials announced to-day. Three distinct quakes of fairly severe intensity were shown on the local seismograph.

The first disturbance began yesterday at 14 hours, 26 minutes and 11 seconds. A much stronger quake was shown beginning at 21:56:11, last night and reaching a maximum at 22:0:8 the vibrations continued for several hours and finally merged into a third quake which began about 0:36.0 this morning.

The disturabnces were presumably from the same zone as the Mexican disaster last week. Toronto computations placed the distance of the first shock at approximately 2,000 miles with the second and third at about 2,200 miles.

In dedicating a new block of flats in London recently hymns were sung a woman cornetist leading the singers.

CUPS PRESENTED AT DAIRYMEN'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Campbellford Cheesemakers' Association Holds Fourth Annual Gathering.

SEVERAL SPEAKERS.

W. V. Drewry is Winner of Five Awards in the Herd Competition For District.

(By Examiner Staff Correspondent)

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 17.—Another year in the life of the Campbellford cheesemakers Association was brought to a close last evening when the fourth annual banquet was staged in the Parish Hall, Campbellford, attended by the cheesemakers of the district and many officials and friends of the industry.

The function was featured by the presentation of cups and awards in the Herd competition. Many speakers addressed the gathering, and a splendid program was presented. The W. A. of Christ church catered to the association's needs, and served a delightful meal, for which they received the congratulations of the speakers.

W. V. Drewry, the ever popular president of the Campbellford District Cheesemaker Association occupied the chair, and in a very able manner introduced the speakers, adding words of wisdom to his introductions.

The official welcome to Campbellford was given to the association by Mayor J. M. Bygott, who in a brief address stressed his pleasure at having the opportunity of performing so pleasant a duty, declaring that the dairy industry needed no recommendation for nothing but good could be said of it.

The lion's share of the awards went to the president and chairman, W. V. Drewry, he being the winner of five cups. There were: Milton Maybee's trophy, presented by Mr. Maybee; The Bank of Montreal Cup presented by the manager, J. R. Smith; the Royal Bank trophy, for the highest percentage of firsts and specials, presented by H. S. Neile, the manager; a cup given from the county money for the highest percentage of firsts and specials, presented by J. A. Murray and the J. Cook trophy presented by Mr. Cook for highest average score.

Receives Mills Trophy

The Mills Trophy, which was won and presented to John Finnigan of Harmora, and which was for the highest average score of all factories shipping through the United Dairymen's Association, was presented by John McCaffrey, while the Canadian Bank of Commerce Cup for the highest average score plus surroundings, was presented by the manager, Glen Thompson to Douglas Turney, the winner.

The other prizes and awards which were presented by J. A. Murray after a brief introductory address are as follows: Mantel clock for work and service, Fred Remington; check for $3.00 from the Stirling Cheese Box Company, Fred Remington; David Wallace, table and cheque for $4.00; M. Way, club bag; George Pollard, quilt; Fred Peister, club bag and military brushes; George Cotton, table and silver dish; Robert Maybee, electric toaster; James Woodcock, blanket; Frank Little, casserole; Harold Steenburg, bed spread; Wes. Remington, silver casserole.

The first speaker of the evening was Milton Maybee, who gave great credit to what he termed the main industry of the country, county and district, the dairy industry. This included, he said, butter and cheese, stating that the two branches should co-operate, as it was impossible to separate them, forming as they do the staple industry of a farming country. He thought that as time went on the dairy industry would equal and pass any other industry in the country, for he was optimistic for the future along this line.

J. L. Irwin, Dominion cheese grader, addressed the gathering on the Herd Competition that had been held this summer among the patrons of the cheese industry. This competition has been sponsored by the Central Ontario Cheesemakers' Association and had added recognition to the industry, besides raising the quality of the cheese since the awards had been offered. The idea was to stimulate production and gain better quality.

198 Factories.

In Central Ontario Mr. Irwin said there were 10 groups with 198 factories in all. A sum of $50.00 had been given to each group, with three special prizes of $125.00 There had been 403 entries, and the speaker was glad to say that Mr Murray's district, Campbellford, containing 25 factories, had been fully represented. The average for the whole of butter fat per acre was 12.82.

The speaker also briefly explained how production could be increased, showing how the producer could make milk a paying proposition. He saw no reason to believe that prices would be higher next year, but he did see that if the production was increased the revenue from milk would also swell

J. P. Griffin, secretary and manager of the Ontario Milk Producers' Association, gave a very interesting talk on production of the milk, declaring that he was interested in the prosperity of the man who milks the cow.

He spoke of the depression talk that was prevalent to-day, declaring that the producer could remedy this condition if he only put forth an effort. He must help himself if he wants to benefit. To-day, stated Mr. Griffin, the cost of production has more to do with the profit than the price received for the produce, and he went on to explain that the thing that must be done was to lower the cost of production and increase the production at the same time. This could only be done, the speaker thought, by the farmer knowing his cows, using the scales and the Babcock test.

He thought that the Government should pay attention to the cost of production if it wanted to retain the markets of the world. He wanted to see, he said, the producer put his business on a paying basis, this being done by working up a good herd and taking care of the produce

Mr. Griffin declared that the cheesemakers of the province were capable of making the finest cheese in the world, if they had the finest produce. He thought that the greatest number of defects in the industry were registered against the producer, adding that these must be remedied, for many of them were due to dirt.

In conclusion the speaker emphasized the fact that in his opinion cheese should all be boarded on the cheese board and sold to the highest bidder, and because it is not so he knew that the producer was not getting all that was coming to him

Pioneer Dairying.

Alexander Hume gave a very graphic description of the early days of the cheese industry in Seymour, going back to the first joint stock factory at Wellman's Corners which opened in 1865. Milk was hauled to this factory twice a day over ten-mile routes, the average stockholder only having four cows. This concern for the first few years did not pay, the third year's dividends to the holders being $12.00 each paid in silver brought from Belleville.

He also spoke of the founding of the first cheese and butter company at the Brae Factory, in 1873, this being arranged by three old-timers Messrs. Clew, Whitton, and Hume. J. Whitton was the first maker at this factory, which was the first in Northumberland County.

Other speakers were H. Bailey of Stirling, Alexander Milne and Alfred Merrill. The musical portion of the program contained some fine community singing, which was indulged in heartily by the gathering. Mrs. C. J. Windrim sang in her delightful style and in fine voice several numbers which were enthusiastically encored, and J. Storie delighted the audience with his comic songs and was splendidly received. Mrs. J Storie acted as accompanist.

GIRLS DESCRIBE TORONTO TRIP

PLEASANT VISIT.

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The trip to Toronto in November given to two hundred and sixty girls of this province by the Ontario Government was described in detail by three of them at the Women's Institute meeting held on Wednesday afternoon in the town hall.

The girls divided the story into three parts, Miss Pearl Mullen told of the first two days, Miss Genevieve Armstrong of the second two days and Miss Mary Tanner the last day Miss Rosetta Frankish was unable to be present.

The girls won this trip by their standing in the county judging contest held in Keene in June last and it was a remarkable experience and was very interesting.

Miss Mullen told of the tickets being sent, the journey made and the arrival at the Royal York where Miss Eadie met them, giving them tickets and badges and having their rooms assigned. The group was divided into groups three sections with chaperones and the party was taken to the United Farmers' Headquarters and show the dairy section, and candling of eggs, the preparing of poultry for market. They twere given an interesting demonstration of how cracked eggs are made use of and that a biscuit factory takes the frozen ones. There was a judging competition for the girls on school lunches and home menus and then the girls were taken to the Royal Winter Fair where they saw the dog show, the stock and had a demonstration in judging fox pelts.

After luncheon at the fair, they had a sightseeing tour of the city including the Parliament Buildings, where a group photograph was taken at the Government House where the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Ross entertained them. Dinner at the Carsl-Rite and a theatre party at the Royal Alexander completed a full and delightful day.

Miss Armstrong carried on and paid a tribute to the Women's Institutes which had labored so hard to have the trip given to the girls as well as the boys. The girls all mentioned the wonderful breakfasts in the Concert Hall of the Royal York as being especially delightful.

The following morning was spent in the girls' section of the Women's Institute convention where they met a Dutch girl who is poultry farming in Durham county and who invited the girls to visit her plant. A visit was made to Silverwood's Dairy where a demonstration was given of grading cream and where the girls were treated to ice cream.

Another visit of great interest was to the Ontario Museum, where the girls found wonders hitherto undreamed of. In the evening the girls were banqueted at the Royal York by the Ontario Government to the Institute Convention and the speakers were Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, the Hon. W. G. Martin, Minister of Welfare and Sir Joseph Flavelle, and Mr. Putman.

Miss Mary Tanner carried on, the next day the girls were taken to Eatons and Simpson's stores and to the Art gallery with lunch at the Carls Rite with Dr. Christie of the Agricultural College, Guelph as the speaker. At the new Eaton store on College street they saw the art gallery, the model home and banqueted on the top floor at the nicest of all the banquets. The last evening was spent at the Royal Winter Fair and the horse show then at the end there were many new experiences to recall and hosts of pleasant memories of friends made and delightful things seen and done.

On motion of Mrs. Northey and Mrs. Ridpath a hearty vote of thanks was given the girls for their contribution to what proved a very enjoyable afternoon.

Miss Margaret Sanderson reported on the Christmas Cheer taken to the House of Refuge and Miss Edna Blewett moved a vote of thanks for the work of the unnoffical press secretary during the past year.

A SIMPLE TREATMENT FOR CHILDREN'S COLDS

Cold in the head is very common at this time of year, especially in the very young. Neglect of a cold is prone to lead to serious consequences. To relieve all congestion of the system is the first step in treating a cold, whether in infants or adults. For the very young, Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal means of doing this. Containing no narcotic or other harmful drugs they soothe the child's fretfulness, relieve its suffering and ensure convalescence.

Baby's Own Tablets are without an equal for relieving indigestion, constipation and colic. They check diarrhoea; break up colds and simple fevers; promote health-giving sleep and make the dreaded teething period easy. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough or chest cold. It takes but a moment to mix and costs little, but it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. Pour this into a 16 oz. bottle; then fill it with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. The 16 ounces thus made costs no more than a small bottle of ready-made medicine, yet it is much more effective. It is pure, keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It goes right to the seat of trouble, loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes away the inflammation. Part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly upon the bronchial tubes and thus helps inwardly to throw off the whole trouble with surprising ease.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

NATIONS DIVIDE OVER INVITATIONS

Four Oppose Asking Turkey and Russia Into U. S. of Europe Discussions.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

GENEVA, Jan. 17.—The European Commission investigating possibilities of Aristide Briand's scheme for a European confederation could not reach a decision this morning on the demand of Germany and Italy that invitations to participate in the commission's work be extended to Russia and Turkey.

The body adjourned its morning session without taking any action, but will resume the discussion this afternoon. It was said that the commission's steering committee voted 6 to 2 in favor of inviting Russia and Turkey immediately; Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain and Greece supporting the invitation, and Belgium and Holland opposing.

In the meeting of the commission as a whole it was understood that the Norwegian and Rumanian members took a strong position against the invitation also.

Interesting Program At Westwood Meeting

WESTWOOD, Jan. 17 (Examiner Correspondence)—The January meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Hope. The president, Mrs. Hugh Cameron, presided. Following the opening exercises the financial report for 1930, was given by the treasurer, Miss Jessie Davidson.

A solo by Mrs. Morris was much appreciated. A paper of questions entitled, "A Few Facts to Face and Questions to Answer," was read by Miss E. Comstock. This was a review of thought and actions throughout the past year for the missionary cause.

The devotional leaflet was taken by Mrs Morris. The fourth chapter of the study book was taken up: "The Industrial and Rural Problems of Japan," in which the following took part: Mrs. Hugh Cameron, Miss Jessie Davidson, Mrs. R. C. Breckenridge, Miss Mary Cameron, and Mrs. E. Sargent.

The closing hymn was followed by prayer by Miss Comstock, and the Benediction by the president.

Shower Given

A miscellaneous shower was held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Jessie Davidson in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, (formerly Ada Warner). About eighty friends gathered to shower their good wishes as well as many beautiful gifts upon the young couple. Mr. McMillan expressed their appreciation, in a few well-chosen words.

The evening was spent pleasantly with cards and dancing, followed by a dainty lunch served by the hostess.

CHEESE INDUSTRY MADE BIG STEPS ACROSS CANADA

Dairy Commissioner Traces History of Business From Year 1864.

3,684 FACTORIES IN 1910.

Grading System Started in 1923 Put Canadian Product on Premium Basis.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 17—Since the institution eight years ago of a cheese grading system, Canadian cheese has gradually climbed to a position of pre-eminence in the markets of the world, Dr. J. A. Ruddick, Dominion dairy commissioner, declared to-day in an address before the annual convention of the Dairymen's Association of Western Ontario. On the world markets, he said, the Canadian product has been selling at a premium of nearly three cents a pound over that of its chief competitor, New Zealand.

Tracing the history of the industry over the last 50 years, Dr. Ruddick described its growth from 1881 when there were only 46 factories in the country and reviewed the accomplishments of the pioneers in cheese-making. From its beginning in 1864, in which year the first factory went into operation, the industry had seen a steady growth until in 1910 when the total of all establishments manufacturing milk products had been 3,684. The trend in late years had been towards a smaller number of factories with larger average outputs.

In the meantime, the growth of the condensed milk and milk powder industry had been partly at the expense of cheese production. "But it does not follow," said Dr. Ruddick, "that because there has been a decrease in the number of cheese factories, or in the total output of cheese, that there has ben any slackening of the dairy industry in the old cheese-making districts. The facts are quite the opposite. These districts are producing more milk than they ever did."

Value of Grading

Turning to modern trends in the industry, the commissioner laid emphasis on the value of grading. In 1923 New Zealand cheese had been selling nearly one cent higher than Canadian cheese on the old country markets. That year grading was inaugurated in Canada, and since then Dr. Ruddick declared the average premium for Canadian cheese had varied from one-half cent a pound in 1924 to two cents in 1929. The high point had been reached early in December last when the difference was four and one-half cents.

"Now," Dr. Ruddick continued, "I have not made these comparisons to belittle New Zealand cheese. My object is to encourage Canadian cheese-makers to stick to the policy of producing the close, firm bodied, clean flavored cheese of the true Cheddar type, for it is that quality in our cheese which secures the premium and which now amounts to at least $3,000,000 a year.

"It would be a great mistake to assume that the New Zealanders will not find means of overcoming some of their present difficulties. It seems clear, however, that we in Canada have some inherent advantages which are of great value to the cheese industry if fully utilized. It may be something in the soil or the character of the feed, but in any case Canadian cheese possesses the characteristic qualities of the true cheddar seldom if ever found in New Zealand.

"The grading returns show that quality was well maintained in 1930, but it should never be overlooked that the standards of quality in the world's market tend to become higher year by year. There must be no relaxation of effort to produce nothing but the best. The result can be attained only by co-operation and team work on the part of the milk producer, the factory owner and the cheesemaker. It is encouraging to find a noteworthy growth of this spirit during the last few years."

The Federated Malaya States has raised the theatre tax, and many motion picture house owners say it will force them out of business.

Money in Milk, Reports Reveal

There should be special interest for prairie farmers in the figures with respect to milk production supplied by the annual report of the Dominion Experimental Station, at Lethbridge, Alta. The nine cows in the herd produced an average of 11,441.6 pounds of milk and a butterfat average of 396.76 pounds. With butterfat at 41.34 cents per pound this represents a value of $164.02. Added to this is the value of skim-milk at 25 cents per cwt., at $27.61 for a total production value per cow of $191.63. The total cost of feeding was $102.52, leaving a profit of $89.11 per head.

WAR CONTINUES ON SOW THISTLE

Several Gov't Tests Give Interesting Results Near Stratford.

PEST IS SPREADING.

The sow thistle is fast becoming a great menace to the farmers of Ontario. Every county in the province reports the existence of these obnoxious weeds. Although the thistles are not numerous as yet in most parts, yet they are spreading rapidly. The Government is at work to prevent the continuation of the spread.

Some co-operative work was done during the past year by the Ontario Agricultural College, the Crops and Markets Branch of the Department of Agriculture, and W. D. Hislop, a farmer near Stratford.

Part of Mr. Hislop's farm was badly infested with sow thistle, so it made a suitable place for experimentation. Four plots of about two acres each were used, and on these the effects of several methods of cultivation as well as the results of using fertilizer were carried out. Definite conclusions cannot be drawn from a one-year test but the plots gave some very interesting indications.

On one plot an effort was made to grow two successive crops of buckwheat in one season in the hope of completely smothering out sow thistle. The first crop was seeded on May 9, and plowed under as a green manure crop about the first of July. The second crop was seeded soon afterwards, but on account of the dry weather made slow growth, and even with a favorable fall did not mature. There was therefore, no crop return from this plot, and it is doubtful whether two crops of buckwheat can be procured in one year. There was, however, a material reduction in the amount of the thistle.

On two other plots a crop of mixed grain was grown in 1930. One of these sections had been disked in September and plowed in October, 1929, while the other had been plowed in July and cultivated in August of the same year. A crop of mature grain was taken from each of these plots in 1930. The one plowed in July had only about half as much thistle, and yielded almost twice as much grain as the one disked in September.

WORLD GRAIN SHOW SEEKS EXHIBITORS

Peterborough has been invited to take part in the commercial section of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference in Regina, July 25 to August 6, 1932. This Exhibition is open to world-wide competition, and any grower or producer in any part of the world may be an exhibitor.

The letter of invitation from E. Rhoades, secretary, and sent to the Chamber of Commerce, reads as follows:

"There may be some of your members who would be interested in exhibiting in the commercial section of this Exhibition and Conference. We hope that we may be favored with your co-operation in bringing the matter to the attention of interested members. Space will be limited, and applications will be filled early. Never before has such an opportunity for international advertising been presented to those firms handling products of interest to growers of field crops."

More definite information will be necessary to any person or firm interested, and this may be obtained from the local Chamber of Commerce.

The importance of and benefits accruing from exhibiting in this international event may easily be seen, for the results of advertising are known to everyone. Whether or not some of the firms of this city decide to take advantage of the Exhibition will be a matter of interest to the citizens of Peterborough.

NEW O.A.C. LAYING MASH INCLUDES CONSIDERABLE HOME GROWN FEED

Aim to Make Hen Lay Well and Produce Eggs With High Hatching Rate.

MANY SUBSTITUTES.

There are a number of people who wish to use home grown feeds for poultry laying mash, and are asking how changes in the ration can be made to use such foods. Conditions are such that corn is higher priced this year, and so ground barley is substituted.

The ingredients of the laying mash as approved by the Poultry Department, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, are as follows:

500 lbs. ground barley,
500 lbs. shorts,
300 lbs. ground oats,
200 lbs. choped corn,
50 lbs. oilcake meal,
40 lbs. bone meal,
15 lbs. iodized salt,
150 lbs. alfalfa meal,
100 lbs. powdered buttermilk,
30 lbs. cod liver meal,
60 lbs. fish meal,
40 lbs. meat meal,
7 pts. cod liver oil.

This mash is made with the idea that hens will lay well, and at the same time produce an egg that will hatch reasonably well. It is mostly the grains that make the yolk and the meat feeds which go towards the production of egg whites. The alfalfa meals and the cod liver oil supply some of the essential vitamins.

Ground wheat could substitute for the shorts, or some bran and low grade flour might answer. Mixed grain could substitute for all the grain mixture, provided it was not more than 40 lbs. to the 100 of oats, and even if it had too many oats, one could sift out a considerable quantity of the oat hulls, and the grain mixture would answer. Clover leaves may easily be used instead of the alfalfa meal. Fish, and meat, together with milk gives a mixed protein source which produces a more reliable hatching egg.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 17—Wheat underwent a maximum setback of 4½c a bushel yesterday, compared with Thursday's best level. Selling ascribed to Farm Board allies accompanied the break, which was also influenced by a fresh decline in Liverpool market down to near its recent low record unparalleled in 350 years. Enlarged shipments from Southern Hemisphere countries, and rains over parts of India, were additional bearish factors.

Wheat closed unsettled, ¾c to 1⅝c down corn, ¼c to ⅝c off; oats at ⅛c decline to ⅛c advance; and provisions, unchanged to 12c up.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, January 17. — Support from houses with seaboard connections in the closing stages of yesterdays wheat market rallied prices from an early slump and the closing found values ⅛c to ¼c up for the day.

Trade volume for the session was quite appreciable. Sales worked for export overnight were estimated at upward of 750,000 bushels.

Trading in cash wheat was limited and spreads were either unchanged or a fraction lower.

Coarse grain commodities were traded in lightly and prices showed little change from the previous close.

Plant Inspection Service Valuable In Preventing Entry of Insect Pests

When first started in 1919, roughly ten years ago, the Plant Inspection Service of the Federal Department of Agriculture examined a total of 876,466 plants imported into Canada. Last year this service reached the huge figure of 48,044,686 plants imported into Canada from other countries, an increase of 5,000,000 plants over 1928. These importations had an estimated value of $1,583,103. In the course of the work 15,806 permits were issued and 9,316 inspections made. As a result of this service a total of 906 diseased plants and insect pests were detected. The pests intercepted included caterpillars, scale insects, borers, bulb flies and mites. In sixty cases the plants involved were refused entry and in 504 cases shipments were returned to consignors as not having been properly inspected for pests and diseases in the country of origin.

In addition to this service inspection of mail parcels amounted to 2,966 examinations of 3,515 containers in all. A total of 383,244 plants arrived in Canada in this way.

The inspection service also covered plants brought into Canada by passengers on boats. During the fiscal year 1929-30 a total of 3,967 boats were visited and on these 182 passengers were found to have plants with them. In twenty-five instances potatoes being brought in from Europe were intercepted and confiscated.

Nursery stock experts to a total of 542 shipments to twenty-one different countries were also inspected; representing an increase of three hundred per cent in the quantity of nursery stock sent out from Canada. This material included 245,361 bubis, 403,661 ornamentals, 130,335 fruit trees, 15,683 conifers, 5,817 pounds of tree seed, 1,000 pounds of onion sets, 1,000 square yards of sod and 97 vegetable roots.

In the "teen-age" years when school or office work is exacting and outside activities use up so much energy, many girls undermine their health and spoil their happiness for years to come.

At such a time Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found most valuable. They purify and enrich the blood; build up the nerve cells and correct run-down conditions. Concerning them Miss Margaret Torrey, Indian Road, Toronto, Ont., says: "When I was attending high school I suffered a complete breakdown. My heart would palpitate at the least exertion; I could not sleep and nothing I ate agreed with me. I began taking Dr. Williams Pink Pills and before long I gained in weight and every distressing symptom left me."

Dr. Williams Pink Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MOST EFFICIENT DOMESTIC ANIMAL PRODUCES MAN'S BEST FOOD—MILK

Correct Breeding and Feeding Will Enable Farmers to Produce Milk at Profit.

PRODUCTION MOUNTING.

Editor's Note—This is another story in a series of articles on dairying written by the well known national dairy and poultry authority, Dr. L. D. LeGear, V.S., of St. Louis, Mo., graduate of O.V.S., Guelph, in 1892. The entire series will appear in this paper. Our readers are urged to read them carefully and clip them out for future reference.

A great general once said that an army travels on its stomach. A modern sage has gone further and declared that a nation is great in proportion to the amount of milk consumed by its citizens.

Milk for babies and invalids has always been considered essential. In recent years the reasons for this have been better known. Milk is a complete food in itself. Milk contains nearly everything the body needs. It is rich in proteins. Milk contains the minerals we require with the exception of iron and iodine. And last but not least, milk contains the four important vitamins needed by growing children and adults who wish to keep fit.

Now health is one of the most important topics before the American people to-day. In magazine articles, in advertisements, on the public platform, the subject of keeping fit is discussed. We have learned that it is just as easy to eat to excess as it is to drink to excess. Diets are being followed as never before. There are more bathroom scales in use to-day than at any time in history. We watch our weights as closely as we do the weather.

The future for milk, man's best food, looks very rosy. The dairy industry, already the biggest of all American industries, is destined to enjoy still greater progress. There are as many dairy cows in the United States as there are automobiles, possibly a few more. The average milk production per cow is climbing steadily upward. An interesting fact in this connection—while the total milk produced is 50 per cent. greater than it was ten years ago there are actually nearly one million fewer milk cows on our farms.

One of the most favorable signs for the future growth of the dairy industry is the basic fact that the cow is efficent as a manufacturing plant for human food. In fact, the cow excels all other domestic animals in that respect. Poultry and hogs come next. But the cow has the advantage over the pig and hen; it can eat roughage while her two competitors must have grain.

Cow Is King

As the king of food producers, the dairy cow has already shown its worth on the high-priced farms of Holland and other foreign countries. As long as large farms and ranches prevail in this country, with pasturage plentiful, we shall be large producers of beef cattle. But as intensive farming increases, dairy herds will continue to grow in popularity. We are not yet the leading dairy country, although we have more dairy cattle than some others. The average production of our cows do not equal that of other nations, but we are gradually creeping up.

By far the majority of our milk is produced from small dairy herds. The specialized dairy industry requires large capital and involves certain risks. The subject we are most interested in is that of improving the herds and increasing the profits of the average farmer. In the series of articles which are to follow, I propose to discuss topics which will be of interest to the owner of herds.

There is a mistaken notion among farmers that the dairy animals they see on exhibit at state and county fairs are raised for show purposes only, and that their chief value is in the prizes they win. As a matter of fact, the purebred cow is the most profitable cow for the farmer to own. This is easily proved. Correct breeding, correct feeding and faithful adherence to a few simple rules will enable any farmer to produce milk at a profit as a side line without increasing labor costs and with only a moderate investment.

NO FREE LAND GIVEN IN WEST

Gov't of Saskatchewan Takes Step—Other Provinces to Follow.

STARTED BY SIFTON.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17—The day of the free homestead in western Canada is past. No more will the government bet the settler 160 acres against ten dollars that he wouldn't starve to death. Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan has announced there will be no more free homesteads in Saskatchewan.

Manitoba and Alberta it is understood are following out a like policy. In 1928 when it was tacitly agreed by the Mackenzie King government that the natural resources belonged to the west, the federal authorities only continued control of the lands until they could be handed over administering them as a trusteeship. At the request of Manitoba free homesteads were withheld and similar action followed on behalf of the other provinces.

It is therefore no longer possible to get free land in the west. The policy was inaugurated by the late Sir Clifford Sifton and was instrumental in first settling western Canada.

Poultry Price Drop Causes Speculation

"What happened to poultry?" is a big question to dealers and others interested in the holiday market. The explanation offered by the Markets Intelligence Service of the Federal Department of Agriculture is: "The logical explanation seems to be that farmers, discouraged by the low prices offered, decided to eat many of the birds at home. This is a condition which was reported from the West some weeks ago, and it is a condition which in more than a few instance has been found to be true in Ontario.

KILLING PIGS MAY MEAN PRISON TERM

Reproductive Livestock Not to be Slaughtered in Russia.

MOSCOW, Jan. 17—Killing one of your own pigs can be made quite a worthwhile event in the Soviet Union. It might, for instance, be worth two years' imprisonment or exile. Livestock isn't increasing at the rate the government would like, so the powerful Central Executive Committee has placed a ban on killing any livestock capable of reproducing.

Anybody—peasant or other—who violates this edict will be fined ten times the worth of the prohibitive livestock slaughtered. But if the defendant is a Kulak — rich peasant farmer—he not only must pay the fine, but his cattle are subject to confiscation and he may be imprisoned or exiled for two years.

CATTLE RAISERS TO TOUR EUROPE

Party Organized By Hon. Duncan Marshall Will Visit Old Country Shows.

SAIL IN JUNE.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17—With the intention of visiting the various cattle shows of England and Scotland, as well as studying breeding methods in the British Isles, Hon. Duncan Marshall, formerly Minister of Agriculture for Alberta has organized a group of the foremost breeders of high-class horses and cattle in the Dominion to make an extended tour of Europe in the interests of better breeding in Canada.

The party will sail for England aboard the White Star liner "Alberic" on June 13th, from this city, and if present plans are carried out, will visit the Highland Cattle Show of Edinburgh, Scotland, of which H.R.H. the Prince of Wales is president, and the Royal Livestock Show of England, which is to be held at Warwick. The group will also pay a visit to France and Belgium where they will be given an opportunity of inspecting the famous Percheron horse-breeding centre Nogent Le Notrou.

Sir Robert Greig, head of the department of Agriculture for Scotland, who in the past has been a very warm friend of Canada, will accompany the party on the entire trip through Scotland and assist in their entertainment.

The return trip will be made on the new motor ship of the White Star Line, "The Britannic." Officials of the steamship company are doing everything possible to make the trip a success and express a hope that such a party will become a yearly affair, with return trips from Europe to Canada in the interests of higher class breeding throughout the world.

"Cluck" Says the Pratt-Fed Hen

There's as much difference between a fed-to-lay hen and an ordinary pick-up feeder as there is between a scrub bull and a great big, beefy prize-winner. The heavy laying hen and the heavy weighing bull are made that way by the feed they get. Heavy egg-producers must have the feed that encourages laying. While ordinary feeds supply ordinary needs, the secret of egg-producing is in the supplying of certain essentials which ordinary feeds do not supply. There are herbs and minerals in Pratts Poultry Regulator that science knows and practice proves will make hens lay more eggs, and those are the ingredients which added to the daily feed, we guarantee will make your hens lay more eggs.

Pratts POULTRY REGULATOR

"MAKES HENS LAY MORE EGGS"

This famous preparation has been in use by poultrymen for many years and research work on experimental poultry farms only emphasizes the value of this remarkable discovery. A spoonful for 15 hens—daily in the feed is all that is required. Do not let a day pas before you start your hens on the road that leads to profit;—the Pratt way—makes them pay.

England And Wales Play To Draw In Rugby Match

50,000 SEE INTERNATIONAL MATCH BETWEEN ENGLISH-WELSH TEAMS

SCORE WAS 11 ALL.

WICKENHAM, Eng., Jan. 17. — (Canadian Press Cable). — England and Wales played a drawn match in their annual International Rugby engagement to-day. The score was 11-all. Fifty thousand saw the match.

After the customary adventure when a red-hatted Welshman climbed the flagpole with a bunch of leeks in his hand and slipped down into the arms of a policeman, England kicked off. Wales gained ground immediately and Davey and Boon were only repelled by Burland's great tackling. Wales had the best of the game in the first ten minutes and were rewarded when Powell scored a magnificent goal from a mark. Five minutes later, however, he failed on a penalty kick from the same position. Bassett was a pillar of strength and Wales also won many of the scrums, their forwards heeling out quicker and cleaner. In the twenty fifth minute Davey gave Jones Davies the ball and he got a splendid try. Powell did not convert. England reacted at once and Black kicked a penalty goal into the teeth of the wind. England's weakness and hesitation in tackling were a revelation and the contrast with the smart work by Wales was accentuated when Boon picked up, eluded five opponents in a brilliant run and carried the play to England's twenty-five yard line. He repeated the feat a minute later, getting clear through the English defence only to stumble near the line. Barrington made a fine kick into touch and Burland secured on the line out dodging over the Welsh line cleverly. Burland took the kick and the judges signalled it was not a goal. During the interval, however, the referee reversed the decision after consulting with the other officials and allowed England the goal, making the score at the interval: England 8, Wales 6.

DATE ADVANCED

The play that was to have been put on by the Ashburnham Patriotic League in January has been postponed until some time in April, so that it will be possible to secure the desired play and the director to handle it.

GLEANERS' CLASS OF MARK STREET PRESENT COMEDY

'The Secret Society of Cabbageville' is Play Presented at Mark Street.

PARTS WELL TAKEN.

Sunshine and happiness may come even to the members of a Ladies' Aid, so decided Mrs. Gloomy in the play, "The Secret Society of Cabbageville," presented by the Gleaners' Class of Mark Street United Church in their church hall last evening. Miss Knowall, the typical small village gossip, may find in the end that she does not know all, and may even find a more pleasant form of amusement.

The scene of the little comedy was set in Cabbageville, Ontario, back in mid-Victorian times. The Ladies' Aid meeting in the drawing room of Mrs. Nibbs house is anything but business-like. It is and always was, as the minutes book shows, an exchange bureau for gossip and suspicion. A spicy piece of news that Mrs. Dean, the parson's wife, has thrown out a carpet, leads to the discovery that this unfortunate woman might need some new furniture. Two are delegated, Mrs. Nibbs and Mrs. Maloney to make a tour of inspection.

But the real event of the drama is the unearthing of a "secret society" and naturally there follows a great deal of suspicion and malice against the youthful Annabel Nibbs, Mrs. Dean and their associates. Miss Knowall is therefore entrusted with the mission of bringing to light the doings of this society.

The tour of inspection is made, and Mrs. Dean is found nursing to kiddies and their mother, Mrs. Jenkins, who have suffered from a bad fire in their home.

In the course of time the secret society is discovered to be none other than organization for bringing happiness to everyone. Many unfortunate people are discovered to have been helped materially, and the climax comes when Annabel and Mrs. Dean present gifts to the members of the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Gloomy's present of a lovely shawl converts her to happiness, and a letter of reconciliation from an old lover (obtained by the secret society) gives Miss Knowall a different view of life. Because she was unable to discover of the secret of the suspicious society herself, she realizes that gossip does not always win the day.

The Cast—The part of Mrs. Gloomy was ably taken by Miss B. Graham. Her drab black mid-Victorian dress and long purple shawl indeed gave her a sorrowful appearance. Her topics of conversation were "Sin and gloom"—"We're in a world of trials and troubles, and man is born to trouble as sure as sparks fly upwards" were repeated so many times that the effect was ludicrous. She said she was but a speck in the universe, but was redeemed by the gift of the shawl.

Miss Knowall, the inquisitive old maid, was well acted by Mrs. Cooper. "Not that I ever gossip, because I don't" were her favorite words. A former rejected lover came back, and love took the place of gossip for a few weeks at least.

The role of Mrs. Nibbs, President of the Ladies' Aid, was ably taken by Mrs. Andrews. Her affability kept her a little above the petty trifles of her sister workers. Her daughter Annabel, acted by Mrs. Eason, showed all the spirit a vigor of a girl of sixteen, but was termed impudent and "saucy mouth" by Miss Knowall. She and Mrs. Dean (Mrs. Butler) did wonderful work in their secret society.

The Irish Mrs. Maloney was portrayed by Mrs. Morrison. Such expressions as "Faith and glory be," "Sure an' it be meself that's tellin' it" and "—at all, at all" marked her as being a widow full of fun.

Mrs. Hill took the part of Mrs. Thompson splendidly. The old lady's early Victorian dress, superfluous white hair and long horn ear trumpet provoked incessant merriment. Her deafness makes her twist everything that was said to an entirely different meaning. Mrs. Pepper (Miss M. Currie—was a lady of rather sharp and decisive language. Mrs. Black (Mrs. Barringer) was secretary of the Ladies' Aid and her Priscilla-like attire marked her as a lady of sweet dignity. Other characters included Grace and Ruth Jenkins (Fern Agnew and Catherine McLean); Mrs. Topnote, a singer from Toronto (Miss B. Doxsee); Mrs. Jones (Mrs. Gamble); and Mrs. Jenkins a lonely and thankful widow (Mrs. Scriver).

Of course the production was an amateur one, as all plays are, outside those of professional players. Amateur acting, formed into the Little Theatre Movement by some, is coming back rapidly to replace the inartistic "movie." It is for this reason that plays tof the type of "The Secret Society of Cabbageville" should be greatly encouraged, especially when local talent is employed.

SHIPS PROTECTED BY NEW DEVICE

Gun Mountings on British Vessels Makes Air Attacks Impossible.

LAY CURTAIN OF SHELLS.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—The Daily Express said to-day that as a consequence of recent gunnery developments naval experts now believed British ships to be immune from aircraft attacks at sea.

This, it was claimed, is due to the mounting of eight inch guns in the latest battle cruisers in such a way that they can be raised and fired effectively at an elevation of from 75 to 80 degrees. At that elevation they would have an effective range of 27,000 feet, which is higher than any bombing aircraft could fly.

The guns could fire a curtain of shrapnel which it would be impossible for any airplane to penetrate. Low flying ships would be guarded against by means of various types of guns which would put a wall of bursting shells around any ship.

The two systems combined, the paper says would make an effective aircraft attack on a fleet at sea a physical impossibility. Similar progress has been made in anti-aircraft defense on land.

CANADIAN INDUSTRIAL LEADER SUCCEEDS IN DARING VENTURE

Gordon Pery Becomes International Power After Lowly Beginning.

STILL A YOUNG MAN.

(By J. H. Turnpenny. Copyright 1031)

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17 (Special to The Examiner).—Among the most compelling life stories of Canada's tycoons of industry, that of Gordon Foxbar Perry stands out in bold relief, alike for its swift, clear action, its color, its romantic appeal to the imagination of young and old. There is an easy sequence from one stage to the next which yet suggests the lightning strokes, the bold moves of the man of decision and initiative. There is the confidence inspired in people of the new and of the old world who differ in temperament and who each have their standards of judging a man. There is the romance of a young man tingling with the joy of life, in love with life, yet with the added spice of mystery which attaches itself to the successful man who remains a bachelor. And there is the intrigue of an unfinished story. What is to be the ultimate record of Gordon Perry in the industrial life of Canada? The story as yet is little more than a beginning.

GORDON FOXBAR PERRY

New C.N.R. Official

At the age of 45, which even on this fiercely energetic continent is considered young, he becomes a director of the Canadian National Railways, one of the greatest and most comprehensive transportation systems in the world, and one of the foremost experiments in public ownership. To be a member of such a board in itself carries a prestige on both this and the European continent. It is a newly acquired honor—he was elected only last year—and supplements such board memberships as Page Hersey Tubes, Limited, Lake Superior Corporation, Algoma Steel Corporation, McCall-Frontenac Oil Company, O'Keefe's Brewery, Ocean Agencies, National Iron Corporation, of which Mr. Perry is president; English Electrical Company, Limited, of which he is chairman of the board; Canadian Crocker-Wheeler Electrical Manufacturing Coompany, of which he is a vice-president. He is also on the advisory board of the Royal Trust Company.

An Industrial Power

From the foregoing it will be seen Gordon Perry must be reckoned a power in the iron and steel and the electrical industry in Canada. Yet this is the man who as a lad voluntarily left school as he himself has said: "I couldn't pass the confounded matriculation examinations."

Gordon Perry was born in Dundas, Ontario, in 1886. His family removed to Toronto, where Gordon attended Parkdale Public School and the Harboard Street Collegiate. His scholastic days were those of any healthy energetic boy. He took part in school sports (especially games), for he felt the thrill of competition. Happy days, restful days, cut short by that ogre, Matriculation Exam.

The qualities which have carried the man upward through the striving throng were early manifest; he did not waste his years, stubbornly battering head first against what appeared a stone wall, but having reviewed his position between himself to work.

His first employment was with the Canadian Allis Chalmers Company, where the foundry and machine shop absorbed the energy formerly spent on the playground. He later transferred to the sales department, but the experience gained in the shops where men strip to the waist, their bodies gleaming in the ruddy glow of intense heat was later to prove invaluable.

While still a remarkably young boy, Perry decided to start in business for himself and approached a boyhood friend, Cawthra Mulock, with his proposition. The latter provided the capital and with a daring which today astounds the mature man, built the National Iron Corporation at Ashbridge's Bay, Toronto, the first industry to be located there.

The venture was a success. In 1910 the company was turning out 6,000 tons of products yearly, and has since progressed steadily with a yearly output now reaching 30,000 tons.

If you were to ask Gordon Perry to what he attributed his success, he would probably laugh and then question that word "success." To him, his life, his rise in the industrial world, if you will, has been merely a succession of "happenings." But those who have come within the ambit of his influence testify to the dynamic personality, a mind amazingly alert and swift to action. Under careful scrutiny "happenings" become consequences.

Some years ago, Mr. Perry secured the patent rights for the Delaraud process for manufacturing cast-iron pipe, one of the most important developments in the cast-iron pipe business—another "happening," but the actual facts of the story serve to illustrate the purpose behind all Mr. Perry's actions. Business occasioned his going to New York and one afternoon, while lounging in a club room he read in a trade journal that a Brazilian had come to America in the hope of interesting capital in a process for manufacturing cast-iron pipe. Perry's interest was aroused. He telephoned the trade journal, learned the man's name was Delaraud and possible ways of reaching him. Further inquiry revealed Delaraud had gone to Buffalo to visit friends and incidentally confer with manufacturers of cast-iron pipe. Perry left hot foot for Buffalo, interviewed Delaraud, arrived at terms. Delaraud came on to Toronto with Perry, and immediately steps were taken to prove the process. After a year of experimenting, the process was perfected commercially and Perry licensed the process with the most important pipe manufacturers in every industrial country in the world.

Licensing the process took Perry to England. At that time a group of capitalists were interested in the possibilities of the electrical industry in Canada. Perry undertook to look after their representatives when they came to Canada, and when the English Electric Company was formed and which absorbed the Canadian Crocker-Wheeler Co., Perry was asked to become chairman of the board of directors.

His election to the boards of Algoma Steel and Lake Superior gave that organization the benefit of one widely and favorably known in the iron and steel industry, and one, moreover, who had close officialdom with English capitalists, a factor not to be overlooked, since considerable English money has been invested in these firms.

Perry suggests little of the hard-lipped captain of industry. He is crisp, yet never abrupt over the telephone, and is acquastomed to addressing men by their Christian name. He can be stern, yet is quick to see the humor of a situation and a laugh comes readily to his lips. He presents a fine figure of a man, tall, well-built and with a clear compexion. He keeps fit by riding daily, has a stable of horses, has owned steeple-chasers and is proud of the fact that Black Ion, bearing his colors, once won the Prince of Wales Cup. A picture of Black Ion, jockey up, occupies a prominent place among reproductions of electrical units and apparatus on the walls of his office.

He does not worry about his golf score because he does not play that game, nor does he play cards. But he has other bachelor evils, including that of being a member of the cult of the goddess of Nicotine.

RED THREATENS OVER TELEPHONE TO BURN OUT JUDGE COATSWORTH

Call is Taken By Police Commissioner's Daughter When Father is Out.

POLICE ON GUARD.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17.—(CP)—Police are maintaining a strict guard over the residence of Judge Emerson Coatsworth today following receipt of a mysterious telephone message at his home last night.

His daughter, Helen received the call and was told by the unknown personage that he, "a Red" would "get" her father and also set fire to the Coatsworth residence.

According to Miss Coatsworth the man commenced the conversation in a well modulated voice by asking for father. When informed he was not at home the speaker became abusive and after listening to several of his threats Miss Coatsworth hung up the receiver.

Police Notified

His Honor arrived home shortly after the incident and immediately informed Chief Constable D. C. Draper who despatched a number of detectives and police constables to the Coastsworth home.

While detectives worked throughout the night in an effort to trace the call, a cordon of police guarded His Honor's home, but no untoward incidents were reported.

Judge Coatsworth is a member of the local Police Commission which has been subjected to considerable criticism regarding their attitude toward a certain society advocating "free speech."

The Police Commission has also been active during recent months in trying to stamp out Communism in the city.

No concern was shown by the Judge regarding the threats. He admitted he thought it best to be on the safe side by informing the police, "for you never know what these crazy fellows will do."

A year and a half ago Judge Coatsworth received threatening letters following a clash between police and Communists at Queen's Park, but last night's threat was the first he ever received over the telephone.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Are you as a homemaker making your home as inviting as you possibly can for your family during this cold spell?

• • • • • • •

Does your living room invite people to remain within its attractive walls or is it so suffed with misplaced furniture that one is glad to get out for breathing space?

• • • • • • •

I hope it isn't like that but you maybe have been in some homes which are. I have and oftentimes there were two rows of chairs all around the room—about twice too much furniture

• • • • • • •

When purchasing furniture say for instance a chesterfield suite, if you haven't room for the three pieces don't obtain them just because there are three pieces in a suite. Your room, if small, would look much better with only the larger piece and a few smaller chairs and tables, etc.

• • • • • • •

And then the fashion changes in the vogue of arrangement of furniture as well as in the furniture itself. Once there was a veritable orgy of arranging davenports before the fireplace with tables behind and a reading lamp on each table.

• • • • • • •

And then this was followed by the fashion for placing the davenport at right angles to the fireplace with end tables substituted for the large davenport table and standard reading lamps supplying the illumination.

• • • • • • •

Usually on these end tables smoker's accesories were in evidence.

• • • • • • •

In both these arrangements there can a monotony so that variety was essential and a new fashion had to come.

• • • • • • •

The davenport with its accompanying table of some sort or other, has again become an individual problem for decorators to solve to the best advantage of the shape of the room, etc.

• • • • • • •

For instance in a large room the davenport can be drawn out in the room far enough to allow pieces of wall furniture to stand back of it without any crowded appearance. An occasional table may be placed before it near one end, and a foot rest be ready for tired feet.

• • • • • • •

A side chair with open back preferably or a very low back over-stuffed chair or perhaps both may be placed invitingly before it also. The chairs could face the davenport so that a conversational grouping is presented.

• • • • • • •

The suggestion about the openwork or low backs of these chairs is made for decorative reasons. They do not hide the couch nor look forbidding with their backs toward the rest of the room.

• • • • • • •

But if the room is small push the davenport back against the wall between two windows or before one with a table before it, on end tables standing near. The reading lamp would have to be at one end unless one of the end tables were high enough for it to hold a reading lamp.

St. Andrew's W.M.S. Has Successful Year

The meeting of St. Andrews W.M.S. was held one week earlier than usual owing to the Presbyterial meeting this month, and was opened by a few moments of silent prayer in memory of three members who had passed away during the past year—Mrs. W. J. Henry, Mrs. W. Cathcart, and Mrs. Eaton. Mrs. A. Porteous read the minutes of the last meeting and later a concise report of the activities of last year. The delegates appointed to the meeting of Presbyterial to be held next week were Mrs. C. V. McLean and Mrs. J. Forbes Allan. Mrs. B. L. Barnes, Mrs. Nelson, and Mrs. Wemp are delegates to the Local Council of Women. The president, Miss F. Dixon, expressed her thanks to the women for their co-operation during the past year, which had been hearty and thorough and asked for a continuation of this support through the coming year. Mrs. T. Leslie led in prayer. Miss Craw took charge of the memorial service, referring feelingly to their work, their faith and loyalty to the cause of missions. She read from Peter's epistle his references to similar people, and closed with a beautiful poem. The reports of last year's work were then read. Corresponding secretary Mrs. F. Saltman. The financial secretary, Mrs. J. F. Allan, gave some points about the envelopes and mite boxes that would make the work easier and more efficient. Literature, Mrs. Nelson; Supplies, Miss E. Ferguson; Temperance, Mrs. C. H. Edwards; Associate Helpers, Mrs. Breckenridge; Strangers, Miss Craw; Baby Band, Mrs. Breckenridge; Mission Band, Miss King; Mission Circle Mrs. C. V. McLean; C.G.I.T., Mrs. J. McKone; Messenger, Miss L. Best. All rejoiced that we had more than reached our allocation. The group leaders were then reappointed as follows: Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. T. Leslie, and Miss Craw. It was decided to study Japan in the coming months. The meeting, which was well attended, was closed with the hymn, "Breathe on me, breath of God" and a thanksgiving prayer.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE WEEKLY COLUMN

A goodly thing it is to meet
In Friendship's circle bright.
Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet
Or dims the radiant light.
No unkind word our lips shall pass.
No envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal,
The good of all mankind.

MILLBROOK

A meeting that has on its regular program, for one month of the twelve, "A Little of Everything," as the response to the roll-call for all Institute members present, promises variety, and also that each one will not only bring to the gathering some fact of practical import, but will take away a new and workable idea as well.

A branch in Western Ontario that tried out this scheme found it most helpful, its novelty adding interest, and bringing out one of the largest meetings of the year. Some of the responses made included: "Make you're life simple and sane, and true pleasure will be its accompaniment; don't try to kill yourself, and destroy family peace by 'keeping up with the Joneses'"; "If you want to be a charming hostess don't be self-conscious, as that is the surest way to spoil your charms"; "don't be afraid of simple things, for they are often the most far-reaching in their effect"; "If your luck isn't what it should be, try writing a 'p' in front of it, and try again."

There were a number of other sayings quoted along this line, while several members gave recipes when their names were called. One that a number wrote down was for a plain honey sauce: "Take two parts of honey, one of butter, place in a bowl and add one-half cup of cream; then beat the mixture until very light and smooth.'

One member 'started something' at a district convention when she suggested to the Institute members assembled that "if they wanted to be fair and not too fat at forty a reduction in diet is essential. We surely take on weight, once we are past middle life, if we still eat as we did when we were younger."

Discussion waxed warm, but the speaker held her ground asserting that folk past the age mentioned were not actually hungry when meal time comes round, unless they were engaged in manual labor—hence habit largely determined the sitting down at table, and eating food not really wanted. "Then we forget, and eat too much."

Two meals a day were advocated to avoid overweight, and these to be lacking in too much of the starchy element, with sweets also on the 'bad list.' The danger of overweight was also stressed, less resistance to an attack of illness, and over-taxing of the heart, being condition likely to result when avoirdupois is on the ascendancy. "Make your breakfast of fruit, and bran taken in cereal, muffins, or whole wheat bread; you midday meal largely of salad, with a light food accompaniment; and your meal in the evening void of fats, pastry, rich gravies, and deserts, and you will likely attain your ideal of being more fair, and less fat, at forty, and have more genuine satisfaction out of your life as well."

MOUNT PLESASANT

Christmas has come and gone. The New Year has come and seventeen days of it are gone. Resolutions have been made and perhaps already forgotten by many. What about us We who are women of the homes—whether Institute members or not; women of the community have we made resolutions to which we intend to adhere

At an Institute meeting some one spoke of how much improvement there had been under the regime of the then officers. A past officer very gently remarked that that was nothing but what should be.

There should be improvement every year; if not the organization was useless. It seemed such a true thought and struck home as the idea never had before. We cannot stand still else we deteriorate. We must not wish nor expect to have notice taken of what we do, at all times, nor wish it at any time.

The time may have been when a woman who never appeared outside her own home, may have done all she could for her home, but that day is certainly past now. The woman who confines herself to her own home is not doing justice to herself, her husband, her children, the community in which she is placed, or the world at large.

She cannot be her best, if she always stays at home, and the few times she does get out she is uncomfortable, for she usually feels out of place, even if she if gifted and well read.

Her husband and children are out among others and while children sometimes do think parents are a back number and perhaps even say so to the parents, still it may be deserved if the parent does not know what is going on. Times have changed, no use denying it; it is up to us to know how they have changed, keep up with the good and knowing, and keeping abreast and possibly ahead in the good, be quietly but firmly able to eliminate the bad.

On the whole, families are better kept than they were twenty-five years ago. Much work has become easier, giving more leisure for something besides drudgery. That something should not be mere amusement. It should be betterment for ourselves and our families and through them and us our community. Now with telephones, telegraph, wireless and radio, the world is a very small place, and what affects any community must necessarily affect a very large area.

The Women's Institute, with its non-partizan, non-denominational, non-sectarian principles seems to be the only meeting ground for all. As such, the government has recognized it, and through the Institute assistance on almost any subject of interest in the home may be secured. As an educational medium the Institute can feel confident that whether it is not it has assisted very materially in the advancement of the last twenty-five years.

It falls upon Institute women to do their best to induce all to take full advantage of all the opportunities offered.

WARSAW.

Finland since 1924 has had two national organizations of women. The Finnish Martta Union and the Swedish Marsha Union of Finland. For twenty-five years previously they simply had the Finnish Martta Union with two official languages, the Finnish and Swedish. During these years, the Martta idea secured a foothold over the whole of Finland, and had a membership of over 31,000 with about 400 local unions. Much self-sacrificing work had been done by both men and women who were enthusiastic over the Martta (Martha) idea. Great good was done for the Finnish homes.

What was known as the "frost years" had come to the Finlanders. The very roots of their existence as a nation were shaken, and they were in danger of being exterminated as a nation and absorbed by the Russians. This in 1899.

The hearts of the patriots bled, and they wondered how they could endure the heavy burden. History had already shown that even a small nation, if it was united and energetic was able to withstand a great and seemingly powerful one which was bent on the distruction of the smaller. These patriotic people determined on energetic educational work within the nation. Right of assembly and freedom of speech were denied them. Noble patriotism urged the people to search for means to save their national existence.

A group of women headed by Professor Lucina Hagman, head-mistress of a co-educational school, determined to do all in their power to arouse housewives to an independent outlook, and to raise the stadard of the homes. Other women leaders in educational lines also were in the group.

After much difficulty the organization got to work, and at once gathered women of all social classes and positions, from the most cultivated, and most uneducated, to do a common work for the good of the house through the work of the women. Thus meeting of all classes did wonderful work. Those of higher social standing came to understand the lives of others, to sympathize with them and their home conditions. The people were backward in domestic economy. Educational work was necessary, and it was found that the women eagerly desired it.

The two languages made work rather difficult so when things were running smoothing, a division was made to accommodate the users of each language. Since then both of the sister organizations have gone ahead by leaps and bounds. The two organizations appointed a central board of six members to represent them in conference with foreign countries, and to confer on national plans and problems.

St. John's Crush Lakefield Under 12-0 Defeat

SAINTS GRAB EASY VICTORY FOR THIRD WIN IN A WEEK DEFEAT LAKEFIELD 12 TO NIL

St. John's Outfit Show Too Much Punch Round Nets For Visitors.

CLEVER ON ATTACK.

Lakefield Try Until Last Bell But Are Unable to Hold Winners.

(By F. D. C.)

St. John's climaxed a successful week's campaign during which they won three games in a row by beating Lakefield in hollow fashion, at Brock Street Rink last night in an O.H.A. Junior fixture, by 12 goals to 0, the biggest score of the season in the local junior group.

The score scarcely does justice to the persistent efforts of the Lakefield youngsters, who stuck to their guns until the last minute and never stopped trying, despite a disheartening procession of St. John's goals. They had a good share of the play, too, those game kids from the Cement village, but they lacked the team play to penetrate the Saints' defence and were powerless to stop the combined thrusts of the St. John's attackers, who had a finish to their raids that was lacking from the Lakefield repertoire.

With Tommy Miller playing a perfect game in the nets for the Saints behind good defence work and a close checking forward line, the visitors' determination went for nothing.

Meanwhile the winners, showing little evidence that they were playing their fourth game in a week, were displaying not only individual cleverness that carried them in for shots but plenty of smart passing as well, and practically every one of their twelve goals was scored at point-blank range on plays that gave Stewart little opportunity to save. Gardner and Calladine were the most successful attackers, the right winger contributing three goals and three assists, while Calladine smartly potted the disc behind Stewart four times during the battle. Both youngsters showed nice stickhandling and skating in working into position for their scoring efforts. The rest of the St. John's advance guard were not far behind this pair of snipers in effectiveness, for Milliken drove in two nice goals. Wilshaw had a marker and an assist to his credit; young Steve Burke slipped out one of the smoothest passes of the night for a tally and Merrett, although kept off the score sheet, was dangerous often.

Jimmy Ellis, the smooth-skating defence man, turned in his best card of the season, his speed and weaving style of rushing making him the standout of the engagement. The Lakefield kids found stopping him a tough task. Howe played a steady defence game alongside the speedy Ellis, and did some good rushing on his own account while Miller in the nets was invincible, blocking and clearing in great style.

For Lakefield, Stewart, in the nets, did well in spite of the big score, while Wingett was the pick of the defence pair. Up in front, Don White, the starting centre ice player was always trying and Jewell and Northey went nicely at times. The second line looked, however, if anything, more effective than the other trio, little Jack Elmslie and Kennedy contributing some nice skating and stick-handling.

St. John's took the lead early in the first period after a tame start. The firm of Calladine and Gardner combined for the initial counter. Gardner beating the defence with a perfect pass to Calladine, who skated in on top of Stewart and gave the Lakefield goaler no chance. The Lakefield crew were doing some attacking on their own account, but Miller handled their drives from outside coolly and there was nothing doing. St. John's sent their second forward line into action and Milliken, grabbing a loose puck, dashed in and slanted a fast one past Stewart for the second goal. For the next few minutes the play was more even, Lakefield doing some determined checking that held the Saints at bay. Finally, however, with St. John's playing a man short, Gardner went down mid-ice, tricked the Lakefield defence and scored at close range. Soon after, Wilshaw went down again and slipped a pass to Calladine, who carried the rubber in close before letting drive. Stewart was beat clean on the play.

For the first ten minutes of the second period the Lakefield crew held the Saints in check and gave Miller plenty of chance to show his ability. They could not beat him, however, and then the winners began to untrack themselves again. Gardner started the parade when he went down the right boards and beat Stewart with a perfect angle shot that caught the top corner of the nets. Then Calladine grabbed the rubber at centre, stickhandled round the Lakefield defence and sent a neat goal into the corner of the net. Just before the period ended, Burke went down the side, started to circle the Lakefield net and then slipped a beautiful pass out to Milliken, who scored easily.

The Saints added five goals in the final twenty minutes, their best scoring performance of the night. By way of variety, the defence started the fireworks in this period. Ellis showed the way with a lightning rush that carried him the length of the rink and in on top of Stewart for a clever goal. Then Howe got the contagion and he shot down mid ice and worked his way in for a close-range goal that made it 9 to 0.

Jimmy Wilshaw sent the score into double figures when he drove home a rebound from a Gardner wing shot. Gardner went down alone and right inside for goal No. 11, and Calladine made it an even dozen for his team and four for himself when he took a pass from Gardner and waltzed inside for a shot that gave Stewart little chance.

C.G.E. Toolmakers Leading E.P.L. Race

Inside Sportin' Dope—By A. Wise Cracker

Mister Sporting Editor:

Well, Mac, a bunch of lads from Bowmanville blew in here last Mon. nite and come close to ruining our intermediate hockey serious. The boys from the lake front didn't look so hot when they skated out there, but they showed something between the ears, and the extra grey matter let them get away with a comparative easy 5 to 1 win. The home lads skated miles in all directions, but got nothing much out of that exertion save a good sweat. Meanwhile the busy bees from Bowmanville was taking it a good deal easier, but when they started to go places they did things, with the result they breezed home with a victory that hurt the Petes worse than stepping on a nail, although the local lads can get back into the running for 2nd position and a place in the play-offs by stepping into Bowmanville. To do that they'll hafta develop a little teamwork and stick in their positions, for the Bees are too smart to be taken by a team that goes haywire.

In the junior group, Mac, the big surprise so far has been the 6-0 bump the Petes jrs. handed St. John's. The Saints played the 1st 15 minutes as if they was suffering from the 2nd stage of sleeping sickness, and before they knew the battle was on Mister Jimmy McMartin's pestiferous Petes had slammed in 4 goals. It was all over then, for the Saints never did get themselves pulled together. This week so far the Saints has kinda redeemed themselves by going out and beating both Lakefield and Campbellford away from home, and it looks like the battle for the first 2 places in the group will be between Peterborough Hockey Club, the Havelock-Norwood-Hastings-Marmora-Keene combines and the Saints, which oughta provide a bunch of thrills before the final verdict is in.

In the pro loop, Mac, Canadiens, Maroons and Mister Connie Smythe's Leaves is having one hecka row and giving their home fans heart failure, or what have you. They may be a financial depression on somewhere, but it ain't hit the cash and carry hockey none. If you think so just try to get a pasteboard for the Maple Leaf-Canadien clash this Sat. nite. It looks like for every lucky bird what gets in to look at the fracas they'll be three guys turned away.

Well, Mac, mebbe some day this berg will be on the pro circuit, too. They ain't no harm in hoping anyway.

Well, I'll be seeing ya.

Sportfully yours,

A. WISE CRACKER.

TITANTIC STRUGGLE TO-NIGHT IN CANADIENS-TORONTO TANGLE

Victory For Leafs Will Cut Habitants' Lead Two Points.

THREE GAMES TO-NIGHT.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17. (CP)—Ford the third successive Saturday night Les Canadiens of Montreal, and Toronto Maple Leafs clash in the feature game of the National Hockey League's week-end schedule.

There are three tussles scheduled to-night and two on Saturday night and, while the New York Ranger-Chicago Blackhawk encounter should prove a thriller, the renewal of rivalry between the Habitants and Leafs easily takes the headline position.

Still smarting under the crushing defeat inflicted on them by the Flying Frenchmen last week the Leafs will be securing revenge to-night as well as improving their status in the Canadian group standing.

In the first tilt between the teams the Red Devils put the skids under Art Duncan's well balanced squad when they were tied for the leadership. Toronto handed the Montrealers a setback in the second meeting in the Queen City and by an identical score of 2 to 1. Then as the fates willed the Leafs went to Montreal last Saturday once again heading the parade. What happened is history and the main question now is can the Leafs even matters by registering a victory. This could cut Canadiens' lead to two points and, should Montreal Maroons now tied for the second place honors with the Leafs, unexpectedly loose to Ottawa, the Smythe men will have the second rung to themselves.

At Full Strength

Both teams will be at full strength for what promises to be a titanic struggle between two sets of speed artists. The Red Shirts have been strengthened by the exchanging of Bert McCaffery, veteran defenceman, for Art Lesieur, defence player from Providence.

On the last appearance here the group leaders attracted a crowd of record breaking proportions and another packed arena will greet them to-night.

While their fellow townsmen are battling in Toronto, Maroons will be entertaining Ottawa Senators in the third encounter between the teams this season. The Maroons have won two of the tussles by one goal margins, while the Ottawans took the first tussle, 2 to 0.

While they haven ot been showing very impressive form in recent games the Maroons hope to take both points from the luckless Senators, who are without their two regular defencemen, Alex Smith and Harold Starr, through injuries. Still the Montrealers have won only one game in their last five starts and one of these defeats was tacked on them by the lowly Philadelphia Quakers so that the Bytown boys have more than an outside chance of "taking" their rivals.

Carnera And Uzcudun Barred From 'Garden'

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Jan. 17.—Interpreting the mandates of the New York State Athletic Commission in the strictest sense, spotters on the gates at Madison Square Garden refused admittance last night to Primo Carnera, the Italian giant, and Paulino Uzcudun, Spanish heavyweight, because of their suspensions by the fistic fathers.

There was much excitement and general to-do, flashlight boomed and the boxers protested, but the gatekeepers refused to yield to the boxers' desires to witness the heavyweight card featuring Max Baer and Tom Heeney.

Carnera even called for a personal appearance by Bill Carey, President of Madison Square Garden, before he would yield. However, Carey politely but firmly escorted the Italian man-mountain to the exit. Paulino marched away without protest.

The Garden's refusal to allow the two boxers to see the show was unprecedented in the history of boxing here, although the rule had been on the Commission books for some time.

Madoc High School Defeats Norwood 6-3

MADOC, Jan. 17 (Examiner Correspondence).—Norwood hockey team and the Madoc High School team played an exhibition game at the Madoc skating rink on Thursday evening before a good crowd and with splendid ice. Both teams played fast hockey, with a final score of 6—3 in favor of the home team.

The line-up for Norwood was as follows: Goal, Ennis; defense, Shannon and Scriver; centre, B. Rogers; wings, Stephenson and Webb. Subs, Campion, Rogers, and McLean.

The Madoc High School team went to Tweed on Wednesday evening. Owing to accidents and delays, the game was not begun until after nine o'clock.

The ice was in good condition, and a very fast game was played, the visitors being unable to score. Tweed team made two counts in the first period, then held the score during the two following periods, neither team scoring for a count. Final score, 2 to 1 in favor of Tweed.

The visitors were entertained at the High School after the game.

Bob Whytock had the misfortune to meet the car of Rivers in a head-on collision at Feeney's Hill, with considerable damage done to both cars. This caused considerable delay in the game in Tweed as those in Whytock's car had to return to Madoc and go by the other road to Tweed, also the cars which were following.

Linday Intermediates Are Beaten By Uxbridge

LINDSAY, Jan. 17.—Poor passing and shooting were largely responsible for the 5 to 3 defeat of Lindsay's entry in the O.H.A. Intermediate race by Uxbridge in an exciting contest played at the local arena last night. Two of the visitors' goals were of a flukey nature, one in the first period caroming in off the Lindsay custodian's stick, and one coming when a defenseman, in trying to catch a flying puck, missed and in so doing blocked the view of the goalkeeper. One of Lindsay's goal came off a combination effort and the other two from passes out in scrambles in front of the net.

In spots, the game was fairly rough, with Uxbridge getting seven penalties to the locals' one.

Lindsay.—Goal, Eberts; defense, Fever and Reeves; centre, Martin; wings, Williams and Rich; subs., Crafton, Forbert and Dames.

Uxbridge. — Goal, Carr; defense, Moore and Prentice; centre, Rodman; wings, Willis and Suggitt; subs., Linton and Norton.

Referee—D. Thorndyke, Manilla.

TEN PIN LEAGUE

The increasing number of teams in the strong-arm game makes it look as if Saturday afternoon will see some old timers in action. The latest addition to the league is two teams from the C.G.E. Chief Gimblets veteran Hag Beens and Bert Duffus Jokes have already had a go at it.

Max Baer is Winner Over Tom Heeney In an Unusual Knockout Decision

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Jan. 17 (C.P.). — A set of scrambled numbers tolled by a rattled timekeeper, brought a surprising muddled ending last night to the heavyweight match between Max Baer, curly-headed youngster and Tom Heeney, the old crushed rock of New Zealand.

To the amazement of 5,000 spectators, Heeney was counted on the stroke of "eight" when he climbed back into the ring after being pushed through the ropes in the third round. Forgetting for the moment that he had tolled "two" while the ancient mariner was outside the boundaries, Knockdown Timekeeper Arthur Donovan tolled "eight" while Heeney rested on one hand and one knee suddenly discovered that eight plus two made ten and immediately waved Heeney from one of the strangest knockouts ever recorded in this arena of strange happenings.

It just so happened that Jack Dempsey, was in the centre of the ring as referee, just as he was the night of another famous fiasco — the occasion Otto Von Porat sent Phil Scott into a foul swoon. But to-night Dempsey was taken by surprise as completely as the other inhabitants of the ring, and could do nothing to save the situation.

MECHANICS SCORE OVERTIME VICTORY FROM COMBINES 3-2 ON THE LATTER'S HOME ICE

Brennan and Wright Tally For Homesters in Initial Period.

IS TIDY BATTLE.

Lakefield and Cogs in Second and Third Place Respectively in Loop Race.

With an overtime win in Norwood last night Frank Barrie's C.G.E. team moved out in front of the East Peterborough league race. They are one point up on Lakefield, and Cogs are down another point in third place.

The village combines are apparently fixing their hopes on the second half of the schedule, and are looking better every time out. Alex Kempt used his junior O.H.A. defense last night with Stevenson, Brennan and Glen Wright as the regular forwards. Becky Jack, Rogers and Pete King did the relief work on the front line, with Webb helping the defense. Two of their first string men are not yet available. Lynn Hill is away on a trip across the border, and Ware of Port Hope is also eligible as a Hydro employee. So far Norwood has been taking the short end of small scores, but the prospects of a change in their fortune look bright to Kempt and Albert Armstrong.

Norwood Scored Two

The Combines took an early lead last night and held it until about eight minutes from the close of the third period when C.G.E. tied it up. Norwood scored their first goal in about a minute, ran in another eight minutes later, and seemed to have just about that much of the margin of the play. The Electrics broke into the scoring column four minutes before the period ended. The second was a blank and C.G.E. was the only counter in the third. Norwood faded in condition during the last stage of the game, while C.G.E. went better as the pressure against them eased up, and they certainly had the big share of the ten minutes' overtime.

The Peterborough team went through the early periods in a sort of indifferent manner that was relieved by bursts of smart hockey. Only occasionally did they get working together. The soloists grabbed most of the limelight and they were nearly all afflicted with the same defect, that of picking the longest way round to the goal. The only consistent and persistent bee-liner on the team was Doug. Hatton, and he didn't hesitate to risk the chances of going in close with the puck. Too many of the other efforts let up along the blue line, satisfied that long shots meant something more than a gesture for the goal-keepers. That comment, however, does not tell the whole story, for both Hollingsworth and Beavis were in great form and were kept busy.

Glen Wright was the most effective of the Combines. He has speed and a bullet shot, but still lacks condition. Bill Shannon of Marmora not only did a lot of useful work on the defense, but was also in on many of the home team's attacks. McLaughlin at right defense has many of the ear marks of a promising player. He seems to prefer the straight lines to the opposite goal, but his work will be more productive when he learns that the habit of teaming up with his forwards. Stan Stevens of Hastings and Charlie Brennan of Havelock filled out a fast string of forwards, and a break cost Stevenson the goal that would have given Norwood the game. Beckey Jack played his usual steady game, and Rogers shared the job of watching Creighton.

Hatton and Haydon stood out in the C.G.E. performance. Harold Epps and Creighton were also constantly in the play, but the front line as a whole lacked precision and smoothness of attack. The gave the impression of more power than they were using. Lackey wore a path from his own defense to at least the other blue line, and if that means anything he should have been on the score sheet. He and Swanger settled down after the first period and turned in a strong game.

Max Board handled the bell impartially and with a little more lenience than at Lakefield. Last night's game will make him welcome back to Norwood at any time.

The Line-up:

Referee—Max Board.

First Period

Brennan (from Wright) .....1 min.
Wright (from Stevenson) .....8 min.
Creighton (from E. Epps) ....7 min.

Second Period

No score.

Third Period

Haydon (from Williams) ... 12 mins.

Overtime Period

E. Epps .....8 mins.

First Period

Norwood was all over the C.G.E. boys in the first five minutes and out of three big chances they got one goal. The Peterborough defense was loose and apparently found it hard to step up fast from low gear. Most of the preliminary action centred around Hollingsworth. McLaughlin and Wright were down on him with the first rush, and in about a minute a Brennan to Wright combination gave Norwood a neat goal that had all the marks of more behind it.

Harold Epps and Hatton featured the C.G.E. work, but their several rushes were handled by Beavis. Swanger partly tripped Wright who was almost past him and within close range of the net. Just as a sample of how the C.G.E. defense was working in those opening minutes was Norwood's second goal. Their regular forward line went down together, but the shot was ineffective, and Stevenson went after it back of the goal. He whipped the puck out in front to Wright who camped about ten feet out from Hollingsworth. It was rather easy picking, that one.

H. Epps on a pass from Hatton breezed a fast one at Beavis, and a few minutes later Epps found an opening but his shot was easily handled. Finally after a face off near Norwood's goal Creighton beat Beavis with a quick flip on a pass from H. Epps.

Second Period

Early in the second period Stevenson took a pass from McLaughlin that caught the C.G.E. rear guard cold, and with no one near him and the whole stage set for him he bounced the puck against Beavis' pads. That was one of the incidents that accounted for the blank second period. Ray Epps and Lackey increased the Beavis boy's business, and at the other end Hollingsworth went to his knees for a fast one from Brennan. Doug. Hatton provided the stellar acrobatic feature of the entire evening, with the smooth and perfect assistance of McLaughlin. In fact it was Hattons' most crowded minute in probably a long time.

Going down the right boards Hatton was checked and stopped by Pete King who went to the timers for his generosity with the hickory, and after the next face-off Hatton, dashing toward the Norwood goal, was bodied by McLaughlin and took the air route over the stocky defense man, a spectacular flight of at least ten feet that ended in the Norwood net. The whole period was wasted except by the two goal guardians, and their work was perfect.

Third Period

Hollingsworth showed his stuff right at the start of the third session when he turned back a triple volleying from close quarters by Stevenson, Wright and Brennan. It was another little break that favored the visitors. With twelve minutes gone, Williams and Haydon combined smartly for the Electrics' tieing goal, with Haydon on the firing end.

C.G.E. redeemed themselves in the last period and overtime. The first five extra minutes produced nothing, although Beavis turned back two hard drives from Hatton and R. Epps. A face-off near the Norwood goal provided the set-up that beat Norwood. The puck went out to Ray Epps and he flipped it through the screen of legs into Beavis' net.

SOUTH-END LEAGUE MEETS ON MONDAY

Several Important Questions to be Discussed by Loop Managers.

The managers of the South End City League are requested to attend a hockey meeting Monday night at 7.30 in the Raybestos. Finances, extension of the schedule, and the elegibility of certain players will be some of the questions discussed.

Tankard Games Tuesday.

Peterboro' and Lindsay Clubs Probably Only Entries.

The Curling Club's calendar for next week shows Tuesday in red letters for the preliminary Tankard games. Jack Maynsord has received only two entries so far, and it is altogether likely that the other clubs in the group will not be represented in this series, but will wait for the District Cup games the following Tuesday. The Tankard competition begins at 9 a.m.

Tuesday is also the probable date of the final game for the Neill trophy between W. D. Campbell and J. W McDermid.

TRIPLE-HEADER OPENS GIRLS' 'CAGE SEASON

Trailing For Practically Whole Game Saints Defeat Seniors 25-20.

"Y" SENIORS ROUT WOHELO.

Hec McLeod's Clockmakers Take 14-4 Victory From "Y" Elementary.

The Ladies' City Basketball League got off to a fine start when a smart triple-header was staged on the Y.W.C.A. floor last evening. In the curtain raiser, St. Paul's were pitted against the Senior School Girls and, after trailing for practically the entire time, the Saints managed to squeeze out a win in the last few minutes, the final count being 25 to 20.

The game was a fast and close-checking affair from start to finish and there were thrills and spills galore.

The outstanding player on the floor was easily Helen Cole of the Senior School, being personally responsible for 15 of her team's markers.

St. Paul's trotted out a well-balanced line-up, but couldnt seem to hit their usual stride against the strenuous checking of the school. However, Maisie Cowan led her team with 9 points, and was followed closely by Clara Patterson with 6, Arleigh Comstock 6, and Jeannette Allin with 4.

For the losers, Jeanne Harvey stood out on the forward line with Helen Cole, and Ruth Sutton and Kay Lang did fine work on the defence.

One feature of the game was the fine combination and accurate shooting of both teams. The teams:—

St. Paul's.—Centre, Arleigh Comstock; forwards, Clara Patterson, Maisie Cowan, Jeannette Allin; defence, Edna Morrow, Grace Comstock. Alternates, Gwen Sorby, Sybil Jackson.

45 TO 2 ROUT.

In the second tussle the "Y" Seniors took on the Wohelo team and had little trouble in defeating them 45-2.

The Wohelos put up a much stronger fight than the score might indicate, and it must be said in their favor that they show much promise, and with a couple of more games will be able to battle any team in the League.

"Y" Seniors, last year's city champs, were led by Isobel Davidson, and they have lost none of their former skill. This team has been practically intact for several years, and was always noted for its high scoring ability. Isobel Davidson led the scoring for the winners with 22 points. Sybil Sharpe, May Holmes and Ev. Armstrong were next with 6 points each.

The team-work of the Seniors was a treat to watch, and gave the large gallery something to enthuse over.

The losing squad worked hard at all times, but were playing out of their class, but they did not give up till the final whistle.

The teams:

"Y" Seniors—Centre, Isobel Davidson; forwards, May Holmes, Kay Haggart and L. Slaughter; defence, G. Hewett, S. Sharpe, E. Armstrong and V. Gamble.

Win Close Victory.

As usual, the Westclox floored a hard-working team that was just superior enough to run away from the Elementary team in the last few minutes. The count at full time was 14-4.

Till half-time the "Y" team made a real game of it, and when the final session started Westclox were leading 4-2.

Baskets by the Misses Foster, Kingdon, and Fever put Hec McLeod's team further ahead from where they were never headed.

For the winners, F. Fever, L. Kingdon, and K. Foster stood out as the scoring threats, and with M. Mortimer, were responsible for all the winners' points.

Sybil Ecobichon scored the only two baskets for her team, but she was ably assisted by the entire squad, which worked hard to stem the clockmakers but without avail.

The teams:

NEW RUMBLINGS ALARM MEXICO

Valley of Oaxaca Shaken Again and Again—Volcano Awakening.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 17.—An almost continual earthquake, accompanied by weird subterranean rumblings, renewed alarm in the valley of Oaxaca to-day. The valley was shaken again and again. Some new damage was caused. Advices reached the city from outlying town and villages of the extent of the disaster which accompanied Wednesday night's quakes.

Dispatches from Pinotepa Nacional, in the far southwest corner of Oaxaca said that Wednesday's quakes were followed by a rain of shooting stars. The phenomenon added greatly to the fear of the Indian natives.

Colima dispatches to-day stated that the semi-active volcano of Colma had begun to emit smoke and low rumblings. The volcano is about 200 miles south of Ceboruco, dormant volcano which last week showed signs of renewed activity.

ARBOUR'S GOAL WINS 3-2 TILT FOR BULLDOGS

Victory Enables Windsorites to Move Within Four Points of Bisons.

EARL ROBINSON STARS.

Likely Third Place Tie Will Be Shattered in Tecumseh-Indian Game.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 17. (CP)—A neat goal by Jack Arbour on a pass from Earl Robinson, league leading marksman, enabled Windsor Bulldogs to defeat Buffalo Bisons, 3 to 2, in a tightly contested International League fixture at the Border city last night.

The victory enabled the Windsorites to move up to within four points of the pace setting Bisons, who have garnered only two points out of a possible eight in their clashes with the clever playing Bulldogs. In addition the triumph placed the Herbie Mitchell coached team four points in the van of Cleveland and London close pressing third place rivals.

Robinson was easily the standout performer of the game. He figured in all three Windsor goals. In the opening frame Earl whipped a perfect pass to Lorne Duguid for the initial tally, and after the Bisons had knotted the count on Stan Jackson's counter, he smarted Duguid's pass in the middle frame to whip a perfect shot into the Buffalo cage and place the Bulldogs in the van again. Lloyd Gross evened the score for the second time in the last minute of the period.

Four games are scheduled over the week-end and it is likely the third place deadlock will be shattered as London meets the Indians in Cleveland to-night. The improved Tecumsehs, with four straight victories under their belts over leading outfits, may surprise the stout hearted Indians, who lose few games on home ice.

In the other Saturday tilt Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets journey to Buffalo and there is a strong possibility the Bisons may take it on the chin for the second time in as many nights. The Yellow Jackets have shown they are capable of beating the Bisons as they accomplished the task at the Smoky City and last night's hard game with Windsor may soften Mickey Roach's men just enough to give the Yellow Jackets an edge in condition.

The Pittsburgh representatives move over to Syracuse after their game at Buffalo and tackle the Stars. Should they be able to snatch two victories from their opponent's over the week-end the Yellow Jackets will climb right into contention as they are only one point behind Detroit Olympics who have a hard task on their hands in their meeting with the Windsor squad.

AUTOMOBILE LEAGUE

In the automobile League Wednesday the leading Chryslers and Fords took a complete flop from the hands of Hudson and Essex, and Chevrolet Pontiacs ditched Buicks, taking six points while Bert Howson's Oldsmobile gang were helping themselves to eight points in the absence of the Durant team. Chevrolets had Ab Juby's Fords hot and bothered all evening taking eight points and landing on the same rung as Pontiacs. Sammy Clements and Denford hit hard for the winners. Naish and Allen were the best for Fords. Hudson and Essex win over Chrysler was due to Mrs. Leggott's 640 triple which included 249 and 207 single. O'Connel and Duck were steady. Joe Detcher and Ev. Robinson were high for Chryslers.

Mike Duffus, Bill Hickey and the two Ralphs piled up big scores to break their tie with Buicks. Duffus' 684 triple put Inch's 660 high three into discard. Shaughnessy, Adams and J. J. Duffus saved Buicks from a whitewash.

The eight points Oldsmobile gathered in puts them tied with Buicks and the net result of the evening's fun leaves all teams up in a bunch.

LADIES' CITY LEAGUE

The addition of Miss Simpson to the West Ends did not stop the onward drive of the Quaker Oats team who tacked eight more points to their total and placed them again on top with Columbians who lost two points to Wesbrus Paper. Miss Pickering topped the steady Quakers with 618. Miss Hall was high for the West Enders.

The surprise of the night was the heavy hitting of Metropolitan Stores against Mrs. Firth's Brintons. Led by Miss Holland and Mrs. Baldwin the whole five players had the satisfaction of taking eight points from a team who were at full strength and going strong. Miss Sturgeon, Taylor and Doran turned in fine singles which were lost under Metropolitan's drive.

Columbians weathered a tough game with the Nashua girls and bagged six points. Miss White was high for Nashua but Miss Campbell, Prest, Connors and O'Connel forged Columbians ahead with heavy scores.

MERCANTILE LEAGUE

Whitewash was applied with a mop in the Mercantile, Legions, Brintons and Johnsons grabbing the points over Postal Clerks, Red Patch and Batchelors. 20 pins was the difference between Legions and Postal Clerks. Grant of the Legions stood high over the ten bowlers. Sweetman, Rundle and Boons of Brintons made it possible for their team to step over the Batchelors into second place in the league standing. Kennedy tried hard for the Batchelors. Lack of help caused the downfall of Bill MacPherson's Red Patch to the league-leading Johnsons.

Mail Carriers played a lone hand to annex eight points when C.N.R. defeated, but Mrs. Coursey's Ladies' City League Columbians took them on for the last two games and were all set to show them how it's done when proceedings were halted by the City League.

MEN'S CITY LEAGUE

Starting off the second half on Thursday night the Big Five showed that they will be a hard team to stop. Sweeping aside Lucky Strikes, their most dangerous rivals, by taking the whole works by over 300 pins. Tom Curvin led the onslaught with 730 pins and their total, 3389. was evenly divided, Thomas, Fallon and the Naples' supplying big scores to stand off the heavy hitting of O'Connell, Hickey and Prindible.

The rebuilt Westclox and Belmonts staged another feud, the former getting away on the right foot by spilling 3397 pins and taking all the points. Joe Robertson's 790, including a 326 single along with Cupoli and Baptie did the trick. Fred Scates of the Belmonts bumped off 768.

Rangers took the tough Canadians into camp for three points out of four. Marsden's 743, Ranger's 715 and F. Jones 716 contributed to the big total of 3336. For the losers H Delahaye's 722 helped make them always dangerous.

Cognawagas took the Bowlrites for a ride taking three points. Bill Prest, Johnnie Wilson and George Williams hammered down 752, 697 and 670 to show other teams that their first half showing is only a mild idea of what may happen yet. "Shag" Shaughnessy was the only one of the Bowlrites to get going properly.

Brintons and Vince Fitzgerald's newly-formed Night Hawks got away with the lowest scores of the night, the latter team getting three points with a difference of only nine pins on the total. Bill Chamberlain and Anderson of Brintons and Fitzgerald of the Night Hawks nailed the high scores.

George Street Sextet Church Loop Winners

An error was made in announcing the winners in the Church Hockey League games last night. Instead of George Street being defeated by Knox Midgets by 13-6, it should have been reversed. Thus George Street is the team that applied the heavy coat of whitewash to their unfortunate opponents.

RECORD FOR AUSTRALIA.

BRISBANE, Australia, Jan. 17 (A.P. Cable).—When the third test cricket match between Australia and West Indies was resumed here to-day Don. Bradman was caught off Constantine's bowling before he had added to his overnight score of 223. This was the highest score in a test match by an Australian in Australia since Victor Trumper's record of 214. Australia closed yesterday with 428 for three wickets, but to-day they lost their last seven wickets for only 130 more, bringing their first innings score to 558, all out, just before the tea interval. The West Indies had scored 53 runs for the loss of three wickets when play ceased for the day five minutes from regular closing time owing to bad light.

Bowling analysis: Griffith, four wickets for 133; Francis, three for 76; Constantine, one for 74; Scott, one for 125; Birkett, one for 76.

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Lionel Gadsden who plays Major Sellar in the Scottish Comedy "Marigold", which will play an engagement of two days commencing Tuesday, January 20th at the Grand Theatre, began his stage career in the "Sign of the Cross" under the aegis of the late Wilson Barrett. Although he was for several years with Sir George Alexander and later with Frank Curson and is known to all playgoers in England as Capt. Hook in Barrie's "Peter Pan" in which part he has appeared over 4000 times, he has had his resting periods. Actors always rest when they are out work. Anyhow on one such unwelcome occasion the story is told of Gadsden walking into a London suburban theatre where they produced twice nightly dramas. When he presented his card the manager looked at it and then at the man who wanted a free seat.

"Say you're an actor, eh?"

Gadsden admitted it was so—an actor, and to relate, who was out of work.

"Well", replied the other, "We are in a bit of a mess too. Our leading man has met with an accident on the way to the theatre. We have no understudy and no time to get one. Will you take it on?"

While Gadsden made-up and dressed for the part the manager explained the situation to the audience, which, always sympathetic towards a substitute, gave him a great reception with the result that the management, so delighted with his ability to cope with such an emergency, offered him the part permanently at an excellent salary, which he was jolly glad to get; as resting at times is tiring.

REV. TREVOR DAVIES TO CONDUCT TRINITY CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

59th Anniversary Will Be Celebated on Sunday and Monday.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

On Sunday and Monday next, Trinity United Church of this city will celebrate its 59th anniversary of the beginning of religious worship.

It is a far battle cry from the days when the Peterborough circuit of the former Methodist Church was formed, consisting of Peterborough and the Townships of Smith, Otonabee, Monaghan, Cavan, Ops, Emily and Dummer to the present days. In 1872 Rev. Charles Fish formed a Sunday School on Charlotte street and from this small beginning there has grown year by year until the strong and flourishing cause known as Trinity, now stands as a memorial to the sacrifice and toil of those who served in those bygone years.

In those days, no one dreamed that Peterborough would become the important City it now is, with its spacious streets, fine business areas growing industries, magnificent schools and Church edifices, second to none in the Dominion. Beginning with Rev. Charles Fish, there has been a long succession of ministers who have served the church, whose names have become widely known, some of whom still live, while many have passed to the Great Beyond: Drs. S. P. Rose, W. R. Willoughby, F. H. Wallace, Thomas Manning, Henry Manning, I. Tovell, George W. Henderson, T. J. Mansell, J. P. Wilson, F. E. Mallott and A. J. Langford. The present pastor, Rev. David Wren, M.A., B.D., is now in his fifth year and under his leadership the church has sustained its splendid record of past years.

Prominent Place in City's Life

During all the years Trinity church has occupied a very prominent place in the life of the city. There have been associated with the church men who have been prominent in the finance, business, civic, professional and political life of the City, Province and Dominion. The present beautiful church building had the enterprise of building begun under the pastorate of Dr. T. J. Mansell and was completed during the ministry of Dr. J. P. Wilson.

The year just closing has been a very successful one. The reports show that all societies have been active and have had a year of service which reveals success and prosperity in all the departments. The Women's Missionary Society reports approximately $2,000 having been raised through the Circle and Auxiliaries. The Missionary and Maintenance Fund will contribute $4,500, the Sunday School, $912; the Young People's Club $385; which amounts together with the Trustee Board and Quarterly Official Board will reveal that for all purposes a total of $22,-000 will have been raised.

The interest in the work of the church was never more deep than at the present time. All organizations are well officered and they carry on a full and complete program, with large attendances at all the meetings. The Sunday congregations were never better. The choir under the efficient and cabable leadership of Miss Mabel Clarry, conducts a service of song at the evening service at which hymns and tunes which are familiar and old favorites are being sung by choir and congregation, and has created wide interest and brought exceedingly large congregations to the popular service.

80 United With Church

Some eighty have united with the church during the year. The membership is now 830 and there are more than 300 families identified with the church. A most delightful spirit of harmony and concord prevails, among the various organizations and the church has entered upon its 1931 program with great faith and courage.

On Sunday and Monday next the anniversary services will be held. Dr. Trevor H. Davies, of Timothy Eaton Memorial church, Toronto will be the special preacher for the Sunday services. Dr. Davies comes to Peterborough with a splendid reputation. He is ranked as one of the foremost preachers of the Dominion, possessing in a very marked degree a rare literary charm, and a personality that makes his pulpit ministry one of great helpfulness and has created for himself an international reputation. His recent books, "The Inner Circle" and "The Spiritual Voice in Nature" has made him well known in many lands. He will be heard with great pleasure by the many who have come to know him through his books and as a radio preacher, when he has spoken so frequently over Station C.F.C.A. Sunday will mark one of the high days in connection with the anniversary services of Trinity Church.

On Monday evening at o'clock there will be a congregational dinner in connection with the anniversary. After dinner there will be a social hour to be followed by an address by Rev. G. A. Sisco, B.A., of Port Hope.

Health Improved after First Box

"I have been troubled with my kidneys for a long time," writes Mrs. Hector Aitken, R.R. No. 2, Southwold Sta., Ont. "I had such terrible pains in my back it was agony for me to get around. At last I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills which I did. After taking the first box I felt a different woman. Therefore I have nothing but praise for them." Weak kidneys are not confined to grown people. They are too often found in children, sowing the seeds of future ills unless the kidneys are strengthened and put in condition to do their full work of removing the impurities from the blood stream.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SOMETHING GOOD.

You may think this story has a queer name, but please wait until you have heard the end and I think you will agree that it is all right. Uncle Wiggily wanted the story named the way you see it and he knows.

It was two or three days after the big storm that had covered the rabbit gentleman's bungalow with a pile of snow so deep that even the chimney didn't stick out. Perhaps you may remember how, after opening the front door, and finding it blocked with snow, Uncle Wiggily took the shovel and was going to dig a tunnel to get out.

But there was no place to put the snow he shoveled away so he had to give up his idea and wait for the sun to melt the snow down enough so he could crawl out over the top.

"And I think it is melted enough now," said Mr. Longears as he hopped out of bed one morning and looked from the window. "Yes," he went on, "it is. I can see trees and bushes, now, sticking up out of the deep snow."

Can we go to school?

"Thank goodness!" exclaimed Mrs. Longears. "Perhaps you can get out to the stores now, Wiggy. For our food is getting low and I don't want my darlings to be hungry."

"Surely I can get out to the store now!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily dancing around the room. "The snow has melted down enough now so I can go out and shovel. I will not need to dig a tunnel. I can dig a sort of gully or channel or, if I were out West, I would say canyon. It will be a path at the bottom of two walls of snow on each side and, not only can I hop to the store but I can go adventuring."

"And can we go to school?" asked Baby Bunty, who loved the Lady Mouse Teacher in the Hollow Stump School.

"We shall se about that," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "Wait until I do some digging. It's a good thing the sun melted the snow or we might have had to stay under the deep drift all winter."

He put on his warm, fur coat and taking the shovel, went to the back door, for the snow wasn't quite so deep there. Uncle Wiggily found that, by stepping on a chair in Nurse Jane's kitchen, he could get out on top of the big drift of snow behind his bungalow. Then he began to dig down to make what you might call a tunnel without any roof on it.

Uncle Wiggily was a very good snow shoveler. In a short time he had dug down to the bottom of the back steps and then he began to dig straight ahead along the canyon, tossing the snow up over his head and to the top of the tunnel without any roof.

"La! La! La!" sang Uncle Wiggily as he tossed up the snow. "I will soon have a path dug so Nurse Jane can get out to hang up the clothes and the children can go to school and I can go adventuring. That is after I hop to the stores and get something for my bunnies to eat."

Along and along the deep path at the bottom of the snow canyon, Uncle Wiggily dug his way, throwing up one shovelful after another of the white flakes.

Now about this time the Fox, the Wolf and the Bob Cat started out from their dens to look for something to eat. They met near a big tree that stuck up out of the deep snow. The Bad Chaps walked on top of the drifts.

"It's too bad Uncle Wiggily has moved away!" mewed the Bob Cat.

"Surely it is," agreed the Fox. A few days before the three had gone looking for the rabbit, but as his bungalow was covered with snow, which was Uncle Wiggily's good luck, they didn't see him and thought he had left town. "But come on," said the Fox. "Let's go hunting."

They wandered around until, all of a sudden they saw the top of Uncle Wiggily's bungalow now sticking out of the snow which had partly melted. The Bad Chaps began to run. They came to where Uncle Wiggily was shoveling at the bottom of the trench.

"It's Mr. Longears himself!" whispered the Wolf. "We've got him, but first I'll tease him a bit. Hello, down there!" he cried, making his voice as soft as possible. "Have you something good down there?"

"Why, yes, I have something good!" said Uncle Wiggily, looking up and catching sight of the Wolf's nose before he had a chance to draw back. "I have something very good." What Uncle Wiggily meant by good was his shovel. What the Wolf meant by good was the rabbit's ears.

"Toss up something good!" growled the Wolf. And to his friends the Fox and Bob Cat as he whispered: "Get this. It's going to be good.

"Here comes something good?" cried Uncle Wiggily. The Fox, the Wolf and the Bob Cat leaned over the edge of the deep, white ditch, and Uncle Wiggily tossed up a big shovel full of snow that caught the Bad Chaps in their eyes, noses and mouths. "How's that for something good?" cried Mr. Longears. "Do you want any more!"

"No! No! No—" howled the Bad Chaps and away they ran.

Then the bunny finished digging his canyon path.

Brockville Recorder Started 110 Years Ago

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Jan. 16 (C.P.)—Started on January 16, 1831, by Chauncey Beach, an itinerant printer, the Brockville Recorder, a daily newspaper, is to-day celebrating its one hundred and tenth anniversary without, so far as is known, having missed a week's publication during that long period of time and wearing the same title as that which it bore at the time of its foundation. The newspaper was established by members of the Buell family, acting in conjunction with Beach, as a protest against the Family Compact in Upper Canada and Andrew N. Buell, later Master in Chancery at Toronto, who, as a young law student, wrote the inaugural address in the first issue of 110 years ago, stamped the publication in the strongest terms as a reform journal, it has since remained a supporter of Liberal policies and principle. The Recorder was the first newspaper to be established between Montreal and Kingston, and in its earliest years of publication was distributed along the concession lines between Gananoque and the vicinity of Cornwall on horse-back. Of all its Upper Canadian contemporaries of 110 years ago, it alone survives.

FOR ANY CHILD

CHILDREN are happy and carefree by nature, so when they cry for no apparent reason any careful mother worries. No one can always guess just what is wrong but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as baby has a fretful spell, is feverish and cross and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes it is constipation. Just keep Castoria handy and give freely for any of the above conditions; relief will follow promptly.

All through babyhood, Castoria is a mother's standby, and wise mothers do not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Just increase the dose of Castoria and keep the youngster's stomach sweet and the bowels in good order.

THEATRE NEWS

RUTH CHATTERTON PLAYS DUAL ROLE

Ruth Chatterson—24 New Dunning Process Submitted to Exacting Test.

Production becomes notable for several things. It is the first release using the new Bell light valve an improved device in recording that eliminates extraneous noises and registers sound values beyond the range of the old apparatus in delicacy. Also it brings into play the perfected technique of the Dunning process which eliminates the crudities of the old double exposure so that the same player enacting two roles is free to move over the entire field of vision crossing the doubled personality and engaging without limit in scenes in which the dual character mingle.

In one incident of the story Miss Chatterton, playing the dual role of mother and daughter, is seen to clasp a locket chain around her own neck. The acid test of the incident is that it plays itself out with perfect naturalness so that the illusion remains unmarred by any consideration of a mechanical freak. The device is so good it becomes superior to its own artifice. This story gives the mechanical technique its severest test, for the subtlety of its theme does not admit of any discordant note such as might be introduced in the use of a device of theatrical or artificial nature.

CENSOR FEE DROP

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—Starting with the new year film censorship fees were materially reduced for the picture exchange of Ontario, the hint being given by the government that the saving in these charges should be passed on to the exhibitors.

Charge for censoring United States films was reduced from $10 to $6 per reel, while British films are being examined for $3 per reel as compared with the previous rate of $6.

MANNERS IN FILM

David Manners, who was in the screen version of "Journey's End," is in the film adaptation of "Dracula." Born in Canada, he has lived many years in the United States acted on Broadway and married an American girl, Suzanne Bushnell. He assumed his mother's maiden name, Manners, she being a cousin of Lady Diana Manners, who acted here as the Nun in "The Miracle." Manner is the family name of the Duke of Rutland.

SCREEN AND STAGE NOTES

Auriol Lee, actress, was left the entire estate, amounting to $34,998 of the late Sir Sefton Brancker, who was killed in the R-101 disaster Miss Lee appeared in New York in "Nine to Six."

Jack Gilbert has been identified as the generous gent who sent Marion Davies a truckload of roses as a Christmas gift.

Egbert Van Alstyne, song writer, was divorced by Mrs. Mabelle Van Alstyne on grounds of desertion. Married in 1906 and separated in 1920. Divorcee receives a property settlement said to total $100,000.

Mae Murray gets another whack at pictures. Radio gave her a principal part in "Bachelor Apartment," starring and directed by Lowell Sherman.

Mary McCormic, operatic soprano, admitted she was married to Prince Serge Mdvani, former husband of Pola Negri, immediately after Miss Negri was granted a final decree. Miss McCormic, now in Europe said the marriage took place in the United States. Mdvani is in California.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 17.— How Myron Selznick battled his way through New Year's Eve is being slowly pieced together by the local colony. Selznick's party went from the exclusive Embassy Club to the Cocoanut Grove for his first fisticuffs with Ben Frank, and from there moved on to the Mayfair where another knuckle duel with Eric Von Stroheim occurred.

Jean Harlow's name was dragged in, but she figured remotely and innocently through sitting at a Grove table, where Selznick spoke to her casually. Next thing anybody knew Selznick, who heads the Joyce and Selznick, Ltd., and his own agency, was rolling on the floor with Ben Frank, owner of the Ambassador hotel.

Just what precipitated this fracas is unestablished.

Frank is said to have later told Selznick in the lobby that they would quit fighting, but it started all over again, with the two men rolling from the lobby into the Grove proper. Owen Moore, who was in Selznick's party then, championed Myron, and the elderly Abe Frank also jumped into it, after which David Selznick, Paramount executive, made it a fivesome until two cops quieted the rumpus.

Later on in the morning Selznick and Eric Von Stroheim came to sudden and unsuspected blows and were separated by those nearby. This happened at the Mayfair in the Biltmore hotel.

SANDE'S RETURN

Earl Sande will reap his first profits from two years of vocal study in a short for Warners and some vaude playing for R-K-O. Lee Stewart is handling the former famous jockey.

Sande was booked for vaude playing in Flushing as a break-in next week, but his date at the Warner Brooklyn studio has set that back. He'll open for R-K-O the week after next instead.

SPENCE'S $2,500 WEEKLY

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 17.—Ralph Spence's new writing contract with Radio calls for $2,500 weekly for six months.

It's an exceptionally high figure.

EVELYN LAYE'S PICTURE A HIT

English Star Aided By Lilyan Tashman, Boles and Errol.

LONDON PLEASED.

LONDON, Jan 17—"One Heavenly Night" (UA) opened at the Tivoli Dec. 27, piling up $6,000 for the first day, within $300 of the house record.

Attendance pull is regarded as largely due to the name of Evelyn Laye in the cast.

Miss Laye is a little like Marion Davies, a little like Phyliss Haver and a little like Joan Bennett. Of course, she is more than a little like herself, too. And all this makes her a very charming screen figure, a good actress, a delightful singer, and perhaps a potential favorite. The vehicle is designed to give her every opportunity and she displays considerable versatility. She does not, however, establish herself very definitely or memorably in one's consciousness.

Such adverse comment may not be bestowed upon Lilyan Tashman, however. Lilyan takes a bit and builds it to one of the best roles she ever portrayed. As Fritzi the toast—or talk, or something—of the town, she brings a whirlwind quality to the film, which is just what director ordered to speed its tempo and sustain pace. Lilyan has been "typed" too long. In this she shows herself to be a more dynamic, dashing, vivid actress than parts have permitted for a long time

John Boles was never better. It is pleasant to say this after every Boles picture, for it proves that the good-looking player tops each portrayal with that succeeding it.

Leon Errol aided by Hugh Cameron, contributed a lot of laughs with material which is quite frankly interpolated to piece out the footage to required feature length. It isn't very new. But it is still very funny. The support is good—music better than usual—direction exquisite.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN No. 48 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The girl leveled a heavy rifle at the Russian's breast—his own gun, that she had taken from his tent that fateful night she made her escape. Quickly, at sight of it, Rokoff dropped the rope, the dugout floated beyond his grasp, soon disappearing from his sight around a bend in the river. Then he turned and ran upstream to the place he first had landed, when his party sought the fleeing girl.

Meanwhile Tarzan, following the trail of the Russian, came suddenly upon his Beasts moving slowly along. They appeared glad to see him again, and Mugambi could scarce believe that the mate of his savage master had passed so close to them without being detected by some of the marvelously keen and alert animals. Again with the pack following the ape-man pressed rapidly on.

With a little thrill of expectation he now leaped ahead of the pack, swung swiftly through the trees and soon came out upon the river bank at the very point at which Rokoff had overhauled Jane as she endeavored to launch the dugout. In the mud Tarzan saw the foot prints of the two he sought. It was plain as day to him that a boat had left this shore recently. But nowhere was there sight of boat or humans.

Then, as the ape-man's keen eye ran swiftly down the course of the river, he saw in the far distance, just as it rounded a bend that had shut it from his view, a drifting dugout. In the stern appeared some object. A half hour's rapid traveling by a short cut brought Tarzan to the inward bend of the river. Here he now saw that object was Rokoff—alone and paddling rapidly. Where was Jane?

200 SPECTATORS ATTEND DISPLAY

Jack Purcell, Canadian Amateur Badminton Champion, Gives Exhibition Match.

PLAYS LOCAL GAME.

About two hundred spectators attended the Badminton exhibition games last night at the Armouries, and came away marvelling at the ability and agility of Jack Purcell the Canadian amateur champion. He came down from Toronto with J. Cook, professional of the Toronto Badminton Club, for these exhibition games before leaving for the States.

Purcell is the out-standing badminton exponent in the world, having defeated the best, both amateur and professional, in exhibition play. Last fall, he toured Canada with the leading English team, and defeated them all, including the champion. Sir George Thomas, dean of badminton in England, recently said he thought Purcell could defeat any player in England now. The Canadian champion will represent this country at the international matches which will be held in England in February.

Last night, Purcell and Cook played a thrilling game which the former won. This was followed by a doubles for men with Purcell and Major Stevenson opposing Cook and Dr. Howson! and a mixed doubles with Miss Lenore Ryle and Purcell teaming up against Mrs. W. Jopling and Cook. These exhibitions were beautiful to see, whether one knew the game or not.

Later in the evening a supper was served in the Recreation Room of the Armouries by the ladies of the Artillery.

COURT ACTION WITHDRAWN

The County Court action, in which Eli. Burston of Bridgenorth was sued by the Cockshutt Plow Company, on a writ issued in the County of Brant, for the sum of $340, has been withdrawn with the consent of both parties, it is learned.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM

mented upon by other members of the Board, but before any action will be taken, Mr. Parsons' report will be awaited.

Alderman Holland, who is chairman of the Property Committee, said that city ashes were being dumped on that stretch of James Stevenson Park from the bridge to the fence of the ball park at the present time in an effort to raise it.

No More East City Pits

The Board went on record as being opposed to opening any new gravel pits in East City. This decision was enunciated when a proposition to purchase a lot in East City for $800 to be used as a gravel pit. Alderman Macdonald stated that East City had been dug up too much already, and he was against any more gravel pits in that part of the city. The motion was passed unanimously.

A guard fence with white posts will be erected on Water Street along the bank of Goose Pond, and a checker board to warn motorists will be put up at the end of Edinburgh Street. Alderman Mel Turner, in making this motion, stated that this section was dangerous to motor traffic. The motion passed unanimously.

Further, he moved that the City Engineer report the advisability of erecting a fence on Crescent Street, since he considered this section also dangerous to motor vehicles.

In reporting on the expenditure of the $80,000 granted for unemployment relief work in the scheme entered into with the Federal and Provincial Governments, by which they will make a grant of half the total cost, the City Engineer reported that at the end of December $54,113.06 had been expended.

665 Men Registered

"At the rate we are going at present we will spend about $22 000 in January, leaving only $5,000 for February, the report continued.

"This means in order to finish some of the work already begun it will be necessary to lay off two or three gangs as soon as they complete the work they are on now.

"At the present time we have 665 men registered for relief work. Of these 466 are married and 199 are single. Of the single men 44 have widowed mothers or others dependent on them. Of the married men 57 have been culled as not deserving or needing work. In the ten weeks we have been working, 428 men have been given from 1 to 5 weeks work as follows: 1 week, 105 men; 2 weeks, 78 men; 3 weeks 97 men; 4 weeks, 119 men; 5 weeks, 27 men.

"On January 31, I estimate that the cost of the work still to be done on the original scheme will be about $8,000, and in order to have this amount of money left it will be necessary to lay off two gangs before the end of this month. Even then all of the work authorized will probably be finished by the middle of February.

"What will happen then to the men we have been helping through the winter," the City Engineer asked.

"In order to help out the situation," he continued, "I have prepared a supplementary list of the streets on which storm drains could be built to advantage, together with estimated cost of same, in case it is considered advisable to ask for more unemployment relief money from the Government."

Sherbrooke, Bethune, and Wolfe Streets were added, and the Board unanimously passed a motion introduced by Mayor Denne to send the deputation to Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM.

CLARKE. — There passed away in this city a year ago to-morrow (January 18), Thelma Louise Roberts, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, 260 Wescott Street, and beloved wife of Charles W. Clarke.

What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her dear face to recall,
To hear her voice and see her smile
That meant so much to all.

She bade no one a last farewell,
She said good-bye to none;
The heavenly gates were opened wide,
A loving voice said Come.

Our footsteps often wander
In loneliness and sorrow,
Where they laid our darling daughter
Just a year ago tomorrow.

—Sadly missed by Father, Mother, and Kenneth.

IN MEMORIAM.

CLARKE. — In loving memory of my dear wife, Thelma Louise Clarke, who passed away one year ago, January 18, 1930.

Oh, what I would give to clasp your hand,
Your dear, kind face to see,
Your loving smile, your welcome voice—
That meant so much to me.

No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who have such can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one I loved so well.

—Sadly missed by her Husband and Family.

SELF GOVERNMENT IS PROMISED INDIA

French Gov't To Fix Wheat Price At $2

BILL PREPARED IS ALMOST SURE OF BEING PASSED

Minister of Agriculture Claims French Farmers Will Just About Break Even.

PRODUCTION COSTS HIGH.

Due to Premier Bennett's Activities Much Canadian Wheat May Be Bought.

PARIS, January 19 (C.P.). — The French Government plans to fix the price of high-grade wheat at $2.00 a bushel, the Associated Press was informed at the Ministry of Agriculture to-day.

A Bill to that effect has already been prepared, and Minister of Agriculture Victor Boret is confident that it will be passed by Parliament, it was said.

Even at $2.00 a bushel, taking into consideration high costs of production, French farmers will just about break even, in the opinion of the Minister.

Hopes for Canada.

The wheat situation was discussed with the French Government by Premier R. B. Bennett when he was overseas attending the Imperial Conference, and it is recalled that in his Regina speech a few weeks ago, the Prime Minister stated he had advice that France would guarantee to buy substantial quantity of Canadian wheat. An amount of approximately 20,000,000 bushels, he said would probably be purchased by French millers in the current grain year.

STORMS AHEAD FOR LABOR GOV'T

Manchester Guardian Sees Survival For MacDonald Party, But By Close Margins.

LIBERALS KEY NOTE.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 19 (C.P. Cable).—Parliament opens tomorrow and the Government, says The Manchester Guardian editorially to-day, "will be shooting the rapids within the next fortnight."

"It may get through without capsizing, but we shall have a catch of a breath or two," The Guardian added. "If they do make calmer water they should survive until the Budget is passed.

"It is the unenviable lot of the Liberals to sink or save them. From the Tories, the Government will meet bitter and unremitting opposition."

The Guardian professed to have the best authority for saying the belief held in some quarters, that the Conservatives were not prepared to take office before the Budget is passed is all "moonshine." "They have no choice, for the Indian Conference is over and nothing will excuse them in the eyes of their followers for not going all out to the last man against the Trades Disputes Bill," The Guardian added.

"The Conservative Party will decide tomorrow whether to allow second reading to the bill," The Guardian said. Such an allowance would enable a more critical attack on the bill in the committee stages.

"Probably a week from Tuesday will, therefore, be the most critical time for the Government," The Guardian concluded.

REV. DR. BLAGRAVE IS NAMED RECTOR

New Rector Will Be Inducted Some Evening Next Week.

10 YEARS AT ST. JOHN'S.

Announcement was made at the evening service at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday that a communication was received the day previous from His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto, officially appointing the Rev. Dr. R. C. Blagrave to the rectorship of that parish and congregation, as dating from January 1st, 1931.

The new rector will be installed by the Bishop in Toronto on Tuesday of this week, while the formal induction will be arranged for some evening next week.

In making the announcement, Dr. G. S. Cameron, who was one of the wardens responsible for appointing Rev. Dr. Blagrave to the incumbency, in the course of a lengthy eulogy of his untiring work in the parish, mentioned the fact that it "is ten years ago to-day since Dr. Blagrave was first introduced to the congregation of St. John's."

Havelock Store is Entered by Night

HAVELOCK, Jan. 19.—D. O. Patterson's bakeshop and confectionery store was broken into during the night and a considerable quantity of candies, chocolates and similar goods were stolen together with a small sum of money that had been left in a purse.

Entrance to Patterson's store was gained through a shop that had been used as a beauty parlor. A window on the east side had been pried up, and the confectionery store was easily entered from the adjoining shop. The robbery was discovered about nine o'clock this morning.

COURT IS PACKED AS DAISY DE BOE 'TELLS' ON CLARA

Defense Counsel Claims He Has Score of Witnesses to Back Secretary's Story.

BOY FRIEND BENEFITS.

Film Star Claims Her Faith in Humanity is Gone.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19 (C.P.). — Daisy de Boe's promise of more lurid pictures of off-stage life in Hollywood and of affairs in the home of Clara Bow, whetted interest of film fans to-day in her trial on charges of stealing $15,300 from the red-haired actress.

The big show was expected to be without its headliner again for the film "It" girl who once employed Daisy as secretary-confidante, is nursing a bad cold and a case of nerves.

Miss de Boe was expected to resume the stand in her own defence and carry out as far as the limitations of testimony taking would permit, her avowed intention of "telling plenty" on Clara.

Score Of Witnesses.

Defence Counsel Nathan Freedman expected to conclude Daisy's testimony within three or four hours, after which, he said, a score of witnesses would be called to bolster up her case.

While she is specifically charged with theft of $15,300 from her former employer, Daisy is purported to have confessed to the mis-appropriation of almost $35,000 from the film actress. She also is said to have admitted attempting to extract $125,000 from Miss Bow on pain of disclosure of the contents of intimately and affectionately worded telegrams from Clara's admirers.

Out of the first week of the trial of Miss De Boe has emerged a new Clara Bow, says Clara herself.

LOUIS LOW FOUND DEAD, SUICIDE IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Bullet Wound is Found in the Right Temple of Young Man.

IN POOR HEALTH.

Card Game Was Going on at the Time in Room Below Where Body Was Found.

The sharp report of a revolver shot and the subsequent discovery of the lifeless body of Louis Low, lying at the side of his bed with a bullet wound in the right temple, at his father's residence, 271 Brock street, were the tragic incidents which interrupted a card game shortly before nine o'clock last evening.

It is learned that the deceased man had been in poor health for several months past, and had been attended by Dr. Malcolm McCulloch up to six weeks ago. He had also consulted a specialist, who had advised deceased to make a change of surroundings in the interests of his health.

Dr. McCulloch was summoned to the house immediately following the tragedy, but was only able to pronounce that life was extinct. The body was also viewed by Coroner Dr. T. W. H. Young and by Dr. Herbert Young, and it was decided to not hold an inquest.

Police Sergeant W. E. Wigg of the City Police was also summoned to the scene, and conducted an investigation of the circumstances.

It is understood that in addition to the deceased man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Low, and his mother-in-law, there were also present four other men—friends of the family. A card game was in progress in the living room, in which the late Mr. Low did not participate. Instead he had been striding up and down the hallway of the residence for a considerable time, and finally going upstairs to his room. Some five minutes later, the assembled company were startled to hear the report of a revolver shot. Frank Davis, one of the guests, immediately raced up the stairway and opened the bedroom door in time to see the body of deceased roll from the bed onto the floor. A revolver was tightly clenched in his left hand.

Blood was streaming from the right temple, where the bullet had entered, and had apparently bored into the skull at a sharp angle and had caused a fracture on the top of the skull, without penetrating it. Indications were that the muzzle of the weapon had been placed against the temple when the gun was discharged.

It was a .38 calibre, five chambered revolver.

The late Mr. Low leaves his wife and parents and one brother, Jacob, of Toronto.

The body was conveyed on the noon C.N.R. train to Toronto for interment at the Jewish cemetery at Toronto.

Daisy de Boe Makes Good Her Threat

Daisy de Boe, former secretary to Clara Bow, movieland's "It" girl made good her threat to "tell all," when she was arraigned in the Los Angeles court upon charges of misappropriating funds of her employer. Above is the titian-haired star as she appeared as a witness in a court which followed details of her checkered career with undisguised interest. The patch on her left cheek is a "beauty spot," according to authoritative statements. The coat she is examining formed part of evidence.—Copyright by Acme Newspictures.

$50,000 Damage in Montreal Factory

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 19 (C.P.)—A spectacular fire broke out in the Montreal plant of the Dominion Textile Company, Limited, early to-day, causing damage to machinery and stock estimated at $50,000, and throwing 500 men out of work. Three firemen were overcome by smoke as they battled the three-alarm blaze. A blizzard accompanied by a biting cold wind made it a difficult battle for the firemen, and the fine spray from the hoses froze solid on their clothes as they worked. The cause of the fire is unknown.

PRIMATE NEEDS LENGTHY REST

THREE MONTHS' HOLIDAY.

LONDON, Jan. 19. — The Archbishop of Canterbury, Anglican Primate of England, must take a rest of at least three months.

A bulletin issued yesterday by his physician announced that he is suffering a severe neuralgia of the fifth nerve, the fundamental cause of which is overwork. To cure the ailment, the buletin says, absolute rest for three months will be necessary.

The announcement said that he had fully recovered from the duodennal ulcer from which he was ill a year or more ago, but that a month ago the neuralgia began to bother him.

Neuralgia of the fifth nerve is a common complaint but is particularly serious when it attacks the gasserian ganglion, from where the nerve spreads out all over the face.

STARVED TO DEATH.

Starved Husky-dogs Lead Indians to Body of Drowned Master.

EDMONTON, Alta., Jan. 19.—"The sun is shining but I feel cold. I can still walk a little, but that's about all. There is no blood in me because I haven't eaten for so long. I haven't seen another human being for 40 days now. There are some magazines here but the stories are so silly. I have some cards, but I don't care for solitaire. The only thing I worry about is if God will forgive me for my sins."

With a dishpan across his bony knees for a desk, James Eldon Micheal, 25, wrote this letter to his mother, Mrs. L. A. Williams, Albany, California, shortly before he died in a lonely hut at Long Rapids, Hay River, Yukon, last Spring. It was revealed in the annual report of Royal Canadian Mounted police detachments to "G" Division Headquarters in Edmonton.

Second Death on Hay River

Michael attempted to make the same trip along the Hay which cost Hurt Faber, German writer, his life the winter before. His letter was found only recently, near his skeleton hand.

The reports tell several stories of tragedy and hardships experienced by the dwellers of the Arctic, over whom men of the Mounted watch. Such is a report of a trio of half-starved Husky dogs which stumbled into an Indian's camp, and led to the discovery of the death of their master, W. E. Butler, near Wrigley, in Mackenzie River last autumn. Butler is believed to have been drowned in a sudden storm.

FENELON FALLS BLOCK OF STORES BURNS TO GROUND

Nothing Saved in Heard's Hardware or McGee's Harness Shop in Sunday Blaze.

Two Apartments Destroyed.

Lindsay Rushes Pumper to Aid—Loss Set at $12,000.

LINDSAY, Ont., Jan. 19 (Examiner Correspondence).—Splendid work by a detachment of the Lindsay fire department saved the business section of the village of Fenelon Falls from total destruction Sunday morning. As a result of the fire one business block containing two stores and apartments overhead were destroyed with contents entailing a loss in the neighborhood of $12,000. The losers are: Wm. Heard, hardware merchant; Harry McGee, harness maker; Pete Beteau and Miss B. Heard, both of whom had apartments in the block.

The fire was discovered about five o'clock Sunday morning by ex-Constable Gordon in the rear of Heard's store. The village brigade attempted to cope with the fire with two lines of hose stretched from the pump at the Hydro station, but the flames spread with such rapidity that a call was sent to Lindsay for aid. Four members of the local brigade with the pumper made a quick run to the village. An appeal was sent to Bobcaygeon for help, but the village brigade was busy fighting a fire which destroyed a residence. The Heard block was of brick and was a veritable inferno when the Lindsay fire-fighters arrived. There were several frame buildings in close proximity to the fire and a desperate fight followed to prevent the flames from spreading and thereby endangering the business section. The Lindsay detachment fought the fire for two hours, but the village fire brigade was on duty the greater part of the day.

The occupants of the block carried insurance on their stock and effects, but it will fall short of covering the loss sustained.

There was a quick scattering of the crowd of spectators that surrounded the fire when the flames reached the apartment where ammunition stores were kept. Without warning stump powder went up in puffs and bullets began to spatter around the building as if from a machine gun. One stray bullet shot across the main street, striking a store front.

Lindsay firemen save a large section of the business section by pumping four steady streams of water from the canal, two blocks away.

The loss is heavy, as the Heard business was one of the oldest and largest in the county, carrying a very large stock.

MacDonald Makes Known The Stand Of Laborite Party

New Constitution Envisages National Federal Gov't With Senate and Lower House, Leaving Executive Power in Hands of Governor-General.

WORK STARTED AT LONDON TO CONTINUE WITHOUT HALT AND WILL BE PASSED AT ONCE BY BRITISH PARLIAMENT

Liberation of India's Political Prisoner Promised if Civil Quiet is Proclaimed and Assured Over Country—Olive Branch Held Out to Gandhi—Willingdon to be Consulted.

LONDON, January 19 (C.P. Cable). — Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald to-day extended a welcoming hand to India as a Dominion in the British Commonwealth of Nations, with responsible self-government.

Bringing the Indian Round-Table Conference to a close with a declaration of the British Government policy, Premier MacDonald assured the delegates that the weight of Government support was pledged to the findings of the Conference which has been laboring since November 12.

The work begun at London will be continued without interruption, he said, and the new Indian constitution will be passed through the British Parliament as soon as it is completed.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald also promised liberation of India's political prisoners "if civil quiet is proclamed and assured in India."

The new constitution envisages a National Federal Government with a Senate and Lower House, and with the executive power in the hands of a Governor-General, much as in the self-governing Dominions already established.

Indian Cabinet.

The Indian Cabinet will be composed of responsible ministers chosen from the National Assembly. The only changes practically are the provision for retention of British control over foreign affairs and national defence during the transitional period, and for certain safeguards to assure no impairment of India's financial credit.

Foreign Affairs and National Defense will be administered by ministers responsible to the Viceroy, who also will have powers to carry on constitutional government in the event of a breakdown in the machinery.

Premier MacDonald stressed that it was up to the Indians themselves to settle their communal disputes, for the British Government could not attempt this. The British Government favored no particular sect, he emphasized.

Several Indian delegates spoke after the Prime Minister and none expressed any opposition to the Government's policy or the reservations and limitations that are proposed.

The Begum Shaw Nawaz, one of the two women delegates, closed the Indian speeches with a quotation from Longfellow—"Let us then be up and going...."

Premier MacDonald then read a message from the King, declaring "A new chapter has opened in the history of India."

The National Anthem was played by the Band of the Guards' Regiment as the delegates stood around the great table. When it was finished, the Prime Minister announced:

"For the last time the conference is adjourned."

The delegates will return to India and Prime Minister MacDonald will confer with Lord Willingdon, the new Viceroy, on the methods of consultation regarding the working out of the

DON COPELAND IS HEARD BY ROTARY, DISCUSSES RADIO

Canada on the Air is Subject of Address to Members of Rotary Club.

CONTROL IS NEEDED.

CKGW Gives 15 Minutes Advertising a Day Announcer Claims.

Don Copeland, announcer and production manager of Canada's Cheerio Station CKGW, spoke "in person" today at the Empress Hotel to the local Rotary Club. Mr. Copeland's subject was "Canada on the Air" and he went thoroughly into the question that is agitating the Canadani radio world—Government ownership of radio stations.

He dealt with the report submitted to the Government by a special commission, head by Sir John Aird, appointed to delve into radio conditions. After an expenditure of $80,000 incurred in travelling throughout England, part of Europe and the United States, the commission submitted a report, stated Mr. Copeland, which was virtually a transcrip of methods of operation of the British Broadcasting Company and which might have been obtained at a cost of $5 or so for postage and stenographic fees.

Shrouded in Mystery

Mr. Copeland stated that the organization pressing for Government ownership of radio stations in Can-

JOB-RING UNEARTHED BY MOUNTIES IN MONTREAL POSTAL SERVICES

Arrest of Prominent Official is Made—Agent in Montreal.

PRICE TO CANDIDATES, $400.

OTTAWA, Ont., January 19 (C.P.) —Arrest of a prominent official of the Civil Service Commission is expected soon, according to a newpage story in the Journal to-day. Evidence implicating this official is said to have been unearthed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. It is stated the official in question headed a "job-ring" whereby candidates for positions in the postal services at Montreal paid from $400 to $500 each to have their examination papers filled out at Ottawa where they came to be marked.

The first arrest in connection with the frauds was made to-day when Lionel Chartrand of Aylmer, Que., was taken into custody. Chartrand was employed in the offices here of the Income Tax Department.

Agent In Montreal.

The official in question is said to have been paid $1,800 by one of his "agents" on December 31, the Journal states. It is alleged that the official had an agent in Montreal who would line up prospective candidates. The candidate, if he would pay $400 to $500, was informed that he would be sure of securing a position. Candidates were instructed not to fill in the answers but to leave their papers blank, and they were assured that the papers would be filled out at Ottawa when they were being marked.

No money was paid directly to the official accused, according to the report. He is said to have had an agent who would proceed to Montreal and make his "collections." The Journal says that Hon. W. J. Roche, chairman, and J. Emile Tremblay and Dr. Newton MacTavish, commissioners, stated this morning that comparatively few persons are implicated in the irregularities, and that they are all confined to one department, the Postal Services in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 19 (C.P.)—When his car became stalled on the railway tracks at Pointe Claire, Police Chief Lebeau of that suburb was forced to stand by while a local train smashed it to piece. He had been unable to push the car unaided and the train came before he was able to secure assistance. The Chief was pursuing a suspected man when his car slewed into a culvert near the crossing and stalled.

200 ON BOARD.

BOSTON, Jan. 19. — More than fifty persons were injured, some of them seriously, when a New York bound Colonial Express train speeding through a snow storm and a passenger local collided at Readville today.

The crash occurred at a crossover near the Readville station of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. The local, Boston-bound from Blackstone, had not cleared the intersection, when the express, which had left Boston at 9.30 a.m., arrived. The locomotive of the express crashed into the rear cars of the local, overturning two of them, and then turning on its side. The local carried 200 passengers.

PRINCES START ATLANTIC TRIP

Royal Brothers Go Aboard Liner at Santander After Several Hours' Delay.

18,000 MILE VOYAGE.

SANTANDER, Spain, Jan. 19.—After an exciting but fatiguing trip from Paris, the Prince of Wales and his youngest brother, Prince George, were en route to-day aboard the liner Oropesa on an 18,000 mile journey which will culminate with their inauguration of the British Trade Exhibition in Buenos Aires in March.

The two princes were many hours late in reaching Santander, where they found the Oropesa, straining at its leash, hauled up to a dock ready to begin the trans-Atlantic trip. The ship will stop at Corunn to-day, proceeding from there to Hamilton, Bermuda, and Kingston Jamaica. The Royal passengers will touch Central America and go down the east south American coast, winding up in the Argentine early in March.

Rock Slide Makes Second Horseshoe Falls

GIGANTIC CLEFT OFF LUNA ISLAND LIKELY TO GROW

Slip Saturday Night is 150 Feet Wide and 200 Feet Deep.

MANY VISIT SCENE.

Famous Cave of the Winds is Not Believed to be Damaged.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Niagara Falls today boasts of two horseshoe falls instead of one. The second one, created by a series of rock slips Saturday night and Sunday morning, is much smaller than the famous horseshoe between Goat Island and the Canadian shore, but in the opinion of geologists it will grow.

The 1,000-foot crest of the American Falls prior to Saturday night was in practically a straight line. The rock slip has created a rift in the line about 300 feet from Luna Island.

The U-shaped indentation in the brink created by the slide is estimated to 150 to 200 feet and 150 feet in width.

It was said at the Falls today that apparently the cave of the winds had not been affected, though the broken rock and stones may have obstructed the pathway leading to this scenic feature of the falls.

Because of the prevalence of ice and snow, no attempt had been made to-day to enter the cave. A fall of rock in the Cave of the Winds eight years ago injured several sightseers.

Dr. Reginald H. Pegrum, Geology Professor at the University of Buffalo, said to-day that while erosion was the main cause of the great slide Saturday night, Winter weather and the ice, causing cracks and scars in the rock surface, undoubtedly were responsible for aiding in the destruction of the portion of the crest which fell.

Remedy Hangs Fire

Remedial measures to minimize erosion, preserve the beauty of the Falls and provide for a greater diversion of water for power purposes have been held up for two years because of the failure of the United States Senate to ratify a treaty drawn up by the International Niagara Board, composed of engineering representatives of the Canadian and United States Governments, and signed by members of this board January 2, 1929. The plan, the estimated cost of which was $1,750,000, was ratified by the Canadian Parliament May 20, 1929. However, the protocol never was reported out of committee by the United States Senate.

Under the terms of the Treaty, the Niagara Falls Power Company was to pay half the cost of the remedial work, and the other half was to be paid by the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario and the Canadian Power Company, Ltd. The additional diversion, which would provide 135,000 more horsepower, was to be for a period of seven years, under the terms of the treaty. If the plan was found to impair seriously the beauty of the Falls, it was provided that the additional diversion provisions of the treaty might be rescinded at the expiration of the seven year period.

Report's of Nature's upheaval at the Falls drew many visitors to the scene yesterday and to-day. The break in the crest hardly was discernable from the United States shore, however, but was apparent to those who crossed to the Ontario shore or who viewed the Cataract from Luna Island.

MAY ASK CHANGE IN MUNICIPAL ACT

STEWART'S LEAD CUT BY 9.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19 (C.P.).—Recommendations for a change in the Municipal Act may be made in Judge Daniel O'Connell's report of the Toronto Mayoralty vote recount. The sixth day of the recount finished with Sam McBride showing a total reduction of nine in Mayor William J. Stewart's original majority of 313.

The possibility of double voting was inquired into by the Judge when he questioned W. J. Chenery, city representative, in this regard. Mr. Chenery, answering the Judge's queries, stated that there was nothing to prevent a man voting in one ward of his residence and then voting downtown on his income, except his honesty.

A total of 89,978 ballots have been checked with two more wards still remaining to be gone over. The recount will probably finish to-day with approximately one-quarter of the total vote to be checked in Wards Two and Three.

Several more deputy returning officers were cited by Judge O'Connell for ballots being returned without sorting and other omissions.

LINDSAY, January 19 (Special).—Miss Kate Giltenan, for many years a dressmaker, was found yesterday at the foot of her stairway by a Chinese laundryman who lives next door. She had fallen down a flight of stairs and suffered a broken arm, a cut in the head, and other injuries. Her recovery is doubtful. For years Miss Giltenan has been employed with Miss Stewart, dressmaker.

PRISONERS STAGE STORMY SCENE IN TORONTO JAIL

Four Hour Vocal Demonstration Believed Back of Plot For General Break.

SEVEN GIVEN STRAP.

One of Causes Laid to Enforcement of Rule Forbidding Use of Tobacco.

TORONTO, Ont., January 19 (C. P.). — All is quiet at the Don Municipal Jail here to-day following a four-hour vocal demonstration by some 200 prisoners on Saturday night. The outbreak, similar to one which occurred a month ago, was engineered, it is reported, to effect a wholesale jail delivery.

The Bedlam broke out shortly after the prisoners had been all locked in their cells for the night with the exception of a few who were keeping in the corridor through lack of accommodation. The demonstration broke out suddenly when prisoners confined in the eastern wing commenced shouting, swearing, and using abusive language to the guards.

Governor Hedley Basher was immediately notified and he with the rest of the jail staff fully armed, attempted to quell the disturbance, which quickly spread through the eastern section and to some parts of the west ward.

Seven Ringleaders Strapped.

Seven ringleaders all young men, between 17 and 24 were given five strokes with a strap last night for their part in the affair, which was believed to have been caused by the strict enforcement of the regulation banning tobacco.

Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Provincial Secretary, recently recommended to the civic authorities that a new gaol should be constructed as the present one is inadequate. Mayor William Stewart, however, holds an opposite viewpoint. After visiting the jail last night he declared it was sanitary and that the prisoners received good plain food, and that he did not think "we should erect a jail with comforts for those who do wrong when hundreds of good citizens who want to do right are without employment and depending on charity."

The Mayor stated he would ask the Board of Control to-day to approve a conference with Mr. Macaulay when the matter could be fully discussed.

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength); take this home, add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant, and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.

South Wales Miners All Return To Work

CARDIFF, Wales, Jan. 19. (A.P.)—South Wales miners who have been on strike since Jan. 1 returned in full force to the pits to-day, victorious in their demand that reduction of the working day to seven and one half hours be not attended with a decrease in wages, although making balancing concessions.

Skeleton crews resumed work Saturday and Sunday after consummation of an agreement between owners and miners Thursday. One hundred and fifty thousand workers were affected by the strike.

Judge Will Holiday Police Watch Home

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19. (CP)—Announcement has been made Judge Emerson Coatsworth, member of the local Police Commission, plans taking a week's holiday probably this coming week. Recent threats against him are not responsible for the trip, His Honor stated.

His Honor's home is still under police guard following threats by some unknown person, styling himself a "Red" who telephoned the Coatsworth residence and declared to Miss Helen Coatsworth, who answered the call, that he intended to "get" the Judge and burn the Coatsworth home.

It was reported last night the residence of Judge Morson, another member of the Police Commission, is also under guard as a precautionary measure. Mayor William Stewart is the third member of the Commission but he has not taken part in any meetings yet as the first gathering of the Commission is not scheduled until Thursday.

TWO-YEAR EXTRA MURAL COURSES FOR LAY PREACHER CANDIDATES

Two Noteworthy Innovations in Religious Education Will Be Inaugurated This Year.

BY QUINTE CONFERENCE.

COBOURG, Jan. 17 (Special to The Examiner).—Two noteworthy innovations in religious education will be inaugurated this coming year by the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of which the Rev. A. J. Wilson, Napanee, is the Moderator. One is the giving of two-year extra mural courses to candidates for the order of lay preacher in the church; and the other is the giving, each year, of a twelve weeks' short course in cultural and religious subjects to recruit churches throughout the conference with young men trained for leadership in every sphere of church activity. These courses will be given at Albert College, Belleville, the Bay of Quinte's residential school for boys and young men. The announcement was made by Rev. Charles W. Bishop, M.A., D.D., president of Albert College, addressing one hundred young people attending the Conference Winter School in session at Trinity United Church here. Dr. Bishop pointed out that the courses are already under way in an experimental sense with a few special students enrolled.

Hitherto, Dr. Bishop pointed out, no special training has been asked of approved candidates for licenses as lay preachers. In future, such candidates will enroll as extra-mural students of Albert College and will spend three months in residence during each of the two years they will spend in training. Following gradu-

REPORT REVEALS RED ACTIVITIES

Fish Committee Urges Measures to Ban Communists From U. S.

WOULD OVERTHROW GOV'T.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. — The Fish Committee, which has been investigating Communist activities in the United States for the last eight months, Saturday recommended to Congress, that legislation be enacted with the view to outlawing the Communist Party, completely stamping out its anti-American program, and putting trade with Soviet Russia on an orderly basis, bills to accomplish these objects were introduced in the House.

Overthrow of the Government is advocated by the Communists, say the report, "but direct means, through force and violence" with a view to setting up a dictatorship of the proletariat, with the world capital at Moscow.

The report culminated an eight-month study of Communist activities.

MRS. HUNTER READS FINANCIAL REPORT

Mrs. M. Johnston Hostess to Members of Springville W.M.S.

SPRINGVILLE, Jan. 19.—(Examiner Correspondence.) — Mrs. M. Johnston was hostess to the members of the W.M.S. for the meeting held at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Moyer led in the opening prayer and the scriptural lesson was found in Matthew 20:1-29 and read by Mrs. E. Kelk. Mrs. A. Hunter, treasurer, gave a final itemized report of the financial standing for the year 1930. A total of $200 was sent to the Presbyterial treasurer, the allocation having again been exceeded by twenty-five dollars.

Mrs. E. Kelk, Miss J. Schaffer, and George Whitfield were appointed as delegates to attend the annual meetings of the Peterborough Presbyterial to be held in Trinity United Church beginning on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 20.

A beautiful poem entitled, "With the Touch of My Father's Hand," was read by Mrs. William Whitfield, and Mrs. Harold Rowan gave a splendid reading telling of the Good Shepherd setting for us His example of the greatest of patience.

Mrs. A. Hunter continued the story of the Study Book picturing Japan in the city and rural districts, the great variety in modes of dress, as observed in a tram car. European dress has been totally adopted by some and partially adopted by others while the pretty Japanese kimona is still worn by many.

Mrs. Hunter described the Japanese homes with the numerous inmates consisting of the immediate family and any relatives that should choose to make their homes there. These homes with their earthen floors and straw matting which undergoes a semi-annual house-cleaning are spoken of an ideal tuberculosis manufacturing plants.

The Japanese excell in their ability to pull together and in their respect for their ancestors and families. The kindergarten and its saving influence and the Blind school at Yokohoma were also dealt with in an interesting manner by the speaker.

Mrs. J. Grandy gave a reading entitled, "First Things First," that was very suitable for the first meeting of the year, and at the close Mrs. T. A. Young moved a vote of thanks on behalf of the Society to the hostess for her hospitality. Hhe February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Grandy.

Institute Preparing Relief Clothing Bale

CAVAN, Jan. 19. (Examiner Correspondence.)—On Thursday afternoon the Cavan Women's Institute met at the home of Miss B. Touchbourne, Ida.

The president, Mrs. J. W. Perrin, presided. During the business session, letters of appreciation were read from persons who had received gifts of candy and fruit from the Institute, at the Christmas season.

Also a letter from the New Liskard Institute acknowledging a bale received for distribution in the North Country and saying that they were still much in need of clothing, particularly for boys. It was decided to have a sewing bee at Mrs. D. J. Hunter's on Monday afternoon, to repair and make over garments for another bale.

Mrs. J. Armstrong was asked to purchase ten yards of flannelette and thread to make shirts for boys of school age, the same to be included in the bale, also flannelette to line trousers for boys.

Their was discussion over the summer delegate. It was decided to ask the Department to send a speaker for an afternoon meeting, preferably in June. The secretary, Miss M. E. Hunter, reported $73.59 in the bank, also the Government grant of three dollars had been received.

The roll call was answered by a funny story.

After the bussiness session there was a short program.

Mrs. F. M. Staples gave a short reading. Mrs. R. M. Howden read "Words of Wisdom." In this article, the members of the Women's Institute were reminded that as they numbered 40,000 women, that if united, they could accomplish much for the good of our country, much to improve Canadian citizenship and help one another.

One way in which they could very materially help at the present time was to buy Canadian goods and give employment to our countrymen.

The best way to build up the Empire, is to build up the part in which you live.

We can do much to have in Canada, finer homes, happier children and better people.

Slips were drawn each one having a topic on it. Each member spoke a few words from the topic drawn. With discussion which followed an interesting session was provided.

The next meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Albert Elliott's group and the program given by Mrs. Edgar Fallis' group.

PRICE DENIES LATEST CHARGES

Attorney General Claims Department Been Trying to Save Shareholders' Money.

STIMSON BOOKS SEIZED.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19. (CP)—Denial of charges of Elmore Philpott, Liberal candidate in the provincial by-election to be held in Hamilton west, that the affairs in the G. A. Stimson Company, which failed last week, were known 11 months before to the Attorney-General's Department has been made by Hon. W. H. Price, Ontario Attorney-General.

"There are two functions under the Security Frauds Act," said Mr. Price. "One is to try and save the shareholders' money they have invested," he continued. "The department has been in the Stimson case trying to save the shareholders the money they have invested in these companies, keeping in mind the most important thing was to get the Marine Building in Vancouver completed so that it could be occupied and made revenue producing.

The Attorney-General's Department is now engaged in collecting the books and papers of outside officers of the company and Saturday the books in Vancouver were seized.

TWO YEAR EXTRA MURAL COURSES

ation, they will be licensed by the Conference.

The course, however, does not lead to a degree and is designed particularly for those who, though zealous in their willingness to serve, do not desire or are otherwise unable to undergo training for the ministry. Subjects to be taught will inclue English History and English Literature; but emphasis will be placed on Homiletics, Bible Study, Church Doctrine, and Biography. Candidates for lay preachers' licenses will also receive specialy instruction in the fostering and leading of the modern Church's social activities, particularly as regards the young.

In addition, Albert College will seek to give special training—cultural and church leadership short courses—to young men who desire to serve the church more efficiently as laymen.

These courses, lasting for twelve weeks and beginning in January of each year, will combine general cultural subjects with special instruction in Bible knowledge, expression, physical training instruction, swimming and group activities.

Year by year, the Conference executive expects, will see the churches of the Bay of Quinte Conference strengthened by an ever-growing number of young men trained for leadership.

It is freely predicted that Albert College will become a centre for such work for all Eastern Ontario, and that its training of lay preachers and church workers will soon become its most important function.

A WORTH-WHILE STAGE PLAY.

Like every other smaller centre, Peterborough has been so badly starved in the matter of stage shows for some years that the announcement of an opportunity this week to see an original London company in one of the outstanding comedies of recent seasons should be greeted with delight by playgoers of the city and district.

Feeling that legitimate attractions occupy a place in the entertainment world that is not quite filled by any substitute so far provided, The Examiner has no apologies to offer for making editorial reference to a stage offering that it believes the people of this community would be the better for seeing.

"Marigold" in its New York, Toronto and Montreal appearances has confirmed the encomiums of the London critics and public, and has been pronounced one of the most enjoyable attractions presented in some time.

Peterborough is fortunate in having a chance to witness such a worth-while play presented, with the exception of one minor part, by identically the same cast as scored such an impressive hit in the London production—in other words, this is not a hastily-gathered-together cast of second-rate players endeavoring to secure patronage on the strength of the fame of the play itself, but is the original London company, a condition which carries its own assurance of the all-round excellence of the performance.

It is a bit of luck in a season almost completely blank that brings such a splendid production as "Marigold" to this city.

ALD. HOLLAND'S SUGGESTION.

There is merit in Ald. Dan. Holland's suggestion that the group of islands in the Otonabee below James Stevenson Park might be added to the city's park system.

The possibilities of this scheme from the viewpoint of scenic beauty can be readily realized, and there is no doubt that sooner or later the citizens of Peterborough will have in these islands a beautiful and unique park.

As a preliminary to this important undertaking Ald. Holland has suggested that a pile bridge should be constructed and the islands built up by the dumping of ashes there, the engineering department to prepare a report as to the cost.

Would it not be feasible, however, to take advantage of the ice bridge that nature usually provides every winter at this point and do a lot of this building up work by having the teamsters drive across the ice from James Stevenson Park, thus doing away with the expense of a bridge?

There is no current in this part of the river, and under ordinary winter conditions a safe passage across the shallow water that separates the islands from the Stevenson Park should be available, making it a simple matter to raise the level of the islands during the winter months.

The idea, which was mentioned by Ald. Tuggey, appeals to The Examiner as worthy of investigation before any unnecessary expense is involved.

A BRITISH COLUMBIA PRECEDENT.

Mitchell Hepburn, new Ontario Liberal leader, has made it clear by his announcement that he will enter the Legislature via either East Elgin or West Elgin, both of which are now held by the Government; that he does not propose to vacate his seat in the Federal Parliament until the eve of the next provincial election, which is still two or three years off.

That means, of course, that W. E. N. Sinclair will continue to lead the Liberal opposition in the Legislature until the decks are cleared for the entry of the new provincial chieftain.

It is rather an awkward arrangement, leaving the Ontario Liberal party with one leader in the Province and another in the Legislature, and Mr. Hepburn would undoubtedly strengthen his position by declaring his intention of accepting a provincial nomination just as soon as possible.

However, he has a very good precedent for his present attitude.

Premier Tolmie of British Columbia, it should be remembered, was made leader of the Conservative party in that Province while he was a member of the Dominion Parliament, and he continued to hold his seat at Ottawa for two years—in fact, did not relinquish it until a provincial election was staged, and eventually came to the Legislature as the head of a victorious party and, of course, premier.

Probably Mr. Hepburn is hoping that the British Columbia precedent will be carried out in his own case exactly as it developed on the Pacific Coast!

A WORD FOR GENERAL DRAPER.

So much nonsense is being talked about freedom of speech by Toronto people, who should know better, that it is possible that a lot of those well-meaning but misguided individuals do not realize that in assailing Chief Draper they are playing the game not only of the Communists but of the crooks and gangsters.

Surely it is more important to the good people of Toronto that their person and their property should have the protection of a hard-hitting, enthusiastic, aggressive and intelligent police department than it is to know that every irresponsible who wants to talk rubbish from the public platform is not to be interfered with.

Even if the stand of the police commissioners and Chief Draper in the matter of the suggested forum means that Toronto will have to do without a speech from Agnes MacPhail, M.P., the people of the Queen City would surely vote to make the sacrifice.

Outsiders familiar with the record of the Toronto police department and realizing that the personality, example and driving power of General Draper have given Toronto a police force unexcelled on the continent, a fearless, honest, efficient and never-quitting defence against the gunman and the criminal, are at a loss to understand why some individuals and certain newspapers should demand the resignation of a police chief who has made of his department an instrument of effective law enforcement such as any city in North America would be glad to possess.

If the Communists cannot exist without talking, there are steamers leaving for Europe every few days, and up to the present there is no embargo upon Reds departing from Canada.

Why in the name of common sense should Canadians demand the head of an efficient, courageous and successful police chief out of sympathy for foreign irresponsibles who seek nothing here but to tear down and destroy?

FATHERS AND SONS.

The spoiling process at work.

In Detroit, court started on a case that concerns an attempt to break a will. Milton A. McRae, publisher, died some time ago, and by the terms of his will there was $500 a month for his son, Lindsay McRae, but a stipulation was placed there that the son had to use $150 per month of that $500 for the support of a daughter by his first wife.

Argument is proceeding to show why the son should be given a greater share, and this is being met by the counter claim that the son, in recent years, was a source of worry to his father, and that he had been unable to hold any of the many positions created for him in his father's business.

The estate left by the senior McRae was valued at $4,000,000, but recent shrinkage in some of his holdings has cut into the first estimate.

This is not an isolated case, as from time to time there have been similar actions brought by sons and daughters who did not think they had been cared for in a sufficiently generous manner in the disposal of the parental holdings.

It has been said that there is no harm in a father going ahead and making a fortune, and along with that the claim has been advanced that the regrettable feature is the influence upon his children, and in a general way we are inclined to think that claim is well founded.

* * * *

Coupled with this it is interesting—and somewhat of a coincidence, too—to recall a statement made to this paper by a resident of Stratford this week. In brief it is this:

"I was surprised and somewhat delighted to have a man come into my office to-day. Although I had not seen him in thirty years, I recognized him at once as a school-mate in my own town. I can recall that we sat across the aisle from each other when we passed entrance. After we had talked about old times for a while the conversation turned to himself, what he was doing, and where his two brothers had gone. I had heard nothing of them in years, but expected they would all do fairly well. Their father was a well-to-do man, with an established business, and on his death there was quite an estate to divide and the boys received a share that must have been at least $10,000.

"You can imagine my surprise when I found out that my old school-mate had dropped in to see if he could get a little loan, and also to inquire if he could find some sort of a job here. He had no profession or trade, but had just drifted around. The business at home had fallen off sharply and passed into other hands years ago. I can remember when those boys, and the things they had, were the envy of nearly all the other boys in town."

The real trouble is, in a good many cases, that a boy who knows that he is going to be fairly well provided for loses the urge to work. We can talk as much as we like about loving work, but it is a stern fact that necessity has a good deal to do with it; it applies a degree and quality of pressure that can come from no other corner.

The boy who has a shoestring start, and who knows that he is not going to get assistance from any quarter, is more apt to apply himself to what he has to do with all the vigor he possesses than a boy who has come to know that there are financial resources back of him through the medium of his parents.

And many a man who has graduated from the school of hard knocks and bitter experience, at once resolves that his son is going to have a better chance than he did; he is going to have a better education; he is going to have more advantages, and all these things are going to be presented to the son.

The desire on the part of the father is right enough; it is an expression of love and devotion, but often it is misdirected. The father admits that the schooling and discipline he received were good for him, and yet he seeks to shield his son from having to face the same things.

There are, of course, exceptions, and there are fathers, possessed of wealth, who use it wisely and well, but the weight of evidence seems to remain with the contention that a wealthy father is apt to err in charting a path for his son which eliminates as many of the hard spots as possible, and it is travelling over these hard spots that makes men.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Toronto recount will undoubtedly confirm what everybody knew on New Year's night—that W. J. Stewart had been elected mayor.

The annual rush for the new motor markers is on. Sometime or other the Department of Highways will announce that these markers must be secured before the first of the year and make it stick.

The "one-eyed" drivers continue to make their appearance every night. Probably they haven't heard that the provincial authorities have ordered a campaign against them.

Toronto's professional hockey club is going to build and operate a new arena to seat 15,000 people. Truly Canada's national game has become big business.

The Toronto recount indicates that a good many returning officers were more concerned about the salary to be obtained than they were about doing their work correctly.

The Mono Township Council, in the interest of economy, have cut their own salaries. There is an example that should interest other municipal governments.

The worst Soviet atrocity yet recorded is the practice of filling the air with publicity for the Russian system of government. There ought to be a law against it—or something.

A forum contributor expresses the opinion the railroad crossings, instead of being beautified, should have a ghastly appearance. A lot of automobile drivers seem to be intent on carrying out that idea.—Springfield Union.

Lord Willingdon and High Commissioner Ferguson seem to be running on about even terms in the matter of farewells and banquets.—Toronto Globe.

BURNING BEAUTY

By TEMPLE BAILEY

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Michael Muddles Things up.

Virginia did not find it easy when tea was over, to leave Michael alone with Rickey. She wanted to stay, but Rickey was impatient.

"Jinny's playing Lady Bountiful," was his tactful hint soon after Michael's arrival. "She is taking care of a little chap on the top floor. He is ill and his mother goes out to work. He simply adores Jinny."

Who wouldn't adore her? Michael asked himself. She wore the blue gown with its touches of gold, and there was a knot of the violets he had brought her pinned where they lay against the ivory of her throat. She had said to him the night before, "I'll have to hide the jar or Rickey will know you've been here. But I needn't hide the flowers. He'll think they came from Tony."

"I'd hate to have you mistake my flowers for Bleecker's."

For a moment she had not spoken, then she had said—"I shan't mistake them—ever—"

Before she went upstairs, Virginia brought from behind one of the screen's a little tray on which was a fat pink pitcher covered by a napkin. "It's chicken broth," she explained, "for the small boy. His appetite has been fickle"

She did not say, what was the truth, that the small boy's mother had no money for chicken, and that for the past week little Roger had been sustained and strengthened by the food Virginia had brought him.

Michael opened the door for her, and closing it, was loth to shut her out. But the smile she gave him stayed with him and helped him through the somewhat trying hour that followed.

For Rickey was, to say the least difficult. Running his fingers through his hair, he proclaimed, "The manuscript is in the rough, so I'll read it to you if you don't mind." He was flushed and excited.

"You haven't finished it?"

"No. But it won't take me long if you find anything to like in it."

Michael felt a twinge of discomfort. He knew he was not going to like it, and it seemed traitorous to lead the lad on, to turn, as it were, the knife in his breast. Yet one had to be a surgeon at times—to save.

Rickey read well, but all his art of elocution was lost on the young editor. Michael instinctively got down to the bare bones of the story. He knew how it would look to the eyes of his readers—of the appeal it would have to the thousands who turned the pages of his magazines. Would it be thumbs up—or down?

When Rickey finished, there was a moment's silence, then Michael said, slowly, "Do you mind if I make a few suggestions—"?

The light went out of Rickey's eyes. "No—but do you mean you don't—care for it?"

Michael was honest. "It's a good, Oliphant, but not good enough. I think you can do it in a bigger way."

Rickey's voice was hoarse. "Bigger?"

Michael hesitated, "Yes, your characters—they don't move of themselves—your hand can be seen pulling the wires."

"Anything else?" Rickey's tone was ominously quiet.

"Your conception is masterful, but your treatment doesn't measure up to your theme—"

Rickey's face darkened. "Of course it was a mistake to let you see it—"

"My dear fellow!"

"I hate to show things to people. But you insisted."

Michael kept his temper. "You're taking it the wrong way, Oliphant. I want to help you. The fault seems to be that you haven't the right focus."

"I don't need anyone to tell me—my faults. Heaven knows, I have enough of them. The book is weak in parts, I realize it. But you've damned the whole thing. And it isn't as bad as that. And you needn't think you have to worry about me or what I am going. Of course, I'm in your debt. But I'll meet all that if you'll give me time. And in the meantime it's a bit of a burden to feel that because I owe you money you have some sort of claim on me. You see there are—other editors."

It was a childish outburst, born of nerves and excessive egotism. Michael waited a moment before he answered, "You mean other editors who will see things differently? By all means take it to them. And don't feel that for a moment you are under the slightest obligation to me. You'll be having another story, some day, and perhaps you'll let me see it. Or reconsider not letting me see this. You have great promise, Oliphant."

But Rickey was not to be stopped in his wild orgy of indignation. In the next few moments he said things to Michael that were unforgiveable, but Michael forgave him. He had made a muddle of the whole thing. He was aware of it now He hadn't comprehended the slant of the boy's mind—his abnormal self-esteem. If he had, he would have got at the thing differently, but now the harm was done. He wished Virginia would come, yet dreaded to see her. He wondered if he ought to go, leave Rickey high and dry as it were on the shores of his own indignation.

Virginia, when she left them, had not anticipated failure. She had great faith in Michael, and so secure had she felt of his handling of this matter, that her heart was light as she ascended the stairs. She sang softly under her breath, and passing the Bronze Knight on the newel post she smiled at him. It was indeed, a smiling world in which she moved at the moment.

When she reached at last the dim dark hall at the top of the house and tapped at the end door, it was opened by a pale-faced woman. "Oh, she said, eagerly, "Roger has been so anxious—"

A guest detained me. But here I am at last, and I've brought Roger some broth, Mrs. Barlow. It is made after an old Maryland recipe—it has rice in it and celery, and parsley, and a wee, wee bit of onion—"

She was in the room now, and choosing her words to delight the ears of the lad who lay on a narrow bed, "and I made some little, little dumplings, and they went bobbing about when the kettle boiled."

"You know how to talk to him," Mrs. Barlow said, as she pulled on her shabby black hat, "he says it is always like a fairy tale to hear you."

"Well, life is a sort of fairy tale isn't it?" Virginia was willing to believe almost anything at the moment, but when she saw that Mrs. Barlow's eyes were full of tears, she modified her ecstasies. "Oh, I know that sometimes the fairies seem to be evil spirits. But somehow I believe that the best comes to us in the end."

"Do you really believe that, Miss Oliphant?"

"I try to believe it."

Virginia was pouring the broth into a small bowl. "I brought two square crackers to eat with it, Roger, and two round ones, and there's a cup of custard under the napkin."

She set the tray down and arranged the pillows. "If you'll sit up and eat everything, you shall have two of my violets for your very own. They are very precious violets, and their fragrance is that of friendship," she smiled at him over her shoulder as she went to the door with his mother. "Don't worry or hurry, Mrs. Barlow. If you are late, I'll take Roger downstairs with me."

When she went back to the bed, Roger asked, "What do you mean by the fragrance of friendship?"

"Oh, when you have someone very much in your heart, when you know someone you love is your friend, then the fragrance of that thought is like the fragrance of my violets."

"I have you in my heart," said little Roger, simply. Virginia bent and kissed him on the cheek. "And I have you in mine." But she knew it was not of Roger she had thought when she had spoken.

"You say things like the verses in books," Roger told her, "and I like it."

"I don't talk this way to everyone," Virginia assured him, "that's our little language, yours and mine, Roger."

"We have another friend, haven't we?"

"Who?"

"The Bronze Knight on the stairs."

"Of course. He almost spoke to me when I came up...."

"Did he?"

"Yes. I smiled at him and he seemed to smile back. I like him because he is such a gentleman, Roger."

They had often talked about the Bronze Knight when Roger had waited for his mother in the lower hall and Virginia had come out to sit beside him on the stairs. Virginia had invented a story of the Knight's adventures, and each day she added to it.

"Tell me about him now," Roger commanded, as he handed her the empty bowl and leaned back on his pillows.

"Well, you see the Bronze Knight vowed that he would love God, that he would never tell a lie, and that he would never be afraid. So when he waked at dawn with the fields all sparkling with dew, he would pray for a day in which he might help men and serve Christ. And when he lay down at night, with the stars over him, he would pray again that for all he had left undone in the service of God, he might be forgiven."

"Can any boy be a knight?" asked little Roger.

"Yes, and hold a torch. You see, for a time the Bronze Knight has finished his travels, but he still has something to do, so he stands there on the stairway lighting the world for kind Mrs. Leonardo when she brings you spaghetti, and for me when I bring you violets. He lights the way, too, for people who are not kind. So—even when they stumble they will not fall. And he hopes that the light will shine in their hearts and make them good and happy."

The child's eyes were heavy. "I'll sing you a song," Virginia said, "if you'll try to sleep."

She sang with her lips and sang with her heart. For Michael was with Rickey and soon she would be seeing him. Surely he would stay if she was not too long. And when she stopped singing her eyes were smiling.

Later when Roger waked, she said, "Your mother is late, so I'm going to take you downstairs with me to see my primrose cat and my Weenie-Wurst dog."

FORD CARS ARE REDUCED IN PRICE

Reductions Taking Effect To-day Range as High as $55.

CONFIDENCE IN FUTURE.

EAST WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 19.—(Special to The Examiner).—Prospects for a material improvement in the automobile industry were anticipated today by Wallace R. Campbell, President of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Ltd., in announcing reductions ranging up to $55 in prices of Ford cars and trucks.

The reductions are effective today.

"This action by the Ford Motor Co. of Canada, Limited, is a concrete expression of our implicit confidence in the early revival of business activity in the Dominon," said Mr. Campbell in announcing the price reductions. "By this action we are anticipating what we expect will be a steady improvement in the automobile industry in the near future. Such an improvement in the automobile industry cannot help but have a beneficial effect upon business generally throughout the Dominion. "The price reduction is also in line with the policy of our company of lowering prices wherever possible without impairing quality so that our products may be available to an ever increasing number of people. The company's action today should have a stimulating effect upon our own sales and upon business generally."

More can be accomplished by working together than by individual efforts. United effort accomplished more than individual enterprise.

What To-day Means To You

"CAPRICORN."

If January 19th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from noon to 2 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7:15 p.m.

Events on this January 19th, from an atrological standpoint, will not be without their quota of interesting and pleasing factors, you will experience some shortlived joys. Young people will fall under the spell of the little blind god, and engagements or marriages will follow.

The child born on this January 19th will be shy, and its parents should try to cure it of this bugbear which may follow it with disastrous persistency through life. It will be miserable and self-conscious among a merry company, although when alone, it will mope. It will be happiest amongst its book companions.

If you were born on a January 19th, you possess all the qualifications for making your mark, and the one thing that holds you back is hesitation. Again and again, opportunity knocks at your door, but the knock is not answered quickly enough, and when you do open the door, the visitor, tired of waiting, has disappeared. You do not lack mental courage. You just cannot make up your mind speedily enough to take advantage of circumstances.

You are industrious, intelligent and worthy of confidence. Your vision is wonderful, but you take so long to act on your hunches that few of your dreams come true. You are an omnivorous reader, and have a retentive memory. Consequently your conversation, and you possess the gift of expression in a high degree, is always entertaining and instructive. In some of your ways, and in many of your thoughts, you are old fashioned. This, however, does not militate against you, and is often a source of refreshing pleasure to your friends.

You abominate scandal and gossip, and never speak ill of either foe or friend, and you are considered a good counselor. Not only is your advice always sound, but you have wide sympathies, and great tolerance, as well as patience Your home life will radiate at all times harmony and happiness, even though it may not be surrounded with all the evidences of material prosperity.

"BLUE MONDAY" ON WALL STREET

LIGHT TRADING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. (CP)—The financial markets began a new week reluctantly to-day, thoroughly under the Blue Monday influence.

Share prices drifted moderately lower, with a few prominent issues breaking their 1930 levels, but fear prodding failed to bring out important liquidation and the market seemed to have been sold almost to a standstill. Trading was in extremely slim volume. The bond division was likewise apathetic, although prices there showed a fairly good undertone.

The share list eased 1 to 3 points during the morning, stiffened for a time around mid-day and again eased off in the early afternoon. Bethlehem Steel, Westinghouse Electric, and Allied Chemical sagged more than a point to break included American Can, Eastman, American Telephone, North American, New York Central, Southern Pacific, Dupont, Johns Manville, Woolworth, American Rolling Mill, American Tobacco "B", and Air Reduction. Issues off 2 to 3 included Coca Cola, Skelley Preferred, Lakawanna, Lambert and Western Union. U.S.S. Steel and Radio eased fractionally and General Electric nearly a point.

FARMERS ACTIVE IN NORFOLK FIGHT

Beaverbrook's Express Claims New Political Movement Bound to Spread.

BREAK WITH BALDWIN SEEN.

NORFOLK, England, Jan. 19. — (C.P.).—Farmers' candidates will be nominated in all the Norfolk constituencies before March 1, in preparation for any new general election that may occur, it was decided by the Norfolk branch of the National Farmers' Union in a meeting Saturday night.

With the exception that Lord Beaverbrook attended the meeting, little information was vouchsafed about this new political development.

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express said to-day the movement was bound to spread. "It reveals a complete breakdown between Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin and the farmers, who are the backbone of his party, concerning the attitude towards duties of foreign foodstuffs," the Express said.

Impartial observers assumed that Lord Beaverbrook, dissatisfied with the Conservative leader's statements about the Conservative attitude towards duties of foreign foodstuffs, particularly subsidized foreign grains, had been getting in some organization work on his own.

was gone as a result of the tales of her former confidante during the testimony taking. Clara announced she was through with "frivolous stuff".

"I'll never trust anyone again" she wailed. "I gave Daisy free reign and she bit the hand that fed her."

The trail has brought a pleasant reaction to Rex Bell, film player and present "boy friend" of Clara.

It was! earned that Bell was considering an offer made by a leading vaudeville circuit, heads of which figured that any young man favored by Miss Bow at present should "pack in" the flappers all over the land.

"I've got to see Clara through this before I make a decision" Bell said.

Redhead Cries a Lot

Clara had lots to say about Daisy Saturday in an unofficial way. The little redhead cried a lot while she was telling her side of the squabble, and wound up by simply stating she was ready to 'kiss the money and things good bye" and charge it all up to profit and loss.

The thing that hurt most, she explained, was the loss of what she thought was a friend.

"I was just lonesome," she said, "I hate to think I'm all alone again."

GOLD SECTION REMAINS STRONG

Price Action Somewhat Irregular and Confined on Standard Exchange.

NICKEL EASES SLIGHTLY.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19. (CP)—AListless opening session was experienced on the mining market to-day. Price action was somewhat irregular and confined and the ticker remained at a standstill for long periods.

The gold section continued strong, however, with gains predominating at noon. Hollinger sold up to its previous high for the current movement and stood at $8.05 for a gain of $10 at noon. Teck Hughes, Mining Corp. and Granada all advanced 5 to $6.70, $1.80 and $1.72 respectively. Some was only a few cents below Saturday's close of $10.15.

Bunker Hill was active and a cent higher at 6. Acassa gained a point to 13 and Siscoe fractional up for the period. Other lower-priced golds were holding.

International Nickel eased a small fraction to $14.85, but Noranda sold a quarter higher at $15.25 at mid-day. Sherritt Gordon was off a couple to 90 and Sudbury Basin 5 to 60.

In the oil section Ajax dropped 3 to $1.52, Nordon a point to 34 and Home Oil a couple to $1.56. Chemical Research met better demand and gained 5 to $3.05 and Clericy was up a fraction to 5¼.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of R. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

With fair buying by export houses accompanied by some short covering during the first period Saturdaymorning gave the market a firm undertone, and after an opening unchanged to ¼ lower, prices advanced until they were half cent above the close Friday night. However, the buying support became satisfied and with weakness in Chicago, where both wheat and corn showed losses of fully one cent, our market sold off in the late trade, prices sinking about one cent from the earlier high marks. Longs were taking profits on the bulges. Export sales overnight were estimated at around one million bushels, and have totalled about two million bushels since the decline in our futures during the first half of Friday's session. This is an improved business from earlier in the week, as daily sales have been small. There was just a quiet demand for cash wheat Saturday. Offerings were light and spreads were all unchanged. The flour trade generally is quiet with a little news business coming in from time to time. Buenos Aires closed 3-8 lower and the Argentine market appears to be under pressure with the new crop being marketed more freely due to the fine weather now prevailing in that country. Some rains were also reported from United States winter wheat territory. Winnipeg closed 5-8 to 3-8 lower.

Coarse grains—these markets were all quiet and lower, especially barley. Consumptive business is small and there was little or nothing doing in the cash demand.

Liverpool cables due 3-8 to 1-8 lower based on Winnipeg.

DON COPELAND IS

ada called itself the Canadian Radio League. Identity of members of this league, which proclaimed itself as representing the majority of Canadian radio listeners, was shrouded in considerable mystery. Southam, a large newspaper publisher, is one of the loudest voices in the league, declared the speaker

Mr. Copeland reviewed the radio situation as it exists in England and pointed out that what served the purpose in a country so small in area as England could not serve in Canada. In England there are 2,275,000 radio receiving sets, while in Canada there are but 300,000 registered sets. In England each set is taxed ten shillings per annum, which brings into the treasury of the B.B.C., a yearly sum of close to $5,000,000. England is not faced with the problem of long-distance radio transmission. Two main studio points through relay stations supply the radio entertainment. But, in Canada, pointed out Mr. Copeland, radio listeners are spread in a narrow band across 3,600 miles of territory.

In England, if a radio listener does not like the two entertainments of which he has choice, he has no recourse but to tune in on foreign stations broadcasting entertainments in foreign languages. But Canada has 700 American stations broadcasting programs acceptable to Canadian listeners.

If all sets in Canada were taxed the same as in England the total income thus realised would be $700,000 as compared with England's $5,000,000. Assuming for the sake of argument, asserted Mr. Copeland, that the Canadian Government takes control of the air, it first must face the necessity of building high power broadcasting stations. A conservative estimate of the amount needed for this initial expenditure is about $5,000,000.

Canadian Talent

A more difficult situation arises when it comes to securing in Canada talent of the same quality to which Canadian listeners have been accustomed to hearing from the United States. Canada hears the cream of American radio productions, claimed Mr. Copeland; productions which cost more than $30,000,000 annually. "If Canada wishes to provide the equivalent of this, she must face a similar annual expenditure. This will mean that under Canadian Government ownership, to give Canadians as good radio as they now get for nothing, the treasury must be looted to the tune of $25,000,000 for the first year of operation. An absurd situation," declared Mr. Copeland.

To raise the necessary sum in taxes on sets, would mean a yearly tax of $80 per set, he declared.

"Any political party which dared to take such a sum out of the public treasury for the purpose of entertaining less than one-sixth of the adult population of Canada, would provoke a revolution which would destroy it over "night" stated Mr. Copeland.

It is an utter impossibility, he continued, to duplicate with Canadian talent, the fine programs that come to us from the United States. It is obvious, he declared, that a population of 10,000,000 people cannot produce artists to the same number as a population of 120,000,000 can.

"If Canada builds stations and puts on programs of a lower standard than can be obtained by a twist of the dial from the United States points, than the whole reason advanced by the Radio Listeners League and other proponents of Government ownership of radio falls to the ground" Mr. Copeland later declared.

"The argument that Canadian radio is a vehicle for United States propaganda cannot be supported by the production of one single instance, but even if it could, there is still no possible way to legislate American propaganda off the air, which includes the air available to any ordiary Canadian-owned modern receiving set. Any Canadian who can tune in an American station is liable to hear such propaganda and no power yet known on earth can prevent it."

The speaker here reviewed some of the unusual news events, operas, international broadcasts, sports events and great world leaders, that had been heard in the past year over CKGW. "Under Government ownership, if such features were wanted, separate arrangements would have to be made, paralleling and duplicating the efforts of the National Broadcasting Company, and Canada would have to pay the shot,' he stated.

Mr. Copeland declared that not Government ownership but Government control—real control—is needed. To assure Canadian listeners better radio is for the Government to appoint a non-political commission, with wide discretionary powers to properly supervise all branches of broadcasting. One thing for the commission to do would be to guarantee sufficient clear wave-lengths are available to Canadian stations, to guarantee uninterrupted service to listeners. Too many among the 60 Canadian radio stations have outlived their usefulness. He said that Canadian radio stations had not made the progress they should have because for the past two and a half years the Government has constantly held over their heads the clubs, that "any improvements or additions you may make to your present equipment will not be compensated for in the event of the Government taking over the operation of radio."

Mr Copeland also touched on radio advertising which made it possible for listeners to get the best programs at no cost, and he pointed out that on CKGW advertising took up only 1 per cent. of the broadcasting time, or that in a day of 18 hours broadcasting remarks about products only took up 15 minutes.

BENNETT VISITS TORONTO

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19 (C.P.)—Premier R. B. Bennett arrived to-day for his first visit to the Ontario Capital since his return from the Imperial Conference. Shortly after his arrival from Ottawa, he went into conference with Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, who sails for England next Friday to take up his duties as Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain.

Mr. Bennett will address the Liberal-Conservative Business Men's luncheon, and this evening will officiate at the formal opening of the reconstructed Albany Club.

Strong Liquid Position and Surplus Maintained During Past Three Months.

IN STRONG POSITION.

In accordance with the announced policy of Laura Secord Candy Shops, Limited, of providing shareholders with quarterly statements, the balance sheet as at December 31, 1930, is now being mailed to shareholders.

According to the accompanying letter of Frank P. O'Connor, president, the management has maintained the strong liquid position of the company, and the increase in surplus representing the earnings of the first quarter of the fiscal year is gratifying, in comparison with the statement of the last fiscal yeear as at September 30, 1930. Current Assets have increased from $1,357,594 to $1,468,932.

Surplus after quarterly dividend on preference and common stock was $873,492 at December 31, 1930, as compared with $788,427 on September 30, 1930.

Mr. O'Connor also adds that the co-operation of the shareholders in patronizing Laura Secord Candy Shops and in directing the products to the attention of friends is an important item in increasing the net profits of the Company.

GOOD GRADE ORE IS LOCATED AT SYLVANITE GOLD MINES

North Vein System Rapidly Being Opened Up Under Development Work.

GRANADA ROUYN PAYMENT.

TORONTO, Jan. 19. (Special to Examiner.)—The mining market was unusually quiet during the opening session of the week to-day. Prices in the gold section remained firm, however, with a few issues selling at or close to their highs for the movement. Balance of the list, including interlisted stocks, displayed a slightly easier tendency, reflection lack of buoyancy on larger boards.

According to word from Kirkland Lake some excellent grade of ore has been encountered in development work on and below the 400 level at Sylvanite gold mines. The drive has now progressed to within 400 feet of the north boundary line and the north vein system is rapidly being opened up. It is believed that should development continue to give such favorable results, serious consideration might later be given to increased mill tonnage.

After something under a year of operation it is rumored around town that Granada Rouyn is in a position to consider payment of a small dividend. Officials could not be reached to-day for comment on the gossip. Despite a loss of some 12 days production in December due to lack of water, the company is understood to have produced about $22,000 in gold from ore averaging $16 per ton.

United Kirkland Gold Mines, Limited, traded for some time on the curb section of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange, was called for trading on the change, was called for trading listed section to-day.

The company holds fifteen claims in Teck Township, Kirkland Lake district, southwest of and adjoining Macassa Mines, on which surface prospecting and some shaft sinking has been done. According to available information 1,250,010 shares had been issued out of an authorized capital of $2,000,000 in $1 par shares. The nickel industry, along with other basic industries, suffered a set back in volume in 1930, Dr. John F Thompson, vice president of International Nickel, is reported to have stated in New York to-day. He added that the year witnessed a rapidly expanding use of white metals, as well as a more diversified use of nickel.

LITTLE TURNOVER ON TORONTO CURB

Liquor Stocks Remain Strong in Good Demand—Balance of List Dull.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19. (CP)—Toronto Stock Exchange market began the week with rate of turnover about the slowest of any time this year. The list was narrow and those stocks which were called experienced only nominal trading. The liquor stocks still were strong and in fair demand but elsewhere no attempt was made to move prices in either direction and buying and selling about balanced.

Walkers and Distillers at midday were selling 1-8 of a point below the close of last Saturday, Walkers at 8¼ and Distillers at 12.

Mindon stores fell back on initial transactions to show a loss of a point, but towards midday the bid for the stock was raised to 16¾ Loblae moved up fractionally to 11¾.

Oils were mixed, Imperial and International Pete off slightly, B.A. Oil up a fraction, McColl unchanged at 20. Nickel and Bell Telephone were firm to higher, C.P.R., Ford unchanged, the former at 40 and the latter at 23, while Brazilian eased to 2¼.

The Canada Life keeps well ahead of the times, and its policy of "fair and square dealing", which began with its founding, 84 years ago, has been continuous.

Never has this Company contested a claim on a technicality, and from its inception it has paid dividends to policyholders every year.

Even during the Great War and Influenza epidemic, not one dollar of reduction in dividends was necessary, and for the past thirty-one years its high dividends to policyholders have never been reduced but, on the other hand, have frequently been increased.

Summary of Remarks, of the President, Mr. Leighton McCarthy, at Annual Meeting of Canada Life

Canada's potential resources have not changed, and we are assured by our financiers that our basic conditions are sound. We therefore can surely look forward with courage and faith to a greater development and expansion, as soon as world conditions become settled.

Never before has life insurance been as large a factor as it is today. In no previous period, not excepting the War years and the influenza epidemic of 1918 and 1919, has it rendered a service so large, so immediate and so necessary as it has rendered in the year 1930. Its vast reserves have lessened the force and effect of the depression on all citizens, as well as upon the individual policyholders and beneficiaries directly benefited. It has been and is radiating confidence, dispelling fear and stimulating prosperity.

Life insurance statistics have been an outstanding source of encouragement. They have furnished striking evidence of the sound common sense of the people, their vision, courage and abiding confidence in the future.

Approximately one hundred and twenty-five billions of dollars of life insurance are now in force on this Continent, nearly seven billions of which are in Canada.

It is estimated that Canadian Companies paid approximately two hundred millions to policyholders as beneficiaries during 1930. Out of this sum one hundred and thirty-five millions were paid to living policyholders.

The Canada Life in 1930 passed the One Billion dollar mark of insurance in force. Surplus earnings of six million two hundred and sixty-eight thousand dollars in 1930 were the greatest in the Company's history. This surplus was earned after making appropriations for possible depreciation of any securities.

The investment policy of the Canada Life is founded upon security of principal, stability of earning power and diversification of investments.

Valued on the basis authorized by the Government, or even at the low of the year, the investments of the Canada Life show a very substantial surplus of market value over values at which the securities are taken into the statement. The special Contingent Reserves now amount to $1,658,000.

The total assets of the Company now exceed One hundred and eighty-eight million dollars, having increased in 1930 by Fourteen million four hundred and seventy-seven thousand dollars.

The new Head Office building is nearing completion, and will be occupied during the early part of 1931. It is urgently needed to accommodate the expanding business of the Company.

REDUCTIONS IN ASSESSMENT ARE MADE BY HIS HONOR JUDGE HUYCKE

Judgment is Given in Appeal Made By City Assessor Henry.

JUDGMENT IN FULL.

Numerous reductions, mainly respecting land assessment in the heart of Peterborough's business district, are provided for in the judgment recently delivered by His Honor Judge E. C. S. Huycke, in the matter of the appeals from the assessment of certain properties in the city.

The final evidence was heard before His Honor on the afternoon of December 23 last, after a hearing which lasted throughout that day and the day previous, in the appeal of City Assessor W. J. Henry against the decision handed down by the Court of Revision, that, "assessments on lands on the west side of George street, between Charlotte and Hunter streets remained unchanged for next year's taxation."

His Honor's judgment, received by City Clerk S. A. Armstrong on Saturday morning, was as follows:

"These are a number of appeals entered against the finding of the Court of Revision, the majority of them being made by the Assessor, Mr. W. J. Henry, presumably on the instructions and authority of the City. There are a number of others entered by private individuals, or firms, regarding their own property. The whole matter is full of difficulties, and to some extent of irregularities, so much so that it makes the conditions most unsatisfactory, and any decision inconclusive and perhaps unfair."

"The appeals put in by the Assessor are each and all made and entered with reference to certain properties without naming the individuals, or the properties specifically, which is scarcely in accordance with what seems to me to be the spirit of the Act regarding such appeals. Throughout the Act it is persons, not properties, to whom notices of appeal are to be given. I add, however, to these notices of appeal, whether regular or irregular, the notice given me by the Clerk of the Municipality in which he sets out not only the property whose assessment is appealed from, but also opposite the names of the owners or respondents in each of these appeals. These two documents taken together probably make it sufficiently operative; but it is most unsatisfactory in another respect, because with reference to nearly all these the complete number of names of occupants is not given, and the appeal will therefore be limited to one, two, three or more, of the occupants of these blocks whose names are mentioned in the appeal documents. Therefore, with reference to the others, and majority of them, there is no appeal and therefore the existing assessment must be binding upon them, as no appeal lies in the absence of notice."

"In view of these difficulties, or irregularities, or both, I would be strongly inclined to dismiss all the appeals on account of what I consider an improper foundation, but for one distinct and glaring instance showing the difficulty and inequality in the existing condition of affairs. The assessment in the pear 1929 of these properties was I presume satisfactory, in that no appeals seem to have been taken against these various assessments."

"For reasons given at the hearing the Assessor has increased the assessment of these properties, and some others as well, to a very considerable extent, more particularly as to the value of the lands not of the buildings. All these matters were brought before the Court of Revision and dealt with by them and with one exception, reducing all the assessments to that of the year 1929, making the same assessment effective for the year 1930, or rather the taxes levied thereon in the year 1931. The one exception is this, the case of the Bank of Nova Scotia; one of the appellants here. All the others were lowered to the 1929 assessments, the Bank of Nova Scotia's assessment was confirmed by the Court of Revision on the 1930 basis, considerably more than that of 1929, which is inequitable and unfair to the bank. Were it not for the inequality I should be inclined to dismiss them all, and let it be worked out more effectively and regularly another year. In saying this in no way reflect upon the efficiency of the Assessor as an Assessor; my fault is with the form of notice given by the Assessor to the Court and hence to me, rather than his efficiency as an Assessor with which I find no fault. He seems to be intelligent, careful and conscientious and endeavors to perform his duty regularly and properly, and I think has done so in all these cases."

"The proper method of assessment is to assess the land at its actual value, as per section 40 of the Assessment Act. This is, I fancy, rarely adhered to, but much more nearly so in the City than in the surrounding rural districts; in most of these there is not even an effort made to conform to this law."

"Then as to the buildings, in addition to the value of the land itself, the buildings shall be assessed at the amount by which the value of the land is increased by existence and virtue of the buildings upon it."

"These are two points and the only two points to be considered in making such assessments. The difficulty is to arrive at a fair estimate or valuation of these two points. The Assessor has made in all cases before me little or no increase as to the value of the buildings, except where special additions, or repairs, have been made; but as to the land he has increased most of these properties, and some of them very materially. As warrant for this he points to the sales made in recent years either of these very properties, or of lots adjacent to them. Evidence of such sales are pertinent, and this is the chief and almost the only criterion in these cases which assists me. Such sales are or should be such as are made by a willing seller to a willing purchaser."

"It is argued that these sales proved before me were distinct or special demands. That might be true if applied to one alone, but all the other sales in this immediate district of recent years have been brought to my attention, and the prices paid, and I must say that they would appear to justify very largely the increases made by the Assessor. I would suggest, too, that the increase might be extended even to a wider sphere than has apparently been done by the Assessor, in order to make the assessment equitable throughout the district."

"Much or most of the evidence given before me was strangely foreign to the two points above mentioned and the real facts at issue. There is no question of these sales being made of the various lots, and the amounts paid for them; and there is also no question that such is a very generally accepted standard for fixing valuations and assessments of property."

"Various arguments are set forth which I do not consider applicable, and even if applicable not convincing in view of the condition of affairs hereinbefore set out. I endeavour to make an adjustment, not wholly satisfactory to myself, or probably to anyone else, but in view of all the difficulties and the conditions, what seems best to me under the circumstances."

"Each, or nearly all, of these various blocks have various tenants, or occupants, and the assessment is apparently divided or apportioned between these various occupants of each block. As stated there is no appeal with reference to many or most of them, and all the evidence given has been with reference to the block as a whole, and wholly without reference to any of the individual portions occupied or rented by various persons. This makes it absolutely impossible to adjust the matter properly as no evidence what ever was given with reference to most of these people, and even if given could not be received on account of the incompleteness and possible irregularity of the notices given and the absence of those interested. I shall therefore have to make an assessment as to each of these blocks, and refer it to the Assessor and the Clerk to make such proportionate divisions of each amount among the various persons as to whom appeals are taken. As to the others they must be left as they are even though a slight injustice may ensue. It may be that in some cases the taxes are paid by the owner of the block; if this be true it would make no difference whatever, but I am not advised as to whether this is correct or not as to any or all of them."

"As to the block at the north-west corner of George and Charlotte streets, the McDermid and Jury block—there are three appeals regarding it, while there are fourteen other occupants or tenants, about whom nothing is said or drawn to my attention. On this block the assessment on buildings is practically the same in 1929 and 1930—that will be left just as it is, confirming the current assessment at $24,200.00 for the building itself. The assessment of the land has been increased materially from $45,000.00 to $56,250.00. I fix the assessment of the land at $50,000.00."

"Coming now to the block, part of which is occupied by the Bank of Nova Scotia. These buildings were assessed for more in 1929 than in 1930, and the 1929 assessment will now stand as fixed by the Court of Revision. The assessment of the land has been increased from $29,325.00 to $40,735.00. I fix this at $35,000.00. The only two occupants of this block regarding whom an appeal is made are the Bank of Nova Scotia and Louis Yeotes. There are five others not appealed, and as to whom the reduction or increase does not apply."

"The next is the building occupied by Yeotes and Econs. Here also the 1929 assessment is greater than the 1930 one, but the 1929 one has been adopted by the Court of Revision, and I do not feel like interfering with this. This slight increase is probably justified by repairs or additions. The assessment of this land has been increased from $14,575.00 in 1929 to $17,225.00 in 1930. An appeal is properly entered against this, and I fix the assessment on this land at $16,000.00. All the occupants of this block are before the Court, and there will be no difficulty in adjusting the various proportions here."

"The appeal as to the store of Mr. H. S. Routley comes next. Here the assessment on the building in 1929 is slightly more than in 1930, but the 1929 one must stand, having been approved by the Court of Revision, and no reason for changing it. The assessment on the land however, has been increased from $14,575.00 in 1929, to $17,225.00 in 1930. I place this land assessment at $16,000.00, leaving the one on the buildings untouched."

"Next, taking the block in which is situated the C. P. R. office, there are appeals only as to two of the occupants, Mr. Hodgson and Mr. Warne. The others are apparently satisfied with the decision of the Court of Revision and the Assessor, or City, probably likewise. But these two gentlemen have appealed and are entitled to consideration. Unfortunately as stated, all the evidence as to these blocks was given as to the block generally without reference to Messrs Hodgson and Warne. This may be unfortunate for some of them but cannot well be remedied now. The assessment of the buildings is practically unchanged. The assessment on the lands however, has been increased from $43,000.00 to $50,715.00. The assessment on this block of land will be decreased to $47,500.00 but this change can only be made applicable, as above stated, to those appealing, or appealed against, not as to the others."

"The next is what is known as the Richard Hall Store, owned by Gordon McKay and Company—here the difficulties are greater. Very material alterations, improvements, and extensions, have been made between the two years. The assessment on the buildings in 1929 was $19,500.00 increased in 1930 to $36,750.00. The assessment on the land has been increased from $31,500.00 to $36,750.00. The assessment on this land considering the very recent purchase does not seem unreasonable, I fix it however at $35,000.00. A lot of contradictory evidence was given as to the increase in value of the buildings. This is not the material part; I must find, or endeavour to find, how much the value of the land is increased by the existence of these buildings thereon. I must say the evidence given was not only contradictory, but inconclusive and unconvincing as to the real point at issue. I fix the assessment of these buildings at $35,000.00."

"The buildings of the Metropolitan Corporation comes next. From information given and papers before me it would appear that the store of J. A. McNabb is a part of this building. Mr. McNabb however does not appeal, nor is he appealed against. The appeal is entered with reference to the Metropolitan Corporation only. The existing assessment on the buildings are the same as last year and is therefore presumably satisfactory. The assessment on the land has been increased from $37,820.00 to $40,040.00. It will be fixed for the coming year at $39,000.00."

"The assessment of the Woolworth Company also presents difficulties on account of recent repairs, improvements, and extensions, made to the building. The buildings were assessed in 1929 at $18,015.00 and increased this year to $30,015.00. The assessment on the land has been increased from $32,485.00 to $35,135.00. The assessment will be fixed on the land at $34,000.00, and the buildings at $28,500.00".

"The Grafton Company have two stores, different blocks of property really made into one. In both blocks there is no change made in the assessment on the buildings. The land assessment of the first block has been increased from $16,850 to $18,000. It will be fixed at $17,500. The second block has been increased from $18,500 to $20,180. This assessment will be placed at $19,500.

"The block at the south-west corner of George and Hunter Streets presents similar difficulties to some existing in other places. There are apparently nine occupants of this block paying taxes, of these four have appealed or are appealed against, the other five are not. This will present the same difficulty as before, which I am asking the Assessor and Clerk to work out. The assessment on this building was really reduced from 1929 in 1930, but the action of the Court of Revision brings it back to the higher sum. The land was in 1929 assessed at $38,235, in 1930 at $44,935. This assessment will be fixed at $41,500.

"In all these cases I have to refer the division or apportionment according to the circumstances to the Clerk and Assessor. If they require any assistance I can give them, I shall be glad to confer with them and help them as far as I can, and when the apportionment is completed will attend and sign the necessary assessment rolls as and when revised.

"There are two other appeals — first, Mr. F. O. Goodfellow, of 457 Bolivar Street. From the evidence given I see no reason for changing the existing assessment, and it will stand as it now is.

The last appeal is that of the Barnardo Home, formerly occupied by this institution, situate in the north-end of the city. For some years this property was assessed at $30,000. Some two or three years ago an appeal was brought before me, and I reduced the assessment then to $20,000. The owners expressed themselves as much pleased and well satisfied. It appears that since that time the owners have allowed it to depreciate, and without taking the slightest care, would almost appear to force depreciation. This assessment of $20,000 seems to have been reduced by the Court of Revision to $15,000, and the appeal to me urges a further substantial reduction.

"In view of the circumstances, it does not appeal very strongly to one's ideas of equity. Its value is, I think, very problematic, but the evidence given was not convincing or conclusive. The owners invite dilapidation and enforce depreciation. I have been strongly inclined to approve of the conclusion of the Court of Revision, but in view of some of the statements made by the Assessor under cross-examination, conclude to fix it at $13,000. The appellant pressed strongly for a reduction to $10,000, which under the circumstances above set out, cannot and should not be granted."

NO RIGHT TO BAN EXPORT OF GAS

Saskatchewan Concern's Counsel Makes Statement Before Alberta Cabinet.

OBJECTIONS ARE RAISED.

EDMONTON, Alta., Jan. 19 (C.P.) The Provincial Government has no right, under the British North American Act, to prevent export of natural gas from Alberta to any other province, S. E. oWods, K.C., contended before the Alberta Cabinet yesterday.

Mr. Woods was appearing as counsel for Tri-Cities Utilities Limited, a concern which seems to supply the Saskatchewan cities of Saskatoon, Moose Jaw and Regina with natural gas from Alberta. The hearing was public.

The opponents of the Tri-Cities scheme were from Edmonton and expressed the fear this city's supply of natural gas might be depleted through the proposed exports, and Alberta coal operators who believe the export of natural gas would mean removal of the Saskatchewan coal market. They ask the Government to prevent piping of natural gas from Alberta to Saskatchewan.

At the conclusion of the hearing Premier J. E. Brownlee announced legal aspects of the matter, in the lights of Mr. Woods' contention would be studied by the Government before decision is reached.

She Was Able to Resume Her Work

By Giving Dodd's Kidney Pills a Trial

"I work quite a lot out of doors and any heavy lifting seems to pull the backbone apart," writes Mrs. Boyles, R.R. No. 1, Cavan, Ont. "About seven years ago I suffered terribly. I couldn't bend to pick up anything. Liniments did not seem to do any good so I remembered my father had used Dodd's Kidney Pills for his Lumbago and I tried them and it is hardly necessary to say I found relief. A few weeks ago I felt my back strained and could not do any work until I purchased some Dodd's Kidney Pills."

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, Jan. 19.—Egg prices continued downward with large increases in receipts and potatoes declined, while cheese was higher and butter remained unchanged on the produce and dairy market here last week.

The increase in the egg receipts was caused by the mild weather and arrivals were the largest since last July. Receipts for the week were 15,787 cases, nearly double last week's. Carlot prices of fresh Ontario and British Columbia eggs and also storage eggs at the end of the week were unchanged. Ontario fresh extras were 32c, firsts 28c and seconds 25c a dozen. British Columbia extras were quoted at 34c, firsts at 28c and pullets at 27c a dozen. Storage extras were 22c, firsts 20c and seconds 18c. Prices to retailers will be lower, going into effect to-day. Fresh specials will be 1c to 2c lower at 41c a dozen. Fresh extras, firsts and pullet extras will decline 2c at 38c, 33c and 30c a dozen, respectively. Fresh seconds will be unchanged at 28c. Storage extras, firsts and seconds, will be 1c to 3c lower at 29c, 25c and 21c a dozen, respectively.

Eastern Townships No. 1 pasteurized butter closed the week unchanged at 31¼c a pound, and to retailers solids were 33c and prints 34c a pound. Receipts for the week were 2,357 boxes.

Winter white cheese at the end of the week was unchanged at 11c to 11¼c and colored was 12¼c to 13c a pound. Summer cheese was 16c a pound. Last week's receipts were 572 boxes.

New Brunswick Green Mountain potatoes, to retailers in 80-pound bags, lost 5c at 90c, and in carlots per 90 pounds bulk were unchanged at 85c.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, January 19. — Wheat and corn reeled downward on Saturday, but oats furnished a surprise by showing stubborn independence and little loss. The action of oats resulted from receipts last week being the smallest since 1894. Forecasts of relief from moisture shortage in domestic wheat territory weakened wheat, and so, likewise, did assertions that prices of hogs and cattle were below a profitable feeding basis.

Wheat closed unsettled, unchanged to ¾c lower; corn, ½c to ⅝c off; oats, ¼c to ½c down; and provisions unchanged to 12c decline.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, January 19. — Fractional gains made in early trading were wiped out during the last half-hour of trading in the Winnipeg wheat market on Saturday, and at the close losses ranged from ⅜c to ¾c a bushel.

Export business estimated at close to 750,000 bushels was reported overnight, making total sales since Thursday around 2,000,000. This was responsible for the early firmness, but late selling developed, with outside interests offering good quantities of the October future and other selling the May and July.

Trade volume was smaller than on Friday, but the pit operations were fairly active for the short Saturday session.

Trading in cash and coarse grains was slow, and values followed the futures trend. No. 1 Northern wheat closed off fractionally at 53c.

SAINT ANDREW'S UNITED CHURCH S.S. HOLDS MEETING AT MILLBROOK

Splendid Report For Activities During 1930 Read By Secretaries.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

MILLBROOK, JAN. 17. (Examiner Correspondence.)—The annual meeting of the executive of Saint Andrew's United Church Sunday School was held on Tuesday evening, with practically a full attendance, the pastor, Rev. W. W. Jones, B.D., occupying the chair.

The chairman opened the meeting with a scripture reading and prayer, after which reports covering the work of the school for 1930 were called for. The superintendent of the primary department was the first called upon, and reported fifty-four children on the roll last year, and of these fifteen had been promoted to the larger part of the school immediately after the new year; new scholars are constantly being welcomed to the department, and at present there are twenty-seven beginners, with Mrs. J. H. Might as teacher, and fourteen primary scholars, Miss Burnham teacher, and twenty babies on the Cradle Roll, with Mrs. G. E. Burnham as the superintendent of this section.

In addition to the regular collection each Sunday, the children have contributed to the mission funds of the school through their mite-box $7.50, and through their birthday-box to the Mission Band funds $3.75- $11.25 in all.

C.G.I.T. Report

The report of the C.G.I.T. was made by the leader, twenty-five girls being enrolled, two of whom represented the group at the provincial camp at White House last August. Contributions were made to the M. and M. fund of the church; to the National Girls' Work Board; and to the Star Santa Claus fund at Christmas time. Extended projects had been under way through the year to give the group recognized standing, and several delightful outings in the way of hikes, bacon suppers, Hallowe'en party, etc., had provided recreation. Christmas carols had beensung for sick and shut-in-folk the two evenings before Christmas, and other service performed for the church, and the community. More support in prayer was asked in order to make the present year one of growth and prosperity.

Mrs. W. A. O'Brian, president of the Boneka Bible Class, reported 62 names on the roll, and a total attendance of 1094, with an average of 21; four new members had been welcomed, and 110 visitors greeted cordially at regular class sessions. Collections were $53.96, an average of $1.03; a total of $178.35 was raised during the twelve months, and of this $120 was given the Sunday School: and $10 to the M. and M. fund of the church, a small balance is still on hand. The work of the teacher, Mrs. (Rev.) W. W. Jones had been and is deeply appreciated.

Men's Bible Class.

Mrs. H. Might, president of the Men's Bible Class, had an encouraging report for the fifty men enrolled, with an average attendance of from twenty-five to thirty each Sunday. The class had twice visited the Carmel church by request, and formed the choir for special services, and had assisted in this way in the socal church on several occasions as well. The annual anniversary occasion last June had proved an unqualified success, with Judge Mott, of Toronto, and Rev. Mr. Sisco, of Port Hope, as the speakers, and the Maple Leaf Quartette, of Galt, supplying the music. The same quartette has been secured for the anniversary this year, and the speakers will be announced in due time. The class has a small balance on hand after contributing one hundred dollars to the renovation of the Sunday School last fall, and also giving twenty-three dollars to the church. The president was emphatic as he spoke of the appreciation felt for the faithful and capable services of the teacher, Mrs. (Dr.) Rae.

Tuxis Square.

The Tuxis Square was reported for by the teacher, W. A. O'Brian, the pastor supplementing the facts presented with some further information on the bringing out of Kenneth Fallis as candidate for the Older Boys' Parliament, his election by acclamation as member for East Durham having followed. Mr. O'Brian has sixteen young men enrolled in his class, visitors on recent Sundays having enlarged the attendance beyond that figure. Interest is growing with the attendance, and good work is being painstakingly accomplished.

Mr. J. H. George, superintendent of the Home Department, has now 29 members enrolled, two having been lost through death, and two others through withdrawal. Contributions totalled $26.25, and lessons are faithfully prepared each week, an evidence of the real value of this section of the school's activities.

Miss Estelle Hetherington, teacher of the Leadership Training classes, reported three units covered in study last year, and the class already under way for the current term. All pupils had passed successfully on the examinations, the papers being sent from Toronto and returned there for marking. "The Progress of Christianity" is the unit at present being studied, and anyone is welcome to attend the classes.

The treasurer's report showed a total of $767.49, with a balance on hand to meet present demands, and the superintendent, W. Fred Fallis, stated that there are 330 on the school roll, with an average attendance of 154, and an average collection of $6.00. B. B. Dawson, president of the Young Peoples' Society, also had an encouraging report, of 43 paid members, $60 contributed to the M. and M. fund of the church, good woork being done by the vice-presidents, and most interesting programs divided.

Nattress in charge of the daintily-laid tables, and a most enjoyable social time was spent. Rev. MRS. BRUCE LESLIE GIVES JAPAN PAPER

Pleasing Program at January Meeting of Queensboro Auxiliary.

QUEENSBORO, Jan. 19 (Examiner Correspondence) — The January meeting of the Queensboro Auxiliary was held at the parsonage on Wednesday with a good attendance. The new president, Mrs. J. F. Everson presided, reading the scriptural lesson from Psalm 51, and Mrs. John Alexander led in prayer.

Mrs. Bruce Leslie gave a paper on conditions in Japan showing that the old non-Christian religions with their temples, shrines, priests, pilgrimages and sacrifices are proving themselves utterly unable to meet the needs of Japan's new day. A modern, almost unexcelled educational system has produced a nation of readers and the new thought is stirring the Empire. Christianity has resulted in the education of women and in Christian Young People establishing homes apart from parents. Sixty years ago education and religion were considered wasted if given to women. Seven years ago the first temperance law was passed forbidding the sale of liquors to minors.

Mrs. John O'Rorke gave a paper entitled, "Putting first things first," Mrs. John Alexander gave a talk on "Temperance," and Mrs. Everson spoke on "Social conditions in Japan" and pointed out the defects in home life due partly to the numerous relatives housed in such small quarters. "As many as four generations are frequently found living in one house as well as aunts and others who may be poor or ill. One feature of the Japanese home is the obedience and submission tendered the father or eldest son. This tends to unity and peacefulness but is frequently so overworked that it is a real danger and damage to the moral life. In cases of marriage the contracting parties are not consulted but the father or eldest son, if the father is dead, makes all the arrangements. The moral standards among the Japanese is very low and because morality comes not by intuition but by education the Christian church must endeavour to teach the people of Japan the Christian's moral code."

St. Alphonsus Lyceum was the scene of a very jolly bridge party held in aid of relief work, on Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League, with tea served at the conclusion of the games. The big, handsome lower auditorium was bright with decorations in which the combination of colors was very pleasing. Spring hues in yellow and green were in the streamers that hung over the doorway and in the bands twining about the pillars. The stage, with its colored footlights, was arranged very effectively with a floral back drop, a number of ferns and lighted floor lamps, and was bordered on either side with green latticework covered with roses. The table was exquisitely done in an unusual effect that combined many of the lighter colors of the rainbow. A handsome cloth of guipure lace was crossed with narrow bands of lemon yellow ribbon, in the centre of which was placed a multicolor fancy rose made of tiny crinkled circlets of orchid, green and yellow paper. This served as a base for a branching silver candelabra with four pale yellow candles and a central apricot taper, all lighted. Two tall silver candlesticks at either end of the table held emerald green candles and silver bud vases were filled with spring bouquets of narcissus, daffodils, carnations and springeri fern. The refreshments, the little candies on the table and the service in silver and pale yellow china also carried out the rainbow scheme in colors. The whole effect was very charming. The general convenor of the party was Mrs. W. J. Young, who received the guests with the president, Mrs. M. Henry. Miss Annie Simons had charge of decorations and the tea table was in charge of Mrs. J. A. Stewart and Mrs. J. F. O'Brien. Tea was poured by Mrs. J. J. McCabe and Mrs. J. E. Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

It is likely that many of the readers, now that the rush of the New Year has passed, have turned to sewing, which is, indeed, a very pleasant pastime and is thoroughly enjoyed by many women.

• • • • • • •

I wonder how many of you housewives do smocking? Perhaps many of you wanted to learn but somehow you seemed to be too busy, although it is very easily done.

• • • • • • •

Smocking is the method of fastening gathers together with ornamental stitchery to hold the fulness evenly in position. That part of it sounds easy doesn't it?

• • • • • • •

The term comes from the work smock which is a peasant garment on which the stitchery is employed. This garment has been adopted by artists, business girls and others, because of its adaptability to the needs of the work.

• • • • • • •

Great variety in stitches is found in smocking, and the work is diversified in designs formed by the grouping and arrangement of the stitches.

In every instance the spaces between stitches form tiny diamonds. This is characteristic.

• • • • • • •

The gathers must be taken in such a way that they present only a line of the goods on top where the stitchery is taken. To insure absolute evenness the points of stitchery are indicated by dots in parallel horizontal rows.

• • • • • • •

Gathering threads are run with very short stitches under dots and longer ones between them. When all the rows of dots have been run in horizontal lines, the gathering threads are pulled tight and fastened securely.

• • • • • • •

Smocking stitchery dots do not have to be stamped. They can be made by the worker who uses a soft pencil for marking and a ruler to guage the distances.

• • • • • • •

The dots can be ¼ inch apart in parallel horizontal rows, the dots in in each succeeding row coming exactly beneath those in the row above.

• • • • • • •

There must be as many rows of dots as the depths of the smocking requires and one extra row for fastening the gathers to a yoke, a cuff or to whatever the smocked portion is to be positioned on the goods.

• • • • • • •

The distance between dots can be more or less than the ¼ inch mentioned to suit the desired fullness of the gathers.

• • • • • • •

Each row of smocking requires two rows of gathers. Work from right to left always. Run the needle under two gathers and take a backstitch. Bring the needle to the row above and catch two gathers, one of which is the last gather in the row below.

• • • • • • •

Take a backstitch. Bring the needle to the row below and catch two gathers one of which is the last gather in the row above. Repeat this backstitching of gathers to the end of the line. The thread, you know, must always remain on the top of the work.

• • • • • • •

Start the second line of smocking two rows of gathers below the line just completed and with the second gather. Each alternate line of smocking begins with the first gather and every other one with the second gather.

• • • • • • •

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

THE LIVER AND SKIN AILMENTS.

One of the hard propositions that confronts the average physician is a skin ailment that seems to resist all forms of treatment.

As you may know, most chronic skin ailments are treated with preparations of zinc, of sulphur or mercury. One by one these different preparations are tried without any real improvement in the condition.

Just a few years ago it was discovered that certain foods seemed to aggravate these chronic skin conditions and so by omitting these foods from the diet the skin cleared up. Sometimes it was found that it was meat, in other cases potatoes, in others tomatoes, in others fresh fruit, in others sugar or starches o any kind.

You can readily see that it would take some time in many cases to find out just what was causing the trouble and then a considerable time more for the skin to get back to normal again.

Now of course there is nothing wrong with any of the above foodmeats, starches, fruits and so forth—but the processes of the body just couldn't handle them properly and by affecting the blood, the skin became irritated and remained irritated.

And so physicians have naturally been asking themselves what part of the body is responsible for the poor handling of these particular foods.

What have they found?

That in many cases it is the failure of the liver to do its work properly that is responsible for the trouble. As you know one of the important duties of the liver is to manufacture bile which breaks up fats, destroys harmful organisms, and acts as a natural purgative.

Further, the liver takes the harmful matter out of the blood during the progress of the blood through the liver.

And so physicians have been testing the liver's ability in these cases of old chronic skin ailments.

They have found, by the dye test, that the liver holds on to materials that should be used in the manufacture of bile, and so the bile cannot do its threefold job properly.

This blood with these harmful substances in it is what is sent to the blood vessels in the skin, and causes the irritation called skin disease.

So instead of using ointments the skin is simply kept clean, and treatment directed to the liver.

This gets after the real cause of the trouble.

SPRING FASHIONS ON BOARD WALKS

FASCINATING STRIPES.

(Special to Examiner, Copyright 1931.)

ATLANTIC City, Jan. 19.—There is a lilt of balmy spring in this resort. Spring fashions are popping up on the boardwalk like tulips and hyacinths, gay with color and the fresh charm of youth.

Sartorially, the approaching season will be a success. Styles, shades and silhouettes are inspired by themes of romance. A strongly vivid thread of Orientalism is woven into the warp and woof of spring fashions. The International Colonial Exposition will be held in Paris in May. So the couturiers for inspiration have seized upon the colorful native costumes of Morocco, Algiers, Indo-China and the French possessions in the West Indies. Presto! out of these brilliant romantic canvases have stepped magically lovely turbans, stripes and the vivid blending of tropical trees that warm northern eyes and northern hearts with a thrill of sheer delight. Among the newest hats is a beret called Tonkinois. It takes its name from a part of Indo-China which flies the tricolor of France. North African influence is also rampant in spring millinery and colors.

Gray is Important Tone

As a foil for gay accessories, gray leads the march of spring shades. Gray and the French greige will be important tones.

One of the newest hats is a halo model derived from an Indo-China headdress. It is made of imported hand crocheted wool and hand-woven straw. Hats will continue to let their wearers turn full face toward the world.

One of the most fascinating of the new costumes launched on the boardwalk is the postillion coat, of monotone wool fabric worn over a gaily printed frock. These coats date back somewhat to the overskirt or polonaise. They meet at the waist line, with a narrow belt, then they are cut away to the hem to show several inches of the frock beneath. They are also cut away from above the waist to show the bodice. Some wear capes and are then sleeveless. Others have three- quarter, slightly belled sleeves to show the puffed sleeves of the frock beneath. No costume could be smarter.

"Strip" felt is one of the great millinery mediums of the moment. It is thin. It looks like broadcloth and is shirred and draped like fabric into many, many shapes, perfectly crushable by the big fur collars.

Bridging the Gap.

Belting ribbon hats bridge the gap between January and spring. In black, brown, navy, red and the wine tones, belting ribbon lends itself perfectly to delightful tricornes and other off the face and forehead models.

Linonol straw combined with felt has boldly stepped out in the chill of winter and announced that spring cannot be far off. Linonol is a line weave straw which will later appear in toto on many smart hats.

Celio-mat and cello-phane, which are synthetic straws, are among the fashionable high lights. Toyo is a novel hat material made of hand-woven Japanese paper. It looks like Panama. No doubt the mechanical genius of North America will develop this idea in many less expensive ways. Cello-mat is dull and cello-phane gleams like water beneath the shining sun.

Sugared almond hues are among the newest brown tones, lip stick red, periwinkle blue, coral and a gay lot of clan plaids are appearing. Black, blue, gray, brown and other dark tones are also in profusion.

Fascinating Stripes.

Roman stripes have arrived on the boardwalk in all their splendor. In entire frocks as waistcoats, blouses, scarfs, handkerchiefs and in countless other ways, the gay stripes are fascinating. The newest fastening on sports frocks consists of metal clips, instead of buttons. Five or more of those ornamental clips down the side-front are charming. Crocheted yokes continue to appear with insistent frequency. Crochet in various forms is a real note of distinction in the new season.

Pompoms of wool are among the novel details on some attractive sports models. These gay little fuzzy balls, soft as pussy willows, and lacing cords and supply other interesting bits of trimming.

"Normandie Bleu" will be an important spring suit shade. This color is altogether lovely and will contribute many boleo, Eton and short jacket suits to be worn with white or colored blouses.

Miss Effie Jamieson In City To-Morrow

The Peterborough Presbyterial of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada meets to-morrow and Wednesday next in Trinity Church. The Presbyterial is fortunate in having for guest speaker Miss Effie Jamieson, General Secretary of the Dominion Board, who speaks on Tuesday evening on the subject of "Africa." Miss Jamieson spent some months last year on this continent and her letters which appeared in print were much enjoyed by those interested in missionary endeavor on the Dark Continent.

The story of the year's work in the Presbyterial will be told in the reports of the various officers. The ladies of Trinity are providing meals for the delegates. All interested in missionary work are invited to attend.

REV. C. D. DONALD SPECIAL SPEAKER

Sunday School Anniversary is Held in George Street United Church.

RETURNED MISSIONARY.

George Street United Church celebrated their Sunday School anniversary with three interesting services on Sunday. The officers, teachers, scholars met in the Sunday School Auditorium at 10.30 a.m. and for the afternoon service at 2.30, marching up into the body of the church. The Sunday School Orchestra, under the direction of W. H. Cunningham, provided fine, bright music for both services and a children's choir led the singing under the direction of D. Howat. At the morning and afternoon services C. S. Thompson, superintendent of the Sunday School, presided. The special speaker for both services was Rev. C. D. Donald, B.A., B.D., returned missionary from India, who gave two splendid addresses. In his introductory remarks he mentioned the fact that although having spent his boyhood in Lindsay, this was the first time he had ever visited Peterborough. He expressed his pleasure at visiting here and of having an opportunity to speak to such large congregations about his work in India. His talk was very informal—he simply told the story of the life and habits of the people whom he had been working amongst. In speaking of the unrest and turmoil disturbing India at the present time he said many were not satisfied with the Government, they want to govern themselves in their own way. One of the greatest difficulties in that country is the caste system, and at some length he gave a description of the customs and the effect it has had upon sixty millions of outcasts, whose ancestors have been outcasts for 4,000 years. These are the people the missionaries do their chief work among, educating them and lifting them up and making men and women of them and teaching them of the love of the Lord Jesus.

Sacred Pageant.

At the evening service a beautiful sacred pageant, "The Unshadowed Cross," was presented by fifteen young ladies. The pulpit platform was decorated with a large white cross with a background of black velvet and on either side large climbing rose bushes. Rev. J. E. J Millyard briefly told the story of the "Unshadowed Cross," describing it as a powerful sermon in action. While the processional hymn, "Stand up, stand up for Jesus," was being sung by the choir, the girls taking part marched slowly up the aisle, and Christian (Miss Helen Burns) took her place on the platform. She spoke of the glorious cross. Following her came Doubt (Miss Grace Burns), Fear (Miss Dorothy Wyman), Pride (Miss Myrtle Burns), Sorrow (Miss Grace Cunningham), Unbelief (Miss Lillian Wyman), Indifference (Miss Irene Mark), Death (Miss Georgia Hardill), robed in black and who threw black veils over the cross and completely hid it. Christian became despondent and sank to her knees with her head bowed. Then came the seven graces, dressed in bright, appropriate colors, bearing garlands of flowers, who bade the shadows depart. First Faith (Miss Margaret Vance), Hope (Miss Bertha Pickering), Humility (Miss Florence Glenney), Joy (Miss Isobel McKay) Truth (Miss Evelyn Miller), and Life (Miss Irene Cox), who deposits the floral offering of each grace at the foot of the cross, and Christian again sees the bright, unshadowed cross. Throughout the pageant the choir rendered appropriate music, singing the recessional hymn "In the cross of Christ I glory," as Life led the march for the graces down the aisle. Preceding the service the organist, David Howat, gave a fine organ recital. The pageant was directed by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thompson.

So large was the crowd that attended the funeral at Washington Church, near Redding, England, of Sir William Mount, who died in the hunting field, that an overflow service was held in an adjoining garage.

Elaine And Her Ideas From Paris

TRINITY CHURCH HAD DR. DAVIES FOR ANNIVERSARY

Large Congregations Hear Pastor of Eaton Memorial Church, Toronto.

SPECIAL MUSIC BY CHOIR.

The three attributes of God, as revealed to us through the life of Christ, are the spiritual, the light and love, declared Rev. Dr. Trevor H. Davies of Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, Toronto, in his sermon before a large congregation in Trinity United Church Sunday morning.

Music, anthems and scripture readings were suited to the occasion of the church's anniversary. In a few well chosen words, Rev. David Wren introduced the preacher, saying that his association with Dr. Davies had always been the most pleasant, and that he had been greatly influenced by him.

Dr. Davies took for his text three passages from the New Testament. John 4:24—"God is a spirit, and they that worship him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." I John 1:5—"This then is the message we have heard of him, and declare unto you that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all." I John 4:16—"God is love."

"Our religion depends upon our conception of God," declared Dr. Davies. "The truth about God is the truth about everything.

"When Prometheus was reconciled to Jupiter, he put on the ring of necessity, and the willow bow of submission upon his forehead. Thus when we become the children of God we must do likewise.

"The story of man's search for God has filled our history and literature", said the speaker. "God will come to us in any form that might please him in a beautiful building, replete with ornament, stained glass windows and ritual, or he may come to a humble meeting house; he may be in the peace and quiet of the church, or on the battlefield amid the roar of the cannon.

'God is light. Light is a symbol of purity—it is as open as day, admitting of no darkness—it consists of perfect holiness, righteousness and judgment. However, the term Light is difficult to define, although its power may be seen by the lack of light in religions before Christ.

These pagan faiths, whose gods were stained with the foulest attributes, whose forms were the most gruesome, and whose deities vied with each other in drunken revelry, could admit of no spiritual light.

"This then is the message. "The word of God comes through the life of Jesus, and the light is more readily realized through his life. Suffering is not inconsistent with divine righteousness, for the life, death and resurrection of Jesus all have light.

"As the light reflected through a prism," said Dr. Davies," breaks forth in rainbow colors from the infra red through to the ultra violet, so God breaks out in glory in different colors in several places and ages.

"My God how wonderful thou art,
Thy majesty how bright,
How beautiful thy mercy seat,
Ind epths of burning light!"

The holiness of God would terrify us were it not that that purity was a loving and healing one for us.

"God is love. Love will be king for ever, declared the preacher. Love was, is and always shall be the same. We often mistake the effect of a thing for its cause, thereby doubting in the love of God. "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof but canst not tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth, so is everyone that is born of the Spirit."

"Love was manifest in the prophets and figures of history; it is eternal—the same in Genesis as in St. John's writings. The Cross is the manifestation of something eternal, and the Cross is the everlasting of Christ's love for mankind. If one lost soul lies on the black mountain of an uttermost star, God is there.

"The innermost message of the Gospel of Christ contains these three attributes of Him. The fear of to morrow," concluded Dr. Davies, "is the fear of the nebulous unknown; but God is love, and will be the same to-morrow as he is to-day and was yesterday.

In the evening the service was opened by a selection of organ and violin pieces: Prelude and Fugue in D minor (Bach), Romance (Wieniaski), Andante Cantabile (Tschaikowsky), and Meditation (Massenet). The anthem was a selection from Concone's Mass in F, entitled Gloria. Following the Scripture lesson "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" (Ippolitov-Ivanov) was sung by the united choir. The offertory obligato was a violin and organ selection entitled Air from Orchestral Suite in D (Bach).

Dr. Davies took as a text for his sermon the words of St. Paul to the Romans, "The strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak." The preacher outlined the responsibilities of the stronger members of creation towards the weaker.

This, however, did not seem to be the law of nature, whose creed was the survival of the fittest. There are three reasons why the strong should aid the weak. We are also, said Dr Davies, and despite racial distinctions, the main part of man is always the same. The times are sweeping towards an era of international unity, and the elimination of national barriers. We are unlike physically and mentally, for God does not repeat Himself. The works of nature, the flowers, the trees, the stars, the animals, and finally man himself are all dissimilar from each other. The more thriving should always try to aid the weaker. The third reason for the strongs protection of the weak is the grace of God which is given to all creation, and particularly to man to accomplish this end.

Leafs And Maroons In Second Place Deadlock

BAILEY SCORES TWO COUNTERS TO ALLOW TORONTO 3-1 VICTORY OVER CANADIAN GROUP LEADERS

Jackson Counts Other Leaf Tally in the Final Frame of Encounter.

WASNIE ALSO COUNTS.

Maroons Register 3-2 Win Over Senators in Montreal Contest.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19 (C.P.)—Montreal Maroons, Toronto Maple Leafs, Detroit Falcons and Chicago Blackhawks were the big ground gainers in the National Hockey League's week-end schedule of five games.

The Maroons and Leafs, by defeating Ottawa Senators and Montreal Canadiens by 3 to 2 and 3 to 1 counts respectively, cut the Habitants lead in the Canadian group to two points. Chicago downed New York Rangers, 2 to 1, and pulled up to within half a game of the leading Boston Bruins in the American section. The Falcons garnered three out of a possible four points by whipping the last place Philadelphia Quakers, 5 to 2, on Saturday and then holding the Americans to a 2-all tie on Sunday.

Slated as the headline attraction, the game in the Queen City between the Flying Frenchmen and Leafs provided 9,000 fans with an interesting tilt, but nothing more. The Habitants did not flash their customary brilliancy either because they were checked too closely or because of their Thursday encounter with Maroons.

Play at Top Form

The Leafs, however, were at the top of their form and in just ten minutes they were coasting along with a two-goal lead. "Ace" Bailey, who is making a great effort to overtake Howie Morenz for the group scoring honors, put his team on Easy Street by converting two neat passes from Hal Cotton, which easily beat the nonchalant George Hainsworth.

Nick Wasnie reduced the Toronto lead in the middle frame when he batted in Pete Lepine's rebound. The visiting team showed their best hockey at this stage, but it was not good enough to net them the equalizer.

Early in the last session Harvey Jackson, "Chuck" Conacher and "Hap" Day broke away with the Canadien forwards left flat-footed, and the former clinched the contest with a pretty marker which recompensed somewhat for the five open chances he had missed previously.

Maroons kept pace with their Toronto rivals for second place honors by nosing out the Senators in a mild contest at the Forum.

"Babe" Seibert drove one of his booming shots past Alex Connell in the first session to give his team the lead. Jimmy Ward took a pass from Nels Stewart in the second 20 minutes and the game seemed won beyond doubt when Earl Roche hammered the rebound from Bill Phillips' shot in to the Ottawa cage 15 minutes after the start of the last period.

The hard luck Ottawans had different ideas, however, and less than two minutes later Danny Cox dashed into score on LeBourgeault's rebound. Frankie Finnigan then startled the fans with another goal just 40 seconds later and only rugged defence work by Lionel Conacher and Wilcox stopped the last minute drive of the Bytown squad.

The Americans failed to gain on the Maroons and Leafs when they were held to a stalemate by the Falcons. At the halfway mark the Amerks enjoyed a two goal lead and appeared destined to chalk up their second victory in three starts over the Detroiters, but they failed to protect their lead and in consequence slipped a point further behind the Toronto and Montreal outfits.

"Hap" Emms scored for the A's in the first chukker and Joe Simpson's long shot gave them a two goal lead 14 minutes after the second session had started. Another long shot from the stick of McInenly placed the Falcons in the running and Johnny Sorrell knotted the count about the halfway mark of the third stanza. The victory enabled the winning team to advance to within two points of the third place Rangers, as they defeated the Quakers the previous night quite easily.

Only fine goalkeeping by little Jakie Forbes prevented the Falcons from doubling their score. George Hay netted in the first period and Tommy Filmore and Ebbie Goodfellow the Leagues leading sniper tallied one apiece in the second before the Quakers entered the summary early in the third. Mackinnon got their first counter unassisted but it was nullified by Herbie Lewis' marker shortly after. Allan Shields registered the second Philadelphia goal while Larry Aurie completed the sharp-shooting on a pass from Goodfellow.

Chicago appears as much of a jinx to Rangers as Boston for so far this season they secured only one point out of a possible six from the Windy City speed artists.

Frankie Ingrame and Tommy Cook scored in the first and second periods respectively to put their team right on the heels of the Bruins. Both goals followed sparkling combination thrusts which enabled the puck carrier to trick his way in close.

Murray Thompson notched the one Ranger tally half-way through the last frame on a pass-out from Murdock.

Bill Cook, injured wrist notwithstanding, played fine hockey throughout the game and also drew down a major penalty for fighting with Des Jardins during a furious melee around the Chicago net as the blue shirted New Yorkers drove in during the closing minutes wildly seeking the tieing goal.

Utilization of streams for irrigation as well as hydro electric power is being studied by the Spanish Government.

KANSAS CITY WINS

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 19.—Kansas City out-passed Buffalo and won an American Hockey League game here Saturday night 3-0. Ranger placed Kansas City ahead in the first period when he scored on a pass from Jamieson. Dunfield and McCormick each scored unassisted in the third. It was Kansas City's sixth victory in seven starts.

PIRATES TAKE TWIN VICTORIES

London Defeats Cleveland 3 to 2 For Fifth Straight Win.

OLYMPICS WIN 2-1.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19 (C.P.) — Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets and London Tecumsehs improved their positions in the International Hockey League standing over the week-end. The former team, after holding Buffalo, league leaders, to a one-all tie on Saturday, moved over to Syrcuse where they trouced the Stars, 4 to 2, on Sunday night. Tecumsehs chalked up their 5th straight victory at the expense of the Indians in Cleveland and relegated them to fourth place as the Londoners shot up to within two points of the second place Windsor Bulldogs.

More than 11,000 fans turned out to see the renewal of the bitter "cross-river" feud between the Bulldogs and Detroit Olympics. The latter won 2 to 1 and thereby kept from dropping to second last place. As it is, the Yellow Jackets are now tied with them for fifth place.

Splendid goalkeeping by Abbie Cox was a large factor in the Yellow Jackets fine showing against the Bisons. The latter dominated the play and outshot their opponents nearly two to one during the latter stages of the game, but failed to outguess Cox.

Lloyd Gross, Marty Lauder and Cahill all retired from the game through injuries and left the Bisons badly handicapped for relief. None was seriously hurt. Both counters came in the middle frame; Sammy Godin put the league leaders ahead ten seconds after the start, and Gregg evened matters in the last minutes of the period.

In stretching their winning streak to five, the Tecumsehs flashed some great team work on the front line, supported by a rugged defence, strengthened by the acquisition of Hicks from Detroit. Goldsworthy, who was traded to the Falcons of the National League for Hicks, made his final appearance with the Londoners and opened the scoring half-way through the initial period. Pettinger increased the London lead eight minutes later.

Romnes took a pass from Goldsworthy about the middle of the second session to practically clinch the game for the Tecumsehs, who were hard pressed at times during the balance of the game as the Clevelanders battled stubbornly for goals. Williams got one in the latter part of the second session and Alex Gray reduced the London lead to one in the last minute of play.

JOHN GOLDEN WINS AGUA CALIENTE CUP

Plays Consistent Game to Defeat George Von Elm By Four Strokes.

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, Jan. 19.—(C.P.) — Steady John Golden, playing typical Golden golf to-day won the Agua Caliente open championship, defeating George Von Elm, former amateur champion, by four strikes in an 18 hole play-off. Golden scored a consistent but not sensational 75, three strikes over par, while the more spectacular Von Elm fell back to 79, with an erratic 41 on the second nine holes.

After finishing the 72 hole championship proper in a deadlock at 283 Saturday, Golden and Von Elm set out yesterday in a 30 mile wind to decide who should have the honor of wearing the title of Agua Caliente championship for a year and own outright a diamond-studded medal, emblematic of the crown.

Golden's approaching and putting won the title, for he had no three-put greens.

W.C.T.U. MEETING HELD IN NORWOOD

Several New Members Enrolled at Gathering in Home of Mrs. George Hamblin.

NORWOOD, Jan. 19 (Examiner Correspondence) — The January meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. George Hamblin on Thursday afternoon when several more ladies became members of this organization.

Mrs. Lawlor, the president, was in the chair and much business was dealt with. The ladies had sent out several baskets of Christmas cheer which were much appreciated. They decided to buy prizes for the girls and boys who had entered and been successful in the essay contest, while some time in the near future they intend to have another contest to get the young people interested in the importance of the temperance work.

Mrs. McNeil, convenor of group 1, took charge and a reading of the life of Francis Wilard was given. Mrs. Bongard and Mrs. Lawlor also gave readings dealing with the temperance work.

Mrs. W. A. Richardson was elected treasurer in Mrs. Riseborough's place who resigned a few months ago.

A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Hamblin at the close of the meeting.

Canadiens and Boston Top Respective Sections Although Leads Are Cut.

SCORE LIST SAME.

Chuck Gardner of Chicago Out to Set Record in Shut-out Division.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19. (CP)—Canadiens and Boston are still leading their respective sections of the National Hockey League, but in both cases the leads have been whittled down as the result of week-end engagements. The Flying Frenchmen are now just two points ahead of Toronto and Montreal, while Boston is only one point in front of Chicago. The line-up in the Canadian group is as follows: Canadiens, first; Leafs and Maroons, tied for second place; Americans, next, and Ottawa last. In the American group, Boston, Chicago, Rangers, Detroit and Philadelphia are placed in that order.

There was no change in the scoring leaderships. Ebbie Goodfellow, of Detroit, is still in front of the American section with 28 points—17 goals and 11 assists. Howie Morenz, of Canadiens, has scored 17 goals and 8 assists and is leading the Canadian section. Frankie Boucher of Rangers has scored 15 assists so far, three more than Joe Primeau, of Toronto, who leads the Canadian loop.

Chuck Gardner, of Chicago, is well on the way to a record of some sort or other. So far, Chuck has blanked his opposition nine times, twice more than Toronto Maple Leafs have done. His shutout streak was stopped at four last night when Rangers managed to score a goal.

Harvey Rocburn, Detroit, still holds the penalty crown, having now spent 84 minutes in durance vile. Alex Smith, of Ottawa, leads the Canadian loop with 59 minutes.

ST. ANDREW'S EASILY DEFEATS GEORGE STREET UNITED 53-31

Sturgeon and Armstrong Leading Scorers For Winners, Each Making 18 Points.

DE LAVAL BEATS CHEVROLET

St. Andrew's basketball team handed a defeat of 53-31 to the George Street United five in a friendly match on Saturday afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. gym. The game was a hardly contested one, although individual players were often let through to score a basket. Nevertheless team work was noticeable, and through a steady application St. Andrew's were able to forge their way ahead to victory.

Sturgeon and Armstrong were the major scorers for St. Andrew's, each making 18 points. These were followed by Kingston who added 17 points to the score. The other players were guards in the true sense of the word, as they kept within range of their own basket. Routley did the best work for the George Street team, scoring in all 14 points. The lineups for the teams were as follows:

St. Andrew's—Kingston and Sturgeon, forwards; Armstrong, centre; Richardson and Wadell, guards; Breckenridge, sub.

The DeLaval basketball five proved to be too fast for even the practiced Chevrolet team when the score was 38 to 17. The important feature of this play-off was the excellent passing and combination of the DeLaval team. The passing was made easier because of the men being so placed about the floor according to the play that zig-zag work could be spectacularly practised. The Chevrolet team could not keep back the onslaught of their opponents with their checks, as hard as they tried. They had some wonderful criss-cross plays, but unfortunately DeLaval came in at the wrong moment to break them up.

Sturgeon scored the most points for DeLaval, 16 points in all. He was followed by Routley and Levine who scored 10 and 8 respectively. Laing was the major scorer for Chevrolet, making 7 points. Broadley came next, scoring 4.

Test Men Lose Out

In a fast and thrilling fight, Westclox became the victors over the C.G.E. Test basketball team, with the score 21-10. The game started off at full speed, the Test men no doubt, wanting to regain a footing amongst the winners of the season. But the Westclox were ready, and only won because they were faster even than their opponents. C.G.E. did some wonderful passing up and down the floor, but it was unfortunate that Westclox were always ready at their own basket to intercept what might be a fatal pass. The game became wilder during the second half, and the energies of neither teams flagged out.

Kingston played the best game for Westclox, scoring 12 points. Wolstenholme followed with 6. Emery and Woodland did all the basket making for the Test Men, Emery, 6, and Woodland, 4.

Wesclox—Wolstenholme and Kingston, forwards; Kitchen, centre; Curry and McLeod, guards.

C.G.E. Test—Woodland and MacKenzie, forwards; Holgate, centre; Mahood and Emery, guards.

MACHINE SHOP APPRENTICES TAKE 3 TO 1 VICTORY FROM ARMATURE

Punch Press Continues Winning Ways By Blanking Office No. 2 Team 3-0.

GOOD AND BAD HOCKEY.

The Engineers, rebuilt entry in group one of the C. G. E. Inter-department Hockey League spilled the contents of the dope bucket on Saturday afternoon at the Brock Street Arena when they held the fast-stepping senior Toolmakers to a 3—3 decision in the feature battle of the four game program.

Anotner surprise was also registered when the Machine Shop apprentices skated the Armature Winders into the ground to stage a 3-1 victory while the Punch Press continued their winning spree blanking the Office No. 2 team 3—0. In the other game the Fractional Motors tied the Tool Room No. 2 team 1—1 by securing a fluke goal.

Prove Strong Opposition

The Engineers who defaulted their first game a week ago, when they were unable to ice a full team had added Ashmore, McCullough and Gibson from the Machine shop to their roster and thus were able to give the Toolmakers formidable opposition. This game was the most closely contested duel of the day and although the Toolmakers were handicapped by having to play without substitutes, they came very close to taking the decision. The Toolmakers took the offensive from the first face-off and before six minutes of play had elapsed were able to sink two counters on neat combination plays. Roy Epps playing at centre registered both counters. The Engineers failed to exhibit any teamwork in the initial period but Ashmore and Killoran looked dangerous on solo rushes.

The Engineers carried the fight to the Toolmakers in the second stanza and repeated thrusts by the Gibson-Ashmore-Killoran attacking line soon bagged a brace of goals to tie the score Hollingsworth, in the Tool Room nets made a strenuous effort to block the second goal, but Ashmore pushed the disc past him from directly in front of the net Dave McCullough on the defence for the Engineers battled his way almost to the Tool Room net on several occasions in lone rushes but failed to beat Hollingsworth. Dugan, put the Mechanics one up when he slapped a backhand shot at Jones from inside the Engineers blue line which bulged the twine. The Engineers had a good edge in play in this frame and missed numerous chances from close in, when Hollingsworth blocked shots from all angles The play ranged rapidly from end to end with both goalies performing brilliantly. Mickey Williams on right wing for the Mechanics unlimbered the most dangerous shots and combined well with Epps.

Tie Count In Third

The third period saw the Engineers pull up even with their opponents after four minutes of play. Killoran finding the net with a high shot from the wing on a pass from Ashmore. Connors and George Williams teamed up nice on the Tool Room defence while the latter did some clever rushing as his teammates tired in the final stanza, Jim Auld played a good game for the Engineers on defence with McCullough.

The teams:

Engineers—Goal, F. Jones; defence, J. Auld and McCullough; centre, Ashmore; wings, Killoran and Gibson, alternates, W. Auld and Fangay.

Tool Room—Goal, H. Hollingsworth; defence, G. Williams and Connors; centre, Epps; wings, A. Williams and Dugan.

Referee—A. Kenneally.

Penalties—A. Williams and McCullough.

Second Straight Defeat

The husky Armature Winding outfit were tendered their second consecutive defeat of the season on Saturday, when they tangled with the Machine Shop No. 2 team to take the small end of a 3—1 verdict.

The winners who are mostly apprentices skated their heavier opponents to a standstill, breaking in good formation and working in close for most of the shots. The game however was a close-checking affair and during the first period the Winders had the edge but failed to show a finished style around their opponents' net. Newson chalked up the first goal on a blule line shot which sifted over the goalie's stick, but Claire McGillen tied it up two minutes later on a pass from Moury and the second period ended 1 all.

The Winders met their Waterloo in the third when Clair McGillen intercepted a pass from his brother on the opposing side and outskated the entire team to score, putting the Machinists up one. Ridley added another shortly after, encircling the Winders' net to score from the corner.

Mowry, Ridley, McGillen and Reynolds starred for the winners, while Millard and Hambly were the best for the Winders.

The teams:

Armature Winding—Goal, Reader; defence, Calladine and Newson; center, Hambly; wings, Millard and Broodley; alternates, Menzies, Young, Bates and L. McGillen.

Machine Shop—Goal, Clarke; defense, Marchen and Clair McGillen; centre, Mowry; wings, Reynolds and Ridley; alternates, Roseborough, Davies.

Penalties—Mowry.

Outplay Office Team

The Punch Press outplayed the Office No. 2 team in every position to collect a 3-0 win and in the face of two consecutive wins look like the outstanding contenders for group honours. Only the remarkable goal tending by Jack Copping in the Office cage kept the Pen Pushers in the fight as the Punch Press forwards broke through repeatedly and backchecked their oppoents very effectively. When the Office players did get close enough to shoot, Black between the posts for the winners handled their efforts with ease.

The teams:

Punch Press—Goal, Black; defence, J. Ashmore and Darling; centre, Grierson; wings, Fee and Murphy; alternates, Pilling, Howorth and Rogers.

Office No. 2—Goal, Copping; defence, Cowling and Whaley; centre, Daniels; wings, Parsons and McDonald; alternates, Cheu, Jones, Townsend and Cheu.

Penalties—Whaley 2, Grierson, Fee.

The Fractional Motors and Tool Room No. 2 teams figured in the other game and hung up a 1-1 score. The Toolmakers lost the game on a fluke, the puck being deflected into the open side of the net off H. Griffin's stick.

Freddy Earle scored for the Mechanics, going in fast to net his own rebound off Bennett's pads. Hughes and Ridley were also good. Kearney and O'Brien stood out for the Motor Makers.

The teams:

Fractional Motors—Goal, Bennett; defence, Rainey and O'Brien; centre Kearney; wings, L. Hollingsworth and Hefferman; alternates, Stewart and Hall.

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Colorful as the heather, pungent as the yellow broom upon the hills and fragrant as the honeysuckle of the glens with its early morning dew, the Scottish comedy, "Marigold," booked to appear at the Grand for two days, commencing Tuesday, January 20, is a revelation of the characteristics which go to make up the much discussed Scotch character. From the broadminded, outspoken minister's wife to the reckless divinity student, each type serves to throw some enlightenment upon the mysterious Scots.

Founded upon the escapade of a simple, yet bonnie lassie, the comedy, "Marigold" grips the attention with its witty dialogue and contrasting characters. From but simple materials, the authors, L. Allen Harker and F. R. Pryer, have built up a play such as occurs but once in a decade, one that lingers fondly in the memory long after the play and players have gone. It was these elements which made it such a success in London, after the manuscript had been passed upon and declined by many experienced producers. That Simon Ord had the sagacity to foresee its popularity and the genius to produce, "Marigold," should earn him the acclaim of all real lovers of the stage.

With its original London cast, scenery and props, "Marigold," comes in a season which has been most disastrous to the legitimate stage. A show that would shine amidst all others, it stands out like a beacon in this dark time of sparse stage shows. As indications point to seats being booked with avidity, mail orders should be sent immediately for reservations.

AT THE GRAND

who has captured hearts from Montreal to Vancouver and back again in the title role of "Marigold," which will be presented at the Grand, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Jan. 20 and 21.

GALT TERRIERS LEAD NEW ONTARIO LOOP

League Executive Decides Against Farming of 'Honey' Kuntz to Stratford.

TORONTO, Ont., January 19 (C. P.). — Galt Terriers emerged victorious over the Guelph Maple Leafs in the battle of the league on Saturday, and now hold sole possession of first place in the Ontario Hockey League with a two-point margin over their rivals.

The largest crowd to attend a game in years packed the Galt Arena for the struggle which ended in the home club coming from behind to nose out the Leafs 2 to 1.

It was a thrilling game from start to finish, with sustained speed being the feature. Penalties were few the teams electing to play the puck instead of the man.

Three games are scheduled to-night. The league leaders entertain Oshawa, Guelph goes to Kitchener, and Stratford to Niagara Falls.

Kitchener has protested the signing of Dave Schneider, husky defenceman, by London Tecumsehs, and as the league is affiliated within the National circuit, it is expected Frank Calder will be asked for a final ruling on the case.

At a special meeting the league executive decided the Tecumsehs could not farm "Honey" Kuntz out with Stratford and has ordered him to return to the Forest City.

TOURNEY RESULTS.

The second week of the miniature golf tournament at the Putt-a-While Club saw some good score-cards handed in. Both the team average and the individual average were lower than those of the previous week. The standing for the week for four games, is:

Sugar Bowl	834
Lucky Four	847
R. Paris	852
Can. Packing Company	869
A. Brown & Son	887
Brinton Carpet	904
Can. Gen. Electric	929

For two games:

Jack Primeau	480
B. & B. Beverages	490
Riley & Hickey	499

The lowest individual prize score was 42, while the lowest team average for four games was 52.

Australia Wins From West Indies

BRISBANE, Australia, Jan. 19. — (C.P. Cable). — Despite a brilliant effort by H. Adley, who scored 102, not out, the West Indies first innings in the Test cricket match with Australia closed for 193 to-day. They were compelled to follow on, 365 runs behind, and at the close of play had scored only 115 runs for eight wickets, so that a single innings defeat appeared inevitable. The visitors were able to do little against the skilful bowling of Clarence Grimmett, Australia's great trundler, and Oxenham in their second innings, and wickets fell quickly. Grimmett took three wickets for 95, Ironmonger two for 43, and Oxenham four for 39 in West Indies' first innings.

DURBAN, South Africa, Jan. 19. — (C.P.). — The third Test cricket match between South Africa and England was resumed to-day, and on account of the lay-off on Saturday through rain and the slo wprogress in South Africa's first innings, a draw appears likely. South Africa, whose score was left when rain stopped play at four wickets for 59 on Friday, continued the batting to-day and raised the score to 177. Runs came very slowly in the fact of England's deadly bowling on a bad wicket. McMillan batted for an hour to get 21 runs, while Cameron consumed two hours in producing 41.

CAMPBELLFORD TO MEET SAINTS IN O. H. A. TILT

Mill Town Juniors to Clash With Group Leaders Tuesday Night.

AN OPEN BATTLE.

Both Teams Play Same Style of Hockey and Game Should Be Fast.

The St. John's team which has been playing colorful hockey in its last few engagements, will clash with Campbellford here on Tuesday night in what should prove to be a most interesting O.H.A. Junior clash. Like the Saints, the mill town team play an open style of hockey, and with fast ice assured the two teams should provide a nice exhibition of Canada's national game.

Campbellford have several smart performers in Lambert, Buck, and Hendry, who can move fast and who stickhandle cleverly, and the battle between these stars and Ellis Calladine, and Gardner, the Saints' outstanding players, will give the fans plenty of entertainment. The Saints are at present at the top of the heap, and need a victory to maintain their place there.

NO MORE HORSE-LAUGHS

REMEMBER what our school books taught us about the lives of inventors who lived many years ago? How often we used to read, "He went on with his experiments in spite of the laughter of his friends, and the ridicule of his neighbors."

How different is the modern state of mind! This age is remarkable for its keen awareness of progress . . . the eager willingness of most of us to accept new things, and better ways. The skeptical person is the exception—expectancy is the rule. If we read about an invention that will wash the middle of our backs, we say, "Fair enough; to-morrow there will be an automatic way to keep our noses powdered."

New things and better ways are announced regularly in this paper . . . in the advertisements. Every day you may be expecting something that will make your life easier, pleasanter, more healthful. Possibly a new electrical contrivance, or a car that's easier to drive, or a new idea in breakfast foods. Follow the advertising columns . . . and sooner or later you'll get the good news. People who make it a point to know what's going on read the advertisements every day.

SATISFACTORY REPORTS READ AT MILLBROOK W.M.A. MEETING

Seventy-six Members at Present on Roll of St. Andrew's Church Society.

GOOD FINANCIAL REPORT.

MILLBROOK, Jan. 19. (Examiner Correspondence.)—The executive of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of Saint Andrew's United Church was responsible for the initial meeting of the year, held in the church parlors on Wednesday, at 3 p.m., with the president, Mrs. (Rev.) W. W. Jones, in the chair, and over forty members and friends in attendance.

Following the opening worship period, the president gave her report covering in retrospect the old year 'with its failures and its undisputed successes,' and emphasizing the look ahead with widened vision to see a world crying out in need for our attention.

The retiring secretary, Mrs. C. W. Richards, gave the report for 1930, showing 76 members on the roll, 10 new names having been added during the year, one faithful helper, Mrs. Annie Kennedy, was lost through death. Twelve meetings were held, six in the homes, five in the church, and one, in conjunction with the Mission Circle, as a picnic at Wallace Point in July when Miss Viola Cardwell gave a most instructive talk on her work in Korea.

The group leaders had charge of eight meetings, with good programs, and the executive was responsible for four: the average attendance was forty-five. Mrs. J. McKnight was the delegate to the Presbyterial Rally at Campbellford; the World's Day of Prayer was observed in February with the members of the sister societies from the Presbyterian and the Anglican churches, the meeting having been in Saint Andrew's church. The annual bale had been prepared, valued at fifty dollars, and the annual public service at Easter, with the Mission Circle and Band, was held in connection with morning church worship.

Treasurer's Report.

Miss M. E. Hetherington, treasurer, presented a most satisfactory report showing a total of $375.00 remitted to Branch treasurer. The items were: Annual members, 77, fees $38.50; Thankofferings, Easter and Autumn, $186.10; Giving by envelopes, monthly, $75.24; Mite-boxes, $9.54; Other sources, $84.62. Total, $394.00; less expenses, $16.79, and balance in bank, $375.00.

The Auxiliary had been able to make a donation of $10.50 to the Mission Band, thus helping it to reach its allocation of $100; with the $100 raised by the Mission Circle, the allocation of $575 had been fully met.

Mrs. R. H. Edmunds, literature secretary, reported fourteen members taking the Missionary Monthly. The group leaders followed with their reports, showing money raised, attendance of members etc., and points gained.

An impressive installation ceremony for the newly-elected officers was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jones, following which the devotion leaflet, "The Lord's Prayer," was read by Mrs. Weston Fallis. A reading, 'First Things First," was given by Miss Burnham, and a silent prayer for the native Christians of Japan preceded the closing prayer by the pastor, and the repeating of the W.M.S. Watchword in unison.

The group leaders for 1931 included: Group A, Mrs. George Fallis; Group B, Mrs. H. Ross Edmunds; Group C, Mrs. O. Williamson; Group D, Mrs. T. H. Aiken; Group E, Mrs. J. Albert Brown; Group F, Miss Mary Widdis; Group G, Mrs. P. Stinson; Group H, Mrs. Jas. H. Might.

One new member, Mrs. Orval E. Kelly, was reported at Wednesday's meeting.

A BEDTIME STORY

By Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S FUNNY TELEPHONE

There was so much snow and ice in Woodland, where Uncle Wiggily lives in his hollow stump bungalow that, even after the sun had melted some of the big, white drifts, and the rabbit gentlemen had dug paths here and there, it was hard for his little bunny boys and girls to hop to school.

"Something will have to be done about this," said Mrs. Longears when Jingle Jangle, Baby Bunty and many of her other children came home from school one day with the sad news that they had been late.

"The Lady Mouse Teacher said she knew it wasn't our fault," Jingle explained to her mother," but we were late all the same."

"Only she didn't keep us in," said Baby Bunty. "And I thought that was sweet of her. Wasn't it, Unkie Wig?"

"Very sweet, my Baby Bunty," answered the old rabbit gentleman.

"Oh, dear!" sighed Mrs. Longears as she looked at the wet paws and damp clothes of her rabbit children. "Oh dear!"

"What's the matter?" asked her husband.

"I wish this bad, stormy weather was over," said Mrs. Longears. "It is so hard for the children to hop to the Hollow Stump School every day, over the ice and through the snow. Not only do they get their to classes late, which bothers the Lady Mouse Teacher, but they get their paws wet and will catch cold."

All of a sudden Buster, a boy rabbit sneezed: "Aker-choo!"

"There! What did I tell you!" cried Mrs. Longears. "Buster is already catching cold! He sneezed and pretty soon he'll have the snuffles and I'll be up with him all night! I wish the children didn't need to go to school when it's so cold and stormy."

"Please, Mother said Buster raising one paw. Then he happened to remember that he wasn't at school, but at home. However, his mother, who had once been a school teacher herself, saw his raised paw and asked: "What is it, Buster? You may speak."

"Please, Mother," said the little rabbit boy, "I didn't sneeze because I am catching cold."

"Why, then, did you sneeze ker choo?"

"I sneezed because Custer tickled me with a feather."

"Did you, Custer?"

"Yes, Mother, I did, if you please," Custer answered politely.

"Well it doesn't please me, my dear, to have you tickle Buster so that he sneezes and I think he is catching cold," spoke the rabbit lady. "So I wish you wouldn't."

"Do you mean, Mother," asked Buster politely, "that I am not to sneez and make you think I am catching cold, or don't you want Custer to tickle me."

"Both!" said Mrs. Longears. And then she went on before the boys could ask any more funny questions: "Speaking of colds and tickling, I would be very glad if there was some way so the children could study their lessons and recite to the Lady Mouse Teacher without going to school when the snow is deep or when the weather is to cold, rainy or stormy. But I suppose there is no way."

"Yes," said Uncle Wiggily, all of a sudden, "I think there is."

"What do you mean?" asked his wife.

"I mean," said the rabbit gentleman, "perhaps I can think of a way so that the children won't have to go to school when the weather is bad."

"Oh, good!" cried Baby Bunty and all the others.

"But they must not miss school!" said Mrs. Longears. "Even rabbit children must get an education and school is one of the best places for that. I can't have them staying home. The Lady Mouse Teacher would not like that."

"Neither would I," said Uncle Wiggily. "I want our children to learn as much as you want them to. And so I am going to fix up a plan by which they can stay home and, at the same time go to school."

"How, Daddicums?" asked all the little rabbit boys and girls. That is all except Baby Bunty and she asked:

"How, Unkie Wig," That was all the "baby talk" she had coming to her.

"Well, I'll fix it up a telephon between our bungalow here and the Hollow Stump School," said Mr. Longears.

"Oh, goodie!" cries all the bunny boys and girls, and Baby Bunty said: "Hurray for Unkie Wig's telephone."

HIKERS ENJOY JOLLY SOCIAL

Miss Marian O'Brian Hostess to Members of Millbrook C.G.I.T. Group.

PLEASING PROGRAM.

MILLBROOK, Jan. 19. (Examiner Correspondence.)—Mrs. W. A. O'Brian, and her daughter, Miss Marian, were hostesses for a delightful social gathering on Wednesday evening, when they entertained the members of the C.G.I.T. group at their home just east of the village, over twenty guests being welcomed as they arried in one big party, having enjoyed thoroughly the hike from the village to the hospitable residence of their president.

The large, warm rooms, cheerful with firelight and lamplight, were most attractive after the walk through the frosty air, the decorative scheme, carried out in crimson and green, in the runners for the tables, shades for the lights, and draping over the window curtains, adding yet another touch of brightness to the cosy interior.

A brief business session, with the president, and the leader, in charge, preceded the social features of the evening, arrangements being completed for the tea and candy sale which the group is sponsoring on Saturday, January 17, in Dr. H. A. Turner's store. The notice from the general secretary, Miss Jessie McPherson, that C.G.I.T. week will be held this year from February 8 to 15, also received attention, the intimation that the annual contribution to the National Girls' Work Board will then be due being left over for action at the next regular meeting.

A short talk by the leader on the motto for this year which the group has adopted, and prayer, closed this part of the evening, and all joined heartily in contests, community singing, and other entertainment that made the hours pass rapidly, the service of dainty refreshments by the hostess, and her daughter, bringing a very delightful gathering to its conclusion.

The hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. O'Brian, and Miss Marian, was moved by Miss Jean L. Burnham, seconded by Miss Phyllis Kidd, and endorsed by all with a hearty clapping of the hands.

As the guests gathered in the hall for final good-nights, the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," broke forth spontaneously, and happy laughter echoed from the driveway as the young people started on their homeward way.

The regular group meeting for next week is withdrawn owing to the initial gathering of the Mission Circle for the current year, which will be held at the home of the president, Miss Marjorie Sayles, on Tuesday evening.

WEDDINGS

ELLIOTT-BLODGETT.

ROSENEATH, Jan. 19.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Rev. R. W. Patoh, M.A., united in holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Mildred Blodgett third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blodgett of Roseneath to William Elliott, son of Mrs. William Elliott of Garden Hill.

The bride looked lovely in a gown of blue georgette and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. Miss Lottie Elliott, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and wore an attractive gown of pink georgette and carried a bouquet of forget-me-nots, narcissus and maidenhair fern.

The groom was attended by Mr. Cecil Blodgett, brother of the bride. The grooms gift to the bridesmaid was a white gold pendant and to the groomsman, white gold cuff links.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple left amidst a shower of confetti and good wishes, by motor to Toronto and other points west, the bride travelling in an autumn brown french crepe with shoes and hose to match and wearing a brown pressed plush coat with chic felt hat of brown.

THE OLD ARMCHAIR HIS ONLY AMBITION

But Wife Says "No!"

Wilkinson was a half-sick man—no energy—no desire to work—no ambition. But his wife was on the job—she told him the secret of how to attain that youthful feeling that makes life a joyous adventure. But let him tell the story.

"I owe you and Kruschen an apology. I used to smile at the clever ads. of Kruschen Salts, and have often remarked that it was no better than Epsom—but, being of rather heavy build, I used to get up in the morning with not the least appetite for work, wishing all the time that I could just sit in an armchair and sleep—but my wife one day saw some Kruschen Salts, and persuaded me to try it. The effect was a revelation. I never miss it, and am a real live man, mentally and physically—keen all day and every day. I have been taking it now for about 3 months, and must confess that had it not been for Kruschen I do not know how I should have got through the worry and drive of business. I owe it all to 'the little daily dose.'"

—L. Wilkinson.

If you have never tried this perfect blend of six natural mineral salts that keep liver, bowels and kidneys in superb healthy activity, you've got the surprise of your life coming.

Kruschen is different from all other salts. It brings to half-sick, worn-out men and women that glorious feeling of joyous health—and keeps them feeling that way.

A quarter of a teaspoonful in hot water every morning keeps you free from constipation, biliousness, headaches, over-acidity, rheumatism and even eczema. Millions the world over take it every morning to keep themselves in superb condition.

It's the little daily dose that does it. Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle.

LAKE MARINERS NEED PROTECTION CHURCH STATES

Guest Speaker Advocates Lapsing of Sailing Insurance Nov. 15.

NEED LIFE SAVING STATIONS.

Cairn Opposite Brockville Depicted as Memorial of Canada's Share.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 19.—"Sailing insurance on all Great Lakes vessels should be made to lapse on Nov. 15 each year," T. L. Church, K.C., told representatives of the Great Lakes sailors meeting here.

Mr. Church was the guest speaker at the annual convention of the Great Lakes Division of the Canadian Navigators' Federation and the National Association of Marine Engineers. His subject was the protection of the Canadian sailors.

"There is not sufficient legislation," Mr. Church said, "to protect labor on the lakes. The sailors who work in the lake boats need protection as to hours, wages and living conditions in lake vessels, and they need protection for their lives.

"A deaf ear has been turned," the speaker said, "to every demand for aid to sailors on the lakes. The politicians and the newspapers that talk loudest of 'Canada a nation,' 'Canadian status' and Canadian sovereignty have no help to give the brave sailors that are serving Canada on the lakes.

"As a protection to the men who must sail them, sailing insurance on all Great Lake boats should expire on Nov. 15th," the speaker said. He held that all shipping on the lakes should be under the Railway Commission as to regulations.

"One More Load."

There was need of a Samuel Plimsoll in the Canadian House of Commons to-day, Mr. Church said. Every season lake sailors were forced to face death and to perish in the Great Lakes storms of November and December as they brought "one more load" of grain down the lakes. Canada provided no laws to protect these men, no proper aid to navigation and no adequate life-saving establishment he stated.

"Canadian status," Mr. Church said. "Our Canadian lake vessels in distress sound their sirens for aid, and who comes to rescue them, if anybody does? An American lifeboat from an American life-saving station."

Such memorial cairns as the one lately raised near the scene of last June's dynamite boat disaster in the St. Lawrence were "solemn mockeries," Mr. Church said. "While conditions remain as they are, that cairn opposite Brockville is not a monument to the thirty brave men who perished in the drill-boat J. B. King; it is a memorial of Canada's shame."

Chief Among Chiefs

Chief among chiefs is Os-Ke Non-Ton, the Mohawk singer. His fathers before him were chiefs in Canada, but he stands high among the Redskins not only for his noble heritage but for his individual gifts. He spent his boyhood with his people on a reservation, became an expert with a canoe, and a guide for Pale Face travellers in the woods, and now lives to interpret in his own way the vanished life of the Indian. He will be heard singing his strange, thrilling Mohawk songs on Sunday, January 18th, when he appears before the microphone with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra during the Canadian National Railways' All-Canada Symphony Hour.

Rev. W. J. Bradbury Addresses Sunday School Teachers.

"There is one thing we need badly and that is a vision—a vision of the greatness of the work in which we are engaged," stated Rev. W. J. Bradbury, B.A., B.D., Field Secretary of the General Board of Religious Education, in the course of an inspiring address to a combined gathering of Sunday school teachers, in St. Luke's Parish Hall, yesterday afternoon.

Now he has a small tobacco stand in Smith and Freeman's barber shop and gets his rent free. Peter reports that business was "encouraging" last week which saw the undertaking launched.

FINES ARE GIVEN TORONTO MEN

Plead Guilty to Being Intoxicated and Causing Bodily Harm.

CHARGES REDUCED.

Lack of rancor on the part of a local Chinese kept a Toronto man, J. F. Pressley, 520 Jane street, and Clarence Berwick, of this city, out of jail on a serious charge to-day. The two men entered a cafe here Wednesday night and beat up the proprietor, causing him serious injury to his right eye. They pleaded guilty to being intoxicated and an assault occasioning bodily harm.

In the fracas, Pressley suffered a severe injury to his head when he fell against a refrigerator. Released from hospital to-day, he appeared in court with his head bandaged.

The Chinese must have considered that Pressley had suffered enough and that Berwick's stay in jail since Wednesday had been sufficient punishment, too; because he appeared in court, with eye caked in bandages and consented to have the charges reduced to common assault. Thus Berewick was merely fined $20 and $19 costs and Pressley only $15 and the same costs.

The beasts of Tarzan 78218781 36.5612
The wily Russian recalled the canoes his party had left, and now in one of them he glided swiftly down stream, intent upon catching up with Jane. Thus it happened that he came abreast of Tarzan. At sight of his enemy the broad scar upon the ape-man's brow burned scarlet, and there arose to his lips the hideous challenge of the bull-ape. Rokoff shuddered at the terrible cry.

Next he saw Tarzan run quickly to the river's edge. An instant later the ape-man dived fearlessly into the tropical river's forbidding waters. With steady, powerful strokes he forged out into the stream toward the drifting canoe. Rokoff's terror-wide eyes saw the living death coming closer and struck out madly with his paddles in an effort to speed up the unwieldly craft.

And from the opposite bank a sinister ripple, unseen by either man, moved steadily toward the half-naked swimmer. Tarzan had reached the stern of the craft at last. One hand upstretched grasped its side. Then a sudden commotion in the water behind the swimmer caught his attention. Rokoff saw the ripple and knew what caused it. And Tarzan felt mighty jaws close upon his right leg.

He tried to raise himself into the boat. But Rokoff, with a swift blow, struck Tarzan across the head with his heavy paddle. The ape-man's fingers slipped from their hold. There was a short struggle at the surface, a little eddy, and then only a burst of bubbles on the swirling current marked the spot where Tarzan of the Apes, Lord of the Jungle, disappeared from sight.

IN MEMORIAM

MEEKS—In loving memory of Mrs. F. Meeks, who died Jan. 19, 1930.
God knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew you never would get better
In this world again.

He saw the road was getting rough.
The hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, Peace be thine.

You left behind some aching hearts,
That loved you most sincere;
We never did, we never will Forget you, sister dear.
—Sadly missed by sister-in-law and brother-in-law.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEEKS.—In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Alice M. Meeks who passed away one year ago to-day, Jan. 19th, 1930:
What would I give her hand to hold,
Her dear sweet face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
That meant so much to me.

You left behind some aching hearts
That loved you most sincere,
We never have and never will Forget you, mother dear.
—Never One Day Forgotten By Daughter and Son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murray.

IN MEMORIAM.

CROMIE.—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Eileen, who departed this life one year ago, Jan. 17, 1930:
We are sad within our memory,
Lonely are our hearts to-day,
For the one we loved so dearly,
Has forever been called away.

We think of her in silence,
No eye can see us weep;
But many silent tears are shed
When others are asleep.
—Sadly Missed By Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

NEEDY FAMILIES COME TO EXAMINER FOR HELP—DEMAND IS STILL LARGE

Many Household Articles Would Be Gladly Received By Some Family.

FEW OVERCOATS ON HAND.

We have on hand in The Examiner office a number of men's coats which might be of use to someone.

Then we have a number of requests of different types. A woman would like a position as housekeeper or work by the day. She is in need of some work that will help to pay her board.

Another request is for work as domestic by a young girl whose family is in straitened circustances.

Then we could use several household necessities: A cupboard for dishes, strollers or baby carriages for two women who have no way of taking their children out for an airing; a table, a couch, a suit of clothes for a man of twenty-one years, sewing machines for two women; mats for a home whose floors are absolutely bare; curtains for the windows in the same home; a walker for a little baby in a house where there is no chance of getting such a thing in the ordinary way; a stand with drawers in which to place clothes; clothing and shoes for children, all the way from four to twelve years.

Little pants for boys are asked for so often, and we haven't any to give out.

And there is bedding. These cold days and nights are bringing people by the dozens who want bedding, quilts, pillows and sheets. Many of the homes are without even the semblance of a sheet. Crib sheets for babies would be acceptable also.

And there is always the question of food which is being asked for in constantly increasing quantities. If you have any of the above articles, or work for those who look for it, please telephone The Examiner and we will call for any articles.

constitution. No representatives of any sect in India will be excluded from these discussions, the Prime Minister said. He held out the olive branch to Mahatma Gandhi with the declaration that all elements that wished to participate would be allowed to do so.

Peel Makes His Plea.

As the Indian Round-Table Conference met to-day in final plenary session to hear the statement of British Government policy, Lord Peel, spokesman for the British Conservative delegates, closed the Conservative case with a strong plea for the British trader in India.

"I confess," Lord Peel said, "that I listened with surprise on Friday to the reservations made in some quarters against the complete equality of treatment which I understood it had been agreed on all hands should be awarded to the British traders and British trade in India.

"I just make it clear that our future attitude will depend upon such equality being accorded. I shall be obliged to withdraw what I say unless that condition is fulfilled. It must not be assumed that we consider that these constitutional difficulties and requirements are not capable of solution. If the safeguards can be made effective with care and goodwill, and if our practical problems are met in a workman-like spirit, as I believe they can," he impressively added, "then we shall not hesitate to accord our assent to a new constitution merely because it involves the transfer of new powers and responsibilities to the Indians."

Lord Peel declared the most outstanding fact of the conference was the great change in public opinion that had brought the conception of a Federal India from the realm of dreams into the state of reality. "We are no longer haunted by risks and dangers of two Indias, moving, perhaps, in different paths, Lord Peel said, referring to the expressed willingness of representatives of the native states to join in a Federated India.

Lord Reading, on behalf of the British Liberals, spoke of the idea of federation as having sprung into being at the conference and having thrown a brighter hue over the constitutional ppoblems.

Three Central Ideas

Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Hindu Moderate, who submitted the basis of the scheme of responsible government, defined the three central ideas which had emerged from the Conference as:

(1) An All-India Federation which has taken material shape "because of the patriotic attitude of the Indian Princes."

(2) Responsible Government, which from the point of view of British India was of the highest importance.

(3) That India must be prepared to defend herself.

Sir Tej was not alarmed over the safeguards contained in the scheme. "These safeguards," he added, "are really intended in the interests of responsible government that we are establishing at the centre, and not to strengthen the hands of English control over us."

Sir Tej was prepared for a great deal of doubt and skepticism in certain quarters, but there had not been any constitution in any of the Dominions to which exception had not been taken, he said. Sir Tej closed with an earnest appeal to Premier MacDonald to hold out the olive branch to India. "I do respectfully ask you for the release of political prisoners, for amnesty of those who have gone to jail for opinion from which you have differed, and from which many of us have differed, and which we consider to be deplorable," he said.

"Let a new era be established, and let the struggle of the last few months be forgotten," Sir Tej added. "Let the people approach the new task which now awaits them in a spirit of hope and good cheer."

The conference then unanimously adopted thre resolution submitted by Premier MacDonald at the opening of the final session on Friday last. The resolution should include provision for adequate safeguards for the "Moslems, depressed classes, Sikhs and all other important minorities."

Thus, as the conference generally paused for the final words from Prime Minister MacDonald, the path was swept clear towards unanimous action for establishment of the new India.

TACTICAL EXERCISES BY RANGER OFFICERS

Manoeuvres Practised on Port Hope Highway Near Springville.

Motorists yesterday on the Port Hope Highway must have thought they had run into another war when they saw soldiers taking up positions and doing a great deal of maneuvering around the Springville hill. But there was nothing to be alarmed about, it was only a tactical exercise by the officers of the Peterborough Rangers.

Thirty-six officers took part in the exercise which lasted all afternoon. The ground was reconnoitered a week ago, and yesterday the men motored out, and spent a very satisfactory time.

The army from Peterborough, represented by the officers, were supposed to take a defensive position against an invading army (imaginary) marching from Port Hope. This position was to be held until re-inforcements arrived several days later.

The Infantry and Machine Gun Company were set in strategical positions to guard Springville Hill which was the eyes of the artillery, while the Cavalry was sent down the road to harass and impede as much as possible the approaching enemy. The Cavalry did great work along this line, slowing the advance up from three miles an hour to less than one, thus giving the artillery more time to get set and to get the range. When the imaginary enemy reached the foot of the hill, the Infantry and Machine Gunners got into action, aided by flank attacks by the Cavelry, and the invaders were stopped, Major Whitelaw of Kingston, with two assistants, umpired the exercise, criticizing and debating the movements of the various units.

The officers gathered at the Armouries at eight o'clock in the evening and discussed the different phases of the afternoon's work. Major Whitelaw gave an interesting talk on their performance and complimented them on the efficiency shown. The plan for the exercise, entailing a great deal of planning and work, was drawn up by Major Winterbottom, and it proved satisfactory to all the officers.

British Parliament Re-Assembles

LONG STRUGGLE IS LIKELY TO END IN DISSOLUTION

native Vote Sure to Cause Great Deal of Trouble in House.

CONFLICT WITH LORDS.

Electoral Reform and the Alternatnve Vote Sure to Cause Controversy.

LONDON, January 20 (By George Hambleton, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Parliament re-assembled today with ceremony and in the mood for battle.

"Work for the triumph of our cause," Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin urges on his followers as he holds out the possibility of an early general election. A critical division is expected next week over the Trades Disputes Bill.

And signs multiply that whether the coming parliamentary struggle ends in dissolution or not, its story will be sharp. The House rose for the Christmas recess with a scarcely veiled threat of Liberal censure on unemployment. Rt. Hon. David Lloyd-George was not satisfied "We shall have to deal with it," he said warningly, "in a way which will enable us to take the opinion of the House." And since then unemployment has increased. The unemployed fund from which benefits are paid has run still more heavily into debt.

The fighting is most likely to turn on:

1—The Trades Disputes Bill

2—Electoral reform and the alternative vote.

3—Unemployment.

Conflict with House of Lords.

Coupled with [illegible] is the ever-present probability of conflict between the House of Lords and the Government. Both on the Coal Mines Bill and on extensions of the Dyestuffs Act, Labor yielded to the Lords' amendments under protest and with hints of subsequent issue at the polls. The Lords are expected to make some sweeping amendments to the Trades Disputes Bill and the Bill for the alternative vote.

"We know what position we have to face," says Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, Foreign Secretary, "and we mean to carry the Trades Disputes Bill to the statute book no matter what the Lords say about it."

The Trades Dispute Bill is down for second reading on Thursday. An indication of Conservative temper is shown by their demand for a three days' debate and their plain intimation that they intend to fight the bill every stage.

The chief provisions of the bill are:

(1)A new definition of what constitutes an illegal strike or lockout. (2) Contracting out of political contributions is substituted for contracting in. This means a return to the Act of 1913 which provides that a Trades Union member is exempted from liability to contribute to a political levy only if he gives notice of willingness to contribute. A Conservative Act of 1927 makes the liability to contribute contingent on the member having first expressed his willingness to contribute."

(3) Peaceful picketing to a certain extent is restored.

But while all these provisions will

HENDERSON RAPS MILITARY PACT

Britisher States France Has Most Extensive Alliances in Europe.

AT LEAGUE SESSION.

GENEVA, Jan. 20. (CP)—Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, British foreign secretary and chairman of the Council of the League of Nations, to-day denounced the system of military alliances, which has prevailed in Europe, in an address to the council.

He announced his belief that any alliance between members of the League would have to be subject to the covenant of the League.

"On behalf of my Government" he declared, "I say without hesitation that I know no alliance and can know no alliance except that of the covenant itself."

Of several nations called to mind by the utterance, France perhaps has the most extensive system of military alliances, having grouped herself with Belgium, Poland, Jugoslavia, Czechoslavakia and Rumania in defensive military agreements.

TIE VOTE CAST.

Trouble Believed to Have Started Over Publishing of Article Last Year.

LINDSAY, Jan. 20 (Special to The Examiner). — Lindsay's new Mayor-elect, Samuel Alcorn, last night set in motion a resolution that was carried in Finance Committee, whereby newspaper representatives are to be excluded from all committee meetings; as a result, there has been considerable comment on the street today of an uncomplimentary nature. Mayor Alcorn is a new man, not having had any previous municipal experience in Lindsay. It so happened that four members of the Council were absent when the motion came up. Ald. Jas. B. Begg, chairman of finance, was in the chair. When Mayor Alcorn made the motion there was considerable discussion, and Ald. R. I. Moore and Ald. George A. Weeks, both Colonels in the local regiment, decried the idea of excluding the press and the giving to the Deceased Former Member of Mining Brokerage Firm of Macdonald and McPherson.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20.—Ronald E. McPherson, well known Canadian rugby star, and former coach of the University of Toronto Intercollegiate rugby team, was found dead in his garage here to-day. Leo Bouchard, an examiner of the Commission, and Lionel Chartrand, clerk in the income tax division of the National Revenue Department, appeared in court this morning and were remanded a week, pending further developments and investigations by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. MALCOLM HUTCHEON WINS TROPHY FOR THIRD YEAR IN SUCCESSION Remarkable Performance Given By Contestants in Oratorical Contest.

A. BLACK WINS JUNIOR.

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 20.—Malcolm Hutcheon, for the third year in succession, and Arthur Black are respectively the senior and junior champion orators of the Campbellford High School, winning the honors before a crowded assembly hall last night in the annual oratorical contests. Hutcheon, in a masterly effort, sucessfully defended his title against a field of five other aspirants to win the Dr. O. C. Watson Cup for the third time, while in the junior competition Arthur Black had to defeat a similar number of rival speakers to earn possession of the J. C. Fowlds Trophy.

The performance of the twelve young orators was on the whole remarkable. From the moment young Black who was the first speaker of the evening, launched out into a glowing and patriotic eulogy of Canadian Nationality until Donald Moran, the final orator delivered a concise and well-prepared review of the history of aviation, the eleven boys and the one girl contestants were followed with a close attention that offered its own evidence of the effectiveness of the addresses. The majority of the competitors in both junior and senior events displayed unexpected poise and stage presence, an excellent delivery, and wise choice of material, and their showing was a credit alike to themselves and to the work of the Campbellford High School staff, headed by Principal E. H. Greig, B.A.

The judges were Rev. J. C. Robinson of the Campbellford Presbyterian Church; A. A. Martlin, B.A., of Brighton, Public School Inspector, and F. D. Craig, Editor of The Peterborough Examiner; their decisions being arrived at by ballot.

The six contestants in the junior competition and their subjects were: Arthur Black, "Canadian Nationality"; Edna Hutcheon and Paul Douglas, "Canadian Poets"; Angus Robertson and Donald Barnum, "Canada's Forests and Their Preservation," and Owen Hoey, "What Our School Owes to Us and What We Owe to Our School."

In addition to the Fowlds Trophy, which went to the first prize winner in this class, the High School Literary Society awarded book prizes to the first three contestants. The judges placed the winners in the following order:—

1—Arthur Black.
2—Owen Hoey.
3—Paul Douglas.

Russian Wheat Imports Increase in Britain

LONDON, Jan. 20 (C.P.) Cable).—Imports of Russian wheat to Great Britain substantially increased in December over November, said Rt. Hon. William Graham, President of the Board of Trade, replying to a questioner in Parliament to-day. The imports for November were 5,500,00 hundredweights, and for December 6,500,000 hundredweights.

A Conservative member called the Minister's attention to the fact that Russian wheat was selling on the London Corn Exchange at about fifty cents a bushel, a figure which represented an impossible production price for British farmers.

Guelph Men Hunt; 50 Bunnies Fall

GUELPH, Ont., Jan. 20.—More than 100 hunters joined in a two-mile frontal attack on jack rabbits in this district yesterday. J.J. TURNER HEADS BOARD OF HEALTH

1931 Appropriation Remains at $7,000, the Same as Last Year.

SMALL BALANCE IN 1930.

The 1931 appropriation of the local Board of Health remains the same as last year, $7,000. It was decided that that amount will be asked from the City Council to carry on the operation of the Queen Mary Hospital. Last year, besides the appropriation, about $1,000 was collected in fees. This left a balance on the year's operations of slightly more than $100.

J. J. Turner was re-elected chairman of the board, and Dr. J. M. O'Brien succeeds Alderman Daniel Holland as a member.

Dr. T. W. H. Young, M.O.H., reported that tests of the milk being delivered in the city were most favorable, all the milk being of high grade and only two containing a slight amount of dust.

Sanitary Inspector Charles Stapleton reported that not since the beginning of December has there been a contagious disease in the city. There are two cases of scarlet fever now in Queen Mary Hospital, but both are from outside points. Authority was given the Sanitary Inspector to have 500 notices printed to inform residents in the new garbage area of the time and methods of garbage collection.

C. Spereman today. Following evidence by E. C. Carr and W. J. Chalk, Thornbury and Clarksburg merchants, and Provincial Constable Cook, the hearing was adjourned until later in the day. Both merchants identified some of the goods found as coming from their stores but declined to state Bell had stolen them.

Liberal, Labor and Conservative organs alike, with only scattered exceptions, praised the Prime Minister for his most careful review of the highly important steps that may be undertaken.

Scene Shifts To India

The scene shifts to India. The British Government pledges its support to the scheme for responsible self-Government formulated by the Indian Conference, but the British Government refused to interfere in the matter of settling the vexing communal disputes. Premier Macdonald stressed yesterday that it is up to the Indians themselves to decide the measure of representation to be accorded each community in the new Federal Parliament.

Further consultations will be opened in India and any section of population that desires to participate will be allowed to do so. Reports from India today indicated the Na-

King Loses Friend As Sir C. Cust Dies

LONDON, Jan 20.—(A.P.)— The King lost one of his best friends in the death yesterday of Sir Charles Cust, equerry to His Majesty since 1892.

The two were old shipmates, having been naval cadets together and aboard the same ship several times during the King's period of naval service. In the forty years that Sir Charles has served as equerry to the King their association has been very close.

As Sir Charles was a bachelor, his baronetcy becomes extinct.

U.S. Buys Ottawa Land To Erect Chancery

The negotiations for a strip of land adjoining the two lots already owned by the United States on Wellington Street opposite the Parliament Buildings were opened when the architect for the building suggested additional property would furnish better light and permit the construction of a building which would serve for many years beyond that contemplated for the smaller property.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan 20 (By Ken Clark, C.P. Staff Correspondent) —Refusal by the Canadian Government of clearance for cargoes of liquor bound for the United States has not resulted in cutting off supplies of Canadian liquor in this country, according to the report of President Hoover's Commission on law observance and enforcement, made public to-day.

"It would be a mistake to assume," the Commissioners declare, "that the cutting off of clearances of liquor from Canada to the United States has achieved its helpful intention. Continual increase in Canadian production with no corresponding increase of Canadian consumption, indicates the contrary."

Quiet at Detroit

Commenting on smuggling across the border at Detroit, however, the Commissioners note, "it is recognized that this particular situation has been greatly changed by the friendly action of the Canadian Government in enacting the law effective July 1, 1930, prohibiting the declaration of withdrawals of liquor for direct export to the United States." The report points out the recent drive by enforcement authorities at Detroit. But there is evidence that the real effect was to change the locus of smuggling. The figures as to decreased declarations at Detroit are impressive until one observes the deficiencies were more than made up by increases at other points in the long and difficult river boundary between Lake Huron and Lake Erie."

Importation of liquor to the United States, the report says, is chiefly from Canada, both directly and indirectly since Canada is a large producer and is exceptionally convenient by proximity and geographical conditions and conditions of transportation as a base for smuggling operations."

St. Pierre-Miquelon have been growing rapidly in importance as bases for liquor both from Canada and France.

"Smuggling of liquor by land is by rail and motor, mostly from Canada. Smuggling by rail takes place chiefly by concealment in or mixing with legitimate freight coming into the United States."

"Smuggling by air is shown to have been carried on in widely distance sections during the present year. It is not unlikely to increase."

"Whisky, either directly or indirectly from Canada, forms the bulk of illicit importation."

What the Figures Show

The Commissioners assert estimates of imports based on declarations of Canadian exports to the United States prior to the recent action of the Canadian Government are fallacious. For in three years prior to 1929 when re-exports of whisky, all of which but a few gallons had come to the United States,

Poll Taxes Unpaid; 6 Appear in Court

Despite the stories of hard times, it was found in police court this morning that all but a half dozen of the more than 100 poll tax delinquents had paid their tax rather than make an appearance before the magistrate Tax Collector Green had summones sent out last week and all but six came through with $5.

These six pleaded guilty, but stated that they were out of work and could not pay. Two were married. The cases were adjourned for a month to give them a further opportunity to raise the amount of the tax. Jobs will likely be secured for them on the city's unemployment relief gangs.

British Army Short 10,080 Men, Officers

LONDON, Jan 20.—(C. P. Cable) — The net shortage in the regular army, including the British Army in India on Jan. 1 was approximately 380 officers and 9,700 other ranks, said Rt. Hon. Thom Shaw, War Minister, answering a question in Parliament today. There was no difficulty in getting men to offer their services, he added. The trouble was that half the would-be recruits proved physically unfit. There were many reasons for the shortage of officers, he said, one of which was that not enough people were prepared to go into the army as officers for patriotic reasons.

PLANS FOR SILVER LOAN FROM U.S. RUMORED UNDER WAY IN SHANGHAI

Legislative Yuan Chairman Claims Money Be Utilized to Develop Industry.

CREATES STIR IN NANKING.

SHANGHAI, January 20 (C.P.). —Although ministers of the Nationalist Government refused to deny or confirm them, reports circulated about the capital to-day that negotiations were under way seeking a United States silver loan to China.

The loan, the report said would be for 50 years, and would be approximately 200,000,000 ounces of silver. Interest would be at two per cent.

The purpose of the loan, it was said, would be solely for Chinese domestic and economic development. The vernacular press stated the project was likely to be revealed in Washington within a week.

SENSATION IN NANKING.

NANKING, China, January 20. — An unqualified declaration by Hu Han Min, chairman of the Legislative Yuan, and one of the most influential members of the Government, in favor of a United States silver loan to China, has caused a sensation in financial circles here.

Hu Han Min stated that a silver loan could be utilised to develop industry and complete a program of construction for the railways and highways, in addition to reorganizing the monetary system. He added that the opposition of certain Chinese officials to the loan was entirely unjustified.

WOODMEN TRAIL LOST SCHOOL BOY

Last Note Written By Lad Stated He Was Starting. Back For Coupe.

Only Had Week's Supplies.

VICTORIA, B.C., Jan. 20.—"Have failed to get through to Fort McLeod, and run entirely out of food. Am going back. A list of supplies taken by me is here. My feet and finger tips are frost bitten. I have abandoned my horse," so runs a brief message dated on Nov. 15, written by John Noel Patch Bennett, 18-year-old British school boy, who set out against all advice to make his way from Pouce Coupe, in the Peace River district, to Fort McLeod on October 14 last. The plight of the youth is believed serious, as he had only one week's stores, obtained from a trapper's cabin before setting back on his trail.

The note is one of many found by a party of three men sent out from Pouce Coupe on December 19, at the request of the Imperial Bank of Grand Prairie, acting on London advices. Ted Strand, a trapper named Kelly, and another named Sunderland, all experienced woodsmen, were in the part that followed Bennett's trail. They arrived at Prince George to-day, according to advices received here by the Provincial Police from Inspector W. E. Shiller over the police wireless system.

WITTY REPARTEE AMUSES TORIES AT ALBANY CLUB

Bennett Jokingly Reminds New Commissioner of Sackville-West Episode.

FERGUSON COMING BACK.

Ex-Premier States He is Going to Direct Operations From Centre of Stage Not the Wings.

TORONTO, Ont., January 20 (C.P.). — Humorous repartee between Premier R. B. Bennett and Hon. H. Howard Ferguson, Canada's new High Commissioner to the United Kingdom, proved highly amusing to more than 300 prominent Conservatives who gathered here last night for the official opening of the remodelled Albany Club by the Canadian Prime Minister.

Mr. Bennett had been speaking only a few minutes when he referred to some recent speeches of the former Provincial Premier. "If he does not make a better speech to-night than some of those he made in the last few weeks," proceeded Mr. Bennett, turning smilingly toward the High Commissioner, "remember what happened to Sackville-West."

Lionel Sackville-West was British Ambassador at Washington from 1881 to 1888, and, according to recorded history, "his retirement was due to an unfortunate interference in American domestic politics, or what was taken as such, which caused some stir."

The audience rocked with laughter after this sally and they were equally amused when Mr. Ferguson, following Premier George S. Henry, replied in equally humorous vein.

"I think I said to my friends over and over again that I am coming back to Canada" said Mr. Ferguson. 'The Prime Minister has given that assurance himself, and I will be back soonor or later—probably sooner.

"I do not belong to that generation which is getting off the stage. I am just getting on the stage. After directing operations from the wings I am going to be right in the centre and I do not know how I am going to get along at it and I am taking the precaution not to sell or dismantle my house, but just turn the key in it. I am just taking a suitcase with me and will do what I can, despite restrictions put upon me, to forward the interests of Canada and the Empire in the Old Land."

All the speakers eulogised the Albany Club which was founded fifty years ago by Sir John A. MacDonald. Premier Bennett referred to it as the "cradle of the party."

McBride Gains 8 Votes 9,000 Yet To Count

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20. — After fluctuating several times the total gain of Sam McBride in the Toronto mayoralty recount wound up yesterday at eight. At one time Mayor William J. Stewart had increased his original majority of 313 by one vote, but later subdivisions eked out the gain for Mr. McBride.

Approximately 9,000 votes remain to be checked and the recount is expected to finish today. Deputy Returning Officers and Pole Clerks from sub-divisions one and 101 in ward eight are scheduled to appear before Judge Daniel O'Connor for questioning in connection with errors of 44 votes and 22 respectively. Judge O'Connell is conducting the recount.

Muskrat Aristocrat Resides In Comfort

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Jan. 20.—When a muskrat entered the cellar of Duncan Fremlin, a prominent farmer of Bar River, it started something. The rodent came up a drain which Fremlin had built from the cellar to an adjoining field, and for the past three month has lived upon choice vegetables which the owner of the house had stored there for his own use. It has built a huge nest near the pipe-line. The law forbids Fremlin to molest the animal while it lives on the fat of the land as represented by the produce of one of the finest of Algoma farms. In the Soo yesterday, the farmer was seeking redress.

NARCOTIC TRADE WORRIES LEAGUE

Some Countries May Be Accused of Not Filling Obligations, Opium Board Head Says.

COUNCIL'S 62ND SESSION.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 20—Facing the important matters of fixing a date for a disarmament conference and arbitrating the German-Polish minorite differences, the League of Nations council convening for its 62nd session yesterday, turned first to the irritating trouble of narcotic traffic.

Illicit trade in habit-forming drugs is continuing on an enormous scale, Leonard Lyall, head of the League's Central Opium Board, told the delegates, and thus far the efforts of the League to stop it have failed.

"Narcotic seizures in the United States and other countries no longer are counted by the ounce but by hundred weight," he said. "Under these circumstances it may be necessary for the opium board to denounce countries in danger of becoming centres of this illicit traffic. In other words it may be necessary to accuse such countries of not fulfilling their obligations under the opium convention."

In that event, he pointed out, the matter would come before the League Council.

"If you are to sit in judgment," he said, "you will agree that it is first necessary that you yourselves should fulfil your obligations under that convention."

His declaration had a marked impression and was interpreted as a warning that certain members of the council should clean house in the matter of illicit narcotic traffic.

U. S. Making Survey Of Slide at Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., January 20 (C.P.). — New York State Reservation engineers are making an accurate survey of the damage caused to the American Falls by the break in the lip. While no statement was issued, it is understood that further and more extensive breaks are feared. The precipice over which the falls pours is known to be extensively undermined, and three is a great crack which extends to prospect Point, at the edge, for a distance of 100 feet upstream. To-day careful inspection will be made of the whole shelf.

KICK FROM HORSE IS FATAL

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Jan. 20.—Dorwin W. Valleau, 69, prominent cattle breeder of Prince Edward County, was killed yesterday when kicked on the head by a horse. No one was with him at the time of the accident and he had been dead for some hours when discovered by his wife.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, and three sons.

INDIA REGARDS WITH DISFAVOR NEW PROPOSALS

Nationalist Press Sees Safeguards For Britain as Principal Element.

MASSES DISAPPOINTED.

Claim No Other Dominion Would Accept Similar Constitution.

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 20.—(A.P.)—Widespread criticism was heard in Indian Nationalist quarters to-day of the scheme of Federal India evolved at the London Round Table Conference, and the British Government's proffer of an eventual qualified Dominion status.

The Bombay Chronicle, principal Nationalist organ, commenting today upon the statement of British policy by Premier Ramsay MacDonald in closing the conference yesterday, said:

"As far as one can see in the wilderness of MacDonald's glib phrases is that the Labor Government intends to impose upon this country a system of a camouflaged self government in which the safeguards for Britain are the principal element and the bestowal of genuine responsibility upon the Indian people a minor item.

"There will be responsibility at the centre of a type which no Dominion in the British Empire would have accepted for a moment, a responsibility irritatingly reserved and in which the will of the Legislature will count for nothing when some important items of state are concerned. Would Canada or South Africa have accepted such 'Dominion' constitution?

Will Cut No Ice.

"Mr. MacDonald's pompous declaration of what his Government means to do in shaping a measure for the grant of further political advance in India will cut no ice in this country." Under the heading, "Words, words, words," the paper asked if the Premier was teaching Sunday school or was talking to a set of responsible men for India when he made the final conference speech.

Shankarlal Bankar, one of Mahatma Gandhi's right hand men said: "If the Premier had nothing more to offer the Indian people at this juncture than such a feeble empty speech it would have been far better if he had said nothing at all because the people of India would then have remained calm, patiently awaiting the outcome of the present negotiations and discussions. His speech, barren as it is of any concrete pledge of genuine self government will fill the masses with disappointment and disgust and lead only to further unrest.

GIRL AVENGES FATHER'S DEATH

Shoots Parent's Slayer in Courtroom as Jury About to Retire With Case.

FIRES FOUR SHOTS.

DEWITT, Ark., Jan. 20.—A seventeen-year-old girl shot to death a man, on trial for the slaying of her father in a crowded court room here last night, as the jury was ready to retire with the case.

The girl, Mrs. Helen Spence Eaon, sat on the front seat in the court room throughout the day, listening to the trial of Jack Worls, aged 30, charged with killing her father, Ciceri Spence, and throwing his body into the White River.

When the jury was ready to take the case, the girl leaped from her seat, drew an automatic pistol she had concealed in her clothing, and fired four shots into Worls' body.

He died 15 minutes later.

Sheriff's deputies who were in the courtroom at the time, took her into custody.

Macaulay And Stewart To Confer On Don Jail

TORONTO, Ont., January 20 (C.P.).— Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Provincial Secretary for Ontario, will confer with Mayor William J. Stewart and the Toronto Board of Control on Friday regarding conditions at the Don Jail.

This arrangement was reached when Mr. Macaulay called at Mayor Stewart's office yesterday to discuss the disturbance at the jail on Saturday night.

Mayor Stewart announced after the meeting that the views of both sides had been plainly stated. The Mayor contends the condition of the building had nothing to do with the disturbance at the jail, while Mr Macaulay blames lack of sanitary facilities for the trouble.

THOMAS MILLS ROTARY GUEST

Gives Campbellford Club Interesting Description of Early Life of Town.

CLUB INCREASED BY FOUR.

(By Examiner Staff Correspondent)

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 20.—Featuring the weekly luncheon of the Campbellford Rotary Club, held on Monday in the St. Lawrence Hotel, four new members were welcomed to the organization by the president, H. N. Carr, who occupied the chair for the meeting. The new Rotarians were: C. J. Windrim, J. R. Smith, S. H. Neale and Ray Connor.

In extending welcome to the newly admitted members, President Carr outlined to them the history and object of Rotary. Telling them of the formation of the Rotary idea which started with Paul Harris in Chicago, with the first lunch on February 23, 1905. He explained to them the expansion of the organization since that time, and organization which now numbered 155,000 and was to be found in many countries of the world and to which had been added in the past two years 380 new branches. He also read to them the six objects of Rotary, explaining the points as he went along.

Old Town Boy

The speaker for the day was an old Campbellford boy, Thomas Mills, who in a very able and interesting manner told the club many things of interest connected with the town in the early days of its history. Now a resident of Galt, the speaker saw great advances in the town since the early days, and also many new faces.

Campbellford got its name, so Mr. Mills declared, from the late Major Campbell, and the fact that at this point on the Trent River, the farmers used to ford the water. Combining the two, Campbellford was evolved. The speaker himself came to the town in 1880, the year the old Woollen Mills were in bourse of construction. His recollection is that at the opposite corner from the mills Dr. Goldsmith of Warkworth operated a drug store. The Frederick block and the Ogilvery buildings were then a going concern.

At this time the station was west of the town with the railroad crossing the river north of the present bridge. The old railway bridge was sadly missed by the local lovers of fishing when it was demolished.

Mr. Mills also gave a graphic description of the river drives that came through the town and the excitement they caused.

There was never much boating on the river in the old days, owing perhaps to the swift current, and the speaker recalled a gallant attempt by Walter Cummings to rescue two ladies who were upset from their boat while trying to land on the log boom, one, a Miss Shephard, being saved.

Many changes were also noted by the speaker on the east side of the river. One of these was the fact that in place of four hotels, there was now only one. The St. Lawrence now survives while the old Queens, Dominion and Gill's were just memories.

Mr Mills also payed a great tribute to the teachers, doctors and ministers who had left their mark on the community and whose influence was still felt. And he was also glad to know that some of the old families who had all helped to mould the character of the town, the Bedford's, Bonnycastles, Watters, West's, Free's, Denmark's, Dinwiddie's and Smith's, were still represented by the younger generation, and in conclusion the cherished memory of the late C. L. Owens one time Conservative member for the riding.

DAUGHTERS HURT ON WAY TO VISIT INJURED FATHER

Mother of Three Hamilton Victims Killed in Crash Christmas Day.

DRIVER'S SKULL FRACTURED

Light Car Smashes Into Heavy Trailer on Hamilton Highway Near Burlington.

HAMILTON, Ont., January 20 (C.P.). — Three girls and one man were seriously injured in a motor accident on the highway between here and Toronto last night. The injured are Audrey Walsh, 18, and her sisters Dorothy 16, and Norma 10, and L. Foster, driver of the machine.

Foster was driving the girls to Toronto to visit their father, who has been lying in a hospital there since Christmas Day when he was severely hurt in a motor crash in which Mrs. Walsh was killed.

None Escape Injuries.

Audrey suffered a fractured skull, as did Foster. Norma was less seriously hurt, but Dorothy's condition is considered grave. She is suffering from a severe shaking up, shock, and possible internal injuries.

The machine, driven by Foster smashed into a transport trailer which skidded out on the icy highway just as he attempted to pass three parked trucks.

Traffic Constable A. R. Smith of Burlington, was at the scene of the accident a few minutes after the crash, and conducted a thorough investigation.

Local Hunter Bags Big Timber Wolves

Two female timber wolves, each nearly seven feet in length have been trapped by Stewart Murphy of Clarina P.O., in the woods at the head of Stoney Lake. It is estimated that at least fifty deer would be saved by the timely killing of the wolves, as they would litter which would accessdate the feeding of many cubs. Mr. Murphy has caught three other wolves this year so far, but there are many left in the same vicinity.

The Government gives a bounty of $25.00 each and the fur dealer will allow about $8.00 for each pelt.

Mr. Murphy is a well known hunter and trapper, and patrols the country from the Blue Mountains to Koshanabog Lake.

BRANDON COUPLE 50 YEARS WED

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Milburn Were Married in Peterborough January 12. 1881.

BRANDON, Man., Jan. 20.—About forty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Milburn gathered at their home recently to congratulate them and offer good wishes upon the occasion of the golden wedding anniversary of their marriage. The wedding took place fifty years ago, January 12, 1881, at Peterborough, Ont., at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. A. Mann, with the bride's five sisters in attendance. A happy feature of the celebration was the presence of four of the bridesmaids, the Mesdames Turnbull, of this city. Another interesting note was that Mrs. Milburn wore her wedding gown of fifty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Milburn are pioneers of the Hartney district, coming west in 1889 and retiring to Brandon in 1921. They were the recipients of souvenirs in gold by which to mark a very happy event.

TOURIST TELLS OF ROCK SLIDE

Toronto Man Claims To Be Sole Observer of Change in Niagara's Rim.

FELL IN TWO SECTIONS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20—Harry Ward, of 1133 College street, Toronto, has revealed himself as the solitary tourist who, standing on the Canadian side of Niagara Falls early Sunday morning, saw, heard and felt the epochal rockslide which made the first instantaneous major change in the cataract's rim for a century or more.

R. Ward, fixes the time at 5.15 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. He was looking at the falls on the United States side, he says, when there was an unusual cloud of spray. Then while the whole locality shook as in an earthquake there was a long rumbling and the two huge chunks of rock chipped off the rim and crashed into the lower river. There through the spray and mist they took shape as a new mountain of rock at the bottom of the falls.

Mr. Ward said only a few seconds elapsed between the two slides.

FIRE RAZES HOME FAMILY PERISHES

Firemen Breaking Into Bedroom Find Father, Mother and Two Children Suffocated.

AT MAIDSTONE.

MAIDSTONE, Eng., Jan. 20 (C.P.).—A family of four—father, mother and two children—was wiped out in a bedroom over a shop which burned here early to-day.

Soldiers from a nearby barracks discovered the fire and made frantic efforts to get into the shop but were prevented by the fierceness of the flames. When the firemen finally succeeded in getting to the bedroom they found the four suffocated.

The position of the bodies indicated that the father and mother made an effort to escape, but the children apparently were overcome by the heat and smoke as they slept.

Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or grey hair and make it soft and glossy. Orlex will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

Mr. Bruce was not brought into the hospital uptil Thursday last, and was placed under the care of Dr. George S. Stobie of this city. Mr. Bruce had been a resident of Bancroft all his life and was a farmer. He was a member of the Anglican Church and a Conservative. Gas in the Stomach Is Truly Dangerous

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic Gastritis and dangerous Ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the Heart.

It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial digestive aids that cannot neutralize the stomach acid. A better way is to get from your druggist some Bisurated Magnesia (powder or tablets) and take a little after each meal. This famous but simple and inexpensive stomach sweetener and anti-acid can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most instances, relief comes instantly! Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bisurated Magnesia does give wonderful relief in nine out of ten cases. Ask your Doctor or Druggist.

MALCOLM HUTCHEON WINS TROPHY FOR THIRD YEAR IN SUCCESSION

Arthur Black, the trophy winner, delivered a ten minute oration in which he was never at a loss for a word. His was a big subject, "Canadian Nationality," but he handled it with suprising ease, giving an effective summary of the development of Canada from a small colony into the status of a nation, yet maintaining her allegiance to the British Commonwealth. The young ortator's grasp of his subject and the eloquence of his presentation earned him first place against keen competition.

Owen Hoey, second place winner, elected to discuss a subject close to the hearts of the majority of his audience, "What Our School Owes to Us and What We Owe to Our School," and he made a deal out of it, not only through effective delivery but through evident careful preparation and a keen appreciation of the advantages and responsibilities of our modern system of education. His summing up of the duty owed by the school pupil to the institution that fitted him for life's battles was very impressive.

The third prize winner, Paul Douglas, the possessor of a pleasing voice and style, discoursed eloquently on the subject of "Canadian Poets," confining his effort to three outstanding writers, Dr. Drummond, Robert W. Service, and Pauline Johnston, the Indian poetess, and the young ortators' brief word picture of the trio was an able, thoughtful and convincing presentation.

The other three contestants in the junior class gave an excellent account of themselves. Miss Hutcheon, the only girl entrant of the evening, covered the whole field of Canadian poetry in her address and gave point to it by splendid readings of poems by Service, Drummond, Jahn McCrea and other of the Dominion's writers of verse.

Donald Barnum and Angus Robertson both spoke on the same subject: "Canadian Forests and Their Preservation,' a topic not so spectacular or picturesque as some of the others, and yet very well handled by the two young speakers, both of whom had evidently done a considerable amount of research to prepare the statistics in regard to Canada's forest wealth that they used so effectively.

The Senior Contest.

Malcolm Hutcheon, in repeating his triumph of the previous two years in the senior competition, scored a distinct triumph in his address upon "Canadianization: What It Is and How Best to Achieve It." He spoke with a clearness of enunciation, a force and a flow of eloquence that were surprising in so young an orator, and his summary of the desirability of making good Canadians out of our new citizens, and of the factors, the home, the school, and the church that must enter into such a process was a masterpiece.

In this contest as in the junior event book prizes were presented for the first three places.

Second prize went to Frank O'Sullivan, who, speaking on the subject "A Canadian Statesman," chose Sir Wilfrid Laurier as his topic. His presentation was a clean-cut, concise, and accurate story of the life of the great French-Canadian statesman, the young speaker making a wise choice of material and marshalling his facts in a manner that left little to be desired.

"Aviation" was the interesting subject dealt with by Donald Moran, winner of the third prize who sketched the early history of flying, described crisply and well the outstanding efforts of aviators, paid a tribute to the work of airmen in developing Canada's north land, and terminated a fine effort with a brief story of what has been done in the realm of lighter-than-air machines.

Two of the other three competitors in the senior class, George Armstrong and Bernard Crossan, discussed a new, up-to-the-minute subject, "The Riddle of Unemployment and Its Possible Solution." The former had some original ideas on the subject, and among his suggestions aimed at improving the situation that married women should not be allowed to work outside their homes and that bachelors should be taxed. While he put much of the blame for the current depression upon Russia., Bernard Crosson, in dealing with the same subject, held that the United States had also played a part in bringing about present conditions.

The other senior competitor, Mervin Malcolm, who like the second prize-winner chose to speak on "A Canadian Statesman," took as his hero Sir John A. Macdonald, and contributed an interesting sketch of the life and personality of that revered Premier.

The decision of the judges was announced by A. A. Martin, B.A., who warmly congratulated not only the winners but every contestant upon a fine performance.

Dr. O. C. Watson, of the Campbellford Board of Education, and donor of the cup for the senior championship, presented the prizes. In doing so, he announced that while the Watson Cup was the property of the school and could not be won outright, he had decided to recognize the fine exploit of Malcolm Hutcheon in winning the senior contest three times in succession by presenting him with an individual trophy.

Jack Bygott, president of the High School Literary Society, and son of Mayor J. M. Bygott, made a very efficient chairman of the meeting A twelve-piece school orchestra contributed some very enjoyable numbers during the evening.

The crowded hall testified to the popularity the annual oratorical contests have obtained, and it is possible that next year, in order to give everybody a chance to attend, the suggestion of Dr. Watson that the contests be spread over two nights may have to be followed.

JUVENILE LEAGUE OPENS IN LAKEFIELD

Grove No. 1 Team Battles With Junior Colts to 2-all Tie.

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 20. (Examiner Correspondence). — The juvenile hockey league got away on Saturday morning when The Grove No. 1 team met the Junior Colts which resulted in a tie, with a score of 2-2. It was a snappy game, combination play and speed, making a remarkably good exhibition. K. A. Mackenzie efficiently filled the role of referee. The juvenile league is a fixture for boys of fifteen years and under and finished well last seasons with the Colts for the second year holding the Mackenzie Cup.

On Saturday next The Grove No. 2 team play the Chaplin Cubs at 11 a.m.

Harris played a very strong game for The Grove in goal and is a promising player. The Grove team was well balanced and played a a combination which made the path to their goal a tough one for the Colts who also had a strong team. Their goalie, Loyst, was a real star and saved the day over and over. Hill, one of the Colt subs, showed distinct promise, proving the virtue of heredity in hockey as in other things.

The line-up was as follows:

Junior Colts		The Grove No. 1
Stewart Loyst	goal	Harris
Vivian Payne	r. defence	Gunn 1
Joe Blewett	l. defence	Warren
Robert Chittick	centre	Anderson
Geo. Chappell	r. wing	Carter
Percy Payne	l. wing	Newcombe
Sherman Hill	sub.	Strickland
Harry Jewell	sub.	Findlay
Robert Lennox	sub.
Charlie Tanner	sub.

Hockey is in full swing and the season promises well in spite of the mild weather which makes the ice a bit soft. The juvenile league, which is under the wise guidance of Messrs. T. W. Chaplin and K. A. Mackenzie, got away to a good start on Saturday morning with plenty of local interest. On Monday evening The Grove play T.C.S. of Port Hope and on Tuesday night the Intermediates and Cognawagas clash, while on Wednesday afternoon The Grove play a team of Public and High school boys. The juvenile league will continue on Saturday.

Man is Believed to Have Lived In America at Least 20,000 Years Ago

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19—(CP)—Proof has been found that man lived in the southwestern America 20,000 years ago.

Dr. James A. B. Scherer, director of the Southwest Museum, said today that the first sure proof of a dawn age man's existence on this continent had been uncovered with human bones in gypsum cave, near Las Vegas, Nevada.

Before the cave was excavated palenontologists and geologists believed man had made his advent in North America not more than 10,000 years ago.

The first evidence yielded by the cave was a dart. It was found beneath refuse left by sloths, but was not considered sufficient proof that man had been there before the giant creatures disappeared from the earth.

Later pieces of baskets were found. The bones of a man were found at last by Mark R. Harrington of the museum staff. They reposed beneath a strata bearing sloth refuse and near them was the charcoal of a fire.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, Jan 20. — The local butter market showed a little easier tone yesterday, with prices a quarter lower at 31c to 31¼c for No. 1 and 30c to 30¼c for No. 2 creamery solids. Even at the lower level trading was poor, and the quotations stated were more or less just asking prices. The slight splurge of two weeks ago was just a "flash in the pan," as far as trading since was concerned. Brokers have found all kinds of stocks hard to move lately, and a weaker market is expected.

Cream prices held firm at 29c to 32c for special, 28c to 29c for No. 1 and 25c to 26c for No. 2 f.o.b. country points.

Cheese was steady at 14c for new large, 14¼c for twins and 14¾c for triplets to shippers, with the demand good. Prices to retailers were also unchanged at 15½c for new large, 15¾c for twins and 16c for triplets.

Prices to country shippers and retailers for eggs were lower, but on the extra grade only. Country shippers were quoted 23c for extras, 20c for firsts and 15c for seconds, ungraded, delivered, cases returned. Retailers were offered fresh supplies at 32c to 33c for extras in cartons, 30c to 31c for extra loose, 28c for firsts loose, 24c for pullet extra loose and 22c for seconds loose. Wholesalers were of the opinion that prices would continue to drop unless the retailers lowered the quotations to consumers. Prices to consumers, they stated, have been far too high recently, in comparison with prices quoted to retailers.

Brokers were quoting fresh extras at 27c to 29c, 22c to 24c for firsts and 19c to 21c for pullet extras.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, January 20. — Easiness at the opening disappeared around mid-session on the Winnipeg wheat market yesterday, and final quotations were ⅝c to ½c higher. Chicago firmness and a drop in the United tSates visible wheat supply lent stronger feeling to the trade here.

No export business was worked yesterday and week-end sales were reported extremely small.

The May wheat future was quoted at 56⅞c per bushel at the close and July was selling firm at 57⅞c bid, with October at 59c.

Futures:

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close	Prev. Close
May	.56¼	.57⅛	.55⅞	.56⅞	.56⅛
July	.57	.57⅞	.56¼	.57⅞	.57⅝
Oct.	.58¼	$.59	.57⅞	.59	.58⅝

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Responsive to an unexpected shrinkage of the United States wheat visible supply and to only meagre enlargements of stocks of corn, grains rallied late yesterday. Adverse weather for corn crop movement added to the upward momentum of corn. Traders ignored French import control plans that included $2 a bushel as a minimum price for wheat grown in France. Similar measures are already enforced by other European countries, and German official prices for German-grown wheat exceeded $2.

Wheat closed irregular, ⅛c off to ⅝c up; corn, ⅝c-1c advance; oats, unchanged to ⅛c higher and provisions varying from 2c setback to an equal gain.

$25,000 To Be Spent In Salmon Advertising

OTTAWA, Jan. 20—The Dominion Government will spend $25,000 to advertise the famous British Columbia salmon throughout Canada following a suggestion that the fishing industry of Canada could be greatly helped by an extensive advertising campaign. But each dollar given by the Government will be matched by another from the industry concerned. This fund of $50,000 has already been raised.

This information was submitted to press representatives here today by Clifford Thomas, Production Manager of the Clover Leaf Salmon Packers.

"Among Canada's many fine fishery products salmon has always held a very high place. It is one of the country's chief products," stated Mr Thomas.

"It is interesting to note that science has discovered many health-building properties in fresh canned B.C. salmon: vitamins A and D, iodine, the anti-goitre element and calcium for bone-building.

"Thus Canadians, by eating more salmon will not only be assisting one of Canada's greatest industries but will be promoting their own health as well."

GIVE CKGW A CHANCE.

The owners of radio station CKGW are requesting Canadian set owners who listen in to the programs from Canada's Cheerio station to report any instances of interference to Hon. Alfred Duranleau, Minister of Marine, and at the same time to request him to make it possible for CKGW to operate on a wavelength where there will not be the same danger of interference.

So far as radio enthusiasts in this part of the country are concerned, the request is an entirely reasonable one.

The Cheerio station is for local listeners-in a never-failing source of entertainment, no matter how much static is in the air or how the general reception is; and the interference caused recently by a powerful Cincinnati station is therefore a matter of concern to every set owner, who owes it to himself as well as to the management of the station that has consistently supplied him with worth-while programs to do what he can to ensure perfect reception.

The suggestion that this most powerful of Canadian stations should be assigned a wavelength that will permit of its programs going out without interference is something that should be given earnest consideration by the Minister of Marine, under whose jurisdiction radio broadcasting comes.

In the meanwhile those who appreciate the desirability of uninterrupted service and unhampered reception from CKGW can assist in bringing about the desired change by communicating with Hon. Mr. Duranleau and strongly endorsing a new wavelength for the well-known Toronto broadcasting unit.

MAKE IT DEFINITE.

With January more than half over, the annual rush to secure the 1931 motor license plates is making its appearance.

In Toronto the other day the Highways Department was so besieged by motorists that special officers had to be detailed to handle the crowds of applicants.

Meanwhile thousands of other drivers throughout the Province are serenely displaying old markers, confident that the authorities will not be in a hurry to lay charges and content to defer the purchase of new license numbers until there is reason to fear a police court summons.

Much of this confusion could be avoided if the Department of Highways would lay down a definite policy that no car is to be driven after December 31 of each year until the markers of the next year have been purchased and put on.

The license plates could be put on sale from December 1, giving plenty of time for car owners to secure them before the new year.

There has been so much laxity and leniency in regard to this matter that it is usually the end of January before the law has been generally complied with.

In that respect the Highways Department might take a lesson from that newer Government body, the Liquor Control Board, which gives no days of grace in its business.

Liquor permits expire at the end of the fiscal year, and there is no such thing as buying liquor for the first month of the new year on an old permit.

The motor license business should be operated in exactly the same way.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Congratulations are in order to the students of the Campbellford High School, who acquitted themselves so well in the annual oratory competitions held last night.

The contestants as a whole scored high in stage presence, delivery and in their preparation of and grasp of the subject upon which they spoke, and their performance was ample justification of the value and benefit of training in public speaking.

Ability to address an audience lucidly and clearly is an asset to be prized, and the progress that has been made in recent years through oral compositions in the schools and through such contests as that of last evening at Campbellford in the direction of better speaking is a most welcome development.

There is need for such education, and need for producing a generation that can express itself effectively, forcibly and briefly.

Of talkers, of course, there is no lack, but, unfortunately, too many are of the type who say little or nothing and take an unjustifiably long time to say it.

Even the best of our public speakers are inclined to disregard the clock when they get on their feet to address an audience; they use two hours when sixty minutes would serve the purpose a great deal better.

And the lesser lights without the ideas or the oratory to justify them follow the example of the leaders.

The encouragement of interest in public speaking is a most commendable development of to-day, and one that can be utilized to the greatest advantage if school pupils are taught the advantage and effectiveness of short, snappy, well-prepared speeches.

HIGH PRESSURE SALESMEN.

The improved tone in a number of leading issues on the stock exchanges is accompanied by indications that the high pressure salesmen are not extinct, but have merely been in retreat, says the Brantford Expositor. Nor are they ever likely to die out so long as human nature is unchanged. Thus there are wonderful bargains in "securities" being offered to people in various localities, and presumably a number of sales have been made. Ten per cent. is a mild return according to the high pressure gentry, whose victims are more likely to be assured of anything from twelve to thirty per cent. if they buy now, "for cash."

Of course, there are a lot of people who, if they have any surplus money, are not to be as easily parted from it as they were a year or so ago by the same old methods that are now being used by alleged benefactors of mankind. But there are many others, apparently, who have to go through the process of personal experience, before they will believe what their wiser friends try to tell them. Protecting people against themselves is still one of the problems which confront those who have to do with the passing and the enforcement of laws against conspiracy and fraud. The best laws in the world will not ensure that laudable end where people throw ordinary caution to the winds.

Generally speaking, there are bargains to be obtained now in stocks, but as a rule they are not found among the stocks peddled from house to house by glib talkers whose reputation is nothing to them, if they can pick up some easy money. There are few communities in which the advice of a conservative financier or bank manager is not obtainable in regard to any stock that is publicly offered for sale and, even if he does not follow it literally, he is a wise man who listens to that advice rather than to the spacious promises of a high pressure artist. So few of the latter are ever substantiated.

IN 25 YEARS.

Mr. C. L. Burton, president of the Robert Simpson Company, Toronto, wants more population for Canada. This country must have it, he believes, in order that national possibilities may be properly developed. He goes even further, by admitting that he has dreamed of the nation's population reaching 35,000,000 within the next quarter of a century.

* * * *

There can be no question as to Canada's ability to support many millions more than she has at present. Geographically, our country is much larger than the United States, yet we have approximately half the population of the State of New York. In the United States there are something like 130 millions; in Canada the total is about 10 millions.

Immigration is at a low ebb now. This is only natural when one considers the state of world business. When times are slow, nations naturally strengthen their barriers against newcomers. We have seen many examples of this lately. The theory, of course, is perfectly simple; governments do not wish to add to the numbers of unemployed that must be looked after. Canada's doors, so far as Europe is concerned, are pretty well closed at present. This does not mean, however, that they will remain closed.

Depressions come and go. The one from which we are now emerging has been severe. No matter what our theories as to the reasons for its existence, the fact remains that we have had it. It was entirely sensible, in such circumstances, for the Government to put a check on any large influx of newcomers from across the ocean. However, with the lifting of the business clouds, with commerce and industry returning to normal, it goes without saying that the immigration doors will be opened once more and we shall again be welcoming new citizens.

* * * *

Advocates of the "closed door" always seem to lose sight of the principal point. That is that all the progress Canada has made to date is based on one thing—immigration. Not so many years ago—as the history of nations is written—Canada was inhabited by only a few Indians. Daring mariners, both French and English, commenced making visits to this largely unknown country. Settlements were launched and slowly the rise of population began. The list of pioneers was, from time to time, augmented by new arrivals from across the Atlantic wastes. Gradually a nation took shape. To-day it is one of the great nations of the world, still comparatively young, still comparatively small in population, but with a prospect second to none. Immigration, in short, has made us what we are to-day; immigration will produce the greater Canada of to-morrow. It cannot be otherwise.

* * * *

There are some persons who cling to the narrow idea that Canada should admit only English-speaking immigrants. This view is an impossible one. It will not stand analysis. Were we to adopt it, Canada's population could never increase on the scale that the natural riches of the country warrant. If every man, woman and child in the British Isles were to move to Canada to-morrow, the total population of this country would still be less than half the total of our neighbor, —the United States. That is something for the advocates of racial distinction to ponder.

The Canada we know to-day is not this product of any one race. It is the work of many races. We have here the representatives of practically every country. They and their children are Canada. Canada is their home and their allegiance. All of them have contributed something to the building up of the nation, the evolving of a national consciousness, the development of a Canadian citizenship and a Canadian ideal. This mingling of racial strains will continue; it is inevitable. And it is a good thing for Canada.

* * * *

When this country has 35 millions of people—as Mr. Burton dreams—it will be in the front rank. In many respects we are in the front rank now, but we must have more population to register the greater achievements and to take our complete place among the nations. The Burton dream, the Star believes, will come true, and perhaps in less time than he mentions.—Border Cities Star.

BURNING BEAUTY
By TEMPLE BAILEY

She wrapped him in a shawl and carried him in her arms. He was very light in spite of his six years. When they reached the Bronze Light on the newel post, Roger touched him with a finger tip. "Your light shines in our hearts," he said.

Virginia, opening the door of the big room found Michael alone. He turned as she entered and she saw by his face that something had happened.

"Where's Rickey?" she asked breathlessly.

"Gone for a taxi."

She laid the child on the couch, picked up the kitten, dropped it down beside him, and returned to Michael.

"Oh, what is it?" her voice was tense.

"I'm afraid I've muddled things up. I tried to be careful—but your brother chose to misunderstand."

All the light had left her eyes. "Did you agree with me about the story?"

"Absolutely. But the moment I criticized, he resented it, went up in the air."

"I know. I hoped he wouldn't—with you."

"He gave me to understand that he would look for another editor. One who had appreciation of what he was doing."

"I'm so sorry."

"Don't be sorry on my account. Only you mustn't let it come between us—our friendship—"

Her heart was beating wildly. "Nothing can come between us—"

He drew her a little towards him, "Virginia—do you mean—that—?"

There was no time for her to answer, for Rickey's step was outside.

The boy had no word for either of them until Michael had departed. Then he burst out, his eyes blazing, "I hate him, Jinny."

"Rickey! Why?"

"Oh, in a perfectly polite way he told me that my story was—punk. Do you know what he is? He's just one of a standardized lot of bromides who have it in for young authors. They kill genius. And if he thinks I'm going to listen to his advice he can think again! There are other editors in the world besides Michael McMillan."

"Rickey, dear, I'm sure he meant to be kind."

"Kind? Do you call it kind to fling the things I've worked over for weeks in the scrap heap?" His voice broke in a sob.

She laid her hand on his shoulder, 'Hush, Rickey, little Roger will hear you."

"Well, you shouldn't have brought him down—" irritably. Then with a sudden change of mood, "Oh, I'm a brute and a beast to talk this way to you, Jinny, when you've done so much."

Her eyes did not meet his. She wanted to cry out: "It's not Michael's fault, but mine." Yet she knew she must not. Rickey might cast her off as he had cast Michael, and she must always be at hand to help him.

The nxet norming she sent for Mary Lee. "Rickey's in despair," she said, "I don't know what to do with him." She told a little of what had happened, "He went out an hour ago, and he had his traveling bag with him. I'm desperately worried—he's so unlike himself."

"I'll find him," Mary Lee stated confidently, "I know the places he goes with those arty friends of his. He'll get sympathy there. They all feel that the world doesn't recognize genius when it sees it. He'll come back here ready to high hat the rest of us."

"I am willing he should high hat me, if he'll only come back," Virginia assured her.

Mary Lee, sallying forth was not as sanguine as her words had indicated. If she found Rickey, what then? She couldn't tell him what Virginia had said. She must feel her way. Get Rickey's confidence, sympathize, and set his feet on the right path.

She found him at last, lunching in the resturant where she had taken him and Virginia on the night of their arrival. She nodded to him and waved a hand, then went on to another table.

Rickey got up at once and came over to her. "Do you like your solitude?" he demanded, "or why this exclusiveness?"

"I didn't want to interrupt your party. "It isn't a party. And if it is you're a part of it."

Mary Lee, joining the others, found them in the midst of argument. The minds of them all were rather alike, but for the moment the point of view was different. They welcomed Mary Lee with an offer of cigarettes. She did not smoke, but she drank coffee and listened.

The subject of their argument, she discovered, had to do with the things which were worth writing. The way to write was, it was hotly asserted, to be as detached as possible. One must have a mental vision.

It was at this point that Mary Lee flung herself into the arena. "Mental vision, nothing," she said, "great novels are written out of great emotion. "Theres 'Tess' and 'Vanity Fair' and 'Anna Karenina.' Do you think when Thackeray wrote his great scene of the ball before the Battle of Waterloo that he did it by any mental rule of three? He was carried out of himself by what he felt—and Becky's reaction is the most human thing in literature."

They scoffed at that, "Mid-Victorian" they flung at her.

And she flung back, "If any of you can do anything that will live half as long you will have a right to criticize."

They raged at that, and Rickey's voice was the loudest of any of them. "Do you think we are going to take our ideas from the men who went before us? We're off with the old and on with the new."

Mary Lee did not seem to be listening—idly she had set in a row before her the glasses which were near her, and now she swept the tines of her silver fork across them. Then, under her breath she sang the song of the Chinese maiden as she had sung it that night in the old house in Annapolis. And, presently, one by one, the young crowd stopped to listen, until silence fell on all of them.

Mary Lee's voice was low and lovely—there was an almost eerie quality in it, and her eyes were fixed on space, yet they who listened, saw with her the tragic maiden, going to her death, the ivory towers, the windswept moon!

Out of the stillness which followed her singing, Mary Lee said, "You can be off with the old and on with the new if you like. But can any of you match a thing like that? It was written a thousand years ago—it will be sung a thousand years to come!"

She rose. "Come along, Rickey. I'm tired of candlelight. Let's walk in the sun. People who live among shadows, see nothing else."

So she flung down the gauntlet and none of them answered her. Yet they were left with the feeling that, after all, sunshine was a fact to be reckoned with. That there were realities other than things which were sordid and sorry. They found, indeed, after Mary Lee left them, their sophistication somewhat oppressive.

Rickey riding in a bus with Mary Lee was told that their destination was the Park. "I want fresh air," Mary Lee stated. "I sometimes think we are all wrong, Rickey."

"What do you mean?"

"Oh, we're trying to express our souls, when we haven't anything really to express."

"I have a great deal to express," Rickey asserted, stormily. "I don't know about you, Mary Lee. But I have things that I must tell the world."

"Maybe you have and maybe you haven't, Maybe you only think so, As for me, I wish I were a South Sea islander dressed in a grass petticoat. I am trying to sing and you are trying to write, but what if we were both just trying to live, Rickey?"

He turned in his coat and looked at her—"What do you mean by living?"

"Oh, taking the days as they come. Forgetting ambition, forgetting everything but that life is—good."

"It isn't good," he said with a touch of wildness. "Look at the deal it's giving me. Michael McMillan . . ." and then it all came out, violently, incoherently. His resentment against Michael, his fury against fate, his bitterness, his need of understanding. "Jinny tries of course, but she can't."

"Nobody understands. I suppose it's the curse of genius." Mary Lee had Rickey where she wanted him. She had led him to show his wounds, she would now proceed to bind them up. She could see that he felt himself a Keats, a Shelley, the world against him.

"I may not understand," she said, "but I sympathize more than you know. I like you—more than I have liked any man. Down home there have been lots of men in love with me—but I'd rather have your friendship than their love. Perhaps you don't want my friendship. But you need me. And I want you to promise that you'll let me stick around—and help—"

It was honestly said, and her honesty soothed him. "You're a good sport, old girl."

Nothing sentimental in that—but at least it promised something. "You're going to find yourself, Rickey, one of these days, and show them."

He would not admit that he had not found himself. Yet he did not rage at her as he had raged at Michael and at Jinny. She managed in some subtle way to make him feel himself important. He was her world. She wanted no one else. The very fact of those shadowy other men whom she would not let love her contributed to his sense of what was due him.

They found bare, bleak trees in the Park, but the winter sunshine poured itself in a golden flood along the paths. Rickey breathing in the sharp cold air, felt himself stimulated as if by a draught of wine, while at the same time he was soothed by the incers: of Mary Lee's adoration.

When she suggested that they get back to Washington Square, he went willingly. He had left his bag at the restaurant. He said nothing about it. He would get it later. He looked back now on his impulse to run away as a moment of madness. But if he had been mad, who could blame him?

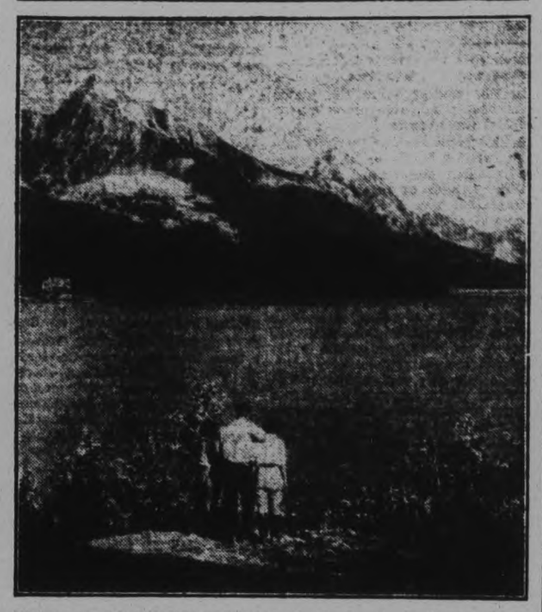
EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

WHERE NATURE DWARFS MAN



Visitors to Jasper National Park, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, stand close to the very act of creation. In this beautiful area, life once was cradled. Convulsion seized the land and reared rock upward to the skies. Out of the welter came the glorious peaks to defy ice and time, their rugged beauty a magnetic attraction for thousands of sight-seers. Small wonder mere mortals stand by and drink in the grandeur of the peaks. Above is Maligne Lake, its shores framed by mountains. C.N.R. Photo.

A Thought

DOING NOTHING

In my opinion the want of occupation is no less the plague of society than of solitude. Nothing so apt to narrow the mind; nothing produces more trifling, silly stories, mischief-making, lies, than being eternally shut up in a room with one another, reduced as the only alternative to be constantly twaddling. When everybody is occupied, we only speak when we have something to say; but when we are doing nothing, we are compelled to be always talking, and of all torments that is the most annoying, and the most dangerous.—Rousseau

What To-day Means To You

"CAPRICORN"

If January 20th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods is from 5 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

The planetary aspects of January 20th are favorable. Optimism will prevail. Energy will be stimulated, and results will be achieved. The signs point to some opportunity, which, if seized, will necessitate a change of environment, but will lead to ultimate success.

Children born on this January 20th are promised rugged health, and there will be a tendency on their part to take risks out of the ordinary. They will excel more at sports than at studies. They will always "play the game", and be loyal, self-reliant and sincere.

You, if born on a January 20th, are a dreamer, and you prefer reading and thinking to acting or fighting. Your mind is full of mental pictures of things you would like to be and do, but you take few practical steps to bring that fanciful ship, which is filled with your "dreams come true," nearer to you. From books, from observation, and contemplation, you have gleaned much knowledge, and your head is crammed full of facts and ideas, which make you wise, but of which you make little everyday use.

You doubtless have been a disappointment to your school masters, or your parents, for you were a precocious child, and easily won scholarships; but in the greater universities of life—the trades, professions and business world—you have not shone. You, however, are content with your existence, and are never bored with yourself. You would rather be a brilliant "nobody," than a stupid "somebody." Money and position are not essential to your happiness; friends, reading, and the delights of the natural world are. You can appreciate art, music and the drama.

You have a cheerful disposition, although you have moods when you want to shut out the outside world, and wish to be alone. You never inflict your sorrows upon others, and do not invite others to confide in you. Loyalty is a decided factor in your make-up.

CHURCHES AND THE MARKET

To the Editor of The Examiner

Dear sir:

Reading in your paper the other night about the churches commercializing, I have often wondered why they allow so many of them on our local farmers' market as those 'sales of home made cooking, etc' from the various churches makes it hard for the farmers' wives and others who are trying to earn an honest penny and who don't stand on the market for show, especially this time of the year.

Being one of these my heart aches for some of those women when there is a church sale on who has to pack all or best part of her cooking and take it home again.

A party came to my stand and asked for a certain church sale, did I know where it was, he had money in his hand and was going to patronize that church sale and I was selling the same goods., The Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and if the church people had the true love of Christ in their hearts surely it would not be necessary to commercialize.

Keene Council Dance Is Greatly Enjoyed

KEENE, Jan. 20 (Examiner Correspondence) — On Friday evening, Reeve MacIntyre and the members of the council of the Township of Otonabee, consisting of Messrs. Bolin, Burns, Howson and Percy Davidson entertained the ratepayers at a dance held in the Town Hall.

The party originated in a jest when the Reeve and council were challenged to return the compliment of having been re-instated by acclamation.

The idea proved to be tremendously popular, however, for the event drew the largest crowd that ever attended a dance in the village. David Moore "called off" for the quadrilles and Red Moncrief and his orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Y.P.S. Meets

The members of the Young People's Society of Keene United held their weekly meeting on Sunday evening, being in charge of Miss Bertha Elmhirst. Two musical numbers contributed, a violin selection by Alfred Fletcher and a solo by Miss Jean Knowles. Roland Rennie gave the topic.

District Notes

Mr. Moncrief, of Bailleboro, spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Howson and on Saturday accompanied Mr. Robert McCamus to Peterborough to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Robert Fair.

Mr. Robert Dickson, of Toronto, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dickson.

STRONGER TONE TORONTO CURB

Nickel and Noranda Up a Small Fraction—Ford Firms at 23.

LIQUOR STOCKS ACTIVE.

TORONTO, January 20. (CP)—Toronto Stock Exchange market was firmer this morning, but still far from active.

Bell Telephone continued to feel the support of steady accumulation and rose another point to 144½. C.P.R., moved upward to approximately 41. Brazilian Traction was firmer at 2⅜.

Nickel and Noranda were each up a small fraction, Ford firmned to 23 and De Forest Crosely above 12 again.

Liquor stocks were again about the most active and stronger, Walkers at 8 3-8, Distillers at 11¼.

Oils were dull and either unchanged or fractionally lower. Massey-Harris declined to a new low for the year at 8½.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

Wheat market was dull and featureless yesterday with just a small local trade passing. However, there was no selling pressure and it appeared to be one of these days that had there been any demand for half million bushels it would have been necessary to bid prices sharply higher to secure requirements. Prices declined 5-8 from Saturdays close during the first hour gradually firmed up, regaining the earlier loss, but this was purely in sympathy with Chicago July, which broke about one cent early and recovered the loss later. There was practically no export business over the week end and nothing came in yesterday morning, although there was a little buying by seaboard houses on the early break. The demand for cash wheat was more or less indifferent. Offerings were light and spreads were unchanged to half better for certain grades wanted mostly by terminal interests, but only odd cars and small lots were changing hand. Both domestic and export flour trade was quiet with just a small trade passing. Liverpool closed ¾ to 7-8 lower. The World Shipments of wheat last week totaled $13,948,000 bushels, but the ON tPassage supplies of seat and flour increases 2,584,000 bushels. The Canadian Visible decreased only $1,489,000 and the U.S. Visible decreased 1,272,000 bushels. Country marketings in Western Canada Saturday were 491,000, wheat as compared with 266,000 a year ago. While this market is holding tight with no pressure the outside world situation appears to be very weak, with huge supplies with demand very poor. A trading market appears to be indicated but would not follow any moderate upturns.

Coarse Grain—There was very little doing either in futures or cash. just an odd car changing hands in the latter part of the day. May barley touched 24½ and May 29 7-8 rye, both new low marks for the season, However, markets firmed up slightly in sympathy with the late advane in wheat. Oats closed ¼ to 3-8 higher. Barley ¼ lowere in May and July, but ½ higher iOctober while flax finished 3-8 lower.

Liverpool cables due 7-8 to 1 cent based on Winnkipeg.

DIVORCE CASE ADJOURNED

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20. (CP)—In connection with a divorce case from Windsor, Ont., at Osgoode Hall to-day, it was discovered the new divorce regulations of the Ontario courts do not include provision for adding a co-respondent to the proceedings when that co-respondent happens to be a minor. An amendment to the rules will be made. Mr. Justice Raney said none of the present rules are applicable and after some discussion the case was adjourned for a week.

SLIGHT GAINS AT NEW YORK IN LIGHT TRADING

Opposition to Legalizing of Wine Sale Factor in Beverage Stock Advance.

MANY 2 POINT GAINS.

Slight Recession Shown in the Early Afternoon Session —Money Cheaper.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 (C.P.)—The retreat of a discouraged bear element gave the share market a firm tone in to-day's trading.

The lethargy of the market, however, still held the general price movement to a narrow area and advances were not well maintained. Professional traders found little in the Wickersham Report to interpret either bullishly or bearishly, although it had been awaited expectantly. Opposition to the legalizing of light wines and beer may have been a factor in a moderate rise in the beverage stocks.

Gains of a point or two were numerous during the early trading and a few issues made wider gains, but the list eased off a little from the top during the early afternoon. Extreme gains of 2 points or more were recorded before the movement was checked by American Telephone, American Can, New York Central, Union Carbide, Air Reduction, Lambert, Wabash, Chicago and North-Western, Continental Baking "A", Johns Manville, Consolidated Gas and Case. Allied Chemical sold up nearly 6. Shares advancing a point or more included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, McKeesport, Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio, Standard of N. J., North American, Coca Cola and Canada Dry. Missouri Kansas fluctuated rather widely, in response to the announcement of no action on the dividend, followed by the disclousure that it would be considered later.

Money continued to cheapen, and the bond market continued to maintain a good tone, with trading a little more active. Call money held at 1½ per cent. officially, but time loans and commercial paper were cut another ¼ of one per cent, bringing month time loans down to 1¼ to 1½ per cent. The possibility of a further reduction in the New York rediscount rate, now at 2 per cent, was again widely discussed.

Sterling exchange still held at a disturbingly low rate, which may lead to a shipment of gold to New York with the sailing of a fast steamship to-morrow, although New York bankers are reluctant to impose any unnecessary embarrassment upon London.

MINOR GAINS ON STANDARD

All Groups Show Effect of Rather Favorable Sentiment in To-day's Session.

NORANDA ADVANCES.

TORONTO, Ont, Jan. 20. (CP)—In spite of quiet trading majority of movements on the mining market in the forenoon to-day took the form of minor advances with all groups showing the effect of the rather favorable sentiment.

In the higher-priced gold section Hollinger, Teck Hughes and Lake Shore were up 5 cents a piece to $8.05 56.70 and $24.90 respectively; and Dome firmed a like amount to $10.25. Vipond dropped 3 to $1.11.

Boranda gained nearly a half to 15.75 and Nickel was up ¼ to $15.00. Base Metals advanced 5 to $1.20. The Lindsleys were quiet.

Ajax Oil softened 3 to $1.47 and Calmont was off a couple to 22. Petrol Oil regained a couple to 33 and balance of the oils were firm.

BAN ON EXECUTIVES LAID DOWN BY U.S.

Two Prominent Windsor Men Halted at Border Monday.

WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 20.—The first move on the part of the United States Department of Labor to bar from the United States, business executives living in the Border Cities was made Friday when George Washington Hardy, of Windsor, Superintendent of Eaton Tower, was refused admission, and this was followed yesterday by the barring of Niels C. Ortved, Walkerville, wealthy president of the $3,000,000 Detroit Motor Company.

Today both Mr. Hardy and Mr. Ortved were making arrangements with the United States consulate at Windsor so they could resume commuting. It was expected that there would be little difficulty in obtaining papers satisfactory to the Bureau of Immigration, which is a division of the Department of Labor.

Mr. Hardy was barred because he was away from work through illness during 15 months of 1926 and 1927, which it was held broke the continuity of his commuting and made it necessary to obtain a visa. He had never had a visa or paid head tax before.

ADVERTISING FIRM SHOWS GOOD YEAR

Clients as Rule Spend More Money in Poor Times Than in Boom Times.

TORONTO, Jan. 20—"Slump fails to check growth of Lord and Thomas and Logan" is the headline of an article of an article by B. C. Forbes, of Forbes Magazine, in a copyrighted newspaper article.

The article continues:—

"How is this for a business achievement?"

"We did $30,000,000 business in 1928, $40,000,000 in 1929 and $50,000,000 this year."

That is the phenomenel record of Lord and Thomas and Logan, advertising agency, whose directing genius is Albert D. Lasker. He started with the firm thirty-five years ago at $10 a week, and is now the wealthiest advertising man in the world.

Imagine being able to roll up an increase in billings and collections of 25 per cent in this depression year!

How did Mr. Lasker do it?

After correcting me by saying that he didn't do it, but that his clients and associates rather than he, did it, he explained.

"We choose to work only for smart people; people who would be successful without us. All our clients have actually done a larger volume of business this year than last year—although, of course, the dollar total in a few cases has been less, because of the decline in prices."

"Unless a client has in his business the potentialities of growth, the elements of success, we are not interested in handling his advertising. Unless our clients grow and prosper, we wouldn't be able to grow and prosper. So we are careful to pick only such concerns as have in them leadership prospects and qualities."

"Our clients, as a rule, spend more money in poor times than in boom times, because they can make more headway over competitors. That is exactly what has been happening this year."

"I have known "A. D." for twenty years, and my analysis of him is that he has a mentality not surpassed by half a dozen men in any line of business. His unique success is no accident."

William Findlay, of Toronto, one of the vice-presidents, and a director of Lord and Thomas and Logan, who is in charge of the agency's Canadian affairs, reports a substantial increase in the firm's business in the Dominion in 1930.

"Several of our advertisers have enjoyed peak sales in 1930," said Mr. Findlay. "These are firms who have judiciously maintained, or appropriately increased their advertising appropriations, and whose sales organizations have put fresh effort into their work. They have proven that industry and advertising will make headway over competitors, no matter what the conditions in business may be."

The clients of Lord and Thomas and Logan in Canada, as a group, plan increased appropriations for advertising in 1931.

Salada Tea Co. Had Best Year In History

At the annual sales conference held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Mr. Arthur M. Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the company, stated that in spite of the fact that the year 1930 was one of depression, generally, the "Salada" tea showed a tremendous increase and were the largest the company has ever experienced.

POLICE TAME REDS IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, January 20 (C.P.). Police broke up a meeting in the Labor Temple yesterday, arresting five men who were charged with making inflammatory speeches against the Police Department, and five others when a mob gathered to obstruct the police when they left the building with their prisoners. It was estimated that 20 men and women suffered minor injuries when the officers swung their clubs under a barrage of ice and snowballs from the crowd outside the building.

BRITISH TRADE IS MAINTAINED

Industrial Britain Remains One of World's Greatest Exporting Countries.

MEAGRE INVESTMENTS.

SHEFFIELD, Eng., Jan. 20.—"Poor trade returns need cause no wonder," with the unusual depression in several foreign countries, especially Germany and the United States, declares a special writer in the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce official organ. "If wonder there be, it is that industrial Britain remains one of the greatest exporting countries in the world. We still export as much coal as any three foreign nations. We export the greatest value, if not the greatest volume of steel. eW build as many ships as the rest of the world. We export more ships than all other nations put together. In spite of the much-talked-of depression in our cotton trade, we are still the greatest exporters of textile goods, and we continue to pay our debts whilst some other nations default. But we must face the black spots in our commercial position, whilst not overlooking the bright ones.

"Taking our exports for the first nine months of the year, we find a loss of $510,000,000 in value, as compared with the corresponding months of last year. Our coal exports for the full year it will be found, when we get the complete returns, will be about 9,000,000 tons less than they were in 1929, and 22,000,000 tons less than in 1913. Our iron and steel exports will average considerably less than 300,000 tons per month this year, compared with nearly 365,000 tons per month last year, and over 414,000 tons per month in 1913. On the other hand, our imports of iron and steel this year will average about 240,000 tons per month (most of which we might make for ourselves), compared with 234,700 tons per month in 1929 and 185,900 tons per month in 1913, whilst if we care to look back to 1907 we shall see that in that year we exported nearly six times as much as we imported in the iron and steel line. At the moment, our trade is less depressed than that of America and Germany, but spread over a period of years—say 1921-1930—we have had the most unemployment, and to-day we find ourselves with a smaller share or percentage of the world's total trade, whereas some of our rivals have increased their shares.

"The lack of confidence caused by the depression in trade and excessive taxation is reflected in meagre capital investments. We are spending too much and investing too little. Increasingly are our laws and national finances designed to discourage industry and subsidise indolence. Though our bank rae has been low this year, only 3 per cent. since May —and it has been possible indeed to get loans at 2 per cent., and some cash accommodation at 1 per cent.—enterprise has not been stimulated.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20. (Special to Examiner.)—Absence of sustained improvement in base metal prices still is clouding the situation from a general mining point of view. London to-day reported significant recessions in all four important metals copper, tin, lead and zinc and the domestic copper price in New York ir more or less nominal with a relatively small amount of metal changing hands. Export business is fairly good, but is attributed by trade authorities to the depleted condition of stocks abroad rather than to any very grea t increase in consumption.

In the face of these conditions Noranda has shown firmness and was somewhat stronger in early trade to-day. According to some circles gold production from this company's properties has been a saving factor in the situation, permitting an operating profit in spite of low copper quotations. Noranda is reported to have produced approximately $3501000 in gold during December, a figure which places it well up in the list of Canadian yellow metal producers.

Northern Telephone Company, Limited, which handles telephone business for the mining districts north of North Bay, has just paid the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent plus a bonus of one percent. In a statement accompanying the check officials say: "Your directors wish, in view of the present depression, to distribute as much as possible to shareholders and feel that the position of the company warrants the paying of this bonus. In addition to enjoying a satisfactory year's business the company also profited through the construction of long distance lines under contract."

It is reported that San Antonio has secured $15,000 from interests with whom officials are negotiating finances. This will permit the company to proceed with preparations for this season's program and will maintain in good standing the option understood to have been granted. It is learned, however, that nothing definite regarding the future has been decided as yet.

Petrol Oil and Gas has brought in its 37th well in the Brantford Indian Reserve with an estimated initial flow of 64,000 cubic feet of gas. A ready market is said to be waiting for production from this field.

F. H. Brownlee, chairman of American Smelting and Refining Co., has suggested that, as a means of stabilizing the price of silver, an informal understanding be arranged between the United Sgates, England, India, France and as many other governments as possible that no silver would be sold below a fixed price say 50 cents an ounce, for a period of years. Under the plan governments would purchase requirements when the price fell below the price and would sell when price moved above a fixed price in excess of that agreed upon.

WORK IN CANTEEN FIT FOR WOMEN

Probe Follows Refusal of Mill Workers to Accept Offers.

MISS BONDFIELD UPHELD.

LONDON, Jan. 20 (By Thomas T. Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent).—Five prominent women who have been investigating the matter to-day issued a report upholding the assertion of Rt. Hon. Margaret Bondfield, Minister of Labor, that work in the Navy, Army and Air Force canteens is suitable for women who are at present out of work. Miss Bonfield made the offer of such employment as a test for the disallowance of the unemployment "dole" to women who refused to take the work. Lancashire mill workers particularly were averse to taking the canteen work.

The investigators to-day reported the social and moral dangers surrounding work in the Services canteens were no greater than ordinary factory life. The best testimony came from soldiers, who said the canteens were cleaner and brighter since girls started working in them. The girl workers said the soldiers were invariably respectful.

REBEL SAILOR IS DISMISSED

First of Crew, on Sub-ship Lucia, to be Court-martialled, Also Given 3 Months.

29 OTHERS IMPLICATED.

DEVONPORT, Eng., Jan. 20. (C. P. Cable).—Three months at hard labor and dismissal from the navy, was the sentence passed by a naval court martial to-day on Thomas Gratton, able seaman, one of the 30 sailors involved in incidents aboard H.M.S. Lucia at Christmas time.

Three more courts-martial will be held and on the outcome depends action against the remaining 26 sailors.

According to the prosecution the 30 sailors remained working below when they were piped to fall in and clean the ship's side. Defence counsel questioning Gratton, referred to Sunday work.

Witness for the prosecution denied that any leave had been curtailed or that the ship had been "less happy" at the time of the incident than formerly.

The Lucia, a submarine depot ship did not sail with her four submarines when the Atlantic fleet left on Jan. 8. The submarines and the attached cruiser Norfolk were allowed to sail after a detaining order was countermanded.

Toronto Car Driver Has Narrow Escape

HAMILTON, Ont., January 20 (C. P.). — A car travelling from Toronto approached Bridge No. 1 on the Western Highway entrance shortly before noon to-day. Travelling at a fairly brisk speed, it skidded and veered towards the deep Waterdown Gorge Striking the cable fence it demolished this obstacle and started on a terrific plunge down the 150-foot decline. Bounding in the air it turned over once, then crashed to the base of the precipice, a mass of tangled wreckage.

Out of the ruin stepped William F. Hill, of Toronto. His hat had been pushed down over his ears during the wild descent, and he had suffered a slight scratch. Police viewing the car are unable to understand how any person could have been involved in such an accident and live.

PREMIER J. LANG BREWS TROUBLE

Motion of Censure By New South Wales Leader on Ex on Ex-Premier Bavin is Carried.

Opponents Motion Downed.

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 20 (C.P. Cable via Reuters).—A motion of censure upon former Premier T. R. Bavin and former Treasurer B. S. Stevens of the State of New South Wales, moved by Premier J. T. Lang in the Assembly to-day, was carried on strict party lines. The Premier charged the two former ministers with stating in the recent campaign that victory for the Labor Party which Premier Lang heads, would result in raids upon the State Savings Bank.

A motion of censure moved by Mr. Bavin upon the Premier, on the ground that he made false statement in the Assembly, lapsed, as his preliminary motion to suspend the standing orders to allow discussion of it was defeated.

The matter arose from the publication a few days ago of an alleged letter from Premier Lang to the acting Federal Treasurer, as head of the Commonwealth Loan Council, in which Premier Lang was quoted as seeking aid for the State. Premier Lang has denied that he made any such appeal and has announced his intention of acting independently of the Loan Council, though under the Australian constitution the Commonwealth and State Governments are pledged to conduct their borrowings under the auspices of the Council, which must approve any loans.

NEW SOUTH AFRICAN HEAD FLIES OWN FLAG

CAPE TOWN, South African Jan. 20 (C. P. Cable via Reuters).—South Africa already flies its own national flag alongside the Union Jack, and now the Governor-General is to have his own flag as the personal representative of His Majesty.

The new Governor-General is the Earl of Claredon, well known to Canadians, who farmed in Ontario for some years and is just succeeding the Earl of Athlone in South Africa.

His flag will consist of a blue ground on which is the Royal Crest in gold, with the words "Union of South Africa" above the crest and the same words in Dutch below it.

STRING QUARTET COMING TO CITY

Hart House Organization Will Be Heard in Peterborough on February 4.

TALENTED ORGANIZATION

Dr. Ernest MacMillan, principal of Toronto Conservatory of Music, in a recent interview in which the Hart House String Quartet was mentioned, made the following interesting comment:

"It seems more than likely that a string quartet will soon be considered a necessary adjunct to the musical life of every community which is culturally-minded. Education must always remind us that the finest things come after much labor, and the school must act as a brake to modern shallow and unsound tendencies.

"The trend towards a wider cultivation of the ensemble art is one which appeals to any club, college or organization dedicated to the advancement of musical taste, and which aims at moulding musical opinion of its community into those channels which experience has shown to be of lasting worth. It is easy to see, therefore, why these groups should sponsor ensemble-concerts; for quartet music is the antithesis of certain modern tendencies. It avoids the sensational, it does not seek to startle, but it puts before the listener and player a mirror of thought expressed in one of the most perfect of mediums, and with the minimum of rhetoric and a complete absence of bombast. It is, in short, an antidote to a phase of modernism in which all indulge, but which many regard with distrust."

Dd. MacMillan has written some splendid numbers recently for quartet, and they have been added to the repertoire of the Hart House String Quartet, which will be heard here under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club in the Collegiate Auditorium on Wednesday night, February 4th.

MRS. ROBINS READS INTERESTING PAPER

Members of Roseneath Women's Institute Meets at Home of Mrs. Turner.

ROSENEATH, Jan. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence). — During the meeting of the Woman's Institute held at Mrs. Turners on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Dinah Robins of Uplands, Calif., gave a brief talk of her experiences in California, among them was a trip around Catalina Island when she went for a sail in a glass bottomed boat over the submarine gardens and bringing with her a curiosity for the ladies to inspect, a Abilonia shell.

While sitting in the boat Mrs. Robbins watched Oscar Griffith, the great deep sea diver, go down some 40 feet and pick up this shell she being the first to hold up her hands on his return was given this cherished prize.

Among the marine specimens which may be viewed through the clear crystalling waters on the lava-like floor of the sea are kelp and mosses, fish and shell fish.

A talk with Mrs. Robins is most inspiring, she having visited the ostrich farms and many other picturesque places in her travels has made her a real entertainer

AGAIN CHOSEN VILLAGE CLERK FOR THIS YEAR

Mr. Wilson Has Been Successful Business Man for Fifty-Seven Years.

IS KEEN BOWLER

Lengthy Record Eclipses That of Most Municipality Clerks in Ontario.

(Examiner Correspondence)

HASTINGS, Jan. 20.—Fifty-one years faithful service to the municipality and fifty-seven years a successful business man in Hastings is the record of Alexander Wilson, clerk of the village of Hastings who was again appointed to that position at the village council meeting held last week. Mr. Wilson looks and acts as if he had many more years of service ahead of him as he takes a keen interest in lawn bowling, and in his younger days was the best runner in this district.

Born In Village

Alexander Wilson, clerk of Hastings, was born in the village in a log cabin that stood on the present site of the brick building occupied by Carl Oliver as a dwelling and garage, and after a strenuous boyhood and youth, rose to be a successful business man, the holder of various municipal offices, the most important position being the one he still occupies after 41 years of faithful service

This lengthy record eclipses that of most clerks in Ontario. Mr. Wilson is recognized as a standing authority on municipal law and while he lives, Hastings will have only occasional necessity for employing a solicitor to guide the officials through the ways of the legal wilderness. All his life except the one year he was learning the harness-making trade in Norwood he has resided in his native village.

All the education Mr. Wilson received was in his three years at the Public School which was held in the basement of the Methodist Church. His first and only teacher was James C. Brown, who afterwards became Public School inspector for Peterborough County. Those were the days when birch dicipline was in vogue. The future village clerk picked up as much practical learning in those three years as a naturally bright youngster could possibly acquire, but at the age of ten years he was obliged to leave school and make his own way in the world.

His first start in life was in the Fowld's lumber yard and he was three years in the employ of this firm putting in one winter in the Company's shanties at Stoney Lake, acting as assistant to the cook. Those were big days in Hastings as the lumber business was at its highest. Camps and mills were everywhere and Hastings merchants reaped a rich harvest in furnishing supplies to the camps and boarding houses. There were two harness-making shops in Hastings at that time., all busy manufacturing the equipment required for the score of horses belonging to the lumber camps.

Only fourteen years of age, and anxious to learn, young Wilson chose harness-making, working three years in the shop of H. Sedgwick. Subsequently he spent a year in the shop of B. F. Ackerman, now of Peterborough, but formerly of Norwood. The young chap walked to his home every Saturday night, and returned Monday morning to Norwood, Mr. Wilson, who was an expert at his trade, opened a shop of his own and prospered.

It was only natural that a young fellow who had led so strenuous a life should look older than his years. When he was nineteen he was appointed tax collector when he objected, he was not of age, and so could not serve legally, these responsible for his appointment told him to go ahead as no one would know the difference. For fifty-seven years Mr. Wilson has been in Hastings. First as a harness-maker, giving that up for the hardware trade when the lumber industry had run its course and the number of horses decreased in the district. For twenty seven years he was also an auctioneer, giving up that side line a number of years ago.

In spite of his business activities, Mr. Wilson, since he attained his majority, has been identified with the municipal life of the village. Being twenty-two when he first donned the civic harness. He was appointed Clerk in 1891, and since that time has put in twenty years as a member of the school board.

Born with a taste for music, Mr. Wilson formed the first Brass Band that was organized in Hastings, the eighteen or twenty members of which were so devoted to their art that they used to meet at five o'clock in the morning to practice, no other hour being available in their busy lives. The teacher drove in from Norwood to instruct the band every morning a practice was held. Mr. Wilson afterwards becoming the leader of the band.

He is conceded to be the best penman in Hastings and his official documents are models of neatness.

A life-long friend of Mr. Wilson is Rev. D. A. Thomson, D.D., who came to Hastings a young pastor just out of College seven years before the former was appointed village clerk. Mr. Wilson is prominent in the work of the Presbyterian Church and was chairman of the building committee when the present church was erected to replace the one destroyed by fire some years ago.

Mr. Wilson's years of devotion to business as well as to his civic duties have brought home reward, in the shape of a competence, but his friends say they never expect him to give up work so long as his life lasts; used to activity as he has been all these years, anything like idleness would be his physicial undoing. His son, H. B. Wilson has been associated with him for the past 35 years.

Wins First Prize AS SKINNIEST MAN

It's just as dangerous to be too thin as too fat—and there's just one logical way to put on flesh where flesh is needed.

No man wants a prize for being the skinniest man in town—not even a purse of gold.

For years McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets have been helping people who are willing to be helped to gain needed flesh and while doing so gain in vigor, strength and physical attractiveness.

It's a great tonic tablet is McCoy's—small—sugar coated—easy to take. You can get a box of 60 tablets for 60 cents—a fair enough price. Take them for 28 days and if you do not gain at least 5 pounds get your money back from McDermid & Jury, McDermid's, Bond's Lynch, and Payne's, or any drug store anywhere. Just ask for McCoy's.

ARMY ON MARCH FED BY PLANES

Daily Ration of 56 Parachute Loads of Food Weighing 3 Tons Dropped.

PROGRESS ACCELERATED.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—There is high romance, and a portent of new developments in military strategy, in the story, now told for the first time, of the feeding for two days by two squadrons of the Royal Air Force of a British army on the north-west frontier of India.

A column of 1,000 men left Dargai, a town north of Peshawar, to march to Chitral, nearly 150 miles away in the shadow of the grim Hindu Kush. To the Royal Air Force was delegated the task, as an experiment, of rationing this force completely for two days. Two halts were fixed, one between Dargai and Malakand where there is a famous pass) and the other farther in the mountains at Chakdarra. The daily ration consisted of 56 parachute loads, weighing 120 pounds, a total of more than three tons of food. At each stopping place a "dropping area" was marked out on the ground to guide the airmen.

The squadrons on whom devolved this duty of dropping food like manna in the wilderness belong to No. 2 (Indian) Wing, stationed at Risalpur. Fourteen Westland "Wapiti" biplanes were loaded up with the provender each carrying four loads a day. Their task was not simple; the region is forbidding and dangerous.

Official reports show that on the first day 48 of the 56 loads were successfully parachuted down to the column, most of them falling within the circle marked out on the ground. Greater success marked the next day's operations, though the flying journey was longer and the territory more difficult, and 54 of the 56 loads safely reached the army below. This is the first time in history that so large a force has been completely rationed from the air. The success of the experiment shows conclusively how air communications, providing the swiftest transport yet known, may accelerate the progress of ground armies, especially in country where land communications are inevitably difficult and slow.

The 'Wapiti' is a two seater "general purpose" biplane used in large quantities by the Royal Air Force and the air services of Australia and South Africa. Its varied duties include bombing, reconnaissance, photography, wireless, long range desert patrol and advanced training.

TWIN DOLLAR DAYS TO BE HELD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY: JAN. 23-24

Nearly Ninety of Peterborough's Stores Will Unite in Big Sale.

ESTIMATING BLANKS.

Nearly ninety of Peterborough's best business houses, have again united in the big semi-annual community event, Twin Dollar Days, which will be held on Friday and Saturday, January 23 and 24.

Co-operation with a country-wide movement to reduce retail and manufacturers' prices, every merchant seems to be trying to be in the lead in getting his prices down a little below his competitors'. Right in the midst of this continental movement comes the Winter Dollar Days, and the citizens can look for a phenomenal and general price slashing such as has not been seen on any previous Dollar Day occasion.

While they are making it easier in this way to sell, they are also making it unquestionably much easier to buy. From all indications the values are going to be more irresistable than ever before. The usual cash prizes amounting to $150 are also being offered in the big estimating contest.

As a guide to estimators, it might be well if all would read carefully the part of the full page advertisement referring to these bonuses. It has been found that a great many people do not fully understand what to do in order to give themselves a chance to be among the winners. Some think they have to guess the amount of money spent, and others seem to think it is a lucky number and just put down anything—4, 8, 25, 40 or the first thing that comes into their heads; some fill all the space with figures, running into millions. What the merchants' organizer wants all contestants to remember is that what they are supposed to be doing is to estimate the number of tickets that will be dropped in the box during the two days of community shopping.

A year ago there were 21,324 tickets dropped in and in August last, the summer Twin Dollar Days, there were 22,201. It can easily be seen, then, that it is no hap-hazard affair, but a genuine attempt to estimate the number that will be in the box after two big buying days in 90 of Peterborough's best stores.

COURSE STUDENTS VISIT CITY PLANTS

On Inspection Tour of Silverwood's and Quaker Oats Factory.

About 75 young men and women from the agricultural short courses in Warsaw (Peterborough) and Omemee (Victoria) enjoyed themselves in the city yesterday, the guests of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

The girls were taken through Comstock's and the Canadian Department Stores on an inspection tour yesterday morning. In the meanwhile the boys were seeing the other end of the farm machinery business in the De Laval plant. The parties united and were taken through the Westclox plant.

The students went to Austin's for dinner, when Mayor Denne gave an address welcoming the visitors to the city.

Yesterday afternoon the party visited Silverwood's, the Quaker Oats factory, and the County Buildings.

Thus the young sons and daughters of the country will have a good opportunity to enjoy the life of the city for a day, and some no doubt are visiting Peterborough for the first time.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

An interesting reaction has set in against having every plumbing contrivance exposed in a home. This open aid idea was the result of the necessary sanitary change in regard to plumbing. Pipes and traps and every sort of plumbing necessity was first concealed as unsightly.

• • • • • • •

Then, because of the difficulty of mending leaks, worn-out pieces, etc., and the introduction of a new type of bathroom toilet, there arose the need of having plumbing immediately accessible.

• • • • • • •

The boxed-plumbing gave way to the open-plumbing, sometimes very unsightly but endured because of better sanitation.

• • • • • • •

Now there is evident a tendency toward partial concealment whenever this can be done without interfering with sanitation. Workmen have been having to their advantage it all however badly the decorative effect was on the rooms.

• • • • • • •

Now while they are not prevented from having access to pipes, they are not the only ones considered.

• • • • • • •

We have the sink closet which is immediately noticeable in kitchens. The sink and tub pipes, whenever the tubs are in the kitchen are often boxed in. That is the space underneath sinks, etc., is not left open, exposing the pipes to plain view, but they are enclosed in what was once called a sink closet.

• • • • • • •

A wide door opening into the low closet permits perfect access to the pipes and trap beneath the sink, thus the unsightly pipes, elbows, and traps no longer have to confront everyone entering the kitchen.

• • • • • • •

More important than this to the housewife is that this previously waste space can now be put to its old-time use as a closet for pots and kettles. Sometimes it is difficult to know just what to do with the awkward and large cooking utensils such as the preserving kettle, the large covered roasting pan, and the many and varied assortment of needed pots, pans, and kettles.

• • • • • • •

To be sure these have been manufactured to be as attractive as possible in shining aluminum and gay enamels, but this attractiveness can be enjoyed to its full when the cooking utensils are in use on the stove without having them continually in evidence

• • • • • • •

The woman who keeps house in a small apartment finds this conservation of floor space particularly helpful. To be sure she was obliged to utilize it for this same purpose, to be without the closet but doubles her work of caring for the kitchenette.

• • • • • • •

When they are stowed away in the closet they are protected from dust, require the least possible handling and are equally convenient.

Our Mail

Conducted by ANNE WILCOX

Dear Anne:

It is with a feeling of shame that I write these few lines to you. After the way I neglected the page, you sent me the lovely Christmas card. Please accept my very sincere thanks.

I have been confined indoors for the past two weeks. I had a very bad cold, but it is improving. I did enjoy Christmas and I received many lovely gifts.

Everyone is talking of hard times. Of course we all know how bad the unemployment situation is, but if the folks who helped at the Christmas season and others, who could afford to do so would keep on helping during the remaining winter months we would be able to pass this crisis. The people of our city certainly answered the call and saw that many homes were made happier this year.

The next thing to be considered is our New Year's Resolutions. I think some of us should resolve to support our page more. I know I fell down badly on the job.

Well Anne I'm glad that you don't fail me on your daily talks. I read them every day and get much help from them. I am changing my pen name perhaps it will bring me luck.

I'm wishing for you everything that is happiest and best for the New Year. A prosperous New Year to all.

Sunny.

Sorry to learn of your illness, but with that bright new pen name I'm sure you will soon be feeling better in every way. Thank you for all your good wishes.

Dear Anne:

Though late, I am writing to wish you and all the neighbors a Happy New Year! It has been in my mind to write ere this, but I could not seem to get caught up on my letter writing, also I have often to rest my eyes they seem to give out to when reading and writing and yet I get so much pleasure out of both.

I received your nice card Anne, it was a surprise, thank you for the kind remembrance. I have been looking for letters from the neighbors. I hope they will write soon, some of them and I wonder how Ad Nauseam is now, I seam to be longing for the Spring, Anne already, I do so love to see the living things spring up and watch for the first sign.

A few nights ago I dreamed of walking in an orchard full of trees, also that same night of walking south and in company with a neighbor, I saw some bright colored flowers growing in the hedge. I said, "Oh look at the pretty flowers," but I did not attempt to pick them, but she ran and picked a handful and was climbing over the fence to give me some when I awoke and so it was a dream but it's nice even at that.

I had a wonderful Christmas, Anne, particularly in a spiritual sense.

Your article in the issue of the 9th of this month on Home atmosphere was good and sensible but I will close with good will and best wishes to all.

Yours truly,
Water Lily.

Thank you Water Lily, it's nice isn't it to dream of Spring and the beautiful flowers which are bound to come soon and I hope you may be able to enjoy them to the fullest when they arrive.

Elaine And Her Ideas From Paris

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

LESSENING THE AMOUNT OF HEART DISEASE.

With heart disease at the top of the list as a cause of death you may wonder why the medical profession has not been able to fight it more successfully.

As a matter of fact heart disease doesn't start in the heart in the beginning. The heart is a wonderful organ working day and night and able to do its work against all sorts of handicaps.

What really happens is that trouble starts elsewhere in the body, in the teeth, tonsils, large intestine, or from an acute ailment like scarlet fever or rheumatism and the blood containing the organisms of this infection, or carrying the material these organisms manufacture, reaches the heart and inflammation starts.

As you know wherever there is an inflammation there often results fibrous or sear tissue such as follows a burn, and this fibrous tissue, forming around the valves of the heart, prevents them from closing properly and a "leakage" occurs.

Often the inflammation affects the entire heart muscle instead of the inside lining and the heart loses its power to squeeze the blood out into the circulation.

In former days heart disease was often not discovered until the individual applied for life insurance and was usually rejected.

Now that the cause of heart disease is known steps are taken to prevent it and so heart clinics are being established in various cities and preventive work is started with the children.

Dr. P. Rosenblum of the Children's Heart Clinic, Chicago emphasizes the necessity of early examination of children from birth and after all acute infections. As heart disease occurs with, and immediately following such simple ailments as scarlet fever and tonsillitis, every child should be carefully examined before he is let out of bed.

The second important preventive measure is keeping the child in bed and quiet after an illness. As you know, as soon as a youngster is over the acute condition of any ailment he wants to get up and around, and out to play with the other youngsters. This getting up and around, too soon after any ailment, is a cause of a large proportion of the cases of heart disease. This is a lesson for all adults also.

The third point he emphasizes is the early and complete removal of diseased tonsils and adenoids or other points of infection in children showing any heart involvement.

These heart clinics should save many lives and prolong many others.

HOCKEY CLUB JUNIORS IN SECOND PLACE

HENRY JONES SINKS SINGLE TALLY OF GAME TO ALLOW PETES 1-0 WIN OVER NORWOOD SEXTET

Goalies Play Brilliant Game in Junior O.H.A. Fixture in Eastern Town.

LOCALS BETTER BALANCED.

Homesters Stage Several Goal Attacks in Final Frame to No Avail.

(By A Staff Reporter)

NORWOOD, Jan. 20.—Peterboro Hockey Club's junior hopefuls edged their way into second place in the local O.H.A. group by a 1-0 victory over the Norwood-Havelock combines last night.

The standing in the junior group is as follows:

	W.	T.	L.	Pts.
St. John's	4	1	1	9
Peterborough H.C.	3	0	1	6
Norwood	2	1	2	5
Campbellford	1	0	3	2
Lakefield	0	0	3	0

Henry Jones' solitary goal seventeen minutes along in the first period carried the visitors to a slim but sufficient win over Alex Kempt's youngsters in a game that bristled with brilliant work in both nets. Both firing lines wasted a lot of ammunition against the ends of the rink and with long comparatively soft shots, but when they did swing their attacks up around the nets Foley for Peterborough and Beavis for the local boys blocked the way with pads and sticks as effectively as if Jim Baskin had provided them both with matresses. About the only margin in the quality of their work was that one goal which Peterborough earned when Jones found one loophole in the Beavis' wall. Both lads gave a fine exhibition of defensive alertness and coolness, and if the Norwood marksmen could have chalked something on the score board they would at least have backed up Beavis with the support he deserved.

Better Balanced Team.

The Peterborough team was better balanced than Norwood and had their hockey experience and ability more evenly distributed. The local defence shaped up just as strong as that of the visitors' but there was a difference along the forward line, enough to account for that one goal. In one department the home was not shaded, and that was in their persistent trying, and especially in their backchecking. The regular forwards line of Epps, Meagher and Dallin was just a little better than the local regulars, Thompson, Kempt and Voyer, and there was about the same difference between the two groups of alternates.

A fairly large crowd found plenty to cheer for in both the second and third periods, but particularly in the last when Norwood threw everything on the attack, against Peterborough's obvious defensive methods, and had a distinct advantage in the play. But they couldn't get the rubber past Foley, even when Peterborough was short two men.

Get Lead in First.

The visitors made their best showing in the first half of the second period when they were trying to increase their lead, but the scoring was over for the evening.

Shannon, Kempt and McLaughlin were Norwood's outstanding players with Voyer and Thompson close behind them. Some of McLaughlin's rushes were entirely nullified by his habit of carrying the puck too far and finding himself practically up to the goal line or beyond it. He did not save himself both in his own territory and in his frequent dashes Shannon was again in fine form, and on at least several occasions might have got a goal if luck had provided a break for him. Kempt made a good job of right wing, is a smooth skater, handles his stick well and is altogether promising. If he knew as much about hockey as his Dad did when he quit, he would be well equipped.

Epps Leads Attack.

Harold Epps stood out in the Peterborough attacks, his speed and shooting keeping him in the limelight nearly all the time he was in action. Dallin did a lot of useful work for Peterborough, and his hook check bothered Norwood all through the game. Meagher balanced the front line, and one of his acquirements, on last night's play, was his ability to get his shots away without any waste motion. Woods and McCullough had no marks against them on the score sheet, but they hardly balanced the Norwood pair. Of the three subs Thirnbeck and Jones frequently combined together and Tuck also went well.

Norwood were forced to yield second place to the Peterborough team, but they couldn't possibly have made the decision any closer, except of course by a scoreless game. They made it might interesting, and satisfied their many followers by their gameness and their willingness to keep trying.

The Teams' Personnel.

Referee—Ray Rose.

On the first Norwood rush Ray Rose warned Don Woods for unseeting Kempt. Thompson fooled the Peterborough defence but his shot was off the goal. Epps got through the Norwood line but his shot lacked steam. Meagher brought Beavis to his knees with a fast drive at close range. Shannon went through alone for Norwood but Woods drifted him into the corner. Tuck went off for tripping. Shearer and Rathwell broke inside the Peterborough rear guard but a pass near the goal went wide. They came right back but Woods stopped their effort. Shannon handed Thirnbeck a heavy check and took a rest.

The Deciding Shot.

Epps and Meagher sifted through the Combines' defence. Meagher apparently took plenty of time with his shot and missed the net. Foley whisked out an easy shot from Voyer. Epps laid two in a row on the Norwood net but Beavis handled them neatly. Goden bumped his way through and rifled the rubber at Foley, who kicked out another from McLaughlin. Shannon's dash was abruptly checked by McCullough and then Jones and Tuck engineered the attack that decided the game, Jones scoring from the side.

Voyer made a smart attempt to tie the score but Foley was unbeatable. On the next play McCullough hit the Norwood goal post.

Second Period.

The second period started fast and there were few lapses in the pace. Two incidents in quick succession concentrated the crowd's attention on the referee. Some one tripped McLaughlin on one of his flights, and that some one got away with it, but on the next play McLaughlin spilled Epps and drew a penalty. The game warmed up at that stage. Foley blocked a hard one from Thompson. Shannon missed a promising chance by overskating the rubber near the Peterborough goal. Norwood bussed around Foley and Tuck finally relieved the tension by breaking through the Norwood attack, Foley stopped two from Kempt and Shannon. Beavis stepped in front of Dallin's sharp shooting. He batted another from Epps and McLaughlin's threatening rush was sidetracked behind the goal line by Woods.

The final period was largely a repetition of the second except with Peterborough's variation of defensive tactics. The Petes packed their rear guard and Norwood threw an extra man up on the front line. Epps and McLaughlin shuttled from end to end but both net guardians were alert. Beavis went out to meet Epps on another of his forays and managed to deflect his shot on the open goal into the corner. Kempt got through alone and breezed a fast one at Foley. It was a great save on a close shot. Epps was benched for tripping McLaughlin and Dallin followed him for a similar offense. Norwood pressed this advantage but their chance passed without any entry on the score sheet.

Campbellford Falls Before Madoc 4-1

STIRLING BEATS FRANKFORD 2-1

Homesters Lead Play From the First, Outskating and Outchecking Opponents.

9 PENALTIES IN ALL.

STIRLING, Jan. 20 (Examiner Correspondence).—In a thrilling battle with their neighboring village, Stirling scored another win last night. The first two periods were hectic sessions for the local supporters, as the rubber appeared to be incessantly in the enemy territory, despite the frantic efforts on the part of the forward line.

The Frankford chaps are certainly to be congratulated on the brand of hockey they display. They hit a swift pace from start to finish, and at the beginning the Red and Whites were outskated and outchecked.

In the third period things began to happen. During a little confusion in front of the Stirling net, a local dropped the disc in front of Borland (Frankford's right wing), who promptly potted an easy tally. Just about this time the Stirling aggregation started to play the game as they knew it should be done. The style they exhibited bore no resemblance to their play in the earlier periods. The last ten minutes revealed flashing fast spectacular stuff. The game fairly bristled with action. Each goalie turned aside flocks of shots labelled as markers. The puck was propelled from end to end with terrific clips as incessant rushes were made.

Stirling subs proved a tower of strength as Jack Ackers flipped the rubber in the net for Stirling's first goal. Following suit, T. Little, on a pass from Davis, registered another winning tally. This decided the game for the home team.

Referee Smith of Kingston handled the game impartially, and to the satisfaction of the management of both teams. Clean play predominated. Stirling received 4 penalties; the visitors 5.

The line-up:

Frankford—Prevost, goal; L. O'Malley and R. Legault, defence; Bowen, centre; Borland MacLean, wings; Shaw, Munn and Snider, subs.

Hoard's Holds Menie To Scoreless Count

BURNBRAE, Jan. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The members of the Hoard's hockey team astonished everyone including themselves by holding the fast Menie squad to a scoreless tie in their first encounter of the season at Stirling last week.

According to reports of spectators the local teams showed considerable experience and better attempts at combination than evidenced in the Bethel-River Valley game which was won by the former team 2-0.

Hoard's team is as follows:

Goal, R. Oddie; defense, Hobbs and Heagle; forwards, K. Oddie, Hewitt and Jones; subs, Jeffs, Remington and Merrick.

Menie—Goal, Eagleson; defence, Shillinglaw and Hay; forwards, Rannie, W. Whithon, Milne; subs, E. Whithon, Ward and Little.

GOOD ICE FOR JUNIOR BATTLE

A REAL ARGUMENT.

As St. John's need a victory tonight to keep out in front of the junior group race and as the Campbellford youngsters would call it a perfect season if they could pull out a win on Peterborough ice, the clash at Brock Street Rink to-night should be an exciting junior battle that will give the fans a worthwhile exhibition. The ice is in great shape and the conditions will favor the fast-skating and good stickhandling of Lambert, the Campbellford flash, and of Ellis, the speed demon of the Saints, while the forward line of the group leaders which has been shaking down into an effective attacking division, will have no excuse for not playing flashy combination.

No matter what is at stake, the junior teams always give of their best and to-night's battle should be one of the best of the season.

Among the unusual wills in Somerset House, London, is one carved by a soldier on both sides of an identification disc and containing nearly 3,000 letters, readable only through a microscope.

"BUCK" HULIN STARS IN NET FOR HOMESTERS

Ingram Scores Only Goal For Millers in Third Period of Tussle.

GOOD DEFENSIVE GAME.

Game Well Handled By Max Board, 14 Penalties in All Being Handed Out.

(Staff Reporter)

MADOC, Jan. 20. — With Lady Luck and Goal Tender Buck Hulin working hand in hand, and looking suspiciously like it was a prearranged date between the two, the Talc boys from this thriving metropolis took the visiting Campbellford Maroons into the fold for a 4 to 1 trouncing last night that did the hearts of the fans good.

Nor was the result because of lack of effort on the part of the Stover crew. They lapped the old rubber at Hulin from every angle and corner, and dropped it down from above, but it seems Buck had been bunny-hunting over the week-end and had enough rabbits' feet packed away to have enabled him to take a feather bed into the nets with him.

T. B. Horkins, the flash left wing man, showed some of his stuff and strutted "pretty" through the works time and time again, only to be forced to shoot a bit too soon to take effect for the visitors. And Ingram, the returning prodigal, showed he knew what it was all about; in fact, he scored the only goal, for his mates, of the evening, when in the third stanza after some nice poke-checking around the Hulin fortress he smared the disc and lapped it past the goalie from right in front of the twine. Incidentally, through the use of Ingram, who, it seems, didn't have his amateur card when he signed up with Campbellford, the game was played under protest.

Game Well Handled.

Taking their hockey seriously the fans made it clear that they wanted action, and not too delicate at that, and the fact that Max Board headed three in the first, five in the second, and six in the third into the cooler is ample proof that it was mixed up with the penalties coming with sufficient space between not to affect the speed of the game.

For the home squad Frank Andrews on guard outside the redoubtable Hulin was the shining beacon, and when he teamed up with the speed hounds on the front line, things happened, and but for the heavy checking they got at the Maroons blue line would not have stopped short of many more tallies. L'Heureux and Johnston kept the crowd yelling themselves hoarse, and Watson got in some nice work.

In the centre of the attack for Campbellford was Buster Whitton, with Horkins and McKay right with him, though failing often to feed him at the psychological moments. Al Smith and Ingram were in there, too, and did their share in keeping Hulin warmed up.

Moon Opens the Works.

During the initial round the Maroons missed some lovely chances on scrambles around the net, and came in too late in taking advantage of the opportunity offered when the Talc boys had a man shy. Right on the dot as the watch said 13 minutes gone, Pudge Moon opened proceedings in the score sheet by lifting the rubber from a corner to the goal mouth, where it glanced off Horkins' skate and beat Hepenstal for the opener. Whitton and Horkins came back fast in a slithering rush with some nice combination that looked good enough to have counted, but it was willed otherwise, or rather it should be said Andrews and Barkey willed it otherwise. Johnston and L'Heureux uncorked some fancy work in reprisal, but failed to add to the lone tally.

The Second Frame.

Ingram and Smith opened the middle session with a rush only to have the Watson-L'Heureux-Johnston trio slip back, and with two minutes just up, ride the defence for the centre man to notch the second marker. Right after that it was that Smith missed the best offering of the evening when he bored the disc a foot wide on an open goal with Hulin down. It was in this period that Andrews did his best work.

The final canto had all the earmarks of a change in the score sheet for the visitors. As things opened with a bang McKay and Horkins piled right in on the nets, and livened things up around the twine for a few minutes. However it was short lived, for Barkey and Johnston tore through the works, Barkey driving a hot one at Hepenstal that bounded back out to the waiting Johnston, who promptly drilled it home for the third counter. L'Heureux added another at 15 minutes on a nice pass from Andrews.

The Lone Marker.

Then came the deed that saved the Trent Towners from a whitewashing. Ingram, who had been pecking away with persistent stubbornness in front of the Black and White citadel, suddenly flipped the "one and only" into th ropes. From then on it was a vain battle on the part of both crews for neither could get together long enough to beat the defences, under the barrage of back checking laid down to protect what had already been earned.

First period—

Madoc, Moon, 13 minutes.

Penalties: Barkey 2, Ingram.

Second period—

Madoc, L'Heureux, 2.03 minutes.

Penalties—Cowell and Horkins. Andrews 2, Henderson.

Madoc, Johnston, 2.11 minutes.

L'Heureux, 15 minutes.

Campbellford, Ingram, 1.56 mins.

Penalties—Moon, Henderson, Andrews, McGuire, Madoc; Whitton and Horkins, Campbellford.

The line-ups:

CANADIENS MEET N.Y. RANGERS FOR THE THIRD TIME TO-NIGHT

Prospects For Habitant Victory None Too Bright With Morenz on Sick List.

OTTAWA VS. BOSTON.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20. (CP)—With their hard pressing rivals enjoying a brief respite to-night, Montreal Canadiens, leaders of the Canadian section of the National Hockey League, tackle the blue shirted Rangers in New York in an effort to increase their narrow margin over the second place holders, Toronto and Montreal Maroons.

It will be the third encounter of the season between the exponents of fast, open hockey and honors are so far even. The Flying Frenchmen nosed out the Rangers 5 to 4 in Montreal, but were decisively beaten at New York by a 5 to 1 count.

Prospects of victory appear none too bright for the Habitants, who arrived in Manhattan to-day without their cyclonic centre ice star, Howie Morenz, who is also the Canadian group's most accurate marksmen. Morenz found the going strenuous against Maroons last Thursday and also at Toronto on Saturday night and he was left at home to recuperate. Pete Lepine makes a capable-under-study for his meteoric team-mate, but there is only one Howie Morenz.

Both teams have shown fine hockey in their last five starts and there appears little to choose between them. Canadiens have won three and lost two, while Rangers, facing tougher opposition, have won two, tied two and lost one. While the Montrealers cannot be dislodged from first place should they go down before Lester Patrick's smooth playing hockeyists the latter can secure a strong hold on third place in the American group by winning.

Another international match brings together Ottawa and Boston for the fourth time. The Bruins, leading the junior division by only one point over Chicago, will be trying desperately to annex their fourth triumph from the luckless Senators.

The Bostonians have not played since last Thursday and will be ready to go 60 minutes at top speed. The Senators on the other hand are handicapped by the loss of their two defence stars. This not only leaves their defence weak but also leaves them short of relief material. In the last meeting between the squads at Ottawa the Bruins won 3 to 1 by scoring three goals in the first period. Two of them were "soft" ones and after goalkeepers had been changed the Senators stepped out and more than held their own with the husky Bruins.

The third contest programmed brings together Detroit and Philadelphia in the Motor City. The Falcons have already defeated the tail-end Quakers on three occasions and do not anticipate any trouble making it four in a row from Cooper Smeaton's cellar occupants.

A victory for the Falcons coupled with a defeat of the Rangers will result in a deadlock for third place in the American group as Jack Adams' fast skating puck chasers are only two points behind. A defeat, however plus a Ranger victory may prove a disastrous setback, so it is taken for granted that Ebbie Goodfellow, League leading scorer, and his team mates will take no chances with the team that has already upset calculations by trouncing other strong outfits.

SAINTS MIDGETS DEFEAT GEORGE STREET 1 TO 0

Four Church League Games Run Off Last Night Despite Heavy Snowfall.

TRINITY BLANKS KNOX 1-0.

St. Andrew's Take 3-1 Decision From George Street in Junior Section.

It was a case of "dashing through the snow" at All Saints' rink last night when four Church Hockey League games were played. The ice was good when it could be seen, but with the snow falling almost continuously, team-work was impossible. At that, some fair hockey was seen, two of the games ending in 1-0 scores. And despite the heavy going, there was little "rough stuff."

The first game ended with St. Paul's Midgets leading George Street 1-0 and it was only in the dying moments of the game that they got their lone tally. Both teams battled hard and evenly through two scoreless periods. While the snow made it tough for the goalies, they managed to hold the forts. Toward the end of the final frame, St. Paul's rushed the length of the rink, and in the scramble in front of the net batted one in. The losers worked hard to even it up, but couldn't break through.

The teams:

George Street — Goal, Harding; right defense, White; left defense, Howland; centre, Wright; right wing, Kelly; left wing, Culcheth; alternates, Heard.

St. Paul's—Goal, McIntyre; right defense, Kirkwood; left defense, Pulkinghorn; centre, G. Clark; right wing, A. Clark; left wing, Leith; alternates, Currie and Clifford.

Referee—C. Sproat.

Trinity Blanks Knox 1-0

In the juvenile game, Trinity shut Knox out 1-0. This go, like the first, saw the only score made in the third period. Both sides used their alternates frequently and the pace was fast, and at times somewhat rough. There was little to choose between the teams though the losers looked a little more agressive during the first part. Checking was hard throughout, while Wilson in the goal for Knox made some good saves. Half-way through the third session, Logan and Stabler combined to go right in on the net with the former sinking the only counter of the game.

Referee—C. Sproat.

ST. ANDREW'S WIN 3—1

St. Andrew's handed George Street a 3—1 defeat in the first junior game. The boys played a fairly open brand of hockey with lots of speed. There was little team-work as falling snow and the rolling rubber made passing difficult. George Street had all the best of it in the opening period, scoring once and shooting often. But they found Allison hard to beat. Beginning the second stanza St. Andrew's soon tied the count and pushed in another one to take the lead. In the last, play was fast and even, with few penalties. The winners never laid back, and bulged the hemp once more before the gong went.

The teams:

George Street.—Goal, Seabrooke; right defense, McHoull; left defense, Roseborough; centre, Routley; right wing, Bothwell; left wing, Parnall; alternates, Stenton and Johnson.

St. Andrew's.—Goal, Allison; right defense, Waddell; left defense, Armstrong; centre, Richardson; right wing, Weir; left wing, Cathcart; alternates, B. Waddell and Dearborn.

Referee, C. Sproat.

SHUT OUT MARK STREET

St. James' Juniors shut out Mark Street 3—0 to wind up the evening's hockey. This game saw a pretty exhibition of back-checking, from both forward lines. The play was close enough the first two frames, with Sloan, despite his slouch hat, turning in some great goal-minding. The winners scored one in the first on a long shot which the goalie never saw. In the second, the play was speeded up, but neither team could counter. However in the last go, St. James' took the offensive and ran in two more to put the game in the bag. For the losers, Lipsett starred, exhibiting some flashy stick-handling. Hoy also played a nice game.

St. James'.—Goal, Sloan; right defense, Spence; left defense, Price; centre, Jamieson; right wing, Meredith; left wing, McDonald; alternates, English and Grose.

Referee, H. Rehill.

Although Len Harvey didn't put Vince Dundee away the other night at New York, he impressed the promoters at Madison Square Gardens and they signed him up to appear again next month. The English boy's fighting pleases the fans which is something unusual in this day and age. Harvey came mighty close to making the first round of the bout with Dundee the last one when he dropped him to the floor for a count twice. Dundee was the under dog with odds of 8 to 5 against him until the fourth round when he outpointed his opponent and kept it up long enough to get the decision. A great many expressed the belief that the Cornishman was rushed into action too soon after his arrival on this side of the Atlantic and did not have time enough to become acclimated. Harvey has a punch and uses it which puts him head and shoulders over the wrestlers and fast backpedalers who are so prevalent in the game today.

BILLY TOWNSEND K.O.'S HORNER 35 SECONDS AFTER START OF FIGHT

Hard Hitting St. Louis Boxer No Match For Vancouver's Fistic Hurricane.

READY FOR PHILLIPS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20. (CP)—It won't be long before Billy Townsend, Vancouver's blonde fistic hurricane has another title, if he continues to touch off the fistic dynamite he showed against Jackie Horner, St. Louis, in the headline bout of the Queensbury Athletic Club's boxing show here last night.

Deprived of his Canadian lightweight crown because of failure to make the weight, Townsend recently started a campaign for the Canadian welterweight title now held by Jackie Phillips, Toronto.

As a starter local promoters pitted him against the aggressive and hard hitting Horner, believing he would have plenty of trouble punching the St. Louis boxer out of his path. Townsend uncorked just three blows. Two light taps to the head and a bone crushing right hook which smashed Horner to the canvas, completely out, just 35 seconds after the start. He is now ready to meet Phillips in a local ring on Feb. 2 and critics and fans are unanimous in their belief Townsend will emerge from that bout as newly crowned monarch of the welters.

It was the quickest knockout the Pacific coast boxer has ever scored. It was also the quickest ever recorded in a local ring. Many of the fans missed the decisive wallop as did Phillips who had just left the ring after being introduced. Townsend weighed 145 and Horner 145¾.

While the fans did not have the time to get enthused over the main attraction, they roared their approval of the semi-final in which Tommy "Red" Bragan, local welterweight secured a close decision over Billy Hoon, Los Angeles. The bout provided the fans with more than is expected in the average bout. Both men discarded all rules and regulations and battled in true lumberjack style while the crowd stood up and cheered them on. The referee warned the pair in the second round for butting and heeling but as each was to blame he let them continue their unorthodox style to the finish.

Gene Tunney On Trip To Ancient Cathay

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(C.P.).—Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion of the world, is described by to-day's New York American as planning to follow the trail of Marco Polo into ancient Cathay.

Accompanied by his wife, the former Polly Lauder, Tunney will sail Thursday for Cairo, Egypt, the paper says, there to join the Hardt Trans-Asiatic Expedition on a motorized trek through Syria, Arabia, Irak, Persia and Thibet to the celestial kingdom of the Great Khans in the north of China.

LONDON HAS CHANCE TO TIE CLEVELAND

Detroit Olympics Go to Pittsburg in Second Game To-night.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20.—(CP)—London Tecumsehs have a fine chance to tie Windsor Bulldogs when they meet Cleveland Indians in one of the two scheduled International Hockey League matches tonight. In the other Detroit Olympics go to Pittsburgh.

With five straight victories under their belt, which has brought them from near the bottom to within two points of second position, the Tecumsehs will probably stretch their winning streak another notch. They defeated Cleveland over the week-end and tonight will be favored by home ice. Leo Goldsworthy, rated about the speediest forward in the King loop, will not be in a London uniform, having been traded to Detroit Falcons of the National League, for the hard hitting Hicks, defence player. Manager Roy Brothers has secured Jimmy Smith from Yellow Jackets to strengthen the right wing position, weakened by the departure of Goldsworthy.

There is a possibility the Falcons will help to strengthen the Olympics by demoting several players from the major team who have not performed up to expectations this season. If this is done the Olympics may line-up a formidable aggregation against the Yellow Jackets, who have been going along in fine style since the acquisition of several players from the National circuit.

GUELPH SLUMPS TO THIRD PLACE

Leafs Beaten By Kitchener 4-3 While Cataracts Trounce Nationals 3 to 1.

CLOSE BATTLES.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20 (C.P.) — After leading the pack from the start Guelph Maple Leafs have slumped to third place after two straight defeats in the Ontario Hockey League. Last night the Maple Leafs were beaten, 4 to 3, by the Kitchener Silverwoods on the latter's ice, while Niagara Falls were trouncing Stratford Nationals, 3 to 1.

A rousing third period rally before the largest attendance of the season netted the Cataracts two goals and victory. The teams were deadlocked one-all at the end of the middle frame, each side having scored before the half-way mark. The win moved the Niagara outfit up to second place, one point behind the leading Galt Terriers.

Silverwoods outscored their opponents two to one to carry a one-goal lead into the second period and it wasn't long before the margin was increased to two. Then the Guelph hockeyists came to life with a snap, and two quick goals saw the count knotted.

"Dutch" Hamel broke the stalemate in the last chapter by scoring on Heller's pass. The Silverwoods are now tied for last place with Oshawa Pats, but are only four points behind the Terriers.

VON ELM'S 'BUSINESS GOLF' NETS $18,000 IN FOUR MONTHS

Former U. S. Amateur Actually Shooting For $20,000 in Agua Caliente Open.

Millionaire Doubles Money.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—It must be admitted that George Von Elm is a fairly good business man.

It is only four months since the tawny tiger of Utah determined to forsake the field of amateur golf where glory and an occasional silver mug were his only rewards and make his game pay cash dividends. He became the sport's first business man golfer.

There were no few who doubted the wisdom of Von Elm's venture. They did not believe that he could sell insurance and at the same time keep his golf attuned to a pitch high enough to successfully compete with the great professionals.

But at the end of four months Von Elm's golf has declared dividends amounting in excess of $18,000. That is much more than the average professional makes in an entire year.

When he finished in a tie with Johnny Golden in the $25,000 Agua Caliente open tournament in lower California Saturday, Von Elm was rewarded with a check for $6,750. This was half the sum that the first and second prize money grossed.

HALF OF WINNINGS

But that $6,750 was only 50 per cent of George's winnings. Soon after he became a business man golfer, one of Detroit's many millionaires, who is very fond of George, volunteered to double all the prize money he won. The gentleman of affluence probably didn't quite realize to what lengths his generosity might lead him. But whether he did or not he probably will se a lot of humon in the situation when he hands over a cheque to George for $6,750.

Von Elm's exploit at Agua Caliente therefore netted him $13,500 plus the amount of the "gate" he received from his playoff with Golden. Had Von Elm not missed one of those short putts on his homecoming nine, he would have had exclusive right to the $10,000 first prize and the generous gentleman of Detroit would have seen a little more humor in the situation. But Von Elm did pretty well by himself without the "if."

Shooting for $20,000

Knowing that he was actually shooting for a $20,000 bankroll as he went out for that last nerve-wrecking round, his ability to finish in a tie for the big dough must be heralded as a fine tribute to his great courage under the hottest kind of tournament fire.

The playoff ostensibly was to decide who was to get the $10,000 first prize and who was to get the $3,500 2nd prize. However, you can bet all the salt in the sea that Golden and Von Elm had one of those agreements that called for an even division of the spoils however the playoff terminated. George, you know, as was pointed out above, is a good business man and Golden knows that $6,750 in hand is worth more than $10,000 in the eighteenth cup.

In fact, it was stated by Brian Bell, the Associated Press' energetic correspondent, soon after the tournament ended Saturday that such an agreement had been reached. The club, however, insisted upon a playoff to determine the champion and announced that the winner would receive a cheque for $10,000 and the runner-up $3,500. What was done with the money afterward was not its concern.

Schmeling Will Go Barnstorming Tour

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—An eleven weeks' exhibition boxing tour of the south, south-west and middle west has been arranged for Max Schmeling to put the heavyweight champion in first-rate condition for his title bout with "Young" Stribling of Macon, Ga., some time in June, somewhere in the mid-west.

In addition to his appearance in this country, the champion will make a hurried trip to Havana, where he is booked for one exhibition.

SOCCER EXECUTIVE FIRST MEETING

Representatives to O.F.A. Were Instructed to Vote Against Substitute Player.

The first 1931 meeting of the Peterborough and District Football Association took place last evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, with President Vincent Stewart in the chair. Only one member of the newly constituted board being absent. All last season clubs were represented, namely, Canadian Packing, Canadian General, Caledonians and the Brinton Athletic.

Concert a Success

Fred Sutcliffe gave an excellent report of the recent concert held under the auspices of the association and, after all expenses had been paid, a small balance was on hand. He received the sincere thanks of the board.

Delegates Instructed

No communication had been received by the local secretary, from the Ontario Football Secretary intimating the acceptance of the affiliation fee and registration, but he expected a report to-day which would state the date of the annual meeting to be held in Toronto. It is usually held on the last Saturday of the present month.

After a lengthy debate on the question of substitutes on the football field, the delegates were instructed to vote against any substituting or any other proposal relative to it which may be brought up at the meeting of the Ontario board. To make the subject a matter of interest, Jack Cairns brought out many excellent points on the advantages of the substitute player, which were well founded from a theoretical viewpoint.

A Timely Suggestion

"Gentlemen, 75 per cent. of your difficulties start with referees who have not the correct interpretation of the laws of the game," said Alex. Anderson, in a suggestion that the board accepted in a favorable manner. "Let's get all the men who are interested in the official capacity to meet just now and discuss all the questions of vital interest. Everyone is sure to gain knowledge, will have greater confidence when they know that they have their colleagues' assurance on the interpretation of the rules. I declare emphatically that the board has failed to support the referees at the critical moment. My opinion is that we can approach well-qualified persons to become referees who would be quite willing to qualify as knights of the whistle.

It was decided that all members present should become an interested party to get the services of gentlemen who desire to be registered with the Ontario Football Association. They will become members of the Referees' Association. All such persons are requested to meet the executive at the next meeting.

COGS VS C.G.E. ON WEDNESDAY

Battle of Fast Forward Lines Will Be Staged Here in E.P.L. Fixture.

PLENTY OF THRILLS.

Cognawagas and C.G.E. Toolroom promise a lovely battle at Brock Street Rink Wednesday night when the teams play an important contest in the East Peterborough Hockey League. The game will have all the frills of a championship encounter with both clubs placing their strongest lineups on the ice. Right now both clubs have an abundance of speed on the front line and plenty of ability on the defense, with goalers who are hard to beat. It should be one of the best games of the season. Play will commence at eight o'clock.

Four Good Tussles In South-End Loop Bill

To-night at Sacred Heart rink, four South End City League games will be played. The first two will be bantam games, Fosters opposing Ravens at six o'clock, and Athletics and Canucks following at seven. Tigers and Canucks of the juvenile section come on at eight, while the other two juvenile teams, Raybestos and St. Peter's begin their battle at nine o'clock.

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Elaborate dress, more elaborate manners, and excellent scenery, will again lend that quaint charm so necessary as a background for that delightful Scottish Comedy which will play a two-day engagement at the Grand commencinfi tonight.

"MARIGOLD" is that rare type of play that utilizes homely wit rather than the wise cracking form to bring laughter to the lips of the audience. To quote a Vancouver critic who reviewed the show at the coast recently: "After viewing so many of the wise-cracking comedies it is a rare treat to sit through a performance such as is given by the excellent cast of "MARIGOLD."

With Edinburgh in 1842 as the setting this delightful play not only ran for 700 consecutive performances at the Kingsway Theatre, but has scored a decided success through the Dominion, with packed an enthusiastic houses from Montreal to Vancouver.

Don't neglect a COLD

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

This famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Musterole gets action because it is a scientific "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses.

Keep Musterole handy—jars and tubes.

UNCLE WIGGILY'S ANSWER

(By Howard R. Garis)

"What are you doing, Uncle Wiggily?" grunted Mr. Twistytail, the fat pig gentleman one day as, stamping around in the snow, he saw the rabbit stringing a long clothes line toward the Hollow Stump School.

"I am making a telephone," answered Mr. Longears.

"That's what I said—a telephone," went on Uncle Wiggily. "You see Twisty (which he called the pig for short, he being also fat) you see, Twisty, my wife doesn't like the children to go to school in cold, stormy weather. They get their paws wet and catch the snuffles."

"Yes, I know," grunted Mr Twistytail. "My little pigs do the same," and he leaned the other way against an icicle to scratch his right side. "But I don't see how a telephone between your bungalow and the school is going to do any good."

"You don't? Well, I'll tell you," went on Uncle Wiggily as toward the school he dragged the long rope, one end of which was at his house. "You see if it snows hard, or rains too much, and my wife thinks the children should stay in the bungalow. She will put them all in one room, call up the Lady Mouse Teacher and we'll have school over the telephone."

"Six and four are eight."

"Do you mean you are going to pull on that rope and haul the Hollow Stump School, blackboards, chalk, bell, Lady Mouse Teacher and all—haul the whole thing to your bungalow as children drag a sled? Do you mean that?" asked the pig.

"Not at all," answered Uncle Wiggily patient like and uncompromising. "For instance the Lady Mouse will ask over the telephone, when I get it made, she will ask: 'Baby Bunty how do you spell dog?'"

"Yes, I understand that much," grunted the pig who was trying to turn around to look and see if the twist had come out of his kinky, little tail. But he couldn't—he was too fat. "Go on, Uncle Wiggily," grunted Mr. Twistytail. "Suppose the Lady Mouse asks Bunty to spell dog."

"Over the telephone," stated Mr Longears. "Miss Mouse asks that question over the telephone from the school and Baby Bunty, safe and snug in my bungalow, out of the storm, gets that question and she answers:

"'D-o-g spells dog,' and she gets a good mark. "Then the Lady Mouse asks Jingle how many are six and four and over the school telephone what does Jingle answer?"

"Don't tell! Let me guess!" eagerly grunted the pig. "Let me see—six and four are" he tried to count on his paws but he didn't have enough so he made a guess. "Six and four are eight."

"Wrong!" answered Uncle Wiggily, just like Lady Mouse. "Six and four are ten, Mr. Twistytail."

"Oh, I meant to say ten!" grunted the pig. "I was thinking of three and four." Uncle Wiggily looked sharply at Mr. Twistytail, but the jolly old pig did not know he had made another mistake. He had never gone to school much when he was a small pig. Still he was kind and good and also fat.

"So this is to be my telephone," went on Uncle Wiggily as he pulled the rope farther and farther.

"Excuse me," spoke the pig, humble like, as he thought of his wrong answer, "but shouldn't a telephone be made of copper wire? I don't believe the children or the Lady Mouse can hear over a rope."

"I don't expect them to hear exactly," answered Uncle Wiggily. "But this rope is to be like the pulley clothes line in some back yards. The rope will slide around one wheel at my bungalow and around another wheel at the school. Fastened on the middle of the rope will be a basket. Miss Mouse will write her questions on paper and put the paper in the basket. I'll pull it to my bungalow, ask the children the school questions, write the answers on another piece of paper, put that in the basket and the Lady Mouse will pull it to her school and she can see if the answers are right."

"That's a very jolly telephone!" grunted the pig. "I must make one like it. Then the children can stay home and get educated," and he trundled off in the snow while Uncle Wiggily finished stringing the line to the school and back to his bungalow. Then the telephone was done.

"Now we'll see how it works," said the rabbit. Lady Mouse pulled the basket to her and wrote a question for Baby Bunty about how to spell cake, but as Uncle Wiggily was pulling the basket to the bungalow, the Bob Cat, out in the middle field, reached up, took that question out of the basket and put in one reading.

"How would you like your ears nibbled, Uncle Wiggily?" From his window Mr. Longears saw what the Bob Cat had done. Quickly the rabbit gave the rope a hard pull and smashed the basket on the Bob Cat's nose. "That's my answer'" chuckled Mr. Longears as the Bob Cat howled and ran away.

Then the school telephone went on working and the little bunny children recited their lessons to the Lady Mouse in school, while staying in safe and snug from the cold. Oh, you want one of those telephones; do you? Well, I'll see about it.

Flower Pot Island Becomes Canada's National Park

The Dominion Government has set aside Flower Pot Island, which lies off Bruce Peninsula, northern Ontario, as a National Park. The favorite spot gets the name from the two rock formations as shown in the main photograph which resemble enormous flower pots. They have been formed by the erosion of the waves and the Government are taking action to prevent their being entirely eaten away by the water. The picture inset shows the peculiar cave formations on the island.—Photo courtesy Can. National Rys.

BRITISH PRESS

tionalists, who boycotted the Round Table Conference, were still unwilling to throw in their lot with the majority of other parties who had come to London and had expressed themselves as well satisfied with the large measure of progress achieved.

Some disappointment was expressed in Indian cables also that amnesty of the political prisoners, said to number 50,000 had not been granted immediately. But the subject had hardly been raised before the closing stages of the conference, and Indian delegates at London were pleased with the Prime Minister's promise that amnesty would be granted provided peace and civil order were assured in India.

King's Message Echoed.

"Great as is the value of patient thought and careful work still to be done, you have opened a new chapt in the history of India." These words in the King's message to the delegates, read at the closing of the conference, were echoed in the British press to-day. The conference has probably achieved more than even its authors anticipated it was agreed.

The recommendations for an all-Indian Federation, and the expressed willingness of the delegation representing the native States to join with British India in this Federation, was regarded as one of the greatest steps taken in the history of Brit- and Indian relations. Weighty authorities like the Simon Statutory Commission and the present Viceroy and Executive Council of India had not expected this much They had regarded agreement on Federation as a distant ideal.

An enormous body of opinion in India remains to be converted, but it is not impossible that it can be brought into line.

Delegates who attended the conference will go back with the determination to do everything in their power to settle remaining differences in order that self-government may be adopted without delay.

New Road Has Advantage

The Times to-day foreshadowed that the Round-Table delegates would be hampered from the outset "by ridicule, abuse and fanatical violence" but believed it was their task to convince their countrymen that the uphill road to self-government which now lies open is preferable to the slippery slopes of revolution.

There was a notable divergence of opinion regarding Lord Peel's speech as the statement of the British Conservative delegation at the conference. The Daily Telegraph said the difference between the Prime Minister's and Lord Peel's speeches was merely the question of the amount of emphasis laid upon the supreme need for caution. The ultra-Conservative Morning Post however declared the Conservatives had been committed to nothing, while the Liberal News-Chronicle believed Lord Peel "formally repudiated the rancorous attack of the reactionaries."

The Daily Mail, opponent of the whole idea of the conference and fearful that the Indian Empire would be lost to the British Commonwealth, remarked that Lord Peel was apparently ready to surrender "almost anything." Flat opposition to the projected new constitution was also expressed by Lord Beaverbrook's imperialistic Daily Express, which remarked "the Bombay mob has called the tune and the Round-Table conference has danced to it."

Majority Back Scheme.

The majority of leading newspapers, however, gave their blessing to the outcome of the conference. The Laborite Daily Herald declared there was not a hair's breadth of difference between the demands of Pandit Motilal Nehru, Indian leader who produced a scheme of self-government, and the British Prime Minister's offer. The paper appealed to the Congress leaders to demonstrate their patriotism by accepting the proffered hand of friendship.

The Times eulogized the Prime Minister for his appreciation of the scope and purposes of the Conference and his abstention from pledges which could neither be defined with precision nor fulfilled by his Government alone.

Safeguards proposed in the new Indian constitution for at least the transition period were approved by The Times, which concluded that the important thing was that "a substantial measure of agreement has been reached here upon the cardinal principles of a new constitution."

Prime Minister MacDonald will now confer with Lord Willingdon the new Viceroy of India, on his arrival from Canada at the end of the week. The methods of conducting the coming negotiations in India will be discussed.

MEMBERS ADDED TO TWILIGHT CIRCLE

George Street United Church Society Holds First Meeting of Year.

The members of the Twilight Mission Circle of George Street United Church met last evening around the supper table at 6.15 for their first meeting for the New Year. A large number were present, and several new members were added to the membership list.

The supper was provided by Miss Ethel Mills' group and Miss Grace Burns' group was in charge of the program.

The president, Miss Helen Burns, presided and welcomed the members back for the new year. She also urged all who could to attend the meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial which is being held in Trinity Church on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Following the roll call the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Evelyn Miller who also gave a very full annual report of the Circle's activities.

The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Lorothy Wiman. Miss Grace Burns gave a very interesting discription of Canadian Missions, accompanied by lantern slides. A piano solo by Miss Grace Cunningham was much appeciated.

The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah benediction in unison.

Hockey Notes.

The manager of the junior Pirates requests the following players to be on hand at 6.45 for their game with Stars at seven Thursday night at the Sacred Heart rink: Babbs, B. Bailey, J. Bailey, Beatty, Watman, Rogers, Harrington, Price, Yeates and Sproat.

ENDS IN DRAW.

DURBAN, South Africa, Jan. 20.—(C.P.)—The third test cricket match between England and South Africa ended in a draw to-day.

LONG STRUGGLE

provide material for lively debate, it is against the new definition of an illegal strike that criticism chiefly turns. The new definition as given in the first clause of the bill reads:

"Any strike or lockout with the primary object other than that of furthering purposes connected with the employment or non-employment, or the terms of the employment, or with the conditions of labor, of any person (whether or not employed in the trade or industry in which the strike or lockout takes place) shall be illegal and it shall be illegal to commence or continue, or to apply any sums in furtherance or support of any such illegal strike or lockout."

The Conservative Act of 1927 (which the present bill amends defines an illegal strike or lockout as one which (1) has any object other than or in addition to the furtherance of a trade dispute within the trade or industry in which the strikers (or employees in the case of a lockout) are engaged, and (2) Is calculated to coerce the government either directly or by inflicting h...dship upon the community.

The dispute of course hinges upon sympathetic strikes. The issue of the bill some weeks ago marked the first round of the fight, when the bill was bitterly criticized in the opposition press.

It now enters the great arena of Parliament.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN No. 50 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Weak from terror, Rokoff watched the figure of the silent, struggling ape-man disappear beneath the river's surface to unthinkable death in the slimy mud below. As he realized the good fortune that had befallen him, a cruel smile of relief and triumph touched his lips. But it was short-lived! For just as he was congratulating himself he was now safe indeed, a mighty pandemonium rose from the river bank.

There he saw standing upon the shore, glaring at him with hate-filled eyes, a devil-faced panther, surrounded by the hideous apes of Akut. In the forefront of them stood a giant black warrior, who shook his fist at him and uttered terrifying threats. The Beasts of Tarzan had been slow in following their agile master. The apes had reached the river just as Rokoff struck Tarzan.

Grim, relentless and terrible, the pack followed Rokoff day and night. His flight down the Ugambi became a horrible nightmare. Now abreast of him, now lost in the jungle for hours, only to reappear upon his trail, the dreadful horde raced after him, reducing him from a strong man to an emaciated, fear-gibbering thing long before the ocean broke upon his hopeless vision. Nowhere had he seen Jean Clayton.

To him there seemed little doubt Jane had been captured by warriors from the villages she must pass on her way down to the sea. The sight of the mouth of the Ugambi filled Rokoff with renewed hope. There on the placid water of the bay floated the Kincaid at anchor. Frantically he paddled toward her, shouting loudly to attract the attention of the men he had left on board. Yet no answer came from the silent craft!

MORE VITALITY NEEDED IN WEST

Henry Wise Wood Points Out Fundamental Weakness of Alberta's Farm Body.

SHUNS PRICE FIXING.

CALGARY, Alta., Jan. 20. (CP)—Henry Wise Wood, by far the most perennial of the West's farmer-leaders, to-day delivered his 15th annual presidential address to assembled United Farmers of Alberta. He ignored contentious subjects, placed his finger on the "fundamental weakness" of Alberta's politi-educational farm-body, and pleaded for new member-interest and vitality.

He made no mention of price-fixing for wheat, bone of contention among western agrarians and certain to be a moot topic at the four-day convention opening to-day, and he said not a word on 100-percent-pooling, which he criticized drastically a year ago and on which pool-members have either asked or taken a ballot in all three Prairie Provinces.

Individualism—slacking of interest once the first battle was won—was manifest among U.F.A. members, Mr. Wood said. "While farmers of Alberta have perhaps made more progress during the last 20 years toward overcoming this weakness than have the farmers of any other part of the world" said the 70-year-old president, they have yet a long way to go."

Results Hard to Analyze

The post-war period Mr. Wood characterized as "12 years of warfare with results that are tragic but are hard to analyze." He referred to the fact that millions of people in the world are without food, shelter or proper clothing, whereas there is a super-abundance of all the necessities of life in the world's storehouse; adding, "this is an outstanding example of normal results of an intensive development under false and non-constructive industrialism."

"True social industrialism will provide for the wants of all through the efforts of all, maintaining at all times adequate reserves," commented Mr. Wood. As long as the masses remain in stupid submission, they will suffer the consequences." The human race's supreme mission—to become civilized—involves, Mr. Wood said, development of a world-wide industrial system, which through the combined efforts of all, will supply degitimate wants of all.

BRISBANE, Australia, Jan. 20. — (Canadian Press Cable.)—The West Indies cricketers, who to-day lost the test match with Australia, were able to add only 33 runs to their overnight score of 115 runs for eight wickets in their second innings. The visitors have lost three straight International games and the rubber.

CANADIAN BAN ON LIQUOR EXPORT

had multiplied four and five times, the amounts of Canadian whisky declared for export to the United States remained stationary. In the five years before 1929 Canadian exports to the West Indies more than doubled, to St. Pierre-Miquelon multiplied almost by four, and to British Honduras more than three. "These increases," the report says, "were out of all proportion to legitimate demands in those places and can have but one meaning.

The effect of the system of Governmental sale of liquor in vogue in Canadian Provinces is a matter of controversy, the Commission finds.

Discussing systems of sale by Government agencies the Commission's report noted that Dominion statistics show the total consumption of spirits in Canada reached a peak in 1921, fell to a low in 1925, since when there has been an increase, although the 1929 figures are less than half the figures for 1921.

Government Sale Opposed.

The report goes on to say: "We do not consider sale or distribution directly by the Government or immediate Government agencies expedient in the United States, and are opposed thereto."

William Kenyon, in an individual report, takes note of the appearance before the Commission of Hon E C Drury, former Premier of Ontario Mr. Drury states, Commissioner Kenyon says: "That bootlegging is carried on in the Province of Ontario to as great an extent now as during prohibition days; that there is much drunkenness, and that arrests for drunkenness have not diminished He stated that the present system in Ontario is not satisfactory; that liquor consumption and crimes have increased under Governmental Liquor Control."

Commissioner Kenyon further says: "Other prominent Canadians are quoted to the contrary in the papers. Throughout Canada it will be found there are complaints as to violations of their laws. Undoubtedly there has been increased sale and consumption of intoxicating beverages in Canadian Provinces that have given up prohibition."

PATIENCE NEEDED FOR WHEAT POOL

Premier Brownlee Warns Hearers Against Taking Secession Talk Too Seriously.

SPEAKS IN VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 20. — Voicing an appeal for patience in allowing the wheat pool to work out its destiny, Hon. J. E. Brownlee, Premier of Alberta, delivered an address here last night at the annual meeting of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Mr. Brownlee, in addition, declared Alberta was in the best position in its history to exploit a return of normal business conditions. He warned his hearers not to be too seriously aroused by the talk of secession from the Dominion which has been heard in the west recently, but he also advised it would be wise to take cognizance of it as an indication of the feeling of dissatisfaction which is prevalent in Western Canada.

Referring to the shipment of wheat through Vancouver he voiced the belief that the city's exports, eventually, would take care of all of Alberta's production, as well as a large part of Saskatchewan's.

The Wheat Pool, said the Premier had served a useful purpose, and he asked that the people of British Columbia should be patient in allowing it to work out its destiny.

Mr. Brownlee declared he had no fear that Russian competition in wheat production would prove ruinous to Canadian farmers. A return to normal conditions would materially increase the world consumption of primary products, and when this came about, surpluses would be absorbed, he believed.

CONSERVATIVE WOMEN ELECT

The short business session was preceded by the singing of "O Canada" and the first stanza of "The Maple Leaf", with Mrs. W. A. Greenslade accompanying at the piano.

Among some of the resolutions adopted at the meeting were those respecting the appointment of a telephone committee in each of the wards, to notify members of meetings etc.; it was further decided that owing to the rapid growth of the Association subsequent meetings will also be held in the Paragon Hall.

Mrs. Fallis gave a brief resume of political activities since last annual meeting. Among the most outstanding were:

1. Provincial elections in Alberta and New Brunswick, resulting in the return to power of a Progresive Government in Alberta led by Premier Brownlee and a Conservative Government in New Brunswick led by Premier Baxter.

2. Dominion Election on July 28, resulting in overthrow of King Government and election of a Conservative Government led by Rt Hon. R. B. Bennett.

3. The breaking of the 'Solid Bloc' in Quebec and election of 24 Conservatives to the Federal House.

4. The calling of an "Emergency Session" of Parliament to deal with unemployment relief.

5 The Imperial Conference which met in London, England; and adjourned to meet in Ottawa this Fall.

6. The appointment of Hon. Howard Ferguson as High Commissioner to England—the selection by him of Hon. George S. Henry to be his temporary successor and the choosing by the Liberals of a new leader, Mitchell Hepburn, of West Elgin

"Of our own loss in the appointment of Mr. Ferguson as High Commissioner, it is difficult to speak," said Mrs. Fallis, "but with the sense of loss comes a great thrill of pride to those of us who have served him so loyally for many years—pride, mingled with a feeling of intense gratification that our confidence in him has been so amply justified not only by his appointment to his present position, but by the nature of the farewell which he is receiving.

"I think one is safe in saying that not within our memory at least, has any man after nearly thirty years of public service received ovations from all parts of the Province and from people representative of every phase of our country's life, such as Mr. Ferguson has been receiving for the past few weeks.

"One of the most outstanding of these was the invitation which he received to be guest of honor and chief speaker on January 9 at the banquet of the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association— a non-political organization. A rather amusing coincidence was the fact that just at the time Alfred Maguire, President of the Association, was broadcasting to all parts of the Province the statement that it was because of Mr. Ferguson's co-operation and non-political dealings with Hydro that he had been invited to speak at their banquet. Mr Hepburn, the newly chosen Liberal leader was speaking at a Liberal convention in Mr. Ferguson's own riding of Grenville. And after accusing Mr. Ferguson and his government of all possible sins of omission and commission, he thundered "And in the administration of the Hydro we again find political interference."

"The public may make its own choice between the praise which was showered upon Mr. Ferguson from all sides at this banquet for his non-political attitude towards Hydro and the bitter, partisan charges of this fledging who said himself at the convention which chose him leader that he was inexperienced and would have to be guided by the older men of the party. One feels after reading that Grenville speech that the sooner that guiding begins, the better it will be for the Liberal party."

Mrs. Fallis paid tribute to Ontario's new premier, the Hon. George S. Henry, as a capable administrator of many years' experience admired and respected by friend and foe, alike, for his honesty of purpose and sterling integrity.

She thanked the members of the Association for the loyal support they had always given her and for the many kind expressions of appreciation now on the occasion of her retirement and bespoke for her successor, Mrs. G. S. Cameron, the same spirit of loyalty and kindliness.

Following a splendid detailed report of the past year's activities, which was given by the secretary, and also a report of Mrs. Cridland, at one of the delegates to the Provincial annual meeting held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto in which she referred particularly to the work of Mrs. Howard Ferguson. Mrs. Cameron the newly elected president delivered her inaugural address. She was introduced to the gathering by Mrs. Fallis.

After thanking the ladies for the confidence they had shown in her, by electing her as their President, by acclamation, she remarked, that she could not think of trying to fill the place vacated by Mrs. Fallis, but that she would try with the co-operation of the officers and members to carry on the work for a time and give Mrs. Fallis a well-merited rest.

E. A. Peck, M.P., paid a visit to the meeting in the course of the afternoon. He congratulated the ladies on the large turnout, and said that he had been extremely busy at Ottawa under the new regime. There was a vast difference, he said, in being on the Government benches.

Speaking of the hard work which is the lot of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Mr. Peck stated, the Premier's message to the meeting is that we must keep up our courage.

"We all feel confident," added the speaker, "that if we keep up our courage, after a time this unfortunate economic depression will be overcome."

Referring to the Radio Service question, he promised to speak on the subject more definitely on some future occasion, and in conclusion thanked the assembly for the support he had received from them last July.

J. F. Strickland, M.L.A., sent his regrets at his inability to be present.

The address in connection with the presentation to the retiring president was couched in the following terms:

"Dear Mrs. Fallis. The Women's Conservative Association of Peterborough cannot let this occasion pass without expressing to you the esteem in which you are held by all the members and the regret we feel in having to accept your resignation, after your valuable leadership of almost ten years. From a mere handful of women eager to learn more of Canadian politics you have guided us and helped us until the Association has progressed to a stage of efficiency and intelligence, concerning the scene of Government."

"We owe you a grateful thanks and hope you will accept this small token of our affection and trust that in the future you will spare us a little of your valuable time"—signed on behalf of Women's Liberal-Conservative Association of Peterboughg.

A social half hour was spent following the completion of business and election of officers and a program was contributed to by Mrs. Melville Braund who sang "Down the Vale" accompanied by Mrs. Greenslade.

public first hand information. They were backed by Ald. Mitchell. On the other hand, Ald. Wentman, Mayor Alcorn and Ald. Pogue, a new man, were for the motion, and the tie vote was cast by Chairman Begg, who is an ex-Mayor of the town. Thirty years ago reporters were excluded from attending Lindsay Council committee meetings.

Started Last Year.

The trouble, it is believed, started last year when an ex-editor of the Lindsay daily paper caused considerable trouble to the Council in publishing matters that it was claimed should not have been printed. One of the reporters present objected strenuously to the idea of excluding the press, and stated that the press would use the best judgment possible in dealing with matters before the Council, all to no avail.

It is expected that popular opinion will be strictly against the decree of the Council.

NEW CITY CLERK FOR SUDBURY

SUDBURY, Jan. 20. (CP)—By a motion passed at the City Council meeting last night the late office of city clerk occupied by Robert H. Grant, becomes vacant February 1, unless he fyles his resignation sooner and the position of city treasurer, also occupied by Mr. Grant, becomes vacant at the same time. G. M. McCormack, who has been assistant treasurer, was appointed acting city clerk. The motion dispensing with Mr. Grant's services was made by Ald. W. J. LaForest who alleged that Mr. Grant had made certain improper statements and had also failed to co-operate properly with him in giving him information which he needed as chairman of the finance commitee.

Franco-Italian Naval Building Truce Ends

HALTED PROGRAM WILL BE STARTED AT ONCE BY ITALY

Despatches State Gov't Prepared to Build Gun For Gun With France.

PLAN FOR 22 NEW SUBS.

Little Hope Seen For Renewal of Parleys to Straighten Differences.

PARIS, January 21 (C.P.). —The French-Italian naval construction truce, agreed upon last year when the two countries failed to adhere to the principal section of the London Naval Treaty, was said in authoritative circles to have come to an end.

Rome despatches stated that from now on Italy was prepared, independent of its normal construction program, to build gun for gun with France. Work is to be started on the suspended 1930 program of 22 submarines and seven other units with keels to be laid down in a few months.

No Hope for Parleys.

Both here and in Rome there seemed to be no hope to-day for resumption of pourparlers in Geneva which would find a solution of the differences between tht two countries

The building holiday just ended was agreed upon by Aristide Briand and Premier Mussolini last year, and was to have run out last month, but until Rome despatches informed the officials of Italy's intentions to proceed with construction, it was understood here it might be protracted somewhat longer.

LINDSAY TALKS OF SEPARATION

Reeve Moore Believes Town Be Better Off Financially if Away From County.

PAYS VICTORIA $50,000.

LINDSAY, January 21 (Examiner Correspondence). — Separation from the County of Victoria was a subject discussed by Lindsay Town Council at its session last night. Mayor Alcorn wished to know what effect the county rate would have on the town if the assessment was boosted high enough to cut the tax rate in half. He understood the town paid into the county about $50,000.

Reeve Moore thought the town would be better off financially divorced from the county owing to the cost of good roads.

Mayor Alcorn claimed that the city of Peterborough was better off because the money it pays for county roads is spent close to the city, while Lindsay's is spent all over the county.

MONTREAL ONLY HAS JOB RING

Check-up in Other Cities Fails to Reveal Civil Service Irregularities.

NO FURTHER ARRESTS.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 21 (C.P.) — Study of the examination papers written in Toronto for Civil Service positions has shown there were no irregularities such as those charged against Montreal. Dr. W. J. Roche, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, said to-day. He was convinced, he said, that the "job-ring" which is charged with operating in Montreal, confined its activities to that city and that no examinations held in other centres in Canada were tinged with irregularities.

Since Leo Bouchard and Lionel Chartrand, two Ottawa Government employees, were arrested on charges of being members of a ring that accepted money from Civil Service aspirants for over-valuation of their papers, study has been made of papers written in other cities. This has shown, Dr. Roche said, that no irregularities took place and that the competitive merit system was followed rigidly.

No further arrest are contemplated in Ottawa, Dr. Roche said, adding that investigation of the activities of the alleged "job-ring" was now centered in Montreal.

POWER CONTROL FIGHT LOOMING IN UNITED STATES

Controversy to be Made Third Issue in Presidential Campaign Next Year.

INTERESTING TO CANADA.

Wide Differences as to Whether Gov't or Private Interests Management Be Best.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 21 (By Ken Clark, C.P. Staff Correspondent) —Hydro-electric power in the United States, a subject which would seem to have more than an academic interest for Canadians, inasmuch as it bears upon the St. Lawrence development, is the subject of a lively controversy in Washington. The question: Shall power in the United States continue to be developed by private interests or shall it be developed by the Government?

Progressive Republicans from the West like Senator Robert Lafollette and his brother Phillip, newly-elected Governor of Wisconsin, are for Government ownership and control, as is the Democrat, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York. This school continually draws attention to the fact that the people of Ontario get their power from the Hydro-Electric Commission more cheaply than their neighbors in New York State, from private companies.

Conservative Republicans generally and not a few Democrats declare definitely for private development. The strength of this is demonstrated by the present fierce and long battle put up by Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska for Federal development of the Muscle Shoals project in Alabama. Incident to the ratification by the Senate of President Hoover's new appointees to the Federal Power Commission, the struggle has waxed in violence and the more radically inclined Senators have made vitriolic reference to the "Power Trust."

Mystery "Power Trust"

Exactly what this "Power Trust" is, nobody knows. Some of the more

LABOR CABINET IS BEATEN IN HOUSE REFUSES TO QUIT

Amendment of Educational Bill is Bitterly Attacked By Conservatives.

AMENDMENT CARRIED.

Prime Minister Declares That No Vital Principal Was Involved.

LONDON, Jan. 21—(CP)—The Macdonald Government was defeated in the House of Commons today on an amendment to the Education Bill, but Prime Minister Macdonald said no vital principle was involved. Thus the Government will not be obliged to resign. The refusal was not the first Mr. Macdonald has made. Last March he declined to surrender following a defeat in the House on an amendment to the coal bill.

Raise Age Limit

The Education Bill, raising the age which children may leave school from 14 to 15 years, authorizes grants to parents in poor circumstances of five shillings a week for each child coming within the provisions of the bill. It affects eleven thousand of the twenty thousand elementary schools in the country.

The Conservatives attacked these grants as an unwarranted "sop to parents," and offered an amendment limiting the grants to five years. The Government countered with charges that the Conservatives wanted to deny to the children of the poor the benefits of education which they themselves had enjoyed.

Beaten Lords Three Times.

Mr. MacDonald has met defeat three times in the House of Lords—once in March, 1930, on the Coal Bill amendment, again when the House passed a vote of censure in connection with the Imperial Conference in December last year, and again on the Dyestuffs Act in the same month. Each time he refused to resign.

Immediately after the defeat was announced, Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, the Conservative leader, rose to ask if the Government intended to proceed with the Education Bill tonight.

Premier MacDonald said that he was rather surprised at the query and added that the whole house was agreed as to the Government's intention regarding the bill. The only difference was one of method, he said.

"The Government will continue negotiations and will do its best to VILLAGES DEPOPULATED.

By Wilfrid Eggleston
(Special to The Examiner—Copyright, 1931).

SHAUNAVON, Sask., Jan. 21. — Every walk of life, virtually every household, urban or rural, in the stretch of wheat-land between here and Assiniboia is feeling the pinch of "hard times," and the reduction of a once prosperous people to lowered standards of living is noticeable in a multitude of ways.

The villages along the line are being depopulated. Of those who remain, many are not earning sufficient for a living, but are eating into their small reserves in the hope and belief that better times are just around the corner.

One Show Operating.

Eighteen months ago every village between Assiniboia and here, a distance of 130 miles, had a "movie" theatre in operation. Some villages had two. To-day there is only one show operating between the two divisional points, and it only runs two or three nights a week.

Lafleche is one of the larger settlements, boasting at the peak some 500 inhabitants. In the past few months the following changes have occurred there: a photographer has closed his studio and gone, a marcellist has gone out of business, one restaurant and one lumber yard have closed down, the town's blacksmith has ceased business, the barber shop on the main street is closed indefinitely. No new establishments have taken their place.

(Special to The Examiner)

LINDSAY, Ont., Jan. 21st. — The barn and contents of William Clarke, a farmer living northeast of Lindsay were completely destroyed by fire last night. At the time Mr. Clarke was doing the chores when the lantern exploded causing the blaze, the loss includes a large flock of hens, a strong west wind was blowing at the time and neighbors, who were hurriedly summoned had difficulty saving the Clarke home, the loss is estimated at $2,000.00.

150 Orillia Jobless Storm Town Hall; Make Lone Alderman Promise Free Fuel

ORILLIA, Ont., January 21 (C.P.) — About 150 unemployed stormed the Town Hall to-day, and made the only alderman present, R. DeGittle, promise free fuel to more than 100 of them. The crowd gathered early this morning when word of the last minute's postponement of commencement of work on the drainage canal spread throughout the town. The reason given for the postponement of the work was due to the fact that the relief fund of $45,000 had been exhausted, and a complete stoppage of work was imminent.

Mr. Doolittle promised that all persons would be given free wood, and that this afternoon he would see their demands were fulfilled.

BREMEN REGAINS ATLANTIC RECORD

German Liner Aided By Fair Weather Crosses in 6 Days Three Hours.

Bremenhaven To New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The liner Bremen has wrested from her sister ship Europa the trans-Atlantic speed record between Bremenhaven, Germany, and New York.

With Captain C. W. Hagerman, a relief commander, on the bridge, she docked at her Brooklyn Pier yesterday, six days and three hours after leaving her home port—surpassing the Europa's speediest crossing by three hours. Friendly tides and fair weather made it possible.

The Europa still holds the blue ribbon for the fast voyage across the Atlantic, however, once held by the Bremen. On March 25, 1930, she steamed from Cherbourg breakwater to Ambrose lightship in four days, seventeen hours and six minutes.

Young Ladies Wanted To Aid In Relief Work

Part Time Services to Help in Work Undertaken By Newly Formed Relief Organization.

Would any young lady, or several young ladies, for that matter, care to ofer their part-time services free, to assist in the work being undertaken by the newly-formed Peterborough Relief Association?

The organization, which is designed to assist in the work among the needy of the city, needs some clerical help, which would consist mainly of answering telephone calls at a central distributing office, and of tabulating information. Some experience of typewriting is desirable, but not absolutely essential.

The work is interesting and worth while. It is really in the nature of Social Service work and appeals to many people. Any young woman over twenty-one who would like to help in this way (there is no salary in connection with any of the work in this new society) is asked to telephone The Examiner, 1600, or Mrs. W. R. Morris, at 1096J.

The vote was 20 to 8 in favor of the measure. It must pass on a third and final reading before it becomes a law.

BIRTH CONTROL STUDY IS URGED

Lambeth Conference Findings to Come Before Lower House of Convocation of Canterbury.

WILL DISCUSS DIVORCE.

LONDON, January 21 (C.P.). — In the Lower House of the Convocation of Canterbury to-day it was decided that a committee be appointed tostudy the proposals of the Lambeth Conference regarding divorce and birth control. The committee was authorized by a resolution adopted by a vote of 52 to 50 on the motion of Canon Long of Birmingham, who asked that the proposals be given careful consideration before they were thrown open to general debate.

"Many people we know and respect," he said, "are prepared to support the Conference's limited approval of birth control, but we also are keenly conscious of a number of facts which point in the other direction. This causes us deep regret that the Bishops gave approval to a practice which is open, as they themselves allow, to great and terrible abuse."

Canon Long said the strictly limited approval by the Bishops of the use of contraceptives in certain cases was of revolutionary character.

BELIEVE 100 MEN PAID $400 FEE INTO JOB RING

Montreal Employee Gives Names of 20 Who Paid Him $400 to $500 Each.

POSTAL SERVICE POSITIONS.

Arrests of Several Other Agents Expected to Follow Shortly.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 21. (CP)—A Montreal despatch to the Ottawa Journal to-day says:

'Developments are expected which may now reveal that at least 100 men paid from $400 to $500 each to an alleged 'job-ring' in the Government Service, to have examination papers for postal service positions were looked after 'so that appointment would soon be forthcoming.

"Headed by Civil Service Commissioner J. Emile Tremlay, an investigating body arrived here from Ottawa last night to resume inquiries.

"Commissioner Tremblay, is hopeful of tracing the three or four other 'agents' in the alleged ring who are believed to have received money from Candidates for positions. It is said about $40,000 was picked up this way.

20 Names Given

"W. Chartrand, an employee in the Montreal Postal Service, was brought from Ottawa to Montreal last night and he is said to have given the names of 20 men from whom he had received $400 to $500 each."

Two Government workers are under arrest in Ottawa on charges of conspiring to defraud the Government through operations of the alleged "Job-ring". The accused men, Leo Bouchard, Civil Service Examiner, and Lionel Chartrand, Income Tax Department worker, were remanded for one week under $5,000 bail each when they appeared yesterday in police court.

According to investigators, operations of the alleged ring revolved around a system whereby applicants for Postal Service positions merely signed their examination papers, turned a sum of money over to agents of the ring and had the answers to examination questions filled in here.

Ojibway Steel Plant May Be Re-opened

OTTAWA, Ont. Jan. 21.—(C. P.)—Conversations looking toward reopening of the huge United States' Steel Corporation plant at Obijway, will be held here next week when James A. Farrell, president of the Corporation, visits the capital to see Premier R. B. Bennett, says the Ottawa Evening Journal in a newspage story to-day. The plant was constructed during the Great War at a heavy cost. It has not been in operation for some considerable time.

First Principle of British Justice Is Thrown Into Dirt

Attorney-General Price Strikes Back at His Liberal Critics and Charges Them With Discussing a Case Which is Now Before the Courts of the Province.

POLITICAL CAPITAL IS BEING MADE OF STIMSON CASE MAKE NO COMMENT OF CHARGES MADE BY LIBERALS

Col. Price Intends Going to Hamilton and There Will Discuss the General Policies of the Government, But is Unable to Talk About Court Cases.

TORONTO, Ont., January 21 (C.P.). — Striking back at his Liberal critics on the Stimson failure, Hon. W. H. Price, Attorney-General, to-day charged Mitchell F. Hepburn, Liberal Leader, and Elmore Philpott, Liberal candidate in the Hamilton West by-election with "throwing into the dirt the first principle of British liberty" in discussing a case that is now before the Courts.

"As Attorney-General, I am not in a position to discuss any case that is pending before the Courts," said Col. Price. "In the case of the failure of the Stimson Company, criminal charges are in the hands of the Courts. The Department of the Attorney-General and the Department of the Provincial Secretary will be prepared at the proper time to put all their evidence before the Courts for proper decision. When that time comes it will be found that they have taken ample action all along the line in the performance of their duties."

Political Capital.

Charging the Liberal critics with making political capital out of the situation now before the courts, Col. Price said: "There has been a persistent effort on the part of some people to discuss criminal cases that are before the courts. At a time when there seems to be a great cry for British justice as exemplified in our Canadian courts, the very first principle of British liberty is being thrown into the dirt by those who want to make political capital out of it. Never in the history of the Province has there been a time when for purely political purposes attacks of this kind were made criticizing the administration of justice in particular cases that were pending."

"I am afraid," he continued, "as far as any cases that are before the courts are concerned, I will have to adopt that time-honored practice of making no comment. There will be a time when these are disposed of when I may be able to say something, but at the present time I will have to ask the people to take into consideration the motives of those who are making the attacks, and their evident disregard for precedent or practice.

In considering general policies of the Government and any criticism that may be made against this department or any department of the Government on matters that are not pending before the courts, I propose to be over in Hamilton some day soon and will address the electors there."

LAKEFIELD MAN HAS TOUGH NIGHT IN POLICE CELLS

Mendel Smith Gets Ten Days For Being Drunk While Driving a Car.

$100 AND COSTS FOR HAVING

Charge of Perjury May Also Be Laid Against the Prisoner.

Adventures of a night in the cells might fittingly serve as a title for the tale that Mendel Smith, of Lakefield, related to Police Magistrate Langley this morning in testifying on his own behalf. He came close to charging that police had libelled his character, robbed him of his wallet and watch, and mistreated him during his night's sojourn in the cells.

Smith was picked up at 12.20 this morning by Constable Leonard Matthews on Water Street in company with two friends in a car, and this morning he faced charges of being drunk in charge of a car and having liquor in his possession illegally.

After a long-drawn out trial, in which Smith related his experiences of sleeping on the cell floor and absolutely denied that he had even seen a bottle of liquor last night, he was found guilty of being intoxicated in charge of a car, and sentenced to ten days. After his two friends had shot holes in his testimony of not having had a drink, he pleaded guilty to possessing the liquor and was fined $100 and costs.

A charge of perjury may be laid against Smith.

Smith selected to be his own counsel, and therein lies the tale.

Ordered Car To Stop.

Constable Matthews related how he had seen Smith's car zig-zagging up Water Street. He ordered the car to stop, and in bringing the vehicle to a halt, he declared, Smith ran up on the sidewalk. Smith was drunk, his breath smelled of liquor, and he talked and swore loudly, the constable stated.

Sergeant Wm. Wigg, who assisted in taking the men to the station, also stated that Smith was intoxicated.

Then Smith took the box and began his rambling remarks, which continually sent the court audience into gales of laughter. He said that he drove the car to Peterborough from

PASSENGERS DETAINED.

Sixteen cars of an eastbound C. N. R. freight train from Peterborough were derailed near Foxboro last night. It is thought that the wreck was caused by a broken arch bar in one of the cars. No one was reported injured.

The passenger and Pullman train leaving Belleville and arriving in Peterborough at 8 a.m. was not able to operate. The Pullman cars, however, were routed via Port Hope.

The wrecking train arrived at the scene of the derailment at 7 o'clock this morning, and the workmen expected that they would have the tracks cleared for the afternoon trains.

COUNTRY FAMILY HAVE CLOSE CALL

Blaze in Fullarton Township Forces Four Out Into Bitter Cold.

SOME FURNITURE SAVED.

STRATFORD, Jan. 21.—The family of Herbert Beer, Fullarton township, three miles from Mitchell, had a narrow escape from death at an early hour this morning when their home was destroyed by fire of an undetermined origin.

The blaze originated in the woodshed where it had gained considerable headway before being discovered by Mrs. Beer, who was awakened by a crackling sound. Mrs. Beer, only partly clothed, and her 10-year-old daughter, attired only in her nightgown, were forced to tramp through a bitter cold night and deep snow to the home of a neighbor. Mr. Beer and the hired man succeeded in getting a few articles of furniture out of the house.

HEAVY BARRAGE OF ACCUSATIONS LAID AGAINST ATTORNEY GENERAL AT WEST HAMILTON LIBERAL MEET

Philpott Claims No Action Taken Though Facts Known 18 Months Before.

INVESTIGATION ASKED.

Liberal Leader Asks Why Price is Always on Side of Conspirators.

HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 21. — (CP) — Speaking before a large gathering of Liberals here last night, Mitchell F. Hepburn, M. P., Elgin West, and Provincial Liberal Leader and Elmore Philpott, who was unanimously chosen as candidate in the forthcoming Hamilton West, Provincial by-election, subjected the Ontario's Government and Attorney-General W. H. Price in particular to a veritable barrage of accusations.

The speakers charged Mr. Price with failure to prosecute in connection with fraudulent stock transactions when details of the alleged fraud had been tendered his department.

Mr. Philpott asserted the full facts of the G. A. Stimson Company case had been put before the Attorney-General by a prominent Toronto financier. The speaker said he would divulge the name of his informant at the proper time. Mr. Price, he said, had declined to act on the information.

Royal Commission Warranted

His charges, the candidate proceeded, warranted the naming of Royal Commission, or that other judicial procedure would be necessary. He added that conditions of the Stimson Company, which assigned last week, were known to Mr. Price 18 months ago.

During their addresses the speakers displayed copies of documents on which the charges were based In one specific charge, Mr. Philpott declared in May, 1928, the Stimson Company issued a circular stating there were no mortgages on the Commerce and Transportation Building in Torono. Shortly after he continued, two financial publications announced there was a mortgage of $850.000 against the building.

Mr. Hepburn criticised Mr Price for failure to proceed with prosecutions against stock brokers earlier. He declared the Attorney-General's attitude toward wealthy brokers "who had taken millions of dollars from the citizens of Ontario" was nothing less than a scandal. He claimed Mr Price was aware of the bucketing operations of certain brokers over "a term of years, but it was difficult to try and pin the Attorney-General to anything savoring of frankness."

Jackson Manion Case Up.

The Provincial Liberal Leader referred to the Jackson Manion Mines case as one instance of Mr. Price's handling of the brokerage situation. He stated the collapse of this stock was investigated by A. W. Rogers of the Attorney-General's Department, and the latter had reported "he felt there was a conspiracy" in connection with the fall in the stock's market valuation.

The speaker then asked why Mr. Price had not prosecuted the conspirators. "Why is he always on the side of the conspirators? Why is he not functioning for the public weal? The public conscience of Ontario has been shocked and demoralized by the recent revelations of Mr. Price's failure to act promptly in the wholesale robbery that went on among the brokers. Respect for British jurisprudence has been weakened through his shortcomings and I say a Royal Commission is needed to clean up the mess he has left" Mr. Hepburn declared.

MONTREAL, Que. Jan. 21.—(CP)—With the initiative of California Fruit Growers having largely substituted the orange for the apple as a great health giver, the apple growing industry was facing many problems, E. N. Brown, K.C., president of the Pomological and Fruit Growing Society of Quebec, told the annual meeting of that body yesterday. As a measure of relief Mr. Brown urged as most important the production of only high grade fruit, and elimination from the markets "of the quantities of inferior apples and culls that have flooded them, depressing the price and disgusting the buyers who turn to other kinds of fruits."

CURE OF DISEASE IS EMPHASIZED

Robb Holds Peterborough Up to Province as Example For Public Health Work.

PAYS $2 PER INDIVIDUAL.

TORONTO Ont., Jan. 21.—Ontario was paying too much attention to the curing and too litte to the prevention of disease, Hon. J. M. Robb. Ontario Minister of Health declared at the annual meeting of the Council of the Ontario Division, Canadian Red Cross.

One hundred million dollars was spent annually in the Province to cure disease and only $2,749,000 in disease prevention work, he said. "These figures are out of proportion", he added. Think how the Province has handled the typhoid situation. An outbreak of this disease is regarded as a scandal.

"Try to realize how much would be accomplished," he continued, "if the municipalities would pay as much attention to other diseases as they do typhoid."

Referring to the sums paid for public health work in various parts of the Province, Dr. Robb said some counties pay as little as seven cents per person. Toronto was paying $1.60 per person.

"Peterborough", he said, "to its everlasting credit, is paying two dollars per individual, the highest of all, and I am sure it is finding it well worth the outlay. We must convince people that public health is a good economic investment."

Argentina's sugar production last year is estimated at 387,500 tons.

Driver Summoned 4 Times On One Street

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (C.P.).—Vincent Scappaticio got four traffic summonses in five minutes, which is par for Canal street.

He blew his horn in a traffic jam and a policeman gave him a card for making an unnecessary noise. Then the cop noticed he hadn't a tail-light and gave him a summons for that. Three persons were crowded into the front seat with Vincent, and the officer opined that was reckless driving.

"And, incidentally," responded the cop, "the way you stopped made me think your brakes must be defective."

CASUALTY DECREASE IN ONTARIO MINES

Government Report Shows Rate of 3.02 Per 1,000 Men Employed.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21. (CP)—A decrease in the total number of casualties and an increase of one in the number of men killed over the preceding year is revealed in the annual report of mining accident and fatalities in the province as issued at Parliament buildings.

The report shows a fatality rate of 3.02 per 1,000 men employed or 0.02 per 1,000 lower than the average for the last twenty-five years.

There were 117 non-fatal accidents per 1,000 men employed, a decrease of nine per 1,000 men from the rate in 1929. The percentage of non-fatal accidents followed by infection decreased 6.9 per cent. in 1929 to 6.2 percent in 1930.

Tug Burns And Sinks In Sydenham River

WALLACEBURG, January 21 (C. P.). — Fire has rendered the tug Annette Fraser, belonging to the Wallaceburg Sand and Gravel Company, practically a total loss. Fire had been kept under the boiler recently in connection with pumping operations carried on since the tug has been moored in the Sydenham River near the lumber company yards following the close of navigation. The fire brigade found that the blaze had gained a strong hold aft and fore of the boiler house. The two firemen in about an hour had the blaze under control. Water, however, began to rush in through holes burned in the bottom and the side, and the craft is resting on the river bed with but her cabin and smoke stack above the water level. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The Annette Fraser was built at Wallaceburg in 1920 by the late John S. Fraser, K.C., first president of the Gravel Company.

Mrs. Anna M. Murphy, who died recently at Elstead, Ireland, aged 100, retained all her teeth until more than 80 years old.

HOOVER TAKES DEFINITE STAND FOR PROHIBITION

Does Not Favor Commission's Proposed Revision of 18th Amendment.

FINDINGS DIFFER.

Only Point Agreed on in Report is That Prohibition Not Observed or Enforced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (C.P.). — President Herbert Hoover has virtually declared himself a prohibitionist. Transmitting the report of his commission on law observance and enforcement to Congress, the President said: "The commission, by a large majority, does not favor repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. I am in accord with this view. I am in unity with the spirit of the report in seeking constructive steps to advance the national ideal of eradication of the social and economic and political evils of this (the liquor) traffic.

"I do, however, see serious objection to, and therefore must not be understood as recommending, the commission's proposed revision of the Eighteenth Amendment, which is suggested at some future time if the continued efforts at enforcement should not prove successful."

Lines Up With Drys.

In the above statement the President not only obviously aligned himself with the prohibition element in the Republican Party and the country at large, but drew attention to the anomaly contained in the report of the commission headed by George H. Wickersham.

After eighteen months' study, the eleven commissioners reported a division of opinion as follows:

Five favored modification of the Eighteenth Amendment; two favored repeal; four favored further trial; one refused to sign the general report.

All agreed prohibition was not now observed or enforced, that in the meantime increased appropriations were needed for enforcement, and that no modification to permit sale of light wines and beer was advisable.

From the above outlines, the position may be roughly but definitely drawn: The commission could not agree; President Hoover favors their prohibition recommendations and discards the strong suggestion that a change may be necessary.

INDIA'S PROGRESS SEEN IN REVIEW

MacDonald Denies Parley Called Because Officials Were Showing Weakness.

ADDRESS BROADCAST.

LONDON, Jan. 21.— India's progress toward self-government was traced by Premier Ramsay MacDonald last night, in an address broadcast to the British Isles, India and North America.

For half a century, the Premier said, "responsible British statesmen" have been assuring India the attainment of self-government was "the purpose of our presence there."

The Premier said the conference had not been called because of recent incidents in India, or because British Government or Indian officials were showing weakness.

"These incidents rather have placed obstacles in our way," he said. "Events have moved fast in India during the last few years," Mr. MacDonald said, "and it is unfortunate that a good deal of enthusiasm has been impatient and overflowed the bounds of wise political activity. If we are to be turned away from our policy of freedom and justice because of destruction, it would mean that we would have to abandon the only way to settlement and order.

Unless Great Britain had intended eventually to permit India to have self government, he added, it should have seen that the effects of education on young Indians were piling up trouble for the Government.

E. A. PECK IS RE-ELECTED HEAD OF LITTLE LAKE CEMETERY BOARD

Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the Lot Owners is Held in City.

Strong Financial Condition.

E. A. Peck, M.P., was re-elected president and Mayor Denne vice-president at a meeting of the newly-appointed directors of Little Lake Cemetery Company. The eighteenth annual meeting of the lot owners of the company was held in the board room of the Toronto Savings and Loan Company on Monday afternoon. Reports of committees were submitted.

The following were elected directors: B. Shortly, E. H. D. Hall, W. G. Morrow, A. S. Stevenson, E. A. Peck, M.P., B. F. Ackerman, Mayor Denne, R. J. Kidd and H. A. Morrow.

Wm. Foord, of Toronto, a former superintendent of the company, complimented the company on the excellent manner in which they managed the cemetery. He stated that Little Lake was one of the best cemeteries in the province.

Directors' Report

E. A. Peck, president of the Board gave the following report:

"On behalf of the Directors, I beg to present the following as their report for the year ending 31st of December, 1930, being the Eightieth Annual Report of the Directors of the Company.

"The work done and improvements effected in the cemetery during the year are particularly dealt with in the Superintendent's report. In addition to the extension and surfacing of roads through the cemetery, another section has been opened for interments and sales of lots therein are now being made.

"The treasurer's report will show the strong financial position to which the company has attained. The investments of the company were increased during the year by $4,000, bringing the amount of the securities held by the company to over $85,000 of which $29,365 represents moneys deposited with the company for special care of particular lots designated by the contributors. The securities held are all trustee securities, a substantial portion of them consisting of City of Peterborough Debentures, all the securities being preserved in a safety deposit box in the company's bank.

"With the assistance of the interest derived from investments, the company has for the past few years been able to meet its ordinary operating expenses out of revenue, and last year carried forward a surplus in this respect of $1,300, an increase over that of the previous year of $870. Unless unforseen expenditures have to be met it is expected that the funds derived from future sales of lots may all be applied to building up the investments of the company.

"The Directors desire to acknowledge the valuable services of the superintendent and other employees of the company, and the interest shown by them in the company's affairs."

William James, superintendent, submitted the following report:

Grading — On Section M and Section P we have placed one thousand four hundred and fifty-seven (1,457) yards of filling. This has been graded and seeded at a cost of nine hundred and seventy-one dollars ($971) for filling, seed $10.00, labor $147.00, making a total cost of $1,128.00. On Section M, Single Grave Section, there is space for 400 single graves ready for interments; Section P, space for 200 five grave lots.

Sections S and T—part of these two sections have been graded, terraced, and seeded, making 148 five-grave lots. Section S has been opened for sale. The cost of this work was $647.00, seed $28.00, making a total cost of $676.00. This makes a total cost of $1,803.00 spent on new ground in 1930.

Permanent Roads—There has been made during the year 645 running yards of road, 16 feet wide, graded and gravelled at a cost of $1 13 per running yard, or 21c per square yard, gravel costing $385.62, labor $342.96, making a total cost of $728.56. Balance of the roads were oiled and sanded.

Greenhouse Repairs—Both greenhouses have been painted inside and out.

Trees and Shrubs — Fifty maple trees and evergreen shrubs have been planted on the new sections.

There have been during the year:
275 burials.
30 foundations for monuments.
31 lots sold.
17 lots put under perpetual care, making a total of 136 lots under perpetual care.

PRESENTATION MADE TO WOOLER COUPLE

Many Friends Honor Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Wessels at Farewell Party.

WOOLER, January 21 (Examiner Correspondence). — On Monday evening about one hundred friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Wessels to make a presentation to them before leaving to take up residence in North Dakota, U.S.A.

The early hours of the evening were spent in games and singing, following which Mr. and Mrs. Wessels were seated and an appropriate address read by Mrs. S. L. Terrill, and the presentation of a library table equipped, electric lamp, and gifts for the two sons and small daughter made to them.

The following is the address:

"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wessels and Family. — We, your friends and neighbors, have met to-night that we may once more enjoy your companionship and the interchange of thought which has come to mean so much to us. If it were possible we should like to express our appreciation of what your life in Wooler has given to our church, our community and our homes, and express our feeling of regret at your removal from our community. You have always taken an active part in the social and moral welfare of the people, that you understand our aspirations and hopes and entered into them, not only as a citizen, but as man with man as a friend, making your church the vehicle to help in every problem.

Your influence has been an inspiration for good to each one of us, and though our relationship with you is soon to be severed and you will not be here in your bodily presence, still your spirit will remain for as long as we live, to cheer and comfort and encourage us.

This picture of you, we will carry in our hearts, is told in this little verse by Edgar Guest:

"His was the friendly life and brave,
Unto this world himself he gave:
His dreams were lofty and his creed
Found utterance in many a deed.
Clean, manly, upright to the end,
He taught us how to be a friend."

"We cannot fully express in words what our hearts feel on this occasion, but in order that you may have some moments of our attachment to you, and of your residence in this community, we ask you to accept these gifts as a pleasant remembrance of the years you have lived in our midst.

"We wish you and your children all the blessings of life, and we assure you we will always be interested in your welfare. As you enter into your new home in a new country, across the line, it is the sincere and heartfelt desire of all that you may long be spared to enjoy the greatest happiness, being confident that your qualities will carry you far toward the realization of your greatest hopes.

"Signed on behalf of the community,

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gainsforth.
Mr. and Mrs. John Goodfellow.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Putnam."

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 21—Bearish aspects of the Wickersham prohibition report tumbled grains downward yesterday, especially corn. The fact that the report omitted any statement looking to changes which would indicate immediate enlarged use of grains for beverage manufacture led to selling by traders whose hopes had been overthrown. Corn, which would be chiefly affected by resumption of beer-making, underwent a maximum drop of 1½c a bushel.

Corn closed unsettled, ⅞c to 1¼c lower; wheat at 1c decline to ⅛c advance; oats, ¼c to ½c down, and provisions unchanged to 10c up.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Egg prices continued their downward trend, and butter, cheese and potatoes were unchanged on the produce and dairy market here yesterday.

Carlot prices of Ontario and British Columbia fresh eggs and also storage eggs were firm from 1c to 2c lower. Ontario fresh extras and firsts lost 1c at 29c and 25c a dozen, while seconds were unchanged at 22c. British Columbia fresh extras dropped 2c at 30c, and firsts and pullets 1c at 27c and 25c to 26c a dozen, respectively. Storage extras were unchanged at 20c, and firsts declined 1c at 17c. Storage seconds lost 2c at 14c a dozen. Quotations to retailers were unchanged. Receipts were 2,862 cases.

Eastern Townships No. 1, pasteurized butter, was quoted at 31½c a pound and to retailers solids were 33c, and prints 34c a pound. Receipts were 69 boxes.

White winter cheese was 11c to 11½c a pound, and colored 13c. Summer white was 15c and colored 16c a pound. Receipts were only 8 boxes.

New Brunswick Green Mountain potatoes, in carlots, were 85c per 90 pounds, bulk, and to retailers 95c per 80-pound bag.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, Jan. 21. — The local butter market was steady yesterday, with prices unchanged at 31c to 31½c for No. 1, and 30c to 30½c for No. 2 creamery solids. Buyers seemed to be holding off with the idea that supplies would be cheaper when they were in the market, but sellers appeared to be offering supplies at firm prices, and content to continue doing so, as receipts were not pressing them.

Cream.

Cream prices were unchanged from previous quotations at 29c to 30c for special, 28c to 29c for No. 1, and 25c to 26c for No. 2, f.o.b. country points.

Cheese

The demand for cheese continued to be fair, and prices were firm at 14c for new large, 14¼c for twins, and 14½c for triplets to country shippers, while prices to retailers were steady at the recent advance to 15½c for new large, 15¾c for twins, and 16c for triplets.

Eggs

The egg market was weak, with dealers not definitely knowing just what prices to ask, especially for storage eggs. Wholesalers expected that the market for storage supplies would break again within a day or so, and also that the few cars of British Columbia eggs on spot would have some bearing on fresh supplies shortly, as they would have to be cleared.

Prices

Wholesalers offered candled out of storage eggs at 23c for extras, 20c for firsts, and 17c for seconds, and fresh eggs at 32c to 33c for extras in cartons, 30c to 31c for extras loose, 28c for firsts loose, 24c for pullet extras, and 22c for seconds loose. WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, January 21. — Local interest only was apparent on the Winnipeg wheat market yesterday. Moving within a range of 1c throughout the session, prices closed with loses of ⅝c to ¼c.

Lower values of foreign markets caused the weakness in Winnipeg and only the absence of selling pressure prevented a wide price-break. Some export business was worked overnight in Canadian wheat, and a total of 400,000 bushels is believed to have been shipped.

May wheat future was quoted at 56½c per bushel at the close, and July and October were selling at 57⅝c and 58⅝c respectively. Higher grades of cash wheat and oats and barley were the only active features in the cash and coarse grain section, fractionally higher prices prevailing.

TWIN DOLLAR DAYS TO BE HELD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY: JAN. 23-24

Nearly Ninety of Peterborough's Stores Will Unite in Big Sale.

ESTIMATING BLANKS.

Nearly ninety of Peterborough's best business houses have again united in the big semi-annual community event, Twin Dollar Days, which will be held on Friday and Saturday, January 23 and 24.

Co-operation with a country-wide movement to reduce retail and manufacturers' prices, every merchant seems to be trying to be in the lead in getting his prices down a little below his competitors'. Right in the midst of this continental movement comes the Winter Dollar Days, and the citizens can look for a phenomenal and general price slashing such as has not been seen on any previous Dollar Day occasion.

While they are making it easier in this way to sell, they are also making it unquestionably much easier to buy. From all indications the values are going to be more irresistable than ever before. The usual cash prizes amounting to $150 are also being offered in the big estimating contest.

As a guide to estimators, it might be well if all would read carefully the part of the full page advertisement referring to these bonuses. It has been found that a great many people do not fully understand what to do in order to give themselves a chance to be among the winners. Some think they have to guess the amount of money spent, and others seem to think it is a lucky number and just put down anything—4, 8, 25, 40 or the first thing that comes into their heads; some fill all the space with figures, running into millions. What the merchants' organizer wants all contestants to remember is that what they are supposed to be doing is to estimate the number of tickets that will be dropped in the box during the two days of community shopping.

A year ago there were 21,324 tickets dropped in and in August last the summer Twin Dollar Days, there were 22,201. It can easily be seen, then, that it is no hap-hazard affair, but a genuine attempt to estimate the number that will be in the box after two big buying days in 90 of Peterborough's best stores.

Interesting Debate Enjoyed By Students

OMEMEE, Jan. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The students attending the Short Course classes formed a Literary Society and on Thursday a debate was enjoyed at the Farmers' Club Rooms, where the young men meet, the subject being, "Resolved that the county affords better opportunities for social enjoyment than the city" the affirmative being taken by the Misses Maggie McQuade and Hazel Thorn and the negative upheld by Ross Calvert and Harold Mitchell.

The president of the young men's class, Edmond Ruth, acted as chairman for the occasion and the judges were the Misses Muirhead and Owens and Mr. Buchanan, who gave their decision in favor of the affirmative. Mr. Winter, as critic, gave his criticism making the program of great educational value to those present.

An interesting program of music was given and it was decided to hold a banquet at the conclusion of the courses.

THE CEMETERY BOARD.

Gratifying indeed are the reports of one of Peterborough's oldest organizations the Little Lake Cemetery Board, which show a sound financial position, and other beneficial results of the careful and business-like attention always given to the management of the Board's affairs by the public-spirited citizens who have undertaken this responsibility on behalf of the community.

This week's was the eightieth annual meeting of the Cemetery Board which, throughout all that span of eight decades, has devoted itself to the task of maintaining and improving and beautifying God's acre.

It has been fortunate indeed that men of keen business ability and a lively appreciation of public service have in all that time been ready and willing to devote themselves to this task.

Throughout the years some of Peterborough's best known citizens have been found associated with the management of Little Lake Cemetery and this readiness to serve has seen the vision of the original promoters completely justified and the property blossom forth into one of the most picturesque, beautiful and immaculately kept cemeteries in the whole province.

NOT ACHIEVING ITS PURPOSE.

According to the long-awaited report of President Hoover's Commission on law observance and enforcement, Canada's action in cutting off liquor exports to the United States may have preserved the good name and the honor of the Dominion, but it has done little to stop the flow of Canadian liquor over the border.

"It would be a mistake to assume," say the Commissioners, "that the cutting off of clearances of liquor from Canada to the United States has achieved its helpful intention. Continual increase in Canadian production with no corresponding increase of Canadian consumption indicates the contrary.

From the finding of the Commission liquor from Canada is entering the United States in increasing quantities by water from St. Pierre-Miquelon while at the same time smuggling of whiskey from this country by air and by land into the republic has also grown.

What has happened is that while the Canadian Government by cutting off clearance of liquor to our neighbours voluntarily deprived itself of millions of dollars of revenue, that well-intentioned action has apparently failed to achieve its purpose.

The majority of Canadians will no doubt, however, continue to approve of the policy adopted last year which ineffective or not has at least freed the Dominion of the charge of being bad neighbors and of winking at rum-running and bootlegging in defiance of the laws of a friendly country.

THE POPULARITY OF LIFE INSURANCE.

As in the days of the great Empire, "all roads led to Rome," so to-day can it just as truthfully be said that all roads leads to Life Insurance.

Almost every type of investment has been put to severe tests in late years and has been found wanting in some respect or other. Ever since "black Thursday" of 1929, when the huge tower of speculative investment began to crumble, just about every type of investment has been meeting acid tests—tests of strength; tests of stability; tests of integrity of management; tests of honesty of trusteeship—and almost every one has been found wanting.

With records clean from the standpoint of honesty, integrity, fair dealing and perfect trusteeship after many decades of astounding growth, all investments roads are leading to life insurance. From every important angle, the institution of life insurance has met every test and has never been found wanting in a single factor

To the seeker of high interest rates, the truth of the old adage "as interest increases, safety decreases" has never been so apparent as in the last year, and the trend of investment is more than ever before in history in the direction of the conservative; therefore in the direction of life insurance.

All high interest seekers and all out-and-out speculators have been badly burned at their play, and thousands who were in the market are now sadder but wiser seekers of a more conservative investment, with a guarantee of absolute safety for their remaining funds

Life insurance always keeps its promises, and life insurance, though never before appreciated as such by the public, is an investment. Slowly but surely the trend is in that direction as a solution of economic problems.

IN REGARD TO ASSESSMENT.

The question of assessment has been under discussion in many other centres in addition to Peterborough.

The fact that most municipalities have seen an increase in assessment, apart from new buildings, is noted by the Ottawa Journal, which remarks: "When the assessors go about their task this year of arriving at new value on which 1932 taxes will be paid, it is to be hoped that they will not be charged with that apparent ambition of the past of pushing up the assessment in this city four millions or so each year."

And the Stratford Beacon-Herald remarks that it has many times contended that it is bad policy to increase the assessment on property already fairly assessed. "There have been occasions," remarks the Beacon-Herald, "where assessments have been increased on the plea that a lower tax rate can be struck. And yet the history of such movements has been that the tax rate soon makes its way back to the old figure and ratepayers are facing both an increased assessment and the same or a greater tax rate."

It is interesting to note that in the matter of per capita assessment Peterborough stands tenth in the list of Ontario cities, the total taxable assessment of this city being $23,477,335 and the per capita assessment is $1,068.56.

Toronto, East Windsor, Fort William, Port Arthur, Ottawa, Niagara Falls, Windsor, Hamilton, and London are the municipalities with higher per capita assessment than Peterborough, while seventeen Ontario centres have a lower per capita assessment, North Bay the lowest, $623.73, and Oshawa next with $638.00.

THE MARITIMES HAVE A GRIEVANCE.

According to the Halifax Herald, the Maritime Provinces of Canada have a serious grievance. The Herald has been studying the figures of Canada's export trade, and it believes it voices the sentiments of the people of the Maritimes when it says these figures show that Maritime ports are being starved for traffic, while an enormous quantity of Canadian goods is being shipped by way of United States ports. The Herald, pointing out that the percentage of Canadian goods going through United States ports is startling, says:

"This is un-Canadian and the worst kind of bad business for the Dominion. It is a ruinous drain upon the life of the Dominion that must be checked if Canada is to thrive and grow great in all its Provinces and all its activities."

The Herald illustrates this by pointing out that for the week ending January 2, and up to January 6, not a single bushel of Canadian grain arrived at Halifax for shipment, although a great deal of it was flowing out through United States ports.

There seems to be justice in the claim of the Maritimes. Canada has ocean ports a-plenty through which its grain and other products can be shipped, and if there is some descrepancy in freight rates which is sending the traffic to the United States, then Parliament should look into the matter, and try to devise some remedy. What is the use of building up great ports like Montreal, Vancouver, Halifax and St. John if they are not to be used by Canadians to the fullest possible extent? It is bad enough when Canadians send their money to the United States for goods manufactured there. But it is far worse when Canada's ports are allowed to starve while Canadian products are sent to United States ports for shipment to the markets of the world. —Oshawa Times.

DISSENSION GROWS.

Is Western Canada to see a new political party emerging from the present economic stress of the farmers? The last movement of the kind was the Progressive party, which has been of diminishing importance since its sweeping successes in 1921, but the constantly recurring reports of radical agitation in the West during the past few months, with a cry for secession echoed from many quarters, seems to indicate that a much more radical political movement than that of the Progressives is in the making.

Farmers from a large district of Central Western Saskatchewan have subscribed to a "charter of liberty" addressed to Prime Minister Bennett of Canada and Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain, stating that for 25 years farmers of Saskatchewan have pleaded in vain with Liberal and Conservative Governments for redress of economic grievances, and unless they are given relief they will organize at once for political conquest of Saskatchewan and such other Provinces as will join the movement. Their purpose is stated to be the formation of a co-operative commonwealth within the British Empire, trading directly with Great Britain on a free trade basis. In brief—secession from the Dominion of Canada.

Secession will never be permitted by the other constituent parts of this Dominion. It was through the financial and physical efforts of the people of the older Provinces that railways were built and the West was opened up to settlement, and there is not the slightest prospect that secession would be considered even for a moment. As a political proposition, however, unless the grievances of the farmers—which are really not against the major political parties or the East, but against a world condition—are healed by improved prices for their products before another general election comes around, there is more than a possibility that a die-hard free trade bloc of members may be elected from the prairies. That would be an unfortunate cleavage of political opinion from that of the East. The West in the past has had plenty of free traders, but most of them have been willing, at least, to see the viewpoint of the manufacturing East.—Border Cities Star.

BALDWIN'S SACRIFICE.

Few men could more excusably exclaim, in the words of Henley, "England, my England," than Stanley Baldwin. The former Prime Minister has given one more illustration of the depth of his roots in his native soil. He told a Birmingham audience that his family from the days of Charles II. have been in the iron trade. The business has fallen on evil days, and shares once worth £3 each are now worth only 20 pence. Yet he would not sell.

The modern maxim would be to sell at the top of the market and let the other fellow take the risk of loss. "But," said Stanley Baldwin, "when you have an old name in a business against which nothing has ever been said, and when you know the public come into that business on the strength of that name, it is an impossibility to throw your shares on the market when you know that in all human probability the loss will fall on them, not on you."

Spoken like an Englishman! Pride of family, pride of race, pride of England shine through the words. There is no stain on the name of Baldwin; there will be none, even if Stanley Baldwin bears the brunt and the loss now.

It is the same Baldwin who gave one-fifth of his fortune anonymously to ease England's war burden years ago, the Baldwin who now strains to find a remedy for business stagnation. He is a firm believer in the adage of the St. George's Society: "When God wants a hard thing done, He tells it to his Englishmen."

To Baldwin, England means the wild anemones in the woods in April, the last load at night of hay being drawn down a lane, the smell of wood smoke coming up in an autumn evening—such sights and sounds of rural England have built character and pride through the generations of Baldwin connection with the soil. They have left an inheritance greater than the value of shares of stock, in their loftiness of ambition, pride of honest motive, and of service to mankind.—The Globe.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The prisoners in the Don jail must have been reading the reports of outbreaks in American prisons.

Ex-Mayor McBride may feel that he has got some satisfaction from the $500-a-day the Toronto recount will cost, but it is difficult for anybody else to see just where he finds it.

Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson showed in their speeches the other night that if they ever need to earn a dollar there is a place as a radio comedy pair for the two.

BURNING BEAUTY

By TEMPLE BAILEY

CHAPTER TWELVE.

A Delicious Old Woman.

In the afternoon mail, Virginia had a note from Michael. "I am much concerned about my fiasco. Is there something I can do? And can't we talk it over? May I come to you, or will you lunch with me to-morrow?"

While Rickey was away, she answered by telephone. "I'm afraid I can't have you at the house. Rickey might come in at any moment, and he's not in the mood. But I'll be glad to lunch with you."

He took her to a quiet uptown restaurant, and before the luncheon was over they had entered into a conspiracy. "I must see you," Michael had said, "as often as I can."

She had spoken with frankness. "If I do, I can't tell Rickey. Yesterday was dreadful. He tried to run away—" she told of her brother's adventure.

Michael was stern, "Why didn't you let him—go?"

"Oh, I couldn't."

"Why not—"

"Because I love him."

He leaned across the table, 'Dear child," he said, "sometimes love has to be hard. You're too good to your brother."

"Not to Rickey—" she said, "you don't know."

He let it go at that, and made his plans for her. "We can motor now and then. There's one place I'd like no end to take you—to my Aunt Molly's. She's a delightful person,and when things get too much for me I go up to her farm. It's a marvelous old place, and she has an ancient couple to look after it for her. She has always lived there, and she is as unchanged throughout the years as the rocks on which her house is built. She cares nothing for fashions, she cares nothing for motor cars or radios or telephones. She adores her doves and her ducks and her comfortable old cows." He stopped and laughed a little. "Do you like the way it sounds?"

"I adore it."

"Good. I'll take you there. Can you manage it? Soon?"

She promised, and in the days that followed she made her little plans deliberately and clandestinely. She wrote to her mother, however, freely about this new friends of hers.

She gave the whole history of Rockey's book and Michael's criticism and the consequent coolness.

"Rickey's wrong, of course. You know his moods, Mother. He's like Daddy and I suppose neither of them is responsible. It is probably a throwback from generations of high-strung Oliphants. But it doesn't make them easy to live with. Michael and I are going around a lot together. We've been to two matinees, and Rickey thought I was going to art exhibits. I did go to see the pictures, but Michael took me and we rushed through them, and I was late getting home, but both times Rickey had been out and didn't miss me.

'I feel sure you wouldn't disapprove. Michael is so careful and he is really wonderful. He says I am mid-Victorian but that he likes my 'proprieties.'

"We've had gorgeous times 'window-shopping." We went one night when Rickey was out with Mary Lee, and Michael told me all the things I ought to wear, and I picked out everything that was expensive, and the trunks to put them in and bags to carry. And we stood in front of the booking offices, and looked at the ships and the scenery, and it seemed as if Michael had been everywhere. Does all this sound very silly? It really makes me feel very young—as if I were a child again, and Michael calls me a child.

"We went yesterday to his adorable Aunt Molly's. She has a farm out in Westchester. We lunched there and had broiled chickens and hot biscuits and honey and her famous Dutch cheese. She wears a long dress and a cameo pin and does her gray hair in a pompadour. You would love her, Mumsie, because she belongs to the old regime. But she isn't delicate and dainty like you. She's jolly and plump like some of the delicious old women in Dickens' stories."

Aunt Molly had said to Michael when lunch was over: "You'll want to show Virginia the doves and the ducks." So they had gone together to the dim, deep barns, where the doves cooed among the rafters, and where the cows looked at them with melting eyes. They saw the ducks sunning themselves in the yard and swimming in the cold pools between frozen banks.

They walked on then across the fields and through a grove of pines. "I'll bring you here in the spring," said Michael. "The dogwood is simply wonderful—deep pink, like roses."

"I'll bring you here in the spring." It seemed to Virginia too perfect to be true that he should be looking forward to spring days together.

As yet he had said no word of love. He had spoken of friendship, of how their tastes met, of his delight in her companionship. Yet she knew he loved her. There had been that moment at the Spanish Museum, when they stood in front of one of Sorolla's paintings—the Valencia group with its clear and startling color, its deep-hued oranges, its sapphire sky, the red trappings of its milk-white horses. And Michael had said, "It was in Spain that my castles fell to the ground."

"Why did they fall?"

"I spent my honeymoon in Valencia. And I found before it was over that I had married a woman who knew nothing of love as I had dreamed of it. I don't know why I am telling you this. I have never told anyone."

"I am glad you told me."

He had beaten his fist thoughtfully on the arm of the bench on which they were sitting. "I think the time will come when I shall tell you everything."

It was after the visit to the Spanish Museum that Virginia found herself lying awake late into the night. She slept on the big couch sheltered by the three screens which made a little room of the space about her. Since the beginning of her friendship with Michael, she had pushed into the back of her mind the thought of her visit to Derekdale. Now, however, it was almost upon her, and there was her promise to Rickey.

She had told him it should bind her to nothing. Yet she knew that in a way it did bind her. Tony expected things of her, and so did Rickey. They showed it—each in his own way. Tony by a maddening air of possessiveness, Rickey by taking impossible things for granted. It had been hard to keep Tony from a knowledge of the hours she spent with Michael. Tony was always coming in at odd moments and asking her to do things. When she said that she could not, he demanded, suspiciously, "Why? You seem to be having a lot of engagements lately."

She had refused to be drawn into any damaging admissions. "Just because I haven't time for you,Tony, is no reason why you should feel injured. You are really a most demanding person."

"A lot of good it does me to be demanding," he told her. "I haven't seen you alone for ages."

"You are seeing me alone to-day."

"Because Rickey happens to be out. There's always Rickey, or Mary Lee, or that small boy from upstairs. I can whistle for a chance to talk to you without ears wide open to hear."

"You shouldn't want to talk about things that 'open ears' can't hear.'

"You know what I want to talk abou and you might as well let me."

She did know. And as she lay wide awake on her couch she blamed herself for letting Tony go on with it. She could never loce him and she knew it. She ought to settle it now and stay away from Derekdale. Anything else was not fair to Michael or to herself or fair, indeed, to Tony.

Yet if she did not go, Rickey would be furious. He talked of nothing else—Derekdale, Derekdale, Derekdale.

She rose and put on her dressing gown. It was very late, but she could hear the click of Rickey's typewriter. She must tell him at once that she could not visit the Bleeckers. It would put her in a false position. Tony would think things that were not true. He would think she was willing to marry him and she was not.

She came to the little room and opened the door softly. Rickey's back was turned to her and he was writing madly. She spoke his name and he whirled around and spoke in a startled voice, "What's up, old girl?"

He looked very tired and his hair was ruffled. There were dark rings under his eyes. She faltered. "I couldn't sleep."

He came and put his arms arout her. Anything worrying you?"

Everything was worrying her, but she couldn't tell him now. She simply could not—not this tired Rickey, with his arms about her and that touch of tenderness in his voice.

So she said, "Come on in and talk to me. I'm fed up on myself."

They went into the living room and he added another lump of coal on the fire. The little dog and the bright cat came and camped on the rug in front of their beloved mistress, and Rickey, also on the rug, talked of the things he was going to do. "I'll get a new start at Derekdale," he said. "I know it. It will be like wine in my veins, Jinny, to meet people like that. I'm one of the kind that has to have excitement. I simply shrivel right up when things are at a dead level."

Excitement—That old roistering ancestor! Virginia was afraid. Rickey mustn't get restless. It wouldn't do to disappoint him. No matter what happened, she must not disappoint Rickey.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN.

A Hi ghMountain.

Christmas came that year on Saturday. The big ball was to be on Friday, and Virginia and her brother were to motor with Tony to Derekdale on Friday morning. Michael would come in time for dinner.

For Michael, too, was going to Derekdale. Mrs. Bleecker, at Marty Van Duyne's instigation, had urged him. "Too many millionaires are deadly, Jane. You mustn't forget that. Mere money makes people heavy. Michael's presence will add distinction."

Michael had accepted, but not because of Marty or of Jane. He was going because of Virginia. He told her so frankly. "It will give us three days together."

Three days! Virginia went about her preparations for departure as if she walked on air. She packed her new clothes and Rickey's into the good-looking bags they had bought, and refused to be weighted down by the thought of their extravagances.

Mary Lee Logan drifting in on Thursday and finding Virginia alone asked, "Where's Rickey?"

"Out doing some last-minute errands. He'll be back for luncheon."

"May I stay? I want to say good-by to him."

"Of course."

Mary Lee sat dejectedly by the fire and watched Virginia pack. "Do you ever have premonitions?" she asked.

Virginia smiled at her. "Are you having them?"

A Thought

LET US GO UP TO THE HILLS

Out on the hills man can forget
All little thoughts and mean;
Go seek the folded hills in grey;
The quiet hills in green.

The blessing laid by moving clouds
From heaven as they pass:
The messages in little streams,
The mercy in the grass.

For holy hills were made for men.
Their stillness and their green:
There is no room in their great hearts
For narrow things and mean.

What To-day Means To You

"AQUARIUS"

If January 21st is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m., from noon to 2 p.m. and from 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. The adverse periods are from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30a.m., and from 8 p.m. to10 p.m.

January 21st astrological indications point to a condition of passivity and lethargy. Routine work should only engage your attention, and nothing involving change should be essayed. There is a remote possibility of some unguarded remark acting as a boomerang.

Children born on this January 21st will lack all material ambition, and will always seek that which will give happiness, rather than possessions or position. They will be sound at heart and extremely kind. They will be satisfied with little, provided they are sure of sunshine, and can escape storms.

If you were born on January 21st you are both meticulous and punctilious. In fact, your friends look upon you as a "fusser". You make everything as difficult as you can and worry those around you as much as you can. You always fear the worst, and discount the best, and get ready for everything an hour too soon. As a natural result, your business efforts are cramped, and your life is more of a dirge than a song of praise. It is well to be insured against misfortune, but always imagining only the dire things that can happen is too heavy a premium to pay.

Your work is always conscientiously done, and you rely more on accuracy than on speed. Notwithstanding the moroseness of your disposition, you are not,at heart, a bad sort, and will always go a long way to help those who appeal to you for advice or assistance. You, too, are constant, and take all your obligations very seriously. They, in your mind, figure as duties, never as pleasures. You never build castles in the air, and your imagination is tinged with pessimism, rather than colored with optimism.

In later years, the signs indicate that you will acquire a philosophy of life, free from lugubriousness, and only at that time will you really begin to enjoy life, and realize what it holds in store for those who bask in its sunshine, as compared with those who seek only its shadows.

Wooler Institute Plans Annual Community Social

WOOLER, JAN. 21 (Examiner Correspondence—.—The members of the Women's Institute held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. A. W. Clarke, on Wednesday, the president, Mrs. Maynard Sharpe, occupying the chair.

The roll call, "A Noted Character in Canadian History," was much enjoyed by the members. Mrs. William Orvis delighted her audience with a carefully prepared paper on the topic. "The Countries That Make up the British Empire," and gave an interesting fact in connection with each

The secretary's report was very encouraging and she announced the fourth annual community evening to be held in the town hall, on January 23, at 7:30 p. m., when there will be a keen competition of oratorical, elocution and vocal contests presented by the six schools in the district. Competent judges will act and the debate presented by the High School will be an interesting feature of the entertainment.

C.G.I.T. SPONSORS AFTERNOON SOCIAL

Raise Money to Pay Annual Mission and Maintenance Fund Subscription.

MILLBROOK, Jan. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The Wide Awakes C.G.I.T. group sponsored a successful afternoon tea, and sale of homemade candy, in Dr. H. A. Turner's store on Saturday afternoon, the objective of the event being to raise money to pay the girls' annual subscription to the Missions and Maintenance fund of the church

A tempting variety of candy was on sale and in containers of various sizes, yet was disposed of so readily that customers late in coming found the wares all gone.

In charge of the daintily-laid tea tables were: Misses Marian O'Brian, Margaret McCarthy, Kathyrn Donnelly, Martha Earle, Margaret Russell, and Beatrice Jones.

Assisting with the sale of the candy were: Misses Phyllis Kidd, Jean Burnham, Bryar Edmunds, May Ferren, Madeline McDowell, Charlotte McMahon, Helen Mitchell, Margaret Fallis, and other members of the group.

The amount realized was somewhat in excess of ten dollars placed on the offering plate at morning worship in St. Andrew's United church on Sunday, the balance being added to the group funds in readiness for other calls in support of worthwhile causes in the weeks ahead.

The members of the C.G.I.T. group held a short meeting after the school session on Sunday afternoon, and decided to make a definite effort to observe the annual C.G.I.T. week, February 8-15, this year. If permission is obtained from the official board of the church, the girls will present a pageant specially written for their work at a Sunday evening service, either on the eight, or the fifteenth instant, when the ideals of the Canadian Girls in Training movement will be publicly given demonstration, and it is hoped, with lasting impression of the manner of Christian service which membership involves.

Roseneath Club Presents Playlet In Norwood Hall

NORWOOD, Jan. 21.—The members of the Roseneath Dramatic Club presented the three-act play, "Marrying Anne," in the town hall, under the auspices of the local branch of the Women's Institute.

Music between acts was furnished by a three-piece orchestra composed of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Nixon and Mervin Baptie. Reeve W. H Montgomery and J. McConnell assisted at the dorr. Ex-Reeve Tedford acted as chairman and announced the characters. A number of articles left over from the Institute bazaar were distributed to lucky ticket-holders and following the play a banquet was served at the home of Mrs. Wheatly.

WHEAT RUMORS GIVEN DENIAL

Initial Payment Not Yet Decided on by Commonwealth Bank Board.

72 CENT PRICE SOUGHT.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 21.—(C.P. Cable via Reuter's).—Sir Robert Gibson, chairman of the Commonwealth Bank, to-day denied a report published by the Melbourne Herald to the effect the bank was willing to advocate an initial payment of 60 cents a bushel on wheat. The bank board has not reached a decision in the matter as yet, Sir Robert stated.

The Federal Government sought the bank to guarantee 72 cents a bushel but the bank refused to allow any more than the world price. The State Governments of New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland, however, are preparing substantial assistance to the farmers in their respective territories.

JUDGEMENT HELD ON GOV'T APPEAL

Action Rises Over Injunction Restraining Presentation of Bills For Upper Chamber's Abolition.

IN HIGH COURT HANDS.

MELBOURNE, Australia, January 21 (C.P. Cable via Reuters). — The High Court of Australia to-day reserved judgment on the appeal of the New South Wales Government from the injunction granted by the New South Wales Court, restraining the presentation of any Bills that might be passed by the State Ministry for the abolition of the Upper Chamber in the State.

Premier J. T. Lang endeavored to have 40 new members appointed to the Upper Chamber so it could vote itself out of existence, but the State Governor, Sir Philip Game, was unwilling to approve so many appointments. The State Court then ruled the matter was too important to be determined through the usual parliamentary procedure and granting an injunction, stopped the presentation of any Bills for the Upper Chambers abolition.

Campaign Is Urged For Nova Scotia Coal

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 21. — That "charity begins at home" was the opinion of speakers who, addressing to-day the conference called here by the Nova Scotia branch of the United States Mine Workers in America to consider problems confronting the coal industry in this province, urged steps to prevent coal importations into Nova Scotia as one method of capturing the Provincial market preliminary to seeking additional markets in other provinces. The loss in coal trade with Newfoundland was mentioned, and a recommendation made for an education campaign instructing people how to use Nova Scotia coal to the best advantage. The necessity of placing duties on foreign coal coming into Canada was again stressed.

CONFEDERATION LIFE ASSOCIATION ESTABLISHES PRODUCTION RECORD

1930 Greatest in Assocaition's History Despite Business Conditions.

ASSETS INCREASED.

"The greatest production of new business in the history of the company," is the official announcement of the record of the Confederation Life Association for the year 1930, in which the total new insurance, issued and revived, amounted to $67,792,346—a substantial increase over the production of the preceding year. In the Canadian field of production the corresponding increase in new business amounted to $7,665,640, eight of the nine Provinces contributing to such increase. The total insurance in force at the close of 1930 amounted to $369,026,570, an increase for the year of $31,677,322—a most satisfactory result in view of the disturbed economic conditions prevailing during the past year.

The total assets of the Confederation Life Association, as at December 31, 1930, amounted to $81,936,094, an increase for the year of $7,487,421. These assets are invested in high-grade securities including first mortgages on residential and business properties. Government and municipal bonds, etc., and, in accordance with the practice of the Association, are shown in the balance sheet at their book values. The certificate given by the Association's auditors states that "the values placed by the Dominion Government Department of Insurance on bonds and debentures, stocks and real estate are, in the aggregate, in excess of the values shown for these assets in the statement"—striking evidence of the high quality of the Association's invested assets.

The total net revenue for the year, from premium deposits, interest and rents, amounted to $20,177,443, while the surplus earned on the year's operations was $2,940,590, and again exceeded that of any previous year in the history of the Association.

Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries, in 1930, included $2,688,786 for death claims and $756,457 for matured endowments. The total payments to policyholders during the year amounted to $8,650,908, an increase of $1,098,249. Profits to policyholders, payable in 1931, are on the basis of the high scale of profit allotment in 1930.

The report of the Board of Directors, presented by C. S. Macdonald, President and General Manager, at the fifty-ninth annual meeting, referred to 1930 as a year which would go down in history as one during which unusually trying conditions prevailed. "Not only in Canada, but in other parts of the world, practically every industry has felt the effects of the diminished purchasing power of the population.' In this respect the effect in Canada appears to have been less marked than in other countries.

"While the outlook for improvement in general conditions is still somewhat obscure,it is hoped that an upward turn will take place by the middle of the present year. The three Prairie Provinces have been the greatest sufferers in our own country, and, though recovery will probably be slow, those in a position to know believe that prosperous conditions will again be experienced in that section of the country. The large increase in the number of unemployed has created a serious problem, particularly in the larger centres. Measures have been taken to relieve this situation, so far as possible, but no doubt much hardship will have to be endured before a final settlement is possible.

"In spite of the general slowing-up of trade, your Directors are pleased to report an increase during the year in the amount of new insurance, including ordinary, group life, sickness and accident, bonus additions, changes and revivals, and a new high mark was again established."

The Board of Directors was re-elected as follows: C. S. Macdonald (President and General Manager), Robert S. Waldie (Vice President), Colonel J. F. Michie (Vice-President), Thomas J. Clark, John Firstbrook, James E. Ganong, Wilmot L. Matthews, B. B. Cronyn, W. C. Laidlaw, Arthur F. White, Charles P. Smith and P. A. Thomson.

Having commenced business in 1871, the Confederation Life Association is this year celebrating its Diamond Jubilee Anniversary with an international convention of representatives to be held in Toronto in August next.

Foreign Wheat Firm At Winnipeg To-Day

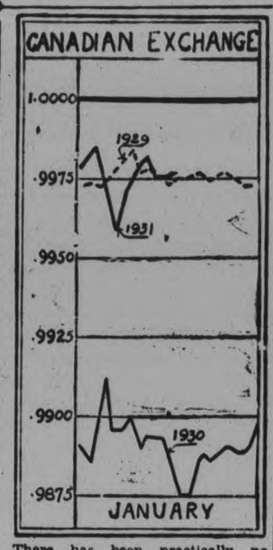
WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 21. (CP) Heavy rains in the Argentine firmed foreign markets to-day and the Winnipeg grain exchange prices reflected the steady feeling . Wheat figures moved within a narrow range closing ¼ cent higher to unchanged.

Export business overnight and today was estimated around half a million bushels of wheat. Trading in the pit to-day was not heavy and foreign interest was small.

The wheat futures were very little changed from yesterday, May at the close standing at 56⅝ cents. July 57⅝ cents per bushel and October 58⅝. Fractional advanced in cast wheat occurred but coarse grains were unchanged in a dull market.

GARDINER IS NEW U. F. A. HEAD.

CALGARY, Alta. Jan. 21.—(C.P.) —Robert Gardiner, 61 year old leader of the United Farmers of Alberta group in the Dominion House, today was named president of the United Farmers of Alberta.



There has been practically no change in the position of the Canadian dollar. The discount remains about 22 cents on $100. Gold shipments have fallen off, but students of exchange point out the remainder of this month and February are zero months in Canadian export trade and further shipments may result before the exchange situation rights itself. Flotation of the Province of Ontario loan this week tended to keep the dollar firm at its current level, as New York purchased a large amount of these bonds, especially the short term serials.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

Outside of a mid-session upturn when prices climbed to ¼ over Tuesday nights close, due to some local buying based on strength in Minneapolis and Chicago, wheat prices were mostly lower, getting into the daily bids fractionally, the buying against which checked any further declines. There was no feature to the market outside of the fact that offerings were extremely with the demand very limited and local. There was only a few scattered loads worked overnight for export with the total volume being insignificant. Some exporters reported a better inquiry from the Continent and they were expecting some business to develop in the near future, but so far as could be learned there were no acceptances this morning. Cash wheat was only in quiet demand. Offerings were very light and spreads practically unchanged. An official estimate of the Argentine crop was issued which placed the wheat production th is year at 271,436,000 bushels, which will give that country a surplus to export of 200,000,000. Argentine shippers are finding foreign demand very slow, and it is more than likely that large quantities will be shipped unsold. Country markets ings in the Canadian West on Monday, were 454,000 bushels, as compared with 253,000 a year ago. Look for narrow dull market, and advice purchases on setbacks only.

Coarse grains—These markets continued dull and featureless in both cash and futures. There is very little pressure in evidence and prices are mostly affected by the trend of wheat.

ALLEGE FARMER BOMBED HOME WHEN MAN VISITING IN CITY

Bombing in July of 1926 of Alberta Home Believed Solved.

TWO UNDER ARREST.

Apart from the interest of the ordinary law-abiding citizen in the capture of law-breakers, Peterborough has an unusual interest in the case of William Babcock, farmer of Vimy in rural Alberta charged with bombing the homes in Edmonton of Judge Taylor of the District Court and Police Magistrate McLeod. For it was while Magistrate Colonel McLeod was in Peterborough attending a convention of the Knights Templar held in this city in 1926 that the bombings took place.

Alberta Provincial Police believe that the mystery of the strange bombings which but for a pure mischance would have killed the two intended victims, is solved with the arrest of Babcock.

Although the offence was committed in 1926 Colonel W. C. Bryan, Commissioner of the Alberta Police has had detectives working ceaselessly on the case.

It is possible that another arrest will be made before the case comes up for trial.

Colonel McLeod's home was the first to be bombed. Near midnight of August 7, 1926, while Mrs. McLeod was entertaining some guests, a bomb was placed against the kitchen steps of the home and went off with stunning effect. The stairs were demolished, a door was ripped off its hinges, the wall of the room of the Colonel's son, young Donald McLeod was badly damaged, a window was ripped out and a door blown from its hinges. "It was a miracle that my boy was not killed" said Mrs. McLeod in speaking of the crime. "I had moved the boy to another room that night on account of the fact that I had a number of guests. If he had been in his own room, he would have been killed."

Windows 100 yards away in other homes were shattered by the force of the explosion.

Colonel McLeod who was first informed of the bombing by The Examiner in the Empress Hotel where he was staying during the convention, took the news of the bombing very cooly when he was satisfied that none of his family had suffered in any way.

Judge Taylor's home was bombed almost exactly a month later on the night of September 6. He also was absent from home at a holiday resort, for this was Labor Day.

In this case also much damage was done to the house and its surroundings, but no one was injured.

A reward of $1000 offered by the Attorney-General of Alberta for the conviction of the bombers went unclaimed and for more than four years nothing more was heard of the case.

Babcock was formerly a carpenter and lived in the city of Edmonton. It is said that he took umbrage at Col. McLeod and Judge Taylor because he lost out on a criminal charge which he brought against Philip K. Flier, real estate agent in connection with an alleged false pretense case over an exchange of property.

Judge Taylor dismissed the case after Flier had been committed for trial in police court. Flier has since been given a jail term in another series of charges brought by an Edmonton Post Office employee over an offence, the details of which were similar to those of the first charge on which he was dismissed.

Babcock's arrest on the bombing charge was immediately preceded by a complete confession alleged to have been made by Joe Paquette an Edmonton Laborer. He also is in the cells not under a charge but held as a material witness.

Paquette in his confession implicated Babcock as being the bomber and further revelations are being sought from two men one in the Fort Saskatchewan jail and another recently given four years in Prince Albert penitentiary for a real estate fraud.

Although the two attempts on the homes of the judges resulted only in damage to the structures it is known that Babcock nursed his dream of revenge for over four years. He is believed to be the author of recent threatening letters to Magistrate McLeod.

Babcock's enmity to Magistrate McLeod arose from a grievance that the Magistrate refused to take an information for fraud against the real estate man, Flier

SEVERAL DORMANT COMPANIES NEGOTIATING FURTHER FINANCES

Pres. Of Underwriters

Street Hears Arrangements Complete For Working of Federal Kirkland.

CONIAURUM PROGRESSING.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21. (Special to Examiner)—The golds again held interest on the mining market to-day, strength and activity in Teck Hughes, Hollinger and Dome attracting considerable comment. There s nothing particularly new regarding the operations. All companies are securing excellent results, according to all reports, with New York buying prominent in the stock.

The present buying movement has at least resulted in stirring officials of many dormant companies into action. Several prospects are now negotiating for further finances and considerable encouragement has been secured. Federal Kirkland is one of the latest, and the street hears that arrangements are practically completed. A campaign of work has been outlined and attention will be given the company's McCann group, south of Hollinger Consolidated. The original Kirkland Lake properties, located immediately north of an adjoining Sylvanite, will also be developed. Recent encouraging results on Sylvanite, which resulted in tracing the ore close to the federal line, is of interest in view of the proposed work.

Officials of Pandora gold state that recent reports to the effect the company has acquired property in the Matachewan area are entirely erroneous. The company's interests are in the Cadillac field, where developments to date have been encouraging, undergrouhd development is now proceeding.

Coniaurum mines is reported to be making good progress in development. Recent strength in the shares has attracted interest to this enterprise, which, it will be remembered, is being financed by Ventures Limited, who own approximately 1,375,000 shares and holds options on an additional 2,625,000 treasury shares. The Winze has been put down to 2500 feet and The Street hears that ore has been encountered at 2250 and 2500 feet. The mill is handling slightly over 300 tons daily and a small operating profit is being secured.

Several unofficial rumors in circulation this morning were interesting. Nipissing is said to have secured promising ground south of mining corporation in the Matachewan field in optioning the Ferguson claims. The reason for United Kirkland shares being called for trading on the Standard Exchange this week, it is said, is to facilitate the merging of the company with Grozelle Kirkland. Good progress is said to have been made in this direction.

He added, "beyond that there is nothing more in it."

The Premier then announced that the Government would accept the amendment and continue with the third reading of the bill.

Coast Guards Capture Suspected Schooner

BOSTON, Jan. 21. (CP)—The British auxiliary schooner Firelight was taken in custody off Nahant to-day by the Coast Guard patrol boat Harriet Lane, the commander of the latter Radioed Coast Guard headquarters here. The message failed to state whether the schooner had liquor aboard but did say she was intercepted within the 12-mile limit.

The patrol boat's commander said he was bringing the schooner to Boston for investigation.

The Firelight was once previously brought to this port, but no liquor was found aboard her and she was released.

CANADA RECORD IN NUMBER OF DOCTORS

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21.—Canada holds second place among the leading countries of the world in regard to the number of medical practitioners per 100,000 population, recently prepared statistics of the Canadian Medical Association show. Canada has 97 doctors per 100,000 citizens, the figures show. In the United States there are 127 doctors per 100,000 people.

ANSONVILLE STARTS CLEAN-UP

ANSONVILLE, Ont., Jan 21 (C.P.) —The new council of Ansonville has started in to clean up the financial affairs of the township.

For the last year or two the red figures had been increasing, so the council last night decided to reduce their own salaries and those of town officials and abolished one office. They also decided to engage a tax collector to endeavor to collect some of the $8,000 outstanding in back taxes.

POWER CONTROL FIGHT LOOMING

important persons interested in power in the United States are: Gerard Swope and Owen D. Young of the General Electric Company; J. P. Morgan, Samuel Insull of Chicago, and Sidney Mitchell of the Electric Bond and Share Company. These individuals undoubtedly control a considerable proportion of the hydro-electric development in the United States, but no one has come forward to say that they are the "Power Trust" or a part of the "Power Trust."

In the meantime, it is suggested, power will be made the third issue in the Presidential campaign of 1932, ranking after prosperity and prohibition.

The New York situation, presenting as it does the complications of international agreement, engineering disagreement, State and Federal politics, is quite sufficient to fuddle the brain of the average voter and prevent him from considering whether he wants to pay his bill for electric light to the Government or to a private corporation.

YOUTHS APPEAL LONG SENTENCES.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21.—(C.P.) —Claiming that their trial was prejudiced by the fact that no evidence was given on their behalf, Harold Ackroyd, Roy Leadbetter, Joseph Gardiner and George Jones, convicted of a serious offence against a young girl by Mr. Justice Logie in the Fall Assizes, are appealing to First Divisional Court at Osgoode Hall.

Sentences totalling 40 years, with 54 lashes, were imposed on the four youths when they were convicted.

Archie Duvall was thrown out of the car by the impact.

Suffered From Heart Trouble Became Weak and Run Down

Mrs. Wm. Diotte, Glensandfield, Ont., writes:—"For a long period I suffered from heart trouble, and became very weak and run down. I tried various remedies, but they did me no good. One day I met a friend and told her of my trouble. She said she had had heart trouble for two years too, but after using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for a short time she had been relieved of her trouble, so I got two boxes and after taking them I was again feeling fine, and always recommend H. & N. Pills to anyone complaining of heart trouble."

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severe cold epidemics.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16 oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make 16 ounces of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunde

GIRL GUIDES ARE DOING FINE WORK

Meeting is Being Planned at Which All Parents Will be Invited.

OPPORTUNITY TO JOIN.

The First Peterborough Company of Girl Guides, with Miss Isabel Connelly as captain and Miss Ruth Sutton as lieutenant, have been doing a good deal of work since the inception of the work in the city.

They meet every Monday evening at the Armories. At Christmas time, the Guides distributed food and toys to three needy families and sent scrapbooks to Nicholls Hospital for the children.

The Company has commenced the study of the second Class Guide work. At the last meeting, they received a First Aid lesson from one of their members, Miss Dobbin, and started to make their signalling flag.

In the near future, the girls intend to have a meeting at which all parents and those interested in the work, will be asked to attend. A representative from headquarters will be present to enrol several who have not passed the Tenderfoot Tests. At the same meeting, a play entitled, "The New Recruit" will be presented.

The Guides always enjoy several games before the singing of 'taps' and the Salute, which ends the meeting.

Any girl wishing to join the company will be made very welcome.

MEN VOTERS IN QUEBEC SCORED

Apathy of Male Electorate is Deplored By Mrs. Pierre Casgrain.

IN MONTREAL ADDRESS.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21—Indifference of men voters in Quebec provincial elections as revealed by the low percentage of registration on voters' lists was deplored by Mrs. Pierre Casgrain, president fo the League of Women's Rights of the Province of Quebec, in an address on "The Advantages of Women Suffrage."

It had been charged that women of the Province of Quebec did not want the vote, Mrs. Casgrain said. It now was evident that the men did not want the vote either. Such a condition of affairs could scarcely be worse if women of this province were given the right to excercise the franchise, and it would undoubtedly be much better, she affirmed.

Political indifference, when it existed, the speaker said, was the curse of democracy, which in this province must lead to unwonted results. A means of combatting this indifference was to give the vote to women, who as mothers would be able to develop a sense of responsibility in their sons toward the state and thus bring them up better citizens.

"It is not to be thought that women will lose their charm because they take an active interest in politics," said the speaker. "They would not change because they voted once every four or five years," she declared. As for being liable to give too much time to political affairs and not enough to the home, was it not better that women should take an interest in political rather than give their time to bridge, tea parties and similar social events? Mrs. Casgrain asked.

HEALTH PAPER IS READ AT MEETING

Belmont Women's Institute Meets at Home of Mrs. George Smith.

BELMONT, Jan. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence)—The regular meeting of Belmont Women's Institute was held for the first time this year at the home of Mrs. George Smith on Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. William Smith, presiding.

The roll call was splendidly responded to by Hints on Preservation of Health.

The relief committee reported comforts sent to an afflicted family. After some discussion it was decided to make a layette, also a quilt. The members were asked to make a block of print or gingham 18 by 18 inches square, in the pattern four and five. It is understood this quilt will be given for relief purposes.

A communication from Mr. Putman of the Department of Women's Institutes was read, stating that an instructress for a course in home nursing would be available for the last week in January, or the first week in February. This course will be conducted at the Town Hall, Belmont, the date to be definitely decided later.

A splendid paper on health was given by Mrs. T. P. Lancaster, and was greatly appreciated by the members. This was followed by a recitation by Mrs. William Smith, which was much enjoyed. After a short time spent in community singing, a dainty lunch was served, and a social half hour was enjoyed Hostesses for the afternoon were: Mesdames George Smith, W. Smith, A. Russell and R. Anderson.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Smith on Thursday, February 18.

Efficiency League

Havelock Efficiency League held a cafeteria tea in the United Church dining room last week, which was a very great success.

Mrs. (Rev.) Archer, Mrs R. Campney, Mrs. Heard, and Mrs Prest were in charge of the booth which dispensed all kinds of delicacies. A splendid program was given of which the following are numbers: Recitation, Maurice Williams; recitation, Miss Redden; vocal, J. Young; recitation, Miss Robinson; piano solo, Miss Gordie McColl; vocal solo, Harry Sexsmith; piano solo, Everett Chiles; vocal solo, Miss Roberts. The church quartette composed of Misses Una Archer, Helen Fennell, Everett Chiles and Henry Campney contributed two delightful numbers.

JOFFRE'S WIDOW GRANTED PENSION

PARIS, Jany. 20.—Parliament today voted unanimously to establish a pension of $4,000 year for the widow of Marshal Joffre.

For $200 . . .
Can you equal this?

For $200 invested yearly, a young man can capitalize his youthful vigour and effectively prepare for life's contingencies through the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

3 GREAT BENEFITS

and

2. IN A FEW YEARS— $10,000 in Paid-up Assurance, earning Dividends.

or

3. AT MIDDLE LIFE— $10,000 in Cash.

He can secure for his dependants immediate protection of $10,000, increased yearly thereafter by accumulating dividends. This $10,000 estate is created instantly by the first payment. The assured thereby obtains maximum protection for his family at minimum cost at a time when protection is the greatest need.

In a few years he may stop paying, take a paid-up policy for $10,000, and thereafter receive regular dividends until his death when the full capital sum of $10,000 is still payable to his dependants.

By middle life (if he has not selected the last-mentioned plan) his policy will mature as an endowment for $10,000, returning to him a sum far in excess of the total premiums paid. This investment settlement comes at a time when personal and family maintenance have become more important than protection.

Laymen's Association Enjoys Jolly Social

OMEMEE, Jan. 21. (Examiner Correspondence).—On Friday the members of the Laymen's Association of Trinity United Church had a very enjoyable evening, H. G. Sandy, the president, acting as chairman.

Community singing led by H. Lamb was enjoyed after the opening exercises and this was followed by the introduction of Rev. Mr. Leitchliter, of College Street Baptist Church, Toronto, who gave the address of the evening. By request he sang that beautiful solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" being rendered in a very effective manner.

Community singing was again enjoyed followed by the main address, "That Truth that Lies" given by the Rev. Mr. Leitchler. His descriptive power, intermingled with humor held his audience with rapt attention.

Two plus two does not always make four. The large, perfectly constructed engine does not mean anything, but junk, without power or life. The straight line between two given points doesn't always mean the shorter. The materials in man's makeup only meant ninety-eight cents' worth of materials, but God's power of life made it a priceless thing. The beautiful journey from Toronto to Kentucky through the Alleghany Mountains as pictured by the speaker were very realistic and descriptive leading down from the mountains to the valley where the stone paved lane, the streamlet, the old home, the little church—but no, this was not home anymore as the lives of those who made it home were not there. They were gone."

The climax to this address was taken from "The Babe of Bethlehem" all through the Christ life, leaving a very impressive thought and a wonderful conclusion to his address.

Another solo was contributed by Rev. Mr. Leichliter, after which refreshments were served by the men. Again the Reverend gentleman delighted the audience with another solo of his own composition. Mrs. Richardson, of Toronto, acted as accompanist. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Mr. Leichliter and Mrs. Richardson by H. Jackson and W. Moncrief.

Attempt Is Made To Solve Noise Problem

MONTREAL, Jan. 21—Visions of a perfect night's sleep, undisturbed by auto honks and milk bottle clanks for city dwellers are being raised at McGill University by Prof. H. Reilley.

His plans call for a survey during the summer months of Greater Montreal, observations to be made at important intersections of city streets and at other designated places in order to accurately measure the amount of noise and to see what proportion of it is unnecessary.

Citizens, under the plans drawn up, would be canvassed by form letters in which a series of questions would enable harassed householders to indicate what noises rob them of their rightful rest. The observations made through reliable test apparatus, designed within the past two years, and the answers to queries to citizens would be incorporated in a report to the public who would then be asked to co-operate in a drive to reduce noise.

The racket in all large cities is literally driving people "crazy," according to Prof. Reilley, who states that noise is a much underestimated factor in causing nervous breakdowns and a host of other nervous troubles.

For Hard Coughs That Call For Super-Help

Creomulsion is made for coughs from colds that hang on. For coughs deep and difficult—coughs where you dare not risk a less effective help.

But careful people use it for coughs which seem milder—use it to do the utmost and be safe. For nobody knows where a cough may lead.

Creomulsion combines seven major helps in one. Some coughs yield best to one help, some to another. Doctors often differ on the best help, for coughs are not alike. So here we combine all the best—to be sure.

Creosote stands first. Here it is blended, emulsified and made palatable. For soothing membranes and combating germs, it is considered the supreme help in this type of cough. But other helps are sometimes needed—pine tar, wild cherry, menthol, ipecac and others. Nobody can tell to which help your cough will soonest yield. So experts have combined in Creomulsion all best helps in one. No narcotic, nothing harmful to a child, but a seven-way help to deal with all conditions.

The price is $1.25—a little higher than a lesser help. But your druggist guarantees it. Your money is returned if it fails to bring the quick, complete help you desire. Don't you think it worth that little extra to be sure that you are doing the utmost for a cough?

FUNERAL DIRECTOR RATED PROFESSION

Undertaker's Parlor May Be Regarded as Physician's Residence Under Montreal By-laws.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21—Since the days of Ancient Egypt the vocation of enbalmer and funeral director has been recognized as a profession and his work as an art, therefore an undertaker's parlor may be regarded as a physician's residence and not as "a place of business," such as defined by one of Montreal's by-laws, in the light of a decision rendered the other day by a Recorder in dismissing a charge against an undertaker.

The city's contention that in establishing an undertaking parlor at Sherbrooke street West, the undertaker tended to destroy the residential aspect of that portion of the city, was dismissed by the Recorder.

The defence asked for the dismissal of the case upon three grounds, namely that there was no proof that the accused had "erected, fitted up or repaired a "building." Secondly, that he is not using the premises as "a place of business," but that he there practices a profession and one that is recognized as such, or as an art. Thirdly, that the by-law goes beyond the stipulation of the Charter of Montreal which, in its revelant part, gives the City authorities to prohibit "the construction, occupation and maintainance of factories, workshops, taverns, billiard rooms, pigeon-hole rooms, livery stables, butcher stalls or other shops or similar places of business in the said streets."

These reasons were upheld by the Recorder, and the undertaking profession set down on record as such, or as an art.

Brockenshire Bill Refused By Windsor

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20.—"The City of Toronto has nothing to do with the payment of hospital expenses of Jack Brockenshire, of Windsor, under the Hospital and Charitable Institutes Act," stated Chief Relief Officer Thomas Rooney to-day.

"Brockenshire, who has been in St. Joseph's Hospital since his capture after the fatal shooting of a local constable, was not in the city long enough to qualify as a resident. INDIAN SINGER SUES MAHARAJAH

ASKS $70,000.

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Two new faces in the gallery of women whose life courses have crossed with that of the former Maharajah of Indore were revealed in a suit for $70,000 damages filed here against the former Maharajah today.

Charges that she and her daughter were imprisoned for eleven years in the former Maharajah's palace at Indore are made in the action by the plaintiff, Mrs. Sowkaibai Pandarinath Rajpurkar, widely known Indian operatic singer.

It is the singer's charge that Sir Tukoji Rao Holkar, who married Nancy Miller of Seattle three years ago, and whose previous love affair with the beautiful Muntaz Begum, Mohammadian dancer, cost him his throne, not only wrongfully restrained her and her daughter but seized her furniture, jewelry and other property in Bombay.

District Notes

District Churches

CAMPBELLFORD, January 21. (By Examiner Staff Correspondent.)—The opening services of the ministry of the Rev. J. C. Robinson at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Campbellford, were held on Sunday, when two large congregations were present to listen to the initial sermons, preached in a masterly way and greatly appreciated by the members of the church.

Both services were fully choral, special music being given by the organist, W. A. Newcourt, A.L.C.M., with presentations by the choir of anthems at both periods of worship. At the morning service John Russell was the tenor soloist, and in the evening, Miss Hazel Atkinson rendered a vocal number.

Mr. Robinson took for his text in the morning Esther IV, verse 14,"—who knoweth whether thou art come tothe kingdom for such a time as this." Explaining the text and describing how Esther was determined to enter the court without invitation of the king, he explained that she felt it her duty because she had been ordained to act thus.

Taking this as a lesson, the preacher pointed out that each one had a place to fill, that God had ordained them for service, that they had duties to perform, and it was their business as Christians to see that they did the divine will.'

In the evening, Mr. Robinson held what he termed was a dedicatory service, preaching a splendid sermon on the need for the dedicating of the individual service to the work of God and His Church, and urging upon all to consecrate themselves anew to this work.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

MEDICAL DENTAL SPECIALISTS.

One of the natural difficulties that arises is the difference in opinion of the dentist and physician as to whether certain teeth should be removed.

The physician naturally places himself in the position of chief adviser to the patient and instructs the dentist to remove the teeth, as in the physicians opinion they are the cause of his trouble.

The dentist, naturally anxious to save good teeth, and to try and save 'doubtful" teeth, hesitates to follow the advice of the physician and tells the patient so. He tells him that no artificial teeth can be as good as his own, and that it is possible that his trouble is not caused by his teeth anyway, that there is likely some other cause.

Now as a matter of fact the physician really knows more about the individual than the dentist, and may have investigated every other possible source of infection before he ordered the removal of the teeth. As the teeth are, to say the least, suspicious, he feels perfectly justified in ordering their removal.

But, at present anyway, the dentist really knows more about teeth, their treatment, and the probability of saving them.

Thus the patient, the sufferer, the one who really counts in the matter is left between the two opinions, and unless he is very strongly attached to his medical adviser, and has great faith in his judgement, is like to follow the dentists advice, because after all, no one really wants to have teeth extracted if it can possibly be avoided. However, it is gratifying to know that this "difference" of opinion may soon be at an end when you see the experiment worked out at Yale University. Dr. Winternitz, Dean of Yale Medical School tells of the establishment of four local centres of research involving (a) structure of the teeth, (b) nutrition and use of the teeth, (c) infectious processes involving the teeth, (d) a group that are studying the relation of the teeth to the rest of the body.

Who are these students that are studying this?

Medical students.

What does this mean?

That this group of physicians will be medical dental specialists just as other physicians are child specialists, nose and throat specialists, and so forth.

It simply shows us all that good teeth are essential to our health, and that bad teeth can cause much ill health.

Teeth are most important.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

I WONDER IF YOU RECEIVED something for Christmas that you wanted oh so badly! Something that you never dreamed you would possess?

• • • • • •

There are some people who were fortunate enough to get such things at Christmas, and it is for them, especially, that this discussion is written to-day.

• • • • • •

Without being so fussy about the articles that you have given the impression of having waited for them over long, you should see that they are never neglected.

• • • • • •

Do not tug at gloves, and when they are off, throw them down on table or chair, whichever happens to be handy. They will get soiled soon enough under the best of care.

• • • • • •

Pull the finger tips lightly, and when partly off, turn the glove wrist back and take the glove off in this way. The hand will be wrong side out, but not the fingers.

• • • • • •

Shape the gloves, blow into them to separate the parts, and then fold one against the other and put in glove box.

• • • • • •

It is wise to lay a strip of tissue paper between gloves. It absorbs any moisture and helps to prevent the kid from getting stiff.

• • • • • •

Personal accessories should be treated with correct care according to their kind. For instance, a new silk frock tossed down when taken off, and not immediately put on a hanger, will be so mussed in the morning that it will have to be pressed.

• • • • • •

It does silk no good to have a hot iron pressed down and moved this way and that over it. Heat tenders certain silks decidedly.

• • • • • •

Furnishings need the same careful treatment accorded personal belongings. For instance, the window curtains will soon appear wrinkled and far from new if they are carelessly crushed when put aside at night so that the air can circulate through a room.

• • • • • •

Fasten the curtains back with a view to keeping them free from creases.

• • • • • •

Keep furniture from touchings any heating unit, or being so close to it that the wood dries and cracks. Rub it occasionally with a cloth slightly moistened with furniture polish.

• • • • • •

Rub well so that the wood does not get cloudy with superfluous oil. Conceal scratches in this way. The oil darkens the wood and the scratches are invisible.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH W.M.S. LEADS IN PRESBYTERIAL GIVINGS

Annual Meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial Being Held in City.

MEET IN TRINITY CHURCH.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada commenced a two day session in Trinity Church yesterday afternoon with a large attendance of delegates from the district and from the United Churches of the city. The president, Mrs. S. H. Moyer, presided.

The afternoon session began with a devotional service led by Mrs. W. W. Leonard and Mrs. Milburn, of Lakefield, after which Mrs. Moyer, Springville, led in prayer.

Mrs. S. D. Carver, president of Trinity Auxiliary, extended to the convention a very gracious and cordial welcome to Peterborough, to Trinity Church and to the homes of the women of the W.M.S. Mrs. Carver deemed it a pleasure, a signal honour and a delightful task to extend such a welcome. She expressed the hope that the delegates would have a profitable time and asked the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all things so that when sessions are completed, all might feel another chapter will have been added to the book of progress in the great missionary enterprise.

Mrs. Carver urged the convention to accept the problems and difficulties of the present time as a direct challenge from God.

Mrs. A. C. Denike, Havelock, on behalf of the visitors replied to the gracious welcome expressing their appreciation of the kindly welcome and the pleasure of the guests in being present at the conference. Speaking of the pleasure with which the Presbyterial meeting is anticipated by the out-of-town delegates, Mrs. Denike spoke of the inspiration, encouragement and sympathy extended by the larger city Auxiliaries of the Presbyterial to the smaller outside ones. She referred to the friendship formed during the five years since the consumation of Union, friendships that shall last as long as life will last and will be renewed in the Kingdom of our Father.

A very comprehensive report of the minutes of the last Presbyterial meeting and of the four executive meetings held throughout the year, was read by the recording secretary, Mrs. B. L. Barns.

The following committees were then appointed.

Courtesy committee, Mrs. A. E. Metcalfe, Mrs. T. M. Wesley, and Mrs. Geo. Taylor. Resolutions committee: Mesdames I. A. Porter, Mrs. E. Wand and Mrs. R. G. Lawlor, B.A.,

The report of the Corresponding Secretary said:

Yet another year has gone—a year of achievement or failure—of Christian growth or indifference—of co-operation or selfish hindrance.

Who of us are not at times glad to leave behind a year that, however successful, has in some measure been unsatisfactory, and to launch out on the new and untried in hopeful expectancy of still greater achievements.

At such a time it is good to review thoughtfully what we, with God's help, have accomplished in this great Missionary enterprise. The working strength has grown, its influence has reached out so that our Woman's Missionary Society is not only a "Palace Beautiful," but one of strength and power stretching out to "The uttermost parts of the earth."

Our Presbyterial is made up of Bands, C.G.I.T. groups, Circles and Auxiliaries, each one being a cog in the great W.M.S. wheel, with Christ as the pivot and power at the centre. The work itself is truly the Master's and each member of a society is His co-worker. Every time an Auxiliary, or any member of the great family, fails to "measure up" the wheel becomes unbalanced and you can readily understand what happens.

It is when we fail in the "little" duties,—like attendance at the meetings, being indifferent about our allocation, or the desire to withold what we make over this allocation—little things like these, which clog the machinery and make the whole W.M.S. wheel slow up, or even stand still.

How have we met the test in the Peterborough Presbyterial? Have we kept the faith? The Annual Reports give the answer to both these questions, and we rejoice that they testify in a most satisfying record of the year. While there are a few discouragements,—like the disbanding of our two Auxiliaries, Bailieboro and South Dummer, which seriously depleted our ranks, yet let us remember that we fail not through the lack of membership, but in the fewness of members vitally interested in Missionary work.

22 Auxiliaries.

In proof of this, let us examine the financial status of our Presbyterial for the year that is past. Our 22 Auxiliaries have raised $8388.54, which compares favorably with the $8026.18 sent last year by 24 Auxiliaries. Although our total membership of 947 also shows a decrease, yet the average givings for this year are $8.85, an increase over last year of $1.35.

Approximately 73% of the Auxiliaries reached their allocation, while over 55% exceeded the amount set.

Trinity United Auxiliary still holds its fine record of first place in givings with a total of $1402.03, while Knox United came a close second with $1344.70, an increase over last year of nearly three hundred dollars. Holding third place comes George Street with $1020.00 also an increase over last year.

Next in line are St. Andrews' and Keene, giving respectively $733.61 and $680.00. Norwood is sixth with $425.00 while St. James' with $333.54 and Havelock with $329.87 follow.

Other organizations raised amounts varying with their membership. In this respect it is interesting, as well as somewhat surprising, to note the average givings per member. Aided by special offerings Knox, Peterborough and Fairmount head this list with their splendid givings of $44.82 and $14.28 per capita. St. Andrews' with $13.32 and Springville with $11.76 also hold a high place. Two Auxiliaries, Bensfort and Knox, Lakefield, tie with an average giving of $10.00. Keene and Trinity both give over $9.00 per member, while Stewart Hall, Bethany, Havelock and Hastings contribute over $7.00. $6.00 is the average giving in George Street, Cottesloe, St. James' and Warsaw, while Westwood, Mark Street and Bridge north have a $5.00 average. Regent Street, Lakefield, Norwood and Cavan each give over $4.00 per member, the lowest average givings being $4.21, an increase over last year of 70 cents.

During the past year throughout the Presbyterial, there were 252 meetings held with an average attendance of 18.6.

It has been said that if we take the "stew" out of the church kitchen, and put it into Christian Stewardship, where it belongs, we will have no trouble with our finances. Our Presbyterial must be following out this suggestion, for there are now only four auxiliaries who do not contribute systematically through the envelope system. $2118.56 was realized this year from envelope givings alone, George Street Auxiliary leading with $607.45.

If it be true that "Money is the acid test of Christianity," surely our Autumn and Easter Thankoffering clearly show the manner in which we meet this test, for they are our free-will offerings to God. This year these offerings reached $1778.26 with Knox Church still leading. It might be interesting to note in this connection that 5370 envelopes were distributed among the various societies.

Life Membership is one of the highest honours in the W.M.S., and it has been obtained by ten of our members this year, adding $250.00 to the treasury.

Three Auxiliaries led in Mite Box givings, St. Andrews' with $56.00, Havelock $46.81 and St. James' $42.57, the total raised in this way being over $240.00.

Cottesloe reports the highest average attendance with 7 out of 8 at each meeting, and Springville ranks second with 13 out of 17 present.

Our Annual Report forms allot a large space for "any items of interest connected with the work of Auxiliaries, Missionary Study, methods, etc. This was meant, primarily, to promote the spirit of co-operation and helpfulness, yet less than one-third of our organizations complied with the request. Bensfort rzorts using the new study book which they find very interesting, as does Fairmount, who have also had several social functions and have packed a splendid bale for Curve Lake Missions. Sunshine bags aid in raising their funds, and grateful recognition is given Miss Emma McIndoo for her gift of $75, for the support of a Bible Woman in China.

Lakefield Presented Pageant.

Knox, Lakefield, presented a Peace Pageant at their Sunday evening Thankoffering Service, and Miss Flavelle of Lindsay also gave them a timely address on Jerusalem.

An interesting feature of George Street Auxiliary was their Mother and Daughter Banquet. They also report group system and contribution by envelope.

In St. James', the Executive plans the year's programme while a committee arranges for each meeting, one person assuming charge of the study book. They use Mite Boxes and the envelope system.

Personal invitations are extended to women to attend, by Springville Auxiliary. The study book is made interesting by the use of a coloured map of Japan, while two members alternate in taking the subject under study.

Warsaw also reports a splendid year with the group system. 21 out of their 25 members giving systematically by envelopes. Their Christmas meeting and supper was a great success. They hold one Temperance meeting each year. Three members from this Auxiliary passed on during the year.

The call to prayer on behalf of our Auxiliary members becomes more insistent as time passes. Our Missionaries at home and in the far away fields, those in authority and those who perform the humbler tasks are all asking that we give ourselves over to earnest consecrated prayer in their behalf. Do we realize that prayer is the mightiest force at our command?

So we would remind our members of our Annual Day of prayer to be held on February 20th of which further announcement will be made later. This is a world wide service. In every country women of all the different races and varied degree of social standing and education gather together to implore God's help for the coming of His Kingdom.

Is it too much to expect that every W.M.S. member in the Presbyterial will consider it not only a duty but a privilege to be present at this Day of Prayer service?

We would also impress upon every member her obligation to co-operate in the great membership drive which has been launced by our Dominion Board who urge the need of beginning all plans for the year at once.

We need not only a "Look Out" committee but a "Go Out" committee. When we have learned that the call to go does not mean stay, and when we have learned to give systematically just as God has prospered us, it will not be said of us:

"The angels from their thrones on high
Look down on us with wondering eye:
That where we are but passing guests
We build our firm and solid nests;
But where we hope to dwell for aye,
We scarce take heed a stone to lay."

Stewardship Department.

Mrs. A. B. Cunningham in reporting for the Department of Stewardship and Finance expressed pleasure at the increased interest evinced in missionary work during the year. Though receipts have not been quite equal to those of last year taking into consideration the trying times through which we are passing, we have much cause for thankfulness.

Reports sent in from secretaries of Christian Stewardship and Finance Committees this year, show very encouraging faetures. From 22 Auxiliaries we learn that 16 have Stewardship and Finance Secretaries, while 13 have Finance Committees. Systematic giving by monthly envelope is being adopted by more of the societies and is proving to be a very successful aid in financing.

Eleven auxiliaries and three Y.W.A.'s have adopted a missionary in prayer. The number of societies reaching or exceeding their allocation was 15 Auxiliaries, three Y.W.A.'s and three Circles. Less than half reported adopting a budget plan but almost every society makes a quarterly or monthly review of what has been accomplished and what remains to be accomplished.

It is important that each society present regularly at each meeting of the Department of Christian Stewardship. It need take only a few minutes and the results are worth the effort. Helpful literature may be secured from the Literature Department on this subject.

Take time to study out the best methods for your own society, advised Mrs. Cunningham. Try to plan something to make up for the long holiday season. Get a good start at the beginning of the year, then try again after holidays, rally together as promptly as possible.

In referring to allocations, Mrs. Cunningham said the allocation for 1930 was the same as for the previous year, $11,836. While appearing large, when it is compared with that of other Presbyterials, it seem some are faced with an even more difficult problem than we have. To reach the objective, it was necessary to raise the allocation on a number of societies and it was encouraging the way the societies accepted the increases and in some cases were able not only to reach it but to exceed it.

Mrs. Cunningham begged to impress on those responsible for the work, the importance of sending in the annual reports promptly, also the necessity for sending in funds to the treasurer quarterly. Send in, she advised, all that is raised.

Mrs. Cunningham remarked in closing, that while her report dealt mostly with matters of money, all know that this is only a part of the work though truly an important part. We have to consider our Stewardship of time and talents, as well. Let us not be satisfied with giving a tithe of our money only, but with it dedicate a worth while part of our time and talents.

Mrs. A. E. Moorhouse offered the dedicatory prayer, presenting this offering of money to the Lord for the carrying on of his work through the efforts of the W.M.S.

To the roll call 19 Auxiliaries responded, George Street, Peterborough having the greatest number of respresentatives, with twenty present.

Mrs. A. B. Cunningham read the report of the nominating committee, bringing in the following nominations:

Honourary Presidents, Miss M. Dickson and Mrs. J. K. Moore; Past President, Mrs. S. H. Moyer; President, Mrs. A. I. Brown; Vice Presidents, Mrs. F. J. Burgess, Mrs. J. F. Allan, Mrs. R. S. Christian Stewardship and Finance, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham; Sec. Y.W.A.'s and Circles, Mrs. W. H. Morton; Sec. C. G. I. T.:; Sec. Mission Bands and Baby Bands, Mrs. Lorne Cunningham; Missionary Monthly Secretary, Mrs. Leonard, Lakefield; Literature Secretary, Mrs. Jas. Seymour, Ida; Press Secretary, Mrs. John Bradbury; Strangers' Secretary, Mrs. H. Robb, Norwood; Supply Secretary Miss F. Dixon; Associate Helper's Secretary, Mrs. A. F. Bookhout; Temperance Secretary, Mrs. J. J. Plunkett;

The afternoon session was closed with prayer offered by Mrs. J. E. Whittam, of Cavan.

Half hour conferences were held during the afternoon session, with each department secretary presiding over the group of the Auxiliary officers of her department. Many helpful suggestions were contributed by the leaders and the workers for the advance of the work. At the supper hour a group of conference of Y.W.A. and Circle workers was held, with Mrs. W. H. Morton presiding and of C.G.I.T. workers, led by Mrs. Roy Laing.

A beautiful solo was contributed by Mrs. Ross Williamson. Mrs. Cruikshank presided at the organ.

The Rev. David Wren, pastor of the Convention Church presided for the Tuesday evening session which was largely attended by those interested in mission work. The portion of scripture chosen as his helpful and interesting Bible lesson was taken from Isaiah 6, "Whom shall I send and who will go?" and its answer, "Here am I, send me," was used as the bases of the lesson.

A beautiful solo was rendered by Maurice Park and the Rev. S. A. Kemp, of Lakefield brought greetings to the gathering assuring the ladies that in missionary endeavors the pastors of the Prebytery are co-workers with the members of the W.M.S. and rejoice with them in their successes and sympathize with them in their deficits and failures.

In a graphic and lyrical word picture Miss Effie A. Jamieson, Central Secretary, of the Dominion Board of the W.M.S. told of her visit to the Golden Jubilee of the founding of a Mission on the West coast of Africa, by the Congregational church now incorporated with the United Church of Canada, and which was the first to send missionaries to the West Coast. Fifty years ago three young men landed there, one of whom Dr. Sanders, now a man of seventy-four years, is still in the work.

The African people are wonderfully responsive to the teaching, they do not wish to be called heathen, but maintain they are God's children who, having walked in darkness now have light.

The first difficulty was the lack of a language and early the missionaries devised a written language with syntax and grammar which has become one of a dozen African languages which will remain for all time. Lovedale had a humble beginning in little schools built of grass, but now there are six hundred with thousands of students and adults. The teen-age girls have organized calling themselves African Girls in Training with a slogan "Go to School." A group of six hundred of these girls sent greetings with the speaker to the girls of Canada.

Miss Jamieson was a guest of a gathering of 2000 teen-age boys whose leader was a dynamo young African pastor. Currie Institute which began with twenty-five students, is now a large school with training departments in preaching, teaching, medicine and learning of trades.

She was greatly impressed by the music and pageantry of the jubilee celebration which was held in an amphitheatre.

In her concluding remarks, Miss Jamieson said, "We are reminded in Angelo, the words of the Saviour, 'Lo I Do Make All Things,' will draw all men unto me."

Miss Blanche Clegg, of Trinity Choir rendered a delightful solo at the conclusion of Miss Jamieson's address and was followed by the president's address by Mrs. S. H. Moyer, of which the following is an extract.

President's Address.

"To-day we are meeting again to take stock. It is a day of reckoning in our Peterborough Presbyterial. What are our failures and what improvements can be suggested for the coming year? In looking back over the past year we have a great deal for which to be thankful, to be even proud of. God has been very good to us in 1930 and throughout the year we have felt the loving hand of our Father leading us.

"We are sorry that one of our auxiliaries has disbanded and we only trust and pray that the near future will see them working strongly again with us. We are proud of the noble women in our organizations many work under difficulties and find it a real effort to attend the meetings. Still they feel that Women's work for women and children is theirs, and the one way they can help the advancement of the kingdom on this earth.

"We have been able to meet with a number of auxiliaries and have enjoyed the fellowship with them and have stressed the need of a closer union with our great head, Jesus Christ. Do we only give Him the fragments of time we can spare after all the other demands on life and time have been met?

"The thought came to me at one of our meetings, that our W.M.S. omens are like the leaven the Master spoke of in His parable. There was a woman who hid the leaven in three measures of meal till all was leavened. The leaven in His spirit working in the Auxiliary members. The meal are those outside who do not know Him and silently but surely the leaven is working and we see an advance in the onward march.

"Two great calls have come to us this year. The first that open letter to our membership, "O Lord, revive Thy work beginning with me." This was in connection with that wonderful movement in Japan under the leadership of Mr. Kagawa. That leads out to the next call issued of a 10% increase in membership. Only one third of the women of the Church are enlisted in the work of the Society. May this year be outstanding for its deeper consecration and enlarged fellowship in our ranks.

"We have appreciated very much this year, the splendid messages brought to us by Mrs. McGillivray, who told of her trip through that war-torn country of China, of its fine Christians who through pain and sacrifice held up the banner of the cross. And also Miss Gillespie who spoke to us at the sectional meetings, telling us of kindergarten and other work in Japan. Miss Young, our new Y.W.A. secretary, brought a splendid message to our young people and not the least our speaker to-night, Mrs. Jamison, with her splendid pictures of Africa.

"In our work both in Canada and overseas one of our special objects is to help the children for training them while young, is always the best policy. So our Board stresses education, both at home and abroad. In the work in China and Japan and other missions, the children are gathered into schools, making them Christians as well as graduates. In the Canadian work we have boarding schools and school homes one of which it was our privilege to visit this summer, the Marjory Herridge Home at New Liskeard. We have seventeen of these homes, some sheltering twenty and some more.

"We, too, devote much of our funds to Hospital work, both in our own country and in foreign lands. We all remember Dr. Murray and her splendid message and the thought ran through many minds how could she do it all. The word comes now that she is over working and will have to take a rest for a time. Dr. Kilborn in China, is also near to the breaking point. She says, "I am doing my best, but my best is not sufficient for the task."

"Pioneer conditions in our own land call for hospitals of which we have eleven and give and to seven more. One new hospital was added this last year, being Gypsumville in Manitoba, this unit being moved from Amaranth. Miss Mustard being in charge. We have two other departments of important work. Strangers and Temperance. To the former has been added Miss Mayowna, a lady from Central Europe, who can speak to the strangers in their own tongue, for she can converse in eight languages. The strangers work met with a great loss this year in the death of Mrs. West, who was so great an authority on the subject that she was called to Ottawa to confer on the Immigration Board.

"I am going to close with a few words from our Branch president, who urges us to make evangelism the keynote of all our work this year. It must be the underlying note in all our work to give the gospel to all people. First live it in our own lives, till it reaches through those we send out, to those who have never known a Saviour's love."

The meeting closed with a missionary hymn and benediction pronounced by the Rev. David Wren.

St. John's Sextet Cop Fourth Straight Victory

Campbellford Loses out 7 to 3

Both Teams Play Listless Hockey Until Final Frame—Millers Lead in Second.

SEVERAL ASSISTS.

Heponstal Stars in Campbellford Net While Howe Turns in His Best Game of Season.

To forge further to the front in the district Junior O.H.A. race, the St. John's hockey team rang up their fourth straight win at the Brock street Arena last night by taking Campbellford into the fold by a 7 to 3 count.

Although the Mill Town youngsters were consistently out-smarted and outskated by the fast-stepping red-shirts, they never retreated. While their efforts lacked the smoothness of the local outfit's work, they at times developed speed and teamwork that gives much promise and which gave St. John's considerable trouble.

Neither squad carried the punch to their attack until the final canter. St. John's had collected two in the first period, and in the second, with Campbellford taking a larger share in the play, each team netted one. Both outfits stepped up the pace in the final go, St. John's scoring four while Campbellford courageously came through with two.

St. John's failed to unleash that sparkling speed and combination that has marked their playing in recent games. While they stopped their opposition in every department, their work lacked that something in effective smoothness that they are capable of displaying.

Give Heponstal, the rangy lad who stood betwen the Campbellford posts, his due. This boy, who is reported to have not shone so brightly for the Campbellford intermediates in torrid tussle in Madoc the night previous, came back to form to repeatedly rob St. John's of well-earned counters. He shone especially in preventing goals after St. John's had weaved their way in upon his citadel on combination attacks, again and again getting in front of shots lifted right off his own door mat.

Howe is Star

Howe, solid St. John's defence man, stole much of the limelight from his flashy mates by turning in his best game of the season. Not only was he the usual bulwark on defence but his rushing was most effective. He earned himself the first goal. Calladine and Gardner teamed up for many combination excursions but the work of the Campbellford goalie kept them from grabbing their usual big share of the counters. Four of the St. John's goals came on passes and for the most part they were shared around most liberally. Calladine netted one and gave a pass for another, and Wilshaw did the same. Ellis gave two assists and scored a pretty one on a bullet shot from the blue line. Milliken, relief winger, accounted for two when he wasted no time in plugging a pass from Ellis and Calladine. Gardner accounted for the other goal when he stickhandled his way through, passed to Calladine and then returned to bat in the rebound.

Star for Millers

Lambert, Hendy and Bush were again the best for Campbellford. Lambert showed nice speed in starting off rushes and his long gunning was on the mark. Hendy was the best playmaker and his back checking at centre ice proved one of St. John's greatest obstacles. Bush teamed up well with the other pair and in the last ten minutes rang in two goals when he snared the puck near St. John's blue line. Wilkes, a husky defence man, accounted for the other when he plowed down centre ice alone.

The Teams

CAMPBELLFORD—Goal, Heponstal; defence, Holmes and Wilkes; centre, Hendy; wings, Lambert and Bush; alternates, Scott, Runions and Cubit.

PETERBOROUGH St. John's — Goal, Miller; defence, Ellis and Howe; centre, Calladine; wings, Gardner and Wilshaw; alternates, Merrett, Burke and Milliken.

Referee—O. Kennaley.

Heponstal was called upon for quick movements right at the start when Calladine and Gardner bore down upon his net. St. John's opened up beautiful opportunities with their passing attacks, but with Lambert gunning and Hendy and Bush teaming up Campbellford was also taking a fair share of the play even if their efforts did fail to put them inside the defence. After several sorties, Howe went up the left boards, swerved around the defence, to plug the first goal. Campbellford returned hotly and burned in several shots at Miller. St. John's second counter came on a combination effort which carried Wilshaw through. He gave a pass to Calladine who deflected it into the nets. For the remainder of the period the teams battled along with St. John's consistently carrying the play.

No penalties had been passed out in the first period, but the second had only got underway when Howe was sent to the box for bodying Lambert. Ellis started a rush and at mid-ice passed to Wilshaw, who carried the rubber in alone to score. St. John's opened many opportunities but passes were missed in front of the nets at this stage. Lambert went down to test Miller. Wilshaw gave Calladine a perfect pass but the shot hit the post. Campbellford was placed on the score sheet with the period more than half over when Scott battled his way down alone and plugged the twine behind Miller. The game pepped up toward the period's close and several penalties were issued.

In the final period the best hockey of the whole entertainment was presented. Ellis opened the scoring after five minutes of play with a knee-high sizzler from the blue line. Wilshaw and Calladine combined to go in on Heponstal who saved brilliantly. Scott and Lambert returned for Campbellford, but Miller rolled out of the nets to thwart the play. The St. John's sub forward line kept Campbellford hemmed in for minutes at a time and finally Milliken picked the corner of the hemp on a pass from Ellis for St. John's sixth goal. Seconds later Gardner weaved his way through, passed to Calladine and then returned to net the rebound. A little more than a minute later Bush picked up a loose puck and scored on a quick drive from the blue line. Again Campbellford encountered difficulty in clearing their nets and Milliken scored on a pass from Calladine. Bush closed the game when he checked a St. John's rush at the blue line and sneaked a low shot past Miller.

Lakefield Regains E.P.L. Leadership

LAKEFIELD BEATS PORT HOPE 8-4

"The Grove" and Senators Tangle in Smart Junior Fixture in Northern Town.

FEW PENALTIES.

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 21. (Examiner Correspondence). — A very snappy junior hockey match was played in the Lakefield rink on Monday evening between "The Grove" and the Senators of Port Hope with a score 8-4 for the home team. The teams were well matched and a fast, clean game was played, held well in hand by the referee, Braden Blewett.

In the second period the sub goal keeper was put in by the Senators with disastrous results to their team as The Grove piled up the score rapidly under the kindly eye of Robin Hood who was replaced by the more vigilant Micks for the last period.

Disney played a good game in The Grove goal but has been in better form. Macrae was a star, also Wright and the Carson boys played a good game. Elmsley, who is usually the busy bee of The Grove forward line, was not in his best form but did fairly well.

Colwell of the Senators scored the first goal after ten minutes of play and Paeden added another counter in nine minutes which gave the visitors the entire first period.

The second period The Grove scored seven, Macrae accounting for five Elmsley for one and Carson i for another. The second period encouraged the fans and the applause was deafening. The third period was perhaps the keenest of all; Stewart scored after ten minutes' fast play with close checking and that ended The Grove success. Harwood added one to the Senators' count in five minutes and three minutes later Cancilla scored the final counter of the game. The penalties which were for minor offences were fairly numerous. The following is the line up:

The Grove		Senators
Disney	goal	Hood and Micks

Macrae	centre	Brookes

FOUR HUNDRED FANS SEE COGS DROP 6—3 DECISION

Homesters Have Big Share in Play From the Start of Game.

COGS NEED WIN TO-NIGHT.

Lakefield regained the leadership of the East Peterborough loop on their own ice last night by trimming Cognawagas 6-3 in a lively tilt that kept about 400 fans keyed up with excitement all the way to the last bell.

The present standing of the league is as follows—

	W.	T.	L.	Pts.
Lakefield	2	2	0	6
C.G.E.	2	1	0	5
Cogs	1	1	1	3
Norwood	0	0	3	0

To-night's game at Brock Street brings the two local teams together, and Cogs need a win to keep in the running. It would tie them with the Canadian General team. On the other hand to-night's game means a lot to the Electrics, for a victory will shoot them out again in front. Friday night Lakefield goes to Norwood, and this fixture counts not only in the East Peterborough League, but also in the Intermediate O.H.A. group comprising the two village teams.

Both this week's games are important, and as all four teams are showing steady improvment, the fans are assured of two interesting evenings, the one here to-night and the other in Norwood on Friday night.

Homesters Lead Play

Lakefield held Cogs to a tie at Brock Street last week, but they were doubly at home on their own ice last night. The home sheet was entirely to their liking, and it put a crimp in the Cog's style. Lakefield had the big share of the play, and, while the Peterborough team stepped into their stride at times, they were often hemmed in and worried around their own nets. That was their principal weakness, and at least three of Lakefield's goals were garnered on passes from behind the Peterborough net to snipers out in front.

On the evening's play the Cement team earned their victory decisively. They got their first goal in a minute and a half; led at the intermission by 2-1; and were up 5-2 at the end of the second and finished with 6-3.

If Lakefield are to maintain their present pace they will have to remedy at once their glaring weakness, and that is their forward line's habit of straying out of position. They have speed and weight and condition, but they lack consistent team play along their front line. At their own style they set the Cogs back last night, but they owe a lot to Junkin for the fact that they finished three goals to the good.

Wood, White and J. Sabatino turned in a steady defensive game, and by the way it was another evening for Sabatino going the route without a penalty. As usual Louie Sabatino skated uncounted leagues. Blewett was a big help and Stabler led many of the rushes. Stuffy Mahood gave the Cogs a lot of trouble, especially right around their net.

Play Good Game

The Peterborough team played a loose game for the most part, and couldn't get going consistently. They found the checking close, and Junkin in the Lakefield net handled them no charities. Dallin, Jones and Maudsley were certainly not outfooted by the Lakefield front line, and they never let up trying, but their work lacked the necessary finish to beat Junkin.

The Cogs' alternate forwards provided capable relief, and Pat Calladine's mileage finally rewarded him with one of the three Peterborough goals.

The team's were—

Referee—Ray Rose.

Summary

First Period—

Lakefield—Stabler (Wood) 1.32 min.

Cogs—Maudsley (Jones) 11 mins.

Lakefield—White 7 mins.

Second Period—

Lakefield—Mahood (Wannamaker) 8 mins.

Lakefield—Blewett 3 mins.

Lakefield—Stabler (Mahood) 7 mins.

Cogs—Rooke (Williams) 2.40 mins.

Third Period—

Lakefield—Blewett (Stabler) 3 mins.

Cogs—Calladine (Jones) 18 mins.

Summary of the Play

The first few minutes were typical of a quite a lot of other stages. Lakefield backed Cogs into their own bailiwick, and before the game got settled down Stabler got the first goal on a pass from Wood in less than two minutes. Williams was penalized for tripping Stabler. Williams and Jones combined twice without a serious threat on Junkin. Rooke had a real chance close in but fell. Wood went to the penalty box. Maudsley put the Cogs up even on the score sheet on a pass from Jones. Wood went down alone, but carried the puck too far and hit the side of the Cogs net. Calladine broke through the Lakefield defence without result. White sent Lakefield ahead on a smart dash. He shook off the front line and beat Payne with a fast drive into the corner of the net.

Wood broke up a Jones to Williams combination. LeBarr's dash was switched into a corner. Jones sifted through the Lakefield defence alone, and looked dangerous for a moment until Johnnie Sabatino shouldered him out of his stride.

Mahood Scores

Northey and Blewett started the second period with shots on Payne, who made a splendid save a minute later on Blewett's point blank drive from about five feet out. Stuffy Mahood made it 3 to 1 for Lakefield on Wannamaker's pass from behind the goal line. Mahood earned that one by using his noodle for the expected chance that actually came to him. Shortly afterward he got another shot from about the same position on Louie's Sabatino's pass out from a corner.

Cogs were frequently in difficulty at that stage, and Blewett just about broke their hearts with an easy shot from the blue line. Payne saw it dragging toward him, but by some fluke it slipped under his stick. LeBarr relieved the tension by a solo rush. Dallin's shot on a pass from Maudsley went by harmlessly. Then Stabler added another notch in Lakefield's score when he beat Payne on Mahood's pass from behind the goal line. Cogs got one of them back. Lakefield left Rooke uncovered out in front and Williams' pass to him from a corner gave him an easy set-up to beat Junkins.

More trouble around the net accounted for the sixth goal against Cogs. Blewett scored it on Stabler's pass out from a corner. Junkin made a great save when Jones went in close on him. Mahood was benched for roughing it. Four of the Cogs went down abreast, but Rooke's pass in front of net was wide. Wannamaker tripped LeBarr and joined Mahood in the box. Junkin stopped two hard drives from LeBarr and Calladine. Cogs failed to gain anything from their brief advantage of the Lakefield penalties. Stabler and Jones went off for what looked like a butt end duel.

Cogs finished at top speed and peppered Junkin during the last ten minutes. Junkin kicked out two shots from Dallin in quick succession and at about ten feet range. White was benched for tripping Dallin. The Cogs' pressure was finally rewarded when Calladine whizzed the rubber past Junkin on a pass from Jones.

DETROIT WING STILL LEADER ON N.H.L. LIST

Ebbie Goodfellow Scores 19 Goals and 11 Assists For 30 Points in All.

MORENZ TOPS CANADIAN.

No Change in Shutouts Standings—Rockburn Leads Bench Warmers.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21 (C.P.) — Canadiens and Boston both won their National Hockey League engagements last night, and are still leading the Canadian and American Divisions respectively The Crimson Tide from Montreal just managed to defeat New York Rangers 3—2 in an overtime tussle, while Boston doubled the score on Ottawa, emerging victorious by 4—2. Meanwhile, Detroit was swarming all over Philadelphia, defeating the lowly Quakers 5—2.

As matters stand at present, Canadiens are ahead in the Canadien group, two full games in front of Toronto and Maroons, who are tied for second place. Americans are two games still further back, while Ottawa is in the cellar. In the American loop, Boston has a one and a-half game lead over Chicago. Rangers and Detroit are tied for third, three full games behind, and Philadelphia seems to have entirely given up the ghost. The Quakers have won two games, tied one, and lost 22.

Ebbie Goodfellow, of Detroit, is still high man among the individual scorers. Ebbie collected a brace of goals last night, to bring his tally to 19 goals and 11 assists, or 30 points in all. Meantime, Howie Morenz, who leads the Canadian Division with 17 goals and 8 assists, was out of the game last night with injuries. Bill Cook of Rangers, has scored more goals than anyone else. He registered another last night to bring his count to 20, but has only 4 assists to his credit. And speaking of assists, Frankie Boucher, also of Rangers, is high man. Frankie got two more last night, and has now helped his teammates to score 17 times. In the Canadian loop, Primeau, of Toronto, has most assists, 12.

There was no change in the shutout standings. Gardner, of Chicago, still tops the list with nine, while Maple Leafs have collected 7.

Harvey Rockburn, Detroit, drew another two-minute penalty last night, and has now warmed the bench for a total of 86 minutes. In the Canadian Division, Alex. Smith, Ottawa, and Aurial Joliat, Canadiens, are tied for that doubtful honor, both having been thumbed out of the game for a total of 59 minutes.

The leaders:—

INDIVIDUAL SCORING FEATURES TIGHT GAME IN S. E. LEAGUE

Thrills and Goals Liberally Sprinkled in Last Night's Four Game Bill.

ATHLETICS WIN 4-1.

Thrills, spills and goals were liberally sprinkled through four South End City League games last night at the Sacred Heart rink. It was a tough night on goal-minders, only the first game being close. The play was for the most part fast and rough with body-checks that jarred the rink.

The bantam teams, Fosters and Ravens, started it off, with the former winning in a tight go by the margin 2-1. It was an even and clean-fought game, mostly individual. The first period saw O'Leary scoring for Fosters and Connelly stepping right out and tying it up before the bell. The second chapter saw some hard going, with the winners counting one more from the stick of Williamson. Four of the Ravens were sent up the ice in the third frame in an attempt to knot it up again, and they were trying when the game ended.

The teams:

Fosters—Goal, Granger; right defense, Thornley; left defense, Peters; centre, Brady; right wing, O'Leary; left wing, Houlihan; alternates, Ellis, Lesurf, Williamson and Coughlin.

Referee—Henry Jay.

Athletics Win 4—1

In the second encounter, Athletics let the Canuck Bantams down to the tune of 4—1. The winners showed a marked superiority throughout the game, with their star, Kingdon, figuring in all the scoring. Athletics looked more aggressive and combined to better advantage, and kept Fanaro on his toes all the way. In the first period, Jobe scored one for the A's on a pass from Kingdon, and a few minutes later, the latter went through alone for another. The second stanza saw him stick-handle up to the net and slip in one more, while Masters batted in a rebound for Canucks. The third period, Kingdon scored the fourth goal on a combination play.

Referee, George Jay.

Tigers Outscore Canucks

Tigers out-bumped Canuck Juveniles in the third game to take a 3—1 count. The game was rought, tough and nasty from beginning to end. There was no score in the first though the Tigers peppered the other's net continuously. However, in the middle chapter, with Fleming watching the men instead of the puck, Tigers ran in two—one by Cournyea knooking in his own rebound, and the other on a combination, Gibson scoring. Halfway through the third canto, Hill stick-handled in and beat McCarrol for their only counter. Just before the gong, Cournyea got his second one of the game, and the third for Tigers. Canucks had five players on the ice at the last. Considerable slashing was done in the last period, but the referee was lenient.

Referee, George Jay.

Rays Blank Saints 5-0.

Raybestos Juveniles shut St. Peter's out 5-0 in the final battle of the evening. The Saints were without alternates and their goalie did not even have adequate pads, so the game soon developed into a one-sided affair. The play-off in the first frame was even enough, though Peel and O'Brien both scored for the Rays. The players were moving rapidly from end to end at top speed, but individually for the most part. The second period saw the winners sifting through time and again on two and three-man rushes, with Peel and White foolin; Young who tried hard, for the third and fourth markers. The losers fought like Trojans, the whole team playing desperate hockey. Koster and McCallum looked good with their checking and sorties down the ice. In the final period, Budd eased the disc in for the last goal. The play was all in St. Peter's territory, and at times it was plenty rough.

St. Peter's: Goal, Young; right defense, Sweetman; left defense, Sullivan; centre, McCallum; right wing, Primeau; left wing, Koster; alternates, none.

Mourn Passing Of Ronnie McPherson

The tragic death of "Ronnie" McPherson has brought grief to thousands of sportsmen. "Ronnie" was a sportsman and a gentleman. He was a man who dared. He took charge of the University of Toronto football teams out of sheer loyalty to his Alma Mater, and it must be said that he always had a fighting aggregation at his command.

"Ronnie" was a lovable athlete. He knew how to get along with friend and foe, and he did know how to deliver the goods. Varsity will forever remember him, just as Varsity will never forget the late Jimmy Douglas. McPherson battled for his rights, and the rights of the big Blue team, and he never was known to back up an inch under fire. He will be missed in athletic circles. Last fall he sat on the Hamilton Tiger bench in the games against Queen's University and Balmy Beach, and because he was a former Tiger player he "pulled" for the Bengals.—Toronto Globe.

TECUMSEHS CLINCH 6TH STRAIGHT WIN

London Team Now in Tie For Second Place With Windsor Bulldogs.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 21 (C.P.)—London Tecumsehs hung up their sixth straight victory in the International Hockey League last night by shellacking the Cleveland Indians on home ice, 2 to 2. Since considerable ballyhoo drifted out from the Western Ontario city concerning the change of managers which did not occur, the Tecumsehs have startled the league by their thoroughness. Every contender for the title has felt the force of the London team's new lease of life. Three weeks ago they were in second last place and apparently destined to finish there. To-day, they are tied for second place with Windsor Bulldogs, five points behind the league leading Buffalo Bisons.

More than 7,000 fans saw the Tesumsehs clearly earn their second victory in three days over last season's champions. No scoring developed in the opening period. London's second string line got the range on the Cleveland cage in the middle frame, and "Doc" Romnes popped the rubber into the net on a pass from Tubby Moore. The second stringery continued their sharpshooting in the third chapter, when Renika took "Cowboy" Pettinger's pass for the counter that put the two points beyond doubt.

The Indians have a chance to climb within two points of the second placers to-night when they meet the Stars in Syracuse. This is the only scheduled fixture.

Grant And Thorpe's Defeats Silverwoods

Three Teams in Newly Organized City Mercantile League.

A City Mercantile Hockey League is in the process of formation. This league at present consists of teams from Silverwood's, Public Utilities and Grant and Thorpe's. There is a possibility of other teams entering the league such as the Brinton Carpet and a team from The Examiner. Any other sextet that would like to enter this league is requested to get in touch with Fred Miller at Grant and Thorpe's.

In a closely-fought contest last night the Silverwood Milkmen defeated Grant and Thorpe's Electric Flashes by a score of 3 to 2. Owing to a shortage of time caused by the boys having to shovel the snow off the ice at All Saints' ice before the game could start, the play was limited to two periods. The first period went to the Milkmen with Bob Rogers scoring the first goal and King Anderson following shortly after with the second. The second period brought the Electric Flashes out ready to charge anything. C. Heel got the first counter for them and then Grant Gillespie scored one for the Milkmen. Just before the period ended Heel scored another for the Flashes. The line-up:

Grant and Thorpe.—Reed, goal; Callan and Miller, defence; Davis, r. wing; Morrison, l. wing; C. Heel, centre; Robertson, Ash and Taylor, subs.

COGS TO MEET C.G.E. TO-NIGHT

First Clash of Season Between Local Entries of East Peterborough League.

With the pick of local hockey stars in action on a sheet of fast ice, to-night's East Peterborough League battle between Cogs and C. G. E. Tool Room promises the fastest game of hockey played at Brock Street rink this season.

The East Peterborough League is banking on this game to make the loop solid with hockey fandom, being reasonably assured that the speed, clever stick handling and defensive strength of the two teams will make hosts of friends for the new organization.

Cogs came out of last night's game with Lakefield in good shape, the only casualty being a face injury to Payne. In the event of the injury proving serious, the Cogs have Foley the Junior O. H. A. star goaler to work in the nets. The game will start at 8 o'clock with Max Board as referee. The teams will be:

COGS		C. G. E.
Payne, Foley	Goal	Hollingsworth
LeBarr	Defence	Swanger
Calladine		Lackey
Jones	Forwards	Epps
Maudsley		Creighton
Dallin		Hatton

Subs—Cogs—Wilson, Cripps, Williams, Jarvis.

Subs—C.G.E.—Williams, Epps, Hayden, Rowe, Meagher.

Full Junior Section In Action To-Night

Plenty of action is promised for three scheduled games. The Pirates to-mororw night at the Sacred Heart rink when the five junior teams of the South End City League play their three scheduled games. The Pirates and Stars are due to go on at seven, with Choates and Canucks taking the ice at eight. The last game at nine will see Stars again, this time facing the Electrics.

These teams have been playing fast, hard hockey, and the games have been noted for the low scores. With the ice in good shape, spectators should get all the thrills they can stand.

BRINTON TEAM HOLDS BANQUET

Appropriate Speeches and an Excellent Program Proves a Big Success.

OFFICIALS PRESENT.

As a recompense for their achievements on the soccer field, the members of the Brinton team and their friends were entertained at a banquet in the Paragon Tea Rooms last evening, when nearly a hundred enjoyed a night of enjoyment unsurpassed in the annals of the Brinton Athletic Association.

J. M. Mackie, president of the Brinton Company, occupied the chair. He was accompanied by M. L. Sweetman, manager of the local plant, J. E. Brook of Toronto, of the Sales Department in the Queen City, W. L. Ferguson, R. N. Dawson, J. W. Jackson, and R. Wand, of the establishment in this city.

The chairman's opening remarks were brief but to the point on the subject of co-operation in every game that is sure to be practised in the daily toil. He congratulated the individual members in winning the two trophies during the season and finished his remarks by handing over the duties of master of ceremonies of the evening.

Captain Replies.

Tom Westwood, captain of the Brinton team, replied on behalf of the football team. "I feel confident that 1931 season will be a banner year in the history of soccer in the city. We are sure to make progress now because we are affiliated with the Ontario Football Association, which gives us recognition in organized sport."

In a humorous speech J. E. Brook kept the company in a fit of laughter with his Scottish jokes, and concluded his remarks on the achievements of the team.

M. L. Sweetman carried his subject to his hearers in well chosen words that fully explained the fundamental principle of relaxation so essential that is sure to be practised in the daily routine of employment as well as on the field of sport. He congratulated the members of the team on their success.

The vice-president of the P and D.F.A. gave an account of the game as played in years gone by when "Grandpa" Wilfred Jones, Alfred Bishop, and "Wag" Hotson took part in the soccer code. He desired the full co-operation of all enthusiasts to assist the executive to bring the objective to a successful issue during the incoming season. "Let every team executive create the spirit of good-fellowship that is so essential in every walk of life."

Lengthy Program.

During the banquet, the Northrop Trio (Harry and Stanley Northrop and Jack Thackeray) entertained the audience with selections on the piano, violin, and 'cello. With an appropriate number, "The Two Beggars," E. Humpage and Jack Smith opened the program. Vocal solos were rendered by Walter Farr, Edward Hotson, Edward Humpage John Smith, Wag Hotson, and James Taylor. Violin solos, Alexander Robertson. Banjo and whistling solos Harry Hotson. Robert Hendry entertained the audience with some of Harry Lauder's songs and jokes that produced mirth aplenty. As a fitting climax to the program J. Smith and R. Hendry sung two duets. Arthur Collison acted as accompanist for all the artists. The company dispersed after singing "Auld Lang Syne."

A wonderful exhibition on skis is given by Bill Bracken, famous English ski runner and champion of Switzerland, at Murren, Switzerland.

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Containing a strong and irresistible appeal to one's sense of the artistic; an open sesame to the hidden wells of laughter and mirth, and leading to an inevitable and genuine appreciation of the superb acting and presentation, the Scottish comedy play "Marigold," undoubtedly ranks high among the numerous excellent productions of its type, which have "played" the Grand Opera House here in the past—in the days when the legitimate stage took second place to no other form of wholesome entertainment.

A Simon Ord production, "Marigold has played at the Kingsway Theatre, London, for over seven hundred performances. It comes to this city direct from a sucessful run of two weeks in Montreal, and is en route to Toronto. Peterborough theatregoers were not slow to realize the potential value of the entertainment offered, as witness the large "house" which it drew last evening, while judging from the favorable comments which were heard on all hands at the close of the performance, expectations had been more than fulfilled. It should draw capacity houses to-night.

In her interpretation of the leading role, Sophie Stewart won instant and sustained interest and affection. Gifted with a goodly share of effeminate charm and beauty, she dovetailed into the characterization of the sweetly innocent and childish "Marigold," as if the part had been specially designed for her, and throughout acted with a refreshing and unaffected simplicity and sincerity. She was well supported by a remarkably strong cast, all outstanding in the handling of their individual representations; their acting throughout being characterized by finesse to an unusual degree.

Owing to illness, Jean Clyde's place on the cast was taken by Marie Shields, while Miss Shields was understudied by Jean Cameron. It was announced by Graham Pocket, manager, that Miss Clyde had been taken from the train at Brockville with an attack of influenza. It is the first time she has missed her "call" in 1,100 performances.

The manager's offer to refund the price of admission to patrons who were genuinely disappointed at the non-appearance of Miss Clyde, made a "big hit" with the audience. It was a typical gesture of British fair play. Incidentally Miss Clyde, who is to-day in this city, is reported to be progressing favorably and will be prepared to re-enter the cast in time for the opening night at Toronto.

Cast

Robina MacFarraline..Jean Cameron

The action of the play takes one back to the year 1842—to the days of courtly men and stately women, to the days when short skirts were taboo, and when furbelows and bustles were a la mode.

The curtain rises on the manse parlor at Paradykes, near Edinburgh; replete in the furnishings and trappings peculiar to that day and generation, and the succeeding action gives one an insight into some of the manners and customs peculiar to the Scotch people of that time, naturally providing plenty of scope for the liberal introduction of native wit and abundant humor, of the most elevating type.

Marigold's love affairs provide the core around which the plot is built, and some exceedingly delicate situations arise, calling for tactful and diplomatic handling.

The second and third acts take one to "The Rookery," Edinburgh Castle, whereupon the play takes on quite a military aspect. The scenery for these acts is particularly effective and some fine lighting effects are obtained.

The play is under the stage direction of Ian Lloyd-Mackenzie.

Manager Pocket, in conversation with The Examiner, was so enthusiastic about the reception the company received in Peterborough, that he expressed the intention of arranging, if possible, for the company to make a return visit in six weeks time—with a different play.—H.R.

Grant And Thorpe's Defeats Silverwoods

Three Teams in Newly Organized City Mercantile League.

A City Mercantile Hockey League is in the process of formation. This league at present consists of teams from Silverwood's, Public Utilities and Grant and Thorpe's. There is a possibility of other teams entering the league such as the Brinton Carpet and a team from The Examiner. Any other sextet that would like to enter this league is requested to get in touch with Fred Miller at Grant and Thorpe's.

In a closely-fought contest last night the Silverwood Milkmen defeated Grant and Thorpe's Electric Flashes by a score of 3 to 2. Owing to a shortage of time caused by the boys having to shovel the snow off the ice at All Saints' ice before the game could start, the play was limited to two periods. The first period went to the Milkmen with Bob Rogers scoring the first goal and King Anderson following shortly after with the second. The second period brought the Electric Flashes out ready to charge anything. C. Heel got the first counter for them and then Grant Gillespie scored one for the Milkmen. Just before the period ended Heel scored another for the Flashes. The line-up:

Grant and Thorpe.—Reed, goal; Callan and Miller, defence; Davis, r. wing; Morrison, l. wing; C. Heel, centre; Robertson, Ash and Taylor, subs.

COGS TO MEET C.G.E. TO-NIGHT

First Clash of Season Between Local Entries of East Peterborough League.

With the pick of local hockey stars in action on a sheet of fast ice, to-night's East Peterborough League battle between Cogs and C. G. E. Tool Room promises the fastest game of hockey played at Brock Street rink this season.

The East Peterborough League is banking on this game to make the loop solid with hockey fandom, being reasonably assured that the speed, clever stick handling and defensive strength of the two teams will make hosts of friends for the new organization.

Cogs came out of last night's game with Lakefield in good shape, the only casualty being a face injury to Payne. In the event of the injury proving serious, the Cogs have Foley the Junior O. H. A. star goaler to work in the nets. The game will start at 8 o'clock with Max Board as referee. The teams will be:

COGS		C. G. E.
Payne, Foley	Goal	Hollingsworth

Subs—Cogs—Wilson, Cripps, Williams, Jarvis.

The Pirates and Stars are due to go on at seven, with Choates and Canucks taking the ice at eight. The last game at nine will see Stars again, this time facing the Electrics.

BRINTON TEAM HOLDS BANQUET

Appropriate Speeches and an Excellent Program Proves a Big Success.

OFFICIALS PRESENT.

As a recompense for their achievements on the soccer field, the members of the Brinton team and their friends were entertained at a banquet in the Paragon Tea Rooms last evening, when nearly a hundred enjoyed a night of enjoyment unsurpassed in the annals of the Brinton Athletic Association.

J. M. Mackie, president of the Brinton Company, occupied the chair. He was accompanied by M. L. Sweetman, manager of the local plant, J. E. Brook of Toronto, of the Sales Department in the Queen City, W. L. Ferguson, R. N. Dawson, J. W. Jackson, and R. Wand, of the establishment in this city.

The chairman's opening remarks were brief but to the point on the subject of co-operation in every game that is sure to be practised in the daily toil. He congratulated the individual members in winning the two trophies during the season and finished his remarks by handing over the duties of master of ceremonies of the evening.

Captain Replies.

Tom Westwood, captain of the Brinton team, replied on behalf of the football team. "I feel confident that 1931 season will be a banner year in the history of soccer in the city. We are sure to make progress now because we are affiliated with the Ontario Football Association, which gives us recognition in organized sport."

In a humorous speech J. E. Brook kept the company in a fit of laughter with his Scottish jokes, and concluded his remarks on the achievements of the team.

M. L. Sweetman carried his subject to his hearers in well chosen words that fully explained the fundamental principle of relaxation so essential that is sure to be practised in the daily routine of employment as well as on the field of sport. He congratulated the members of the team on their success.

The vice-president of the P and D.F.A. gave an account of the game as played in years gone by when "Grandpa" Wilfred Jones, Alfred Bishop, and "Wag" Hotson took part in the soccer code. He desired the full co-operation of all enthusiasts to assist the executive to bring the objective to a successful issue during the incoming season. "Let every team executive create the spirit of good-fellowship that is so essential in every walk of life."

Lengthy Program.

During the banquet, the Northrop Trio (Harry and Stanley Northrop and Jack Thackeray) entertained the audience with selections on the piano, violin, and 'cello. With an appropriate number, "The Two Beggars," E. Humpage and Jack Smith opened the program. Vocal solos were rendered by Walter Farr, Edward Hotson, Edward Humpage John Smith, Wag Hotson, and James Taylor. Violin solos, Alexander Robertson. Banjo and whistling solos Harry Hotson. Robert Hendry entertained the audience with some of Harry Lauder's songs and jokes that produced mirth aplenty. As a fitting climax to the program J. Smith and R. Hendry sung two duets. Arthur Collison acted as accompanist for all the artists. The company dispersed after singing "Auld Lang Syne."

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"MARIGOLD"

Containing a strong and irresistible appeal to one's sense of the artistic; an open sesame to the hidden wells of laughter and mirth, and leading to an inevitable and genuine appreciation of the superb acting and presentation, the Scottish comedy play "Marigold," undoubtedly ranks high among the numerous excellent productions of its type, which have "played" the Grand Opera House here in the past—in the days when the legitimate stage took second place to no other form of wholesome entertainment.

A Simon Ord production, "Marigold has played at the Kingsway Theatre, London, for over seven hundred performances. It comes to this city direct from a sucessful run of two weeks in Montreal, and is en route to Toronto. Peterborough theatregoers were not slow to realize the potential value of the entertainment offered, as witness the large "house" which it drew last evening, while judging from the favorable comments which were heard on all hands at the close of the performance, expectations had been more than fulfilled. It should draw capacity houses to-night.

In her interpretation of the leading role, Sophie Stewart won instant and sustained interest and affection. Gifted with a goodly share of effeminate charm and beauty, she dovetailed into the characterization of the sweetly innocent and childish "Marigold," as if the part had been specially designed for her, and throughout acted with a refreshing and unaffected simplicity and sincerity. She was well supported by a remarkably strong cast, all outstanding in the handling of their individual representations; their acting throughout being characterized by finesse to an unusual degree.

Owing to illness, Jean Clyde's place on the cast was taken by Marie Shields, while Miss Shields was understudied by Jean Cameron. It was announced by Graham Pocket, manager, that Miss Clyde had been taken from the train at Brockville with an attack of influenza. It is the first time she has missed her "call" in 1,100 performances.

The manager's offer to refund the price of admission to patrons who were genuinely disappointed at the non-appearance of Miss Clyde, made a "big hit" with the audience. It was a typical gesture of British fair play. Incidentally Miss Clyde, who is to-day in this city, is reported to be progressing favorably and will be prepared to re-enter the cast in time for the opening night at Toronto.

Miss Shields filled the breach admirably, as Mrs. Pringle, wife of the Minister of Paradykes, while Miss Cameron, who played one of the minor parts, as Beenie the servant at the Manse, acquitted herself in a creditable manner.

The action of the play takes one back to the year 1842—to the days of courtly men and stately women, to the days when short skirts were taboo, and when furbelows and bustles were a la mode.

The curtain rises on the manse parlor at Paradykes, near Edinburgh; replete in the furnishings and trappings peculiar to that day and generation, and the succeeding action gives one an insight into some of the manners and customs peculiar to the Scotch people of that time, naturally providing plenty of scope for the liberal introduction of native wit and abundant humor, of the most elevating type.

Marigold's love affairs provide the core around which the plot is built, and some exceedingly delicate situations arise, calling for tactful and diplomatic handling.

The second and third acts take one to "The Rookery," Edinburgh Castle, whereupon the play takes on quite a military aspect. The scenery for these acts is particularly effective and some fine lighting effects are obtained.

The play is under the stage direction of Ian Lloyd-Mackenzie.

Manager Pocket, in conversation with The Examiner, was so enthusiastic about the reception the company received in Peterborough, that he expressed the intention of arranging, if possible, for the company to make a return visit in six weeks time—with a different play.—H.R.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S TREE PUSSY.

When the big storm was over, in Woodland, where Uncle Wiggily lived, the rabbit children could go to school as they had done before the snow was so deep. The warm sun melted the white drifts. Though winter would not be over for a long time, the bunny boys and girls could now go and recite their lessons to the Lady Mouse Teacher in the Hollow Stump School without getting lost in the snow.

"But I think I shall still keep the pully line, question, lesson basket up," said Uncle Wiggily on the first day of school after the big storm. "I might want to ask the Lady Mouse Teacher how to spell a hard word. She can write the answer, put it in the basket and I can pull it to my gungalow and not have to go out at all to learn how to spell."

"Can't you jump down?"

"I fear it will make you lazy," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"Oh, no!" chuckled Mr. Longears. "I'll hop out two or three times a day to look for adventures. I can't be lazy when I am looking for jolly adventures."

"That is very true; you can't!" squeaked the muskrat lady.

I told you, in some stories before this, how ,when the big storms blew about his bungalow, Uncle Wiggily rigged up a funny telephone between his home and the Hollow Stump School. The telephone was a long rope running around two pulley wheels, like the high clothes line in some back yards. One pulley wheel was at the bungalow and the other at the school. Fastened on the line was a basket.

When the bunny children were kept at home by a bad storm, which, however, wasn't bad enough to keep the Lady Mouse Teacher in, Uncle Wiggily pulled on the line and the basket traveled through the air to school. There Miss Mouse wrote questions on pieces of paper.

Uncle Wiggily pulled the basket of questions back to the bungalow. Pretending he was a teacher, Mr. Longears would ask his stormbound bunnies the questions. He would write their answers on other pieces of paper, put them in the basket nad send them to school by the pulley line. Miss Mouse would mark the questions "right" or "wrong" and so the bunnies went to school while staying at home.

"But now they can really go to school," said Uncle Wiggily as he watched his boys and girls hopping over the snow. "The basket, pulliey line telephone will not be needed until it storms hard again. But I will leave it up in case I want to know how many lollypops I can buy for five cents if a peppermint drop costs a dollar."

"Before going out to look for an adventure, after he had seen his bunny boys and girls hop along to school, Uncle Wiggily thought he would try the basket telephone to make sure it worked all right. So he hauled on the pulley rope and it slid around the wheels at each end. The basket moved along through the air. But, of course, there were no question or answer papers in it as the children were now in school.

"Everything is all right," said Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his jolly pink nose. "Now I'll hop along and have an adventure."

Over the snowy fields and through the snowy woods hopped the rabbit gentleman until, all of a sudden, he heard a mewing sound in a tree. The tree was close to the pulley line telephone.

"Oh, ho!" said Uncle Wiggily as he heard the mewing and looked up. "I guess the Bob Cat is in that tree hoping to catch me." But as he looked again, Uncle Wiggily saw, not the bad Bob Cat, but a cute little pussy cat in the tree. The pussy was mewing sadly.

"What are you doing up in that tree, little pussy cat?" zasked Mr. Longears.

"I am up here because I can't get down," was the answer. "Oh, please help me down and I will love you."

"Can't you climb down?" asked the rabbit.

"No, I'm afraid I'll slip and fall if I climb down."

"Can't you jump down?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"No. I am afraid I'll hurt my paws if I jump down. It's so far to the ground," mewed the pussy cat. "Can't you climb up and lift me down?"

"No, I can't climb a tree."

"But I can go get a ladder and maybe the Police Dog will climb up and get you. Wait until I come back," and Uncle Wiggily started to run.

"I'll wait here in the tree for you," mewed the pussy.

As he hopped along Uncle Wiggily looked up and saw his rope telephone passing close to the tree. The basket, tied to the rope, was at his bungalow. Calling back to the pussy Mr. Longears said:

"I am going to rescue you by my rope and basket telephone. 'Listen pussy! Pretty soon you will see a basket come sliding to you on that rope which is close to your tree. As soon as the basket is near enough climb into it. You can do that without falling. Cuddle down in the basket and see what happens."

"All right, I'll do that!" mewed the pussy. Mr. Longears hurried to his bungalow to pull the basket to the tree pussy.

Christ mas Greeting.

WARSAW, Jan. 30 (Examiner Correspondence).—Roy Bolin, son of Mr. Patrick Bolin, wrote the following poem when in a reminiscent mood and posted it as a Christmas greeting to a former school teacher. Although a resident of Winnipeg for many years he has not forgotten the beauty spots of his native village:

Like roses from the garden
Are the friends of childhood days,
The hands of time are backward turned,
On bygone scenes we gaze.

Down winding lanes of memory,
Once again we fondly roam;
Through cherished fields we wander back
Again with friends from home.

The present from the canvas fades,
We live in days gone by,
We tread again the old time paths
That deep in fancy lie.

We see the lazy river
As it winds on past the mill,
To mingle with the placid lake
That laves the wooded hill.

The old frame village school house,
Where hopes and aims are born,
Before life's sterner truths we face,
Or cares our brows adorn.

This picture old friends bring us
That around the heart entwine,
As with joy and friendship greet you,
For the sake of Auld Lang Syne.

—R. BOLIN.

● Yes, it's true—children actually like to take cod-liver oil this emulsified way

MOTHERS! You'd certainly like your children to take cod-liver oil without putting up a struggle—wouldn't you?

Well, the Scott's Emulsion reporter recently called on Mrs. Forbes of 21 Niagara St., Toronto, to find out just how James and Anne Forbes—the two lovable children pictured above—stood on the cod-liver oil question. "My youngsters simply can't stand plain cod-liver oil," Mrs. Forbes said. "I'd certainly like to see if they'll take Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with any less fuss."

So James tried a spoonful. And Anne took some, too... "I like it!" said James. "M-m-m—give me more!" smiled Anne.

Pleasanter to take—

Bowling Alley Gossip By Pin Boy

Monday Night League—K. of C. Alleys.

Ranger's sharpshooters grabbed six points this week from Sharps crew in a noisy encounter, the latter team taking only one game. Vince O'Connel led the winners with a 751 triple, while Joe Jones' single of 282 helped swell the pinnage. C. Shaughnessy was the only outstanding slugger for Sharp, making 653.

Letellier's team hammered the pins for an 8 point gain at the expense of Rutherford's outfit, Letellier leading the attack with a 328 single. For the losers George Rutherford was the best, picking off 276, 301, 231 for the highest triple of the night.

Hickey's rebuilt entry in this league swamped Meagher's team to the tune of 8 points. Vince Fitzgerald and O. Meaghers were the only players on the losing team who had an "on" night, while three of the winners hit the high spots, as follows:

J. Playford..	266	275	218—759
D. Grant	307	288	194—789
Hickey..	216	231	218—665

Kelbrick's team, which has been cutting a winning streak in the Wednesday night league, were transferred to the Monday night group in order to give them more even competition. They appear, however, to be a shade better than even the Monday nighters, for in their battle this week with Shaughnessy's team they collected 8 points, blanking their opponents. Crough and S. Shaughnessy were good for the losers, and the high scores for the victors were as follows:

W. Sweetman	294	244	233—771
V. Anthony..	271	202	243—716
L. Martyn	251	213	268—732
W. Firth	197	226	207—630

Miss Mildred Archambault set up a new high single record for ladies at the K. of C. alleys last week, when she collected 336 pins in one league game.

REPLIES TO HON. H. H. STEVENS.

The Editor, Peterborough Examiner, Peterborough, Ont., Canada.

Sir,—Just prior to Christmas of 1930, you published in your paper a letter addressed to Canadian citizens and signed by the Honorable H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce for Canada.

While in Peterborouh during the Christmas holidays, it was my pleasure to read this open letter, and on account of its contents, I became interested to a point whereby I replied to the Honorable H. H. Stevens' letter, copy of which is enclosed herewith.

Yours very truly,
William H. Field.
January 16, 1931.

Honorable H. H. Stevens,
Minister of Trade and Commerce,
Ottawa, Canada.

In re: Your letter dated December 20, 1930. Subject, "Bring the Boys and Girls Back Home."

Honorable Sir,—I have read with much concern your open letter, as above indicated, addressed to "Canadian Citizens, Everywhere in Canada."

Because of the fact that I am a Canadian citizen who fought under the British flag during the late World War, and, further, because I am not residing in Canada (although I should if conditions would permit) I am taking the liberty of replying to your aforementioned open letter to possibly explain some of the reasons necessitating your appeal to the Canadian public.

The subject matter under discussion is unquestionably one of great national importance which directly concerns the welfare of that wonderful country. To my mind it stands out as a vital problem requiring immediate attention and the institution of essential remedies to prevent further depletion of Canada's primary asset, viz., its young citizens.

I believe it is in order to ask the question "Why do the boys and girls leave home and why is a public appeal necessary?" Is it because the people are dissatisfied with the laws of their country which govern such elements as the educational system and courts of human justice or is it because they are forced to migrate in order to attain success and receive sufficient remuneration in accordance with their respective abilities?

From my own limited knowledge and experience, I am forced to conclude that migration of the young Canadian citizen is thrust upon him chiefly because of the lack in Canada of opportunity both as to promotion and compensation as offered by the business element.

It is universally acknowledged that Canada possesses untold wealth in national resources; that its laws are humane and just; that its educational system is surpassed by none, and that its people are loyal, honest, fearless, and ambitious. In spite of this incomparable combine of qualities, the young people of Canada are willing to leave it all behind in order to satisfy their ambitions elsewhere.

In my opinion, the primary requisite for good conditions in any country is good government. Prior to the election of the present Canadian Government, the morale of the Canadian people was lowered to a degree whereby criticism and doubt were uppermost. This condition was elevated somewhat during the election campaigning when slogans of "Canada First" and "Canada for Canadians" were advocated. How sincerely the Canadian people believed in these slogans was unquestionably demonstrated in the successful seating of the present Government, the advocators of those patriotic phrases.

Referring again to your letter paragraphs 5, 6, and 7, the all-important factors of production and purchasing are discussed. Here, too the Canadian public has been directly charged with inconsiderate purchasing of foreign made goods, which circumstance is given as the reason for the lack of opportunity in Canada.

It is to be conceded that the purchasing of imported merchandise creates an ill effect upon home producers and that this effect, in turn, is reflected throughout the country in accordance with the fluctuation of volume.

There is, however, another alternative other than public purchasing to prevent the importation of foreign made goods. The Dominion Government is clothed with the necessary power required for the making and passing of laws which are detrimental to foreign producers insofar as importation of their products is concerned. The buying public can not directly control the importation of foreign made goods. It is true that should the public dispense with the purchasing of foreign made merchandise, and the demand for same become nil, then the volume of foreign goods would automatically decline. This situation, however, is left to some nine million people to individually decide for themselves, and, because they are not organized into one central body, it becomes a problem for united effort coned with authority to act.

Business conditions in Canada are not, and in my opinion never have been, sufficiently lucrative to either the investor, the business man, or the employee.

What are the remedies necessary to overcome such a continuous drain on the country? The problem is not complicated, yet it requires extensive and careful deliberation by both Government authorities and leading business men.

The many branches of the Government which control finance, trade and commerce, public improvements, national resources, etc., may be utilized to the benefit of Canadian manufacturers and producers who, in turn, should co-operate and work in harmony with the Government. The Government could sponsor good times by greater exploitation of the country's national resources, inducement to British capital, financing of business enterprises requiring funds for growth or expansion, controlling importation of foreign goods and assisting to secure heavier exportation to foreign markets, construction of much-needed public improvements, and numerous other elements having a tendency to stimulate prosperity.

With such conditions prevalent the effect would create more employment, better wages, larger business houses producing Canadian made materials and products, British ownership, general improvement of highways and public buildings, and the most important factor of all. Canadian people would be happy in the knowledge that they could earn a good living wage, thus giving their families the necessities and possibly some of the luxuries of life as offered in foreign countries. Further, it would not be necessary, under such conditions, for migration of the young Canadian citizens.

Prosperity is dependent upon the circulation of money, but if the working class of citizen can not secure ample compensation for his services, he can not spend; therefore, the producers and manufacturers suffer from lack of volume in sales, and the investors from lack of profits to pay dividends. In addition to this, the people become dissatisfied and migrate, hence the necessity for the appeal, "Bring the Boys and Girls Back Home."

Respectfully submitted,
William H. Field.

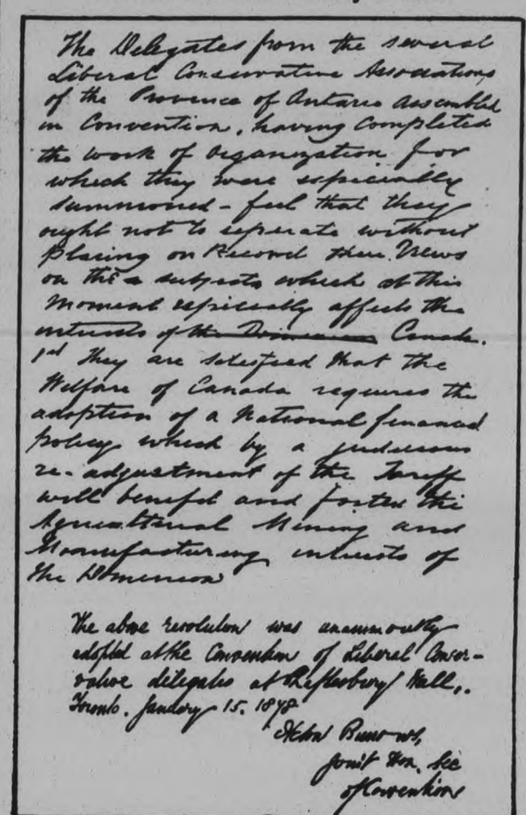
Parts of the National Policy of 1878



The Delegates from the several Liberal Conservative Associations of the Province of Ontario assembled in Convention, having completed the work of organization for which they were especially summoned - feel that they ought not to separate without placing on Record their views on the subjects which at this moment especially affect the interests of the Dominion of Canada. And they are satisfied that the Welfare of Canada requires the adoption of a National & Commercial policy which by a judicious re-adjustment of the Tariff will benefit and foster the Agricultural Mining and Manufacturing interests of the Dominion.

The above resolution was unanimously adopted at the Convention of Liberal Conservative delegates at Rathbone Hall, Toronto, January 15. 1878

Hon. Burrows, Joint Sec. of Convention

Above is reproduced first paragraph of Sir John A. Macdonald's motion, written in his own handwriting, creating national policy of 1878. The sub-note, declaring its adoption, is in handwriting of Acton Burrows, and is signed by him as then secretary of convention.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN No. 51 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

What could have happened to those he had left upon the Kincaid? Had they deserted? Rokoff gave a hurried backward glance. Upon the shore he saw the snarling Beasts of Tarzan. Even now, he thought, these manlike devils might find a way to reach him, and he shivered at the possibility. Frantically he paddled toward the silent ship. At last he grasped its monkey ladder and started to ascend to the deck

Before the Russian had climbed a foot he heard a warning challenge from above. Looking up, he gazed into the cold, relentless muzzle of a rifle. When he saw who it was that repelled his advance, he fell to pleading and promising. Jane Clayton—for it was she who held the rifle—had but a single reply to it all. One step upward and she would shoot to kill.

Long days and weary nights had passed for Jane after she had escaped the Russian up the river. But finally she reached the open water unharmed and seeing a ship at anchor her heart beat high with hope. But as she drew closer she found it was the Kincaid. It was too late to turn back, however. Her tired muscles could manage the dugout no longer. She decided to throw herself on the mercy of the Kincaid's crew.

To her surprise there appeared no sign of life aboard the ship. The current swung the dugout close to the Kincaid and with desperation born of despair she managed to clamber to the deserted deck, her rifle slung about her shoulders. Cautiously she explored the ship and was not long in discovering the cause of its apparently deserted condition. In the forecastle she found the sailor guard, deep in drunken slumber.

"Talkies" No Harm To Legitimate Stage

Graham Pocket, manager of the "Marigold" theatrical company, which concludes its Peterborough visit tonight, had one criticism—and only one—to make concerning this city. It was probably well-merited criticism, too, and taking into consideration his extensive travelling in connection with the theatre, with which he has been associated for many years, was well-founded.

"Your city is badly in need of extra hotel accommodation," he remarked to The Examiner, "and considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the entire company comfortably settled for their brief stay."

Some members of the company were even obliged to seek rooms in private boarding houses at a considerable distance away from the theatre.

Asked what effect he considered the "talkies" had made on the legitimate theatre, Mr. Poeket was of the opinion that they had had a decidedly good effect.

Speaking more particularly with reference to the situation as it obtains in England, he said, "the talkies have provided a boost to our profession."

At first, he continued, the effect was far from encouraging. Hearing "talkies" for the first time, theatre audiences became enamored with them, and deserted the road shows, but now the reaction has commenced to set in. The motion picture show, while it affords one an opportunity to see elaborate productions, featuring the outstanding actors and actresses of the day, lacks the one important essential—the personal presence. Audiences are rapidly beginning to realize the lack of this essential, and are now clamoring once more to see their "stage and matinee idols" in flesh and blood.

Mr. Pocket, seasoned theatrical manager, apparently has his whole interest centered on his work. He is thoroughly versed in the traditions of the stage and theatre, and his opinion is thus made particularly interesting, in view of the repeated assertions one hears to the effect that the "talkies" are here to stay.

BOY CHORISTERS HEARD OVER CKGW

St. John's Boys' Choir Presents One-half Hour Broadcast.

25 MEMBERS IN CHOIR.

"The boy choristers of St. John's Church, Peterborough, now present to you a program, coming over Canada's Cheerio Station, CKGW," was the announcement made over the radio station in the King Edward Hotel last evening.

Thousands of radio fans in this city, in Toronto, and all over the continent turned their dials to CKGW from 8.00 to 8.30 p.m. yesterday, to hear the boys' choir of 25 members who were excellently organized and trained by Frederic G. Mann, L.Mus., organist and choirmaster of St. John's.

The program opened with the Old Hundred fn Plainsong, with Descant accompaniment, sung by the full choir.

The second rendition was also a religious piece—"In Excelsis Gloria" a carol by A. H. Brown. The solo parts in this were taken by Roy Pitchford, Gerald Perks, Fred Simmons and Victor Coleman.

One of the finest selections on the program was the lively and rhythmic "Where the Bee Sucks" by Dr. Arne, sung by the full choir. This is the song which Ariel sings after being released from bondage by the fairies in Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

"Thine for ever" an anthem by Couper, proved popular to the radio audience. The solo work in the anthem was done by Victor Coleman Griffin Young, Albert Stevens; and the duet by Roy Pitchford and Albert Stevens.

Alfred Noyes' "Come Down to Kew" with music arrangement by Carl Deis, was effectively executed by six of the choristers—Victor Coleman, Gerald Perks, Donald Perks, Fred Simmons, Walter Dyer and Fred Hooper.

The solo of Victor Coleman, parts of "Hear my Prayer" (including "O, for the Wings of a Dove") by Mendelssohn, was particularly marked by its melody and colorful tone.

An old sea song entitled "The Mermaid" was full of rhythm and life. The solo parts were taken by Roy Pitchford, Gerald Perks, Griffen Young, and Victor Coleman.

The test piece on which the boy choristers won the first prize in Stratford during May, 1930, was repeated at this broadcast. This piece is a 16th century number, entitled, "It was a Love and his Lass." The selection was sung by the full choir.

The last rendition was 'Now the Day is Over" by Christopher Marks, one time organist of the Cathedral of Cork, Ireland. The solo parts of this piece were taken by Roy Pitchford, Fred Hooper, Victor Coleman and Gerald Perks.

Other boys taking part in the broadcast were Arthur Barnes, Norman Chate, Everett Gibbs, William Gray, Lyle Glover, Jack Hooper, Tom Hooper, Reginald Land, Christie Mason, Alfred Pink, Gordon Pink, and William Staunton. The part of accompanist was excellently taken by Miss Lily Bacon.

At the conclusion of the program, the announcer broadcasted the names of those who had sent telephone or telegraph messages during the presentation. Messages received up till 8.45 p.m. are acknowledged from the following: Rev. Dr. Blagrave, Mayor Denne. Matrons and nurses of the Isolation Hospital, W. H. Crawford, Mrs. Staunton, Mr. and Mrs. Touchborne. Miss Mary McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harrison, G. W. Watson, A. H. Boomer. Mrs. Fred Smith, H. G. Fletcher and Leslie Dyer, all of Peterborough; Mrs. Ruth and Mrs. Mather, formerly of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dawson of North Monaghan; Boys of Christie Street Hospital. Mr. Radcliffe, Mrs. P. J. Gillespie and Mrs. Gray of Toronto.

The choir boys left Peterborough yesterday by C.P.R. at 3.50 p.m. under the supervision of F. G. Mann and Miss L. Bacon.

The boys took the 9.30 train from Toronto, but a breakdown on a freight train near Locust Hill delayed the train nearly an hour. It was a tired, but proud and happy family of boys that arrived home at 12.30 a.m.

Farmer Found Dead In His Own Garage

(Special to The Examiner)

LINDSAY, Ont., Jan. 21.—John B. Cowieson, of Cambray, Ont., aged 62 years was last night found dead in his garage, having been suffocated by carbon monoxide fumes. It appears that Mr. Cowieson, who lives retired in the village went to the garage and in order to start the car in the cold weather he jacked up one of the rear wheels. He got the car going and apparently went behind the car to remove the jack and was struck by the fumes of gas. He managed to lower the wheel on the jack to within a half inch of the floor. The accident occurred about four and five o'clock but it was not until 7:30 in the evening that his lifeless body was found by his son-in-law Chas. Shier. For years Mr. Cowieson was a farmer at Islay, Mrs. Percy Tamblyn, of Agincourt, Ont. is a daughter and Mrs. Steve Arnold of Toronto is a sister of the deceased.

SCHOOLS AND THEATRES CLOSE

There are many empty residences. Two years ago every house owned by the two largest landlords of the town was occupied. To-day not one of their houses has a tenant.

What of those who are sticking it out? The printer and publisher of the Lafleche weekly volunteered that his cash receipts for 1929 had been down $600 from 1928, and for 1930 another $700 down from 1929. How near that would come to wiping them out altogether people acquainted with small town weeklies will appreciate.

Tom Murphy, who runs a real estate and insurance office, told me that such an establishment as his to-day "has no earning power at all." "So far from taking out new insurance, clients are borrowing on the old policies to the limit and many are being allowed to lapse," he remarked.

80 Farmers Have Grain Seized.

Eighty farmers in the Lafleche district had their grain seized this fall, according to Rev. John McKnight, chairman of the local presbytery, who has been examining economic conditions for report to the United Church. In some cases this was with the consent and approval of the farmers, since it afforded them protection against being foreclosed or sold out altogether.

The churches along the line have been hard hit, and only through the generosity of the national mission boards and the self-sacrifice of the pastors have they been saved from the fate of the theatres. Were they on a commercial self-sustaining basis, they would have all disappeared.

Take Hazenmore United Church as a typical example of the hard-hit area. In the past it has been in the habit of contributing $900 a year for mission work elsewhere after paying its own minister and running expenses.

So far from having any surplus this year it has had to accept $50 a month from the mission fund of the church—$600 a year. Even so, that $50 amonth is all the minister is certain of getting. But how much the congregations will be able to supplement that amount remains to be seen. With the extreme scarcity of cash it would not be surprising if the minister has to get along on $600 a year altogether.

Ministers ar staying loyally with their charges. At Constance the pastor said to his board: "If you people are staying here to starve, I'll stay and starve with you." At MacRorie the minister faced a few days ago a shortage of $270 in his annual salary and the possibility of abandonment of the field at once because of diminished revenues. He absorbed $200 of the $270 deficit himself and announced to his congregation that he would stay with them another year at no fixed salary, accepting whatever they were able to give him.

Janitors of churches are being dispensed with, and ministers doing much of their work. Paid organists are leaving and members of the congregation taking their places. A general reduction of 10 per cent. in public school teachers' salaries is being made along the line, and municipal salaries have been slashed.

Tax collections are the despair of municipal officials. Here are exact figures for Wood River municipality, which surrounds the town of Lafleche: In 1928 no less than 87 per cent of the taxes levied that year were collected the same year, and for several years previous to that the average had been well over 80. In 1929, the first drought year, the percentage had falled to 63 per cent. In 1930, when drought was combined with extremely low prices, it was only 36 per cent.

Backed by the provinces, the municipalities have been borrowing from the banks and have been able so far to keep all schools operating. In the whole province 18 schools have been closed up to the Christmas holidays because of lack of funds, but none was in the immediate vicinity of this line.

Farmers are beginning to trek to more favored areas of the West. At Hazenmore about 25 heads of families have investigated the offer of the provincial government to allow settlers in the drought-stricken areas to carve new homes out of the northern bush lands.

I asked Donald McKenzie of Hazenmore, who is moving 400 miles north in the spring to the Meadow Lake country for the pioneer lands far north of Prince Albert.

"The last four years here I haven't made a cent," he replied. "Up there they don't know what a drought is. They grow lovely gardens. It's a good fishing country, and there's big game—no need to go hungry There's always fuel, too, to be got from the bush. Soil's rich there, and they can grow crop after crop without summer-fallow. This country's all right when we get rain and a fair price for wheat. I know I might make more in one big year here than in eight or ten up there, but that Meado Lake country offers a man and his family a steady living."

CURLING

The ancient game of curling is now in full swing, the local club's schedule games are well under way; ladies' and juniors' events are frequent occurrences while this afternoon play commenced for the finals of the Neill Trophy between the rinks skipped by Messrs. Campbell and McDermid

The results of last night's schedule games were as follows:

Cairns 14, vs. Foote, 6.
Skinner, 14, vs. Martin, 10.
Turner, 15, vs. Fitzgerald, 11.
Seymour, 15, vs. Hall, 13.

That he had been unemployed for nine years was the excuse given recently by a Southend, England, man when summoned for not paying his taxes.

LAKEFIELD MAN

Lakefield at Cecil Findlay's invitation. Findlay, he explained, had been drinking, and he did not want to run the risk of driving the car.

Smith could not say definitely the location of the places he had driven to here. "We went to many places because Findlay wanted to make dates with girls for other nights," he declared. He hadn't had a drink, and because he was under the doctor's care had not indulged since Christmas he affirmed.

The party had just started on the return trip to Lakefield, he related, when the constable stopped them. "He told me to come to the station because he wanted to examine us," Smith said. "On entering the station I was told to hold up my arms as they wanted to examine. So I did, and this morning I found my money and watch missing."

Later he explained how so many remarks by the officers had angered him. "I told them what I thought and invited one especially to come into the pen with me. A window was open above my bed, and the cold wind was blowing in, so I had to move my bed to the floor."

Cross-examined, Smith again and again stated that he had not had a drink yesterday. He couldn't recall stopping at Jackson Park either. He stated he didn't even know there was a bottle in the car.

Tells Of Drinking.

Cecil Findlay was called as a witness by Smith. He said that the party had stopped near Jackson Park and all had got out. Cross-examined by Crown Attorney McElderry, Findlay stated that he had met Smith in Lakefield about 6 o'clock in the evening, and that Smith showed signs that he had been drinking. Smith, he said, gave him the bottle of gin when the party got out of the car at Jackson Park. When arrested, witness would not say "whether Smith was drunk or whether he was strictly sober." "He was not sober," he later testified.

Called in reply by the Crown, Hector Latchford, who had joined Smith and Findlay in Peterborough, stated that he had seen Smith taking at least one drink. Smith, he affirmed, had told him that he had got the liquor. Latchford testified that Smith had been drinking when he met him.

"I think Your Worship might instruct me to lay an information of perjury against Smith," said Crown Attorney McElderry in addressing Magistrate Langley just before sentence was passed.

Cecil Findlay, of Lakefield, pleaded guilty to consuming liquor and was fined $10.

Guilty Of Burglary.

Ernest Derett, 16, of Havelock, pleaded guilty to having burglarised on Saturday night D. O. Patterson's store in Havelock, and to having stolen about $5 worth of confectionery and gum. He was given suspended sentence, his father giving a bond for the boy's good behavior.

It was stated by Provincial Constable D. Sylvester that the boy had been led into the crime by his cousin who came down last Saturday from Toronto to spend the week-end at the Derette home. He brought a jimmy with him. Together the two boys jimmied open the side window of the store.

Some time yesterday the Derette boy had displayed a quantity of gum to a Havelock storekeeper. Constable Sylvester was informed and this led to the boy's arrest.

Local K. of C. Bowlers Winners of District Cup

District night, with its attendant added attractions, and the opportunity which it affords for the interchange of indeas between other councils drew a large attendance at the Knight's of Columbus regular meeting which was held last night at the K. of C. Rooms.

The meeting was conducted by officers of the Toronto council in charge of Grand Knight Harry McDermid, following which four teams from Toronto and four from the local council clashed on the bowling alleys. The geme resulted in a clean-up for the Peterbcrough men, who gained 12 out of fifteen points, thus winning the District Cup for bowling.

While bowling was in progress other groups played cards upstairs, after which the entire gathering adjourned to the Downeyflake Restauraunt for lunch, which was capably served under the direction of Mr. Austin.

Arrangements for the entertainment were in charge of Grand Knight Dr. E. M. Crough, with the chairman of the entertainment committee D. A. McKinnon, Lecturer T. J Ryan and Deputy Grand Knight Dr. J. F. O'Brien.

An invitation was extended to Peterborough Council K. of C. journey to Toronto to play a return game of bowling with their team. It is probable that the invitation will be accepted in the near future.

ACTION PROMISED ON BROADCASTING AT NEXT SESSION

Bennett Makes Statement After Discussing Extensive Memorandum.

CABINET TO DECIDE MOVES.

Urge Control of Tariff Protected Industries Compelling Preference for Canadian Labor.

OTTAWA, Ont., January 22 (C.P.). — Legislation will be presented on radio broadcasting at the coming session of Parliament. This declaration was made by Premier R. B. Bennett to-day in discussing with representatives of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, its forty-sixth annual memorandum of legislation, laid before the Prime Minister and his colleagues.

The subject was one, Premier Bennett stated, which must be considered from two standpoints—technical and national. Canada's geographical position, he interjected, presented certain difficulties which must be borne in mind in the consideration of the matter from a national viewpoint. "Cabinet will determine the action to be taken," Mr. Bennett stated, "so that steps will be taken at the next session of Parliament." Many letters have been received by himself and his ministers Premier Bennett declared, some supporting and some opposing national broadcasting.

The Proposals.

Proposals of the organization and affiliated bodies may be summarized under the following heads:

Unemployment—Extension of Government relief; unemployment insurance; control should be exercised over tariff-protected industries so as to compel preference of employment for Canadian labor; observance of hours and rates of wages equal to those adopted by the Federal Government for government work; prevention of watering of stock and charging of unreasonable prices to the consumer and the granting of tariff high enough to allow of these measures being put into force and yet enable to allow of these measures being put into force and yet enable efficiently managed industries to

COAST JOBLESS BATTLE POLICE

Crowd Closes on Officers After Two Intoxicated Demonstrators Arrested.

WHOLE FORCE CALLED OUT.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 22. (CP) —Police and unemployd, who had staged a free-for-all fight yesterday afternoon when an officer was injured and several demonstrators arrested, late last night had another scuffle.

Three men were arrested and police were hampered by a crowd estimated to number 250.

Two constables arrested a man who is alleged to have been creating a disturbance. He was too intoxicated to give his name, police say.

While they were waiting for the patrol wagon, the crowd surged about the two officers. Another man, George Matheson, charged up. He also was arrested on a charge of intoxication.

As the patrol wagon drove up, the crowd, many of whom allegedly took part in the unemployed demonstration of the afternoon surrounded the officers.

Harold Bowen, a member of the crowd, allegedly attempted to wrest one of the prisoners from the patrol wagon. Matheson, in the wagon, also started to fight.

For a few minutes a battle royal was staged with the mob cheering the arrested men. All available police were rushed to the scene but the three prisoners had been secured by that time and were on their way to headquarters. The crowd was then dispersed.

A clerk at one of the Thorburn drug stores went back just after midnight and discovered the hole. He summoned P.C. Byers, who was on the beat, and they returned to the store. They hid, and presently the burglar approached and put his hand through the hole. P.C. Byers grasped it, but as he opened the door the youth escaped, but was captured after a race of a hundred yards.

GIRL LOCKED UP WHEN SHE TRIES TO MARRY CLERK

Connecticut Girl is Given 2-day Term in the Hartford Retreat.

DEFIES PARENTS.

Captured After Escaping From Automobile—Daughter of Wealthy Parents.

DARIEN, Conn., Jan. 22. —Miss Barbara Graesser, twenty-year-old debutante daughter of wealthy parents, was so insistent for three days that she would marry Michael Wallace, nineteen-year-old grocer's clerk, that to-day she was committed to the Hartford Retreat for twenty days.

Sunday the girl packed her bag and told her mother, Mrs. Henry T. Carlton that she was going to marry and would walk the streets until parental consent was given.

Leaps From Car.

Dr. Lawrence Renehan, although asserting the girl was normal, arraigned for her to spend Sunday night in the Norwalk General Hospital. Monday, her mother and step-father met her at Stamford as the train pulled in and they started to motor back to Darien.

The girl leaped from the car and escaped. Police found her and she spent Monday night in the matrons quarters of the Stamford city jail.

When, Wednesday, Prosecutor Frank E. Jabroni and Judge Jonathan Drout, of Bridgeport, could not shake the girl's determination to wed, Dr. Daniel P. Griffin examined Miss Graesser.

Sent to Retreat.

She then was committed to the Hartford Retreat on a temporary order signed by Judge Drout as attorney for the mother.

Meanwhile, Michael Wallace kept to his duties in the A & P. store, where Miss Graesser met him while shopping. He said:

"I'm in no position to marry anyone; Im popular, but just a grocer's clerk."

16-Year-Old Girl Assaults School Janitor Enters Plea of Guilty in Police Court

A 16-year-old girl was charged in Police Court to-day with assaulting the janitor of South Central School. She pleaded guilty, and the case was adjourned for a month to test her future behavior.

The girl admitted that she went to the school this morning at the request of her mother "to raise a fuss with the teacher." Yesterday the teacher whipped her sister for stealing and the girl told the Magistrate that her mother had ordered her not to leave the school until the teacher apologized.

She raised such a row in the school room and refused to leave, that in desperation the teacher called the janitor. She delivered such a rain of kicks on his shins and several smart uppercuts to his jaw that he withdrew hurriedly. Police were summoned and they arrested the girl.

Police state that she has given them much trouble. She was convicted last year in Campbellford of forging cheques.

LOVE EXPERT IS SUING FOR LOSS OF WIFE'S LOVE

Asks $100,000 Heart Balm From University Professor in Divorce Case.

MOST SELFISH MAN.

He Kicked Me in Vienna and Bit Me in Leningrade Wife Declares.

ANN ARBOR, Jan. 22.— Suit for $100,000 alienation of affections was filed here to-day, further complicating the Margold-Meader alleged triangle.

The new suit was filed by counsel for Dr. Charles W. Margold, ex-lecturer, against Dr. Clarence L. Meader, 62, U. of M. professor and internationally known linguist.

A summons for Doctor Meader was issued when the suit was filed but all papers relating to the suit immediately were taken from the courthouse by Margold's attorneys.

The suit, charging alienation of the affections of Mrs. Stella Margold, 32, an honor student in the university, follows a $50,000 libel suit filed yesterday by Doctor Meader after Margold named him in a divorce cross bill.

Aide to Doctor Meader.

Mrds. Margold became friendly with the university professor when she started attending his classes in Russian literature in Angell Hall two years ago, her husband charged. She became his assistant in a Summer course while his regular assistant was ill.

The college professor also aided her in the translation of documents from the Russian which formed the basis of her article, 'Documentary Proof of the Allied Countries' War Plans Before 1914," which created considerable notice a year ago in "Current History."

"I think my husband is terrible!" Mrs. Margold said yesterday when she heard about the suit for alienation of affections. She stood on the steps of Angell Hall, her books under her arm, coming from Doctor Meader's class in Russian. "If the whole thing

WHO K.O'D O'NEIL IS THE QUESTION AS YET UNSOLVED

Abduction Case of Mary O'Neil is Being Heard in Police Court.

SEVERAL FIGHTS.

Magistrate Finds That Robillard is Not Guilty of Assaulting O'Neil.

Who dealt the knockout blow that caused Joseph O'Neil to lose consciousness for fully fifteen minutes? That's the question that puzzled Magistrate's Langley court yesterday afternoon. And the one with the Dempsey-wallop still remains unidentified, although police are strongly suspicious that it was Ernest Robillard, who faced three serious charges surrounding his alleged abduction of young O'Neil's sister, Mary.

More than half a dozen persons were in the room in that house on the Burleigh ranch at 2 o'clock in the morning of December 29, when O'Neil with his mother came to the door demanding the return of the girl, whom Robillard is charged with carrying off.

They were present too, when Joseph stopped the blow that floored him. But, brought to the witness stand yesterday, all swore that they did not see the hay-maker delivered. Even Joseph's mother could not say with certainty and the boy had been standing right beside her. His unconscious body falling against her leg was the first knowledge she had that her son had gone down for a long count.

Robillard was charged with the assault upon Joseph, but he was acquitted yesterday. He was also tried on the charge of pointing a gun at Mrs. O'Neill, but judgment was reserved.

To-day he will be tried on the charge of abducting Mary.

Mrs. O'Neil, Crown witness, swore that when she turned to pick up her son, Robillard was standing closeby. He aimed a kick at the unconscious boy, but she warded it off, she testified.

The boy himself stated that he did not know who had hit him. He felt the blow, then the birds began to twitter, and when he came to he was outside in a car. He testified that he had been told that it was Robillard.

That was not the only fight staged in the lonely ranch house that evening. Four witnesses testified that Robillard had reached a shot gun from the wall, after he had warned Mrs. O'Neil that "blood would be spilled on the floor" before he would allow Mary to go home.

Shouts were sent up for John Loucks, Robillard's brother-in-law, as the man brandished the gun. Loucks raced downstairs, wrested the gun from Robillard and then knocked him into the woodbox.

Mrs. O'Neil and Joseph testified that Robillard had pointed the gun in her direction. Joseph stated that he saw two cartridges removed from the gun and hidden away.

Loucks and his wife, Adeline, swore that the gun was not pointed at Mrs.

CANDIDATE FOR WEST HAMILTON WILL TELL HOW ATTEMPTS MADE TO STOP TUESDAY'S DISCLOSURES

Whole Story Be Related on January 29 and February 9, Philpott Says.

ADDRESSES LIBERAL WOMEN

Expresses Astonishment That Attorney-General Should Ignore Challenge.

HAMILTON, Ont., January 22 (C.P.). — Intention to tell on January 29 and February 9 "the whole story of his (Attorney-General W. H. Price) attempts over last week-end to prevent me from making the disclosures I made last Tuesday" was expressed to-day by Elmore Philpott, Liberal candidate in the West Hamilton Provincial by-election.

Addressing a meeting of Liberal women this afternoon, Mr. Philpott said he did not propose to say anything further regarding Col. Price's statement yesterday that public discussion of a matter before the courts was a violation of the principal of British justice. Col. Price's statement was in reply to charges made publicly by Mr. Philpott against the Attorney-General and the administration of his department with regard to the recent failure and subsequent prosecution of officials of the Stimson brokerage house firm.

Astonished At Action

"I had not intended today to touch in any way upon the Attorney General's department or the reaction to the revelation we made on Tuesday, Mr. Philpott said.

"But I am astounded to see that after challenging him to make his record the issue in this West Hamilton by-election and after my specific invitation to the Attorney-General to stage a joint meeting at the armouries on February 9, he now proposes to ignore the invitation and speak by himself on Wednesday next.

"I belive the public should draw their own conclusion from this move.

"That Attorney-General now waxes indignant at what he thinks is the

POLICE ARREST ALLEGED THIEF

Arthur Crow, Formerly of Lakefield, Was Placed Under Arrest This Morning.

CHARGED AS VAGRANT.

Police claim that several recent store burglaries were cleared up early this morning with the arrest of Arthur Crow, formerly of Lakefield and now of the city. He was arrested at 3.45 a.m. by Constable Jack Stevenson. Crow was skulking behind stores and ran when he saw the constable, but was overhaulted, Chief Newall said.

In Police Court the man was charged as a vagrant, and on plea of not guilty was remanded for one week.

Later, police state that Crow admitted breaking the window in Frank Davis' second-hand store at 392 Aylmer street, Tuesday, and stealing two watches along with other articles. He is also said to have confessed to other store robberies and chicken thefts in the district.

Unemployment Work Will Be Continued

As a result of an interview with J. A. Ellis, secretary of the Provincial Unemployment Relief Committee, yesterday in Toronto, the City Council is confident that arrangements will be completed with the Provincial and Federal Governments which will make it possible for unemployment relief work here to be continued until near spring, The Examiner was informed this morning. Mayor Denne, Alderman Hamilton and City Clerk Armstrong formed Peterborough's deputation, and Mr. Armstrong said to-day that the interview had been wholly satisfactory.

CAMPBELL WINS R. NEILL TROPHY

Triumphs Over McDermid in Brilliant Curling Cup Final Match.

NEWCOMERS ON RINKS.

In one of the snappiest exhibitions of curling—eclipsing the brand played in the Tankard games recently—and outclassing anything seen for some seasons, Skip Campbell yesterday led his rink to victory in the Neill Trophy finals, triumphing over Skip McDermid's rink with a score of 21 to 14.

Commencing at about 4.30 o'clock, the play was watched by a large gallery, and genuine admiration was evinced in the manner in which the veteran skips handled their shots and the personnel of their rinks.

Through the sixteen ends of the tussle, the game was tied on about five different occasions, with Campbell one up coming home on the last end, and McDermid valiantly and skilfully attempting to tie the score. Over anxiety probably was responsible for his shot being a little too narrow, and the decision rested with his opponent. Even play and steadiness were features of the contest.

The winning rink and the runners-up were as follows:

P. Hooper	Dr. Clark
Ray Pratten	Louis Chesler
A. W. Archibald	Ralph Clark
W. D. Campbell	J. W. McDermid
Skip 21	Skip 14

It is a noteworthy fact that Percy Hooper is experiencing his first season as a curler, nevertheless he played a faultless game; as also did Dr. Clark and Louis Chesler who are comparatively newcomers among the curling fraternity. It is also Skip Campbell's initial attempt for the Neill Trophy honors. Archibald and McDermid have competed for the coveted cup on former occasions.

Vice-President Ross L. Dobbin who presented the Neill Trophy to the winning rink, offered them his congratulations, and complimented them on their good showing.

Awarded Prizes.

Smoking sets were also presented to each individual of the winning rink, and also to the runners-up Jack Sedgewick, in making the presentations, emphasized the fact that such contests are invaluable in bringing out young curlers, and developing in them a keen and competitive spirit.

SPIRIT OF THE WEST UNBROKEN BY INSUPERABLE DIFFICULTIES

Untold Hardships Fail to Dim Optimism of Saskatchewan Farmer.

BETTER TIMES COMING

By Wilfrid Eggleton
(Special to The Examiner—Copyright, 1931)

MOOSE JAW, Jan. 22—The magnificent spirit of the west has not been broken in the series of reverses suffered by the pioneer folk of the Assiniboia-Shaunavon line. In the course of a week spent working along from Kimerick to Hazenmore and then in alonger jump to Shaunavon, I did not meet a single real pessimist. Many of the people I interviewed were beset with finacial difficulties which appear now insuperable, some of them did not know how they would get the bare necessities of life for the winter. But there was no whimpering or cowering before the prospect: "We've been through tough times before, and we'll get through these too" they all remarked with hope shining in their eyes.

Owns 1180 Acres

Masive William George, a red-faced Roumanian with a voice like a bull radiated cheer in the midst of financial gloom when I was introduced to him at Limerick. "When I came to this country I had 20 cents" he remarked. George wielded a shovel when the Parliament Buildings were erected at Regina. Now he has clear title to 1180 acres of land. "It's wonderful country" be observed. Hard times are comparative things, he inferred with a shrug of his shoulders. "After the war I travel in Italy, in Roumania, in Bessorabia. Those people weren't worrying how they could buy gas for their cars" he remarked significantly. "They are wondering where they could get enough to eat."

George drives a Model "T" of several summers ago. "That's one reason for so much trouble to-day. Too many big cars" he observed, expressing the conservatism typical of many Europeans. "When I first came out to my homestead here I walk. A wagon looked pretty good then: we didn't see many of them. After a while I buy a wagon, we ride in him to town, to church, to school. After

Mice and Matches Are Cause of Fire

THOMASBURG, January 22 (Examiner Correspondence). — Mice playing among matches in a pantry are believed to have started a fire which broke out in the living quarters at Moira Valley Cheese Factory yesterday. Little damage was caused.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, who occupy these quarters, first discovered the fire in the pantry before it chanced to gain much headway. The contents of the pantry were totally destroyed, and the ceiling was burned slightly. Neighbors from all over the countryside rushed to the scene of the fire to volunteer their aid, but meantime the blaze was extinguished with the aid of pails of water.

STRATFORD FIRE DAMAGES SCHOOL

Firemen After Hard Fight Confine Blaze to Upper Portion of Collegiate.

IN NEW WING.

STRATFORD, Ont., Jan. 22.—Fire will cause thousands of dollars damage to the new wing of the Stratford Collegiate Vocational School on St. Andrew street. The fire, which was confined to the upper portion of the building was still burning at 9.30 o'clock this morning.

The ceiling and top storey of the school are badly burned while the lower portion as well as the equipment is very badly damaged by smoke and water.

Firemen fought courageously and confined the fire to the upper part of the building. The smoke was of dense volume and during the fire-fighting operations, Fireman Reid was overcome, but was soon revived.

BRIAND'S SCHEME COMES UP IN MAY

Commission Halts Study to Give Germany and Turkey Time to Collaborate.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

GENEVA, Jan. 22—The Commission of European Foreign Ministers appointed by the League of Nations to investigate possibilities of Aristide Briand's scheme for a Federation of European States has adjourned its session until next May.

At that time Soviet Russia and Turkey will have opportunity to collaborate with it in working out problems of European co-operation, an invitation, to which all the nations did not agree, having gone forth to this end. It is not known if the Governments will accept.

The Commission adjourned after posting a manifesto in which the Foreign Ministers declared that they were more than ever "Resolutely determined to use the machinery of the League of Nations to prevent any resort to violence.

The final meeting of the Commission passed five resolutions; one asking European agricultural countries to meet and determine means for early disposal of the present cereals surplus, and another asking overseas collaboration of overseas countries in the forthcoming conference at Rome.

MINE ROOF FALLS FIVE ENTOMBED

Rescue Workers at Hanley Dig Frantically to Save Companions.

FAINT TAPS HEARD.

STOKE-ON-TRENT, Eng., January 22 (C.P.). — Frantic efforts were being made to-day to rescue five miners entombed in a deep pit of the Shelton Iron Company mine at Hanley.

Early this morning the pit roof caved in and the men were trapped. Rescue operations began immediately and this afternoon the working crews were getting replies from the buried men to signals tapped out on pipes leading through the pit. It was hoped that they could reach the victims in time to save their lives.

NATIONALISTS PLAN TO CONTINUE CAMPAIGN OF CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

Indian Congress to Hold Resolution Till Return of Three Parley Delegates.

MAY RELEASE GANDHI.

DELHI, India, Jan. 22.—(C P Cable) —The question of the attitude of the Indian Nationalists toward the coming negotiations on the working out of the proposed new constitution,, was brought sharply to the forefront today. The working committee of the all-Indian congress agreed with a cabled message from three of the leading Indian delegates to the London Conference, that a resolution the Congress has passed on the situation will not be released until the arrival in India of these leaders—Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Rt Hon. Srinavasa Sastri, and M. A. Jayakar. Meanwhile however the Congress committee urged that the campaign of civil disobedience, or of non-violent resistance to the authorities, should be continued.

Confer With Gandhi

At the end of three weeks, it is expected the three delegates to the London Conference will confer with Mahatma Gandhi and others of the Nationalists Party. There were strong rumors in Delhi today that the Viceroy would release the Mahatma and other prominent Nationalists from prison in order that the consultations could take place providing the Nationalists were willing to participate. Prime Minister Ramsay Macdonald in his statement of British policy promised that amnesty would be granted political prisoners if civil quite was assured, and further said all facilities would be granted to enable all sections of the population to participate in the discussions on the proposed constitution, if they so desired.

Six Armed Bandits Loot Passenger Train

SHOUT FOR HELP BRINGS VICTIM BULLET IN SIDE

Coup Staged on Big Four Express Between Detroit and Bellefontaine.

DESPERADOES ESCAPE.

Passengers Lined Up and Systematically Searched—Total Loot Unknown.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Jan. 22 (C.P.)—Six armed and masked bandits early to-day robbed Florida-bound passengers, including two Canadians, of $6,000 in money and jewelry aboard a Big Four train as it sped through the darkness towards this town. The men shot and critically wounded one passenger who shouted his alarm as he was entering with the others into the drawing room of the Florida car.

The Canadian victims of the hold-up were Mr. and Mrs. Alec McPherson, of Cedar Springs, Ont.; the wounded man was Edwin K. Nelson, of Tampa, Fla. He shouted when aroused from his bunk and repeated the shout when told to keep quiet. A bullet pierced his right arm and chest, perforating his lungs.

Rouse Sleeping Passengers

The bandits boarded the train either at Toledo or some point between there and Bellefontaine, railroad officials said. As the train neared here, they entered the second sleeping car from the rear, roused the passengers, and at the point of guns, herded them into the drawing room with the exception of Nelson. Brakeman Morrison, who happened through the car at that time, was forced to join the passengers.

While one of the robbers stood guard, the others went through the car, taking the passengers' valuables.

There were seven passengers, one of them a woman whose name was not learned. She was reported to have lost a $3,000 diamond.

Nelson, startled, shouted when he was roused. He was told to keep still, but half awake, he shouted again and was shot.

As the train slowed down for the station here, the bandits leaped and ran. They were last seen running toward a filling station, where it was thought they might have had an automobile waiting.

The train was held up here an hour and then proceeded.

Furnaces Expire And Kine Grow Lean; Fierce Epidemic Hits Warkworth Men

WARKWORTH, Jan. 22.—An epidemic of pool playing has broken out in the village and so virulent has it become that the social fabric of the home has been undermined, business has suffered and friendly relations have been ruptured.

For years there was not a pool table in the village. The local hotel installed two, which proved popular. Charles Greenaly, erstwhile harness maker, then purchased a building in the main street and installed four tables. The pastime increased in popularity. The business and professional men then formed a club. They canvassed the township with all the vehemence and energy of a sewing machine agent with the result that one hundred contributed five dollars each to the new enterprise.

Quarters were secured over Dixon's Garage and half a dozen tables were installed. Then the play began in earnest. Staid business men turned the key in their front doors and rushed to the pool room. Farmers threw their herds a hasty bite and sped to town where they spent the balance of the evening in pursuit of the elusive fifteen ball.

But in the home there is many a cheerless hearth. The radio croons its enchanting melodies to empty chairs, the furnace flutters, gasps and dies and the supper grows cold. In the meantime the head of the house plays on and on, oblivious to the appeal of "Father, dear father come home with m now."

HOLDERS OF V.C. HONOR FERGUSON

Commissioner Given Book Containing Names of All Who Attended Prince of Wales' Dinner.

STARTS FOR ENGLAND.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—Members of the Provincial Government, prominent citizens and close friends gathered at the Union Station here this morning to tender farewell greetings to Hon. G. H. Ferguson, former Ontario Premier and Mrs. Ferguson who depart for Montreal on the first leg of their journey to Great Britain where Mr. Ferguson assumes his new post of Canada's High Commissioner to the United Kingdom.

Yesterday Mr. Ferguson was visited by members of the Provincial Civil Service at the Parliament Buildings who wished him "bon voyage." Later he attended a meeting of the cabinet and with Sir Joseph Flavelle, outlined to his former colleagues the work mapped out for the research bureau, an institution in which he had always shown a particular interest.

Mr and Mrs. Ferguson have been the guests of honor at numerous farewell functions recently. They have been the recipients of numerous rememberances, but it is doubtful if any will be treasured more than a plain looking leather bound book, presented to them in the Speaker's Chambers on behalf of Ontario holders of the Victoria Cross.

Bound within its tooled-leader covers, vellum pages bear the signatures of every holder of the Victoria Cross present at the famous dinner tendered the Empire's V.C holders by the Prince of Wales in London, Nov. 9, 1929. It is said the book is the only one of its kind in existence.

Depression Halted Insurance Men Told

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. — With the bottom of the depression curve already reached, too many messages of depression have been "spread about by our politicians" and others in the face of conditions, that broadly speaking, may be less prosperous than last year but on the average better than two or three years ago, W. S. Penny, Montreal, told the Educational Congress of the Toronto Life Underwriters' Association here.

"Conditions are in between good and bad, neither one nor the other," he said. "It is obvious that prosperity is below the peaks but it is by no means down to the lowest ebb and is ahead of many recent years."

ANNOUNCEMENT BEFORE THE WEEK-END.

OTTAWA, January 22. — Premier Bennett has let it be known that an announcement might be forthcoming before the end of the week on the appointment of a Governor-General It is understood that communications on the subject have been received from England.

Unaddressed Parcel Reaches Destination

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—There have been many instances of mail being properly delivered when improperly addressed; cases where a letter has toured around the world before reaching the consignee; tales of letters reaching a person when the postal officials had but a nickname as a clue to his identity. But during the Christmas rush so recently past the Ottawa postal workers performed a feat that makes all others blushingly take a back seat—they safely delivered a parcel that had no address whatever.

Joy had encompassed little Sarah Kelman at the prospect of being able to send her high school teacher a Christmas present. In fact it so encompassed her as she wrapped the gift that she forgot to address the gaily bedecked parcel.

When the undestined package was brought to Assistant Postmaster W. H. Mix he exercised his prorogative of opening the bundle and found a greeting card "From Sarah to Miss Poulds." A telephone directory and diligent search did the rest.

WEYBURN BANK TO BE MERGED WITH IMPERIAL

Bennett, as Minister of Finance, Gives Consent to Agreement.

30 BRANCHES INVOLVED.

No Curtailment of Banking Facilities Involved—Purchase Based on Cash Payment.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—Announcement has been made by Premier R. B. Bennett, as Minister of Finance, of his consent to an agreement being entered into for the purchase by the Imperial Bank of Canada of the business of the Weyburn Security Bank of Welburn, Sask.

Under the terms of the purchase, the Prime Minister declares in a statement:

"The Imperial Bank of Canada will assume liability for all of the deposits and other obligations of the Weyburn Security Bank, thus placing its entire resources behind such liabilities and assuring the depositors and all customers of the Weyburn Bank uninterrupted service with the added facilities which the Imperial Bank with its Canadian-wide system of banks is in a position to place at their disposal."

Premier Bennett further states that "the proposed purchase is based upon a cash payment by the Imperial Bank of Canada to the Weyburn Security Bank and the retention by the shareholders of the latter of certain of its assets, sufficient in all to represent the present paid-up capital of the bank, plus a substantial surplus."

No curtailment, in any way, of banking competition is involved, as the thirty branches of the Weyburn Security Bank are located in Southern Saskatchewan not at present covered by the Imperial Bank of Canada.

LABOR SHORTAGE WORRIES RUSSIA

Soviets Face Issue With Slogan "Only Those Who Work May Eat."

2,000,000 MEN NEEDED.

MOSCOW, January 22 (C P.). — Soviet Russia is facing the greatest labor shortage in its history with the slogan, "Only those who work may eat."

A million and a half more men are employed in industry to-day than a year ago, but another two million are necessary to carry out this years portion of the famous five-year industrialization plan.

While the term "forced labor" is anathema to the Communist authorities, who characterize such a description as "nonsense," the various commissariats have issued many orders with regard to slackers, prescribing all sorts of punishments for those failing to co-operate in socialistic construction.

So serious has the situation become in the national transport, that the Government has ordered every man in Russia who has worked on the road in the last five years to return immediately to his old job.

The abandonment by any Russian of his job is considered almost a counter-revolutionary crime.

VANCOUVER FIGHT DEFEAT FOR REDS

Several Policemen Are Injured and Eight Demonstrators Arrested.

JOBLESS USE BILLIES.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 22 (C.P.). — Eight men were arrested and several policemen slightly injured when an advertised "Lenin Memorial" demonstration was broken up by a large force of mounted and foot constables at the Powell Street grounds yesterday.

Police squads dispersed the crowd at Powell Street and kept thousands of unemployed demonstrators on the move. Free-for-all fights developed at several points and police billies were wielded with vigor when the crowds became sullen.

Many demonstrators came equipped with rubber hose billies, some of which were loaded, and these were used in several fights.

Constable William Clark was the only major casualty. Struck by a brick hurled from the crowd, he went down and was immediately pounced upon by several men. One of his assailants beat him about the eyes. Clark's assailant was captured by police officers after a running fight in which he was severely beaten.

Robber Enters Store At Phelan's Corners

The store at Phelan's Corners, one mile this side of Lakefield, was burglarized and about $20.00 in merchandise stolen. The store has been closed since the fall, and the burglary was not discovered until Sunday. Confectionery, cigarettes, and electric lamps formed the chief part of the haul. Provincial Constable D Sylvester is investigating the case.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have catarrhal deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water, and a little sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little, and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

SHOULD MEAN IMPROVEMENT.

The announcement that the operations of the Workmen's Compensation Act are to be investigated by a royal commission with a view to checking up on weaknesses that may have developed and of revising this important legislation to bring in line with modern conditions, should be welcome.

The Compensation Act has been in operation in this Province for over fifteen years and has in the main proved a most beneficial and helpful statute that has meant a great deal to the workers of Ontario.

From time to time, however, suggestions have been bought forward in an effort to improve the legislation, and it is felt that it is a wise measure to review the whole question and give consideration to the proposals that have been advanced by the Labor organizations and by individual citizens.

Among other things that Hon. Mr. Justice Middleton, who is to conduct the investigation, will undoubtedly study are the recommendations that the wage percentage to be paid the incapacitated worker be increased from 66 2-3 per cent. to 75 per cent., and that the maximum under the act, which now stands at $2,000, should be raised to $2,500.

The Workmen's Compensation Act should be materially improved as a result of the work of the commission.

PAYING FOR THE RECOUNT.

It is no particular concern of The Examiner who has to pay the cost of the recount asked for in the Toronto mayoralty election by ex-Mayor McBride and which has resulted, after many days' work, in a state of "as you were," the majority being unchanged by so much as one vote.

Nevertheless it seems to be only common sense that the man who demanded a recount and occasioned an expenditure of some $500.00 a day should have to foot th bill.

It would be dangerous were the impression to be created that anybody who might happen to be dissatisfied at the result of a civic election is entitled to ask for a recount, the cost of which would be paid out of the civic treasury.

Recounts would undoubtedly become a popular aftermath of every election under such conditions, for so long as it did not cost the losing candidate anything he would likely be quite willing to try a fishing expedition that might effect enough changes in the vote to reverse the result.

There does not seem to be any particular reason why the municipality of Toronto should have to pay for Mr. McBride's costly experiment—in fact, in all such cases the man who asks for a recount that fails so far as altering the election result is concerned should have to pay the shot.

AT THE WRONG TIME.

Serious charges of inefficiency and maladministration have been laid against Col. W. H. Price by the new Liberal leader, Mitchell F. Hepburn, and by Captain Philpott, the Liberal candidate in West Hamilton, and it is unfortunate that they have been made at a time when the case referred to is before the courts and when the Attorney-General is barred from discussing the details.

It might not have made such good campaign material had the attack on Col. Price been deferred until the case has been disposed of by the courts, but most certainly discussion of the whole episode would have been facilitated.

As it is even the newspapers are handicapped in commenting upon the justice or otherwise of the accusations that have been brought against the Attorney-General for the case, being sub judice, discussion in the press would be an unwise, if not a dangerous, proceeding.

Much has been said about Col. Price's administration of his department, and it is a matter that effects directly or indirectly everybody in the Province; it is a pity, therefore, that some of the most direct and serious charges yet heard should have been introduced into an election campaign and under conditions that prevent the Attorney-General from replying or the press from adequately commenting upon the allegations.

It would have been much better to have waited for the courts to finish with the case and then to have aired the whole episode on the floor of the Legislature.

ANYWAY IT SHOULD BE A LESSON.

The result of the Toronto recount would go to show that while election officials may err in minor details here and there, these irregularities balance each other very evenly, and the final count comes close to being one hundred per cent. accurate.

As the recount dragged along there were slight changes one way or the other—at one stage Mr. McBride had gained some 80 votes—but when it was all over and the last box had been opened and the last doubtful ballot scrutinized the final check-up showed the majority of Mayor Stewart to be exactly what it had been on election night.

The investigation should serve, however, as a warning to municipal deputy-returning officers and poll clerks, not only in Toronto but everywhere else, that election regulations are meant to be carried out, even those which have regard to what is to be done after the voting is over and the counting complete.

Too many officials apparently have had the idea that it did not matter very much how the ballots were disposed of, and instead of keeping the various ballots in the separate envelopes provided for that purpose, they simply dumped used ballots, unused ones and spoiled ballots in together, going on the basis that they would never be looked at again anyway.

It might be wise for those in charge of the civic machinery to note what happened in Toronto so that in future all election officials may be reminded that their job is not satisfactorily completed until all the regulations have been carried out.

And now Lindsay threatens to bar the press from committee meetings. The thing seems to be catching.

A RUSSIAN THRUST.

Quebec province has experienced a practical lesson as to the methods pursued by Russia to upset the world economic situation and put the Soviet in the position of universal trade dictator. A conference of the asbestos-producing companies of the province revealed that during the past six months Russia has dumped into the United States nearly 5,000 tons of raw asbestos, or about one-half of the Republic's normal yearly importation. Hitherto, Quebec, which mines about 90 per cent. of the world's supply has furnished most of the asbestos imported by the States. The practical cutting off of that market has naturally had a serious effect on the asbestos industry of Quebec, and the outlook is regarded with some anxiety. A ray of light is to be seen in a move initiated at Washington, to put a stop to the dumping into the United States of raw materials from Russia, pulpwood being another that also threatens Canadian trade. But, since there are also powerful interests in the United States which have been making loans in Russia in return for concessions to exploit natural resources and gain other favors, this projected move does not seem to promise much for Quebec or Canada.

One happy result of the conference of the Quebec asbestos concerns, however, was the reaching of agreements for more harmonious relations in order to supersede what has evidently been a time of mistrust and ruinous competition both for domestic and foreign markets. It is believed that the uses to which asbestos can be put, especially in the construction trades, can be greatly expanded and that, by co-operative methods of education the public to them, the market for the material may be wonderfully enlarged. Apart from the United States, too, the possibilities of markets are widening. These will be explored and the result of the Russian endeavor to create trouble for the Canadian asbestos industry may, after all, be its establishment on a firmer and wider basis.—Brantford Expositor.

MORE STRIKES.

Even the Labor Government of Great Britain cannot get free from the trouble in the country. Just when things reached a settlement in the mining industry, the weavers are forced from work by disputes between masters and workers. While the people of Wales are congratulating themselves on the fact that 180,000 miners will return to work this week, the folk of Lancashire are gloomy with the prospect of 250,000 employees of the textile industry being on the streets. Not only are these quarter of a million workers off the payrolls, but they will be followed shortly by another 220,000 spinners and other finishers, who will not be able to get work because of the idle weavers. In addition comes the threat of a railway strike, which would be disastrous to the industrial life of the nation. The railway workers are considering walking out. Great Britain has experienced bitter trouble in this respect before and knows what it means.

* * * *

When Prime Minister MacDonald was campaigning in 1929, he gave assurance that his government could solve the grave problem of unemployment in the Old Country. The Conservative administration was accused of having made a mess of things, and the Liberals were the object of considerable sarcasm about the way Mr. Lloyd George intended to provide jobs through extensive public works, including the construction of hundreds of miles of roads. As Mr. MacDonald had the advantage of being on the outside and promising, and Mr. Baldwin, who was then premier, had the disadvantage of being placed where all he could say was that he had done what he could, the people chose Mr. MacDonald and thought their troubles were over.

But the unemployment question in England was not to be corrected by a mere marking of ballots. Something a great deal more penetrating than that process is required to remedy matters. One of the chief troubles has been the inability of the Old Country industries to adapt themselves to modern production and sales methods. In the plants and mines, there has always been a hesitancy to introduce improved methods of operation and production. The workers have thought each new machine was just another contrivance by which they would be done out of employment, and fatter dividends paid the owners. In their turn, the owners have been slow in maintaining pace with things and have kept up costs of production by not making use of inventions and improvements that have simplified systems of working.

* * * *

There has been constant suspicion between labor and capital. Any move made by one would be investigated by the other with acrimony. Naturally, co-operation would not exist in such an atmosphere. On top of this came the post-war feeling of so many men that the country owed them a living. Many of the less patriotic soldiers returned to England imbued with the idea that they should be allowed to live at ease for the rest of their lives and not have an active part in the reconstruction of the business fabric of the nation. Fortunately, most soldiers did not share the opinion, but enough had it to start unpleasantness. In turn, these men passed on the thought to those who had been too young to go to war. Gradually there grew up a large body of men who had been educated to think they could live by such things as the dole and not work.

Added to this difficulty was the idea of many Old Country manufacturers that they should make goods as they saw fit and try to force their wares on people in outside nations. Other countries adopted the plan of trying to find out what appealed to the people in the export markets, and then manufactured accordingly. The natural result has been that the Old Country factories soon found a slackening demand for their goods. Even the Prince of Wales had to take to task publicly a number of the leading industrialists on this point. The prince stepped on a few toes, but he was trying to rouse some enthusiasm. At present the prince is performing another constructive effort by going to South America, where there are heavy British investments. His trip is an attempt to increase British prestige and a demand for more and more British goods.—Border Cities Star.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Mr. Henry may be the Premier of Ontario, but the Attorney-General is getting all the headlines.

Peterborough girls who want to help in social service work have a real opportunity in connection with the newly formed Relief Association.

"U.S. has nearly half the world's radio sets," says an American paper, which might have added "and practically all the loud speakers."

There can hardly be two opinions, says the Globe, on the size of the job Mr. Bennett has on his hands. He, as well as the West, has our sympathy.

BURNING BEAUTY

By TEMPLE BAILEY

"Yes. I get such superstitions, I suppose, from my old black mammy. But when I am low in my mind as I am to-day, I always know that unhappiness of some kind is ahead. And just now I have a feeling that things aren't ever going to be again with us as they are now, Virginia."

Virginia, tucking silk stockings into the pocket of her traveling bag, said, "Cheer up, we will be back on Tuesday."

"But it won't be the same," Mary Lee persisted. "The gobble-uns will git you, Jinny, or the witches. It's that silver witch I am afraid of—for Rickey."

Virginia straightened up and looked at her. "She isn't half as nice as you are, Mary Lee. And Rickey's sensible enough to know it."

"Rickey isn't sensible. No temperamental person is. And he's going to suffer—"

There was a great change in Mary Lee. She was no longer the plump little maiden who had made eyes at Tony in the old house. She was composed, quiet more womanly. There was, indeed, about her now something of the tragic remoteness of the little Chinese lady in the song. The effect was heightened, perhaps, to-day, by the fact that she wore black—a smart tailormade with a white flower in her buttonhole, a small pull on hat, and a scarf of silver fox.

When Rickey came in and saw her he gave a whistle of astonishment. "You're simply stunning, Mary Lee," he told her.

She turned herself about on slim patent leather pumps. "If you only knew," she said, "how hard it was for me not to have steel buckles. But I knew these were smarter."

The three of them had luncheon together, and when she was ready to go, Mary Lee said to Rickey, "Don't fall in love with Marty Van Duyne."

He flushed. "What rot!"

"It isn't rot. But I probably should not have said anything to you about her. It's like telling children not to put beans up their noses. They won't think of it if someone doesn't suggest it."

"Marty Van Duyne wouldn't look at me."

"That's the very reason you'll fall in love with her. She's the distant star that you poets rave about. I'm the ripe plum that falls at your feet."

She laughed as if it were a light thing, but Virginia knew that back of the lightness was deep emotion. She was sorry for Mary Lee, of course, but she wasn't sure that she wanted Rickey to love her.

On Friday, before Tony came for her, Virginia and little Roger Barlow hung Christmas greens in the shabby old hall. Virginia had felt it might help the dreary people who came up and down the stairs to get a bit of the holiday spirit.

'We will put a crown of mistletoe on the Bronze Knight, Roger."

'Oh, will everybody kiss him as they go upstairs?"

"I hope not."

"I should think he'd like being kissed."

'But not by so many people."

They hung a holly wreath in the glass of the front door and put the crown on the Bronze Knight's head and wound the balustrade with evergreens. It was all very beautiful, and as the dreary people in the house went in and out, they stopped to look—and Roger said to each one with great politeness: "You mustn't kiss the Bronze Knight because there are too many of you."

When their work was done, Virginia and Roger went back to the fire in the honey-colored room and Roger curled himself up in Virginia's lap and said, "Tell me about what the Bronze Knight did on Christmas."

"Well, the Bronze Knight woke one morning, and it was Christmas, and he knelt and prayed, 'Oh, good and great God, because of thy little son who was born in Bethlehem, may I be a better son to my own mother. May I this day do some deed she would have me do,' and he rose and went on his way and came at last to a little house. And a woman stood in front of the little house and she said, 'Will you cut a tree for my sick child, so that he may have Christmas?' And the Knight cut the tree and carried it in, and the sick child did not smile when he saw the tree. And the Knight said, 'Alas, a child who will not smile at a Christmas tress is close unto death. Let me take him to the city where he may be healed.' And the mother said, 'If he goes, I must go.' And the Knight said, 'You can sit on my horse and hold the child in your arms, and I will walk beside you.'

"So all that day they walked on and on, and the Knight's feet grew sore and bled, but he did not speak of them; he sang to the child of the Three Kings and of the Star, and of the Babe which was born in Bethlehem. And at last they came to the city, and to the place where the child could be healed, and the physicians when they had tended the child, looked at the bleeding feet of the Knight and said: 'You have suffered.' And the Knight said: 'I do not care for my hurt if only the child may be healed.' So they bound up his wounds, and he slept under the shining sky, and when he looked up in the heavens he seemed to hear the angels singing and he said, Mother, did I do well?' And it seemed to him that his mother's face smiled down at him."

As Virginia's voice fell away in silence Roger said softly, "It sounds like the Bible."

"Do you like it?"

"Yes. When I grow up I am going to be a knight and try to please my mother.'

When Tony came a little later and Virginia kissed the child good-by, he said wistfully, "I didn't think you'd go away."

She picked him up and comforted him. "Darling darling," she said, "I'm coming back, and mother has a little tree. And you are going to hang up your stocking."

Tony carried her off after that, and she sat in the front seat with him, with Rickey in the back with the bags. "Heavens," Tony said. "I'm glad to get you out of that house. You don't belong with people like that!"

But she knew that she did belong with little Roger—with all children who clung to her—to old and young who leaned on her and loved her.

The arrival at Derekdale had in it for Virginia certain elements of comedy. Mrs. Bleecker was not there to receive her. She was shown to a room which was all mauve and ivory, with French windows which looked out on a terraced garden which seemed with its snow and pale shadows and glittering icicles to repeat the colors of the room. There wa a maid in attendance to look after Virginia's dresses and to offer her services, which Virginia declined. "You see, I'm used to doing things for myself," she said, smiling, and the maid smiled back.

At Luncheon there were four footmen in attendance. There was gold-colored satin down the length of the table—gold lace doilies under the Royal Worcester place plates. There were eggs in paper cases, and truffles and other things in aspic, there were great pears with ice cream centers. All strange and different, but all like something in a dream.

Mrs. Bleecker, who wore her hat and a sports dress, shook hands with Virginia before they went into the dining-room and presented her to one or two of the older women. She then apparently forgot her. Virginia's cheeks were hot. For a moment she wished she had not come. Then under his mother's eye, she began to flirt with Tony.

She knew it wasn't worthy of her. But she was human. And Tony, sitting next to her, played the game with her. At last he said, "Midget is furious. But she deserves it."

"I shouldn't have come."

"Nonsense. And anybow Midget isn't treating you any worse than she does the rest of them. She adores being bad-mannered. She says that bad manners are a sign of asitocratic blood; that half the old monarchs were hateful and ill-tempered, and that it is middle class to be polite to everybody."

After luncheon Tony took Virginia up, as it were, on a high mountain and showed her the world. There was the great mansion with its retinue of servants, its surrounding acres of woodland, its terraced gardens, its fine stock in barns and stables. "All this will be mine some day," he said, tempting her.

When they returned to the house they sat for a time in the picture gallery in the left wing. "That's Dad," Tony said, indicating a portrait painted by Sargent of a handsome, middle-aged man in riding clothes.

"How much you look like him, Tony."

"Think so? Most people do. We're not alike in other ways. He's masterful and I'm not. That's why I get along with Midget. I give her rope. I don't care what she does usually. But I do care about you, Virginia, I'm going to marry you and that's the end of it."

She did not answer him at once. She stood looking up at the portrait. "Shall I see your father while I'm here?"

"He expects to come up to-night for the ball. But we never can tell. He hates such things and stays away as a rule."

She said thoughtfully, "Then this house isn't a home really?"

He was eager, "We would make it a home, Virginia. I'm to have Derekdale when I marry. Dad has always said so. He and Mother would take the Long Island place and the town house, and Derekdale would be mine—and yours."

He caught her hands in his. "Think of it, dearest,—mine and yours throughout our lives—forever."

"But I don't want it, Tony."

"You do but you don't know it. I'm going to make you know it."

"You can't make me love you just because you've a big house, when all I want is a warm fire and a pussy-cat in front of it, and rain on the roof and a book to read."

He laughed, "You'll want a man to love you."

"It must be the right man, Tony."

"What makes you think I'm not the right man?" He drew her down beside him on the velvet seat. 'Tell me."

"Oh," she moved away from him and looked up at the picture. "I think after a time you'd grow to be like your father."

"What do you mean?"

"Masterful. You'd want to rule me. You're a bit of a tyrant"

"How do you know?"

"Little things." She stopped there and went on presently, 'But that isn't the reason I don't love you. It is just that I—don't."

"But you will."

"I'm afraid not."

He was patient. "I have three days, Virginia, and I'm going to make the most of them." Again he caught up her hands and drew her towards him, looking down into her troubled eyes. "You are going to be mistress of Derekdale, remember that, my dearest." He released her and rose. They crossed the room, and met Marty Van Duyne half way. "Your mother wants you," she said to Tony. 'she's been loooking everywhere."

"I'm sorry. I've been showing Virginia the house, and now we are going to the stables."

"You'll stop and see your mother?"

"Yes."

What To-day Means To You

AQUARIUS"

If January 22nd is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from noon to 2:30 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 8:30 p.m. to10 p.m.

January 22nd holds out prospects of travel, with attendant good results. It is also indicated that private family troubles may arise, difficult of solution. There are no specific portents in regard to business. Speculation, however, will not succeed. Conditions improve after sunset.

The child born on this January 22nd will have an inquisitive nature, as well as an adventurous one. It will frequently find itself in difficulty, but will always "land on its feet." It will have a keen sense of humor, and will be a ready talker, an almost too willing one.

Your "make-up" is a mixture of sefishness and unselfishness. You desire the comfort of the latter, however, without the unbecomingness of appearing so—you know how to display your good points and deeds, and you know how to veneer or gilt your bad ones. You often play the role of a martyr, but seldom appear as a repentant — in your own eyes you sre never wrong. You have little understanding for any moods except your own, and these you are inclined to baby, and to display as you choose.

You have a vehement tmeperament. With you, to think is to feel, to feel is to act—reflection comes last, if it ever comes at all. You have violent likes and dislikes, and are easily prejudiced. You are not a bad judge of human character, and you know how to play up to your audience. Your nature develops best in sunshine, and so long as life asks no hard things of you, you are sweet-tempered and self-forgetful. You are nor always a good sport in stormy weather.

If you be a man, you crave power—and if you be a woman, you long for social position. You are bright and vivacious, but are not highly intellectual. Your knowledge is general, but superficial—you have neither the patience not desire to go to the roots of things. You will be in love many times before you find the right man or woman—the one to whom you will give your best loyalty and sincerity.

TORONTO LIST HOLDS STEADY

Although Little Progress Made on Side of Advance This Morning.

BRAZILIAN ABOVE 23.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—The market made slow progress on the side of the advance this morning, leaders firming slightly.

Brazilian made a small gain selling above 23. C.P.R. rose to nearly 42 for a gain of almost a point and Dominion Stores firmed again. The liquor stocks were holding around their recent top prices and the oils picked up small losses encountered yesterday. Nickel was easier at 15, Noranda higher around 16½. Many of the usual traders such as Bell Telephone, Ford, Service Stations recorded no change.

LOWER-PRICED ISSUES GAIN

Forenoon Traders See Another Strong Session on Standard Exchange To-day.

W. H. MOST ACTIVE.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—The forenoon saw another strong session on the mining market to-day with lower-priced issues receiving considerable favorable attention.

Wright-Hargreaves was the most active of higher-priced golds, price moving up 8 to $2.26, while McIntyre advanced $1.25 to $23.75. Hollinger gained 5 to $8.35, Granada 3 to $1.75 and Lake Shore 10 to $25.50. Vipond was a couple easier at $1.13.

Eldorado moved higher under good demand, standing up 4 at 42. Sylvanite advanced a couple to 69, Barry-Hollinger a point to 12½ and Kirkland Lake gold, Siscoe and Macassa a cent and a half each to 76½, 48 and 15½, respectively.

Noranda was still in demand, and added another 30 to yesterday's gain at $16.40. Nickel was firm and Ventures and Amulet a cent higher at 50 and 34 respectively.

Nordon recovered 3 in light trade at 34, but small recessions showed in the rest of the lower-priced oils. Ajax Oil and Acme Gas lost a point each.

violation of the principle of British justice in discussing cases which are sub judice, I do not propose to say anything further on this matter this afternoon. I urge all the Liberals of West Hamilton to give the Attorney-General every opportunity to state his case fully and fairly. In order that he may have the centre of the stage, I have arranged to cancel all public meetings in which we had arranged for the schools before that date.

"But here and now I wish to warn the Attorney-General that whether or not he accepts my challenge to meet me in a joint debate, or no matter how loudly he protests about the danger to the British Constitution, I do not propose to be gagged. I shall have further to say on this matter the night after Mr. Price speaks here and at the joint meeting on February 9 to which Colonel Price has a standing invitation. I intend to tell the whole story of his attempts over last week-end to prevent me from making the disclousures I made last Tuesday.

CANADIAN DIRECTORS WILL HOLD CONTROL OF COMPANY

Expansion Shows Company's Faith in Future of the Dominion.

$19,000,000 ASSETS.

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 22.—(By C.P.)—Organization of Borden's Limited, who will own all the Canadian operating companies heretofore owned by the Borden Company, took place at a meeting held here to-day.

Expansion in Canada, officials of the new company said, couples with the company's faith in the future of the Dominion, is accounted for the decision to organize Borden's Limited, and place its direction in the hands of outstanding Canadian citizens, who will almost without exception manage and conduct its Canadian activities.

The several Canadian companies constituting the new company have an aggregate net tangible investment as of January 1, 1931, of approximately $19,000,000 with aggregate sales for the year 1930 in excess of $28,000,000.

Company Officials.

J. W. McConnell, of Montreal, is the chairman of the board, S. J. Moore, of Toronto, president and W. H. Dunn, of Montreal, vice president and secretary. These also are members of the board, together with the following, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, of Montreal, W. H. Dunn, of Montreal, Cordon C. Edwards, of Ottawa, P. D. Fox, of New York, E. B. Lewis, of New York, Sir Charles Gordon, of Montreal, A. W. Milburn, of NewYork Major-General the Hon. S. C. Mewburn, of Hamilton, Britton Osler, of Toronto, M. J. Norton, of New York, Hon. Donat Raymond, of Montreal, W. D. Strack, of New York, and Hiram H. Walker, of Walkerville.

The company has been organized under a Dominion charter with authorized capital of 500,000 shares of no par value, of which 400,000 shares have been issued at a stated value of $50 a share, or $20,000,000.

Between 300,000 and 400,000 shares of stock, about seven and one-half per cent of the total outstanding, are now owned by several thousand Canadian citizens.

RAIL SHARES AGAIN LEAD N.Y. ADVANCE

Financial Markets Reflect Growing Feeling Worse of Business Depression is Over.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (C.P.).—The financial markets to-day reflected the growing feelings in Wall Street that the worst of the business depression is over, but the equity share markets still manifested a marked disinclination to count its eggs before they are hatched.

Despite the placing of new offerings on the market aggregating about $75,000,000, listed bonds continued to work higher. Stocks were dull, but moved quietly forward. Bear selling of Radio around midday caused only momentary hesitation. U.S. Steel and American Telephone slipped off about a point, but quickly recovered.

Rail shares were again in the forefront of the advance. Chesapeake Corp. and Lackawanna sold up 3 points, and shares advancing a point or two included Chesapeake and Ohio, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central, Erie, Cotton Belt and Missouri Pacific. Several food, public utility, merchandising, amusement and miscellaneous manufacturing issues sold up a point or two, including American Can., North American, Westinghouse Electric, Borden, National Biscuit, Penick and Ford, General Theatres, Fox, Dupont, Air Reduction, American Tobacco 'B,' Sears, Woolworth, Eastman and Procter and Gamble. Allied Chemical advanced more than 3.

Credit remained extremely plentiful, and some short term commercial paper was reported moving at 2¼ per cent., although the rates were still formally quoted at 2½ to 2¾. It was notable, however, that the demand is for only the safest type of paper, as the market for secondary names is almost non-existent, despite the low rates and plenitude of funds.

Call money was still available outside at 1 per cent.

Because a stenographer could not be secured for police court this morning Ernest Robillard will spend at least four days in jail. Robillard was tried yesterday on charges of assault and pointing a gun, and today he was scheduled to stand trial for abducting Mary O'Neill. However a stenographer to take down the evidence could not be located, and the case had to be held over until Monday. Robillard going back to jail.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (Special to Examiner.)—Pointing out that during the past three years the largest share holders have been under agreement to keep their stock out of the market and that this pool expired January 1, 1930, directors of St. Anthony Gold Mines, Limited, state it is now imperative to the welfare of the company to again raise additional working capital and that further pooling arrangements are necessary.

"Those in control will be finally pool their share holdings in the company for a period of one year, provided the other shareholders will do likewise, 'It is stated. Provision is made in the agreement for the termination of the pool with the consent of the holders of a majority of shares lodged with the trustee if at any time the treasury of the company has been successfully financed. St. Anthony Gold Mines hold properties at Sturgeon Lake, Thunder Bay District and Montbray Township, Quebec.

Before deciding on where to sink the shaft of Oriole Mines, Ltd., the company engineer, with the advice of a consultant, has advised that another three holes be drilled on the eastern section of the property. Good results are anticipated as it is believed the geological features of this area have been solved by previous work. Drill holes number 5 and 6 have been completed at Ashley Gold Mines, Mining Corporation's Bannockburn subsidiary. It was expected that the core would be out to Elk Lake on Wednesday and assay results available two days later. Two more holes are now being drilled. Surface exploration has picked up the extension of the Ashley vein to the north beyond, a granite porphyry dyke. It was thought that the vein might quit in the intrasive so the finding of it farther north is considered of utmost importance.

It is understood the deal whereby Bunker Hill Extension Mines Limited, will finally take up their option on the Tough Oakes Burnside property in Kirkland Lake is practically completed. This will enable the company to carry forward operations at once on a scale warranted by recent exploration results. The interests identified with Bunker Hill extension mines in the undertaking are said to be one of the larges United States mining companies, which already has substantial interest in Canada.

weren't so serious it would be just funny! What I've been through living with that man! Since we were married in 1922 when he was head of the Associated Charities in Hartford, Conn., he has worked and supported me just two years, from 1925 to 1927, when he was professor of sociology at Ypsilanti. The rest of the time my money has supported us."

Most Selfish Man.

"He is the most self-centered, selfish man in the world! I worked hard and because I had a little capital and invested it in real estate here in Ann Arbor he was enablde to go on and get his doctorate. He went to Europe for two years, and during that time his one complein was that I was along. He is unreasonable and once because I was typing some of his thesis and was late getting supper, he threw a can of salmon at me. He has said repeatedly he wished I would die. He insults me before the children, and only three days ago broke into my home on Olivia Street and took letters, papers and a tangerine from the ice box.

"He kicked me in Vienna and bit me in Leningrad. He threw his shoe at me in Berlin, and disjointed my finger in New York."

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

Outside news and markets were somewhat more bullish yesterday and created a more friendly feeling towards the wheat market locally, but actually there was only a small trade passing and the upturns of about half cent were difficult to hold as the small buying that was going on was not inclined to follow and the market would sag off of its own weight. Prices opened ½ higher, based on the cables, but this gain was lost later, again recovered and again lost, the market holding within a narrow range of ⅝ cent most of the day.

Export sales overnight and yesterday were estimated at from 400,000 to 500,000 bushels, but this was offset by the selling in the local pit of 500,000 bushels by French export houses. Just what this selling was could not be ascertained but it may have been spreading with other markets hedging against purchases of Argentine wheat, or straight selling, as they have been good buyers of May wheat in this market the past two weeks.

The bull news consisted of very dry conditions existing in the Province of Punjab, India, where general rains are urgently needed in this, the principal wheat growing province of India. On the other hand, heavy and general rains were reported from Argentina after the weather having cleared Tuesday. This will again delay crop movement and may possibly cause further damage to wheat in Southern areas where considerable threshing remains to be done.

Liverpool closed ⅞ to 1 penny higher, with London buying based on Argentine's wet weather. Buenos Aires yesterday afternoon was ½ higher.

There was no feature to the local demand for cash wheat. Country marketings Tuesday were 601,000 bushels, as compared against 260,000 a year ago.

Coarse Grains

These markets continued dull and featureless. There was some selling of barley in the pit said to be by elevator companies due to carrying charges having disappeared, and more of this is looked for, there being practically no demand for barley. Flax was steady, closing ⅝ to ¾ higher but very small trade passing.

Liverpool cables.—Due unchanged to ⅛ higher, based on Winnipeg.

The oldest party of the Frowick Arms, the five-hundred-year-old inn at the ancient port of Canterbury England, was destroyed by fire recently.

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH HAS SUCCESSFUL FINANCIAL YEAR

John Harrison is Re-elected Elder for a Period of Three Years.

AT LAKEFIELD

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 22 (Examiner Correspondence).—The annual congregational meeting of Wesley United Church was held on Friday evening in the Orange Hall at the 16th of Smith and after a short session of prayer and praise, the business was conducted with the pastor, the Rev. R. M. Wesley as chairman and Mrs. Albert Northey as secretary.

Reports of the different branches of church work were given showing all accounts paid with a balance on hand for 1931 as follows: current expenses $443.51; Missionary and Maintenance fund, $200 or expenditure $618.01 and a balance of $26. J. W. Blewett, superintendent of the Sunday School, reported receipts of $72.53, and expenditures $41 and an average attendance of 22 which is an increase of 6 over last year.

Mrs. Howard Pearson reporting for the Ladies' Aid showed receipts of $464.89 and $367.01 expenditures; and Miss Genevieve Armstrong of the Girls' Class reported receipts of $21.79.

Rev. Wesley spoke a few words of commendation on the splendid reports given, especially stressing the work of the Ladies' Aid Society which with only fifteen members had raised the sum of $464.89, not only taking over the general expenses such as heating, lighting, janitor work, insurance and repairs but also gave a generous donation to the General Fund and in view of there being no W.M.S. in connection with the charge gave this year $103.60 toward the Missionary and Maintenance fund.

The following officers were elected for 1931; John Harrison re-elected elder for a period of three years; John A. Northey, steward, for period of three years; Eric Pearson, secretary, and John A. Northey, treasurer; Howard Pearson and John Harrison, auditors.

A vote of thanks was extended to Messrs. Pearson and Northey by W. H. Pearson and N. Ball in connection with the offices of secretary and treasurer, the work of which has been entirely gratuitous.

Sunday School Officers

The following Sunday School officers were elected: superintendent, John Harrison; assistant, S. A. Northey; secretary-treasurer, J. W. Blewett; organist, Miss Oretha Northey.

The following are the officers of the Ladies' Aid: president, Mrs. Joseph Harris vice-president, Mrs. A. B. Northey; secretary, Mrs. Fred Armstrong; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Northey; auditors, Mrs. Howard Pearson and Mrs. Levi Harris.

A pleasant social hour was spent at the close of the meeting with light refreshments being served by the ladies.

MARMORA

Under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A. of St. Paul's Church a very pleasing box social was held in the White Hall on Monday evening. Fred Johnson was the auctioneer. Prior to the auction a short program was given by the members.

Miss Lorraine Reynolds who had the misfortune to injure her leg some weeks ago has gone to Toronto for treatment.

Miss Madonna L. Newcomb Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples.

"First my face began to get sore, then after a short time pimples broke out all over it. They were very red and festered. The pimples itched causing me to scratch, and the irritation prevented me from sleeping. The trouble lasted about two months and disfigured my face.

"Other remedies were used without success. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they helped me, and after using four cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Madonna L. Newcomb, Murphy's Cove, Nova Scotia.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address Canadian Depot: J. T. Wah Company Limited, Montreal.

PILES GO QUICK

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves or cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To end Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation and strengthen the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 900 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

Dr. Leonhardt's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if it does not end all Pile misery.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, Jan. 22.— Prices for fresh eggs were down again on the local market yesterday and wholesalers seemed quite uncertain as to what prices they would be forced to lower them to if consumption was not stimulated. At time of writing most retailers in this city were asking 46c to 48c for extras, and, in comparison with the prices they were offered supplies, they were killing the market. Prices will have to be lowered to the consumer before there will be any large sales.

Prices.

Country shippers were quoted 22c for extras, 19c for firsts and 15c for seconds, which was 1c lower for the first two grades, and steady on seconds, delivered, ungraded, cases returned. Prices to retailers were 31c to 33c for extras in cartons, 29c to 30c for extras loose, 27c for firsts loose, 22c for pullet extras loose, and 20c for seconds loose, a reduction of 1c on the higher grades and 2c on the lower ones. Brokers were trying to clear fresh supplies at the steady prices of 27c for extras, 23c for firsts, and 18c for pullet extras, graded, and in free cases.

Butter.

Butter market showed the same tone as evident on Monday. Buyers were inactive in the hope that they would be able to replenish their supplies at lower prices, but the majority of receipts have been in firm hands, and, except for small lots of No. 1, moved at 31c, the market was steady. Yesterday brokers were quoting 31 to 31¼c for No. 1, and 30c to 30¼c for No. 2 solids.

Cheese.

Cheese was steady at 14c for new large, 14¼c for twins, and 14¾c for triplets, to country shippers, and 15½c for new large, 15¾c for twins, and 16c for triplets to the retail

BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

Cattle 200; mostly cows; steady; cutter grades 2.25-4.00.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—Egg prices were again lower, and butter, cheese and potatoes were unchanged on the produce and dairy market here yesterday.

Carlot prices of eggs were from 1c to 2c lower, and quotations to retailers declined 1c. Ontario fresh extras lost 1c at 28c, firsts were unchanged at 25c, and seconds dropped 2c at 20c. British Columbia extras and pullets were unchanged at 30c and 26c a dozen, while firsts declined one cent at 19c and 16c, and seconds were unchanged at 14c a dozen. Prices to retailers were all down 1c, fresh specials, extras and firsts being quoted at 36c, 34c and 31c a dozen. Fresh pullet extras and seconds were 29c and 24c. Storage extras, firsts and seconds, were 24c, 21c and 19c a dozen. Receipts were 1,872 cases.

Eastern townships No. 1 pasteurized creamery butter was 31½c a pound, and to retailers solids were 33c and prints 34c a pound. Receipts were 129 boxes.

Receipts of cheese were light, being only 73 boxes. Winter white cheese was quoted at 11c to 11½ a pound, and colored at 13c. Summer cheese was quoted from 15c to 16c a pound.

New Brunswick Green Mountain potatoes, in carlots, were 85c per 90 pounds; bulk and to retailers, 95c per 80-pound bag.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Free selling developed on rallies in grains yesterday, and advances failed to hold well. The selling was associated with stock market fickleness and largely counterbalanced price effects of abnormal rains in Argentina and of wheat crop uncertainties both in this country and India. Rains in Southern Argentina were reported almost three times normal.

Wheat closed irregular, at ⅛ cent decline to ½c to ⅝c advance; corn, unchanged to ⅝c up; oats, unchanged to ¼c to ⅜c higher, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10 cents.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, January 22. — Firm wheat prices ruled on the Winnipeg grain market yesterday due to the strength on foreign markets caused by heavy rains in the Argentine. Closing quotations were ¼ cent higher to unchanged.

Foreign interest in the pit was small yesterday. Overnight export figures were placed at 500,000 bushels of wheat.

At the close the May future was quoted at 56¾ cents; July, 57¾ cents; and October 56¾ cents. Cash wheat figures were slightly above Tuesday, but in a dull and featureless trade coarse grains failed to budge either way.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH ABANDONING BABIES

MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—Wholesale abandonment of children on seven different occasions, involving 28 babies under two years of age, was charged against Mrs. H. Dorion, proprietress of a local maternity hospital, in the Court of Sessions here yesterday. The babies were left on the steps of homes and institutions in the towns of Granby, St. Hyacinthe and Three Rivers.

TWIN DOLLAR DAYS TO BE HELD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY: JAN. 23-24

Nearly Ninety of Peterborough's Stores Will Unite in Big Sale.

ESTIMATING BLANKS.

Nearly ninety of Peterborough's best business houses, have again united in the big semi-annual community event, Twin Dollar Days, which will be held on Friday and Saturday, January 23 and 24.

Co-operation with a country-wide movement to reduce retail and manufacturers' prices, every merchant seems to be trying to be in the lead in getting his prices down a little below his competitors. Right in the midst of this continental movement comes the Winter Dollar Days, and the citizens can look for a phenomenal and general price slashing such as has not been seen on any previous Dollar Day occasion.

While they are making it easier in this way to sell, they are also making it unquestionably much easier to buy. From all indications the values are going to be more irresistable than ever before. The usual cash prizes amounting to $150 are also being offered in the big estimating contest.

As a guide to estimators, it might be well if all would read carefully the part of the full page advertisement referring to these bonuses. It has been found that a great many people do not fully understand what to do in order to give themselves a chance to be among the winners. Some think they have to guess the amount of money spent, and others seem to think it is a lucky number and just put down anything—4, 8, 25, 40 or the first thing that comes into their heads; some fill all the space with figures, running into millions. What the merchants' organizer wants all contestants to remember is that what they are supposed to be doing is to estimate the number of tickets that will be dropped in the box during the two days of community shopping.

A year ago there were 21,324 tickets dropped in and in August last, the summer Twin Dollar Days, there were 22,201. It can easily be seen, then, that it is no hap-hazard affair, but a genuine attempt to estimate the number that will be in the box after two big buying days in 90 of Peterborough's best stores.

Believes Gold Bars Buried Beside Fort

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, Jan. 22 (CP)—Digging operations at Johannesburg Fort in search of gold bars supposed to have been buried there a day or two before Johannesburg surrendered to the British forces under Lord Roberts during the Boer War will be begun shortly by H. A Young. Negotiations with the authorities for official permission to dig have been going on for more than six months and have just been concluded.

Mr. Young believes that a considerable quantity of gold in the form of bars lies buried in the gateway of the fort, this belief being founded upon statements made by a European and by a native who say they assisted in the burying of the Precious metal. Permission to try to find the buried gold was at first refused, and authorities regarding the stories about it as ridiculous and without any foundation whatever, but finally persistency of the applicant bore fruit.

It has been stipulated, however, that the excavations in the gold quest must be done in the presence of the police. It is understood that if Young does find the supposed buried gold one-third of it will become the property of the Government.

I did all of my housework up to the day my baby came, as I am a farmer's wife and could not afford help before. I feel just dandy now and I will answer any letters and I will tell every one how good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is."—Mrs. Ira Arnold, Box 63, Rocklake, North Dakota.

Railway Wage Cut Hard On Workmen

LONDON, January 21 (By Thomas T. Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — A hundred thousand railway workers are already receiving less than $11.50 a week, and if the railway companies' wage proposals were conceded, they would have a minimum rate of only $9.50, asserted T. Marchbank, of the National Union of Railwaymen, testifying before the Railway Wages Board.

Marchbank argued that the railway stockholders received in surplus cash by way of dividends nearly as much as the entire minimum wage proposed for the workers. The companies had invested $50,000,000 in motorbus undertakings, and the cry of "road competition" was rather out of date, he added.

DELORO PLANT SAFETY COUNCIL DELEGATES ATTEND MEETING

Honor Flag Divided Between Oxide and Engineers—Star Awarded to Latter.

SPLENDID REPORTS READ.

MARMORA, Jan. 22 (Examiner Correspondence)—The annual meeting of the Deloro Safety Committee was held at the Hall on Tuesday evening following a sumptuous banquet and the regular meeting. The decoration were of the finest description and the menu served by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Klement and their staff of helpers may be briefly yet fully described as par excellence.

Included in the gathering were the four newly elected men's representatives: L. R. Rundle, Silver Plant; R. Neal, Oxide Plant; P. Leal, Engineers and L. Hulsman, Metals. The first report at the monthly meeting was given by J. A. Rice and S. J. Sanderson followed with the report of the competitive committee. Four of the eight suggestions received had m...ited award. Two accidents occurred in the past month necessitating only one day lost time. The flag was divided between the Oxide and the Engineers and the star was awarded the Engineers. Floyd Gray as chairman of the Inspection committee reported favorably of his tour through the plant. The chairman R. A. Elliott appointed the incoming chairman of this committee as floating member for January. The statement of the Benevolent Relief Funds was read by C. H. Buskard. J. Judge mentioned a prone method practice given at the Repair Shop and H. Rennie was instructed to carry out similar practices during the current month.

W. R. Reynolds, chairman of the publicity committee gave the concluding report.

Annual Meeting

Upon adjournment, the annual meeting opened with R. A. Elliott presiding. Before reading his report, Mr. Elliott read a letter received from S. B. Wright, general manager who expressed the company's appreciation of the enthusiasm still being maintained in the local safety movement. Mr. Elliott expressed the general regret at Mr. Wright's absence. In his report, Mr. Elliott remarked that the completion of six years of safety work at Deloro had just been realized. Last year he reminded his hearers was the second best since the inception of the movement. The remainder of the report touched upon general activities of the movement and included the announcement that E. Hewitt, A. Kennedy and H. Smith were the foremen with best records in 1930 thus becoming eligible to attend the annual Safety Convention at London this year.

F. Paquet, secretary-treasurer in his interesting report, gave a recapitulation of the work of the various sub committees and a broad analysis of the expenditures of the Safety Movement.

The election of officers then took place, all being re-elected as follows: Chairman, R. A. Elliott; vice chairman, O. H. Hemphill; secretary-treasurer, F. Paquet; assistant secretary, W. R. Reynolds. A. Kennedy was elected as trustee for Relief Board upon retirement of A. McCallum. Last year's auditors on the Trustee Relief Funds, H. A. McNally and S. J. Sanderson were re-elected. The chairman then appointed the sub committees as follows:

Suggestions—J. Judge, J. A. Rice, S. J. Sanderson, D. Robertson and H. Loveless.

Competitive—H. A. McNally, R. D. Murray, G. Brooks, W. Mumby and C. T. Nicholson.

Inspection—C. H. Buskard, H. Smith, William Regan, A. McKenzie and J. H. Hemphill.

Publicity—W. R. Reynolds, A. V. Yates, W. L. Rigg, H. Rennie and R. Neal.

F. A. Bapty on behalf of the company, congratulated the committee on the fine meeting, and the addresses and reports given. He expressed personal regret at Mr. Wright's absence and mentioned that at the last meeting of the Board of Directors the Safety work of the plant was mentioned and congratulations were extended to the committee. He hoped that efforts for a safety work this year would be as successful as in the past.

J. H. Hemphill brought out the fact that the workmen were not asked to do something impossible. If men did all they knew they should do it would all right.

Dr. Crawford referred to the Benefit cination against small pox and inoculation against diphtheria. After a humorous address, W. R. Reynolds drew attention to the good sporting spirit existing within the committee.

NORTHUMBERLAND BOY WINS FIRST IN THE PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

John Sheehan, Representing Peterborough County, is Second in Contest.

HASTINGS COUNTY THIRD.

First, second, and third places were gained by Donald Lloyd, Richard Sheehan, and Evelyn Badgley in the Central Ontario public speaking contest, which was held in the Assembly Hall of the Normal School on Wednesday afternoon. The hall was filled to capacity with the Normal School pupils, inspectors, and friends.

J. A. Bannister, B.A., D.Paed. principal of the school, opened the contest with a few words of introduction and greeting.

The origin of the public speaking contests was discussed by W. M. Morris, secretary of the School Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association The contests were first begun in 1927, but so heavy were the entries then confined to the Toronto district, that several county contests were formed—Kemptville, Belleville, Peterborough, Toronto, Guelph, Hamilton, Bridgetown, and two in New Toronto.

The points on which the speakers were judged were described by Mr. Morris, as follows: Introduction 10, choice of subject 10, material 25, deportment 20, enunciation and choice of language 20, voice and fluency 20 conclusion 5. The marks were assigned by each student and visitor, and from the aggregate scores the winners were chosen.

Donald Lloyd, Campbellford, won first prize when he represented Northumberland County in his monologue "Going to Market." Donald told of his driving the horse, delivering goods, selling at market, and concluded by soliciting the votes of the audience when he was running for Parliament.

Richard Sheehan of Indian River represented Peterborough County, and won second place with his "Weed Control." The young speaker told of the varieties of weeds, which rob the soil of plant food, and the manners in which they could be extinguished.

Third place was taken by Evelyn Badgley, Shannonville, representing Hastings County, with her speech, "Reducing the Cost of Production on Farms." Miss Evelyn stressed the importance of the tractor, and the obtaining of heavier yields per acre through seed, cultivation, and machinery employed. The choice of crops and crop rotation were advised, and the treatment of the soil could be accomplished by manuring and draining. There should be no overproduction and wastes should be eliminated. Finally, the careful supervision of the farm by the owner will make better returns, and hence lower the cost of production.

Seven volumes of Dickens' works were given as first prize and the second and third prizes consisted of five and four different books respectively. The presentation was made by Richard Lees, retired inspector of East Peterborough, who also made personal recollections of the Normal School many years ago.

The following inspectors also delivered addresses: R. F. Downey, West Peterborough and East Victoria, A. A. Martin of Brighton and East Northumberland, Col. J. W. Odell of Cobourg, and Leo Copp, who extended an invitation for teachers to come to East Peterborough.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, Jan. 22—There was no improvement in demand for cattle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday, and the easier feeling in evidence since Monday culminated in a decline of 15 to 25 cents per cwt. in price of butcher cattle, while bulls, especially the heavy kind, were down to a somewhat greater extent for the week. Weighty steers sold at a range of 6½ to 7½ cents, outside of a couple of extra choice, and handyweights brought 5 to an extreme 7.10 cents per pound. Top for the odd choice butcher bull was 5.35 cents, with the rest of the butcher kind a slow sale at from 4 to 5¼ cents per pound. Cows held closer to steady than other classes of killers, fair to good butcher kind selling from 4 to 5¼ cents per pound, with some half dozen choice fat cows at the 5½ cent top. Buyers were bearish on butcher heifers, of which only a few of the best made 7 cents, with fairly good kind selling from 6 to 6¾ cents per pound. In the baby beef classes, prices yesterday were down $1 per cwt. as compared with the opening of the week, sales accounting for some 30 head showing a rang of 7 to 9 cents per pound.

Few Stockers

The offering of cattle included 500 left from Tuesday, and totalled some 400 less than on the same day last week. Trading was slow at the decline in price and there was a small hold-over of cattle at the close. A few small lots of stockers, fair to real food sold at 5 to 6¼ cents per pound, and milkers and springers moved at $60 to $80 each for the best.

Good to choice veal calves brought 10 to 11 cents per pound, or steady prices, with more making the top than on Tuesday, and very few plain calves sold below 8 cents per pound. Grassers were lacking in the day's offering, which totalled 287 held or a few head more than on Tuesday.

ILLUSTRATED TALK ON WHEAT COUNTRY

Features Weekly Meeting of St. Andrew's Y.P.S. at Millbrook.

MILLBROOK, Jan. 22 (Examiner Correspondence)—The weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of Saint Andrew's United Church was held on Monday evening, under the direction of the Citizenship committee, with the convenor, Oliver Brock, in the chair.

Associated with the chairman on the platform was the secretary, Miss Dorothy McDowell, and the president, B.B. Dawson, who took charge of the business part of the meeting. The scripture lesson was read by the third vice-president, Miss Marjorie Jones.

A feature of peculiar interest was the illustrated lecture on the natural advantages of the three prairie provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Mr. Dawson manipulating the lantern, and presenting the story material which accompanied the pictures. The educational value of this part of the evening rated high, the views including the leading cities with their handsome legislative buildings, and fine universities; the thirty-two grain elevators fronting the lake at Port Arthur and Fort William; the prairie wheat fields with the methods of cultivation and harvesting; the great national parks at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, and Wainwright, Alberta; the amazing crops of wheat in the Peace river district; the Red River valley, with workmen unearthing remains of prehistoric animals; coal mining in Alberta; large sheep and pig ranches; trees laden with ripe peaches, grown in Manitoba; wild life being conserved, and scenery of entrancing beauty.

A duet by Ernest Powell and Will Byam, with violin and guitar, won prolonged applause, and the chairman announced a debate by members of the Tuxis Square, "Resolved that the country offers more advantages to the young man of twenty-one than does the city."

Upholding the affirmative were Kenneth Fallis, and Grant Henry; while arguments in favor of city life were strongly advanced by Walter Sayles and John Thomas. The judges and Miss Pearl Burnham, and the verdict, by the very small margin of one-half point, was awarded in favor of the affirmative.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction; next week's meeting will be on Tuesday rather than Monday owing to the carnival announced for the latter date, to be held on the Cosmos rink. Miss Marjorie Sayles, convenor of the missionary committee, will have charge, and will give the report of the Winter School which she attended all last week at Cobourg, as the official delgate of the Y.P.S.

MORE RELIEF WORK BY MADOC INSTITUTE

Society Holds January Meeting at Home of Mrs. C. N. Whytock.

MADOC, Jan. 22 (Examiner Correspondence).—Madoc Women's Institute held the January meeting at the home of Mrs. C. N. Whytock on Friday, Mrs. Charles Whytock presiding.

Correspondence included a letter of thanks from Mrs. Reid for fruit and flowering plant received by her during her recent serious illness; letter from Teachers' and Ratepayers' Association, and an appeal from Red Cross Society in Coe Hill for clothing of any kind to assist in relief work in the North Country.

After some discussion it was decided that the day's collection be used for this relief work, and that a bale of clothing be packed for Coe Hill at the home of Mrs. W. Whytock on Wednesday next, committee in charge, Mesdames W. Whytock, Connor, Rupert, Kincaid and C. Whytock.

Roll call was answered by notable events in the past year, and most of the 41 present by giving interesting items from the past year's history.

Mrs. W. Stewart then gave current events in a most interesting manner and Mrs. Walter Kincaid, a new member gave a very thoughtful paper on "The Value of a Mother's place in the Home." A very interesting letter was received by Mrs. S. S. Ashley from Miss Gertrude George of Chapleau Indian School. This letter was read by Mrs. Whytock, and was most interesting and instructive.

It was decided to hold a dance about February 12, in the Orange Hall, and all necessary committees were appointed.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist some Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful of powder or four tablets in water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

FENELLA UNITED CHURCH.

"And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth and the top of it reached to heaven and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And behold, the Lord stood above it and said I am the Lord God of Abraham, thy Father and the God of Isaac, the land whereon thou liest to thee will I give it and thy seed," Genesis 28:12,13.

This was the text chosen by the Rev. R. W. Paton, the pastor for his Sunday evening sermon in Fenella United Church.

"We have here the story of a young lad who left his home and went out into the world to seek his fortune. Jacob had quarreled with his brother Esau, it was no longer safe for him to remain in his home or even in his own neighborhood, so he started out alone to find another home elsewhere. After travelling for a day, he found himself at night in a lonely rough part of the country where he lay down with a stone for his pillow.

"What a wonderful experience for this young man starting out in life, as he saw the angels ascending and descending on the ladder that stretched from earth to heaven and above all was God. This experience was worth more to Jacob than all the silver and gold he afterwards acquired. He learned from this dream that life, which was symbolized by the ladder while it begins upon the earth should reach up towards heaven. There is a connection between earth and heaven and our lives should always tend upward towards God. He realized he was not alone for God was with him and would be with him in the future as he would tread the way of life.

"Jacob needed this experience at this time as he needed the assurance of the presence of God and God still speaks to men and women and the message vouchsafed to Jacob through a dream is his message to us to-day. The God of Jacob is our God, the same yesterday to-day and forever.

"From this we learn that our work begun here should reach upwards towards the things finest and best. We should remember that this life is but a fragment of eternity this earth is but a suburb of heaven. Our life here should be pitched in such a key that it will harmonize with the perfect music of heaven."

ANNUAL MEETING CAMPBELLFORD PRESBYTERIANS HELD TUESDAY

Reports of Church Organizations for Past Year Presented to Congregation.

PRESENTATION MADE

CAMPBELLFORD, January 22 (Examiner Staff Correspondent). — A very successful and inspiring annual meeting was held on Tuesday evening, when the members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Campbellford, met in regular session for the purpose of receiving the year's reports. Rev. J. C. Robinson conducted the devotional exercises. J. R. Battisby occupied the chair for the evening, and George Whitlaw acted as secretary.

After the reading of the minutes of last annual meeting, which were confirmed, the reports of the several organizations of the church were presented. W. J. Harold Dunk presented the Session report which among other things showed a marked increase in church attendance, a very healthy sign. The report was in detail, outlining the whole year's work.

For the trustees, Allan G. Watson spoke, explaining many matters among which was the fact that the insurance for the year on church property had been paid.

The treasurer, George Whitelaw, presented a financial statement, which was received by the congregation.

For the Ladies' Aid, Mrs Allan Watson and Mrs. J. C. Anderson, as secretary and treasurer respectively, reported showing that this organization made much progress during the past year.

The Mission Circle, with Mrs. Cecil McLean as secretary and Miss M. Stephens as treasurer, showed gains for the year, and the Mission Band, with Miss Marion McArthur as secretary and Miss Leah Blue as treasurer, was also very active. The latter organization is directed by Mrs. Robert Boyes and Mrs. R. S. Bell.

Good Y.P.S. Report.

The Y.P.S., with Miss Grace Blue as secretary and Mrs. T. H. Scott as treasurer, showed a very good report, with an increased attendance registered.

The Women's Missionary Society with Mrs. J. R. Battisby as secretary and Miss Jessie Neill as treasurer, presented a good report, numbering among other things the fact that the allocation for the year had been met and one life member made.

The work of the Sunday School with Mrs. James Hamilton as secretary-treasurer and W. A. Newcourt as superintendent, had been very gratifying during the past year, and much progress made.

The work of the choir was also complimented, the members receiving praise for their faithfulness and reliability during the past year. Miss Mary Watson is secretary and Miss Jessie Neill treasurer of this group.

The report of the Girl Guides with Mrs. C. Massie as director showed progress being made along this line.

The report of the auditor, William Collison, showed the books all in good order.

Mrs. Anderson Resigns.

The resignation of Mrs. J. A. Anderson from her duties of caring for the Communion table was received with regret, a vote of thanks being given to her for her faithful services during the past many years. A vote of thanks was also extended to the Revs. Dr. D. A. Thomson of Hastings, Gordon Duncan of Warkworth, and D. A. McKenzie of Burnbrae, for their assistance to the congregation during the vacancy.

The three retiring membes of the Boad of Management, Messrs. Andrew Govan, John S. Wallace and George Whitelaw, were elected to continue their services on the Board.

For the year 1931 Messrs. Wesley Stephens and William Collison will be the auditors for the church and Miss Grace Blue the official reporter.

A very pleasing function at the conclusion of the gathering was the presentation to Mrs. J. C. Robinson by little Margaret McCullough of a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. J. A. Anderson and Mrs. James Alexander, hon. presidents of the Ladies' Aid, introduced Mr. Robinson to the congregation.

The evening was concluded with a delightful lunch, served by the ladies, and a social hour which was much enjoyed by the congregation.

WHO K.O'D O'NEIL

Mrs. O'Neil and that it was not loaded. William Drain and his son, also defence witnesses, testified that the gun was not loaded, and denied that they had hidden the shells.

Crown Attorney McElderry pointed out that Loucks had admitted in the stand that he had warned Mrs. O'Neil not to allow the charges against Robillard to stand because "both she and her son might get into trouble."

In acquitting Robillard on both charges the magistrate declared that in British courts suspicion was not sufficient. He affirmed that the Crown had failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Robillard had knocked out Joseph O'Neil or pointed the gun at Mrs. O'Neil.

W. F. Huycke conducted the defence.

HASTINGS MAN IS MADE PRESIDENT OF THRESHERMEN

Eastern Ontario Brotherhood of Threshermen Meet in Convention.

WELCOMED BY DUFFUS.

Members of the Eastern Ontario Brotherhood of Threshermen, who met in the City Council Chamber for their annual convention yesterday, were tendered an address of welcome by J. J. Duffus, in the absence of His Worship Mayor Roland Denne.

Mr. Duffus, who pointed out that he was not addressing them in an official capacity, but by request, said he was glad of the opportunity to extend the threshermen a welcome to the City of Peterborough. He thought there was a special reason why the threshermen chose this city each year, as a meeting centre, and why it is also favored by other organizations. It is because of its central location, he said, continuing to call attention to the fact that Peterborough is a live city in which every public body functions actively and with close co-operation. He made particular mention of the inter-relations of the Press, the City Council, County Council, Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, Rotary and Kinsmen service organizations, and the community as a whole, and held this ideal state of affairs before the gathering, as a pattern on which they should strive to mould their organization.

Enlarging on the industrial and other advantages of Peterborough, Mr. Duffus said that the city's aggregation of seventy or so industries, had been attracted here by virtue of the fact that this is exactly the centre of the Dominion's population. It is a city well served with highways and railway facilities and is also the gateway to the Kawartha Lakes.

It gave him special pleasure to address the threshermen, he averred because he had engaged in threshing himself for a period of seven years. He would not attempt to discuss their problems, but thought it well that they should meet once a year to work out their own problems and difficulties, not only in their own interests but in the interests of the community and of the country at large.

The speaker was quite sure he could leave it to William Newman, M.P.P. for North Victoria, to discuss with them their problems from a legislative standpoint, as Mr. Newman is not only interested in his riding, but deeply concerned with the affairs of the entire Province and Dominion.

In pointing out the possibility of the International Plowing Match being held in this city during the coming year, Mr. Duffus extended a cordial invitation to the threshermen to make a point of attending the event, and assured them of a warm welcome.

F. D. McIntyre responded to the speakers' welcome address on behalf of his fellow members, after which the minutes of the last convention were read by Secretary H. E. Dunn.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—W. H. McMillan of Hastings.

Vice-President—James Lamey of Hastings.

Secretary—H. E. Dunn of Cameron.

Executive Committee.—E. Kearns, Omemee; Herbert Jones, Omemee, and Joseph Slattery of R.R. 8, Peterborough.

Legislative Committee—R. W. Henderson, Ida; Charles Milles, Omemee, and Percy Wilson, Norwood.

During the course of the afternoon, interesting addresses were delivered by R. E. Beam of the Perfectso Manufacturing Company of Waterloo, and by E. Downs, representative of the Western Ontario Brotherhood of Threshermen.

A discussion on the proposed lien law was also opened by J. M. Houston of Chatham, while R. W. Henderson and W. Newman, M.P.P., discussed the proposed regulations of the Ontario Fire Marshal, particularly as it regards the "20-inch clause."

As a result of the discussion it was resolved, on the motion of E. Dunn, seconded by J. Houston, "that four members on the Fire Marshal's committee try and get the clause eliminated." The clause referred to will, if made law, provide that no threshing engine shall be permitted to come within 20 feet of a barn.

Peace Bridge Makes Advance In Earnings

BUFFALO, N.Y., Jan. 22. — New York and Canada, if the present rate of earnings continues, will own the Peace Bridge here, in from five to seven years, according to John W. Van Allen, secretary of the Peace Bridge Company.

When all bonds issued by the company have been retired ownership of the bridge will revert to the State of New York and the Dominion of Canada. During the past year, Mr. Van Allen said, enough money was earned by the bridge to retire $412,500 of its bonds, bringing the total retired since the bridge was built, to $1,044,200.

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

The dangers that lurk in carelessness on the part of cigarette smokers are not confined to forest fires—there are indoor dangers!

* * * * * *

Sparks from cigarette and lighted stubs have burned handsome furniture and furnishings and fire departments have often had to be called out to save homes and oftentimes human lives!

* * * * * *

Hostesses find the heedless smokers damage property in inexcusable ways. Choice napery and fine furnishings are often impaired.

* * * * * *

It is indeed amazing the utter disregard of other people's property that these indifferent smokers have. They will lay a lighted cigarette on the edge of a table, the arm of a chair, a mantel, bookcases, etc., knowing full well that it will burn and mar the furniture when the glowing tip reaches the wood.

* * * * * *

The hostess in her gracious endeavor to make one under her roof feel comfortable is apt to reject an offer (should one be made) to repair the disfiguring mark.

* * * * * *

Yet when the burn is deep she has to pay a good deal to have the scraping and repolishing done.

* * * * * *

Many a choice tablecloth has been so burned that even expert menders refuse to guarantee restoring the cloth to its original state.

* * * * * *

I remember one such case with a handsome cloth which had been purchased abroad and during a dinner one of her guests allower a cigarette not only to burn a good-sized hole in the damask but let the cigarette rest where it was carelessly put until it burned deep into the handsome table.

* * * * * *

No little sum was spent in having the table top done over, but in order to restore the table cloth she found it necessary to use ingenuity in repairing it.

* * * * * *

Expert menders said they could not restore it, and others who have a similar damage may find her remedy will help them out of like difficulties.

* * * * * *

She had a round piece of linen, of the same quality as the damask, embroidered with her monogram and centred over the burnt spot. The linen circle was held in position with close buttonhole stitching and just inside, a circle of ornamental embroidery stitches further outlined the linen-inset.

* * * * * *

If this was an appearance of intentional decoration was gained, but it was at much trouble and expense that the cloth was restored. A little thought in the part of smokers can avert similar unfortunate damages which otherwise may happen to anyone's property.

Estevan Tory Member Relinquishes His Seat

REGINA, Sask., Jan. 22.—David McKnight, Conservative, who became Estevan's member of the Provincial Legislature on a recount following a by-election on December 23, has issued a statement that he had relinquished his right to the seat. Counting of ballots election night, he said, had been correct and in this case his opponent, Norman McLeod, Liberal, should be elected.

Mr. McLeod had a majority of five votes in the first counting and Mr. McKnight requested a recount, which resulted in his victory by 13 votes. Final decision of the recount was announced last night.

Cromer Refuses Post As Governor-General

LONDON, Jan. 21.—(By Thos. T. Champion, CP Staff Correspondent)—It was reported unofficially today that the Earl of Cromer, Rowland Thomas Baring, had been offered and refused to accept the Governor-Generalship of Canada. The report was apparently from a reliable source.

Lord Cromer had been prominently mentioned for the post for some weeks. He has been Lord Chamberlain since 1922, being responsible for all ceremonial events in which Their Majesties participate.

Edinburgh, Scotland, which claims one of the largest collections of lions in the world, has just added five large specimens for its open "rock den."

NEW POLICE BODY DUBBED 'BERTIES'

Nickname of English Patrol Designed as Compliment to Hon. Herbert Morrison.

SOME DOUBT CHOICE.

LONDON, Jan. 22 (By Thomas T. Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent)—To the "Jack Tars," "Tommies" and "Bobbies," may be added the "Berties."

The National Safety First Council suggested to-day that the new mobile police patrols which have been organized under the Road Traffic Act, should be designated as "Berties," as a compliment to Hon. Herbert Morrison, Minister of Transport.

"Bobby," which has become a recognized term for policemen, arose of course through the creation of the force by Sir Robert Peel. "Peeler" was once a fairly common nickname, too.

It is doubtful whether "Bertie" would prove a happy choice. "Bertie" has become something of an alternative for "Johnnie"—the fellow who wears spats and monocle, and says "Bah Jove."

GALT IS SEEKING NEW MINISTER

Present Pastor Criticized Some Months Ago For Probe Into Spiritualism.

CHANGE WANTED BY JUNE 19.

GALT, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—At the annual meeting of the Wesley United Church congregation, which lasted to midnight, it was decided by a vote of 154 to 132, to ask for a change in pastor relations effective at the end of the present conference year, June 19.

Rev. S. M. Roadhouse, the pastor, is president of the Hamilton conference.

Some months ago Rev. Mr. Roadhouse was criticized in connection with an investigation into spiritualism which he conducted. Following this Mr. Roadhouse asked for a change but later, at the request of the church members he decided to remain as pastor.

CONDITIONS IN DETROIT WORSE THAN EVER BEFORE IS REPORT

42,000 Families Are Living Entirely on Charity—Thousands Homeless.

WORST YET TO COME.

(By Frank Chamberlain)

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 22 (Special to The Examiner, Copyright, 1931).—"I've never seen conditions quite so bad in Detroit as they are now," Percival Dodge, executive secretary of the Detroit Community Fund said, when interviewed to-day.

"And they'll be worse, I'm afraid," he added. "Detroit because of the fact that so much depends upon the automobile industry, is affected by the unemployment problem much more seriously than other American cities."

"What the aftermath of such depression will be, I can only guess," he went on. "Forty-two thousand families are living on supplies from the Department of Public Welfare. How many more families are living on bulk food, rather than a proper diet, I don't know. There is bound to be the after-effect upon the children in such families.

"Not only will the people's health be affected," Mr. Dodge said, "but family relations are bound to suffer. Among the city's 12,000 homeless, unattached men, five per cent. of them are married men who have because of economic conditions been separated from their families. Perhaps the wives have gone back to their parents. How many of those families will be re-united? It will not be many, now that the men have become accustomed to wandering about, and have sought the companionship of other men and...other women."

Mr. Dodge said that while Detroit was suffering as never before, the problem of destitution was well in hand. Actual relief was being administered through the Department of Public Welfare, and case work and follow-up work was handled by the eighty social agencies in the Detroit Community Union.

I talked to-day with George W. Grant, secretary of the Detroit Employers' Association.

"According to the last census in 1930", he said, "47 per cent of the population of Detroit were registered as 'gainfully employed'. There were at that time 250,000 to 300,000 people employed in work other than factory work. From figures available today we estimate that there are 255,000 people employed in Detroit factories, as compared with 315,000 a year ago."

"Does that mean, working steadily, or one or two days a week?" I asked.

"It doesn't mean anything other than they are at least working part of the week. For that reason the figures of those actually working and those actually not working cannot ever be permanently established. A man might be working two days a week and yet register himself on the census as "unemployed". In fact that is what the government is asking him to do. And a man might be working full time on the day the census-taker calls, and be out of work the following day. There is no set estimate available."

"Are American employers urging unemployment insurance for their workers?"

"A bill will be brought before the government at the next session. Employers and the leading thinkers of the country have been pressing the matter for several years. It has now come to a head."

"Is there any relationship between the fact that Detroit is undoubtedly suffering a period of terrific depression and yet last night five of the down-town movie houses had queues?"

"I haven't studied it. I do know that the suburban theatres are feeling the pinch of trade. Many are closed down. The down-town theatres are different. There still are a host of people not affected by depression. I mean school-teachers, clerks, and people in municipal positions. Perhaps they go to the movies to take their minds away from depression. Mayor Murphy recently asked the Civic Theatre here to lower their prices so that the unemployed might enjoy more amusement."

Taschereau Budget Takes Middle Course

QUEBEC, Jan. 22.—Following what he described as "the middle course," not taking a pessimistic view not being too optimistic, Premier Taschereau, in his capacity as Acting Provincial Treasurer, brought down the Budget in the Legislative Assembly yesterday. The estimates covered the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, a date eighteen months away, the Premier observed, and anticipates a surplus of $158,786.81. Estimated receipts were placed at $38,895,286.57, and expenditures at $38,736,499.76.

RANCID OIL in Stale Coffee

the cause of Indigestion, Headaches, Sleeplessness

FOR years coffee has been the subject of much controversy. Now medical science steps forward with the startling but reassuring announcement that most of the troubles usually blamed on coffee itself can be traced directly to rancid oil in stale coffee.

Here, in question and answer form, is the explanation of this new medical discovery, and the answer to the problem: How to be sure you are buying fresh coffee.

1 What is there in coffee that sometimes causes indigestion, headaches, sleeplessness?

Medical science has discovered that these troubles usually blamed on coffee itself can be traced directly to rancid oil found only in stale coffee.

2 I didn't know coffee contained oil. Is there oil in all coffee?

Yes. All coffee contains approximately a half cup to every pound. In fresh coffee this oil is as sweet as fresh butter. It contains the delicious flavor and aroma provided by nature which make coffee such a delightful drink. But when coffee gets stale, that is, when it is stored too long after roasting, this oil turns rancid, just as butter does. It is then that the oil is harmful . . . the coffee bitter and flat-tasting.

3 How is it harmful? What can it do to me?

When oil turns rancid it deteriorates . . . actually spoils. Rancid oil is definitely toxic, and when taken into the system it causes digestive troubles, headaches, loss of sleep.

4 How can I avoid this danger without giving up coffee?

It isn't necessary to give up coffee. Simply be sure the coffee you drink is fresh.

5 Does staleness also affect the flavor of coffee?

Yes. Coffee loses much of its delicious and invigorating flavor when stored long after roasting. It gets bitter and flat.

6 But how can I be sure my coffee is fresh? I have no way of knowing how old coffee is when I buy it.

There is one coffee that provides an absolute guarantee of freshness. This coffee is Chase & Sanborn's. It is rushed to your grocer straight from the roasting ovens. And every tin, pound and half-pound, is plainly marked with the date your grocer receives it.

No trace of rancid oil in Chase & Sanborn's . . it's guaranteed fresh when you get it . . . .

7 Is this real coffee—with nothing extracted? I don't like coffee substitutes.

This is in no sense a coffee substitute, and absolutely nothing has been extracted. It is pure, delicious coffee . . . The highest-quality blend you can buy with the added distinction that it is guaranteed fresh when you get it.

8 What good does the date do me?

You can tell by the date just how long a tin of Chase & Sanborn's has been on your grocer's shelf.

9 But suppose the coffee is stale when my grocer gets it?

With Chase & Sanborn's this is impossible. This coffee is never stored in warehouses after roasting. It goes to your grocer direct from the roasters.

10 What is to prevent my grocer from keeping coffee until it is stale even with the date printed on the tin?

Chase & Sanborn's Coffee is never allowed to stay on the grocer's shelf more than ten days. The dates are regularly inspected and any tin whose date shows that it is more than ten days old is removed and replaced with a fresh tin. As a matter of fact, we gauge so accurately the amount your grocer will sell that there is seldom any to take back. It is for this reason that you seldom see large displays of Chase & Sanborn's in your grocer's store.

11 What is done with the coffee that is returned?

It is sold at once in bulk at a reduced price to institutions which otherwise could not afford such high-grade coffee.

12 Is coffee frequently stored long enough to become dangerously rancid?

Even the most expensive coffees are frequently stored for months and even years. Investigation has shown coffee more than a year old on grocers' shelves in many parts of the country.

13 If I buy unground coffee and grind it myself, or have my grocer grind my coffee when I buy it, isn't this an assurance of freshness?

This will not insure freshness because you have no possible way of knowing how long the unground coffee has been stored after roasting.

14 If freshness is so important, and this is the only way to be sure of freshness, why haven't other people done the same thing?

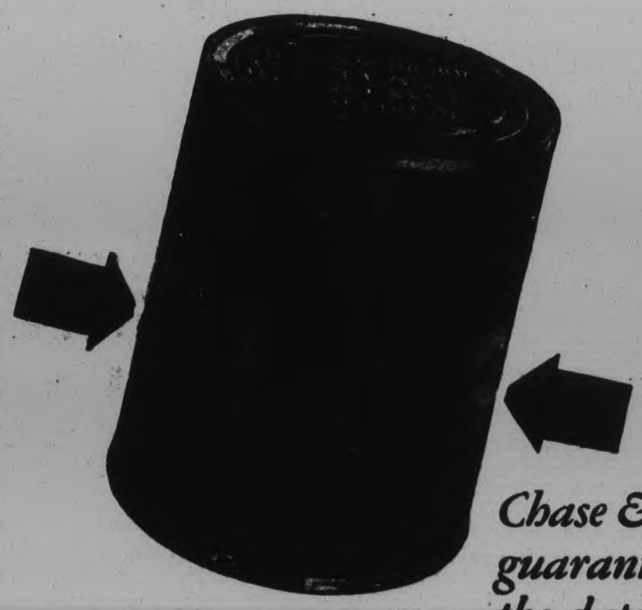
This can't be done overnight. To bring coffee to you fresh from the roaster requires a great, nation-wide delivery system, functioning perfectly at every point. And to build up such a system has taken years and years of the most painstaking and costly work. The system used by Chase & Sanborn is the same great delivery system whose swift trucks every day carry fresh Fleischmann's Yeast to thousands of grocers and bakers all over the Dominion.

This system has been 50 years in the making. It stands today as the greatest achievement in the history of grocery merchandising. And it stands alone . . . unrivalled.



Chase & Sanborn's Coffee is guaranteed fresh... look for the date on every tin

LIBERIA SEEKS FINANCIAL AID

Delegate Claims Republic Appears Not as Accused State, But as Self-Accuser.

WILLING TO REFORM.

GENEVA, January 22 (C.P.). — Liberia's permanent delegate to the League of Nations, directing sharp criticism at the recent report of an International Commission on slavery in the Black Republic, to-day told the League Council his country repudiated any suggestion that Liberia could be compelled to accept the dictation — financial or political—of any "superstate."

Liberia's worst trouble, Antoine Sottile, the Liberian delegate said, is not human slavery. The African Republic appears before the League not as an accused stated, but as a self-accuser, he delared.

She would welcome financial aid from the League, he said, which would enable her to shake off financial bondage and maintain her sovereignty and self-respect. Nevertheless, Liberia accepts the International Commission's recommendations for reform and is ready to carry them out so far as her resources permit. Those resources, Sottile asserted, are not sufficient to carry out the recommendations completely.

Cuthbert Christy, the British chairman of the Liberian Commission, agrees that Liberia was not financially able to carry out the proposed reforms without assistance.

POLICE SEEKING KITLEY FARMER

Ernest Hanna Charged With Attacking Wife and 2 Children With Manure Fork.

DISAPPEARED IN BUSH.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., January 22 (C.P.). — Provincial Police were to-day searching the woods and farming country in Kitley Township for Ernest Hanna, a middle-aged farmer, who is charged with attacking his wife and two children with a manure fork yesterday after an altercation.

The alleged attack occurred on the farm of Hanna's father-in-law, John Code, who lives near New Bliss. After informing Code he had "killed two of them," Code says Hanna left for the woods carrying a gun.

Mrs. Hanna is said to have received a wound requiring 11 stitches to close. The children were not seriously injured.

SPIRIT OF WEST

six more years I buy a buggy. We still use the buggy. 'Course, I have car now," pointing proudly out to his modest gas-carriage against the curb. "But the children still ride in the buggy."

Hard times can still be merry times, I learned. Pastor Rondeay of Hazenmore recalled several Christmas Trees at country schoolhouses he had visited a couple of weeks ago in the south country where the worst of the destitution is to be found: "hundred at this school, a hundred and fifty at that; everybody smiling and happy. You'd never know they were up against it. A wonderful spirit" he marvelled.

I like to think of the Tuxis boys at Limerick. The Church Board having ordered strictest economy, the boys were told that all mid-week activities would have to cease because of the fuel required to heat the church. One ingenious youth had an idea. The boys went down to the coal dealer of Limerick and offered to unload his next car for him in return for coal. He accepted their offer. They put on their old clothes and polished off that 40 ton carload in a trifle over two hours, winding up with hot-dogs and coffee in the basement of the church. Their labore netted them $9.60 in coal and the midweek activities are going strong.

Roaring Old Game

Every town from Assiniboia to Shaunavon has its curling rink and its skating rink, and never before was there such enthusiasm over the 'roaring' game! The women curl in the afternoons and the men in the evenings. They talk all next day about the game played last night and Old Man Depression doesn't get into the conversation. In recognition of financial stringency, annual fees have been cut from $10 to $5 and one town is letting farmers come in for $3. In the village of Lafleche, there are 64 curlers, and an average of 100 more use the skating rink every night so that the Municipality, which erected the rink, is of the opinion that it is paying dividends in good cheer even if the debenture payment isn't met this winter.

"In good times a farmer hardly ever saw his neighbors.

When he had a spare half day he'd hop into his car and drive into Moose Jaw or Regina and spend twenty-five or fifty dollars, coming back thinking he had a big time. This winter there's far more sociability." This was volunteered by one of the Birss boys at Limerick.

"Hard time dances" and socials are filling the gap left by the picture shows. Owners of halls are letting them free or for the most nominal of sums to be used for the purpose. Orchestras are offering their services for the love of performing. Fifty cents admission fee for the gentlemen and ladies free is a common charge; some dances let the gallant gentlemen in for a quarter.

Farmers are showing ingenuity in cutting the cost of living. The grist mill has come into its own, and more than half the flour now being used along the line is milled right there from wheat grown in most instances on the grain growers own land. Flour at the store at Lafleche grist mill it was $1.70. Not quite so white a flour, but as fine and as palatable, from what I heard. Various types of breakfast food are being made in the same way at a fraction of store prices. Some farmers boil the whole wheat for porridge, with or without raisins, and report it to be good fare.

"We've had our ups and we've had our downs. This is one of the downs. There's better times coming." I thought that sentiment from a Lafleche farmer summed up their philosophy admirably.

Argentina has approved the construction of 1,200 miles of toll roads from Buenos Aires to Bahia Blanca, and to Cordoba by way of Rosario.

SECTIONAL RALLY PRESIDENTS REPORT AT UNITED PRESBYTERIAL

Department Secretaries Render Excellent Reports at Meeting of W.M.S.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Continuing the sessions of the annual Presbyterial on Wednesday morning, with the president, Mrs. S. H. Moyer in the chair, devotional services were in charge of the George Street W.M.S. with Miss E. C. McCamus leading, and of Mrs. J. John who was unable to preside over her section because of recent removal from city. A resolution was unanimously carried that a message of sympathy be sent Mrs. John from the Presbyterial. Mrs. F. J. Burgess reported for the Lakefield section and Mrs. M. J. Johnston for the Springville section. Mrs. H. J. Bell, of Hastings, was unable to preside over her section on account of illness, Mrs. A. E. Metcalfe taking charge and reported for her.

In reporting the work of the Strangers' Department, Mrs. H. Robb of Norwood, stated that many workers do not realize the importance of the work of this department.

The Auxiliary Strangers' Secretary must be on her job every day so that one opportunity may not escape her. The strangers include boys and men who have come from abroad to work on farms, student nurses, high school pupils, business girls, etc., and visiting these as well as the sick is the duty of the Strangers' secretary. During the year 182 strangers were visited by the secretaries; 39 removals were reported, 114 sick were visited in hospitals and 60 visited on return from hospital. A total of 40 strangers were cared for. Some reported clothing, bedding and food sent to needy families, in addition to flowers, etc., to sick people.

Mrs. A. Porteous.

Mrs. A. Porteous, secretary of the Associate Helpers' Department, brought in her report. Fifteen auxiliaries were reported to have appointed Associate Helpers' Secretaries, ten of these having returned annual reports the forms of which had been sent out by Mrs. Porteous. These ten report seventy-five members and eighteen have subscribed for the Missionary Monthly. Seven have joined the Auxiliary and the sum of $53.46 has been contributed by them. Much good work has been done by this Department, which cannot be taulatebd.

Splendid Reports.

A splendid Missionary Monthly report was given by Mrs. W. H. Herrington, the past secretary for this department.

To interest our women in reading is a vital part in the work of this secretary. We cannot have this great work at heart without knowing what our missionaries are doing or how our money is being spent and this information is fully given in this W.M.S. magazine. It is valuable from cover to cover, outlining the programs for the Y.W.A., Circles and Bands.

Mrs. A. F. Bookhout, Supply Secretary, presented an excellent report of her work which is of paramount importance. The allocation to this department was practically the same as last year, when the allocation was received it was redistributed in as fair a division as possible to the different organizations. In October the bales were called in and nearly everything received was the best possible for winter relief, and consisted of quilts, flannelette blankets, clothing and underwear, sweaters, hose and mittens as well as handkerchiefs, towels, etc. The total of the bales amounted to about $775.

Much of the sup plies went for the great need at present in Saskatchewan, forwarded from Peterborough to the Supply Secretary of Assiniboia Presbyterial in southern Saskatchewan and also the northern part, for distribution.

Many useful bales went to our home mission stations in Peterborough Presbyterial and a great many letters of gratitude were received from the recipients.

The report of the Press Secretary was delivered by Mrs. John Bradbury, showing seventeen auxiliaries had press secretaries.

The report of the Literature Secretary, Mrs. James Seymour, gave the number of auxiliaries using the Study Book as twenty. Two C.G.I.T. groups and three Mission Bands use the Study Books. Sixteen of the study books had been purchased through the Literature Department. Fifty-two copies of the annual report of the W.M.S. were also purchased. Fourteen socieities were using the suggested program leaflet.

Mrs. A. J. Plunkett, Presbyterial Secretary of Temperance Education, in her report stated that fifteen out of the twenty-two temperance secretaries submitted reports of the year's work done in their auxiliaries. Four of these reported having at each meeting devoted a short period to temperance education. It was found by one secretary that a few moments taken with the Watch Tower keeps the members in touch with the latest developments of this important subject.

Officers Installed.

The report of the nominating committee was read by the convenor, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham. The slate was adopted and Mrs. R. G. Lawlor, B.A., of Norwood, conducted a beautiful and impressive installation service.

The election of Mrs. E. N. McDonald, of Cottesloe, and Mrs. George Whitfield, of Springville, as delegates to the Branch conference took place. A nominating committee was appointed composed of the presidents of the auxiliaries of Trinity, George Street, St. Andrew's, St. James' and Mark Street and two executive members, Mrs. F. J. Burgess and Mrs. S. H. Moyer.

A Finance Committee is composed of the Presbyterial Treasurer, Miss R. A. Moir, the secretary of Finance, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, Mrs. James Gerrard, Mrs. H. Dulmage and Mrs. A. J. Throop.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. William Watt on behalf of the Knox Auxiliary to hold the Presbyterial meeting in that Church next year and was accepted.

"A Few Quiet Moments" was in charge of Mrs. R. Bonney, of Havelock, who referred to the need in our lives of taking time for periods of meditation and prayer. She exhorted the members to love one another and to work harmoniously together, remembering that each is a temple in which the Holy Spirit may dwell. After a few moments of silence, Mrs. Bonney closed the meeting with prayer.

At a meeting of the executive during lunch hour, a sub executive was appointed, composed of Mrs. A. I. Brown, Mrs. J. F. Allan, Mrs. E. J. Wagar, Mrs. B. L. Barns and Mrs. John Bradbury.

Horse Goes Through Ice On The Otonabee

Driving his horse and cutter across the ice-bound Otonabee river yesterday, Robert Matchett of Otonabee township had the alarming experience of seeing his horse step into a hole and go under water, fortunately without dragging the cutter after it. Help was close at hand, and the unfortunate beast was hauled from the icy water, by several pairs of willing hands tugging strenuously on ropes. The mishap occurred in the vicinity of Rye's boathouse, and is the second incident of that nature to occur on the Otonabee this season.

Hair dyed a light sapphire is a new vogue among women in Paris.

Hunter Joins Tilden In Pro. Tennis Ranks

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(CP)—The influence of "Bill" Tilden, one of the most important factors in the tennis career of Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., publisher, has led him to join the ranks of professional players. Hunter announced his decision to turn pro yesterday and gave as the principal reason for his decision a desire to follow the path of his friend and doubles partner.

"It is a source of much pleasure to me to announce that I have joined "Bill" Tilden in his new enterprise," Hunter said. "I have been so closely allied with him in tennis for so many years that I scarcely felt that I have made any change."

Hunter will join the exhibition being arranged by Jack Curley for Tilden's professional debut in Madison Square Garden, Feb. 18, but will not follow in the tour Tilden and Karel Kozeluh will make later. His business as publisher of a New Rochelle newspaper keeps him close to home and his exhibitions will be limited to week-end appearances in the east.

THREE GIRLS' GAMES ON FRIDAY EVENING

Senior "Y" Quintet Will Clash With Elementary in Opener.

To-morrow evening, commencing at 8 p.m., six teams of the Ladies' City Basketball League will see action on the Y.W.C.A. floor in what promises to be a most exciting and thrilling triple header.

Cage followers throughout the city are well advised to visit the "Y" and see the teams in action and are assured of a fine evening's entertainment as no team spares anything when victory is in sight, and even the losing squads always put up the most stubborn opposition imaginable.

In the opener, the strong "Y" senior quintet will meet the "Y" Elementary team and the Elementary squad will be working hard to break into the win column.

In the second contest of the evening, Wohelo tangle with the fast Westclox outfit and the Clockmakers will be working overtime in an effort to keep up with the "Y" Seniors.

The final struggle of the night will start at 9 p.m. and will bring together the undefeated St. Paul's five and the Blue Petes, a new entry in the league. Little is known regarding the ability of the "Petes" but they face an acid test when they run against the Presbyterians who are regarded as one of the strongest teams in the group.

In all these game, should attract a record crowd and fans will not be disappointed in the brand of basketball displayed.

Cogs And C. G. E. In Tie For Second Position

CLUBMEN GAIN ON ELECTRICS BY REASON OF THEIR 5 TO 3 VICTORY OVER THE MECHANICS

Jones, Williams, Lebarr and Cripps Are Goal-getters For Winners.

FEW PENALTIES.

Both Teams Fail to Score in First Stanza, Livening Up in Second.

In the speediest, and one of the most brilliant displays of hockey during the present season, the Cogs last night bored their way through to a 5-3 decision over their East Peterborough League rivals, the C.G.E. Toolroom squad. Besides speed the play throughout lacked nothing in strategy and cleanliness, and mighty few of the puck chasers' were penalised for infractions of the rules by Referee Walter Jackson.

It was somewhat surprising in view of the high tone of the game, and in face of the fact that the pick of local hockey stars, were billed, that the attendance was disappointing; probably zero weather conditions played a large part in keeping many away, while counter attractions would also account for a further percentage. Certain it is that 'fandom' cheated itself of a rare treat.

The Line Ups

Cogs—Payne and Foley, goal; Lebarr and Williams, defence; Jones, Maudsley and Dallin, forwards; Wilson, Cripps, Calladine and Jarvis, subs.

C.G.E. — Hollingsworth, goal; Swanger and Lackey; defence, H. Epps, Creighton and Hatton, forwards; Williams, R. Epps, Hayden and Howe, subs.

Summary:

First Period.

No score.

Penalties—Cogs: Lebarr.

Second Period.

1—Cogs, Jones (Maudsley and Williams), 7 minutes.

2—C.G.E., Williams (Hayden), 4 minutes.

C.G.E., H. Epps, 30 seconds.

4—Cogs, Jones (Maudsley), 4 minutes.

5—Cogs, Williams, 3 minutes.

Penalties—Cogs: Williams, Wilson, Jones; C.G.E., Creighton.

Third Period.

6—Cogs, Lebarr, 15 minutes.

7—C.G.E., Howe, 2 minutes.

8—Cogs, Cripps, 1 minute.

Penalties—None.

C.G.E.-COG GAME.

The opening stanza of the game was not productive of any goals; both teams seemingly testing out the metal of the other, preferring to remain on the defensive and make sure of their ground before venturing on the whirlwind tactics which later was to characterise the efforts of the combined teams. True there were some isolated efforts to bulge the twine, but both goal tenders were on the alert for long shots, and were equal to the occasion when play would centre about the net.

From the opening signal of the referee's bell, in the second period, however, the game livened up to hurricane speed and within a space of seven minutes Jones drew first blood for the Cogs, being assisted by Maudsley and Williams in a neat exhibition of combination play. It was the incentive to renewed effort and Wilson, a member of Manager Ranger's squad, gave Hollingsworth a terrible scare with a hard shot from centre ice. The goalie turned it neatly aside. Taking possession of the rubber Lackey dribbled it for the enemy goal, but was forestalled by Wilson, who was sent to the box for bumping.

C.G.E. Evens Count.

Shortly afterwards Williams, on a nice pass from Hayden, evened up the score for the Toolmakers. Then followed some whirlwind play, and thirty seconds later the net again budged with a counter to the credit of C.G.E., H. Epps unassisted, had seized a golden opportunity, from the lap of the gods, and had made good use of it. Continuing on the aggressive tack, the C.G.E. squad had the leadership of Hatton who put up a good showing. They could not outclass the Cogs' defence line, however, and in the meantime the Cogs' forwards were not at all inactive. Soon opportunity was to knock at their door also. It did—and Jones scored off Maudsley tieing the count. Maudsley starred at this particular juncture, chisseling a lone path through the enemy forward line, where he was brought to an abrupt halt by the defence men. His strategy brought the toolmakers scurrying to ward off the attack and in the ensuing scrimmage Williams added another tally for the Cogs, on his own initiative. Three minutes to go, to the end of the period, and the frozen puck slashed from centre ice by H. Epps, hit the Cogs' goalie in the face. He was temporarily dazed, but played out the remaining seconds of the frame. In the third instalment Foley minded goal for the Cogs, and did so in good style.

It looked like another counter for C.G.E., H. Epps playing a lone hand, and almost penetrating Foley's guard. 'Red' Creighton was all cut too, in a brilliant attempt to retrieve the honor of his team. It was to no avail; the individual rushes as was to be expected not producing effective results, such as more team work might have done. Lackey and R. Epps of the C.G.E. apparently realizing the pressing need for co-operation, did combine and took the offensive and throughout the entire game Howe preformed as a first-rater for the Mechanics, giving assistance just where it was badly needed and clearing openings for the insertion of the driving wedge of the forwards.

Lebarr Counts Sixth.

On the opposing side Lebarr played with his customary coolness and in the final stage of the game, the goal which he did score unassisted did not come as a surprise. It had been anticipated by the eager spectators on the other side of the boards. There was method in the manner in which he repeatedly steered the puck down the left wing and method also in the way in which he popped it unerringly into the net.

Howe still proving the worth of keen, concentrated play, wove in and out the whole armour of the Cogs' defence, at top speed, and registered the third and final tally for the Electrics, three minutes from time.

The play suddenly veering to the other end of the ice, afforded Cripps the chance to put in the Cogs final contribution. Warming to praiseworthy effort Hatton came close to repeating Howe's previous performance, penetrating the Cogs' defence and spoiling a beautiful chance of another shot into goal, by tripping headlong over the custodian, who had rushed forward in a determined effort to prevent what seemed to be an inevitable conclusion.

SECOND PLACE TEAMS BATTLE FOR POSITION

Leafs and Maroons Meeting For Fourth Time This Season.

BRUINS AT AMERKS.

Canadiens and Hawks Favored to Add Points to Win Averages.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22 (C.P.)—Second place in the Canadian section of the National Hockey League is the victor's reward in to-night's encounter between Toronto and Maroons at Montreal. While their fellow townsmen are endeavoring to snatch the second rung from the Leafs, Montreal Canadiens will be trying conclusions for the fourth time with Ottawa Senators.

Two All-American tilts complete the program. Boston journeys to New York for their third engagement of the season, while Chicago Blackhawks appear certain of two points as they entertain the tail-end Philadelphia Quakers.

The Toronto-Maroon contest headlines the card, for there are no more evenly matched teams in the league. They have clashed four times during the current season with honors even. The Leafs won the first tilt in Montreal, 3 to 0, only to lose the return in Toronto, 2 to 1. The third encounter at Montreal ended in a 4-all tie, while the fourth at Arena Gardens went to the Leafs, 2 to 0.

Toronto's defeat at the hands of the Maroons and the stalemate occurred while they were minus two of their "Kid" stars. They entrained for Montreal this morning at full strength and a repetition of the game which they turned in against Canadiens last Saturday will enable them to provide the Munromen with something more than ordinary competition.

Is Off-Season

Ottawa Senators are apparently having an off season. It wasn't long ago that the visit of Canadiens meant a rousing battle ad most likely two points for the Senators. Now the shoe is on the other foot and, while the Senators are certain to give their last ounce of energy to gain a victory over the group leaders, the odds appear too great.

It will be the fourth meeting between the old rivals. The Red Shirts have been victorious twice at home by decisive margins, but they were lucky to eke out a 5 to 4 triumph over the Ottawans in the Capital.

The teams will be practically at full strength and Bytown fans will no doubt see one of the best games of the season for though their status on the top perch cannot be affected by defeat, the Red Devils do no fooling and neither do the Senators, though they are at the bottom of the Northern Division.

It is the "rubber" game between Bruins and Amerks. The Bostonians won their home game by the odd goal and the Star-Spangled hockeyists reciprocated at Madison Square Garden, winning by the odd tally in three. The Bruins have a three-point margin over the Blackhawks for the group leadership, but if they lose to the "A's" it is almost certain to be cut to half a game. The Gothamites are lodged in third place in the Canadian section, four points behind the Maroons and Leafs, and Eddie Gerard's pupils need victory badly to keep within striking distance of the coveted play-off berth.

In three games with the Quakers, the Chicagoans have garnered the limit of six points. They have scored a total of 17 goals against the Philadelphians five, and there is little doubt but what the Windy City speed artists will increase both totals as the game is in Chicago.

HORKINS SINKS WINNING TALLY FOR MILLERS IN 2ND OVERTIME PERIOD ON CAMPBELLFORD ICE

Teams Give Brilliant Exhibition of Scoreless Hockey For 72 Minutes.

SEVENTEEN PENALTIES.

Game is See-saw Offensive Affair From Start to Finish.

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 22 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—Staging one of those spectacular comebacks for which Campbellford is noted, the Maroons sent the Tweed aggregation back to their fold defeated by a score of 1 to 0, registered against them in a game that ranged through three scoreless period and two ten-minute overtime stretches, the only count of the game being made by Horkins for the Millers after two minutes of play in the second overtime period.

In one of the fastest games seen in Campbellford this year, the Trent Valley League fixture staged between the Home Towners and Tweed at the Davidson Arena last night not only gave the fans a splendid exhibition of hockey but proved to the world that the Millers can handle the stick and drive the puck to victory when they have a mind to.

With Fred Ingram on the line-up and Perry Sanders between the nets, the Green and Whites faced a different proposition last evening than they did in the two previous games played with Campbellford. Played on fast ice, Tweed angled for counters from start to finish, and despite many near goals, were driven back by the Millers' defence only to be attacked in turn. McGee, in their nets, saved them on many occasions from going down to defeat before the regular time was up.

Anybody's Battle

The first three periods of the game belonged to anyone. It was only when the overtime session started that the Millers stood up and took notice to the extent that they were able to ring a counter and keep the score in their favor. Campbellford proved the fastest aggregation, playing well up to their positions and giving few advantages away, while Tweed showed a steady performance, playing their usual good combination and featuring some swift attacks, following up the puck at each shot and at times becoming dangerous to the entertainers.

Max Board of Peterborough refereed the game and had a difficult task owing to the severe checking. Seventeeen penalties were handed out in all; seven registered against Tweed and ten against Campbellford. Most of these, however, were for unintentional tripping, and did not indicate the brand of hockey, which was as a whole, clean.

Tweed Takes Attack

The first period opened with a Tweed attack which brought the Maroons defence into action. Campbell however, registering a shot at the Miller nets. Play ranged in the Campbellford house for the first part of the period, with Tweed trying to work in for a tally, but Cowell brought many of their efforts to a finish by breaking through and driving in long shots at the Tweed goalie. The first penalty was registered against the Maroons when Fleming went into the box, followed after some minutes of fast play on the part of Whitton and Campbell by G. Geraldi, for tripping, Campbell keeping his partner company almost immediately for upsetting Smith. The Maroons from this point on started to take the offensive, Ingram doing some pretty work in breaking up the visitors' combination drives and giving Whitton and Horkins many assists from which however they were unable to tally. Back on the ice, Fleming came near to scoring when he made a lone rush and with only the goalie to hinder him, toppled on the ice almost on the crease, cutting McGee with his skate. Horkins was fenced as the bell rang for loitering.

Maroons Have Edge.

The second period sarted with a rush from centre ice by Whitton who shot but failed to count. Then started some real fast play by the entertainers, who made drive after drive, but were repulsed.

The Maroons however, had the edge on the play during this period, McGee in the visitors nets saving them from going down to defeat on many occasions. The Tweed forward line, however, starred with some nice breaks but Sanders for the Millers played a fine game in goal and kept the puck on the right side of the crease. Penalties were registered this session against A. Geraldi, Ingram, McArthur, Horkins, Cripps for Tweed did some hard work, doing his best to tally a counter, but McArthurs and Cowell were playing up to form and were impassable.

In the third period, Campbellford took the offensive, breaking through the Tweed line with some pretty combiantion by Ingram, Smith and Horkins. "T B" was put on the fence early in the period, Campbell trying to take advantage of this weakness, but to no avail. The Tweed territory became the home of the entertainers for many minutes at a time, especially when Smith and Whitton were on the front line. These two, with assistance from Makay, performing some pretty team work. The latter part of the session was featured by a surfeit of penalties, play becoming heavy and checking hard in an attempt by both teams to score the counting gaol. Cripps and A. Geraldi went off the ice for tripping, followed by Whitton and Flemming with Horkins and G. Geraldi coming in later.

The first ten minutes of overtime was fast and featured by heavy checking, each team trying for the advantage. With play evenly divided, the game looked as though it would go to either team. Many long shots were introduced in a hope of scoring, but the goalies were on to their job and stopped any attempt at that game. At the end of the session Ingram was penalized.

The second ten minutes was all Campbellford's. Playing up to their championship form, Whitton and Horkins worked themselves "wild" and gave the fans some real thrills. After two minutes of play Horkins scored on a pass from Whitton after breaking through Campbell and Marchen. The Maroons went on the defensive and held the count at 1-0 until the gong sounded and rang down the play on the first victory for the Marcons after four straight defeats.

FRED INGRAM IS QUALIFIED

Will be Allowed to Play for Campbellford, is Decision of T.V.L. Executive.

CAMPBELLFORD, January 22 (Examiner Staff Correspondent). — Fred Ingram will again be seen on the line-up of the Campbellford Maroons, but Ted Owens, the Millers' goalie, will have to take a back seat for this year. This was the decision reached by the Trent Valley Hockey League at a meeting held in Stirling yesterday afternoon, called by the president, W. J. Whitty, and attended by delegates from the teams comprising the league.

Much contention was raised over the playing of these two men on the Campbellford team, that the scheduled game staged at Madoc on the 19th between that team and the Maroons was played under protest.

The reason put forward for the exclusion of Owens is that his card was not in by January 1. This matter was discussed by the meeting, who decided that following the rules of the league he would be unable to play this season.

Ingram's case, however, was a little different. Fred tried out this year with a pro. team but did not play, and in consequence, with other amateur players who did the same had his amateur card suspended. The A.A.U. of C., however, by their ruling given at a meeting over the week-end, cleared up the matter with the result that Ingram was given his amateur card. Then he played against Madoc for the millers with the result that some of the league took offence at his presence and tried to bar him from the Trent Valley League.

The excuse that the executive put up was that Ingram did not have his card signed by January 1 of this year. Fred, who attended the meeting, pointed out that the rules of the Trent Valley League did not state this, but read that a man must have his card in the hands of the secretary by the 1st. This point was undebatable, and as Ingram's card was in the hands of the secretary by January 1, there was no other option but to allow him to play.

Fred will make his first appearance on home ice to-night when the Maroons clash with Tweed in the scheduled fixture.

LAKEFIELD AT NORWOOD FRIDAY BRINGS OLD RIVALS TOGETHER

Norwood Needs Victory in Both Peterborough League and O.H.A.

LEAGUE TIGHTENS UP

The increasing interest in the East Peterborough Hockey League is now focused on Friday night's game in Norwood when Reg Murduff's unbeaten Lakefield team meets the eastern combines. This engagement counts not only in the Peterborough league but it is also an intermediate O.H.A. fixture, and Norwood is in the position where they virtually have to win to stay in both pictures.

Lakefield grabbed the first game at home, and another victory at Norwood will give them two wins in the O.H.A. group which these two teams comprise, and it will also tighten their hold on the leadership of the county league. By taking last nights game from the C.G.E. at Brock street, the Cogs are now tied with the Electrics for second place, and if Norwood turns the trick on Lakefield the East Peterborough group will be pretty well evened up. The present standing is:

	W.	T.	L.	Pts.
Lakefield	2	2	0	6
C.G.E.	2	1	1	5
Cogs	2	1	1	5
Norwood	0	0	3	0

If Norwood wins Friday night they will have two points to their credit while Lakefield, Cogs and C.G.E. will be separated by the slim margin of one point for the extra tie game in Lakefield's total, just as they are at present.

The Havelock-Norwood combines should draw a big house tomorrow night, and the fans from the east end of the local circuit are assured of one of the big nights of the season. Lakefield rooters will probably go down in fairly large numbers, and some of the Peterborough followers of the new league are also going. The road to Norwood is plowed all the way, and motoring is excellent.

Cogs delighted their followers last night by a big reversal of form on their Wednesday night set-back in Lakefield. And it wasnt so much a reversal as it was simply the fact that the bigger ice suits their free style of playing. The encouraging fact so far is that the four teams in the new league are exceptionally well balanced, and anything is likely to happen as the race extends through the schedule.

Next week's schedule includes a double-header at Brock street Tuesday night. The local fans are advised to keep this date for the twin bill:

Belleville Beaten By Queen's Seniors

Tricolor Evens Series in Close Game—Score is 3 to 1.

KINGSTON, Jan. 22. — Queen's senior "B" team scored a brilliant 3 to 1 victory over Belleville at the Harty Arena last night and evened up the series between the two teams. On the play Queen's deserved to win, and the score was a fair indication of the difference in the teams.

Queen's superior defense halted the visitors, who had doubled the score on the Tricolor a week ago in Belleville, while Queen's forwards showed more finish to their work. Morris haved many certain goals, but on the whole the Tricolor had a slight margin.

GARNET AND GREY PLAYS LINDSAY IN SCUGOGVILLE

Locals in Group With L.C.I. and Uxbridge — Will Play Off With Section 2 Winners.

PROMISING TEAM.

The Peterborough Collegiate basketball team will open their annual campaign for basketball honours when they tangle with the fast moving Lindsay quintet Saturday afternoon in Scugogville.

It will be remembered that last year's Garnet and Grey team defeated Cobourg for group honours and also were victorious over Belleville Collegiate in a play-off series for the championship of Central Ontario. This year's team however seems more promising than ever and with a month's practice under their belts appear headed for another successful season.

Three Team Group

The Secondary Schools' Association is looking after the basketball and hockey in the province, and due to the large number of teams entered, the local Collegiate were forced to be content with a three team group, Peterborough, Lindsay and Uxbridge.

This section is known as Group II and the winner, which must be declared by February 1, will play off in a two game series with the winners of group 1, which consists of Oshawa, Port Hope, Bowmanville and Cobourg.

This winner will be recognized as Central Ontario champions and must be ready to enter the O.A.B.A. playdowns by February 15.

Ontario Amateur Basketball rules will be used in all games and officials are to be secured by the home team.

The local Collegiate team which is coached by R. C. Cummings of the staff, is a well balanced and experienced squad of ball tossers and with the exception of three players, the team is intact from last year. Nelson Stanger, star defence man of last season's winners has been chosen captain and hopes to lead the boys to many cage victories, before the togs are put away for another year. The centre floor position will be looked after by "Howie" Macdonald, last year's captain, who has been with the team for several seasons and is an experienced campaigner. He will be teamed up with Vern Armstrong of rugby fame, who has been moved from his former defence position to the front line and with Jack Wolstenholme.

Other forwards with the squad who will see plenty of action are "Wib" Ward, speedy front line man, and Max Swartz, Art Ward, and Louis Chesler, newcomers to the Cummings' clan.

Working with Stanger on the defence will be 'Rags' Reynolds, regular defence man of two years back who is doing the comeback act and Doug Kelley a rookie who shows fine promise and teams up well with the rest of the boys. Art Ward is also able to drop back on the defence any time his services may be required and will probably see duty in both positions.

For all-round ability and experience this year's Garnet and Gray team appears to be the pick of any team turned out at the local Institute for several years.

Basketball fans will be pulling for the boys when they invade Lindsay Saturday and will be hoping that the team which has supplied the city with such fine basketball in the past will get off to a good start in what should be the most successful basketball campaign in the history of the school.

Syracuse Stars Tie Clevelanders 2-All

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—Syracuse Stars played impressively to hold Cleveland Indians to a 2-all tie in the only scheduled fixture in the International Hockey League last night.

Playing before a large crowd of home supporters the Stars surprised the fans by outplaying the title holders throughout and only lack of finish around the nets coupled with spectacular work by the Indian goalkeeper prevented them piling up a decisive margin.

U. S. TEAMS ARE LEADING LIST

Top-notch "American" Scorers are Canadian Boys Who Have Crossed Border.

MORE NEW RECORDS.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22 (CP)—With more than half of the National hockey league's 44-game schedule finished, "Hot Stove" statisticians are musing on the whys and wherefores of hockey statistics, and on the interesting fact that teams representing American cities are outscoring their Canadian rivals with somewhat monotonous regularity. At the same tim, the statisticians are making careful note of the fact that the leading "American" scorers are Canadian boys who have crossed the border in recent years.

Careful scrutiny reveals the fact that Boston has played 25 games so far this season. Of these, the boys from Beacon Hill have won 16. They have been beaten six times, and have shared the points three times. In achieving this, they have scored a total of 81 goals, and had 51 scored against them.

Meanwhile Montreal Canadiens, sometimes known as the Crimson tide from their pleasant little habit of oft-times flooding the opposition, have played 24 games. In 14 cases, they have won. They have been defeated seven times, and have tied their opponents three times. In all, the tide has scored 68 goals, and 55 goals have been registered against them.

But it is in the individual scoring statistics that the boys from across the line are well in front. Taking the first six men in the American sections, the statisticians find that Goodfellow, Detroit; Frank Cook, Bill Cook and Boucher of 82 goals, and 65 assists, between them.

The six leading Canadian group scorers are Morenz, Canadiens, Bailey and Jackson, Toronto; Stewart and Siebert, Montreal, and Lamb of Ottawa. Altogether this sextette has scored 72 goals and 42 assists.

Another Record

Another Canadian-American, Gardner of Chicago, has shutout his opposition oftener than anyone else. He holds the 1930-31 record of nine shutouts so far, four of them being consecutive ones.

Still another Canadian-American, Harvey Rockburn, is the most penalized player in the league, having been "chased" for a total of 86 minutes. In fairness to Harvey, however, it may be pointed out that the anti-defense rule and many other "technical" penalties, have added considerably to his total. Harvey is not a "bad man" but is just somewhat unfortunate in that the referee happens to be looking at the wrong time.

Four Good Fixtures In Church Loop Bill

To-night four Church Hockey League games are listed for All Saints' Rink. The first two will be Midget affairs, with Trinity and Mark Street, starting at six o'clock and All Saints' and Knox coming on at seven. At eight, St. Paul's and George Street battle in a juvenile fixture, and the junior games between George Street and All Saints' begins at nine.

The games seen so far in this league have been fast and hard-fought, with few penalties handed out. With good ice promised for to-night, there should be plenty of action for the fans.

Two Chicago Players Deadlocked For Honors

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (C.P.) — Two Chicago players were deadlocked for first place to-day in the world's championship three-cushion billiard tournament.

As a result of their victories yesterday Allen Hall and Arthur Thurnbald, the Northern section chapions have a record of two triumphs and no defeats. Otto Reiselt of Philadelphia idle yesterday, has won one and lost none.

Galt Increases Lead In Ontario League

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 22. (CP)—Galt Terriers increased their lead at the top of the ladder. Guelph Maple Leafs regained second place and Oshawa Pats became sole occupants of the cellar position as the result of three matches played in the Ontario Hockey League last night.

The league leading Terriers overcame a three goal lead at Stratford to emerge victors after overtime, 4 to 3, while the Leafs were also forced to come from behind to beat Niagara Falls, 4 to 2. Kitchener broke their last place partnership with Oshawa by nosing out the Pats 1 to 0.

Boston Hockey Club Leaves For Poland

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A solitary rooter, Dick Harlowe of Boston, is on his way to Poland with the Boston Hockey Club, United States' representative in the International Hockey Championships at Krynica next month. The club sailed last night on the Bremen, the last boat that would get them to Europe in time to gather the necessary funds. A collection taken at the Boston-Ottawa National League hockey game Tuesday netted $1,647.25, and Charles Adams, President of the Boston Bruins, added a contribution of $500, which enabled the team to make the trip. One player, "Tink" Hall, was left behind because he failed to apply for a passport in time.

Two next door neighbours were found dead in their homes at the same time, but from separate natural causes, in Brighton, England.

Italy expects to save more than $400,000,000 a year as the result of the recent reduction of government and other salaries.

Rangers "C" Company Win Softball Decision

In two scheduled games in the Garrison Softball League, played at the Armouries, Rangers' "C" Company and the Artillery emerged the victors. The first game was played under protest on account of Bill Simmons, who is not a member, pitching for "C" Company.

In the opening game, between "C" Company and Headquarters, the latter had to be content with the short end of an 11—7 score. Simmons kept the losers' hits well scattered, and only in the fifth did they get more than one run. The winners bunched their hits in the first and sixth innings for enough to win the game.

Artillery took Rangers' "D" Company into camp in the second game to the tune of 13—8. Thirnbeck, on the mound for the winners, had a slight edge over Griffin, the losers' hurler, but it was the latter team's errors that gave the Gunmen their win. Both teams batted the moundsmen freely enough.

"CANADA HOUSE."

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 22. (By Thos. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Hon. George Howard Ferguson becomes high commissioner for Canada in London exactly 50 years after this office was created. The first high commissioner was Sir Alexander Galt, who held office from 1860 to 1883. He was succeeded by Sir Charles Tupper, 1884-1895. Then came the long tenure of Lord Strathcona, which lasted until 1914. Upon the death of Lord Strathcona Hon. G. H. Perley, then minister without portfolio in the Borden government, came to London with the intention of remaining here a few months and conducting an inquiry into the state of the high commissioner's office. The war broke soon after his arrival and in consequence Sir George Perley, (he was knighted in 1914) remained for eight years. He was for a time overseas minister of militia, and towards the close was appointed high commissioner. Hon. Peter Larkin was appointed high commissioner by the Mackenzie King government in 1922, and continued until his death last February.

When Mr. Larkin came to London the high commissioner's office was in the same dingy set of chambers in Victoria street where it had been established in 1880. Even 30 years years ago there was desultory talk in establishing in London a "Canadian House" which should in itself be a dignified advertisement of the Dominion. Sir Wilfred Laurier was strongly disposed towards securing the Grand Hotel facing Trafalgar Square. Lord Strathcona, though, was unwilling to leave the modest official habitation in Victoria street. The late Earl Grey, it will be remembered, had an ambitious idea for the Dominions all to be established on what is known as the Aldwych Site, a large tract upon which the London County Council had demolished a lot of unsavory property. Australia did establish itself here in a building which is certainly impressive and is also believed to have proved highly expensive to the commonwealth. After Mr. Larkin's arrial the lease of the offices in Victoria street were given up and the Canadian high commissioner established himself for 12 months in Pall Mall East. Meanwhile Canada secured a Crown lease of the Union Club in Trafalgar Square. This building was originally designed in 1820 by Sir Robert Smirke. It was entirely reconditioned and much enlarged on behalf of the Canadian government by Septimus Warwick, and was opened by the King, Her Majesty the Queen also attending, in July 1925.

Although it is exactly 50 years since the first high commissioner for Canada was appointed, one has to go back very much further to trace the early establishment of a direct official Canadian representative in London. The government of Nova Scotia had an agent-general here in 1794, Lower Canada in 1812 and British Columbia in 1857. Edward Jenkins, M.P., author of a book, "Ginx's Baby," which had a great popularity, was the first representative appointed by the Dominion government. He came here in 1874, and was styled agent-general for Canada.

It is interesting to note that the first high commissioner, Sir Alexander Galt, was appointed in 1880 largely because of certain difficulties in regard to the transport of settlers. The Canadian Pacific Railway was then only in the course of construction. Emigrants had to go through the United States, and many of them were intercepted en route. Sir Alexander Galt was accompanied to England by J. G. Colmer who was eventually appointed secretary to the high commissioner's office. After some years Mr. Colmer became a partner in a well-known firm of London stockbrokers. He is still met at dinners of the Canada Club. He was succeeded as secretary by W. L. Griffith, who is now living in retirement in Kent. Lucien Pacaud became Secretary on Mr. Larkin's arrival. It is probable that he will shortly return to Canada to assume some office at Ottawa.

GERMAN WORRIES HEARD BY LEAGUE

REPARATION UNDER WAY.

GENEVA, Switzerland, January 21 (C.P.). — The Foreign Ministers of Germany and Poland to-day debated their minorities controversy before the League of Nations Council, through a morning of sharp nationalistic thrusts tempered by suggestions of moderation and a spirit of conciliation.

Dr. Julius Curtius, for Germany summarized Germany's charges that the German minority in Upper Silesia had been systematically oppressed by the Poles during the recent election campaigns there. August Zaleski, for Poland, said the reports of disorders in Silesia had been greatly exaggerated, but that Poland already had begun to punish the guilty and to arrange material reparation to those injured in the election riots.

HUDSON BAY RATE BEING FIGURED

Gov't Aids in Task So Insurance May Be Set For Wheat Shipping From Churchill.

STUDY PAST CONDITIONS.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 22.—(C.P.)—To assist the Imperial Shipping committee in negotiating a marine insurance rate for the Hudson's Bay route, the Canadian Government has forwarded to England all the meterological data collected in recent years, together with the logs of all ships that have passed through the Straits. It is expected the committee will succeed in negotiating a rate before navigation opens next summer and that it will be in effect when the first wheat is moved out of Churchill harbor in September.

The meterological data was collected by the Government radio stations in the north and extends back several years. It includes temperature readings, ice conditions both in the Bay and in the Straits visibility records and general information that would be of assistance in striking a marine insurance rate. Records also of wrecks and marine casualties were included.

FINED FIFTY CENTS FOR NOT SHOVELLING

Four Residents of Halifax's 400 District Arraigned in Police Court.

(Special to The Examiner. Copyright, 1931)

HALIFAX JAN. 22.— Ten residents od this city were arraigned in the Police Court and fined 50 cents each, (no costs) or one day in the "coop", for the violation of the snow removal act of the city. Thereby hangs a tale

The city's ordinance states that on all streets after any snow-storm, the sidewalks must be cleaned off to width of ten feet and the gutters appertaining to the householders property must be cleaned out so as to accommodate any water in case of thaw So far so good.

But—it seems that after the last heavy storm the residents, after cleaning off the sidewalks, had the misfortune of having the city plows come around and dump a lot of snow just where they had cleaned. And they neglected to reclean the snow away It also seemed that the city itself was not living up to the letter of their own laws since they did not clean off their sections of the streets on which no properties bordered.

The upshot of the situation which was given some prominence in daily press, was that these ten residents of the elite street were taken to court and fined the modest sum of 50 cents without costs They all paid

Shortly after the case was cleaned up, a heavy snow storm set and it looked as if the city's officers would be in the way for a large number of arrests under the same ordinance.

MARRIED WOMEN TO BE JOBLESS

200 Telephone Operators Who Have Support of Husbands to be Laid Off.

AID TO UNEMPLOYMENT.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 22.—All married women employed as operators in the telephone exchanges of greater Boston will be laid off on January 26, the only exceptions being cases where husbands are unemployed and incapable of supporting the family. This decision, affecting about 200 operators, was taken by the telephone company to meet "its problem of force distribution in the face of slack business."

"In so doing," said the company, "the management is observing a recommendation of the State's Committee on Unemployment Relief, which, however, is supported by its own judgment as the most equitable step in such an emergency."

"Within the metropolitan division, the entire group of central offices, because of their inter-relationship, had to be treated as one unit, and it was decided that, instead of allotting period ical days off to all employees, it would be far more equitable first to lay off married women living with husbands able to support their families. In some of the large centres outside the metropolitan division, similar emergencies have been met by allotting one or more days off per week or per month, as the case might be among the entire force of a given central office.

"In its announcement to its employees, the telephone Company made it clear that its action was taken not because of a purpose to discriminate against married women as such, but to meet in the most equitable way a situation which, for the time being, would require a reduction in its force of employees."

Canadian Gold Bars Replace Old Coins

OTTAWA, Jan. 22 (C.P.)—Canadian gold coins, which were exceedingly popular some years ago, are not manufactured nowadays at the Royal Mint, nor have they been minted since the year 1913. This information was obtained by The Citizen at the Mint here recently. It is thought there may not be any more gold coinage in the Dominion for a long time. International exchanges are generally settled in gold bullion.

The Mint is making gold bars, though, and these are being stored, distributed throughout the Dominion, or shipped abroad, as the occasion demands.

It is understood that the Finance Department of the Government has more than $100,000,000 in gold bullion in its possession at the present time. The Mint also at present contains 1,000,000 ounces of silver to be used in making silver coins.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN No. 12 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Jane closed and made fast the hatch upon the sodden sailors. Next she sought the galley and found food. From the deck of the Kincaid she saw nothing on the surface of the water to cause her alarm for several hours. Then came Rokoff in his dugout and when the fellow attempted to climb on the ship, he found Jane's rifle staring him in the face. As there was no alternative, the Russian slipped back into his dugout.

Though in danger of being swept to sea he finally succeeded in making the shore far down the bay and upon the opposite side from that on which the Beasts of Tarzan stood snarling and roaring. Jane felt she had no further fear of attack by him. She knew that alone and unaided he could not bring his heavy craft back upstream to the Kincaid. But toward evening she was suddenly alarmed by a wild din on shore.

From the Kincaid's deck she could see the hideous crew of beasts pacing the shore. She thought she recognized them as the same odd assortment that had passed her in the jungle far up the Ugambi several days before. It seemed beyond reason that there could be more than one such pack—but what had brought them downstream to the mouth of the river, she could not imagine.

Then on the opposite bank the shouting of the Russian attracted her attention. She saw him frantically waving his tattered shirt above his head as if to signal something. She followed the direction of his gaze and a moment later she was terrified to see a ship's boat coming down the stream. In it she felt certain, there could only be members of the Kincaid's missing crew—only heartless ruffians and enemies.

Mr. Walter L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George A. McGahey wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of a loving wife and daughter. Also for the beautiful floral tributes sent.

IN MEMORIAM

RODY.—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Michael Rody, who departed this life one year ago to-day, Jan. 22, 1930.

We are sad within our memory,
Lonely are our hearts to-day,
For the one we loved so dearly
Has forever been called away.
We think of her in silence;
No eyes can see us weep
But many silent tears are shed
When others are asleep.
—Sadly missed by Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lafave; Brother and Sisters; also by her Husband and little family.

IN MEMORIAM

HEALEY.—In loving memory of our dear Mother, who died Jan. 22, 1930.

Yes, dear mother, how we miss you,
But you are gone to happy rest,
When the angels throng around you
And they will crown you with the blest.

All your days of pain and sorrow,
All your weary nights are past,
All earth's toils for you are ended,
You are safe in heaven at last.
—Inserted by her daughter, Mrs. T. Bacon.

OBITUARY

MARY EDNA STUBBS

The death occurred this morning of Mary Edna Stubbs at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. William Yelland, 207 Murray street. She is survived by two brothers, Fred and Henry, both of Sarnia, and her aunt, Mrs. Yelland. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

MRS. N. WYATT.

Word reaches the Examiner from Melita, Manitoba, of the death of Mrs. N. Wyatt, who was laid to rest in Melita cemetery on Friday, January 9, when a large number of friends attended to pay their last respects to the memeroy of one who had lived in that district for the past twenty-five years.

Mrs. Wyatt was the youngest daughter of the late Sabina and Robert Phillips of Devonshire, England. Her marriage to Nicholas Wyatt took place in the Old Country in August 1876, and she accompanied her husband to Canada in September of the same year. Port Hope was her first home in this country, but later the young couple moved to Millbrook and resided there until going to the West in 1905. The late Mrs. Wyatt was in her 76th year, at the time of her death.

WILLIAM PATRICK MACPHERSON

There passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital, at ten o'clock this morning, William Patrick MacPherson, following a serious operation last Friday evening.

The deceased, who was forty-two years old on the 6th of this month, was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacPherson. He was born in Peterborough, and lived here practically all his life, with the exception of one and a half years spent in Western Canada as a commercial traveller, and four years with the Mechanical Transport Service overseas in the Great War. He was actively identified during his life in this city with his brothers in the firm of F. R. J. MacPherson & Company, Limited, of which he was a director.

Of the late Mr. MacPherson, it might well be said, in the words of the poet: "He was a friend indeed, with all a friend's best virtues shining bright. It was no broken reed you leaned on, when you trusted in his might."

Although of a very quiet disposition, "Bill," as he was affectionately known, had a large circle of friends who loved and respected him for the sterling worth of his character. He had an outstanding quality of warm friendliness and fidelity that wrought bonds of enduring fibre between him and those who knew him. He was absolutely self-sacrificing at all times and never hesitated a moment when he could do a favor for a friend. There are very few, if any, of those who cared for him who can remember ever having a cross word with Bill. To young and old alike, he proved himself ever to be a loyal and warm-hearted gentleman.

Senior members of musical circles in the city will remember him as a member of the old Mandolin Club that played constantly at church and social affairs in the city. He was also a loyal member of the Knights of Columbus and of the Holy Name Society, and was an enthusiastic member and captain of K. of C. bowling teams during several years past.

Survivors are his three brothers: Angus, James (who is at present ill in St. Joseph's Hospital), and Frank all of this city, also two sisters. Mrs. Walter Young of Young's Point and Mrs. Thomas Deforge, of Peterborough. There are also three aunts: Mrs. James Carroll of Young's Point, Sister Mary Francis Regis of Brockville and Sister Mary Bernardine of Gananoque, and an uncle, Mr. Matthew Young of Young's Point. The Rev. C. Carroll, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception is a first cousin.

The remains will be taken from St. Joseph's Hospital to the residence of his brother Angus, at 533 Patterson Street. The funeral will be held at nine o'clock on Saturday morning from St. Peter's Cathedral to St. Peter's Cemetery.

"Friend, say not good-night! But in some brighter clime, bid us good mornins!"

5 Fire Calls Turned In In Twenty-Four Hours

Five fire calls have been reported since noon yesterday, the largest of which was in the Canadian General Electric, Wire Department building.

It is thought that the fire was started by an acetylene torch. A spark must have found its way into some soft wood and after the workmen left at 4.30 p.m., had gradually smouldered and burst into flame. At 9.42 p.m. an alarm was received by the Fire Department, and when they arrived on the scene the flames had attacked the joists. The fire was soon put under control.

At 11.46 a.m. yesterday a chimney fire broke out at 33 Jackson avenue. The fire was extinguished with chemicals. Another chimney fire at 183 Mark street brought the Fire Department out at 1.32 p.m., but was put under control in the same manner. An alarm was sent in from 621 George street north at 9.08 p.m., for a chimney fire, but it had burnt itself out when the fire-fighters arrived.

Trouble with a sprinkler caused an alarm to be registered at the Fire Hall for a supposed fire in the Maple Leaf Milling Co., at Dalhousie and George, at 6.23 a.m. to-day. The error was discovered when the Fire Department arrived at the mill.

BENNETT PLANS VISIT TO WASHINGTON

Ferguson Sails for New Post in London

ADVERTISING IS WHAT IS NEEDED TO HELP CANADA

Herbert Webb Addresses Members of Kiwanis Club at Weekly Luncheon.

THREE NEW MEMBERS.

Greatest Trouble With Canada To-day is an Inferiority Complex.

Advertising, while it may be partly responsible for present economic ills, can be used as the greatest factor in speeding up industry and adapting methods to meet the existing situation, stated Herbert Webb son of Rev. J. R. Webb former pastor of Murray Street Baptist Church, in addressing the noon luncheon today of the Kiwanis Club.

A brief outline of advertising's place in the business world and the various phases of advertising were explained by Mr. Webb, who is an active worker in the advertising field. By cleverly tracing the early history of Peterborough from the settling of Peter Robinson on the banks of the Monabee, Mr. Webb pointed out how barter he had given place to trade; and then with the extending trade how advertising as a greater aid to merchandising had grown up.

"Advertising is blamed for the many ills besetting business to-day" affirmed Mr. Webb. "It is claimed that advertising has created a demand for things which people have purchased and can not pay for. True, much of the present condition is due to over-selling, but advertising can serve industry and business greatly at the present time. It can speed up certain industries.

"The greatest trouble with Canada to-day in my opinion is an inferiority complex. When we look at the starving millions in Russia and China and the economic situation in other countries we realize how well off we really are. What we need is to concentrate our efforts. We should not scrap present merchandising methods but adapt ourselves to existing problems.

Lucky to "Assist Unfortunate"

"With production greater than the demand and older people finding it impossible to find employment, in my opinion the solution is for the lucky ones to assist the ones not so lucky. The advertisers' job is to speed up that process" declared Mr. Webb.

Fred Brown, of Lakefield, Charlie Cumming and J. Wells Fraser were welcomed into membership of the club by Dr. F. C. Neal, who described the principles of Kiwanis. Mr. Fraser was formerly member of the club.

A real treat for Peterborough was the way President John I. Allen described the Kiwanis Ice Carnival, which is to be staged in the Brock Street arena on February 6. Some of the attractions will be: A tug of war between 20 men of the C.G.E. and 20 employees of the Nashua Paper Company; a hockey match in costume between Peterborough and Lindsay Kiwanians, a great costume skate; and a one-legged skater.

Adding much to the musical season will be the appearance at the assembly hall of the Collegiate on February 4 of the Hart House quartet, one of the famed quartets of the continent. In February 13 the Kiwanis Club will stage a midnite show at the Capitol Theatre, Mr. Allen announced.

Charlie Cook was booster of the day for Jack Comstock and prize winners were: W. H. Friel, Bert Wainman, and Mark Bredin.

PIONEER MINISTER DIES

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 23.—Rev. William Henderson, one of the oldest Methodist ministers in Ontario, died late yesterday at his home here in his 90th year.

Deceased has served as pastor of Methodist churches in Three Rivers, Que.; Brampton, Ont.; and Gananoque, Ont., up until the time he retired from active service 15 years ago. The late Mr. Henderson was a native of Lakefield, Que. His body will be removed to Blenheim, Ont., for interment.

80 Hotel Waiters Will Split $10,000

HAVANA, Jan. 23 (C.P.)—When a waiter in the Hotel National turned up late for work the other day his union local fined him ten lottery tickets worth $2.50, which went into a general pot to be shared by his colleagues.

To-day the hotel's eighty waiters were dividing $10,000, the ten tickets were part of the grand prize in the lottery.

"Ripper" Victim Found Near London

LONDON, Jan. 23. — A lamp lighter going his rounds near the Black Heath football field early this morning found the mutilated body of Louise Steel, eighteen year old housemaid, beaten and slashed in a manner reminiscent of "Jack the Ripper," who terrorized London thirty years ago.

Scotland Yard found indications that she defended herself vigorously, for her shoe was gripped like a club in the stiffened fingers.

In recent months there has been an unusual number of brutal murders of women in London.

STEEG CABINET IS OVERTHROWN

Plane to Stabilize Price of Wheat at $2 Started Fireworks.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

PARIS, Jan. 23. — The French Chamber of Deputies last night overthrew the Government of Premier Theodore Steeg, thereby serving notice that France is not going to pay $2.00 a bushel for wheat when it is selling for 80 cents in Chicago and around 60 cents in Winnipeg.

The Cabinet fell by a vote of 293 against 283, after an existence of five and one-half weeks, and straightaway prepared its resignation for submission to President Gaston Doumergue, who accepted it.

A government plan to stabilize the price of wheat at $2.000 a bushel started the fireworks.

BLAME DIVIDED IN SHIP SHELLING

Responsibility For Loss of 27 Lives Lies Between Santa Cruz Fort and Captain.

MARINE COURT DECIDES.

HAMBURG, Germany, Jan. 23.—The Maritime Court of Inquiry which has been investigating the shelling of the Hamburg-American passenger liner Baden last October by Brazilian revolutionaries in Rio de Janeiro harbor, to-day returned a verdict dividing the blame between the Brazilians and the ship's captain.

The Court held that the blame for the twenty-seven victims of the shelling lay in the first place with the Santa Cruz fort whose unintelligible signals led to another fort firing the fatal shot, and secondarily with Captain Rolin, who overlooked a note on his sailing permit that he was to communicate with Santa Cruz.

WORKMAN HURT BY DRILL

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Jan. 23. — Struck on the head by a pneumatic drill while working on a plumbing contract at the Eugene F. Phillips Electrical Works construction to-day, Dale Price, 20, Brockville, was rushed to the hospital with a serious brain injury. He is unconscious and an X-ray examination is impossible. Price crawled under the drill to investigate its work and was struck on the head by it.

GENERAL DISARMAMENT PARLEY.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 23. — (A.P.)— A General World Disarmament Conference will be called in the later part of January, 1932, the League of Nations Council decided to-night.

Police Stirred Up In $50,000 Swindle

CHICAGO, Jan. 23. (CP)—The police investigation of the swindle in which Mrs. Myrtle Tanner Blacklidge, Federal revenue official, said she lost $50,000 loaned her by Edward R. Litsinger, wealthy member of the Cook County Board of Review, was concentrated to-day on an effort to find Jules "Nicky" Arnstein, New York confidence man suspected of having been the author of the plot.

Both police and Federal agents were seeking Arnstein as one of the three men who vanished with the $50,000 which Litsinger lent to Mrs. Blacklidge, collector of international revenue for Northern Illinois, and which she said she lost in a faro game with the trio in a Springfield, Ill., hotel.

BIDS FRIENDS LAST FAREWELL AT SAINT JOHN

Expresses Appreciation to Compatriots For Generous Treatment in Past.

Great Opportunities Ahead.

New Commissioner Scheduled to Speak at Two Meetings Shortly After Arrival.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Jan. 23. —(CP)—An expression of confidence in the future of Canada coupled with a resolve to bend his best efforts towards interpreting Canadian spirit in the heart of the Empire was voiced by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, High Commissioner of Canada to Great Britain, and former Premier of Ontario, before he embarked on board the Canadian Pacific liner "Montcalm" here today. Mr. Ferguson in a prepared statement bade goodbye to Canada and thanked his compatriots for the "generous treatment" he had always received at their hands.

The High Commissioner's statement follows:

"In leaving home to assume my new duties in the Motherland I desire to express to the people of Canada my warm appreciation of the generous treatment I always received at their hands during my long period of public activity. I should like to assure them as well that I am deeply conscious that the great opportunity there is to serve Canada at the heart of the Empire I trust I may be able to so interprete Canadian spirit and Canadian conditions as to make secure our desire for closer relationship between Canada and Great Britain and the other Dominions. We all realize that Canada is on the eve of a great era of development which will present great opportunities for investment of capital and increased population to enable us to make our proper contribution towards the expansion and strengthening of the Empire.

Hands Strengthened

"May I add that we feel that our hands have been strengthened and our purpose sustained by the great outpouring of goodwill and kind wishes which we have experienced during the recent weeks. May the prosperity of our country and the welfare of the Empire ever command the best efforts of all of us."

Mr. Ferguson has already had numerous invitations to address public meetings in London, but for the immediate future he has accepted only two. On February 10 he will speak to the Canada Club and a federation of Women's Institutes.

On the Montcalm Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were greeted by Hon. Hugh McLean, Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, Hon B. M. Baxter, Premier of the Province and other notables.

INVENTION SHOWS BUILDING'S SWAY

Magnetic Needle By Electric Contact Measures Movement Invisible to Eye.

OPENS NEW POSSIBILITIES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (C.P.). — A magnetic needle which can be placed in the lobby of any skyscraper to trace the building's sway in the wind was exhibited to the American Society of Civil Engineers to-day.

By electrical contact it measures the movement invisible to the eye, much of which hitherto has only been guessed with the aid of mathematics or from studying the accidents it caused.

Dr. F. C. Brown, director of the Museum of Science and Industry, where the instrument is part of the exhibit in connection with the Engineers' annual convention, said it "opens new possibilities for measuring stresses and strains.

"It can be applied to almost any moving part in an airplane, and the aviator can observe the kind of stresses being developed in any open or concealed member. It has been used already in finding stresses in the driving rod of a steam locomotive moving at 90 miles an hour, and the strains in the rail as each wheel passes."

The instrument, a "magnetic estensometer," was developed in the research laboratory of the Westinghouse Company at Pittsburgh.

Witchcraft Wins Day in British House As Commons Lacks Eight for Quorum

LONDON January 23 (By George Blackton, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — For a few brief moments the weird sisters of witchcraft hovered over the House of Commons this afternoon—and the House was counted out.

Second reading had been moved of a private Bill to relieve spiritualists and mediums from prosecution under old witchcraft and vagrancy laws, which were said to date from the eighteenth century.

Lieut.-Colonel F. E. Fremantle, Conservative, St. Alban's, objected, arguing that the practice of spiritualism had disastrous effects. He could not see why spiritualists should be detached, as far as legal penalties were concerned, from the strange creatures that rode on brooms in the sky.

But Lieut.-Colonel Fremantle had not gone very far before a member rose to point out the House did not have a quorum. Debate was suspended while distant bells tinkled.

Into this atmosphere of wizardry the first member to wander in was none other than the Welsh Wizard himself. Rt. Hon. David Lloyd-George looked around with a questioning smile as the members laughed and cheered.

A few more came in. But even then there was not enough. The Deputy-Speaker counted 32 members. The House was eight short of a quorum.

And the talks of spiritualism and witchcraft went over to another day.

ANNA PAVLOVA NOTED DANCER DIES OF CHILL

World's Greatest Ballerina Succumbs After Few Days' Illness.

BORN IN RUSSIA.

Was Acclaimed and Known in Almost Every Country—in 45th Year.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 23.— Death to-day stilled forever the fragile form of Anna Pavlova, whose dancing stirred millions, civilized man and savage alike. She would have been 46 years old January 31.

Pleurisy and influenza, contracted early this week after she had been held for hours by a railroad accident in a waiting train at Dijon, France, rang down the curtain upon a life which for 35 years she devoted to depicting in rhythmatic movement the beauty she saw around her.

Doctor Gave Assistance

With her at the end, which was peaceful, were her husband and accompanist, Victory D'Andre, two Dutch physicians, and her own Russian doctor, Prof. Valerski, who Wednesday resorted to a pulmonary operation in a vain attempt to save her.

Death interrupted her plans to interpret for Occidentals what she had found of grace and beauty in a recent visit to Japan, China, and Asiatic countries. Upon completion of this project she intended to retire, fulfilling a promise that she would leave the stage while in the prime of life.

Denounced by the Bolsheviki as the "Darling of Aristocrats," she died in virtual exile from the Russia in which she was born, where she began her ballet lessons at the age of ten, and where she achieved her first success. In recent years Communist influences had led even to rejection of annual contributions of $500 to other Russian dancers.

Wedded When 22

It was during her last visit to the United States, 1924, that she announced her marriage to D'Andre, her accompanist, later revealing that it had taken place seventeen years before. Other details of her private life she kept secret, with the plea that the public regards the artist as an illusion, and she preferred to remain so.

She was received everywhere with acclaim, in the capitals of Europe, in Canada and the United States, and in Maori and Zulu camps of New Zealand and Africa.

Probably her most famous ballet was the Dance of the Dying Swan, in which she made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, in 1910. She was considered the world's greatest ballerina, and ranked with Elsler, Grisi, and Taglioni of the early 19th century.

Although she departed from rigid classic forms for her conceptions of the ballet, she criticized modern interpretations such as those of Isadora Duncan and to-day's jazz dancing. Her temperamental flights led to occasional quarrels with her entourage.

She maintained a home in Paris, and at Ivy House, Hampstead, England, where she kept seven swans, her affection for which presumably was inspired by the Swan Dance by which she was best known.

Phenomena of Sky Seen in Vermont

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.— The attention of astronomers was called to-day to a meteor of remarkable size and brilliance which was observed darting across the skies last night at various points from New Jersey to Vermont.

Hundreds of persons in Elmira, N.Y., saw what they described as a ball of fire with two lines of light behind to sweep across the heavens from south to north shortly after six pm. Mary Clegg Griffin, Professor Astronomy at Vassar College, said the object was a meteor. It was variously described by those who saw it.

AVIATRIX HEADS FOR NEW ALBANY

Mrs. Victor Bruce Flown Round World to Drop Flag at Mother's Birthplace.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—When Mrs. Victor Bruce, British aviatrix, drops a flag on the birthplace of her mother in New Albany, Ind., Sunday, she will have fulfilled the purpose of her round-the-world air and sea journey.

"And I don't care what happens after that," she said to-day.

The plucky flier, rested overnight after a "bumpy" hop from St. Louis yesterday, and planned to set out at 1 p.m. to-day for Indianapolis.

"I've flown 17,000 miles, over 23 countries and across three continents to reach the home where my mother was born, 62 years ago, since the eleventh of last December," she said. "And when I reach that Indiana City I will have been repaid for any hardships that I've undergone."

RUDY IS GREETED WITH GRAPEFRUIT AT BOSTON SHOW

Crooning Idol Pays No Attention as Missiles Hurtle Past.

OPENING DAY.

Three Youths Read "Riot Act" at Police Station and Freed.

BOSTON, Jan. 23.— Rudy Vallee, crooning idol of thousands of radio listeners, was greeted with two overripe grapefruit during his opening at the Metropolitan theatre here last night.

It was the final performance of the opening day of the engagement and Rudy was in the midst of one of his characteristic crooning melodies. Without warning, a grapefruit was hurled—it did not hit the singer, maestro but one of them did strike the drummer's cymbals, and the other splattered over the stage props.

The audience gasped. Murmurs were audible throughout the house. But Rudy kept right on crooning. He took no notice of the interruption until he had finished the song.

Takes Hecklers to Task.

Then, stepping to the front of the stage, he addressed the audience in a mild but decided tone. He took the hecklers to task for their discourtesy and added that there might be some in the audience who enjoyed hearing him. He said that many had paid admission for that purpose and that those who disliked his singing were not compelled to stay.

In the meantime, three young men whose names were withheld, were taken into custody by ushers and turned over to the police.

The show went on and the young men went to police Station 4, where a desk sergeant "read the riot act" to them. Vallee and the theatre management declined to press charges against the youths and they were released.

State Department and Canadian Legation Officials Decline to Discuss Matter.

NO VITAL QUESTIONS.

Probability Held Out That St. Lawrence Waterway Question May Be Subject.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23. — (CP)—Premier R. B. Bennett of Canada, is considering a visit to Washington in the immediate future, at which time he would confer with President Hoover. State Department and Canadian Legation officials declined today to discuss the conversations which have taken place regarding the projected visit. It was certain, however, that the premier hoped to be able to come to Washington before the opening of the Canadian Parliament probably next month.

One report was that he would arrive in Washington within a week, but this could not be substantiated. It was said authoritatively no matter of great international importance has caused the Prime Minister to consider a visit to the United States Capital. He would have an opportunity to discuss with President Hoover, Canadian-American problems, if plans for the trip are included.

St. Lawrence Question

One of the most important questions between the two Governments at present and on which the next move is up to Canada is that of the St. Lawrence waterway development.

Before he left to attend the Imperial Conference in London, the Premier had before him from the United States Government a note asking the attitude of his Government toward a pushing forward of the St. Lawrence project. The Canadian Government has not replied to that note.

SCOUT UNIFORM RAISES COMMENT

Leaders to Decide Whether New Branch Will Wear Shorts or Not.

DOMINION MEET FEBRUARY.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 23.—(C.P.).—Whether Canadas Sea Scouts are to wear "shorts," long a part of the Boy Scouts' official uniform, or bell-bottomed trousers has aroused much discussion among Scout leaders. The problem is one of many to be considered at the Dominion Executive meeting of the Boy Scout organization here next month.

Prominent Scout leaders of the Dominion met in the capital yesterday, all being members of a special committee appointed by the Executive committee to study sea scouting, a comparatively new branch of Scout activity. They are charged with the task of making recommendations to extend and improve the nautical branch of the movement. Any decisions reached at Thursday's meeting will be brought before the February general session.

Canadians Unknown In South America

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 23.—Canadians, as such, are unknown in South America, declared G. R. Stevens, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Lima, Peru, in an address here last night under the auspices of the Professional Institute of the Civil Service. The South American classifies Canadians as either Englishmen or Americans.

"The English are the South Americans' idea of what a foreigner should be," he stated. "For the English possess perhaps more than any other foreigner the quality of "sympatico," that untranslatable Spanish term which embodies courtesy, tolerance and understanding. This great English reputation is part of Canada's inheritance. We should not jeopardize it."

FILLING OF POST IS HANGING FIRE

Four Names Mentioned For Governor-General Ruled Out As Not Available.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—(C. P. Cable). —A decision will be shortly reached as to the appointment of a successor to Lord Willingdon as Governor-General of Canada, it was learned to-day by the Canadian Press. Premier R. B. Bennett has been in telephone communication with Lord Stamfordham, Secretary to His Majesty the King. It is probable the final selection will not be among the four names most prominently mentioned, namely the Duke of Abercorn, the Duke of Atholl, the Earl of Athlone and the Earl of Cromer, each of these for one reason or another, not being immediately available. Two or three other names are under consideration, it is understood.

The Duke of Abercorn is serving a second term as Governor-General of Northern Ireland. The Duchess of Atholl is a member of Parliament which is possibly a reason why a move to Ottawa is not possible. The Athlones are just returning from a seven year Vice-Regalty in South Africa and it is believed are averse to another term abroad immediately. Lord Cromer, who has been frequently mentioned, is Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, receiving the appointment in 1932.

In an interview with the Canadian Press to-day, M. Henry expressed deep pleasure at his appointment as Minister to Canada, which was united by so many ties with France. He said that Canada would be, particularly for Madame Henry and himself, a second home because Monsieur De La Barre, one of Madame Henry's ancestors, was Governor of Canada in the seventeenth century.

Viceroy Irwin Decides to Set Gandhi Free

ARRANGE DETAILS IN ORDER TO FOIL DEMONSTRATION

Mahatma Been Held in Yeroda Prison, Poona, Since May 4.

NATIONALIST LEADER.

Freeing of Political Prisoners to Come on Promise of Peace.

NEW DELHI, India, January 23 (C.P.). — Viceroy Lord Irwin, it was understood here to-day, already has made a decision to release Mahatma Gandhi, imprisoned Nationalist leader. Only the details of his removal from Yeroda Prison, in Poona, so as to avoid a public demonstration, remain to be arranged.

The Mahatma was arrested last May 4, more than a month after he had led a group of All Indian National Congress volunteers from Allahabad down to the sea at Dandhi, where they manufactured salt in defiance of British law.

He had hoped for arrest early in the march believing that his incarceration would align divergent Indian elements behind him in the passive war for Indian independence, but for many weeks the British Government arrested his aides but left him scrupulously alone. Police finally awakened him in the middle of the night at a camp near the seashore and escorted him by special train and automobile to especially prepared quarters in the Yeroda Prison, Poona, where he has remained since, more an interne than a prisoner.

Many of his followers had hoped that one of the results of the Round Table Conference just completed at London would be release of him and other political prisoners. In his closing address, Prime Minister MacDonald promised that when peace and calm were restored political prisoners would be freed.

ATTITUDE CHANGE BY POLICE BODY

Toronto Commission Willing to Open Meetings to Press in Future.

DISCUSS FREE SPEECH.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 23. — Two notable changes in the attitude of the Toronto Police Commission regarding "free speech" and admission of the press to commission meetings are forecast by Mayor William J. Stewart in a statement following a meeing of the police body yesterday.

Formulation of a policy aiming at regulation of public halls and public meetings will be undertaken by the Commission today, Mayor Stewart announced. Presentation by the Mayor of a resolution defining procedure in the future and a conference with deputations from organizations interested in "free speech" will mark the second discussion of the controversy.

Yesterday's meeting was- harmonious in every respect Mayor Stewart stated The latter was elected chairman of the body and announced the Commission had unanimously favored free speech within the law; definition of a regulatory policy for public meetings and discussion of free speech and kindred matters with any interested citizens at any Police Commission meeting.

While the initial meeting of the 1931 Commission was held in camera meetings, henceforth will be open to the press. A resolution to this effect was passed unanimously.

Synchronizing with the Police Commission's meeting Governors of University of Toronto conferred at a separate conclave. They met to discuss a letter signed by 68 professors of the University which criticised the Police Commission's policy regarding free speech.

FAVORS LORD'S DAY ACT.

Bennett Would Have Unemployment Insurance Studied By Inter-Gov't Group.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—In all probability a deficit of $100,000,000 will be shown in Canada's national budget this year, but conditions are improving.

Radio broadcasting will be the subject of legislation at the next session of the Dominion Parliament; nationalization is being opposed and supported.

There will be no delay in establishing Federal Old Age Pensions which will also be the subject of legislation at the forthcoming session.

Federal grants for technical education, cut off by the late Liberal Government, will be restored.

Exploitation of wage-earners in industries benefited by the recent tariff revision is being investigated by Senator C. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, following charges of wage-slashing in the shoe industry.

Study Unemployment Insurance.

Unemployment insurance will be studied by an inter-governmental inquiry, the Prime Minister believing that employers, employees and the State should be contributing parties to any scheme considered.

The Lord's Day Act has been of incalculable value to Canada and shall not be repealed.

These, in substance, were the highlights of important declarations made by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett before two delegations here yesterday.

The deputations thus addressed were from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, both of which annually lay their views before the administration in advance of the opening of Parliament.

Newfoundland Has 11 Living Knights

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Jan. 23.— The knighthood conferred on Hon. Tasker Cook, for many years Mayor of St. John's, in the New Year's honor list, brought the number of living knights in Newfoundland to eleven. Rt. Hon. Sir William Lloyd and Rt. Hon. Sir Richard Squires, are Knight Commanders of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. Knights of the British Empire include Sir John Crosbie, Sir William Coaker, and Sir John Bennett. Members of the order of Knights Batchelor are Sir William Horwood, Sir. Edgar Bowring, Sir Joseph Outerbridge, Sir. Marmaduke Winter, Sir. Alfred Morine and Sir. Tasker Cook.

In referring to the honor conferred on Newfoundland's latest knight a commentator has been at pains to clarify the precedence of the various orders. The principal order of chivalry is the Garter, and one of the thirty-seven members, only one, Sir Austen Chamberlain, is not a peer. The same is true for the Order of the Thistle, reserved for Scottish noblemen. The third order is that of St. Patrick, reserved for Irish peers. After these comes the Order of Merit, which doe not confer knighthood, but is confined to a distinguished company of twenty-four members.

One Tooth Aches, So Whole Jury Goes to Dentist

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 23.—(C.P.).—One toothache took 14 men to a dentist here yesterday.

Walter Canon, a juror, hearing the trial of Sam C. King, accused in connection with the failure more than a year ago of the Bank of Ensley, reported to Judge John P. McCoy that he was suffering from toothache and asked relief.

It was first proposed that a dentist be brought to court. Later it was proposed that a bailiff take the juror to see a dentist.

Then it was pointed out that jurors must remain together during a criminal trial.

So to end the difficulty and the toothache, the court instructed two bailiffs to take the entire jury to a dentist with Cannon, "either to laugh with him or sympathize with him," as they saw fit.

HODGINS REPORT BRINGS PROTEST

Deputations From Insurance Companies Appeal to Premier Henry.

GOV'T TO STUDY ACTION.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 23 (CP)—The report of Mr. Justice Hodgin's on his two-year Royal Commission enquiry into Ontario's automobile insurance rates was the target for considerable criticism when a deputation from several insurance companies waited on Premier George S. Henry at Parliament Buildings here yesterday.

Members of the deputation were exceptionally critical of that section of Justice Hodgin's report declaring automobile owners had paid $654,316 too much in premiums during 1929. They also appealed against that recommendation in the report which would by order-in-council empower the superintendent of insurance to order any adjustment in the rates which he saw fit.

The points raised by the delegation will be taken under advisement by the Government and will be considered, along with the report before any further effecting legislation or proclamation is issued, the Premier announced.

BENNETT SEES REVENUE SLUMP OF $100,000,000

Claims Large Canadian National Railways Obligations Must Be Provided For.

FINANCIAL LIMITATIONS.

Serious Difficulties Loom in Way of Developing Trade With China.

OTTAWA, Ont., January 23 (C.P.). — Development of Canadian trade with the Orient was among the matters under consideration when a delegation from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, representing organizations in all parts of the Dominion, waited upon the Government yesterday afternoon.

Premier Bennett said there were serious difficulties in the way of developing trade with China. Hon. H. M. Marler, Canadian Minister to Tokio, recently had been to Nanking, accompanied by the Canadian Trade Commissionr at Shanghai and had cabled a report to this Government about his conversation with the Chinese.

Mr. Bennett reminded the delegation that, in carrying out its policies, the Government must bear in mind certain financial limitations. He mentioned, for example that there is a slump of $100,000,000 in the national revenue during the present fiscal year, that arrangements must soon be made for the refunding of Government loans totalling $1,000,000,000, and that large Canadian National Railways obligations will have to be provided for.

WHEAT BUYING TO BE CONTINUED BY WRIGLEY CO.

Canadian President Extends Period of Exchange Policy Indefinitely.

SALES INCREASING.

Fifty-seven Cent Price Considered Splendid Investment—Below Production Cost.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 23 (C.P.)—Extension of its original plan to purchase wheat from Western Canada farmers in exchange for goods from May, 1931, to an indefinite period, has been announced by Allan Ross, President of the Canadian Wrigley Company.

Mr. Allan stated the plan had been successful and the Western grain Provinces now are the highest sales district in Canada for his company's products.

It is reported business men, not only in Canada, but throughout the continent are now considering the idea of exchanging goods for farm products.

When asked how long his company was willing to continue on the exchange basis, Mr. Ross stated "Canadian wheat at 57 cents a bushel is much below the production cost. Every bushel we receive at present prices is a bargain. We intend to hold all the wheat we acquire until someone is ready to offer us a decent price for it. Wheat will keep very nicely for two years or more. No selling price below 75 cents a bushel will be of interest. If all else fails, nature will take care of some country's big wheat crop some day."

FLAVELLE URGES UNITED EFFORTS

Counsels Canadians to Think More and Talk Less of Difficulties.

COMMERCE BANQUET.

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 23. — At the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce here last night, the principal speaker was Sir Joseph Flavelle, of Toronto, who dwelt on the present economic situation, counselling Canadians to emulate their own example of dignified resignation of war days, and to think more but talk less of their difficulties.

Without attempting to minimise the seriousness of the crisis, the speaker referred to the great need for united effort on the part of the entire citizenry of the Dominion. Canada's wealth of natural resources and her geographical position made her safe and practically independent of happenings in other parts of the world.

Referring briefly to the stock market situation following the crash of last year, Sir Joseph classed the results of the crash as having only a temporary detrimental effect and with no serious bearing in hindering the eventual progress of the Dominion.

The financial statement was presented by the secretary. This showed a deficit of $78.41. The report however was a good one, showing that larger prizes had been awarded at the 1930 fair, more money being paid out in that respect, and that the fair had been bigger and better. Moving the adaption of this report, G. A. Kingston pointed out that it was more desirable to have a slight deficit and a large fair than a small fair and a balance. Dr. O'Hara seconded this motion.

Some of the features of this report were as follows: Total receipts amounted to $3,386.69. Included in this amount were the admission fees to the fair totalling $1,211.65 and grand stand receipts which were $13.10 and the various grants and membership fees.

The big expenditure was the prize awards, and these listed with the money offered and the number of entries are tabulated below:

The auditors' report was submitted by John Locke, which proved to be correct, Mr. Locke congratulating the secretary on his good work.

Prize Money Going Outside

The president called upon members of the board of directors to voice opinions on any questions. Mr. VanVolkenburg brought up the matter of what seemed an unfairness to local men who exhibit owing to the fact that outsiders take away much of the prize money because they specialize along certain lines and practice what he termed truck exhibiting. He thought that this threw cold water on many of the local contestants and suggested that special prizes be offered for local exhibitors, or the re-arranging of the prize list. Also there was a tendency to exhibit the same stuff, and this applied to grain in particular, from year to year.

T. J. Horkins spoke on this question, deploring this fact but stating that he was glad that the fair drew from all parts of the country as he thought that this was the right way to build it up.

Alex Hume put forward the suggestion that the society build more accommodation for cattle, as the lack of this was a crying need of the fair at the present time.

Mr. Horkins came back with the suggestion that a new building was also wanted as the present one was far too small to accommodate all the goods, and did not offer any encouragement to the merchants of Campbellford to show their wares at the fair, because of lack of space.

Mr. VanVolkenburg, called upon to speak on the subject, stressed the fact that more room was needed for the exhibiting of produce, ladies' work and the smaller goods, pointing out that if increased accommodation were available it would induce the merchants of town to exhibit each year.

The building committee was heard from on this subject, Mr. Duncan and Mr. Sarginson giving prices of material and labor. On motion, however, this matter was left with the new board of directors to handle.

Delegates were appointed to the different annual meetings. To the Ontario Associate Fair and Exhibition the secretary, J. N. Stone was appointed to attend and the Central Ontario Fairs Association meeting held at Belleville on January 29, W. M. Stephens and John Locke were appointed as delegates, with secretary Stone to attend if possible.

It was also decided on motion to enter the Field Crop Competition for oats and corn this year, and to obtain departmental judges in all classes. Affiliation fees were also sent to the Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibitions.

SOCIETY PLANS PUBLIC DINNER

Millbrook Golden Links Mission Circle Discusses Means of Raising Money.

DISTRICT NEWS

MILLBROOK, Jan. 23. (Examiner Correspondence.)—The initial meeting of the Golden Links Mission Circle for the current year was held on Tuesday evening, at the home of the president, Miss Marjorie Sayles, with a good attendance of members present, and a number of important business items given consideration.

The president took the chair and during the worship period gave a talk, based on Revelation 21:13: "On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates;" covering in her remarks a constructive address given by one of the leaders in the devotional hour at the Winter School which Miss Sayles attended the previous week at Cobourg.

In the business section of the meeting, after discussion on ways and means of raising the necessary finances during the year, it was decided to hold a hot supper on Saturday, February 14, in the ice-cream parlors of the Waverly building, with Saint Valentine decorations to add to the attractiveness of the event. The general public will be at liberty to attend this function.

In May a play, "The Spinsters' Return," companion to the "Spinsters' Convention" recently presented locally by the Boneka Bible Class, will be sponsored by the mission Circle.

The president reported purchase of the new study book, "That They May Be One," by Mrs. (Rev.) F. C. Stephenson, which the Circle members will take up this year at their monthly gatherings.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the report of the study on "Canadian Missions' taken up at the Winter School by the president, in the mission study period which she attended.

A reading by Miss Marian O'Brian, and a piano solo by Miss Phyllis Kidd, were popular numbers on the program, and before dismissal the member ship of the circle was divided into four groups with the following as leaders: Misses Marian O'Brian; Jean L. Burnham, Dorothy McDowell and Miss Marjorie Sayles. The leaders will be responsible for one meeting in turn during the year, until the twelve months are covered.

During the social hour at the close Mrs. Sayles served delicious candy, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hostess, and her daughter, for the kind hospitality of their home for the helpful gathering.

Class Organizes.

The "Busy Bees" class of Saint Andrew's United Church Sunday School, Miss Charlotte Luxon teacher, organized for the current year following the school session on Sunday, the list of officers including:

President, Barbara Argue; Vice-pres., Beatrice McDowell; Secretary, Audrey Garside; Treasurer, Dorothy Smith; Books and Paper Secretary, Lenora Davis.

How to End RHEUMATISM

New Medicine Drives Rheumatic Poisons from Joints and Muscles.

EASES PAIN FIRST DAY.

Poisons in the blood settling in the joints and muscles cause rheumatism. You cannot get rid of rheumatic agony till every trace of these dangerous poisons is driven out of your system. That's why external remedies and pain deadening drugs only give temporary relief.

What you need is RU-MA, the new medicine that acts directly on the liver, stomach and blood, and expels through the natural channels of elimination the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatic misery.

No long waiting for your suffering to stop. RU-MA eases pain the first day and is the one rheumatism remedy guaranteed to free muscles and joints from all painful stiffness, swelling and lameness.

McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store has so much confidence in RU-MA that they want every rheumatic in town to try it and guarantee money-back if it does not end rheumatism.

The Best in Her Class

At the annual Atlantic Cat Club show held at New York, there were all classes of cats and all kinds of champions, but in the silver female open, class 47, there was one tabby who was the best in her class, and her name, "Lady of the Moon," owned by Miss Emma Payne, of Washington, D. C.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING HELD BY MARMORA UNITED CHURCH

Reports From Every Department Are Highly Satisfactory For Year's Work.

BOARD STEWARTS ELECTED.

MARMORA, Jan. 23 (Examiner Correspondence).—The annual congregational meeting of Marmora United Church was held at that place of worship on Thursday evening.

After the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and prayer by the pastor, Rev. F. H. Howard, the choir very creditably rendered the anthem, "Cry Out and Shout." Scripture reading by Rev. Mr. Howard was followed by another anthem, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

After a pleasing address by the pastor, G. B. Airhart made a brief statement with reference to the session of the church, dealing in particular with church membership. Mr. Airhart, as treasurer, also reported for the board of stewards, and voiced the debt which the board felt they owed their minister and the Ladies' Aid Society. He also paid tribute to the good feeling among members of the board.

Sunday School Report

After giving the report of the finances of the Missionary and Maintenance Fund, Rev. Mr. Howard, in the absence of F. S. Pearce, Sunday School Superintendent, gave the school's report. The enrollment is 143 besides which there are 11 teachers and officers; 56 on the cradle roll and 2 on the Home Department, making a grand total of 212. The total givings during 1930 were $328. Eleven members attended the Oak Lake School last summer. The C.G.I.T. has an enrollment of 25, besides which there are 12 boys in the Tuxis Square and 15 in the Trail Rangers.

Mrs. H. R. Haacke presented a very fine report for the Ladies' Aid. Of $974.66, the receipts for the year, about $100.00 remains on hand after expenditure to good purpose.

G. Woodhouse rendered a beautiful solo, "Behold a Sower."

Dr. Bell, recording steward, in his report, touched upon the proposed absorption of the Cordova Mission by Havelock and Marmora charges.

Board of Stewards

The Board of Stewards for 1931 was elected as follows: F. R. Wells, E. C. Prentice, C. W. Gladney, F. N. Marett, Dr. D. Thomson, T. E. Laycock, Dr. Bell, H. W. Sabine, R. A. Elliott, F. A. Bapty, H. R. Haacke and W. Pack.

The following were re-elected to the Church Property and Pasonage Committee: A. Sweet, W. A. Anderson, F. S. Pearce, D. E. Bell, W. E. Gould and C. Spry.

The singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," brought the meeting to a close, after which the ladies served refreshments.

Deaf Children Gain By Modern Teaching

Oral Method Produces Gratifying Results With Deaf Pupils at Belleville.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 23 (By The Canadian Press)—"No finer demonstration of the rapid advance which has been made in the care and treatment of deaf children can be found than at the Ontario School for the Deaf at Belleville,' says The Ottawa Journal. "No sign of sadness, no sense of handicap or futility is to be found amongst these children, and despite the fact that 90 per cent of them cannot hear a single word, they carry on animated conversations, play games, sing and dance just the same as other little ones who have no such handicap."

Referring to the Christmas entertainment put on by the deaf children at the school The Journal says it was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable Christmas pantomimes that could be imagined. "It was a night of romance to which the friends of the school came as spectators and left with amazement in their minds over the accomplishments of the children who are so handicapped by their inability to hear," The Journal continues. "The chief marvel of this performance was that the children neither hear each other's voices nor the sounds of the music to which they dance and which is heard by the audience."

Further The Journal says: "Their wonderful work is explained by the use to which oral method is put, eliminating the sign language which used to mark off the deaf scholars from all others. Their precision of movement in rhythms is explained by their observation of vibrations which they received from the floor on which the piano is placed. Only 10 feet from the piano they caught these vibrations perfectly in all their dance numbers. Instructions stated that it would be almost impossible for those blessed with good hearing to carry on with such accuracy, but the deaf, both adults and children, develop with proper training such as they receive at the school almost superhuman powers of observation and concentration."

WINDOVER TAKES JAIL SENTENCE

Judge Huycke Finds That Man Can be Convicted Under Two Acts.

FOR SAME OFFENSE

"The sentence I must inflict upon you is that you be fined the sum of $200, and imprisonment for one month; and in default of payment of the fine to a further term of six months, dating from the 6th day of August, 1930," said His Honor Judge E. C. S. Huycke addresing Clarion Windover, 24, a resident of Rockford, Harvey township who appeared before him at the Judge's chambers recently for sentence.

"You understand that do you," asked His Honor—Yes, your 'worship' replied the accused, who will thus regain his fredom on March 6th, as he took the jail sentence.

In giving judgment in respect to this appeal, which reversed Police Magistrate O. A. Langley's decision, His Honor stated.

The Judgment

"This is an appeal by the Department against the decision of his Worship O. A. Langley, Esquire, Police Magistrate, at Peterborough."

"Windover is charged with a breach of th eprovisions of the Excise Act, Section 181. He was charged with this offence before the Learned Magistrate who acquitted him. The Department promptly appealed and the matter came before me in due course."

"Evidence was given which was conclusive as to the guilt of the defendant, and showed that he was in possession of liquor contrary to this section of the Act. It was shown during the progress of the case that the Magistrate had acquitted him on the ground that he had already been convicted under the Liquor Act of Ontario, and therefore he should not be prosecuted or convicted under another Act of an offence in some respects similar. Reference was made to Section 15 of the Criminal Code of Canada. This view was strongly urged before me in argument by Windover's counsel."

"With all due respects to the learned Police Magistrate I am unable to agree with him from the legal aspect. All the cases to which I have been referred, and of which I am cognizant, are wholly against this view. The following are some of the cases on this viewpoint states His Honor, in enumerating certain decisions, given by the Saskatchewan King's Bench and others from the law courts of Ontario, and Prince Edward Island.

"The jurisdictions of the Province and Dominion may overlap but do not conflict as in all these cases it is clearly laid down—"that the Parliament of Canada may draw into the domain of the criminal law an act which has hitherto punishable only under a Provincial Stature."

"Not only is this recognized as law in Ontario and Canada generally, but the same principle obtains in England, I refer to the King vs Tonks K.B. 1916. This decision is of the English Court of Criminal Appeal: also a further English case of the King vs Barron 2 K.B. 1914. All these cases, and many others, lay down the same principles by which I am bound, and I have therefore no hesitation in allowing the appeal, and finding the defendant guilty of the offence of which he is charged."
